Klan needs to ride again

Time for the Ku Klux Klan to night ride again.

Democrats in the Republican Party and Democrats are plotting to raise taxes in Alabama.

They do not understand how to eliminate expenses when money is needed in other areas. This socialist-communist idealogy sounds good to the ignorant, the uneducated, and the simple-minded people.

People who do not understand the constitution do not like to be responsible.

Slaves, just freed after the civil war, were not stupid. At times, they borrowed their former masters' robes and horses and rode through the night to frighten some evil doer. Sometimes they had to kill one or two of them, but so what.

This is the same so what used when Democrats got us into World War I and World War II. Then they got us fighting in Korea. Next when the industrial northeast wanted more money, they got us in the Vietnam war, and now into the Middle East war.

If you haven't noticed, they did away with the draft so their sons would not have to go into battle.

Seems like the Klan would be welcome to raid the gated communities up there. They call them compounds now.

Truly, they are the ruling class.

GENOCIDE 79

In his National Security Council Memorandum 46 (NCSM 46) of March 1978, Zbigniew Brzezinski (national Security Advisor to President Jimmy Carter) virtually declared covert war against the African and African American peoples. This document was characterized by Dr. Leonard Horowitz as "one of the most disturbing documents you will ever read" [and] "the grossest certification of U.S. Government hypocrisy, propaganda, and state-sponsored genocide the world has ever seen."[100] In this review of developments in sub-Saharan Africa, from the point of view of their possible impact on the black movement in the United States, Brzezinski described various measures to produce total psychosocial submission through nonlethal forms of political and population control. Primary concern focused on the "danger of being deprived of access to the enormous raw material resources of southern Africa," [described as] "vital for our defense needs."[101] Specifically, NSCM 46 alleged that, unless measures were taken to undermine or eliminate African leaders and suppress African political movements, The African continent might fall under Soviet control and influence. In keeping with the divide and rule method, recommendations pursuant to this policy focused essentially on the ways and means to foster division, conflict, and mistrust among the popular political movements in Africa and among African Americans.[102]

Such Malthusian policies are consistent with those advocated in the late 1960s by authors like Leonard Barnes and Stanislav Andreski. For Barnes, the key obstacle to African development was clearly the uncontrolled increase of the African population. This led him to suggest that for such development ever to occur, it might be necessary "to empty the continent of Africans and to replace them with much smaller numbers of, say, Chinese or Japanese or even Americans."[103] Andreski was of the opinion that industrialization was an option that was not available to Africa under the circumstances prevailing in the late sixties.[104]

Totally repugnant to the United States Republic Constitution for People under its Protection

INTRODUCTION:

The Plan first appeared in John A. Williams' 1967 novel, The Man Who Cried I Am, a fictionalized account of the life and death of Richard Wright. In the afterword to later editions, Williams compares the King Alfred Plan to intelligence programs devised by J. Edgar Hoover in the 1960s to monitor the movements of black militants. It also bears similarities to rumors in the early 1950s surrounding the McCarran Act, an anti-Communist law, in which political subversives were to be rounded up and placed in concentrations camps during a national emergency. When his novel was first published, Williams photocopied portions of the book detailing the King Alfred Plan and left copies in subway car seats around Manhattan. As a result, word of the King Alfred Plan spread throughout the black community and the truth of its existence was often assumed to be unchallenged. Performer and musician Gil Scott-Heron created the song "King Alfred Plan," included on his (1972) album Free Will that takes the Plan at face value. Jim Jones, head of the 'apostolic socialist' People's Temple, discussed the Plan at length in numerous recordings of his rant-style speeches both in the USA and in the Jonestown community in Guyana, treating it as completely genuine.

do not have such usable material in their dossiers have been approached to take government posts, mostly as ambassadors and primarily in African countries. The promise of these positions also has materially contributed to a temporary slow-down of Minority activities. However, we do not expect these slow-downs to be of long duration, because there are always new and dissident elements joining these organizations, with the potential power to replace the old leaders. All organizations and their leaders are under constant, 24-hour surveillance.
The organizations are:

1 - The Black Muslims
2 - Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)
3 - Congress of Racial Equality
4 - Uhuru Movement
5 - Group On Advanced Leadership (GOAL)
6 - Freedom Now Party (FNP)
7 - United Black Nationalists of America (UBNA)
8 - The New Pan-African Movement (TNPAM)
9 - Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)
10 - The National Urban League (NUL)
11 - The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)
12 - Committee on Racial and Religious Progress (CORARP)

NOTE: At the appropriate time, to be designated by the President, the leaders of some of these organizations are to be detained ONLY WHEN IT IS CLEAR THAT THEY CANNOT PREVENT THE EMERGENCY, working with local public officials during the first critical hours. All other leaders are to be detained at once. Compiled lists of Minority leaders have been readied at the National Data Computer Center. It is necessary to use the Minority leaders designated by the President in much the same manner in which we use Minority members who are agents with Central and Federal, and we cannot, until there is no alternative, reveal King Alfred in all its aspects. Minority members of Congress will be unseated at once. This move is not without precedent in American history.

Attorney General
Preliminary Memo: Department of Defense

This memo is being submitted in lieu of a full report from the Joint Chiefs of Staff. That report is now in preparation. There will be many cities where the Minority will be able to put into the street a superior number of people with a desperate and dangerous will. He will be a formidable enemy, for he is bound to the Continent by heritage and knows that political asylum will not be available to him in other countries. The greatest concentration of the Minority is in the Deep South, the Eastern seaboard, the Great lakes region and the West Coast. While the national population exceeds that of the Minority by more than ten times, we must realistically take into account the following:

1 - An estimated 40-50 percent of the white population will not, for various reasons, engage the Minority during an Emergency.
2 - American Armed Forces are spread around the world. A breakout of war abroad means fewer troops at home to handle the Emergency.
3 - Local law enforcement officials must contain the Emergency until help arrives, though it may mean fighting a superior force. New York City, for example, has a 25,000 man police force, but there are about one million Minority members in the city.

We are confident that the Minority would hold any city it took for only a few hours. The lack of weapons, facilities, logistics --- all put the Minority at a final disadvantage.
Since the Korean War, this department has shifted Minority members of the Armed Forces to areas where

Private Residence
Weston, Massachusetts

4:02 P.M. EST

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you, thank you, thank you. (Applause.) Please — please have a seat.

I want to thank all of you for making this run possible.

Without an Israel that's free and secure, I don't think there's a single Jew in the world that would be fully secure. That's why I've been such an overwhelming supporter.

I got in trouble many times for saying you don't have to be a Jew to be a Zionist, and I am a Zionist. I make no apologies for that. That's a reality.

Legislator Conflict of Interest Statutes

Updated April 30, 2024

17 USC § 107 Limitations on Exclusive Rights – FAIR USE

A legislator may face a conflict of interest when a personal interest affects their actions in the legislature. Legislative ethics rules often prohibit legislators from taking certain actions or require them to disclose matters that might create either a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict. Conflicts of interest might include hiring a family member, having a personal financial interest in a matter before the legislature, or any of countless other situations.

Circumstances that could create a conflict are too numerous to list, so most states' statutes are written generally to capture a range of possible conflicts. They accomplish this by providing specific examples and describing general courses of conduct that might give rise to a conflict. In-depth information on other subjects related to conflicts of interest—such as nepotism, representing others and misuse of public funds—can be found on NCSL's Ethics resources page. - - https://www.ncsl.org/ethics/conflict-of-interest-definitions

Martin Schulz, the leader of the Social Democrats, has called for a "United States of Europe" by 2025, a notion that conservatives have rejected as unrealistic.

One sticking point will be a common approach on changes to the eurozone, along the lines proposed by President Emmanuel Macron of France, who is seeking a shared budget and governing structure.
