Supreme Court of the United States

Washington, DC 20543

RE: Emergency Motion To Stay; Emergency Motion For Enlargement Of Time and Other Relief The United States Supreme Court Deems Appropriate To Correct The Legal Wrongs/Injustices Reported Herein
Lower Court Action: Stor-All Alfred LLC v. Denise V. Newsome; Hamilton County (Ohio) Court of Common Pleas; Case No. A0901302

Dear Justice Roberts:

Pursuant to the Ohio Supreme Court Rule 22, please find the "ORIGINAL" and two (2) copies of Newsome's "Emergency Motion To Stay; Emergency Motion For Enlargement Of Time and Other Relief The United States Supreme Court Deems Appropriate To Correct The Legal Wrongs/Injustices Reported Herein" in regards to the lower court action. Also enclosed, please find Money Order No. *1828278292 in the amount of $300.00 for payment in advance of the required filing fee. From the Docket of the lower court action, it appears that Judge John Andrew West ("Judge West") is looking to carry out his next action (over Newsome's OBJECTIONS – through filing of Affidavit of Disqualification) on Friday, October 22, 2010. See EXHIBIT "51".

This matter involves a sitting President of the United States (Barack Obama). Newsome submits the advance payment for purposes of securing costs and to AVOID additional attacks that she has suffered as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of President Obama and his Administration's RETALIATION against her for exercising her First and Fourteenth Amendment Rights as well as other rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution and other laws. This is a case of EXTRAORDINARY and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances which requires the Supreme Court of the United States' intervention. Newsome is not sure whether or not the Justices of this Court have witnessed or experienced what she shares in this instant filing and that to be brought on Appeal.

> This is a classic case of a "David vs. GOLIATH!" Moreover, a classic case that will reveal how a sitting President/his Administration and SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS rely upon their BIG MONEY and POWERFUL INFLUENCE in the political and judicial arena to BULLY indigent litigants/citizens and engage in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs for purposes of obtaining an UNDUE and unlawful/illegal ADVANTAGE over the weak/poor. Then one may wonder where our children may be learning their BULLYING techniques and criminal behavior from.

Newsome apologize for the need to submit such a VOLUMINOUS pleading; however, again, this matter involves a sitting President of the United States (Barack Obama) and the Exhibits attached supports the facts and legal conclusions set forth in the Motion for purposes of sustaining the relief sought. Newsome knew that mere allegations alone would not be wise and the importance of providing the documentation and/or evidence to sustain allegations and issues raised.

The Appeal action Newsome seeks will be brought in this Court's "Original" jurisdiction (if permissible) and is associated with a lawsuit that was brought against Newsome by Plaintiff Stor-All Alfred LLC ("Stor-All"). Stor-All's insurance provider is Liberty Mutual Insurance Company ("Liberty Mutual"). Liberty Mutual is a major client of a HUGE law firm (Baker Donelson Bearman Caldwell & Berkowitz) which from Newsome's research has a GREAT DEAL of political and judicial clout (i.e. ties to Judges/Justices and role in JUDICIAL Nominations and more)[1] – i.e. see EXHIBITS "22", "35", "59", "18", "79", and "80" respectively. Talking about the "fox guarding the hen house" – this is a classic example. Furthermore, it sheds additional light that Newsome believes is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest as to who is really running the White House as well as the United States Government – i.e. who may be the minds and forces behind the decisions being made and wars in Iran, Iraq and Afghanistan; as well as the state of the economy today!

From Newsome's research she was able to find information to support that Baker Donelson and Liberty Mutual are TOP/KEY FINANCIAL Contributors and/or Advisors for President Barack Obama and his Administration (i.e. for instance see EXHIBIT "24"). Newsome further believes that the recent attacks on her by President Obama and his SPECIAL INTEREST Groups (Baker Donelson, Liberty Mutual and others) may also be because he may blame her for the reason his POPULARITY with the public has fallen and/or his rating in the POLLS are so poor because Newsome is exercising her Constitutional Rights and informing the PUBLIC/WORLD of the Corruption (i.e. as WikiLeaks' Leader (Julian Assange) felt the need to do and has now himself come under attack) in the United States Government and the Cover-Up of criminal/civil wrongs that have been targeted towards Newsome as well as other citizens. In fact, as early as about

[1] Current and former Baker Donelson attorneys and advisors include, among many other highly distinguished individuals, people who have served as: Chief of Staff to the President of the United States; U.S. Senate Majority Leader; U.S. Secretary of State; Members of the United States Senate; Members of the United States House of Representatives; Acting Administrator and Deputy Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration; Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control for the U.S. Department of the Treasury; Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts; Chief Counsel, Acting Director, and Acting Deputy Director of U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services within the United States Department of Homeland Security; Majority and Minority Staff Director of the Senate Committee on Appropriations; a member of President's Domestic Policy Council; Counselor to the Deputy Secretary for the United States Department of HHS; Chief of Staff of the Supreme Court of the United States; Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice of the United States; Deputy Under Secretary for International Trade for the U.S. Department of Commerce; Ambassador to Japan; Ambassador to Turkey; Ambassador to Saudi Arabia; Ambassador to the Sultanate of Oman; Governor of Tennessee; Governor of Mississippi; Deputy Governor and Chief of Staff for the Governor of Tennessee; Commissioner of Finance & Administration (Chief Operating Officer), State of Tennessee; Special Counselor to the Governor of Virginia; United States Circuit Court of Appeals Judge; United States District Court Judges; United States Attorneys; and Presidents of State and Local Bar Associations.

March 2010 [via Email "2010 & 2012 NOVEMBER ELECTIONS – It's Time to Clean House (Send Obama A Message)"], it was Newsome who released (i.e. to President Obama/his Administration, the Media, Church Organizations, Foreign Leaders/Countries) a PowerPoint Presentation entitled: "NOVEMBER 2010/2012 ELECTIONS - Vote For Change: It's Time To Clean House - Vote OUT The Incumbents/CAREER Politicians - Where have our CHRISTIAN Morals/Values Gone?" This presentation is attached to instant filing at EXHIBIT "166." Newsome's Email Databases comprises of over 15,000 and is growing. With the November 2010 Elections fast approaching, Newsome believes it is time to submit this PowerPoint presentation and instant filing to the PUBLIC and FOREIGN NATIONS/LEADERS.

For this Court and the PUBLIC/WORLD to understand what the TRUE reasons may be for the RECENT resignations[2] in the Obama Administration and the RETALIATION leveled against Newsome for exercising her Constitutional Rights, in this instant filing she provides the July 13, 2010 Email entitled, "U.S. PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA: THE DOWNFALL/DOOM OF THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION – Corruption/Conspiracy/Cover-Up/Criminal Acts Made Public" attached to Motion at EXHIBIT "25." It was shortly AFTER this email (that was also sent to United States Secretary of Agriculture Thomas Vilsack – Shirley Sherrod's boss) that Sherrod's job was terminated – she was forced to resign by the Obama Administration. See EXHIBIT "4". It was AFTER Newsome's email and in RETALIATION that she believes President Obama and his Administration came out and had her Bank Account(s) UNLAWFULLY/ILLEGALLY seized – i.e. requesting that the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue ("KYDOR") carry out such criminal/civil wrongs against Newsome for exercising her rights. On approximately July 17, 2010 (i.e. approximately FOUR days AFTER the July 13, 2010 email), the KYDOR executed a "Notice of Levy" that it knew was SHAM/BOGUS against Newsome. See EXHIBIT "27". Such knowledge may be confirmed in its failure to provide Newsome with copy of the "Notice of Levy" served and CONSPIRED with bank to EMBEZZLE/STEAL, through fraudulent and criminal activities, monies to which it was not entitled. In fact, the KYDOR compromised the statute KRS §131.130 by REWRITING and ALTERING wording to accomplish its goals and alleging reason for levy being that Newsome owed "Child Support" when Newsome has NO children. Newsome further believes that the KYDOR's MALICIOUS acts were knowingly done to get around the required court ORDER before such action could be taken. The record evidence will support that KYDOR, United States Attorney General Eric Holder and President Obama were timely, properly and adequately notified through Newsome's August 12, 2009 Complaint against the KYDOR, that said agency was engaging in unlawful/illegal practices. See EXHIBIT "26". Newsome also provides the CORRECT wording of the KRS §131.130 at EXHIBIT "28" that the KYDOR compromised.

[2] Chief of Staff Rahm Emanual, Senior Advisor David Axelrod and NOW White House National Security's General Jim Jones.

Newsome believes it is of GREAT importance to note that within an approximate one-year period there have been criminal actions brought against judges and/or their aides in legal actions to which Newsome is a litigant. For instance:

a) In the lower court (Hamilton County) matter, Judge West's Bailiff (Damon Ridley) was recently INDICTED and found guilty by a jury for "Attempted Bribery." Ridley being known to take bribe(s) in exchange of getting cases dismissed. See EXHIBIT "6."

b) In Mississippi a judge (Bobby DeLaughter) has been INDICTED and has pled guilty – i.e. OBSTRUCTING justice and lying to federal agent. See EXHIBIT "11". The record evidence will support that the employment matter that Judge DeLaughter presided over regarding Newsome was one that she also requested the intervention of the United States Department of Justice on. To no avail. Leaving Judge DeLaughter to be able to go on and become a CAREER criminal hiding behind his robe! The record evidence will support that the MAJORITY of the Ohio Supreme Court Justices are recipients of HUGE campaign contributions from Liberty Mutual and/or its lawyers' law firms. See EXHIBIT "54". Furthermore, Newsome find it hard to believe and a reasonable person/mind also that the United States Supreme Court's recent ruling in Citizens United v Federal Election Commission, 558 U.S. 50 (2010) provides Justices/Judges with a license for CRIMINAL STALKING, HARASSMENT, THREATS, INTIMIDATION DISCRIMINATION and/or PREJUDICES, etc. leveled against Newsome or other citizens – i.e. acts which is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest and/or impacts the public-at-large.

c) A Louisiana judge (G. Thomas Porteous) is presently up before the Senate for IMPEACHMENT proceedings. See EXHIBIT "12". The record evidence will support that Newsome notified the United States Department of Justice about Judge Porteous as early as 2004. See EXHIBIT "34". To no avail. Leaving Judge Porteous to go on and become a CAREER criminal hiding behind his robe!

Newsome believes this is information the PUBLIC/WORLD needs to know because President Obama and his Administration are CONSTANTLY up in the face of Foreign Leaders SCOLDING them for the corruption in their government when there is a "BEAM/LOG" in the United States' eyes for the same practices.

Newsome seeks the Supreme Court of the United States' intervention in this matter because the record evidence will support that although she has REPEATEDLY followed required prerequisites in pursuit of justice, President Obama/his Administration and others are determined to deprive her of equal protection of the laws, equal privileges and immunities under the laws and due process of laws. Furthermore, how just as in the instant lawsuit out of which this Appeal is brought, TOP/KEY Financial Contributors and/or SPECIAL INTEREST groups of President Barack Obama, FIRST go after Newsome and contact her EMPLOYERS for purposes of getting her terminated so that they can have an UNDUE and UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL advantage in legal actions – i.e. stalking Newsome from state-to-state and employer-to-employer/job-to-job. See EXHIBIT "13". Furthermore, actions are taken to FINANCIALLY devastate Newsome – i.e. as in this instant lawsuit by getting her employment terminated and then attacking her financially (committing criminal/fraudulent acts) by executing sham legal process as the "Notice of Levy." The record evidence will even support the VICIOUS attacks of President Obama's TOP/KEY Financial Contributors' lawyers' attacks on attorneys that Newsome has retained; that later result in Newsome being abandoned and having to litigate claims pro se – i.e. as in this instant lawsuit. Realizing the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that existed because of Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping and working directly with a former attorney of one of the law firm's (Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin) representing Plaintiff Stor-All. Therefore, to keep Newsome from retaining Wood & Lamping in representing her in any legal matter Stor-All would bring, its insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) and counsel thought it was necessary to see to it that Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping was terminated BEFORE filing the MALICIOUS Forcible Entry and Detainer action against her – i.e. action brought against Newsome in which Stor-All was already in possession of storage unit and property WITHOUT legal authority (i.e. WITHOUT court order)!

Again, this is a legal matter of EXTRAORDINARY and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances which require the Supreme Court of the United States' intervention and expertise and addresses the following issues as set forth in the "TABLE OF CONTENTS":

I. AFFIDAVIT OF DISQUALIFICATION
II. SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST/KU KLUX KLAN ACT

WOOD & LAMPING LLC ("W&L")
XV. MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME
XVI. RELIEF SOUGHT.

Newsome, is not sure whether the Justices of this Court have ever seen anything like the criminal/civil wrongs complained of herein and one that involves a sitting United States President and his Administration attempting to OBSTRUCT justice and rely upon its BIG MONEY and POLITICAL ties to impede and influence legal proceedings. Moreover, a sitting President and his Administration who REFUSES to prosecute crimes reported by Newsome. Crimes which have been prosecuted on behalf of other citizens for similar legal wrongs; nevertheless, Newsome is deprived EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws. A President and his Administration that deprives Newsome rights provided under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA").

Newsome is presently unemployed due to the CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against her. The record evidence will also support how the United States Government has gone to great extremes to see that Newsome is BLACKLISTED in retaliation of her having brought legal action against government agency(s). Therefore, Newsome sets forth the EMERGENCY relief she presently seeks until legal issues may be resolved – i.e. beginning at Page 279 of this instant filing. Temporary relief Newsome prays can be granted by November 5, 2010*, in that the laws governing said matters makes allowances for same – i.e. considering her present unemployment status which is NO FAULT of Newsome! Relief Newsome seeks is further permissible for purposes of MITIGATING damages.*

Newsome further reminds the United States Supreme Court that it appears that the next scheduled action in the lower court matter (in which she seeks a stay) is for Friday, October 22, 2010.

Newsome further request that the United States Supreme Court based on information Newsome has received from research regarding Baker Donelson's past/present relationships to this Court advise her of an CONFLICT OF INTEREST (if any). See EXHIBIT "22". Information that Baker Donelson has scrubbed from the Internet since Newsome has gone PUBLIC!

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. Should you have questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me at 513/680-2922 or 601/885-9536.

Sincerely,

Vogel Newsome

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

STOR-ALL ALFRED, LLC Plaintiff/Appellee	))	CASE NO. _____
vs.	)
DENISE V. NEWSOME Defendant/APPELLANT	))

EMERGENCY MOTION TO STAY;
EMERGENCY MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME and OTHER RELIEF THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT DEEMS APPROPRIATE TO CORRECT THE LEGAL WRONGS/ INJUSTICES REPORTED HEREIN

COMES NOW PETITIONER/DEFENDANT, Vogel Denise Newsome ("Petitioner/Defendant" and/or "Newsome"), AFTER first seeking relief through the Ohio Supreme Court, and files this her "Emergency Motion To Stay; Emergency Motion For Enlargement Of Time and Other Relief The United States Supreme Court Deems Appropriate To Correct The Legal Wrongs/Injustices Reported Herein" ("EMTS & MFEOTWOC") regarding a DECISION set to be rendered on or about Friday, October 22, 2010 (See EXHIBIT "51" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein). by the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas before the Honorable Judge John Andrews West – i.e. to which Newsome has filed a timely "Affidavit of Disqualification." With knowledge of Newsome's filing of Affidavit of Disqualification, Judge West attempted to move forward with hearing on said Affidavit and Motion to Dismiss on Tuesday, September 28, 2010 at 2:15 p.m. before

Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Cincinnati, Ohio);[1] however, said attempt was met with Newsome's filing of "NOTICE OF NONATTENDENCE" which set out the reasons for said action and NOTIFICATION that she would be bringing the matter before the United States Supreme Court in its "ORIGINAL JURISDICTION." See 09/29/10 Docket Entry of the Hamilton County Court of Common Please at EXHIBIT "51." Due to the exceptional, extreme and extraordinary circumstances addressed herein under the above referenced action. This instant action arises pursuant to 28 USC§ 1257 State Courts; Certiorari[2] - which states in part:

[1] See EXHIBIT "1" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

[2] Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. Lavoie, 106 S.Ct. 1580 (1986) - [n.1] Supreme Court had jurisdiction over question of whether Alabama Supreme Court Justice's participation in case violated . . . rights under due process clause of Fourteenth Amendment [U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14], where Alabama Supreme Court's order denying recusal motions clearly demonstrated court reached merits of . . . constitutional challenge, and insurer raised this issue as soon as it discovered facts relating to Justice's state actions . . . alleging bad-faith . . . claims.

[1] We are satisfied as to the Court's jurisdiction over the question of whether Justice Embry's participation violated appellant's Fourteenth Amendment due process rights. Appellees argue that the Alabama Supreme Court did not reach this issue because it was raised only after the court's decision on the merits. We reject that contention as at odds with the record. On March 8, 1985, the court entered the following order:

> "Upon consideration, the Court is of the opinion that under the allegation of said motion in this case each justice should vote individually on the matter of whether or not he or she is disqualified and should recuse. Each justice having voted not to recuse,
> > "IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the 'Motion for Disqualification and Motion for Withdrawal of Opinion of December 7, 1984, and for Hearing De Novo' be ... denied." App. to Juris. Statement 64a.

This order clearly demonstrates that the Alabama court reached the merits of appellant's constitutional challenge, albeit on a justice-by-justice basis. Moreover, appellant raised this issue as soon as it discovered the facts relating to Justice Embry's personal lawsuits. On this record, we conclude jurisdiction is proper. See *820 Ulster County Court v. Allen, 442 U.S. 140, 147-154, 99 S.Ct. 2213, 2219-2223, 60 L.Ed.2d 777 (1979); Ward v. Village of Monroeville, 409 U.S. 57, 61, 93 S.Ct. 80, 83, 34 L.Ed.2d 267 (1972).

[n.2] Only in most extreme cases of bias or prejudice is disqualification of judge constitutionally required.

[n.4] . . . We conclude that Justice Embry's participation in this case violated appellant's due process rights as explicated in Tumey, Murchison, and Ward. We make clear that we are not required to decide whether in fact Justice Embry was influenced, but only whether sitting on the case then before the Supreme Court of Alabama " 'would offer a possible temptation to the average ... judge to ... lead him to not to hold the balance nice, clear and true.' " Ward, 409 U.S., at 60, 93 S.Ct., at 83 (quoting Tumey v. Ohio, supra, 273 U.S., at 532, 47 S.Ct., at 444). The Due Process Clause "may sometimes bar trial by judges who have no actual bias and who would do their very best to weigh the scales of justice equally between contending parties. But to perform its high function in the best way, 'justice must satisfy the appearance of justice.' " Murchison, 349 U.S., at 136, 75 S.Ct., at 625 (citation omitted).

[6] Having concluded that only Justice Embry was disqualified from participation in this case, we turn to the issue of the proper remedy for this constitutional violation. Our prior decisions have not considered the question whether a decision of a multimember tribunal must be vacated because of the participation of one member who had an interest in the outcome of the case. Rather, our prior cases have involved interpretations of statutes with provisions concerning this question, e.g., Commonwealth Coatings Corp. v. Casualty Co., 393 U.S. 145, 89 S.Ct. 337, 21 L.Ed.2d 301 (1968), disqualifications of the sole member of a tribunal, e.g., Ward v. Village of Monroeville, supra, and disqualifications of an entire panel, e.g., Gibson v. Berryhill, 411 U.S. 564, 93 S.Ct. 1689, 36 L.Ed.2d 488 (1973). Some courts have concluded that a decision need not be vacated where a disqualified judge's vote is mere surplusage. See, e.g., State ex rel. Langer v. Kositzky, 38 N.D. 616, 166 N.W. 534 (1918); but see, e.g., Oakley v. Aspinwall, 3 N.Y. 547 (1850).FN4 But we are aware of no case, and none has been called to our attention,*828 permitting a court's decision to stand when a disqualified judge casts the deciding vote. Here Justice Embry's vote was decisive in the 5-to-4 decision . . . and he 1589 was the author of the court's opinion. Because of Justice Embry's leading role in the decision under review, we conclude that the "appearance of justice" will best be served by vacating the decision and remanding for further proceedings. Appellees have not contended that, upon a finding of disqualification, this disposition is improper.

This matter involves EXTRAORDINARY circumstances and evolves from an ONGOING conspiracy[3] leveled against Newsome and also involves a sitting United States President (Barack Hussein Obama ["President Obama"]), his Administration, counselors/advisors and others. It is because of the LEGAL COMPLEXITY and the PATTERN-OF-JUDICAL ABUSE and/or ABUSE-OF-POWER that infringes upon the Constitutional Rights and other protected rights of Newsome that this matter is brought seeking the jurisdiction, expertise and qualifications of the United States Supreme Court for its intervention and to address the issues to be raised in the Writ of Certiorari to be filed.

> Salinas v. U.S., 118 S.Ct. 469 (1997) - Conspiracy may exist and be punished whether or not substantive crime ensues, for conspiracy is distinct evil, dangerous to public, and so punishable in itself.
> It is possible for person to conspire for commission of crime by third person.
> U.S. v. Schaffer, 586 F.3d 414 (C.A.6.Ohio,2009) - Because the illegality of an agreement to commit an unlawful act, as the basis of a conspiracy charge, does not depend upon the achievement of its ends, it is irrelevant that it may be objectively impossible for the conspirators to commit the substantive offense; indeed, it is the mutual understanding or agreement itself that is criminal, and whether the object of the scheme actually is, as the parties believe it to be, unlawful is irrelevant.

Newsome believes a reasonable person/mind may conclude that the United States role as a LEADER to other Nations/Foreign Countries in dealing with Civil Rights/Human Rights issues clearly is not the role model to follow in that it engages in CONSPIRACIES against its citizens and the COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against citizens (i.e. as Newsome) who

[3] U.S. v. Iribe, 564 F.3d 1155 (C.A.9.Cal.,2009) - By definition, conspiracy and attempt are inchoate crimes that do not require completion of the criminal objective.

State v. Huff, 769 N.W.2d 154 (2009) - Under the inchoate crime of conspiracy, by definition no substantive crime is ever needed.

U.S. v. Oakar, 924 F.Supp. 232 (D.D.C.,1996) - Conspiracy is committed once agreement is reached and overt act is completed, regardless of whether the crime agreed on is committed.

publicly OPPOSESSES such unlawful/illegal acts. Thus, supporting that President Obama and his Administration are FOLLOWERS and PARTICIPANTS in Supremacist/Terrorist acts leveled against African-Americans and/or people of color – i.e. Foreign Countries they believe are inferior to the United States. See EXHIBIT "2" - *INVESTIGATIONS OF PUBLIC CORRUPTION: Rooting Crookedness Out of Government, attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. This article stemming from the Federal Bureau of Investigation's ("FBI") handling of "OPERATION GREYLORD" – a matter involving CHICAGO Judges, Attorneys and other Public Government Officials, etc.:

Today marks an important anniversary in the annals of public corruption investigations in the U.S.

> Twenty years ago today, in a federal courtroom in Chicago, a jury found Harold Conn (top center in photo) guilty on all 4 counts of accepting bribes to be passed on to Cook County judges as payment for fixing tickets. The evidence? He had been caught live on FBI tapes.
>
> This "bagman" had been Deputy Traffic Court Clerk in the Cook County judicial system, and he was the first defendant to be found guilty in a mammoth sting investigation of crooked officials in the Cook County courts.
> It was called OPERATION GREYLORD, named after the curly wigs worn by British judges. And in the end -- through undercover operations that used honest and very courageous judges and lawyers posing as crooked ones... and with the strong assistance of the Cook County court and local police -- 92 officials had been indicted, including 17 judges, 48 lawyers, 8 policemen, 10 deputy sheriffs, 8 court officials, and 1 state legislator. Nearly all were convicted, most of them pleading guilty (just a few are shown in our photo). It was an important first step to cleaning up the administration of justice in Cook County.

The PUBLIC/WORLD needs to know the TRUTH as to why United States President Obama's Administration Leaders are bailing out on him – i.e. they can see the handwriting on the wall. Therefore in support of this instant "EMTS & MFEOTWOC," Newsome further states the following:

1) This instant "EMTS & MFEOTWOC" is submitted in good faith and is not submitted for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, etc. and is filed to protect and preserve the rights of Newsome secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution and other laws of the United States.

While Newsome is presently UNEMPLOYED, she will be proceeding on appeal before this Court as a PAYING litigant and has submitted the required $300.00 Filing Fee required via Money Order No. 18282782924 – See EXHIBIT "3" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Payment is being submitted in advance in that United States President Barack Hussein Obama and his Administration have elected to engage in criminal acts and have unlawfully/illegally EMBEZZELED remaining monies due Newsome from her 2009 Federal Income Tax Return (i.e. although the Internal Revenue had taken taxes owed by Newsome) and as recent as July 17, 2010 – approximately FOUR (4) days before scheduled July 21, 2010 hearing before Judge John Andrew West on Plaintiff Stor-All's motion(s) [i.e. Stor-All is an insured of one of President Obama's TOP/KEY FINANCIAL INTEREST/CONTRIBUTORS – Liberty Mutual Insurance Company - as well as client(s) of President Obama's TOP/KEY FINANCIAL INTEREST/SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS' counselors/advisors – Baker Donelson Bearman Caldwell & Berkowitz], and approximately FOUR (4) days after, President Obama instructed and/or authorized the unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's bank account(s) in RETALIATION to Newsome's July 13, 2010 email entitled, "U.S. PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA: THE DOWNFALL/DOOM OF THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION – Corruption/Conspiracy/ Cover-Up/Criminal Acts Made Public"[4] – EMPHASIS ADDED. See EXHIBIT "25" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The unlawful/illegal seizure and EMBEZZLEMENT of monies from Newsome's bank account(s) is further addressed at: Paragraphs 23/Page 34; Paragraph F(i)/Page 49 and Paragraph (i)/Page 248 below of this pleading. Furthermore, the recent ESCALATION of attacks leveled against Newsome* by President Obama and his Administration/Counselors/Advisors and others are for purposes of FINANCIAL DEVASTATION and to preclude her from litigating legal actions brought against her because it involves client(s) of his Top/Key Financial Interest/Special Interest Groups and is being done to provide said supporters with an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in legal actions involving Newsome. Therefore, supporting and/or sustaining the filing of this instant "EMTS & MFEOTWOC."

[4] IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome's email coming approximately SIX (6) days prior to the RETALIATORY firing and attack on Shirley Sherrod that occurred on or about July 19, 2010 - under the direction and leadership of United States President Barack Obama and/or those in his Administration – See EXHIBIT "4" Articles retrieved from the Internet attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome further believes that President Obama's authorization of the firing of Sherrod will sustain and support his and his Administration's ONGOING attacks leveled against African-Americans and/or people of color who are seen as strong people and civil rights activists that he and his counselors/advisors seek to DESTROY/BREAK DOWN/BEAT into slavery, servitude and submission by implementing the practices of the WILLIE LYNCH LETTER: The Making Of A Slave – see EXHIBIT "5" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. It is such practices/policies that were long ABOLISHED with slavery. Nevertheless, President Obama, his Administration, his Counselors/Advisors and others have been REPEATELY subjecting Newsome, African-Americans and/or people of color to such Willie Lynch practices/policies to for purposes of BULLYING, TERRORIZING and BEATING Newsome into submission because she has PUBLICLY objected and spoke out against the RACIAL INJUSTICES/DISCRMINATION/PREJUDICES leveled against her as well as other African-Americans and/or people of color.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The previously scheduled action in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Cincinnati, Ohio) action out of which this Appeal arises, was set for Tuesday, September 28, 2010, at 2:15 p.m. before Judge John Andrew West ("Judge West"). See EXHIBIT "1" - Court Notification attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Out of concerns of Judge West's/lower court's effort to get Newsome to waive RIGHTS secured under the Constitution, she did not attend and notified lower court (i.e. through NOTIFICATION OF NONATTENDENCE) that she would not be waiving her rights and will be bringing matter before the United States Supreme Court under its "ORIGINAL" jurisdiction (if applicable). Judge West who has engaged in criminal/civil wrongs against Newsome which resulted in her having to file a CRIMINAL COMPLAINT with the United States Department of Justice (Federal Bureau of Investigation ["FBI']). This lower court matter is a lawsuit that was brought against Newsome by President Obama's Top/Key Financial Supporter and/or Special Interest Group, LIBERTY MUTUAL'S insured (Stor-All). Just as recent as May2009, Judge West's Bailiff (Damon Riley) was indicted for:

(a) Theft in office;
(b) Bribery; and
(c) Attempted Bribery

and on or about March 9, 2010 a Jury found him "GUILTY" of Attempted Bribery. (EMPHASIS ADDED). See EXHIBIT "6" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Considering the circumstances of this lawsuit and the criminal/civil wrongs Judge West has engaged in against Newsome, she believes a reasonable mind may conclude that Judge West knew and/or should have known of the criminal activities of his Bailiff; moreover, may have been a recipient of such profits and/or may have been a willing participant in such criminal acts.

2) The United States Supreme Court's Jurisdiction over this action may be asserted and/or retained pursuant to 28 USC§ 1257 – State Courts; Certiorari - which states in part:

> 1257(a) - - Final judgments or decrees rendered by the highest court of a state in which a decision could be had, may be reviewed by the Supreme Court by writ of certiorari where the validity of a treaty or statute of the United States is drawn in question or where the validity of a statute of any State is drawn in question on the ground of its being repugnant to the Constitution, treaties, or laws of the United States, or where any title, right, privilege, or immunity is specially set up or claimed under the Constitution or the treaties or statutes of, or any commission held or authority exercised under, the United States.

The Ohio Supreme Court on or about August 18, 2010, executed its "Judgment Entry on Defendant's 8/11/10 Motion for Final Entry and Stay," ("08/18/10 Judgment Entry") with knowledge and/or knowing that Newsome TIMELY, PROMPTLY and ADEQUATELY requested that said court enter "Final Judgment/Issuance of Mandate." A copy of the Ohio Supreme Court's "08/18/10 Judgment Entry" is attached hereto at EXHIBIT "7" and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Attached to this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC is a copy of Newsome's "Notification of Intent to File EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari with the United States Supreme Court; Motion to Stay Proceedings – Request for Entry of Final Judgment/Issuance of Mandate as Well as STAY of PROCEEDINGS Should Court Insist on Allowing August 2, 2010 Judgment Entry to Stand" (BRIEF Only) at EXHIBIT "8" – which is incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Through the "Writ of Certiorari" ("WOC")[5] Newsome seeks to bring, she will further show Judgment Entry draws into question the validity of a statute of the United States and/or the State of Ohio and is repugnant to the United States Constitution as well as the Ohio Constitution. Furthermore, Newsome will provide facts, evidence and legal conclusions to support that a title, right, privilege or immunity specially set up or claimed under the Constitution and/or statutes of or any commission held or authority exercised under the United States is drawn into question.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The "08/18/10 Judgment Entry" is merely a DELAY and/or DILATORY tactic being used by the Ohio Supreme Court to deprive Newsome rights secured and/or guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Civil Rights Act, United States Ohio Supreme Court Rules and other statutes/laws governing said matters. So that the United States Supreme Court ("U.S. Supreme Court") is aware what Newsome requested of the Ohio Supreme Court and was entitled to, please find attached a copy of Newsome's "Notification of Intent to File EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari with the United States Supreme Court; Motion to Stay Proceedings – Request for Entry of Final Judgment/Issuance of Mandate as Well as STAY of PROCEEDINGS Should Court Insist on Allowing August 2, 2010 Judgment Entry to Stand" at EXHIBIT "8" (BRIEF ONLY) and is incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

3) This is an EXCEPTIONAL and/or EXTRAORINDARY case which requires the intervention and exercise of jurisdiction of the United States Supreme Court. Therefore, requiring the Staying of proceedings, Enlargement of Time, Immediate Recusal of Judge John Andrew West, and other relief sought herein as well as known to the United States Supreme Court to CORRECT the legal wrongs/injustices reported herein.

4) The record evidence will support that Newsome at EVERY level reported criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her to the proper authorities – to no avail. Therefore, requiring the intervention of the United States Supreme Court and its exercise of "ORIGINAL" jurisdiction that Newsome seeks to bring this matter before it.

5) Newsome seeks this instant "Emergency Motion To Stay" in that:

A) Newsome believes that the record evidence will support that as a citizen and indigent litigant she is pitted against POLITICIANS, and GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS/EMPLOYEES – i.e. United States President and his Administration – who have a Personal/Financial interest in the outcome of this lawsuit because it involves TOP/KEY Financial Contributors and/or Advisors.

> *Rosenbloom v. (Per Mr. Justice Brennan with the Chief Justice and one Justice joining in the opinion and two Justices concurring in the judgment.) U.S.C.A.Const. Amend. 1.

Moreover, that recent attacks leveled against Newsome may also be a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of RETALIATION of her releasing PowerPoint Presentation entitled, NOVEMBER 2010/2010 ELECTIONS CHANGE: IT'S TIME TO CLEAN HOUSE – VOTE OUT THE INCUMBENTS/CAREER POLITICIANS. See EXHIBIT "166" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

B) As the aggrieved party, said relief is sought to stay the execution and enforcement of the "08/18/10 Judgment Entry" so that she may obtain a Writ of Certiorari from U.S. Supreme Court;

C) While Newsome is UNEMPLOYED and proceeding pro se, she has submitted the $300.00 Filing Fee required by the U.S. Supreme Court because she believes that there is reasonable probable cause that Certiorari will be granted and jurisdiction over this matter can be sustained; moreover, concerns that she will be subjected to further attacks on her finances (i.e. as that surrounding her federal income tax returns, recent attacks on her bank account(s) as well as BLACKLISTING to see that she is never employed again);

D) Newsome believes that the facts, evidence and legal precedent will support the reversal of the Ohio Supreme Court's decision as well as intervention by the U.S. Supreme Court;

E) The record evidence will support a timely filing of Affidavit of Disqualification against Judge John Andrew West resulting in this instant appeal process and appears to be in furtherance of a PATTERN-OF-ABUSE and/or PATTERN-OF-PRACTICES (i.e obstruction of justice/obstruction of administration of justice, conspiracy, etc.):

I. AFFIDAVIT OF DISQUALIFICATION

While Newsome brings this instant action in the Original jurisdiction of this Court, it is important to note that said Appeal and Certiorari action to be brought involves efforts taken by the Ohio Supreme Court's efforts to deprive Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws in the handling of the Affidavit of Disqualification filed against Judge John Andrew West and was attempting to force Newsome to appear before Judge West on or about September 28, 2010, and/or in all other matters when the laws clearly support and sustain that he is not qualified to sit/preside over this matter and that Newsome has filed a Criminal Complaint against Judge West, opposing parties in others involved in the criminal acts carried out on or about September 9 or 10, 2009. Now from the record evidence (i.e. Newsome has NOT received anything from the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas regarding DECISION set for October 22, 2010) it appears that Judge West is determined to USURP authority, ABUSE judicial powers, etc. and render a DECISION over Newsome' objections. Acts clearly depriving Newsome rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution. In further support thereof, Newsome states that based upon the following facts and evidence:

A. The recent INDICTMENT of Judge West's Bailiff (Damon Ridley) and a Jury finding Ridley "GUILTY" of "Attempted Bribery; "[6]

[6] See EXHIBIT "6" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein: "A former Ohio court bailiff accused of offering to get a case dismissed for money in the courtroom where he worked has been found guilty of attempted bribery."

". . .The former bailiff for Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge John West could be sentenced to up to 18 months in prison. . ."

". . . That alleged incident is the centerpiece of a criminal investigation into Damon Ridley, who was the bailiff of Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge John "Skip" West until Ridley was confronted with allegations and resigned. . . case has investigators poring over thousands of court documents involving criminal cases before West over the last five years. They are looking at why some cases presided over by West never had their sentences carried out and why other cases before him had no activity for years . . .

The issue is whether Ridley. . . accepted money or favors in exchange for fixing sentences handed down by West or delaying them so long that thousands of dollars in fines and court fees were never paid. Bailiffs run the day-to-day operations of courtrooms and schedule when cases are heard. . . Johnson plead guilty March 25 before West to reduced charges that still could have sent him to prison for 5½ years. Instead, West sentenced Johnson to probation and to serve up to six months in the River City Correctional Center, a drug-rehabilitation center by Hamilton County judges. Investigators asked Ridley on October 29 about the allegation. He resigned the next day. "I can tell you (Ridley) has told us numerous stories," Deters said.

". . .Ridley resigned after being questioned, he said, to lessen any impact on the judge. 'I have a lot of respect for Judge West and I wasn't going to bring anything (negative) to him,' Ridley said. He declined to answer additional questions, he said, on the advice of his attorney. He refused to say who his attorney was. If the allegations are proved, Ridley's actions could be disastrous to the Hamilton County court system as the public – and criminals – may infer the judicial system was undermined by one person's greed. "When you've got someone putting their thumb on the scales of justice, it's a very serious offense," University of Cincinnati law professor Christo Lassiter said. 'You lose faith in government and there is a very serious threat to the judicial branch.'

'The whole idea is to have a neutral arbiter. Why do that if there is a judge whose decisions are being bought by a bailiff? We may as well not have a judicial system.' Deters is unsure of what role, if any, the judge has in the delay of cases,. . . 'Wherever this leads, we will go,' Deters said, 'but it would shock me to my core if the judge was involved. The judge is cooperating with us.' West has refused to talk about the investigation, referring questions to Deters. . ."

"Prosecutors became so frustrated with the slow pace of justice in West's courtroom that one, Katherine Pridemore, filed a legal motion requiring her to be contacted on a specific case that had been continued – without her knowledge or agreement – dozens of times.[6]. . .

The investigation has taken an emotional toll on West. West was close personally to Ridley, treating him like family. West and his family vacationed with Ridley and socialized with him. In West's courthouse chambers, there is a studio portrait of West, Ridley and another of West's court workers. . ."

"Damon Ridley. . . had been accused of taking money from a defendant in exchange for a GURANTEE on a particular sentence and attempting to extort additional money from the same defendant for a lesser sentence."

Newsome believes that it is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE importance to note that she first brought Judge Porteous' CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs to the attention of the Department of Justice as early as September 2004. See EXHIBIT "34" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

a reasonable person/mind may conclude that the issues and grounds raised in Affidavit of Disqualification are sufficient to sustain Newsome's beliefs as well as sustain CONSPIRACIES leveled against her are valid and supportive of the relief sought through said pleading.

> U.S. v. Thompson, 483 F.2d 527 (1973) - [n.1] In an affidavit seeking to disqualify trial judge on ground of personal bias or prejudice, affiant has the burden of making a threefold showing: the facts must be material and stated with particularity; the facts must be such that, if true they would convince a reasonable man that a bias exists; and the facts must show the bias is personal, as opposed to judicial, in nature.

[n.2] For purposes of motion seeking disqualification of trial judge on ground of personal bias or prejudice, judge must accept all facts stated in the affidavit as true; similarly, reviewing court must treat all the facts alleged as true. . . .

> 2. The facts must be such that, if true they would convince a reasonable man that a bias exists.[FN1]
> > FN1. Under the statute, the judge must accept for purposes of the motion that all facts stated in the affidavit are true. Berger v. United States, 255 U.S. 22, 41 S.Ct. 230, 65 L.Ed. 481 (1921). Therefore, for purposes of this opinion, we similarly must treat all the facts alleged as true. However, in so doing, we do not intend to express any opinion as to the actual truth of the facts alleged.
> 3. The facts must show the bias is personal, as opposed to judicial, in nature. . .

We think defendant's affidavit alleges the material facts with the requisite particularity. Indeed, the Government does not contend to the contrary.

We next must examine the facts alleged in this affidavit to determine if they are sufficient to convince a reasonable man that the judge had a relevant bias. After evaluating this affidavit, we believe a reasonable man would conclude on the facts stated therein that the district judge had a special bias against defendant as one of those . . . violating the . . . laws. . . .

[n.4] Allegation of personal bias is a proper basis for disqualification of a trial judge; an allegation of judicial bias is not.

6) Under federal law Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification[8] meets the pleading requirements for the filing of said matters and give fair support to the charge of a bent mind that is determined to impede proceedings, reveals inability to remain impartial and REPEAT efforts to favor party (i.e. Plaintiff Stor-All) and its counsel, obstruct the administration of justice and deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws, equal privileges and immunities of the law and due process of law. Furthermore, the facts set forth in said Affidavit, are in light of facts as they existed.

U.S.*, 41 S.Ct. 230 (1921) - Under 28 U.S.C.A. § 144, the reasons and facts stated in an affidavit charging a judge with bias or prejudice for the belief in such bias or prejudice are an essential part of the affidavit, and must give fair support to the charge of a bent of mind that may prevent or impede impartiality of judgment.

Cheney v. U.S. Dist. Court for Dist. of Columbia, 124 S.Ct. 1391 (2004) - The decision whether a judge's impartiality can reasonably be questioned, for purpose of recusal motion, is to be made in light of the facts as they existed, and not as they were surmised or reported. (Per Justice Scalia, as single Justice).

7) The record evidence supports Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification was timely submitted and the facts support her appealing matter to the Ohio Supreme Court and now the United States Supreme Court supports the facts and her concerns of impropriety and impartiality; moreover, Judge West's refusal to adhere to the laws governing said matters.[9] Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification has been sworn to and notarized. The record evidence will support that Judge West conspired with Conspirators/Co-Conspirators and carried out similar crimes in which football famer (O.J. Simpson) received a 33-year sentence for. Therefore, as a matter of law, Judge West must [n.14] For purposes of motion to disqualify judge, "personal bias or prejudice" refers to some sort of antagonism or animosity toward party arising from sources or events outside scope of particular proceeding.

[n.19] Negative bias or prejudice that requires disqualification of judge exists only if it is attitude or state of mind that belies aversion or hostility of kind or degree that fair-minded person could not entirely set aside when judging certain persons or causes.

disqualify himself. However, based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein, Judge West was determined on September 28, 2010, to fulfill his end of CONSPIRACY Agreement and dismiss the lower court lawsuit. Now, from the record evidence, appears to want to move forward on Friday, October 22, 2010, to render his DECISION over Newsome's OBJECTIONS to his presiding over lawsuit. Thus, supporting this instant appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

8) The record evidence will support that although Newsome has filed pleadings in accordance with the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedures and has set forth ISSUES distinctly and clearly in lower court actions, the Ohio Supreme Court and the lower courts have REPEATEDLY failed to address the issues sufficiently and adequately before the lower courts. Therefore, as a matter of law, Newsome has REPEATEDLY been subjected to a miscarriage of justice.[10] Therefore, without the intervention of the United States Supreme Court, Newsome will be deprived EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws in violation of her Constitutional Rights; moreover, deprived rights that are afforded to other citizens similarly situated. Newsome further believes that the record evidence will sustain/support issues were timely, properly and adequately raised and preserved in the lower courts.

[10] Hormel v. Helvering, 61 S.Ct. 719 (1941) - [4] Ordinarily an appellate court does not give consideration to issues not raised below. For our procedural scheme contemplates that parties shall come to issue in the trial forum vested with authority to determine questions of fact. This is essential in order that parties may have the opportunity to offer all the evidence they believe relevant to the issues which the trial tribunal is alone competent to decide; it is equally essential in order that litigants may not be surprised on appeal by final decision there of issues upon which they have had no opportunity to introduce evidence. And the basic reasons which support this general principle applicable to trial courts make it equally desirable that parties should have an opportunity to offer evidence on the general issues involved in the less formal proceedings . . . entrusted with the responsibility of fact finding. Recognition of this general principle has caused this Court to say on a number of occasions that the reviewing court should pass by, without decision, questions which were not urged . . . But those cases do not announce an inflexible practice, as indeed they could not without *557 doing violence to the statutes which give to . . . Courts . . . reviewing decisions . . . the power to modify, reverse or remand decisions not in accordance with law 'as justice may require.' There may always be exceptional cases or particular circumstances which will prompt a reviewing or appellate court, where injustice might otherwise result, to consider questions of law which were neither pressed nor passed upon by the court or administrative agency below. When the Prosecuting Attorney's Office (Joseph Deters)[11] [EMPHASIS Added*] moved to dismiss Newsome's Prohibition action, it was met with a timely "Relator's Rebuttal/Opposition to Motion to Dismiss and Memorandum in Support of Motion to Dismiss of Respondents; and Request/Motion for Sanctions." See EXHIBIT "15" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. However, in efforts of depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws – rights secured under the Constitution – Justices and/or Officials of the Ohio Supreme Court engaged in criminal acts[12] for purposes of providing opposing parties with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit – i.e. resulting the filing of Newsome's December 28, 2009 FBI Criminal Complaint[13] (See EXHIBIT "16" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein). The record evidence will support how the lower courts REPEATEDLY withhold rulings from Newsome for purposes of OBSTRUCTING the Administration of Justice and/or OBSTRUCTING Justice. Furthermore, the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions provided herein as well as in the lower courts' action will reveal EXECEPTIONAL circumstances exist and that Judges/Justices REPEATEDLY engaged in matter amounting to judicial usurpation of power, obstruction of justice, and a clear abuse of discretion justifying the relief sought through this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC as well as the Certiorari to be filed with the United States Supreme Court.[14]

10) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that Judge John Andrew West and the Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court (who will be watching the outcome of this case) may be taken that they think that the United States Supreme Court will stand by and CONDONE/SANCTION criminal/civil wrongs of Judges/Justices who receive SUBSTANTIAL/ASTRONOMICAL Campaign Contributions from BIG MONEY/SPECIAL INTERESTS GROUPS to cover-up the criminal/civil wrongs of their clients and/or others. Newsome further believes that the recent actions of the Ohio Supreme Court and its failure to report crimes, take the required legal action when crimes involving judges/attorneys are made known and/or comply with the statutes/laws governing said matters may be due its misunderstanding and/or simple arrogance that it is above the law and intent to hide behind the United States Supreme Court's recent decision in Citizens United v Federal Election Commission, 558 U.S. 50 (2010) to support the CRIMINAL STALKING, HARASSMENT, THREATS, INTIMIDATION DISCRIMINATION and/or PREJUDICES, etc. by the lower Court Judges/Justices, attorneys and others leveled against Newsome (i.e. African-Americans, people of color and/or citizens of the United States) for exercising her rights under the United States Constitution and other laws of the United States.

11) Newsome believes that the record, facts and legal conclusions in this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC will support the granting of Certiorari in the INTERVENTION of the United States Supreme Court in light of the CONSPIRACIES leveled against her. Conspiracies which interfere with (a) the performance of official duties – i.e. OBSTRUCTION of justice and/or OBSTRUCTION of administration of justice; (b) a Pattern-Of-Practice which interferes with the administration of justice in FEDERAL courts; (c) a Pattern-Of-Practice which interferes with the administration of justice in STATE courts; and a Pattern-Of-Practice that interferes with Newsome's private enjoyment of EQUAL protection and EQUAL privileges and immunities under the law. Supporting the Supreme Court's need to retain jurisdiction in this matter, report the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome herein and see that justice is rendered and the integrity of the lower courts are restored in the interest of PUBLIC TRUST and CONFIDENCE that citizens of the United States expect and entitled to receive.

> Kush v. Rutledge, 460 U.S. 719, 103 S.Ct. 1483 (1983) - Although § 2 contained only one long paragraph when it was originally enacted, that single paragraph outlawed five broad classes of conspiratorial activity. In general terms, § 2 proscribed conspiracies that interfere with (a) the performance of official duties by federal officers; (b) the administration of justice in federal courts; (c) the administration of justice in state courts; (d) the private enjoyment *of "*equal *protection of the laws" and "*equal privileges and 1487 immunities under the laws"; and (e) the right to support candidates in federal elections. As now codified in § 1985, the long paragraph is divided into three subsections. One of the five classes of prohibited conspiracy is proscribed by § 1985(1), two by § 1985(2), and two by § 1985(3). The civil remedy for a violation of any of the subsections is found at the end of § 1985(3). The reclassification was not intended to change the substantive meaning of the 1871 Act.

12) Newsome seeks an Appeal/WOC that is of National and WORLDWIDE importance and a decision by the United States Supreme Court will impact and/or have a longstanding impact and legal precedent in dealing with such issues which have for decades ADVERSELY impacted the lives of citizens – i.e. more specifically African-Americans and/or people of color.

13) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the facts, evidence and legal conclusions to be provided will support said matter and sustain/support concerns of Newsome as well as other citizens of those who have leveled such racist/discriminatory/prejudicial attacks against her may be members of SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups who "have turned in their white hoods, for business suits and judicial robes." See EXHIBIT "17" – DAVID DUKE Information (i.e. former Grand Wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan) attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Furthermore, concerns that UNDERCOVER SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups (i.e. such as Baker Donelson) have strategically placed their people throughout offices of the government and courts – i.e. being sure to put themselves in a position to be on the PANEL/BOARD that is behind providing NOMINEES for judicial vacancies, state Governors, Whitehouse/Executive Office vacancies, United States Senate/House of Representatives vacancies, etc. See for example EXHIBIT "18" – "JUDICIAL NOMINATIONS" [EMPHASIS Added] information attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Supporting Baker Donelson's ability to get their lawyer(s) assigned to federal JUDGESHIPS (i.e. as Samuel H. Mays, Jr.).

14) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that it will allow the United States Supreme Court to uphold the Constitution and/or laws of the United States and even out the playing field in this instant action between the STRONG/POWERFUL/EVIL forces that look to destroy the lives of the weak/poor/good/innocent that do not have the legal arsenal and/or financial resources at their disposal to defend their lawsuits.

II. SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST/KU KLUX KLAN ACT

Newsome believes this matter needs to be addressed in light of the "INFAMOUS RACE SPEECH" provided by then Presidential Candidate Barack Obama. See EXHIBIT "139" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome believes that the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein as well as in the record of the lower courts will support/sustain that due to the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances involved in this matter; as well as the information contained herein this is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest and of NATIONAL security that impacts the lives of the citizens of the United States as well as those in foreign countries, the intervention of the United States Supreme Court is required. Moreover, because of the SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST attacks leveled against Newsome by United States President Obama and his Administration; by those who are members of the Bar to practice before this Court as well as lower courts; by members of the United States Senate/United States House of Representatives; by Judges/Justices; by employers, etc. that it is important to go PUBLIC and expose the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and other citizens that are RACIALLY motivated and appear to be efforts to take Newsome as well as other African-Americans and/or people of color back into SLAVERY/BONDAGE!! To understand the tactics and methods used to carry out such SUPREMACIST/TERRORISTIC efforts, Newsome attaches a copy of a document entitled, "The Willie Lynch Letter: The Making Of A Slave!" ("WILLIE LYNCH") – See EXHIBIT "5" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.[15] While some may find such information as WILLIE LYNCH highly sensitive, Newsome believes that this information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT as it reveals the use of practices/tactics (OUTLAWED many years ago) that have been REPEATEDLY used on Newsome as well as other African-Americans and/or people of color by SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups to beat her/her class of people into submission and servitude to accept the RACIAL biases and RACIAL injustices that have plagued Newsome and those of her class for years. Information which Newsome believes is of PUBLIC/NATIONAL/WORLDWIDE importance considering President Obama and those in his Administration has come out and PUBLICLY ridiculed Iran/Iraq, Afghanistan and other countries for their Human Rights violations; nevertheless are allowing and involved CONSPIRACIES and COVER-UP of Human Rights/Civil Rights violation, Constitutional violations and other criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and other African-American and/or people of color (i.e. citizens of the United States). Information that Newsome

Newsome states:

[n.10] Thirteenth Amendment committed nation to proposition that former slaves and their descendants should be forever free and to keep that promise Congress has power rationally to determine what are badges and incidents of slavery and authority to translate that determination into effective legislation.

[n.11] Ku Klux Klan Act is constitutional under Congress' powers under Thirteenth Amendment to create statutory cause of action for Negro citizens who have been victims of conspiratorial, racially discriminatory private action aimed at depriving them of basic rights that law secures to all free men.

15) The record evidence, facts and legal conclusions contained herein will support that the acts of Judge West, opposing counsel, President Obama, his Administration and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators are WILLFUL, MALICIOUS and WANTON. Moreover, that said attacks on Newsome have been done with deliberate intent to deprive her equal protection or equal privileges and immunities because of racial bias, racial prejudices, discriminatory and prejudicial animus towards her as well as other African-Americans and/or people of color for purposes of deprivation of EQUAL enjoyment of rights secured by law to all.

16) The record evidence will support that Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, along with Conspirators/Co-Conspirators, and others under the direction and/or leadership of Judge John Andrews West and Judge Nadine L. Allen did conspire and went on the premises of Newsome (i.e. storage unit) for purposes of depriving, directly or indirectly of EQUAL protection of laws and EQUAL privileges and immunities under laws, and by abusing judicial authority, usurping power/authority, Judge West, Judge Allen, Plaintiff Stor-All, its opposing counsel, its insurance provider and others did knowingly, willingly and with malicious intent caused to be done and did act in furtherance of object of conspiracy whereby Newsome has sustained irreparable injury/harm; moreover, Newsome has been injured in her person and property as well as deprived of having or exercising rights or privileges as a citizen of the United States.

17) The record evidence will support that the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome by Judge John Andrew West, Judge Nadine Allen, Plaintiff Stor-All, its attorneys, its insurance provider, and others are willful, malicious and wanton acts in furtherance of CONSPIRACY to enslave Newsome and subject her to involuntary servitude in the State of Ohio and/or states/cities in which she resides and/or do business.

18) The record evidence will support that the Newsome has REPEATEDLY been subjected to private conduct which Congress and/or other laws make criminally punishable and civilly remediable under the Thirteenth Amendment. Moreover, said private conduct which extends beyond actual imposition of slaver or involuntary servitude.

19) The record evidence will support that Newsome (an African-American and United States citizen) has REPEATEDLY been a victim of CONSPIRACY leveled against her which is racially discriminatory private action aimed at depriving her as well as other African-Americans of basic rights that law secures to all free men. Moreover, that Judge West, Judge Nadine Allen, Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance provider and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators did knowingly, willingly and with malicious intent engage in CONSPIRACY fueled by racial bias, racial prejudices, racially discriminatory private action, etc. aimed at depriving Newsome and other African-Americans of basic rights that law secures to all free men.

20) The record evidence will support and sustain that United States President Barack Obama, his Administration, United States Department of Justice, and the United States Congress/Legislature were timely, properly and adequately notified of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome as well as other African-Americans that are in violations of the Ku Klux Klan Act and other laws of the United States. Therefore, further supporting that this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC involves EXTREME and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances which warrants the United States Supreme Court's intervention and exercise jurisdiction of this matter to correct the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome, other African-Americans and/or citizens that have been victims of such crimes outlawed by the Ku Klux Kan Act and other laws of the United States.

21) Newsome believes Certiorari will be granted because it is of NATIONAL/WORLDWIDE importance to PUBLICLY expose the SUPREMACIST/TERRORISTIC practices of two MAJOR businesses –

Liberty Mutual Insurance Company and their lawyers (i.e. Baker Donelson, etc.) – who are behind the terrorist/hostile/bullying attacks against Newsome and may be behind the decisions made into going into NEEDLESS/SENSELESS wars in Iran/Iraq and Afghanistan for purposes of unlawfully/illegally seizing[16] these countries' lands, take away their way of live/liberties and control of their resources (i.e. oil, gas, coal, etc.). Newsome believes the evidence will support/sustain such racists groups as Liberty Mutual's and Baker Donelson's need to prove their SUPREMACY and/or DOMINENCE over other races and Nations/Leaders they see as weak and/or INFERIOR to them or the United States:

This instant appeal and lawsuit will address just how Liberty Mutual/Baker Donelson and its attorneys/lawyers may be using such TERRORISTIC and/or BULLYING tactics to incite fear in Judges/Justices to obtain an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in this lawsuit.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Moreover, how President Obama, his Administration and other Government Officials (Senators/Representatives, Judges, etc.) are allowing such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST organizations to counsel and advise them as well as those in President Obama's Administration/Staff and may be CONTROLLING and/or RUNNING the United States – i.e. by placing their people in TOP/KEY positions under the Obama Administration, throughout the judiciary, United States Senate/House of Representatives, etc.

Foreign Leaders are NOT going to be deceived. They are aware of such SUPREMACIST and TERRORIST groups that are running the United States Government. For example, see the Interview Transcript with Iran President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad wherein said knowledge is made known. Knowledge confirming statements in Newsome's July 13, 2010 Email.

[30] PUBLIC/WORLD needs to know because President Obama may be relying upon the advice of the same counsel and/or advisors used by President Bush.

> However, Gamal Eid, the head of the Arabic Network for Human Rights Information, said he planned to decline the invitation. The Israeli ambassador to Egypt also is invited, and Eid said he didn't want to be in the same room as a representative of what he called a "criminal" government.

The United States may be seen as a "CRIMINAL Government" because it allows such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST and Racial Injustices to continue although citizens (i.e. as Newsome) have taken the time to bring the matter to the attention of the President of the United States (Barack Obama); nevertheless, nothing is done. Newsome as recent releasing August 19, 2010 email entitled, UNITED STATES PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA: A CALL FOR IMPEACHMENT/RESIGNATIONS/FIRINGS---COVER-UP OF RACIAL INJUSTICES – How Many More Senseless/Needless Shootings As The Connecticut/Port Gibson/Virginia Tech, etc. Will Have To Continue – CLEARLY UNACCEPTABLE!!! What Is President Obama/Obama Administration Doing Regarding Complaints Filed by Newsome Which Addresses Such Matters? – See EXHIBIT "167" - Proof of Mailing ONLY attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Newsome believes it is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest that the reasons for the DETERIORATING relationship of the United States with Foreign Countries/Leaders may be due to the TRUTH being released of what is really going on in the United States. The United States want to place itself on a PLATFORM as a country to follow; nevertheless, its government is involved in SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST acts and seek to silence and destroy the lives of citizens (i.e. as Newsome, WikiLeaks' Leader [Julian Assange], etc.) who have stepped up to exercise their CONSTITUTIONAL Rights and release and share information about the CORRUPTION and COVER-UP by the United States Government. Newsome believes it was only because of Susan Reverby's uncovering of the "Sexually Transmitted Disease Inoculation Study" that the United States is doing everything to DIVERT the Public's/World's attention from further CRIMINAL and UNETHICAL practices of the United States Government. See EXHIBIT "152" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

22) Newsome believes that with the recent resignation of Rahm Emanuel, and President Obama's appointment of Pete Rouse to fill the Chief of Staff (in the interim) is still efforts of TERRORIST/SUPREMACIST groups to shield illegal animus and racial injustices leveled against Newsome and other people of color. In fact, Emanual being pleased that President Obama selected Pete Rouse because he could continue "to LEAD the OPERATION forward" that has been set in play to destroy Newsome as well as other people of color:

". . .a post that has been described as the second most powerful job in the U.S. government."

"Obama laughingly described as "leaving his post today to explore other opportunities."

*"As difficult as it is to leave, I do so with the great comfort that Pete Rouse will be there to lead the operation forward," Emanuel said."

Tom "Daschle handed over to Obama dozens of his most trusted aides and political supporters, a gift *that continues to PAY DIVIDENDS. Obama has already placed Daschle allies Pete Rouse and *Phil Schiliro in TOP White House POSITIONS, and named former DASCHLE adviser John Podesta as co-chairman of the transition team.

Republicans made clear. . . Daschle can expect questions at this confirmation hearing about lobbying by his law firm, *as well as his wife's work as a Washington lobbyist.

"Barack Obama is filling his administration with longtime Washington insiders,". . . "For voters hoping to see new faces and fewer lobbyist connections in government, Daschle's nomination will be another disappointment."

Moreover, take advantage of the second most powerful job in United States Government. See EXHIBIT "168" – Pete Rouse information attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The PUBLIC/WORLD needs to know who is running the White House/United States Government and the racial bias/prejudices of said CONTROLLERS and/or DECISIONMAKERS!! Baker Donelson being sure to have their people in KEY/TOP positions so that it can continue to RUN the United States and PROMOTE its racist agenda against people of color and Foreign Countries/Leaders as those of Iran, Iraq and Afghanistan.

23) Newsome believes that Judges like Judge West, Judge Porteous, Judge DeLaughter encourage SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST acts by accepting bribe of parties, engaging in conspiracies and then attempting to COVER-UP their crimes. Furthermore, the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions support that in the Conspiracies leveled against Newsome, law firms such as: Baker Donelson; Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin; and Markesbery & Richardson Co, etc. merely are TERRORIST CELLS.

TERRORIST CELLS which operate in placing lies (false and/or misleading information) on the Internet -- just as the United States lied about "WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION" to get other countries/nations to join them in the wars in Iran/Iraq because it wanted to shield/hide from its allies the real reason for going into Iran/Iraq may have been for their resources (i.e oil, gas, gold, coal, etc.). In order to be successful, the United States needed allies who were likeminded and has a hatred towards African-Americans and/or people of color, people of different faiths/religions - - as it relates to Newsome so that those who rely upon the internet would see information MALICIOUSLY posted by the United States Government that it knew as FALSE, MALICIOUSLY and placed on the Internet for purposes of BLACKLISTING Newsome. Such practices which clearly are in violation of Newsome's Constitutional Rights, Civil Rights and other governing statutes/laws. United States Government has placed information on the Internet regarding Newsome for purposes of depriving her life, liberties and the pursuit of happiness.

Both Judge West and President Obama (with those of his Administration) have aligned themselves with SUPREMACIST Terrorist Groups/Cells that are determined, obsessed and consumed with not only destroying Newsome's life but the lives of many other citizens (i.e. with main focus on the African-American communities and/or the lives of people of color).

Just as it did to finance its attacks on Newsome, such SUPREMACIST Terrorist Groups are financed/fueled through their (Baker Donelson) own monies and/or those of their clients (i.e. Liberty Mutual, JP Morgan Chase Bank*, PNC Bank*, etc.) who back such criminal/civil injustices.[31] Then when

[31] It is no secret that banks make a profit off of charging "FEES." Therefore, JP Morgan Chase engaged in CONSPIRACY with the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue with knowledge that said agency had NOT complied with the statutes laws governing said matters. Moreover, with knowledge and/or should have known that the statute(s) provided by the Kentucky Department of Revenue had been COMPROMISED (i.e. falsified and rewritten) for purposes of FRAUD. According to representative (LaTrenda – Supervisor in the Levy Department of Chase Bank) at JP Morgan have an AGREEMENT and that JP Morgan Chase has acted upon such demands presented on other citizens and clients of said bank. Therefore, supporting that this matter is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest. From additional information Newsome retrieved from the Internet, it appears that JP Morgan Chase, its counsel and/or Baker Donelson may just conveniently find themselves on the other end of deals that may involve defrauding MUNICIPALITIES and citizens for "FINANCIAL/PERSONAL" interest and making profits off of fees charged through unlawful/illegal SCHEMES/SCAMS – i.e. for instance see EXHIBIT "27." Also see EXHIBIT "144" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein:

Interest Swap Deal Bad News For Jackson:

> . . . a local government slowly dragged into bankruptcy after it bet its municipal bonds on complex derivatives. . .
> . . . Unfortunately for the rest of us, the gang of four voted for this deal along with swap-promoter and Finance Director Rick Hill probably had no real idea of what they were doing, as many officials in other cities have discovered to their dismay.

it is time to pay Newsome for the liability sustained from the injury/harm caused, such SUPREMACIST Terrorist Groups then look to UNLAWFULLY/ILLEGALLY seizure of her property, bank accounts, etc. for purposes of DESTROYING evidence and COVERING UP their

. . .Jackson is exposed to an adjustable rate agreement similar to those that have devastated other local governments. The fees were not even mentioned or made available to the public yet we were expected to fork over millions of dollars of our money to bankers and "advisers."

Councilman Jeff Weill of Ward 1 voted against the bill and sent this statement. . .

"I had no comfort level with the swap initially proposed last November. Since that time the mayor of Birmingham's been indicted and attorneys general across the U.S. have convened grand juries looking into these schemes. They are purely fee driven. Even the 'independent' financial advisers who advised the council had an interest in the transaction, not to mention the players and the bond lawyers.

"Most of those proposing this deal worked hard to obscure the costs of issuance. As a lawyer and former prosecutor that was a giant red flag to me. . ."

Bloomberg reported how Birmingham's Jefferson County thought it could use these swaps to its advantage as it fell for some sweet talk from Wall Street:

"The county relied on advice from a bank, JP Morgan Chase and Co., to arrange its funding, rather than use competitive bidding. . .*

'The county *paid banks $120 million in fees – six times the prevailing rate – for $5.8 billion in interest-rate swaps. That was supposed to protect the county from rising rates for their bonds. Lending rates went the wrong way, putting the county $277 million deeper into debt . . ."

"Officials there (in Birmingham) relied on the advice of JP Morgan in 2002 and 2003 while refinancing almost all of the $3.2 billion of fixed-rate debt that built sewers into variable-rate bonds coupled with interest-rate swaps. . .

When Birmingham tried to escape the death spiral it faced, the bankers from New York turned into Bruno and Vito from Jersey when it failed to post $184 million collateral and was in technical default. JP Morgan and other counterparties wanted Jefferson County to raise taxes to cover the debt.* Jefferson in turn wanted Wall Street to renegotiate the swaps. One County Commissioner told the Birmingham News, "We are dealing with a virtual immovable force on Wall Street." Consequently, several commissioners are pushing the county to declare bankruptcy while the mayor of Birmingham faces criminal prosecution for receiving bribes and favors for these no-bid contracts. Such a bankruptcy will be the largest municipal bankruptcy in American history.

Birmingham is not the only city suffering from the interest rate swap time bomb. The New York Times reported the rate adjustments on these swaps harmed many small towns in Tennessee. Lewisburg, a town of only 11,000, saw its "annual interest payments on the bond had quadrupled to $1 million this year." Some municipalities tried to withdraw from these bond market traps:

In Claiborne County, north of Knoxville,. . .* municipal bond derivative would cost $3 million, a sum the poor county cannot afford. . ."

In Mount Juliet, a suburb east of Nashville. . .*bonds had increased by 500 percent to $478,000. . ."

. . . The city has brought on Stern Agee and Leach Inc., a national investment firm with an office in Jackson, to serve as its financial advisor, as well as two local law firms – Baker Donelson Bearman Caldwell and Berkowitz, . . .* to serve as legal counsel for the transaction.

. . .The reporter failed to ask Mr. Hill what happened if the rates adjusted. No serious person expects the interest rates to remain near zero as they are now. As interest rates increase (not to mention the effect Obama's deficit spending will have on the bond markets) over the next few years, any deal using these variable rates will cost Jackson much more money. Something ignored by Mr. *Hill while he pimped this deal for the loan sharks.

. . . Since the fees for these refinances will cost us up to more than $4 million, Mr. Hill should have sought competitive bids. What was his criteria for choosing these banks? What are the fees going to be and why are we awarding contracts worth millions in fees without any bidding whatsoever? In fact, the story says the terms are being negotiated. The city council approved these swaps without even knowing the final terms of the agreement. .

criminal/civil violations. Just as the United States Government is doing now to pay its debt – i.e. starting SENSELESS/NEEDLESS wars against smaller countries (i.e. Iran/Iraq and Afghanistan) that they believe are WEAKER, DEFEATABLE and WORTHLESS with intent of going in and enslaving the citizens of Iran/Iraq and Afghanistan for purposes of stealing and/or taking control of their resources (i.e. oil, gas, gold, fuel, coal, etc.).

24) Newsome believes that based upon the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances, it is for NATIONAL/WORLDWIDE security to stop such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups (i.e. as Liberty Mutual, Baker Donelson, their insureds and those that Conspire with them) from engaging in such Terrorist acts that are FUELED by racial bias, racial prejudices, discriminatory animus and hatred towards Newsome as well as other African-Americans and/or people of color. Moreover, to EXPOSE the true reasons and who was behind the TERRORISTIC acts to go to war against Iran, Iraq and Afghanistan and that said decisions which determined such actions may have indeed been FUELED by Racial bias, Racial prejudices, Discriminatory animus and the need by those in whom the President of the United States harbor DEEP resentment and HATRED towards African-Americans and/or people of color and place themselves in a position of SUPREMACY and believe that ALL other groups (i.e. African-Americans, Arabs, Iranians, Iraqis, Afghanis, etc.) are in INFERIOR!

25) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusion to be presented will support/sustain Judge West's ties to such TERRORIST/BULLYING groups that rely upon him to enter into CONSPIRACY and cover-up the criminal/civil wrongs of Liberty Mutual, its clients, its lawyers and/or others. Moreover, the NEXUS between President Obama and his Administration's FINANCIAL and/or PERSONAL interest in this matter and how they have FAILED to prosecute Criminal Complaints filed by Newsome because their supporters involved are TOP/KEY Financial Campaign Contributors.

> Important To Note: *Failing to arrest, indict and prosecute Judge West and others so that they can fulfill their role in the CONSPIRACY and dismiss the lawsuit as he had planned to do on September 28, 2010, and deprive Newsome of JURY Trial as well as relief sought in PENDING motions that take priority over any motions that he had set for September 28, 2010.

26) This Appeal will be of National and/or WORLDWIDE importance because it involves a sitting United States President – Barack Hussein Obama ("President Obama") and his role in the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome and will expose his knowledge of RACIAL INJUSTICES and DISCRIMINATORY/PREJUDICIAL practices not only leveled against Newsome but other citizens (i.e. African-Americans and/or people of color). While President Obama has demanded that foreign nations/leaders clean up the CORRUPTION, Human Rights/Civil Rights violations in their countries, he himself (as well as his Administration) has CONSPIRED and sought to COVER-UP and has failed to prosecute criminal complaints filed by Newsome. Said failure which the record evidence will support is in furtherance of CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome known to President Obama and his Administration.

27) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that just as President Obama, Government Agency(s) and those they rely upon for counsel/advice *have elected to RECENTLY come out and attacked Newsome's finances and EMBEZZLE monies due her as well as the government going PUBLIC and advertising/posting FALSE/MALICIOUS information on the INTERNET it knew and/or should have known was obtained through unlawful/illegal practices (i.e bribery, coercion, blackmail, extortion, etc.), thus, requires PUBLIC EXPOSURE and PUBLIC RESPONSE through the United States Supreme Court that such TERRORISTIC and/or BULLYING of citizens for exercising their Constitutional Rights will NOT be tolerated by the high Court.

> Milkovich v. Lorain Journal Co., 110 S.Ct. 2695 (1990) - Where statement of "opinion" on matter of public concern reasonably implies false and defamatory facts involving private figure, plaintiff must show that false implications were made with some level of fault to support recovery. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 1.

Moreover, the need for the United States Supreme Court's sending a message through its decision(s) that the evening out of the playing field for the strong versus the weak will be determined by the laws of the land and not by BIG MONEY/SPECIAL INTERESTS Groups who engage in criminal actions and civil violations to obtain an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage over the poor and/or disadvantaged citizens:

> Paul proclaimed his innocence to . . . leaders. When is it wise to make a public response to false accusations, and when should we just let them go?
> In the case of Paul, the gospel would have been discredited if he had not spoken up. His circumstances made him look like a criminal, and he had no history with these leaders to expect them to assume otherwise without a proper defense.
> If we have been publicly slandered by credible sources, we should probably make a public response. Otherwise our own witness will be compromised. . . Jesus warned us that some people will say all manner of evil against us falsely, so we should not be surprised when it happens. But we do need to exercise wisdom when we become aware of it.[32]

See EXHIBIT "19" – Excerpt from Commentary attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, Newsome is reminded of another scripture provided by King James out of 1 Timothy 1:8 - But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully. Therefore, rather than take the laws into her own hand, Newsome brings this matter before the United States Supreme Court.

28) On or about January 27, 2010, United States President Obama, through his State of the Union Address, PUBLICLY chastised and/or humiliated the United States Supreme Court for its decision in Citizens United v Federal Election Commission, 558 U.S. 50 (2010) stating:

> But we can't stop there. It's time to require lobbyists to disclose each contact they make on behalf of a client with my Administration or Congress. And it's time to put strict limits on the contributions that lobbyists give to candidates for federal office. Last week, the Supreme Court reversed a century of law to open the floodgates for special interests – including foreign corporations – to spend without limit in our elections. Well I don't think American elections should be bankrolled by America's most powerful interests, or worse, by foreign entities. They should be decided by the American people, and that's why I'm urging Democrats and Republicans to pass a bill that helps to right this wrong.

See EXHIBIT "20" at Page 8 – 01/27/10 State of the Union Address attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, President Obama should be required to DISCLOSE his lobbyists and require his lobbyists to disclose each contact they make on behalf of him, his Administration and/or Congress. Moreover, lobbyists to disclose each contact they make on behalf of a client with President Obama, his Administration and/or Congress.

[32] 2009-2010 Standard Lesson Commentary (King James Version) - August 29, 2010 Lesson Entitled: "Upheld By God" - Subtitle: "Let's Talk It Over."

To Newsome it appears President Obama uses such platforms to embellish and stroke his oversized EGO while abandoning the "Oath of Office" taken and ignoring the protected rights of citizens secured under the United States Constitution. The eloquent speeches of President Obama appear to be merely those filled with "hot air" and/or "mere ramblings" lacking substance and action by him, his Administration and Party. However, President Obama failed to mention in his speech the following – the FINANCIAL/PERSONAL INTEREST and his role, his Administration's and his SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS'/LOBBYISTS' role in the lawsuit out of which this appeal arises; as well as:

a. The COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome that were timely, properly and adequately reported to President Obama and his Administration through the applicable complaints filed – i.e. while complaints were properly brought, to date NO arrests, indictments and/or prosecutions have resulted from reporting of crimes - - resulting in FAILURE to prosecute crimes reported and clearly in violation of rights secured under the United States Constitution and/or governing statutes/laws of the United States. Moreover, depriving Newsome rights afforded to other citizens; however, deprived her in RETALIATION. Thus, supporting failure to provide her with equal protection of the laws and due process of laws secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution;

b. That President Obama may be relying upon the counsel/advice of Baker Donelson whose TOP LOBBYIST was (and/or still may be) Linda Daschle – the wife of Tom Daschle. Tom Daschle being the person that President Obama's counselors/advisors wanted for the position of United States Secretary of Health and Human Services so that he could help push the Health Care Reform Bill through that other U.S. Presidents before him failed to get passed. However, Newsome believes that the strategy of those in whom President Obama seeks counsel/advice from thought that changing the color of the skin of the President of the United States would allow them to be successful in the passing of the Health Care Reform Bill they are claiming success on; however, FAIL to reveal just how far they may have gone to get the votes needed.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is pertinent in that the Certiorari action Newsome will bring will expose the PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL practices leveled against > her and other citizens for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in legal matters. Furthermore, when Newsome submitted her Criminal/Civil Complaints to the attention of President Obama and others in his Administration, he knowingly, willingly and maliciously withheld information from Newsome as to any CONFLICT OF INTEREST (if any) regarding those who counsel/advise him, LOBBYISTS (if any) retained by him and conducting business on his behalf who may have a financial/personal interests in matters involving Newsome. President Obama and those under his Administration failed to advise Newsome of any CONFICLT OF INTEREST (if any) regarding the POWERFUL/SPECIAL INTERESTS groups known to him that has a Personal/Financial Interest in the outcome of the lower court action and/or any other legal actions in which Newsome is involved and/or may be brought by her.

This is a United States President who is also an attorney and one schooled in the laws of the United States – finishing in the top of his Harvard Law School Class. Moreover, makes known his Area of Specialty is Constitutional Law, Civil Rights Law, etc. Nevertheless, has made a knowingly WILLFUL and CONSCIOUS decision to abandon the "Oath of Office" for the President of the United States as well as the one taken when he became and attorney (i.e. member of the Bar):"

> I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.

Therefore, there is NO excuse for President Obama's ARROGANCE and placing himself, his Administration and those engaged in conspiracy, above the law because he is the President of the United States. It appears that President Obama is an embarrassment and disgrace not only to the office that he holds but to the United States citizens, Newsome and other African-Americans and/or people of color because such behavior is UNACCEPTABLE.[33]

c. The COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs of President Obama's Top/Key Financial Supporters/Advisors leveled against Newsome are in violation of the United States Constitution and other governing statutes/laws;

[33] Teddy Roosevelt: "Unless a man is honest we have no right to keep him in public life, it matters not how brilliant his capacity, it hardly matters how great his power of doing good service on certain lines may be... No man who is corrupt, no man who condones corruption in others, can possibly do his duty by the community.

d. The COVER-UP of a Pattern-Of-Criminal/Civil wrongs leveled against Newsome as well as other citizens (i.e. African-Americans and/or people of color) are in violation of the United States Constitution and other governing statutes/laws;

e. The COVER-UP of Racial Injustices and Discriminatory/Prejudicial practices leveled against Newsome and/or other citizens are in violation of the United States Constitution and other governing statutes/laws;

f. The RETALIATION leveled against Newsome and other citizens for her exposing and coming forth revealing President Obama and his Administration's/Advisors' role in the COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and/or people of color are in violation of the United States Constitution and other governing statutes/laws;

g. Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts addressed the remarks made by President Obama in his 01/27/10 State of the Union Address to students:

> Speaking in response to a law student's question, Roberts said anyone could criticize the court and, indeed, our governmental system of separation of powers encourages such opinionated diversity. Then, the chief justice added:
>
> I have no problems with that. On the other hand, there is the issue of the setting, the circumstances and the decorum.
> The image of having the members of one branch of government standing up, literally surrounding the Supreme Court, cheering and hollering while the court — according to the requirements of protocol — has to sit there expressionless, I think is very troubling.

Many citizens are not aware of President Obama's need to beat, encourage and entice such supporters into such frenzy – they just happened to be some of those who surrounded the Supreme Court. Most likely the very ones that may have links/ties to the BIG MONEY Interests Groups which fuel President Obama, his Administration, their Agendas and other campaigns. From Newsome's research it appears that President Obama's Top/Key counselors/advisors hold, held and/or know those in PROMINENT positions in the Executive Office of the United States/White House, United States Senate/United States House of Representatives. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: See List below at Paragraph 28(h)/Page 44 of this pleading. Most likely such BIG INTEREST GROUP supporters may assist in the drafting of President Obama's speech(es).

h. That while President Obama went PUBLIC on the attacks of Justice Roberts for instance stating:

> Why Obama Voted Against Roberts
> 'He has used his formidable skills on behalf of the strong in opposition to the weak.'
>
> The following is from then-Sen. Barack Obama's floor statement explaining why he would vote against confirming Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts (September 2005): . . .
> I talked to Judge Roberts about this. Judge Roberts confessed that, unlike maybe professional politicians, it is not easy for him to talk about his values and his deeper feelings. That is not how he is trained. He did say he doesn't like bullies and has always viewed the law as a way of evening out the playing field between the strong and the weak.
> I was impressed with that statement because I view the law in much the same way. The problem I had is that when I examined Judge Roberts' record and history of public service, it is my personal estimation that he has far more often used his formidable skills on behalf of the strong in opposition to the weak. In his work in the White House and the Solicitor General's Office, he seemed to have consistently sided with those who were dismissive of efforts to eradicate the remnants of racial discrimination in our political process. In these same positions, he seemed dismissive of the concerns that it is harder to make it in this world and in this economy when you are a woman rather than a man.

I want to take Judge Roberts at his word that he doesn't like bullies and he sees the law and the court as a means of evening the playing field between the strong and the weak. But given the gravity of the position to which he will undoubtedly ascend and the gravity of the decisions in which he will undoubtedly participate during his tenure on the court, I ultimately have to give more weight to his deeds and the overarching political philosophy that he appears to have shared with those in power than to the assuring words that he provided me in our meeting.

The bottom line is this: I will be voting against John Roberts' nomination. . . .

See EXHIBIT "21" – June 2, 2009 Wall Street Journal Article, attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. It is President Obama himself who has used his formidable skills, political clout and is now using the Office of the President of the United States to COVER-UP criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and other citizens that have been timely, properly and adequately reported to him and his Administration. Said acts/practices by President Obama which are clearly in violation of the OATH of the President of the United States Administered by Justice Roberts.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome through her Certiorari action will show how the actions of Judge West which resulted in her filing of Affidavit of Disqualification as well as those he has knowingly and willingly CONSPIRED with will support the ongoing CONSPIRACY, BULLYING, SUPREMACIST/TERRORISTS actions, etc. leveled against Newsome in efforts of forcing/coercing her to forego rights secured under the United States Constitution and other statutes/laws governing said matters. Furthermore, Newsome's Certiorari action will provide facts, evidence and legal conclusions to support PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL and CIVIL wrongs leveled against Newsome (pro se/indigent litigant) to assure that the playing field is HEAVILY tilted in favor of BIG MONEY Insurance Company(s), Employer(s) and their attorneys/law firms. *Practices which apparently was of grave concern that the United States Congress had to create a Bill to address said matters and concerns of INJUSTICES House Report No. 92-23*8:

> By including this provision in the bill, the committee emphasizes that the nature of . . . actions more often than not pits parties of unequal strength and resources against each other. The complainant, who is usually a member of the disadvantaged class, is opposed by an employer who . . . has at his disposal a vast of resources and legal talent*.*

Nevertheless, President Barack (while he has a history of attacking Justice Roberts out of concerns of that expressed by Congress) is now himself engaging in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs to cover-up the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome because those involved are Top/Key Financial Contributors/Advisors to his political campaign. Not only that, information Newsome has been able to retrieve from the Internet supports that President Obama's Top/Key Financial Contributors/Supporters STRATEGICALLY and/or ADVANTAGEOUSLY place their people in CRITICAL positions for purposes of unlawfully/illegally influencing decisions of factfinders – i.e. Judges/Justices. For example one of President Obama's Top/Key Supporters/Advisor, Baker Donelson Bearman Caldwell & Berkowitz ["Baker Donelson"] PRIOR to Newsome's going PUBLIC regarding criminal/civil wrongs (i.e. CRIMINAL STALKING, harassment, discriminatory practices, etc.) leveled against her and other African-Americans and/or people of color, Baker Donelson advertised the following information via the INTERNET:

> Current and former Baker Donelson attorneys and advisors include, among many other highly distinguished individuals, people who have served as:
>
> - Chief of Staff to the President of the United States
> - United States Secretary of State
> - United States Senate Majority Leader
> - Members of the United States Senate

- Members of the United States House of Representatives
- Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control for United States
- Department of Treasury
- Director of the Administrative Office of the United States
- Chief Counsel, Acting Director, and Acting Deputy Director of United States Citizenship & Immigration Services within the United States Department of Homeland Security
- Majority and Minority Staff Director of the Senate Committee on Appropriations
- Member of United States President's Domestic Policy Council
- Counselor to the Deputy Secretary for the United States Department of HHS
- Chief of Staff of the Supreme Court of the United States
- Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice of the United States
- Deputy under Secretary of International Trade for the United States Department of Commerce
- Ambassador to Japan
- Ambassador to Turkey
- Ambassador to Saudi Arabia
- Ambassador to the Sultanate of Oman
- Governor of Tennessee
- Governor of Mississippi
- Deputy Governor and Chief of Staff for the Governor of Tennessee
- Commissioner of Finance & Administration (Chief Operating Officer) - State of Tennessee
- Special Counselor to the Governor of Virginia
- United States Circuit Court of Appeals Judge
- United States District Court Judges

- United States Attorneys
- Presidents of State and Local Bar Associations

EMPHASIS ADDED in that information is pertinent to establish the CONSPIRACY and PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Newsome out of which this Appeal arises. This information was originally located at:

see attached as EXHIBIT "22" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. It is such information which had been posted for several years. See EXHIBIT "23" listing pulled approximately September 11, 2004. However, since Newsome has gone PUBLIC and is releasing this information, Baker Donelson has SCRUBBED this information from the Internet. It was a good thing Newsome retained copy for her record to EVIDENCE information posted on the Internet. Information supporting FINANCIAL SUPPORT and SPECIAL/PERSONAL Interest of Baker Donelson and the role it may have played can also be found in information Newsome was able to retrieve from the Internet to support this listing and the role President Obama, his Administration and counselors and/or advisors are playing in the handling of this instant lawsuit in the lower Ohio Courts as well as other matters involving Newsome – see EXHIBIT "24" – Financial Contribution Information attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

i. This is an action in which a sitting President of the United States Barack Obama (as Head of the EXECUTIVE Branch of the United States Government) is attempting to ABUSE his Executive powers and influence outcome in matters occurring under the jurisdiction of the Judicial Branch for purposes of providing his Top/Key FINANCIAL and/or SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS with an undue/unlawful advantage over matters (i.e. criminal and civil) brought to his attention. The Certiorari action Newsome seeks to bring evolves from an ONGOING conspiracy involving the Top/Key Financial Supporters and/or Contributors of President Obama, his Administration and others wherein the most recent PLAN-OF-ATTACK that was leveled against Newsome was set for September 28, 2010 at 2:15 p.m. (i.e. to throw said lawsuit in favor of President Obama's supporters' insured [Stor-All] and deprive Newsome rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution) and now a DECISION is set to be rendered by Judge West on or about Friday, October 22, 2010. Therefore, requiring the relief Newsome seeks through this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

j. President Obama and his Administration have a REPUTATION of coming out PUBLICLY/NATIONALLY and using VICIOUS and DEPLORABLE tactics for purposes of getting their agenda and viewpoints across. The Obama Administration is one of HYPOCRISY in that while it has repeatedly gone after foreign countries/leaders for their HUMAN RIGHTS and/or CIVIL RIGHTS violations, is an Administration that is presently and continues to engage in said violations themselves. Moreover, resorting to CRIMINAL and BULLYING tactics for purposes of getting Newsome to forego protected rights. Clearly, placing themselves above the law and/or seeing themselves as being SUPERIOR/SUPREME to the laws of the United States.

k. Newsome believes that Certiorari action is of National/Worldwide importance in that it may not only sustain/support some of the beliefs of United States citizens but that of Foreign Nations/Foreign Leaders as to why the United States is seen as a RACIST and EVIL country and not one to be trusted; moreover, why it is hated by so many Foreign Leaders and/or Foreign Countries/Citizens. Furthermore, how some Foreign Nations/Foreign Leaders were not deceived by the election of President Obama. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The MAJORITY of votes of the United States citizens for United States President DO NOT count – the Electoral Colleges decide who the United States President will be.

III. IRREPARABLE INJURY/HARM

Newsome believes that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions will sustain that based upon the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances out of which this Appeal and/or Certiorari action will be brought will support/sustain that without the United States Supreme Court's intervention and retaining jurisdiction of this matter that Newsome will sustain further IRREPARABLE injury/harm to her person and property. Moreover, due to the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances addressed herein, it is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest that the United States Supreme Court intervene to put an end to the SUPREMACIST/TERRORISTIC practices of Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance provider and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators – i.e. for FAILURE to do so will cause irreparable injury/harm to others citizens as well as foreign nations if such CONSPIRACIES and CORRUPTION is allowed to continue to RUN RAPIDLY through our culture and society without consequences for the willful, malicious and wanton acts carried out against innocent citizens and/or civilians. In further support thereof, Newsome states:

F) Newsome will sustain IRREPARABLE injury/harm should this Court deny her Emergency Motion to Stay and/or EMTS & MFEOTWOC – in that:

> Under this section which authorizes the stay of execution and enforcement of a judgment or decree to enable an aggrieved party to obtain a writ of certiorari form the United States Supreme Court, a stay is authorized only if the judgment sought be stayed is final and is subject to review by the Supreme Court on writ of certiorari. New York Times Co. v. Jascalevich (1978), 99 S.Ct. 6, 439 U.S. 1317, 58 L.Ed.2d 25; 99 S.Ct. 11, 439 U.S. 1331, 58 L.Ed.2d 38.
> Three conditions must be met before single justice of the Supreme Court will issue a stay; there must be a reasonable probability that certiorari will be granted or probable jurisdiction noted, significant possibility that judgment below will be reversed, and likelihood of irreparable harm, assuming the correctness of the applicant's position, if the judgment is not stayed. (Per Justice Scalia, as Circuit Justice.) Barnes v. E-Systems, Inc. Group Hosp. Medical & Surgical Ins. Plan, (1991), 112 S.Ct. 1, 501 U.S. 1301, 115 L.Ed.2d 1087.

i. President Obama, his Administration and others in efforts of providing their BIG MONEY/SPECIAL INTERESTS groups' clients with an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in the instant lawsuit have:

(1) unlawfully/illegally EMBEZZLED Newsome's 2009 Federal Income Tax Return (i.e. IRS had already taken out taxes owed it); and

(2) prior to the originally scheduled July 21, 2010 hearing before Judge West, on July 17, 2010, criminal actions where initiated under the direction/leadership of President Obama which resulted in the unlawful/illegal SEIZURE of Newsome's Bank Account(s) for purposes of financially devastating her and causing her financial ruin in RETALIATION to Newsome's releasing of July 13, 2010 email entitled, "U.S. PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA: THE DOWNFALL/DOOM OF THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION– Corruption/Conspiracy/Cover-Up/ Criminal Acts Made Public," – See EXHIBIT "25" - (LETTER Only – supporting attachments referenced were provided in email) attached hereto and incorporated by reference; wherein she was exercising her rights under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution. Newsome believes upon the release of the July 13, 2010 email, President Obama and his Administration may have recalled the August 12, 2009 Complaint submitted to his attention and United States Attorney Eric Holder's attention regarding the Kentucky Department of Revenue – See EXHIBIT "26"- Complaint and USPS Mailing Receipts - *and used said knowledge to instruct and/or encourage it to carry out the execution of the unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's Bank Account(s) alleging claim for "CHILD SUPPORT" – when Newsome has no children and neither has there ever been a Court Order issued against her to sustain such an action - and Kentucky Department of Revenue REWRITING statutes (creating "sham legal process" and encouraging others to act upon such frivolous document) by stating:

KRS 131 130(11) provides:

> (11) The cabinet may enter into annual memoranda of agreement with any state agency officer board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or other state organization to assume the collection duties for any liquidated debts due the state entity and may renew that agreement for up to five (5) years. Under such an agreement, the cabinet shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund, and administration of those liquidated debts as provided under
> (a) KRS Chapters 131 134 and 135 for the collection, refund and administration of delinquent taxes, and (b) Any applicable statutory provisions governing the state agency, officer board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or other state organization for the collection, refund and administration of any liquidated debts due the state entity.
> Pursuant to KRS 131 130(11)[34] the Department of Revenue has entered into a memoranda of agreement with Cabinet for Health and Family Services, Division of Child Support. The memoranda of agreement authorizes the Department of Revenue assist the Cabinet for Health and Family Services in the collection of child support, which includes attaching the delinquent parent's assets maintained in financial institutions. The above statute authorizes the Department of Revenue to utilize the same collection tools to collect child support arrearages as used to collect delinquent taxes. As a result, the financial institutions will receive the Department of Revenue's levy instead of the Order to Withhold and Deliver or an order from the court, for the child support cases enforced by the Department of Revenue.

See EXHIBIT "27" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The Kentucky Revise Statute 131. 130(11) merely states:

> (11) The department may enter into annual memoranda of agreement with any state agency, officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or > other state organization to assume the collection duties for any debts due the state entity and may renew that agreement for up to five (5) years. Under such an agreement, the department shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund, and administration of those liquidated debts as provided under:

[34] There is no such statute as referenced by the Kentucky Department of Revenue – TAMPERED and/or COMPROMISED wording of statute(s) for purposes of SHAM legal process used to engage others to participate in CONSPIRACY.

> (a) KRS Chapters 131, 134, and 135 for the collection, refund, and administration of delinquent taxes; and

See EXHIBIT "28" KRS 131.130(11) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Furthermore, record evidence will support that as early as August 12, 2009, the Kentucky Department of Revenue's Commissioner (Thomas B. Miller), United States Department of Justice Attorney General (Eric H. Holder, Jr.) and United States President Obama were timely, properly and adequately provided with Complaint filed by Newsome regarding this matter and Newsome requested:

> II. That the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue provide its response to this instant Complaint and Rebuttal to August 1,2009, FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE - providing U.S. Attorney Eric Holder with a copy of said response as well. (See at Page 12).

See EXHIBIT "26" – 08/12/09 Complaint and PROOF of Mailing and RECEIPT attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Supporting that the Kentucky Department of Revenue knew and/or should have known that it was engaging in criminal/civil wrongs. Moreover, supporting that the Kentucky Department of Revenue knowingly and willingly opened up the Commonwealth for legal action and/or lawsuit – See at Page 3, Paragraphs (12) and (14).

ii. Based upon the above facts and evidence, Newsome believes a reasonable mind may conclude that the Kentucky Department of Revenue/Officials for purposes of fulfilling its role in CONSPIRACY for purposes of providing President Obama's Top/Key Financial Campaign Contributors with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in the lawsuit – attacking Newsome's finance's to hinder, obstruct justice, and deprive her EQUAL protection and DUE PROCESS of laws secured under the United States Constitution. NEXUS - - Newsome having established the connection/relationship with the TERRORIST groups (Liberty Mutual/Baker Donelson) and their relationship to President Obama (i.e. Top/Key Financial Campaign Contributors) having a PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interest in the outcome of this lawsuit and/or legal actions involving Newsome and/or to be brought by Newsome. Further supporting the IRREPARABLE injury/harm Newsome will sustain should this Court deny her Motion to Stay and/or EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

iii. The lower state courts (i.e. Ohio Supreme Court, Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas – Cincinnati, Ohio and Hamilton County Municipal Court – Cincinnati, Ohio) are attempting to cover-up their role in CONSPIRACY and CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Newsome. Further supporting the IRREPARABLE injury/harm Newsome will sustain should this Court deny her Motion to Stay and/or EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

iv. This is an action in which the Plaintiff in the lower court action (Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas/Hamilton County Municipal Court) failed to file timely Answer to Counterclaim and has made NUMEROUS errors in which it is now attempting to use the lower courts to AID and ABET through criminal/civil wrongs as well as unlawfully/illegally get the lawsuit dismissed. Further supporting the IRREPARABLE injury/harm Newsome will sustain should this Court deny her Motion to Stay and/or EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

v. Newsome is a paying litigant and paid the required "JURY FEE"[35] – See EXHIBIT "29" – Court RECEIPT attached [35] Baylis v. Travelers' Ins. Co., 113 U.S. 316, 5 S.Ct. 494 (1885) - . . .But, without a waiver of the right of trial by jury, by consent of parties, the court errs if it substitutes itself for the jury, and, passing upon the effect *321 of the evidence, finds the facts involved in the issue, and renders judgment thereon.

This is what was done in the present case. It may be that the conclusions of fact reached and stated by the court are correct, and, when properly ascertained, that they require such a judgment as was rendered. That is a question not before us. The plaintiff in error complains that he was entitled to have the evidence submitted to the jury, and to the benefit of such conclusions of fact as it might justifiably have drawn; a right he demanded and did not waive; and that he has been deprived of it, by the act of the court, in entering a judgment against him on its own view of the evidence, without the intervention of a jury. In this particular, we think error has been well assigned.

The right of trial by jury in the courts of the United States is expressly secured by the seventh article of amendment to the constitution, and congress has, by statute, provided for the trial of issues of fact in civil cases by the court without the intervention of a jury, only when the parties waive their right to a jury by a stipulation in writing. Rev. St. §§ 648, 649. This constitutional right this court has always guarded with jealousy. Doe v. Grymes, 1 Pet. 469; D'Wolf v. Rabaud, Id. 476; Castle v. Bullard, 23 How. 172; Hodges v. Easton, 106 U. S. 408; S. C. 1 SUP. CT. REP. 307.

hereto and incorporated by reference; nevertheless, the Ohio Supreme Court and the lower Ohio Courts are attempting to STRIP/DEPRIVE Newsome of protected rights secured/guaranteed under the United States/Ohio Constitution. Further supporting the IRREPARABLE injury/harm Newsome will sustain should this Court deny her Motion to Stay and/or EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

Moore v. Guthrie Hospital, Inc., 403 F.2d 366 (1968) - [n.1] When evidence against a defendant affords a rational choice for competing inferences, seventh amendment requires that the claim be submitted to jury. U.S.C.A.Const. Amend. 7.

Apodaca v. Oregon, 92 S.Ct. 1628 (1972) - Purpose of trial by jury is to prevent oppression by government by providing a safeguard against corrupt or overzealous prosecutor and against complaint, biased, or eccentric judge. (Per Mr. Justice White with the Chief Justice and two Associate Justices concurring and one Associate Justice concurring in judgment.) U.S.C.A.Const. Amend. 6.

Town of Grand Chute v. Winegar, 82 U.S. 373 (1872) - The right to jury trial is a great constitutional right, of which a party may be deprived only in exceptional cases and for specified causes.

U.S. v. Harris, 1 S.Ct. 601 (1883) - The right of trial by jury is a constitutional one.

U. S. ex rel. Toth v. Quarles, 76 S.Ct. 1 (1955) - Right of trial by jury ranks very high in catalogue of constitutional safeguards. U.S.C.A.Const. art. 3, § 2; Amend. 6.

Belding v. State, 169 N.E. 301 (Ohio,1929) - Constitution guarantees right of trial by jury in cases where it existed before its adoption. Const. art. 1, § 5.

Cleveland Ry. Co. v. Halliday, 188 N.E. 1 (Ohio,1933) - Right to jury trial is a substantial right and does not involve merely procedural matter.

Kneisley v. Lattimer-Stevens Co., 533 N.E.2d 743 (Ohio,1988) - Right to jury trial, where it exists, is substantive, not procedural, for purposes of determining whether law affecting that right is subject to constitutional prohibition on retroactivity; there is no right to jury trial, however, unless that right is extended by statute, or existed at common law prior to adoption of State Constitution. Const. Art. 2, § 28.

Douglas v. Burroughs, 598 F.Supp. 515 (N.D.Ohio.E.Div.,1984) - Determination of the right to a jury trial in a civil action is purely a matter of federal law; it is a federal question. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 7.

Boyd v. Allied Home Mortg. Capital Corp., 523 F.Supp.2d 650 (N.D.Ohio.W.Div.,2007) - Seventh Amendment right to a jury is fundamental and its protection can only be relinquished knowingly and intentionally. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 7.

Betz v. Timken Mercy Med. Ctr., 644 N.E.2d 1058 (Ohio.App.5.Dist. 1994) - Fundamental to our justice system is right to jury of our peers.

U.S. v. Martin, 704 F.2d 267 (C.A.6.Ohio,1983) - Purpose of jury trial is to prevent governmental oppression and arbitrary law enforcement.

Bertram v. Kroger Co., 135 N.E.2d 681 (Ohio.App.2.Dist. 1955) - The constitutional right of trial by jury is carefully guarded by courts, and trial court . . . may not make finding of fact, weigh evidence, draw inferences therefrom, or determine fact issue upon which reasonable minds may differ.

vi. The lower Ohio Courts' files will further sustain that Newsome, timely, properly and adequately notified Plaintiff Stor-All, that she would move for MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT if a timely Answer to her Counterclaim was not filed. Despite Newsome's timely notification as well as the lower court's (Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas) notification to Plaintiff advising when Answer to Counterclaim was due, Plaintiff KNOWINGLY, WILLINGLY and DELIBERATELY ignored notification and failed to file a timely Answer; moreover, resorted to violations of court Rules (Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure) and REPEATEDLY refused to "ENTER an APPEARANCE" for purposes of preventing the lower court from obtaining jurisdiction over the Insurance Company ("LIBERTY MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY") and its attorney ("Molly Vance") relying upon UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL tactics to merely walk in off the street and file pleadings without entering an appearance – i.e. actions clearly in violation of Ohio laws and/or United States law on the same issues. The record evidence will support that said issue was well argued in briefs presented by Newsome along with LEGAL CONCLUSIONS to sustain it. Now the lower courts are attempting to deny Newsome DEFAULT JUDGMENT relief to which she is entitled. Further supporting the IRREPARABLE injury/harm Newsome will sustain should this Court deny her Motion to Stay.

> Maryhew v. Yova, 464 NE2d 538 (1984) – [HN 11] Obtaining a stipulation to extend time in which to answer is not a waiver of the defense of lack of jurisdiction of the person.[36]. . .
> An exception to the general rule that an appearance does not waive objections to jurisdiction is when the defendant's appearance gives rise to some prejudice or detriment to the plaintiff, such as the expiration of the statute of limitations. Blank v. Bitker, (7th Cir. 1943), 135 F.2d 962; Spearman v. Sterling Steamship Co., supra, at 289.
> To conclude otherwise is to give carte blanche to keen defense lawyers to play a jurisdictional game of cat and mouse, [36] [543] Finally, in Spearman v. Sterling Steamship Co. (E.D. Pa 1959), 171 F.Supp. 287, 289, [*159] the court stated the general rule that [HN11] "obtaining a stipulation to extend time in which to answer is not a waiver of the defense of lack of jurisdiction of the person. . .

> promoting judicial chicanery*,* frustrating justice and the application of substantive law. It does violence to a basic tenet from the Apostle Paul: "The letter of the law killeth; the spirit giveth life."

vii. Without intervention by the U.S. Supreme Court, Newsome will continue to suffer IRREPARABLE injury/harm in that she has become the victim of CRIMINAL STALKING, HARASSMENT, etc. by President Obama's special/personal interest groups, Plaintiff (Stor-All), its counsel/attorneys and the judges/justices assigned lawsuits involving her. Further supporting the IRREPARABLE injury/harm Newsome will sustain should this Court deny her Motion to Stay and/or EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

viii. The most recent criminal/civil actions of Judge John Andrew West ("Judge West") will support the PATTERN-OF-ABUSE, USURPATION-OF-POWER, ABUSE-OF-DISCRETION, etc. that has been leveled against Newsome to deprive her of protected rights (i.e. Jury Trial, etc.) secured under the United States/Ohio Constitution. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: As recent as March 2010, Judge West's Bailiff (Damon Riley) was indicted and found guilty by a JURY for "attempted BRIBERY" - taking money to guarantee certain sentence - although indicted for: Theft in Office, Bribery and Attempted Bribery - See EXHIBIT "6" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

> Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 108 S.Ct. 2194 (1988) - Violation of statute which requires a judge to disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned is established when a reasonable person, knowing the relevant facts, would expect that the judge knew of circumstances creating an appearance of partiality, notwithstanding finding that the judge was not actually conscious of those circumstances. 28 U.S.C.A. § 455(a).

Based on said information regarding Ridley, Newsome believes a reasonable mind may conclude based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained in this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC, lower court records, PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE, etc., that Judge West may have known and/or should have known of the crimes of Ridley. Further supporting the IRREPARABLE injury/harm Newsome will sustain should

ix. On or about September 9-10, 2009, Judge West and others engaged in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Newsome which resulted in Newsome filing an OFFICIAL FBI Criminal Complaint on or about September 24, 2009, which is presently pending and includes (however not limited) to the following Charges/Counts:

a. Conspiracy;[37]

b. Public Corruption;

c. Complicity;[38]

d. Corruption;

e. Aiding and Abetting;[39]

---

[37] Pinkerton v. U.S., 66 S.Ct. 1180 (1946) - A conviction for conspiracy to commit a substantive offense may be had though the substantive offense was completed.

A "conspiracy" is a partnership in crime, with ingredients as well as implications, distinct from completion of the unlawful project. Id.

Goldman v. U.S., 38 S.Ct. 166 (1918) - Under Criminal Code, § 37, 18 U.S.C.A. § 88, an unlawful conspiracy and the doing of overt acts is a punishable crime, whether or not the conspiracy accomplishes its illegal purpose.

Iannelli v. U. S., 95 S.Ct. 1284 (1975) - "Conspiracy" is an inchoate offense, the essence of which is an agreement to commit an unlawful act; the agreement need not be shown to have been explicit; it can instead be inferred from the facts and circumstances of the case. 18 U.S.C.A. § 371.

Norfolk Monument Co. v. Woodlawn Memorial Gardens, Inc., 89 S.Ct. 1391 (1969) - No formal agreement is necessary to constitute an unlawful conspiracy.

State v. Lucas, 85 N.E.2d 154 (Ohio.Com.Pl.,1949) - Unlawful combination and confederacy constitute the essential elements of criminal conspiracy rather than overt acts done in pursuance thereof, and neither success nor failure of criminal conspiracy is determinative of guilt. Gen.Code, § 13116-1.

[38] Scales v. U.S., 81 S.Ct. 1469 (1961) - Legal concepts of conspiracy and complicity manifest general principle that society, having power to punish dangerous behavior, cannot be powerless against those who work to bring about that behavior.

"Complicity" means that a person is an accomplice of another person in commission of a crime, if with purpose of promoting or facilitating commission of the crime he commanded, requested, encouraged or provoked such other person to commit it, or aided, agreed to or attempted to aid such other person in planning or committing it, or, acting with knowledge that such other person was committing the crime, knowingly, substantially facilitated its commission. Id.

[39] Pereira v. U.S., 74 S.Ct. 358 (1954) - One who aids, abets, counsels, commands, induces, or procures the commission of an act is as responsible for that act as if he had directly committed the act himself. 18 U.S.C.A. § 2(a).

"Aiding, abetting and counseling" are not terms which presuppose existence of an agreement, but such terms have a broader application, making defendant a principal when he consciously shares in a criminal act, regardless of existence of a conspiracy. Id.

U.S. v. Williams, 71 S.Ct. 595 (1951) - "Aiding and abetting" means to assist the perpetrator of the crime.

In support of this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC, Newsome attaches a copy of the "Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Vogel Denise Newsome With The Federal Bureau of Investigation – Cincinnati, Ohio September 24, 2009" at EXHIBIT "30" (BRIEF ONLY and Proof-Of-Mailing Receipts) as if set forth in full herein. EVIDENCE of filing can be further sustained/supported by the following United States Postal Receipts to support mailing and receipt by President Obama as well as United States Attorney General Eric Holder. Newsome being provided with "Business Card" wherein Receptionist at the United States Department of Justice (Cincinnati, Ohio Office) advised would be handling this matter. See EXHIBIT "31" – copy of Business Card of Brick Bradford attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That while Newsome filed the required Criminal Complaints, that President Obama and U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder have FAILED TO PROSECUTE - i.e. moreover, may have failed to REPORT and handle in accordance with the laws - because criminals involved, consist of those who are members of SPECIAL and/or PERSONAL interest groups to President Obama and his Administration and are being extended SPECIAL FAVORS in the covering up of criminal/civil wrongs because of the SCANDAL, DISGRACE, EMBARASSMENT, etc. that is inevitable once information becomes public. Moreover, concerns about the appearance and impropriety that the ROLE of the first alleged African-American President (President Obama) is playing in the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of such criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and other citizens who have been victimized by such unlawful/illegal practices addressed herein and to be addressed in the Writ of Certiorari.

> "Our investigation found that Judge Porteous participated in a pattern of corrupt conduct for years," said U.S. Rep. Adam Schiff, DCalifornia, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee Task Force on Judicial Impeachment.
> "Litigants have the right to expect a judge hearing their case will be fair and impartial, and avoid even the appearance of impropriety.
> Regrettably, no one can have that expectation in Judge Porteous' courtroom." . . .
>
> "Today's vote marks only the second time in over 20 years that this has occurred," Goodlatte said in a House news release. "However, when evidence emerges that an individual is abusing his judicial office for his own advantage, the integrity of the entire judicial system becomes compromised."
>
> In a statement, Porteous' lawyer Richard W. Westling said the Justice Department had decided not to prosecute because it did not have credible evidence.
> "Unfortunately, the House has decided to disregard the Justice Department's decision and to move forward with impeachment. As a result, we will now turn to the Senate to seek a full and fair hearing of all of the evidence."

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Not that the Justice Department "did not have credible evidence," Newsome believes it is merely further evidence by the United States Department of Justice to COVER-UP in furtherance of conspiracy the acts of CORRUPT judges – i.e. judges involved in matters regarding Newsome. The Department of Justice was first notified as early as September 17, 2004 of Newsome's concerns and the unlawful/illegal and unethical practices of Porteous through Newsome's Petitioner's Petition Seeking Intervention/Participation of the United States Department of Justice – See EXHIBIT "34" (BRIEF ONLY) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Newsome attaches a list of Judges/Justices associated in legal matters involving her that have SPECIAL/PERSONAL relationships with Baker Donelson at EXHIBIT "35" – Baker Donelson Supreme Court Clerks attached hereto and incorporated by reference. From said list, the evidence supports the relationship of Baker Donelson to legal actions/lawsuits involving Newsome. Nevertheless, neither Baker Donelson, Judges/Justices nor opposing parties made known such relationships to Newsome. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that said relationships were kept secret for arbitrary and capricious purposes to shield an ILLEGAL ANIMUS. For example, in the New Orleans matter(s), it appears that Baker Donelson and/or Liberty Mutual/Counsel having ties/relationships to the following Judges/Justices involved in action(s):

Entergy (Louisiana Matter)[41]	• Judge Morey L. Sear (Eastern District Court) • Justice Rhesa H. Barksdale (5th Circuit Court of Appeals) • Justice W. Eugene Davis (5th Circuit Court of Appeals)
Spring Lake Apartments (Mississippi Matter)	Judge Tom S. Lee
Stor-All (Ohio Matter)	• Judge John Andrew West • Judge Nadine Allen • Justice Thomas J. Moyer • Justice Maureen O'Connor • Justice Evelyn Stratton • Justice Robert Cupp • Justice Judith Lanzinger • Justice Terrence O'Donnells

Nevertheless, based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein, Newsome believes the United States Supreme Court and/or a reasonable person/mind may conclude that the Department of Justice's failure to act on Newsome's September 2004 Petition/Complaint as well as other Complaints filed by Newsome is in RETALIATION to her engagement in protected activities; moreover WILLFUL and DELIBERATE acts of the Department of Justice's role in CONSPIRACY and allowing relationships to Baker Donelson (i.e. and its attorneys/employees - see Paragraph 28(h)/Page 44, Paragraph 82/Page 203 and EXHIBIT "22") to INFLUENCE and OBSTRUCT justice and/or the ADMNISTRATION of justice. Furthermore, that actions by the Department of Justice is RACIALLY motivated by bias towards Newsome and are done to deprive her equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Therefore, the Department of Justice infringing upon rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Only AFTER Newsome's going PUBLIC with such information has Baker Donelson attempted to move this information from its original location at:

however, transferred to another website location at:

only AFTER learning of Newsome's going PUBLIC and exposing what Judges/Justices may have been purchased by BIG MONEY law firms as Baker Donelson and its client(s) – i.e such as Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. However, upon conducting further searches, Newsome was able to retrieve and/or find where this information was moved. Newsome believes it is because of Baker Donelson's oversized EGO and the need to ADVERTISE such special relationships/interests and ties to Judges/Justices as well as PROMINENT positions that attorneys with their law firm hold and/or held in the Government, she has been able to establish the NEXUS between adverse decisions in legal matters in which Judges/Justices on the list presided over and the undue/unlawful/illegal advantage they provided to opposing parties in legal actions involving Newsome – IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Judges/Justices failing to make known to Newsome of any potential CONFLICT OF INTEREST and their relationship to opposing parties/opposing counsel involved in legal actions involving Newsome. From this information, Newsome was able to establish the NEXUS between Judges/Justices assigned lawsuits involving her which she believes a reasonable mind may conclude influenced DECISIONS of said Judges/Justices in favor of those opposing Newsome.

xi. The record evidence will further support that Newsome has suffered and will continue to suffer further irreparable injury/harm in furtherance of the PATTERN-OF-ABUSE, USURPATION OF POWER, JUDICIAL ABUSES, abuses already suffered at the hands of Judge West. Furthermore, Judge West will attempt to dismiss this action and deprive Newsome of her right to have matter tried before a jury if the United States Supreme Court does not intervene. Judge West having already committed an EGREGIOUS acts of miscarriage of justice and other criminal and civil wrongs against Newsome that resulted from such violation of the laws to bifurcate the lawsuit in his court when the record evidence will sustain that he had AMPLE and SUFFICIENT rulings of the higher court(s) to sustain that bifurcation of lawsuit was unlawful/illegal; moreover, deprived Newsome of EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws afforded to other citizens on the same issue(s):

> Isaiah's Wings, LLC vs. Diana R. McCourt, et al., 2006 Ohio 3573; 2006 Ohio App. LEXIS 3512 – See EXHIBIT "36" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

In the event appellants prevail in common pleas court, their monetary remedy may be inadequate if they have already lost possession of the property, their option to purchase it, and the animals.

xii. The United States Constitution as well as laws passed by the United States Congress will further support the need for the passing of House Report No. 92-238. Congress demonstrated its awareness that claimants might not be able to take advantage of the federal remedy without appointment of counsel. As explained in House Report No. 92-238:

> By including this provision in the bill, the committee emphasizes that the nature of . . . actions more often than not pits parties of unequal strength and resources against each other. The complainant, who is usually a member of the disadvantaged class, is opposed by an employer who . . . has at his disposal a vast of resources and legal talent*.*

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Supporting the concerns of U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts, Sonia Sotomayor and other Justices. Moreover, apparently that of President Obama although it appears that he has sold out such beliefs for justice and integrity to BIG MONEY interests and SPECIAL FAVORS.

IV. THREATS TO COUNSEL/APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

Newsome believes that the record evidence will support an ONGOING conspiracy leveled against her by Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance provider and others which involves level of attacks and threats against her as well as attorneys she has retained to represent her in legal actions. Furthermore, how Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance provider and others CONSPIRE to interfere with Newsome's legal representation for purposes of obtaining an UNDUE, unlawful/illegal advantage in legal actions and/or lawsuits. Moreover, how such Conspirators (i.e. as Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance provider and others) may use their relationships to TOP/KEY Government Officials/Agencies as a means of COERCION, THREATS, INTIMIDATION, BLACKMAIL, HARASSMENT, etc. against legal counsel that Newsome has retained to represent her. In fact, there is evidence in the record of federal court to sustain just how VICIOUS, HOSTILE and BELLIGERENT that counsel (Clark Monroe) for LIBERTY MUTUAL's clients became because Newsome was filing pleadings in lawsuit in which she had legal representation. Clark Monroe escalating such AGGRESSIVE, FEROCIOUS and BARBARIAN attacks not only on Newsome and her attorney; but then TURNED on THE COURT for allowing Newsome to filing pleadings in lawsuit. Clark Monroe apparently then looked to the court to aid and abet him in depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws. WHY SO MUCH HOSTILITY BY CLARK MONROE toward Newsome and her attorney? Newsome believes a reasonable person/mind may conclude that through his THREATFUL, HARASSING, COERCION, INTIMIDATION, BLACKMAIL, etc. practices leveled against Newsome's attorney (Wanda Abioto) to get her to withdraw lawsuit she filed on her client's behalf, he FAILED and Abioto refused to withdraw lawsuit. In fact, the laws clearly support Newsome's rights to have filed pleadings in lawsuit because she is a party to the action.[42] responsibility to certify truth and reasonableness of document and failure to meet that duty may subject signer to Rule 11 sanctions. (n. 5) Use of word "party" in Rule 11 refers to any signer of document, whether represented or unrepresented or required or not required to sign documents. (n. 6) Certification standard for party for purposes of determining whether party is subject to Rule 11 sanctions is one of reasonableness under the circumstances, just as for attorneys; rule states unambiguously that any signer which does not conduct reasonable inquiry will face sanctions. (n. 7) Public policy did not require that parties not be held to reasonable inquiry standard for purposes of assessing Rule 11 sanctions; client is often in better position than attorney to investigate facts supporting paper or pleading.[1]

[1] Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11 provides, in relevant part, that "[t]he signature of an attorney or party constitutes a certificate by the signer that the signer has read the pleading, motion, or other paper" and "to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief formed after reasonable inquiry it is well grounded in fact," and that a court shall impose an appropriate sanction " upon the person who signed " a pleading, motion, or other paper in violation of the Rule. (Emphasis added.) Id. p. 3.

A represented party's signature would fall outside the Rule's scope only if the phrase "attorney or party" were given the unnatural reading "attorney or unrepresented party." Had the Advisory Committee responsible for the Rule intended to limit the certification requirement's application to pro se parties, it would have expressly distinguished between represented and unrepresented parties, which it did elsewhere in the Rule, rather than lumping *534 the two types together. Including all parties is also an eminently sensible reading of the Rule, since the Rule's essence is that signing denotes merit. Pavelic & LeFlore v. Marvel Entertainment Group, 493 U.S. 120, 110 S.Ct. 456, 107 L.Ed.2d 438, which held that the Rule contemplates sanctions against an attorney signer rather than the law firm of which he or she is a member, is entirely consistent with the result here that a represented party who signs his or her name bears a personal, nondelegable responsibility to certify the document's truth and reasonableness. Id. p. 4.

The only way that Business Guides can avoid having to satisfy the certification standard is if we read "attorney or party" as used in sentence [5] to mean "attorney or unrepresented party." Only then would the signature of a represented party fall outside the scope of the Rule. We decline to adopt this unnatural reading, as there is no indication that this is what the Advisory Committee930 intended. Just the opposite is true. Prior to its amendment in 1983, sentence [5] referred solely to "[t]he signature of an attorney" on a "pleading." The 1983 amendments deliberately expanded the coverage of the Rule. Wright & Miller § 1331, at 21. Sentence [5] was amended to refer broadly to "[t]he signature of an attorney or party" on a "pleading, motion, or other paper" (emphasis added). Represented parties, despite having counsel, *545 routinely sign certain papers-declarations, affidavits, and the like-during the course of litigation. Business Guides, for example, submitted to the District Court no fewer than five signed papers in support of its TRO application. The amended language of sentence [5] leaves little room for doubt that the signatures of the "party" on these "other papers" must satisfy the certification requirement. Id. p. 9.

Had the Advisory Committee intended to *limit the application of the certification standard to parties proceeding pro se, it would surely have said so. . . .Sentence [1] refers to specifically a "a party represented by an attorney," while sentence [2] applies to "[a] party who is not represented by an attorney" (emphasis added). Sentence [5], however, draws no such distinction; it lumps together the two types of parties. By using the more expansive term "party", the Committee called for more expansive coverage. The natural reading of this language is that any party who signs a document, whether or not the party was required to do so, is subject to the certification standard of Rule 11. Id. p. 10.

> Devine v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 52 F.Supp.2d 741 (S.D.Miss.,1999) (WINGATE) - Where a client is shown to have been personally aware of, or otherwise responsible for, a bad faith procedural action, client may be sanctioned individually without also imposing the sanction on client's attorney. Fed.Rules Civ.Proc.Rule 11, 28 U.S.C.A.

Nevertheless, Newsome and her attorney had to endure such unethical MAULINGS by Clark Monroe because Judge (Tom S. Lee), from the list[43] provided by LIBERTY MUTUAL's other attorney's law firm (Baker Donelson), may have accepted bribes and/or gratuities/special favors for purposes of rendering their client's UNDUE and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit.

Newsome believes that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions will sustain the CRIMINAL STALKING of Newsome by Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance providers and others are WILLFUL, MALICIOUS and WANTON acts to interfere with Newsome's legal representation as well OBSTRUCT the administration of justice. Furthermore, the role opposing parties, their counsel and insurance providers engage in to get Newsome's counsel to UNLAWFULLY/ILLEGALLY withdraw from representation to leave her to have to defend legal actions pro se for purposes of obtaining an undue, unlawful/illegal advantage in legal actions. Then when opposing parties are UNSUCCESSFUL in obtaining said advantage they have REPEATEDLY engaged in criminal/civil attacks on Newsome to deprive her EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws secured under the Constitution. Moreover, engaging in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome for purposes of OBSTRUCTING justice and/or OBSTRUCTING the Administration of Justice. In further support thereof and to understand the PATTER-OF-PRACTICE of opposing parties, its counsel, its insurance provider and other Conspirators/Co-conspirators, Newsome states:

> Henry v. City of Detroit Manpower Dept., 739 F.2d 1109 (1984) - Trial court abused its discretion in failing to conduct hearing on civil rights claimant's financial ability to retain counsel, even though claimant had paid filing fee and hired lawyer to file complaint and conceded that he had title to house and car and that he had found new employment.

Woodham v. Sayre Borough Police Dept., 191 Fed.Appx. 111 (2006) - When determining whether to appoint counsel for indigent civil rights plaintiff, complexity of the legal issues must be considered in conjunction with the plaintiff's ability to present his case. 28 U.S.C.A. § 1915(e)(1); 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

Flakes v. Frank, 322 F.Supp.2d 981 (2004) - Ordinarily, before a district court can decide whether to appoint counsel to an indigent plaintiff in a civil rights action, it must find that plaintiff made reasonable efforts to find a lawyer on his own and was unsuccessful or that he was prevented from making such efforts.

U.S. v. Curry, 47 U.S. 106 (1848) - Leave of court is necessary before an attorney of record can withdraw from the case.

Castner v. Colorado Springs Cablevision, 979 F.2d 1417, 1421 (10th Cir. 1992), the decision whether to appoint counsel requires accommodation of two competing considerations. First, the court must consider Congress's "special . . . concern with legal representation with . . . actions." Jenkins v. Chemical Bank, 721 F.2d 876, 879 (2nd Cir. 1983). In enacting the attorney appointment provision of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and later reaffirming the importance of that provision in the legislative history of the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, Congress demonstrated its awareness that Title VII claimants might not be able to take advantage of the federal remedy without appointment of counsel.

New York Gaslight Club, Inc. v. Carey, 447 U.S. 54, 63, 100 S.Ct. 2024, 2030, 64 L.Ed.2d 723 (1980) - [C]ourts have an obligation to consider request for appointment with care . . . remain[ing] mindful that appointment of an attorney may be essential for a Plaintiff to fulfill "the role of 'a private attorney general,' vindicating a policy 'of the highest authority.'"

Armstrong v. Snyder, 103 F.R.D. 96, 105 (1984) – Although as the court has already observed, the Plaintiff has demonstrated a considerable aptitude for and understanding the judicial process, it has no doubt that the complexity of the constitutional and factual issues he has perhaps unwittingly raised in his complaint would be best argued by one schooled in the law . . . Accordingly, the court will appoint an attorney to prosecute this action on the plaintiff's behalf. Because it is hopeful that counsel can be secured readily and in the interest of ensuring that the record in this case remains unblemished both procedurally and substantially.

Newsome believed based upon her personal experience, attacks Plaintiff Stor-All and its counsel, its insurance provider and/or its representatives leveled against her, that it knew from experience, Newsome would seek to retain counsel. Therefore, Plaintiff Stor-All in keeping with practice of CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome, sought first to get her employment terminated to eliminate the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that may arise as well as for purpose of obtaining a FINANCIAL ADVANTAGE over Newsome and subjecting her to Financial HARDSHIPS for purposes of obtaining an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in this lawsuit filed. In further support thereof, Newsome states the following:

G) In the New Orleans, Louisiana matter that Plaintiff Stor-All's counsel (David Meranus) was so EAGERLY and WILLING to address AFTER going down in defeat to Newsome at the February 6, 2009, hearing regarding her Motion to transfer wherein Meranus acknowledged Newsome's engagement in protected activities in New Orleans, it is important to note the following:

i. The record evidence will support Newsome's success on Appeal on the issue of retaining counsel. See EXHIBIT "32" – Fifth Circuit Judgment attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. However, ONLY after losing such round, to Newsome the Eastern District Court of Louisiana's Judge Morey L. Sear appears to have abandoned case in that Newsome was successful in challenging his decision on Appeal. Newsome believes that a reasonable mind based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein as well as in lower court records will support that Judge Sear failed to notify parties of any potential CONFLICT OF INTEREST – i.e. his relationship to Defendants and their counsel in the New Orleans matter (EMPHASIS ADDED). AFTER losing to Newsome on Appeal, the case was REALLOTTED and assigned to Judge G. Thomas Porteous. A judge in whom the record evidence will support is presently engaged in IMPEACHMENT hearings before the United States Senate for CORRUPT practices. See EXHIBIT "12" – Articles attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

ii. The record evidence will support that Newsome had two attorneys interested in representing her in this matter – i.e. which efforts were undermined by the criminal/civil violations of Defendants, their counsel and others involved in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome. Nevertheless, she was able to retain legal representation from an attorney by the name of Michelle Ebony Scott-Bennett of the Justice For All Law Center LLC. See Docket Sheet at EXHIBIT "33" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Moreover, that a law firm (Owens Law Firm) offered to assist Scott-Bennett in the legal representation of Newsome PRO BONO – See EXHIBIT "37" – Affidavit attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. However, Scott-Bennett ignored such offer and, instead, moved SWIFTLY to withdraw as counsel for Newsome WITHOUT Newsome's approval. Said withdrawal clearly violated the Rules of Professional Conduct and/or Rules governing Attorneys practicing before the Bar. Therefore, based upon the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE, facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein, Newsome believes a reasonable mind may conclude that Scott-Bennett engaged in criminal/civil violations for purposes of obstructing justice; moreover, for purposes of fulfilling her role in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome to deprive her EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws enjoyed by other citizens. Newsome filed a timely criminal/civil complaint to the United States Department of Justice on or about September 17, 2004. See EXHIBIT "34" – Petitioner's Petition Seeking Intervention/Participation of the United States Department of Justice (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome filing said Petitioner's Petition to preserve her rights and to EXPOSE what she believed to be acts in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against her.

iii. The record evidence in the Mississippi matter will support that Newsome retained two attorneys to represent her in the civil action – i.e Brandon Dorsey and Wanda Abioto. However, based upon information provided Newsome these attorneys were met with threats by opposing counsel. Dorsey WITHOUT Newsome's permission ABRUPTLY moved to withdraw legal representation. While Dorsey returned Retainer paid to Newsome, said withdrawal clearly violated the Rules of Professional Conduct and/or Rules governing Attorneys practicing before the Bar. Dorsey making known to Newsome that, "he has to live in Mississippi and feed his family" – not being able to handle the pressure from opposing counsel and others. See EXHIBIT "38" – Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Findings at Page 58. Opposing counsel providing Dorsey with a list of legal actions involving Newsome during a meeting in Judge Barnett's Chambers[44] – i.e. a meeting in which Newsome was EXCLUDED from attending. Information to support/sustain UNETHICAL and unlawful/illegal practices by opposing counsel and that criminal/civil attacks leveled against Newsome were a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of her engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. From information Newsome was able to retain from the INTERNET, Newsome was abandoned by Dorsey so that he could go and represent a CORRUPT Judge (William L. Skinner II ["Judge Skinner"]). Judge Skinner being a Defendant named in Newsome's Civil Lawsuit in Mississippi matter. See EXHIBIT "39" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Actions clearly in violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct as well as Rules of Professional Conduct. Newsome gathers from information provided by Dorsey, that a reasonable mind may conclude that in order to "live in Mississippi and feed his family" he was willing to violate the laws governing said matters and "Code of Ethics" to engage in CONSPIRACY and subject Newsome to criminal/civil wrongs in furtherance of said conspiracy to deprive her EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws secured under the Constitution.

iv. The record evidence will support that even in the Mississippi matter Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider (Liberty Mutual and its legal counsel) engaged in criminal/civil wrongs by making threats to her attorneys (i.e. Brandon Dorsey and Wanda Abioto) and from the evidence conspired with Newsome's criminal attorney (Richard Rehfeldt) to throw the criminal case – it was a good thing Judge dismissed criminal charges (i.e. one in which Newsome had to also go PUBLIC with otherwise she would have been another statistic of the WILLIE LYNCH practices). Liberty Mutual and its attorneys making such threats to have Newsome's attorney (Brandon Dorsey) concerned about his life; moreover, moreover living in Mississippi and ability to feed his family; thus, reducing him to having to go over to the dark side and begin providing legal counsel for OPPOSING party(s) – i.e. as Judge William Skinner – or be reduced to his livelihood, liberties, and pursuit of happiness stripped from him. (See EXHIBIT "38" at Page 58). Furthermore, the "WILLIE LYNCH" mentality appears in correspondence from Liberty Mutual's counsel (Clark Monroe) of the need to CONTROL Newsome in his rabid, vicious and malicious attacks that are memorialized in correspondence he sent to Newsome's attorney (Wanda Abioto). See EXHIBIT "40." Such threats requiring that in order to agree to an UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL withdrawal, he first must have Abioto withdraw the lawsuit filed on behalf of Newsome.

> This statute makes it unlawful for any individual(s), by the use of force or threatened use of force, to injure, intimidate, or interfere with (or attempt to injure, intimidate, or interfere with), any person's housing rights because of that person's race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin. Among those housing rights enumerated in the statute are:

- The sale, purchase, or renting of a dwelling;
- the occupation of a dwelling;
- the financing of a dwelling;
- contracting or negotiating for any of the rights enumerated above.
- applying for or participating in any service, organization, or facility relating to the sale or rental of dwellings.

This statute also makes it unlawful by the use of force or threatened use of force, to injure, intimidate, or interfere with any person who is assisting an individual or class of persons in the exercise of their housing rights.

(i.e. this is information retrieved from the FBI's Website – therefore, supporting that such matters are handled by this division of the United States Department of Justice) Succumbing to the THREATS, HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION, etc. from Liberty Mutual's counsel and/or opposing counsel, Abioto ABRUPTLY moved to withdraw as Newsome's counsel without client's permission. For example, see Motion Calendar of Judge Barnett in Mississippi matter at EXHIBIT "131" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Said move to withdraw clearly is in violation of the statutes/laws governing said matters. Criminal/Civil wrongs which Newsome has reported through the applicable filing of Complaint.

v. The record evidence in the Mississippi matter will support that Newsome retained Wanda Abioto. Like attorneys retained by Newsome before her, Abioto too came under attack and was subjected to threats, harassment, intimidation, coercion, blackmail, etc. See EXHIBIT "40" – February 19, 2007[45] (sic) and February 21, 2008 Letters to Abioto from Clark Monroe attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Like attorneys before her, Abioto moved SWIFTLY to withdraw legal representation of Newsome WITHOUT Newsome's authorization. Said withdrawal clearly violated the Rules of Professional Conduct and/or Rules governing Attorneys practicing before the Bar. Abioto was in such a hurry that she EMBEZZLED approximately $4,000 provided as a retainer by Newsome and to date has not returned said monies – i.e. instead spent monies paid on PERSONAL interest. Abioto FAILED to place retainer paid by Newsome in an ESCROW account for legal representation. There is record evidence to support that Newsome has filed timely Complaint against Abioto. Said evidence may be found in the May 21, 2009 - REPORTING OF RACIAL AND DISCRIMINATION PRACTICES COMPLAINT: Requests For Status; Request For Creation of Committees/Court, Investigations and Findings - Constitutional, Civil Rights Violations and Discrimination; and Demand/Relief Requested submitted for filing to the attention of President Obama, United States Attorney General Eric Holder and United States Secretary Hilda Solis. See EXHIBIT "85" Excerpt and Proof of Mailing Receipts attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

vi. The record evidence in the Mississippi matter will support that Newsome retained attorney Richard Rehfeldt to represent her in criminal acts. Newsome believes that like other attorneys before him, Rehfeldt was approached by opposing parties and/or their counsel to throw legal representation of Newsome. Therefore, Rehfeldt through his actions engaged in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome and ABANDONED Newsome, failing to advise her of court dates, etc. for purposes of providing opposing parties and their counsel with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit. Like Abioto, Rehfeldt was paid a retainer in which he too EMBEZZLED monies paid and to date has FAILED to return to Newsome. See EXHIBIT "38" – Emergency Complaint attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome believes that based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions in the lower court record and in this instant pleading the role Rehfeldt played in conspiracy was to FAIL to advise Newsome of Court date so that she would AUTOMATICALLY be found guilty of the MALICIOUS criminal charges filed against her by Constable Jon Lewis. See EXHIBIT "41" – Criminal Charges filed. Criminal Charges were filed on or about July 11, 2007, and Constable Lewis' Answer to Newsome's Civil Lawsuit was due on or about July 11, 2007 (i.e. See DOCKET SHEET at EXHIBIT "42" No.36 [was served with Complaint on June 21, 2007].

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Both Judge William Skinner and Constable Lewis were each served with the required "Notice of Lawsuit and Request of Waiver of Service of Summons." Constable Lewis on or about April 26, 2007, received Notice and accompanying Complaint on May 1, 2007; however, elected not to execute said Waiver as required. Had Constable Lewis executed Waiver, he would have had 60 days to respond – i.e. until June 25, 2007. Instead, resorting to DILATORY tactics and failing to comply with Rules of Court,[46] it required that Newsome have to expend more TIME and FINANCIAL resources to have Lewis served with process. Constable Lewis being served on June 22, 2007, and, therefore, requiring his Answer and/or appropriate Rule 12 Motion(s) to be filed by July 11, 2007. See Newsome's "Motion to Strike Statements and Materials of Defendants', Jon C. Lewis and William L. Skinner, II, Motion to Dismiss, or in the Alternative, Motion to Quash" at EXHIBIT "43" incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

To understand the MANDATORY "Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons," Newsome attaches copies of said documents retrieved in EEOC v. Marjam and EEOC v. Maryland Classified at EXHIBIT "155" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Nevertheless, Constable Lewis made a CONCIOUS and WILLFUL decision to bring MALICIOUS Criminal Charges alleging:

a) Resisting Arrest; and

[46] NOTICE that was provided on "Waiver of Service of Summons" which both Judge William, Constable Lewis failed to comply with:

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff located in the United States to waive service of summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or the place where the action has been brought.

b) Disorderly Conduct - Failure to Comply with Law Enforcement[47] against Newsome rather than file a timely Answer to the Civil Lawsuit filed by her. See EXHIBIT "41" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome believes that a reasonable person/mind (based upon the facts and the TIMING of filing Criminal Charges against Newsome) may conclude that Constable Lewis filed Malicious Criminal Charges in RETALIATION and as a DEFENSE to the civil lawsuit filed. In so doing, Constable Lewis FAILED to file a timely Answer to Newsome's civil lawsuit and, therefore, waived rights to any defenses he wanted to assert. When Constable Lewis decided to file his DELINQUENT Answer and/or pleading, it was met SWIFTLY with Newsome's Motion to Strike. The record evidence will support that Constable Lewis was timely, properly and adequately notified that Civil Lawsuit was filed against him and given the opportunity to waive Service of Process – i.e. which was rejected. Nevertheless, even with such additional time to respond, he failed to file a timely Answer to Newsome's Civil Lawsuit. On or about October 12, 2007 the Malicious Criminal Charges Constable Lewis brought against Newsome *were DISMISSED. See EXHIBIT "44" – Abstract of Court Record attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Moreover, CONSPIRATORS failed in their attempts to get an AUTOMATIC guilty verdict against Newsome (i.e. in withholding information regarding court date regarding said Criminal Charges); moreover, FAILED in attempts to get unlawful/illegal conviction sought for a defense to Newsome's Civil Lawsuit.

vii. The record evidence will support that because of the failure of government officials to act upon the complaint filed by another citizen (Frank Baltimore) against Constable Lewis for crimes committed in or about October 2003 (See EXHIBIT "116" attached hereto and incorporated as if set forth in full herein), on February 14, 2006, Newsome was subjected to crimes reported in her June 2006 FBI Complaint filed with the United States Department of Justice and/or FBI. See EXHIBIT "45."

[47] A reasonable person/mind may conclude that a citizen (i.e. Newsome) charged with such crimes would not be taken to the Detention Center on the "front seat" while Constable Lewis' assistant rode in the back seat.

viii. The record evidence will support that in efforts to destroying INCRIMINATING evidence, Constable Lewis unlawful/illegally confiscated Newsome's tape recorder that she had recording the events and DESTROYED and/or TAMPERED with said evidence and failed to turn in at the Detention to which she was taken. Acts which clearly violates the laws of Mississippi ("Tampering with Evidence"). See EXHIBIT "121" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

> Mississippi Code § 97-9-125. TAMPERING With Physical EVIDENCE:
> (1) A person commits the crime of tampering with physical evidence if, believing that an official proceeding is pending or may be instituted, and acting without legal right or authority, he:
> a. Intentionally destroys, mutilates, conceals, removes or alters physical evidence with intent to impair its use, verity or availability in the pending or prospective official proceeding;
> b. Knowingly makes, presents or offers any false physical evidence with intent that it be introduced in the pending or prospective official proceeding; or

> (2) TAMPERING *with physical EVIDENCE is a Class 2 felony.[48]

Furthermore, Newsome requested a copy of the Arrest Report and the return of her property. See EXHIBIT "128" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. To which Constable Lewis failed to comply with.

ix. The record evidence will support that Constable Lewis has ESTABLISHED a pattern of CORRUPT behavior made known to the FBI as well as other PUBLIC Officials of Hinds County, Mississippi. In fact, shortly after the February 14, 2006, criminal acts leveled [48] Mississippi Code § 97-9-129. Sentencing.

(1) A person who has been convicted of any Class 1 felony under this article shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not more than five (5) years or fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or both.

(2) A person who has been convicted of any Class 2 felony under this article shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not more than two (2) years or fined not more than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), or both.

(3) A person who has been convicted of any misdemeanor under this article shall be sentenced to confinement in the county jail for a term of not more than one (1) year or fined not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or both.

against Newsome, Constable Lewis, another citizen came forth and notified the Justice Court his criminal acts – i.e. unlawful/illegal taking of monies, etc. See EXHIBIT "117" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein:

> In a letter to the county administrator, Justice Court Clerk Patricial Woods accused Constable John Lewis of using questionable tactics. . .
> "I refuse to be a part of his collection process," said Woods in her letter to County Administrator Anthony Brister. "I cannot imagine how many letters were mailed or payments received at his home address. . ."
>
> "I am welcoming an investigation from the auditor's office. I would like it to be looked into very thoroughly," said Lewis.
>
> Constable Lewis says the letter to the defendant about the speeding ticket was a mistake on his part, but he makes no apologies for using tough methods.
> In one letter to a defendant, Lewis advised the man not to talk to anyone but him. He told the man not to call the court. . .

The record evidence will support that while Constable Lewis welcomed an investigation by the "auditor's office," Newsome filed the required CRIMINAL COMPLAINT[49] with the United States Department of Justice/FBI against him. See EXHIBIT "45" attached hereto. Nevertheless, because of the Department of Justice's BIAS/PREJUDICES towards Newsome and other African-Americans, people of color and citizens seen as Civil Rights Activist, to date, it has KNOWINGLY and WILLINGLY with MALICIOUS intent failed to prosecute and/or act upon the June 26, 2006 Criminal Complaint filed by Newsome. Newsome believes a reasonable mind may conclude that said FAILURE is a direct and proximate result of the CONSPIRACIES the United States Department of Justice and other CONSPIRATORS/CO-CONSPIRATORS have leveled against Newsome.

X. The record evidence will support that Newsome reported the criminal and/or unlawful acts of Constable Lewis to the Hinds County Board of Supervisors. To no avail. See EXHIBIT "134" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Nevertheless, because the Hinds County Board of Supervisors has failed to act, from information Newsome obtained from the INTERNET, it appears that Constable Lewis has gone on to become a CAREER CRIMINAL:

> "I am a African American citizen who resided in Jackson Mississippi and was run out by threats made and Constitutional rights violations performed by Constable Jon Lewis against me . . . I have experienced the racism of the south that I read about in history books and watched on TV.

[49] Complaint and Request for Investigation to the United States Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of Investigations Filed by Vogel D. Newsome.

> I contacted the board of supervisors and the board's attorney back in 2004, 2005, and 2006. I have asked you to help me on numerous occasions to no avail from any board member. . . I am asking you to call for and add my complaint to your already Internal Investigation presently going on against Jon Lewis. He took my badges, stun gun, diamond earring, and $100 dollars in cash money from me, and never returned them to me to his present date. . . .
> I have sent certified letter to him demanding him to return my property and money. He has refused, not responded, . . .

See EXHIBIT "116" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. See Mississippi Code § 97-9-125. Tampering With Physical Evidence at EXHIBIT "121."

xi. The record evidence will support that the Hinds County Board of Supervisors are FULLY aware of the criminal acts of Constable Lewis; however, failed to deter such criminal behavior. See Hinds County Board of Supervisor's "Minutes" at EXHIBIT "142" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The laws are clear, that because government agencies/officials who were notified of Constable Lewis' criminal behavior, he felt at LIBERTY to go on with his CRIMINAL Career in which the record evidence supports that other citizens became victims of such RACIALLY motivated attacks by Constable Lewis and Judge William Skinner – i.e. they are a team.

> As a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of the United States Department of Justice/FBI, etc. to act upon the complaints of Newsome as well as government

xii. The record evidence in the Mississippi matter will further support that Magistrate Judge James C. Sumner assigned matter had a CONFLICT OF INTEREST and moved to Recuse himself from case. Recusal coming AFTER Magistrate Sumner attempted to provide opposing parties and their counsel with and UNDUE and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit – i.e. in other words, Magistrate Sumner resorting to the "throwing a rock and hiding his hand" in the committal of his role in CONSPIRACY. Judge Tom S. Lee was assigned this matter, nevertheless, he FAILED to make known his relationship to opposing parties, their counsel/attorneys and/or representatives. Newsome had to find this information out based on a List advertised on Baker Donelson's website. The record evidence will support that Newsome filed the required recusal actions and/or inquired into whether there were any additional CONFLICT OF INTEREST by Judges and/or Magistrates. To no avail. Judge Lee remained silent. Furthermore, the record evidence in this matter will support that the files and proceedings became TAINTED that the Southern District Court of Mississippi CANNOT "Certify" the record as requested by Newsome.

xiii. The record evidence in the Kentucky Matter will support that Newsome was able to retain legal representation from attorney (Brian Bishop); however, like that attorneys before him Bishop elected to engage in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome and ABRUPTLY moved to withdraw legal representation WITHOUT Newsome's approval and/or authority. Said withdrawal clearly violated the Rules of Professional Conduct and/or Rules governing Attorneys practicing before the Bar. Like attorneys before him, Bishop refused to return retainer to Newsome and EMBEZZLED retainer paid. Based upon information Newsome was provided by one of the attorneys at Wood & Lamping LLC (her former employer), Judge Gregory Bartlett PRIOR to taking the bench worked for the law firm of Defendants' counsel (James West) – i.e. law firm of Martin & West. The record evidence in this action will support upon learning of this information, Newsome confronted said Court and requested additional information which to date has been denied her.

xiv. The record evidence in the Kentucky matter will support that Newsome filed her lawsuit prior to any action that her landlords' attorney ("Gailen Bridges") attempted to bring. In fact, efforts taken by landlords' attorney to get his clients' lawsuit filed prior to Newsome when he was told she was seen heading to the courthouse. However, Bridges failed in such efforts and Newsome succeeded in getting her lawsuit filed PRIOR to any Bridges attempted to file on behalf of his clients. See EXHIBIT "123" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

xv. The record evidence will support that Newsome made a "GOOD FAITH REQUEST" asking that Bridges withdraw the lawsuit filed on behalf of his clients. To no avail. Bridges insisted on FULFILLING his role in CONSPIRACY and going down with the "burning ship" rather than accept Newsome's good-faith offer. See EXHIBIT "126" attached hereto and incorporated as if set forth in full herein.

xvi. The record evidence will support in the Kentucky matter great efforts taken by Judges in that matter to AID and ABET in criminal wrongs. Furthermore, efforts taken to COVER-UP the EMBEZZLEMENT of monies paid into the court/entrusted by Newsome into the Court's Escrow account for safekeeping. Public Officials conspiring in the EMBEZZLEMENT of approximately $16,250 entrusted to the Circuit Court of Kenton County, Kentucky for safekeeping. When said court attempted to dismiss said action and interfere with the July 14, 2008, United States Congress/Legislative EMERGENCY Complaint filed by Newsome, Newsome preserved her rights and filed the required OPPOSITION pleading and notified said court as well as proper Kentucky Officials of her INTENT TO SUE. See EXHIBIT "124" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

xvii. Newsome submitted her Emergency Complaint upon confirmation from conversation she had with an attorney (King Downing) at conference she attended in June 2008. While at the time Newsome was not aware that Downing had been discriminated against (i.e. a victim of racial profiling), she proceeded from information obtained from her conversation with Downing and filed her July 14, 2008 Emergency Complaint. See EXHIBIT "136" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

xviii. The record evidence will support that Newsome timely, properly and adequately notified United States Representative (Geoff Davis) of the State of Kentucky of this matter. See EXHIBIT "125" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Clearly, the above facts, evidence and legal conclusions support the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE, PATTERN-OF-ABUSES, USURPATION OF POWER/AUTHORITY, etc. evidencing the irreparable injury/harm Newsome has sustained and irreparable injury/harm Newsome and other citizens will continue to be subjected to if the United States Supreme Court does not intervene and retain jurisdiction over this matter to correct the RACIAL injustices, Racial biases, DISCRMINATORY and PREJUDICIAL practices of United States President Obama, Judge John Andrew West, Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance providers and other Conspirator/Co-Conspirators involved in the Conspiracy leveled against Newsome as well as other African-Americans and/or citizens because of their race and/or color of skin, etc.

PUBLIC EXPOSURE - MATTER OF PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE INTEREST:

Newsome looks to bring this Appeal before the United States Supreme Court and in so doing, exercises her right under the First Amendment, Fourteenth Amendment and other Constitutional Amendments and laws of the United States to PUBLICLY EXPOSE the CONSPIRACY and CORRUPTION that has corroded and infested our judicial system and government agency(s) – i.e. rendering them UNFIT and UNABLE to perform duties owed to the citizens of the United States. Newsome believes that the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained in this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC will support criminal/civil wrongs not only leveled against Newsome but those of other citizens which clearly warrants the INTERVENTION of the United States Supreme Court to retain jurisdiction and step in to correct the injustices herein as well as in the lower courts that are within its jurisdictional power and authority.

Newsome believes that the laws of the United States supports her DUTY to come forth and EXPOSE such PUBLIC CORRUPTION and PRIVATE CONSPIRACIES regardless of who the culprits (i.e. President Obama and his Administration, Judge John Andrew West, Plaintiff Stor-All, its attorneys and/or representatives [David Meranus, Michael Lively, Molly Vance, Patrick Healy, Raymond Decker, Liberty Mutual, etc.] and others involved in Conspiracy against Newsome) are because information is of PUBLIC INTEREST as well as such PRIVATE Conspiracies and PUBLIC Corruption DAMAGES the reputation of the United States and DAMAGES the United States relationships with Foreign Countries/Foreign Leaders. Furthermore, subjects its citizens to needless and senseless attacks by foreign countries as that of 9/11. It should matter not that those involved in such PRIVATE Conspiracies and PUBLIC Corruption include the United States First alleged African-American President (Barack Obama) and/or that persons involved in such CONSPIRACIES and CORRUPTION are famous and/or anonymous.

> Rosenbloom v. Metromedia, Inc., 91 S.Ct. 1811(1971) - First Amendment protects all discussion and communication involving matters of public or general concern without regard to whether persons involved are famous or anonymous. (Per Mr. Justice Brennan with the Chief Justice and one Justice joining in the opinion and two Justices concurring in the judgment.) U.S.C.A.Const. Amend. 1.

The "BLINDFOLD of Justice" is to remain in place and the laws EQUALLY applied regardless of the positions and/or status quo one holds. Moreover, regardless of the color of their skin, faith and/or beliefs – i.e. citizens are entitled to EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the law; and DUE PROCESS of laws as afforded to ALL citizens.

When such criminal acts violate the rights of citizens and open up the United States and its citizens to such TERRORISTS' attacks as 9/11 because the United States has FAILED to address such issues and have citizens who have joined SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups (i.e. involving private citizens and/or private employers) that have INFILTRATED the United States White House, United States Legislature/Congress, United States Courts and other Government Agencies (i.e. FBI, etc.) and said Supremacist/Terrorist groups rely upon their SPECIAL TIES/RELATIONSHIPS to Government Officials and/or PUBLIC Officials to mask/shield and carry out HATE CRIMES and attacks against citizens of the United States as well as Foreign Countries/Foreign Leaders for purposes of demonstrating SUPREMACY over those they feel are INFERIOR, it not only become necessary but it is ESSENTIAL that such information if made PUBLIC and those who engage in such PRIVATE Conspiracies and PUBLIC CORRUPTION are EXPOSED and brought to justice. Newsome believes that it would prove DETRIMENTAL to the United States not to EXPOSE such CONSPIRACIES and PUBLIC CORRUPTION to the Nation and World because such NEGLIGENCE would send a message that such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST practices by United States citizens who engage in such behavior and/or acts is ACCEPTABLE. Therefore, Newsome believes that it is NOT Only of

PUBLIC interest, it is of NATIONAL and WORLDWIDE Security/Interest that those who engage and encourage such RACIAL bias, RACIAL injustices, DISCRIMINATION and PREJUDICES be EXPOSED to the WORLD – i.e. especially when the record evidence may support that those who harbor such criminal mind and hatred/evil in their hearts may be the very ones that Leaders of the United States rely upon when deciding whether or not to go to war (i.e. as in the Iran, Iraq and Afghanistan wars). In further support thereof, Newsome states:

> Rosenblatt v. Baer, 86 S.Ct. 669 (1966) - Criticism of government is at the very center of the constitutionally protected area of free speech; criticism of those responsible for government operations must be free, lest criticism of government itself be penalized. U.S.C.A.Const. Amends. 1, 14.
> Garrison v. State of La., 85 S.Ct. 209 (1964) - The First and Fourteenth Amendments embody profound national commitment to principle that debate on public issues should be uninhibited, robust and wide open and that it may well include vehement, caustic and sometimes unpleasantly sharp attacks on government and public officials. U.S.C.A.Const. Amends. 1, 14.

> Baumgartner v. U.S., 64 S.Ct. 1240 (1944) - One of the prerogatives of American citizenship is the right to criticize public men and measures, which means not only informed and responsible criticism, but the freedom to speak . . .without moderation.

Newsome believes this information is also pertinent in light of the recent release of the EVIL practices of the United States relating to STD EXPERIMENTS that have been found to be UNETHICAL. The United States providing statements from Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and Secretary of Health and Human Services Kathleen Sebelius apologizing for such INHUMAN practices. The PUBLIC/WORLD may recall how it was then 2008 "United States Presidential Candidate Hillary Clinton" that led the surge in providing "excerpts" of sermons by President Obama's former Pastor Jeremiah Wright for alluding to such unethical experiments for purposes of destroying the lives of people of color. However, Wright was projected as being crazy and/or a lunatic. A method commonly used by the United States Government when it wants to keep the TRUTH from the PUBLIC/WORLD. Now thanks to researchers like Susan Reverby, such unethical EXPERIMENTS and COVER-UP by the United States Government the truth is finally being EXPOSED – See EXHIBIT "152" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein – which states in part:

U.S.: 1940s STD EXPERIMENTS "CLEARLY UNETHICAL"

The U.S. government has formally apologized for a secret study conducted in the 1940s in which Guatemalan prisoners, service members and mental hospital patients were secretly infected *with gonorrhea and syphilis without their knowledge or consen*t, calling the program, "clearly unethical."

. . . The results of the Sexually Transmitted Disease Inoculation Study were uncovered by a Wellesley College researcher, Susan Reverby.

The story is uncomfortably similar to the "Tuskegee" Syphilis Study in the 1960s, in which the PHS monitored, but did not treat hundreds of African American men suffering from syphilis. . . .

Reverby wrote that the Guatemala syphilis inoculation project was run by PHS physician, Dr. John C. Cutler (who would later oversee the Tuskegee, Ala., study two decades later). . .

Cutler seemed to recognize the delicate ethical quandaries their experiments posed, particularly in the wake of the Nuremberg "Doctors' Trials," and was concerned about secrecy. "As you can imagine," Cutler reported to his PHS overseer, "we are holding our breaths, and we are explaining to the patients and other concerned with but a few key exceptions, that the treatment is a new one utilizing serum followed by penicillin. This double talk keeps me hopping at time."

Cutler also wrote that he feared "a few words to the wrong person here, or even at home, might wreck it or parts of it. . ."

. . . Cutler went on to participate in another Syphilis Study at Sing Sing Prison in Ossining, N.Y. (although in that case the subjects were informed about the nature of the inoculations administered to them).

THE AIDS CONSPIRACY HANDBOOK

Barack Obama rebuked his former pastor the Rev. Jeremiah Wright on Tuesday for giving sermons in which he blamed the government for creating a racist state and "inventing the HIV virus as a means of genocide against people of color." Wright isn't the first to say that AIDS originated in the White House. Others have attributed the epidemic to laboratory accident, malnutrition, or even God's divine will. . .

GOVERNMENT INVOLVEMENT:

. . . In 1986, crackpot East German biologist Jakob Segal published "AIDS: USA Home-Made Evil." According to the pamphlet, scientist at a Fort > Detrick, Md., military lab manufactured the disease by synthesizing HTLV-1 (a retrovirus that causes T-cell leukemia with Visna (a sheep virus). The scientist administered their lethal concoction to prison inmates, who then introduced the disease into the general population. . . .

> Similarly, the aptly named Boyd E. Graves. . . has postulated that scientists in the employ of the U.S. Special Virus Program modified Visna to create HIV during the 1970s. The government, with help from pharmaceutical company Merck, added the virus to an experimental hepatitis B vaccine, which was given to gay men and blacks in New York and San Francisco.
> And then there's Gary Glum, author of Full Disclosure, who fronts the theory that scientists at the Cold Spring Harbor lab in New York engineered HIV, and that the World Health Organization spread the virus under cover of the smallpox eradication program. Glum believes the virus was created to wipe out, or at least control, the black population*. (According to a study released in 2005 by Rand Corp., more than one-quarter of African-Americans believe the disease was engineered in a government lab, and 16 percent think it was created to control the black population.)*

Now approximately two (2) years later, this information surfaces – nevertheless, Jeremiah Wright was projected as being mad, crazy a terrorist, etc. from EXCERPT-of-VIDEO CLIP METHODS used by those (i.e. Hillary Clinton and Sarah Palin) who want to project African-American males as being HOSTILE, full of ANGER, RAGE, etc. Nevertheless, these are women who wanted to be the next President/Vice President of the United States – i.e yet HARBORING/CONCEALING with such RACIST views and tactics/ideology. The EXCERPT-of-VIDEO CLIP METHOD that was used recently on Shirley Sherrod to project her as a "Racist" by SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups which may have been in RETALIATION to comments that were made by the NAACP regarding RACIST acts of a "Tea Party" organization – i.e. one is SPEARHEADED by a potential 2010 Presidential Candidate (Sarah Palin) which the MEDIA is giving her quite a bit of TELEVISION coverage, TELEVISION PROGRAMS and are paying her MILLIONS of dollars to PROMOTE such racist views UNDERCOVER. As with many citizens (whites, African-Americans and/or people of color), Foreign Leaders/Nations can see beyond the MASK/SHIELD/SMOKE SCREEN that the United States Government is attempting to take African-Americans and/or people of color back into BONDAGE/SLAVERY. Moreover, the United States is attempting to spread such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST/RACIST views abroad.

H) While President Barack Obama has REPEATEDLY stated in speeches that he WILL *NOT tolerate DISCRIMINATION under his Administration, the record evidence will support to the CONTRARY. Not only has President Obama allowed DISCRIMINATORY practices leveled against Newsome in the handling of charges/complaints filed by her, he has allowed Government Officials/Employees to RETALIATE and engage in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her – i.e. unlawful/illegal seizure of monies/ EMBEZZLEMENT of monies through SHAM Legal Process, Abuse of Power, etc. Furthermore, the record evidence will support that the CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome are RACIALLY motivated.

I) Newsome believes that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions contained herein as well as in the lower court records will sustain that PUBLIC OFFICIALS (i.e. Judge West, President Obama and this under his Administration, United States Senators/Representatives, etc.) in exchange for their role in PRIVATE Conspiracy and engagement in PUBLIC Corruption did so with receipt and/or intent of receiving something of value in exchange for their part in Conspiracies leveled against Newsome. Furthermore, record evidence will support and/or sustain an OBSTRUCTION of Justice and/or OBSTRUCTION of Administration of Justice constituting a role in Private Conspiracy and for purposes of depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws secured to citizens of the United States.

U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 1.

J) Newsome believes the recent attacks on WikiLeaks' Leader (Julian Assange) is also a GOOD EXAMPLE of how the United States Government seeks to infringe upon the Constitutional Rights of citizens (i.e. attempt to silence them) when they do not want its SUPREMACIST, TERRORIST and CORRUPTION revealed to its citizens and/or other countries (the WORLD). Again, Newsome has to go back to the following case:

> U.S. v. Jimenez Recio, 123 S.Ct. 819 (2003) - Essence of a conspiracy is an agreement to commit an unlawful act.
>
> Agreement to commit an unlawful act, which constitutes the essence of a conspiracy, is a distinct evil that may exist and be punished whether or not the substantive crime ensues. Id.
> Conspiracy poses a threat to the public over and above the threat of the commission of the relevant substantive crime, both because the combination in crime makes more likely the commission of other crimes and because it decreases the probability that the individuals involved will depart from their path of criminality.

believing that it is due to the United States Government Officials (to which she reported Criminal/Civil wrongs) failure to act, the citizens of the United States on 9/11 came under attack and there are those who are determined to engage in launching future attacks because of the NEGLIGENCE of the United States to clean out the CORRUPTION and TERRORISTS that it knows is OPERATING and FUNCTIONING in key positions as COUNSEL and/or ADVISORS to the United States President, United States Senate, United States House of Representative, United States Department of Justice, United States Department of Labor, United States Courts, etc. It further appears, based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions provided herein:

1. BAKER DONELSON and LIBERTY MUTUAL (i.e. it appears with the assistance of United States Government) and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators have wreaked havoc on way too many lives for way too long. Thus, very DETRIMENTAL to the Public and/or citizens of the United States as well as citizens of Foreign Countries.
2. Apparently BAKER DONELSON and LIBERTY MUTUAL (because of their deep ROOTS in Government and Politics) think they are too POWERFUL to fail/fall – GOLIATH thought the same thing and just as his pride/arrogance/ego was the means to his end, Newsome believes so will it be for BAKER DONELSON, LIBERTY MUTUAL and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators. - - PRIDE comes before destruction and a HAUGHTY spirit before a fall.[50]
3. It appears that BAKER DONELSON may be using their TIES/RELATIONSHIPS to Government positions/offices/officials to their advantage – i.e. for purposes of CONTROL, INFLUENCE, SUPREMACY, TERRORIST acts - in the controlling and running of the United States Government to mislead the people that it is Osama Bin Laden and his allies who are the terrorist and the ones to be feared; however, based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein [i.e. and apparently information released by WikiLeaks], it appears that Foreign Countries and/or their citizens are merely responding to the SUPREMACIST and TERRORISTIC acts the United States has not only allowed to be inflicted on its own citizens, but those on Foreign Countries/Foreign Leaders to COVER-UP and MASK who the REAL Terrorists are and how and where they are operating in the United States Government. It appears it is Bin Laden and his allies who merely refuse to roll over to the United States and let such SUPREMACIST ideology and RACIST agendas (i.e. fueled by hate, evil and wickedness) by the likes of BAKER DONELSON and LIBERTY to come into their countries to destroy and take over their lands as it did in the occupancy and building of the United States. It appears that Foreign Countries/Foreign Leaders are willing to sacrifice and die rather than give into the TERRORIST acts of the United States. Important To Note: This is a different age and time. Like Newsome, there are others (i.e. WikiLeaks, etc.) who are coming forth and speaking out and taking action to expose such CORRUPTION and CRIMINAL acts/practices of the United States Government and the likes of Baker Donelson.

K) The record evidence will support that as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of Newsome having exercised her First Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment Rights under the Constitution and releasing July 13, 2010, email entitled, "U.S. PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA: THE DOWNFALL/ DOOM OF THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION – Corruption/Conspiracy/ Cover-Up/Criminal Acts Made Public" - See EXHIBIT "25" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - President Obama, his Administration and those engaging in Private CONSPIRACY against Newsome, moved SWIFTLY and instructed and/or authorized the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue to execute on or about July 17, 2010 SHAM legal process entitled, "Notice of Levy" - See EXHIBIT "27" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - in RETALIATION of Newsome having exercised her right to speak out and EXPOSE Public Corruption and CONSPIRACIES leveled against her.

State of Alabama, 60 S.Ct. 736 (1940) - The "freedom of speech and of the press" guaranteed by the Constitution embraces at least the liberty to discuss publicly and truthfully all matters of public concern without previous restraint or fear of subsequent punishment. L) Newsome believes that the record evidence will support a Private CONSPIRACY and PUBLIC CORRUPTION by Government Officials/Agencies involving Judge West, Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) and other willing Conspirators/Co-Conspirators who reached an agreement to commit unlawful/illegal acts against Newsome. Distinct evils leveled against Newsome in RETALIATION of her speaking out and exercising rights secured under the Constitution. CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome which poses a threat to the PUBLIC-AT-LARGE because the record evidence will sustain that due to the NEGLIGENCE and FAILURE to prosecute criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome, Judge West, Plaintiff Stor-All, its attorneys (Meranus, Lively, Vance, Healy, Decker, etc.) and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators authorized, directed and/or engaged in additional criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome. Further sustaining said NEGLIGENC and FAILURE resulted in:

(a) making such criminals most likely to commit other crimes and as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of such Negligence and Failure to Prosecute crimes reported by Newsome, Plaintiff Stor-All unlawfully/illegally seized Newsome's storage unit and property WITHOUT legal authority/Court Order and then brought a MALICIOUS Forcible Entry and Detainer action against her to COVER-UP said crime and in furtherance of COVERING UP the role it is playing in the ONGOING Conspiracies that are being birthed at each level as it reels in NEW and MORE WILLING Conspirators/Co-Conspirators; and

(b) the unlikeliness that Conspirators/Co-Conspirators as Judge West (i.e. whose Bailiff Damon Ridley was recently INDICTED and found "GUILTY" by a jury for Attempted Bribery), Plaintiff Stor-All, its attorneys (Meranus, Lively, Vance, Healy, Decker, etc.), its insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) and others involved in Conspiracies leveled against Newsome will depart from their path of criminality.

The record evidence in this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC further supports the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE underlying the Private Conspiracies initiated against Newsome. It is said conspiracies which are racially motivated and FUELED by DISCRIMINATORY and PREJUDICIAL biases towards Newsome and/or people of color.

M) Newsome believes that due to the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances in this lawsuit, the United States INTERVENTION and exercise of jurisdiction is required. Newsome believes the Certiorari action to be brought may require this Court to expound on such rulings as those in Citizens United v Federal Election Commission, 558 U.S. 50 (2010) and Hugh M. Caperton, et al. vs. A. T. Massey Coal Co. Inc., 129 S.Ct. 2252; moreover, CLARIFY that when Judges/Justices benefit from Financial Campaign Contributions, that said contributions DO NOT authorize Judges/Judges to engage in Private CONSPIRACIES and PUBLIC CORRUPTION to cover-up criminal/civil wrongs leveled against citizens[51] (i.e. as

[51] HUGH M. CAPERTON, ET AL. VS. A. T. MASSEY COAL CO. INC., 129 S.CT. 2252:

In this case the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia reversed a trial court judgment, which had entered a jury verdict of $50 million. Five justices heard the case, and the vote to reverse was 3 to 2. The question presented is whether the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment was violated when one of the justices in the majority denied a recusal motion. The basis for the motion was that the justice had received campaign contributions in an extraordinary amount from, and through the efforts of, the board chairman*2257 and principal officer of the corporation found liable for the damages.

Under our precedents there are objective standards that require recusal when "the probability of actual bias on the part of the judge or decisionmaker is too high to be constitutionally tolerable." Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47, 95 S.Ct. 1456, 43 L.Ed.2d 712 (1975). Applying those precedents, we find that, in all the circumstances of this case, due process requires recusal.

[1] Constitutional Law: Fair trial in fair tribunal is basic requirement of due process. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14.

[2] Judges: Even when judge does not have any direct, personal, substantial, pecuniary interest in case, of kind requiring his or her disqualification at common law, there are circumstances in which probability of actual bias on part of judge is too high to be constitutionally tolerable.

> [1][2] It is axiomatic that "[a] fair trial in a fair tribunal is a basic requirement of due process." Murchison, supra, at 136, 75 S.Ct. 623[51]. . . . The early and leading case on the subject is Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 47 S.Ct. 437, 71 L.Ed. 749 (1927). There, the Court stated that "matters of kinship, personal bias, state policy, remoteness of interest, would seem generally to be matters merely of legislative discretion." Id., at 523, 47 S.Ct. 437.
> The Tumey Court concluded that the Due Process Clause incorporated the common-law rule that a judge must recuse himself when he has "a direct, personal, substantial, pecuniary interest" in a case. Ibid. This rule reflects the maxim that "[n]o man is allowed to be a judge in his own cause; because his interest would certainly bias his judgment, and, not improbably, corrupt his integrity." The Federalist No. 10, p. 59 (J. Cooke ed.1961) (J. Madison); see Frank, Disqualification of Judges, 56 Yale L.J. 605, 611-612 (1947) (same). Under this rule, "disqualification for bias or prejudice was not permitted"; those matters were left to statutes and judicial codes. Lavoie, supra, at 820, 106 S.Ct. 1580; see also Part IV, infra (discussing judicial codes). . . .
> [3] As new problems have emerged that were not discussed at common law, however, the Court has identified additional instances which, as an objective matter, require recusal. These are circumstances "in which experience teaches that the probability of actual bias on the part of the judge or decisionmaker is too high to be constitutionally tolerable." Withrow, 421 U.S., at 47, 95 S.Ct. 1456. To place the present case in proper context, two instances where the Court has required recusal merit further discussion. . . .
> The first involved the emergence of local tribunals where a judge had a financial *2260 interest in the outcome of a case, although the interest was less than what would have been considered personal or direct at common law. . .
>
> The Court in Lavoie further clarified the reach of the Due Process Clause regarding a judge's financial interest in a case. There, a justice had cast the deciding vote on the Alabama Supreme Court to uphold a punitive damages award against an insurance company for bad-faith refusal to pay a claim. At the time of his vote, the justice was the lead plaintiff in a nearly identical lawsuit pending in Alabama's lower courts. *His deciding vote, this Court surmised, "undoubtedly 'raised the stakes' " for the insurance defendant in the *2261 justice's suit. 475 U.S., at 823-824, 106 S.Ct. 1580. . .
> The Due Process Clause required disqualification. The Court recited the general rule that "no man can be a judge in his own case," adding that "no man is permitted to try cases where he has an interest in the outcome." Id., at 136, 75 S.Ct. 623. It noted that the disqualifying > criteria "cannot be defined with precision. Circumstances and relationships must be considered." Ibid. These circumstances and the prior relationship required recusal: "Having been a part of [the one-man grand jury] process a judge cannot be, in the very nature of things, wholly disinterested in the conviction or acquittal of those accused." Id., at 137, 75 S.Ct. 623. That is because "[a]s a practical matter it is difficult if not impossible for a judge to free himself from the influence of what took place in his 'grand-jury' secret session." Id., at 138, 75 S.Ct. 623. . .

> Following Murchison the Court held in Mayberry v. Pennsylvania, 400 U.S. 455, 466, 91 S.Ct. 499, 27 L.Ed.2d 532 (1971), "that by reason of the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment a defendant in . . . proceedings should be given a public trial before a judge other than the one reviled by the contemnor." The Court reiterated that this rule rests on the relationship between the judge and the defendant: "[A] judge, vilified as was this . . . judge, necessarily becomes embroiled in a running, bitter controversy. No one so cruelly slandered is likely to maintain that calm detachment necessary for fair adjudication." Id., at 465, 91 S.Ct. 499.

[4] Judges: In deciding whether probability of actual bias on part of judge is too high to be constitutionally tolerable, court's inquiry is objective one, that asks not whether judge is actually, subjectively biased, but whether average judge in judge's position is likely to be neutral, or whether there is unconstitutional potential for bias.

> [4] . . . To bring coherence to the process, and to seek respect for the resulting judgment, judges often explain the reasons for their conclusions and rulings. There are instances when the introspection that often attends this process may reveal that what the judge had assumed to be a proper, controlling factor is not the real one at work. If the judge discovers that some personal bias or improper consideration seems to be the actuating cause of the decision or to be an influence so difficult to dispel that there is a real possibility of undermining neutrality, the judge may think it necessary to consider withdrawing from the case.

[5] Judges: Judge's own inquiry into actual bias is not one that the law can easily superintend or review, though actual bias, if disclosed, no doubt would be grounds for appropriate relief.

[6] Constitutional Law: In lieu of exclusive reliance on personal inquiry by judge, or on appellate review of judge's determination respecting actual bias, the Due Process Clause is implemented, in area of judicial recusal, by objective standards which do not require proof of actual bias; in defining these standards, court asks whether, under a realistic appraisal of psychological tendencies and human weakness, the interest in question poses such a risk of actual bias or prejudgment that practice must be forbidden if guarantee of due process is to be adequately implemented. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14.

> [5][6] . . . In lieu of exclusive reliance on that personal inquiry, or on appellate review of the judge's determination respecting actual bias, the Due Process Clause has been implemented by objective standards that do not require proof of actual bias. See Tumey, 273 U.S., at 532, 47 S.Ct. 437; Mayberry, 400 U.S., at 465-466, 91 S.Ct. 499; Lavoie, 475 U. S., at 825, 106 S.Ct. 1580. In defining these standards the Court has asked whether, "under a realistic appraisal of psychological tendencies and human weakness," the interest "poses such a risk of actual bias or prejudgment that the practice must be forbidden if the guarantee of due process is to be adequately implemented." Withrow, 421 U.S., at 47, 95 S.Ct. 1456.

[8] Judges: There is serious risk of actual bias, based on objective and reasonable perceptions, when person with personal stake in particular case had significant and disproportionate influence in placing judge on case by raising funds or by directing judge's election campaign when case was pending or imminent.

> [8]. . . We turn to the influence at issue in this case. Not every campaign contribution by a litigant or attorney creates a probability of bias that requires a judge's recusal, but this is an exceptional case. Cf. Mayberry, supra, at 465, 91 S.Ct. 499 ("It is, of course, not every attack on a judge that disqualifies him from sitting"); Lavoie, supra, at 825-826, 106 S.Ct. 1580 (some pecuniary interests are " 'too remote and insubstantial' "). *We conclude that there is a serious risk of actual bias-based on objective and reasonable perceptions-when a person with a personal stake in a particular case had a significant and disproportionate influence in placing 2264 the judge on the case by raising funds or directing the judge's election campaign when the case was pending or imminent. The inquiry centers on the contribution's relative size in comparison to the total amount of money contributed to the campaign, the total amount spent in the election, and the apparent effect such contribution had on the outcome of the election.

> [10] Applying this principle, we conclude that Blankenship's campaign efforts had a significant and disproportionate influence in placing Justice Benjamin on the case. Blankenship contributed some $3 million to unseat the incumbent and replace him with Benjamin*. His contributions eclipsed the total amount spent by all other Benjamin supporters and exceeded by 300% the amount spent by Benjamin's campaign committee. App. 288a. Caperton claims Blankenship spent $1 million more than the total amount spent by the campaign committees of both candidates combined. . .

[11] Constitutional Law: Whether litigant's campaign contributions were a necessary and sufficient cause of judge's victory in judicial election is not proper inquiry in deciding whether such contributions require judge's recusal from case involving litigant as matter of due process; due process requires an objective inquiry into whether contributor's influence on election under all the circumstances would offer possible temptation to average judge to lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear and true. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14.

> [11] . . . This is particularly true where, as here, there is no procedure for judicial factfinding and the sole trier of fact is the one accused of bias. Due process requires an objective inquiry into whether the contributor's influence on the election under all the circumstances "would offer a possible temptation to the average ... judge to ... lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear and true." Tumey, supra, at 532, 47 S.Ct. 437. . . Blankenship's campaign contributions-in comparison to the total amount contributed to the campaign, as well as the total amount spent in the election-had a significant and disproportionate influence on the electoral outcome. And the risk that Blankenship's influence engendered actual bias is sufficiently substantial that it "must be forbidden if the guarantee of due process is to be adequately implemented." Withrow, supra, at 47, 95 S.Ct. 1456. . .
> So it became at once apparent that, absent recusal, *Justice Benjamin would review a judgment that cost his biggest donor's company $50 million. Although there is no allegation of a quid pro quo agreement, the fact remains that Blankenship's extraordinary contributions were made at a time when he had a vested stake in the outcome. Just as no man is allowed to be a judge in his own cause, similar fears of bias can arise when-without the consent of the other parties-a man chooses the judge in his own cause. And applying this principle to the judicial election process, there was here a serious, objective risk of actual bias that required Justice Benjamin's recusal.

[12] Judges: Inquiry into actual bias is just one step that judge must take in deciding whether to recuse himself; objective standards may also require recusal whether or not actual bias exists or can be proven.

[13] Constitutional Law: Due process may sometimes bar trial by judges who have no actual bias and who would do their very best to weigh scales of justice equally between contending parties. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14.

[12][13] Justice Benjamin did undertake an extensive search for actual bias. But, as we have indicated, that is just one step in the judicial process; objective standards may also require recusal whether or not actual bias exists or can be proved. Due process "may sometimes bar trial by judges who have no actual bias and who would do their very best to weigh the scales of justice equally between contending parties." Murchison, 349 U.S., at 136, 75 S.Ct. 623. The failure to consider objective standards requiring recusal is not consistent with the imperatives of due process. We find that Blankenship's significant and disproportionate influence-coupled with the temporal relationship between the election and the pending case-" ' "offer a possible temptation to the average ... judge to ... lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear and true." ' " Lavoie, 475 U.S., at 825, 106 S.Ct. 1580 (quoting Monroeville, 409 U.S., at 60, 93 S.Ct. 80,[51] in turn quoting Tumey, 273 U.S., at 532, 47 S.Ct. 437). On these extreme facts the probability of actual bias rises to an *unconstitutional level. . . .

Our decision today addresses an extraordinary situation where the Constitution requires recusal. . . The facts now before us are extreme by any measure. The parties point to no other instance involving judicial campaign contributions that presents a potential for bias comparable to the circumstances in this case.

It is true that extreme cases often test the bounds of established legal principles, and sometimes no administrable standard may be available to address the perceived wrong. But it is also true that extreme cases are more likely to cross constitutional limits, requiring this Court's intervention and formulation of objective standards. This is particularly true when due process is violated. See, e.g., County of Sacramento v. Lewis, 523 U.S. 833, 846-847, 118 S.Ct. 1708, 140 L.Ed.2d 1043 (1998) (reiterating the due-process prohibition on "executive abuse of power *... which shocks the conscience"); id., at 858, 118 S.Ct. 1708 (KENNEDY, J., concurring) (explaining that "objective considerations, including history and precedent, are the controlling principle" of this due process standard).

This Court's recusal cases are illustrative. In each case the Court dealt with extreme facts that created an unconstitutional probability of bias that " 'cannot be defined with precision.' " Lavoie, 475 U.S., at 822, 106 S.Ct. 1580 (quoting Murchison, 349 U.S., at 136, 75 S.Ct. 623). Yet the *2266 Court articulated an objective standard to protect the parties' basic right to a fair trial in a fair tribunal. The Court was careful to distinguish the extreme facts of the cases before it from those interests that would not rise to a constitutional level. See, e.g., Lavoie, supra, at 825-826, 106 S.Ct. 1580; Mayberry, 400 U.S., at 465-466, 91 S.Ct. 499; Murchison, supra, at 137, 75 S.Ct. 623; see also Part II, supra. In this case we do nothing more than what the Court has done before. . .

The . . . Code of Judicial Conduct also requires *a judge to "*disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Canon 3E(1); see also 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) ("Any justice, judge, or magistrate judge of the . . . shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned"). Under Canon 3E(1), " '[t]he question of disqualification focuses on whether an objective assessment of the judge's conduct produces a reasonable question about impartiality, not on the judge's subjective perception of the ability to act fairly.' " State ex rel. Brown v. Dietrick, 191 W.Va. 169, 174, n. 9, 444 S.E.2d 47, 52, n. 9 (1994); see also Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 558, 114 S.Ct. 1147, 127 L.Ed.2d 474 (1994) (KENNEDY, J., concurring in judgment) ("[U]nder [28 U.S.C.] § 455(a), a judge should be disqualified only if it appears that he or she harbors an aversion, hostility or disposition of a kind that a fair-minded person could not set aside when judging the dispute"). Indeed, some States require recusal based on campaign contributions similar to those in this case. See, e.g., Ala.Code §§ 12-24-1, 12-24-2 (2006); Miss.Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 3E(2) (2008).

These codes of conduct serve to maintain the integrity of the judiciary and the rule of law. The Conference of the Chief Justices has underscored that the codes are "[t]he principal safeguard against judicial campaign abuses" that threaten to imperil "public confidence in the fairness and integrity of the nation's elected judges." Brief for Conference of Chief Justices as Amicus Curiae 4, 11. This is a vital state interest:

> "Courts, in our system, elaborate principles of law in the course of resolving disputes. The power and the prerogative of a court to perform this function rest, in the end, upon the respect accorded to its judgments. *The citizen's respect for judgments depends in turn 2267 upon the issuing court's absolute probity. Judicial integrity is, in consequence, *a state interest of the highest order." Republican Party of Minn. v. White, 536 U.S. 765, 793, 122 S.Ct. 2528, 153 L.Ed.2d 694 (2002) (KENNEDY, J., concurring). . .

I, of course, share the majority's sincere concerns about the need to maintain a fair, independent, and impartial judiciary-and one that appears to be such. . . .

Until today, we have recognized exactly two situations in which the Federal Due Process Clause requires disqualification of a judge*: when the judge has a financial interest in the outcome of the case, and when the judge is trying a defendant for certain criminal contempts*. Vaguer notions of bias or the appearance of bias were never a basis for disqualification, either at common law or under our constitutional precedents. Those issues were instead addressed by legislation or court rules.

Today, however, the Court enlists the Due Process Clause to overturn a judge's failure to recuse because of a "probability of bias." Unlike the established grounds for disqualification, a "probability of bias" cannot be defined in any limited way. The Court's new "rule" provides no guidance to judges and litigants about when recusal will be constitutionally required. . . The end result will do far more to erode public confidence in judicial impartiality than an isolated failure to recuse in a particular case. . .

There is a "presumption of honesty and integrity in those serving as adjudicators." Withrow v. Larkin, 421 U.S. 35, 47, 95 S.Ct. 1456, 43 L.Ed.2d 712 (1975). All judges take an oath to uphold the Constitution and apply the law impartially, and we trust that they will live up to this promise. See Republican Party of Minn. v. White, 536 U.S. 765, 796, 122 S.Ct. 2528, 153 L.Ed.2d 694 (2002) (KENNEDY, J., concurring) ("We should not, even by inadvertence, 'impute to judges a lack of firmness, wisdom, or honor' " (quoting *2268 Bridges v. California, 314 U.S. 252, 273, 62 S.Ct. 190, 86 L.Ed. 192 (1941))). . .

It is well established that a judge may not preside over a case in which he has a "direct, personal, substantial pecuniary interest." Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 523, 47 S.Ct. 437, 71 L.Ed. 749 (1927). This principle is relatively straightforward, and largely tracks the longstanding common-law rule regarding judicial recusal. See Frank, Disqualification of Judges, 56 Yale L.J. 605, 609 (1947) ("The common law of disqualification ... was clear and simple: a judge was disqualified for direct pecuniary interest and for nothing else"). . .

It may also violate due process when a judge presides over a . . . case that resulted from the defendant's hostility towards the judge. In Mayberry v. Pennsylvania, 400 U.S. 455, 91 S.Ct. 499, 27 L.Ed.2d 532 (1971), the defendant directed a steady stream of expletives and ad hominem attacks at the judge throughout the trial. When that defendant was subsequently charged with . . . contempt, we concluded that he "should be given a public trial *before a judge other than the one reviled by the contemnor." Id., at 466, 91 S.Ct. 499; see also Taylor v. Hayes, 418 U.S. 488, 501, 94 S.Ct. 2697, 41 L.Ed.2d 897 (1974) (a judge who had "become embroiled in a running controversy" with the defendant could not subsequently preside over that defendant's . . . trial). . .

But there are other fundamental questions as well. With little help from the majority, courts will now have to determine:

> 1. How much money is too much money? What level of contribution or expenditure gives rise to a "probability of bias"? . . .
> 4. Does it matter whether the litigant has contributed to other candidates or made large expenditures in connection with other elections?
>
> 5. Does the amount at issue in the case matter? What if this case were an employment dispute with only $10,000 at stake? What if the plaintiffs only sought non-monetary relief such as an injunction or declaratory judgment? . . .
> 7. How long does the probability of bias last? Does the probability of bias diminish over time as the election recedes? Does it matter whether the judge plans to run for reelection?
> 8. What if the "disproportionately" large expenditure is made by an industry association, trade union, physicians' group, or the plaintiffs' bar? Must the judge recuse in all cases that affect the association's interests? Must the judge recuse in all cases in which a party or lawyer is a member of that group? Does it matter how much the litigant contributed to the association?. . .
> *2270 11. What if the supporter is not a party to the pending or imminent case, but his interests will be affected by the decision? Does the Court's analysis apply if the supporter "chooses the judge" not in his case, but in someone else's?
> 12. What if the case implicates a regulatory issue that is of great importance to the party making the expenditures, even though he has no direct financial interest in the outcome (e.g., a facial challenge to an agency rule-making or a suit seeking to limit an agency's jurisdiction)?
> 13. Must the judge's vote be outcome determinative in order for his non-recusal to constitute a due process violation?
>
> 14. Does the due process analysis consider the underlying merits of the suit? Does it matter whether the decision is clearly right (or wrong) as a matter of state law?. . .
> 19. If there is independent review of a judge's recusal decision, e.g., by a panel of other judges, does this completely foreclose a due process claim?. . .
> 21. Does close personal friendship between a judge and a party or lawyer now give rise to a probability of bias?
>
> 22. Does it matter whether the campaign expenditures come from a party or the party's attorney? If from a lawyer, must the judge recuse in every case involving that attorney?. . .
> 24. Under the majority's "objective" test, do we analyze the due process issue through the lens of a reasonable person, a reasonable lawyer, or a reasonable judge?. . .

Newsome) because they have elected to exercise rights secured under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States.

N) The record evidence will support that Newsome timely, properly and adequately requested that Judges/Justices involved in this instant lawsuit and/or other legal actions in which she is involved advise of any potential CONFLICT OF INTEREST. Nevertheless, ALL who have been requested to provide such information have declined to provide Newsome with information > 33. What procedures must be followed to challenge a state judge's failure to recuse? May Caperton claims only be raised on direct review? Or may such claims also be brought in federal district court under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, which allows a person deprived of a federal right by a state official to sue for damages? If § 1983 claims are available, who are the proper defendants? The judge? The whole court? The clerk of court?

> 34. What about state-court cases that are already closed? Can the losing parties in those cases now seek collateral relief in federal district court under § 1983? What statutes of limitation should be applied to such suits?
> 35. What is the proper remedy? After a successful Caperton motion, must the parties start from scratch before the lower courts? Is any part of the lower court judgment retained?
> 36. Does a litigant waive his due process claim if he waits until after decision to raise it? Or would the claim only be ripe after decision, when the judge's actions or vote suggest a probability of bias?
> 37. Are the parties entitled to discovery with respect to the judge's recusal decision?
> *2272 38. If a judge erroneously fails to recuse, do we apply harmless-error review?

To its credit, the Court seems to recognize that the inherently boundless nature of its new rule poses a problem. But the majority's only answer is that the present case is an "extreme" one, so there is no need to worry about other cases. Ante, at 2265. The Court repeats this point over and over. See ante, at 2263 ("this is an exceptional case"); ante, at 2265 ("On these extreme facts"); ibid. ("Our decision today addresses an extraordinary situation"); ante, at 2265 ("The facts now before us are extreme by any measure"); ante, at 2267 (Court's rule will "be confined to rare instances"). . .

Justice SCALIA, dissenting.

The principal purpose of this Court's exercise of its certiorari jurisdiction is to clarify the law. See this Court's Rule 10. . .

The decision will have the opposite effect. What above all else is eroding public confidence in the Nation's judicial system is the perception that litigation is just a game, that the party with the most resourceful lawyer can play it to win, that our seemingly interminable legal proceedings are wonderfully self-perpetuating but incapable of delivering real-world justice. . .

to which she is entitled. It is said failure by Judges/Justices that have resulted in their ENGAGEMENT in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and has resulted in Newsome having to file the applicable Complaints against Judges/Justices with the appropriate Government Agency(s). For instance:

i. In the Mississippi matter, Newsome filed the required Complaint with the Mississippi Commission Of Judicial Performance against Judge William L. Skinner II – i.e. judge involved in the February 14, 2006 kidnapping and other criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome which resulted in the filing of Newsome's June 26, 2006 "Complaint and Request for Investigation to the United States Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of Investigations Filed by Vogel D. Newsome" – See EXHIBIT "45" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Based on information Newsome came across during her research, she contacted the United States Department of Justice as well as United States President Obama to advise of concerns that the FBI may have been involved in a Conspiracy to cover-up the murder of Judge Skinner father (Officer William Skinner – of the Jackson, Mississippi Police Department) and framing the murder of Judge Skinner's father on members of the New Republic of Africa. Newsome believes such information is RELEVANT and PERTINENT as such criminal/civil wrongs carried out by one of the leading organizations in the United States supports Ku Klux Klan Act violations and the use of DEADLY force against citizens and then framing them for crimes they may not have committed. Information which is RELEVANT and PERTINENT because if Judge Skinner is aware of such criminal acts carried out by the FBI, a reasonable mind may conclude that the United States Department of Justice's (FBI's) failure to act and prosecute Judge Skinner may be a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of his knowledge of CONSPIRACY leveled against an Black Organization (New Republic of Africa) and the framing of said groups members for purposes of dismantling, instilling fear and deterring the creation and organization of future Activist groups in the African-American communities.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Judge Skinner was served with the required "Notice of Lawsuit and Request of Waiver of Service of Summons" on April 26, 2007, received Notice and accompanying Complaint on May 1, 2007; however, elected not to execute said Waiver as required. Had Judge Skinner executed Waiver, he would have had 60 days to respond – i.e. until June 25, 2007. Instead, resorting to DILATORY tactics and failing to comply with > Rules of Court, it required that Newsome have him served with process. Judge Skinner being served on June 21, 2007, and, therefore, requiring his Answer and/or appropriate Rule 12 Motion(s) to be filed by July 11, 2007. See Newsome's "Motion to Strike Statements and Materials of Defendants', Jon C. Lewis and William L. Skinner, II, Motion to Dismiss, or in the Alternative, Motion to Quash" at EXHIBIT "43" incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Furthermore, the Certiorari action Newsome seeks to bring will provide additional information as to Judge Skinner's present engagement in RACIAL injustices and efforts taken by him to retain control over the Henley Young Juvenile Detention Center (a/k/a Hinds County Youth Detention Center) [52] - which under his leadership and direction has come under scrutiny for similar crimes that the United States Department of Justices have prosecuted others for. Newsome reporting concerns of Judge Skinner's criminal/civil wrongs as early as June 24, 2009, regarding the Detention Center to President Obama and United States Attorney General Eric Holder. See EXHIBIT "115" – Excerpt and Proof of Mailing attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Nevertheless, has allowed Judge Skinner to remain free to continue the commission of other crimes and it is unlikely that he will depart from such path of criminality. U.S. v. Jimenez Recio, 123 S.Ct. 819 (2003). Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that PUBLIC Officials failure to act on her Complaint filed with the Mississippi Commission Of Judicial Performance as well as the United States Department of Justice's failure to act on Newsome's 2006, "Complaint and Request for Investigation to the United States Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of Investigations Filed by Vogel D. Newsome" may be a direct and proximate result of why other citizens have fallen victim to

[52] This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT because it will support that while Newsome timely, properly and adequately prepared and filed the appropriate COMPLAINT(s) regarding Judge Skinner, Government Agencies/Officials to which Complaint(s) were filed, FAILED to perform duties owed the PUBLIC and, therefore, as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result, Judge Skinner has been ENCOURAGED and gone on (it appears) to engage in criminal acts in which others have been prosecuted for by the United States Department of Justice – See EXHIBITS "110" and "39" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein:

> U.S. v. Jimenez Recio, 123 S.Ct. 819 (2003) - Essence of a conspiracy is an agreement to commit an unlawful act.
>
> Agreement to commit an unlawful act, which constitutes the essence of a conspiracy, *is a distinct evil that may exist and be punished whether or not the substantive crime ensues. Id.

criminal acts of Judge Skinner. Moreover, that the Department Of Justice has allowed Judge Skinner to REPEATEDLY engage in criminal practices because of its LONGSTANDING hatred towards African-Americans and its LONGSTANDING hatred towards those African-Americans (i.e. as Malcolm X, Martin Luther King Jr., Medgar Evers, etc.) who seek to improve the way of life for their people (i.e. as evidenced by the recent attacks on Shirley Sherrod and the REPEAT attacks on Newsome). Moreover, LONGSTANDING attacks sanctioned by the United States Department of Justice to SILENCE citizens and to place them in fear for speaking out and exposing CORRUPTION in its agency (i.e. as Newsome) and the role it plays in CONSPIRACIES to deprive citizens of life, liberties and pursuit of happiness. Moreover, EQUAL protection of the laws; EQUAL privileges and immunities under the laws; and DUE PROCESS of laws secured under the Constitution.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: It is the Judge Skinners and Judge Porteous' that fit the FBI profile and are needed to carry out hidden/masked animus against African-Americans and/or people of color that the FBI sees as STRONG Civil Rights Activists in pursuit of Justice for their people and/or for ALL. For example, the record evidence will support that the United States Department of Justice was timely, properly and adequately notified of Judge Porteous CORRUPT and criminal behavior by Newsome as early as September 17, 2004, through "Petitioner's Petition Seeking Intervention/Participation of the United States Department of Justice." See EXHIBIT "34" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Furthermore, said negligence by said Government Agency may have been a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of Judge Skinner feeling at liberty to engage in CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome and because of said failure, has resulted in other citizens at the Hinds County Youth Detention Center being injured/harmed – i.e. being reminded of such CRUELTY and punishment of those held at Guantánamo Bay. Criminal abuses being leveled against prisoners there that were motivated by RACIAL biases, DISCRMINATION and PREJUDICES, etc. and torturing and oppressive practices as that MANDATED under the "The Willie Lynch Letter: The Making Of A Slave!" to get prisoners to succumb were used.[53]

[53] "The United States has filed a lawsuit alleging that conditions at the Erie County Holding Center, a pre-trial detention center in Buffalo, N.Y., and the Erie County Correctional Facility, a correctional facility in Alden, N.Y., routinely and systematically deprive inmates of constitutional rights. . .

. . . That letter documented evidence of numerous constitutional violations, including staff-on-inmate violence. . . inadequate medical and mental health care; and serious deficiencies in environmental health and safety." See EXHIBITS "110" and "152" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

ii. Shirley Sherrod states, the "White House forced her out" from the United States Department of Agriculture ("USDA") over fabricated racial controversy. The White House prior to acting and subjecting Sherrod to such HARSH and MALICIOUS acts failed to investigate or allow her the opportunity to defend and/or explain what happened. Was just quick to act! President Obama most likely leaving the handling of Sherrod to the SUPREMACIST/RACIST who provides him with counseling/advice and are behind the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome. Newsome believes it was such SUPREMACIST/RACIST who may have RETALIATED against Sherrod because of the July 13, 2010 Email of Newsome.[54]

The President of the NAACP[55] (Benjamin Todd Jealous) "supported the resignation, saying the organization has zero-tolerance policy. Jealous stating, "According to her remarks, she mistreated a white farmer in need of assistance because of his race. . . We are appalled by her actions, just as we are with abuses of power against farmers of color and female famers," before he allowed Sherrod to provide and explanation. Comments from the President of the NAACP which organization has REPEATEDLY proven to be worthless and receives GOVERNMENT FUNDING and has had a great BREAK DOWN since the days of great Civil Rights Leaders as Martin Luther King, Jr. Moreover, is an organization that has a number of whites in key positions (i.e. Members of Board) and was QUICK to condone the acts of the USDA

While Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack, appears to be the person the White House has thrown out as the sacrificial lamb, and want it to appear

[54] Like Newsome, it appears Sherrod "has spent most of her life fighting injustice." See EXHIBIT "4." Sherrod's father "was shot to death by a white farmer in what ostensibly was a dispute over a few cows;" however Sherrod "believes her father's killing was more about a Southern black man speaking up to a white man than about who owned which animals. The all-white grand jury didn't bring charges against the shooter." Information Newsome believes is of PUBLIC/WORLD interest because like Sherrod, her Great Grandfather was SHOT/MURDERED and land taken by a white man who was ANGRY and committed crimes/civil wrongs to take what was not his – i.e. as told in Newsome's Aunt's book "NAOMI'S STORY: You Don't Have To Be Broken" at EXHIBIT "154" excerpt attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Information that is pertinent/relevant and of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest because such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST acts continue to date and the record evidence contained herein will support that Newsome has REPEATEDLY been a victim of injustices and racial bias/prejudices and discrimination in the handling of employment, landlord and tenant matters as well as legal/court actions. Newsome believes just as Sabrina Smith (African-American tenant) who was murdered by her white landlord (George Dibble) – EXHIBIT "129," that had Newsome fallen for the TRAP Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, Judge West, Judge Allen and others set for her on or about September 9/10, 2009, that she may have been SHOT/MURDERED and a cover-up executed for Newsome's death. Nevertheless, Newsome moved forward and on or about September 24, 2009, filed the required FBI Criminal Complaint . See EXHIBIT "30" attached hereto. The record evidence will support that while Newsome has REPEATEDLY sought legal recourse through the appropriate JUDICIAL and Administrative processes, they were ALL met with unlawful/illegal injustices by CORRUPT Officials/Employees who are determined to COVER-UP criminal/civil wrongs of such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups/cells.

that Vilsack's taking responsibility is of his own doing, Newsome doubts this. Vilsack was also a recipient of Newsome's July 13, 2010 Email – See EXHIBIT "25."

Newsome believes this information is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest in that it further supports the SUPREMACIST/RACIST views of those who counsel/advise the President of the United States as well as the efforts of such groups to attack/DESTROY African-Americans and/or people of color who are seen as CIVIL RIGHTS ACTIVISTS – i.e as Sherrod, Newsome, Malcolm X, Martin Luther King Jr., Medgar Evers – and strive to see EQUALITY for all regardless of the color of their skin.

According to Sherrod, the USDA deputy undersecretary Cheryl Cook called her and said "the White House wanted her to resign." Calling her TWICE and asking her to "pull over on the side of the road and submit . . .resignation. . . on Blackberry," so that is what Sherrod did. EMPHASIS added – Because it is important for the PUBLIC/WORLD to see just how aggressive/hostile such SUPREMACIST/RACIST groups can be that are behind-the-scene RUNNING THE WHITE HOUSE! Clearly, it was obvious from the clip released on Sherrod, that such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups/cells had member(s) attending meeting and was looking for the SLIGHTESS thing on Sherrod because they did not want her in that position and did NOT like what she stood for – justice and equality for ALL.

iii. In the Mississippi matter the Certiorari action that Newsome seeks to bring will also yield evidence of the United States Senators and/or United States House of Representatives being timely, properly and adequately notified of CONSPIRACY and/or PUBLIC Corruption leveled against Newsome.

iv. In the Kentucky matter the record evidence will support that Newsome filed the required Criminal Complaint entitled, Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Denise Newsome with the Federal Bureau of Investigation – Louisville, Kentucky on or about October 13, 2008. See EXHIBIT "46" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Not only that, Newsome went a step further and reported said crimes to Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky (Steve Beshear) – See EXHIBIT "47" (LETTER Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

v. In the Kentucky matter the Certiorari action that Newsome seeks to bring will also yield evidence of the United States Senators and/or United States House of Representatives being timely, properly and adequately notified of CONSPIRACY and/or PUBLIC Corruption leveled against Newsome.

vi. Newsome believes the record evidence supports that Certiorari will be granted. In this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC in furtherance of the NUMEROUS Conspiracies that have been leveled against Newsome, ALL have been done with WILLFUL and MALICIOUS intent to deprive her rights guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment which have been consummated by the OVERT acts of Conspirators/Co-Conspirators. The record evidence will support the unlawful/illegal KIDNAPPING of Newsome (i.e. while some may want to use the term "false arrest," when there is no legal justification for said action, then a reasonable person may conclude it is a KIDNAPPING) and the unlawful/illegal detention of her until her parents paid the RANSOM (i.e. criminal act in which the County attempted to masked/shield as a bond) for the return of their daughter.[56]

Said Conspiracy and KIDNAPPING may have been carried out under the instructions, direction and leadership of Judge Skinner. Constable

[n.1] That two persons pursue by their acts the same object often by the same means, one performing one part of the act and the other another part, so as to complete it with a view to the attaining of the object they are pursuing, is sufficient to constitute a "conspiracy" regardless of whether each conspirator knew of the details of the conspiracy or of the exact part to be performed by the other conspirators, or whether the details were completely worked out in advance.

[n.2] Allegation that overt acts in pursuance of conspiracy were done by certain of the conspirators, without alleging that every one of the conspirators committed an overt act, is sufficient, provided it is alleged that the conspirators not committing the acts either assisted therein or had knowledge thereof.

[n.3] Complaint in civil conspiracy case is sufficiently specific if it alleges that defendants conspired to do an unlawful act, facts as to acts performed by each defendant in furtherance of conspiracy, which acts were not privileged or compelled by law, facts as to overt acts in pursuance of conspiracy done by certain of alleged conspirators, and facts from which court can see the damage which would naturally result from the acts stated, and the evidence relied upon to prove such facts need not be stated.

[n.5] Governor, being sued for damages for alleged participation in conspiracy to deprive plaintiffs of rights guaranteed by Fourteenth Amendment and subject them to false arrest, and imprisonment was entitled to more specific statement concerning acts constituting the active part in conspiracy allegedly taken by Governor beyond the allegedly improper issuance of Governor's warrant and the acts through which he allegedly adopted such unlawful acts.

[n.6] In action for damages for conspiracy to deprive plaintiffs of rights guaranteed by Fourteenth Amendment and subject them to false arrest and imprisonment, defendants were entitled to have certified copy of extradition warrant issued for one of the plaintiffs and return thereon attached to amended complaint. In this matter Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) has been identified from research to be a client of opposing counsel's (Clark Monroe) law firm (DunbarMonroe). See EXHIBIT "48" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Furthermore, the CRIMINAL STALKING of Liberty Mutual and its counsel is evidenced by a statement made through pleading in Mississippi action stating, "stalking by litigation" – i.e. efforts to shift such criminal acts to Newsome with NO proof to sustain such a statement. Nevertheless, providing additional information (i.e. sources relied upon) needed by Newsome to sustain how LIBERTY MUTUAL and its attorneys/counsel were using to find/locate her – i.e. through "stalking by litigation."[57] In the Conspiracies leveled against Newsome each Conspirator and/or Co-Conspirator carries out a certain function/act in the conspiracy while the other completes their part with the object of the conspiracy in sight. It matters not whether each of the Conspirators/Co-Conspirators know (a) the exact details of the conspiracy, (b) the exact part to be carried out by others involved in conspiracy, or (c) whether the exact details were worked out in advance. Conspiracy was carried out for purposes of unlawfully/illegally seizing Newsome's residence and property (i.e. in violation of the Fourth Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment to United States Constitution) and for further criminal/civil wrongs known to Conspirators/Co-Conspirators.

Conspirators/Co-Conspirators attempted to subject Newsome to similar crimes in Kentucky; however, Newsome did not bite. Judge Ann Ruttle knew she LACKED jurisdiction to execute Warrant as well as opposing counsel's knowledge of jurisdiction lacking to act. The record evidence will support the unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's residence and property. Acts carried out against Newsome being in violation of the Fourth Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. In the Kentucky matter Newsome having a legal/lawful INJUNCTION and RESTRAINING Order issued by the Court prohibiting the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her. See EXHIBIT "49" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Not only that on the back of the "Warrant of Possession" Public Official noted the contents of POSTED NOTICE of Newsome's door which read:

> IMPORTANT NOTICE: The Circuit Court has ORDERED Injunction and Restraining Order against owners, GMM Properties from taking any type of eviction (Removal or Obtaining Premises) action against this tenant

[57] See also No. __ of this instant pleading.

See EXHIBIT "50" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Nevertheless, like the CAREER CRIMINAL they are, these Conspirators/Co-Conspirators KNOWINGLY, WILLINGLY and DELIBERATELY proceeded to violate Newsome's Constitutional Rights.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: In efforts of covering up the CRIMINAL wrongs, Deputy falsified the "EXECUTION" of the "Warrant of Possession" in this action. It also appears that Clerk of Court TAMPERED with date Warrant of Possession was Entered – i.e. to conceal this information. Furthermore, FAILING to serve Newsome with Warrant of Possession prior to its criminal/civil violations on October 8, 2008.

The record evidence will support that Newsome on or about October 13, 2008, not only filed a Criminal Complaint with the FBI – see EXHIBIT "46" - Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Denise Newsome with the Federal Bureau of Investigation – Louisville, Kentucky (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein – but on or about November 8, 2008, notified Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky (Steve Beshear) of criminal/civil wrongs rendered her. See EXHIBIT "47" (LETTER Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

The record evidence will support a NEXUS with the Kentucky Conspiracy and other Conspiracies leveled against Newsome.

vii. In the Kentucky matter, the record evidence will further support that based upon the Injunction and Restraining Order executed by the court in said matter, Newsome was NOT delinquent in her obligations and the court in said action received October 2008, rental payment as well as opposing counsel receipt of verification of payment made. See EXHIBIT "119" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

viii. The record evidence will support efforts taken by the Ohio Supreme Court to keep out of the record her filing entitled, "Relator's Motion To File Motion For Reconsideration Out Of Time and Notice of Ohio Supreme Court's Obstruction of Justice - Impeding Relator's Timely Receipt of 12/02/09 Entry." Upon review of the Ohio Supreme Court's record, it will not support Newsome's submittal; however, as evidenced by Newsome's STAMPED "Received" copy, the Ohio Supreme Court was timely, properly and adequately notified by Newsome of unlawful/illegal acts. See EXHIBIT "133" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. President Obama and United States Attorney General Eric Holder were provided with copies of said pleading as well. See EXHIBIT "143" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Nevertheless, Justices and/or court officials elected to engage in similar crimes in which Judge Bobby DeLaughter was INDICTED on. See EXHIBIT "11" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

ix. In the Ohio matter the record evidence will support that Newsome filed the required Criminal Complaints on or about September 24, 2009 entitled, Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Vogel Denise Newsome With The Federal Bureau of Investigation – Cincinnati, Ohio and on or about December 28, 2009 entitled, Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for United States Presidential Executive Order(s). See EXHIBITS "30" and "16" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that United States President Barack Obama's, United States Attorney General Eric Holder's and United States Department of Labor Secretary Hilda Solis' failure to act on May 21, 2009 Complaint filed entitled, Reporting of Racial and Discrimination Practices Complaint: Requests for Status; Request for Creation of Committees/Court, Investigations and Findings – Constitutional, Civil Rights Violations and Discrimination; and Demand/Relief Requested may be a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result to further CONSPIRACIES and Public Officials engagement in fulfilling said role in conspiracies resulting in the crimes/civil wrongs carried out against Newsome on/or about September 9/10, 2009, as well as those by the Ohio Supreme Court Justices reported in the Criminal Complaints Newsome filed with the United States Department of Justice on or about September 24, 2009, and December 28, 2009.

x. The record evidence will support that there is sufficient information in PUBLIC RECORDS to sustain that there is no excuse for failure of those in a position to deter and punish those who have committed such crimes against Newsome. In fact, it is of PUBLIC record that States (Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky and Ohio) involved, are in the TOP FIVE (5) as the "Most Corrupt States." See EXHIBIT "120" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. There are reasons why Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky and Ohio are in the TOP FIVE for the most corrupt states – i.e. as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of such public corruption, Newsome as well as other citizens have become victims of CORRUPT Politicians and Government Officials/Employees.

xi. The record evidence will support that African-Americans are far too often made VICTIMS of racial bias and injustices by LANDLORDS, their attorneys and others who place themselves above the law. For instance, a Landlord ("white") in or about December 2008 shot and killed an African-American tenant over rent. See EXHIBIT "129" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Based upon such facts, Newsome believes that based upon the February 14, 2006, criminal actions taken against her by white landlord in Mississippi, the October 8, 2008, criminal actions taken against her by white landlord in Kentucky, and September 9/10, 2009 criminal acts taken white landlords in Ohio, that she had just and reasonable belief to conclude that had she showed up on the property of Plaintiff Stor-All on or about September 9/10, 2009, Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel and PUBLIC Officials may have SHOT and KILLED her and then would move to COVER-UP the crime*. Furthermore, Newsome knew it was a set up and that by law, she was not to appear and there was no legal authority which granted jurisdiction to the lower court (i.e. Hamilton County Municipal Court) to grant any such actions.*

V. UNFIT FOR OFFICE

Newsome believes that based upon the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances involved in this lawsuit - - along with the facts, evidence and legal conclusion to support the role that Judge West and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators played in the Private CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome as well as attempts to COVER-UP said crimes by Judge West and the likes of President Obama and his Administration to engage in said conspiracies for purposes of protecting their PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interests in said conspiracies and the PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interests of Top/Key supporters and/or advisors - - further supports that engagement in PUBLIC CORRUPTION and Private CONSPIRACIES goes to the fitness whether or not Public Officers/Government Officials are fit to perform duties in an unbias, fair, impartial and just manner as expected by citizens. If not, as Teddy Roosevelt stated, "Unless a man is honest we have no right to keep him in public life, it matters not how brilliant his capacity, it hardly matters how great his power of doing good service on certain lines may be... No man who is corrupt, no man who condones corruption in others, can possibly do his duty by the community." Therefore, Judge West, President Obama as well as other Judges/Justices and/or Public/Government Officials who engage in CONSPIRACIES and the COVER-UP of Public CORRUPTION have NO place in PUBLIC Life; let alone, in PUBLIC Office. Furthermore, those who are members of the Bar (i.e. attorneys licensed to practice before the Courts) that engage in CONSPIRACIES and Public CORRUPTION should NOT be allowed to continue to practice in that their criminal conduct clearly ERODES the Public's confidence in the judicial process as well as Government Agencies and proceedings before Government tribunals. In further support, Newsome states:

29) She believes that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions sustained herein will support that Judge West's and/or Judges'/Justices' engagement in criminal conduct goes to relevancy as to whether he is fit for office to perform duties expected in a fair, impartial and just manner.

> Ocala Star-Banner Co. v. Damron, 91 S.Ct. 628 (1971) - Charge of criminal conduct against public official or candidate for public office, no matter how remote in time or place, is always relevant to his fitness for office. . .
> Gandia v. Pettingill, 32 S.Ct. 127 (1912) - Anything bearing upon the acts of a public officer connected with his office is a legitimate subject of statement and comment, at least in the absence of express malice.

30) She believes that the Affidavit of Disqualification filed against Judge West in this lawsuit will support the facts, evidence and legal conclusions provided, supports Judge West's inability to remain impartial in deciding matters before the lower court. Furthermore, that a reasonable person being informed of all the surrounding facts and circumstances would expect Judge West to recuse and/or disqualify himself in proceeding any further in the case.

> Cheney v. U.S. Dist. Court for Dist. of Columbia, 124 S.Ct. 1391 (2004) - The recusal inquiry for a judge based upon perceived lack of impartiality must be made from the perspective of a reasonable observer who is informed of all the surrounding facts and circumstances . (Per Justice Scalia, as single Justice).
> Sao Paulo State of Federative Republic of Brazil v. American Tobacco Co., Inc., 122 S.Ct. 1290 (2002) - Statute requires judicial recusal if a reasonable person, knowing all the circumstances, would expect that the judge would have actual knowledge of his interest or bias in the case.
> Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. Lavoie, 106 S.Ct. 1580 (1986) - Only in most extreme cases of bias or prejudice is disqualification of judge constitutionally required.

31) While Judge West may be immune from any civil action Newsome may bring for monetary relief he is NOT immune from CRIMINAL prosecution. Therefore, Judge West is a VIABLE party in the Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Vogel Denise Newsome With The Federal Bureau of Investigation – Cincinnati, Ohio September 24, 2009. Furthermore, Plaintiff Stor-All, its representatives, its counsel (Meranus, Lively, Vance, Healy, Decker, etc.), its insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) are NOT immune and have opened themselves up for LIABILITY for the injury/harm sustained by Newsome. Furthermore, because Judge Nadine L. Allen NEVER retained jurisdiction, she to is now LIABLE for injuries sustained by Newsome and NOT immune from criminal or civil prosecution. (See DENNIS V. SPARKS*, 449 U.S. 24, 101 S.CT. 183[58]).

[58] The United States Supreme Court, Justice White, held that: (1) fact that the action was properly dismissed as to the immune state court judge did not require dismissal of the action against the remaining private parties accused of conspiring with the judge, and (2) allegations that an official act of the state court judge was the product of a corrupt conspiracy involving bribery of the judge were sufficient to assert action under color of state law on the part of the private parties. . . .

Held: The action against the private parties accused of conspiring with the judge is not subject to dismissal. Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in a challenged action, are acting "under color" of law for purposes of § 1983 actions. And the judge's immunity from damages liability for an official act that was allegedly the product of a corrupt conspiracy involving bribery of the judge does not change the character of his action or that of his co-conspirators. Historically at common law, judicial185 immunity does not insulate from damages liability those private persons who corruptly conspire with a judge. Nor has the doctrine of judicial immunity been considered historically as excusing a judge from responding as a witness when his coconspirators are sued, even though a charge of conspiracy and judicial corruption will be aired and decided. Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 92 S.Ct. 2614, 33 L.Ed.2d 583 distinguished. The potential harm to the public from denying immunity to co-conspirators if the factfinder mistakenly upholds a charge of a corrupt conspiracy is out-weighed by the benefits of providing a remedy *25 against those private persons who participate in subverting the judicial process and in so doing inflict injury on other persons. Pp. 186-188. . .

Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 provides:

> "Every person who, under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory, subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen of the United States or other person with-in the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress."

[1] CIVIL RIGHTS/CONSPIRACY: Fact that the state court judge who issued the challenged injunction had been dismissed from the civil rights action on grounds of immunity did not preclude maintenance of the action against the private parties who were accused to have conspired with the judge to obtain the injunction in violation of the plaintiff's civil rights. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

> [1] Based on the doctrine expressed in Bradley v. Fisher, 13 Wall. 335, 20 L.Ed. 646 (1872), this Court has consistently adhered to the rule that "judges defending against § 1983 actions enjoy absolute immunity from dam-ages liability for acts performed in their judicial capacities. Pierson v. Ray, 386 U.S. 547 [87 S.Ct. 1213, 18 L.Ed.2d 288] (1967); Stump v. Sparkman, 435 U.S. 349 [98 S.Ct. 1099, 55 L.Ed.2d 331] (1978)." Supreme Court of Virginia v. Consumers Union, 446 U.S. 719, 734-735, 100 S.Ct. 1967, 1976, 64 L.Ed.2d 641 (1980). The courts below concluded that the judicial immunity doctrine required dismissal of the § 1983 action against the judge who issued the challenged injunction, and as the case comes to us, the judge has been properly dis-missed from the suit on the immunity grounds. It does not follow, however, that the action against the private parties accused of conspiring with the judge must also be dismissed.

[2] CIVIL RIGHTS: "To act under color of state law" for purposes of civil rights statute does not require that the defendant be an officer of the state; it is enough that he is a willful participant in joint action with the state or its agents; private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the challenged action, are acting under color of law for purposes of the civil rights statute. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

[3] CIVIL RIGHTS/CONSPIRACY: Allegation that an official act of a state court judge was the product of a corrupt conspiracy involving bribery of the judge was sufficient to assert that the private parties who conspired with the judge were acting under color of state law for purposes of the civil rights statute. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

[4] JUDGES: State judge may be found criminally liable for violation of civil rights even though the judge may be immune from damages under the civil statute. 18 U.S.C.A. § 242; 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

> [2][3][4] As the Court of Appeals correctly understood our cases to hold, to act "under color of" state law for § 1983 purposes does not require that the defendant be an officer of the State. It is enough that he is a willful participant in joint action with the State or its agents. Private persons, jointly engaged *28 with state officials in the challenged action, are acting see "under color" of law for purposes of § 1983 actions. Adickes v. S. H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144, 152, 90 S.Ct. 1598, 1605, 26

L.Ed.2d 142 (1970); United States v. Price, 383 U.S. 787, 794, 86 S.Ct. 1152, 1156, 16 L.Ed.2d 267 (1966).[FN4] Of course, merely resorting to the courts and being on the winning side of a lawsuit does not make a party a co-conspirator or a joint actor with the judge. But here the allegations were that an official act of the defendant judge was the product of a corrupt conspiracy involving bribery of the judge. Under these allegations, the private parties conspiring with the judge were acting under color of state law*; and it is of no consequence in this respect that the judge himself is immune from damages liability*. Immunity does not change the character of 187 the judge's action or that of his co-conspirators.[FN5] Indeed, his *29 immunity is dependent on the challenged conduct being an official judicial act within his statutory jurisdiction, broadly construed. Stump v. Sparkman, 435 U.S. 349, 356, 98 S.Ct. 1099, 1104, 55 L.Ed.2d 331 (1978); Bradley v. Fisher, supra, at 352, 357. Private parties who corruptly conspire with a judge in connection with such conduct are thus acting under color of state law within the meaning of § 1983 as it has been construed in our prior cases. The complaint in this case was not defective for failure to allege that the private defendants were acting under color of state law, and the Court of Appeals was correct in rejecting its prior case authority to the contrary.

> FN4. In this respect, our holding in Adickes v. S. H. Kress & Co. was as follows:
> > "The involvement of a state official in such a conspiracy plainly provides the state action essential to show a direct violation of petitioner's Fourteenth Amendment equal protection rights*, whether or not the actions of the police were officially authorized, or unlawful*; Monroe v. Pape, 365 U.S. 167 [81 S.Ct. 473, 5 L.Ed.2d 492] (1961); see United States v. Classic, 313 U.S. 299, 326 [61 S.Ct. 1031, 1043, 85 L.Ed. 1368] (1941); Screws v. United States, 325 U.S. 91, 107-111 [65 S.Ct. 1031, 1038-1040, 89 L.Ed.2d 1495] (1945); Williams v. United States, 341 U.S. 97, 99-100 [71 S.Ct. 576, 578, 95 L.Ed. 774] (1951). Moreover, a private party involved in such a conspiracy, even though not an official of the State, can be liable under § 1983. 'Private persons, jointly engaged with state officials in the prohibited action, are acting "under color" of law for purposes of the statute. To act "under color" of law does not require that the accused be an officer of the State. It is enough that he is a willful participant in joint activity with the State or its agents,' United States v. Price, 383 U.S. 787, 794 [86 S.Ct. 1152, 1156, 16 L.Ed.2d 267] (1966)." 398 U.S., at 152, 90 S.Ct., at 1605 (Footnote omitted.)
> FN5. Title 18 U.S.C. § 242, the criminal analog of § 1983, also contains a color-of-state-law requirement and we have interpreted the color-of-state-law requirement in these sections coextensively. Adickes v. S. H. Kress & Co., supra, at 152, n.7, 90 S.Ct., at 1605 n.7. A state judge can be found criminally liable under § 242 although that judge may be immune from damages under § 1983. See Imbler v. Pachtman, 424 U.S. 409, 429, 96 S.Ct. 984, 994, 47 L.Ed.2d 128 (1976); O'Shea v. Littleton, 414 U.S. 488, 503, 94 S.Ct. 669, 679, 38 L.Ed.2d 674 (1974). In either case, the judge has acted under color of state law.. . .

Thus, in Owen v. City of Independence, supra, a municipality's claim that it could assert the immunity of its officers and agents in a § 1983 damages action was rejected since there was no basis for such a right at common law. Here, petitioner has pointed to nothing indicating that, historically, judicial

32) She believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that based upon the INDICTMENT and Jury finding that Judge West's Bailiff (Damon Ridley) was "GUILTY" of Attempted Bribery; and based upon the facts of the surrounding circumstances and Judge West's engagement in Private CONSPIRACY and attempts to COVER-UP Public CORRUPTION, that he too may have benefitted from bribes and is attempting to throw this lawsuit for purposes of benefitting from bribes as well as providing Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, its attorneys and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in this lawsuit.[59]

> FN6. Insofar as the immunity issue is concerned, it is interesting to note that petitioner observes that he would not be immune in the . . .courts, even if the judge is. . .

Of course, testifying takes time and energy that otherwise might be devoted to judicial duties; and, if cases such as this *31 survive initial challenge and go to trial, the judge's integrity and that of the judicial process may be at stake in such cases. *But judicial immunity was not designed to insulate the judiciary from all aspects of public accountability. Judges are immune from § 1983 damages actions, but they are subject to criminal prosecutions as are other citizens. O'Shea v. Littleton, 414 U.S. 488, 503, 94 S.Ct. 669, 679, 38 L.Ed.2d 674 (1974). Neither are we aware of any rule generally exempting a judge from the normal obligation to respond as a witness when he has information material to a criminal or civil proceeding.[FN7] Cf. United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. 683, 705-707, 94 S.Ct. 3090, 3106-07, 41 L.Ed.2d 1039 (1974).

Bribery probe snares bailiff
Defendants allegedly could buy secret friend in courtroom
The Cincinnati EnquirerBy Kimball Perry -January 2, 2009 - kperry@enquirer.com

Hoping to crack a federal drug case, investigators were listening in on telephone calls when they stumbled across a conversation that is sending shock waves through Hamilton County's judicial system. On that wiretap, federal officials heard what they believe was an attempt by convicted drug dealer Charles Johnson to buy his freedom by arranging a meeting with a court bailiff he hoped would fix his sentence. That alleged incident is the centerpiece of a criminal investigation into Damon Ridley, who was the bailiff for Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge John "Skip" West until Ridley was confronted with the allegations and resigned. Johnson's case has investigators poring over thousands of court documents involving criminal cases before West over the last five years. They are looking at why some cases presided over by West never had their sentences carried out and why other cases before him had no activity for years.

The issue is whether Ridley, 37, . . . accepted money or favors in exchange for fixing sentences handed down by West or delaying them so long that thousands of dollars in fines and court fees were never paid. Bailiffs run the day-to-day operations of courtrooms and schedule when cases are heard. . . Johnson pleaded guilty March 25 before West to reduced charges that still could have sent him to prison for 5½ years. Instead, West sentenced Johnson to probation and to serve up to six months in the River City Correctional Center, a drug-rehabilitation center run by Hamilton County judges. Investigators asked Ridley on Oct. 29 about the allegation. He resigned the next day. "I can tell you (Ridley) has told us numerous stories," Deters said.

. . . "I haven't done anything wrong," Ridley said, denying he ever took money or favors for altering sentences. Ridley confirms he was questioned by investigators who asked him if he took money to alter West's sentences . . . Ridley resigned after being questioned, he said, to lessen any impact on the judge. "I have a lot of respect for Judge West and I wasn't going to bring anything (negative) to him," Ridley said. . . . . If the allegations are proved, Ridley's actions could be disastrous to the Hamilton County court system as the public - and criminals - may infer the judicial system was

U. S. v. Brewster, 92 S.Ct. 2531 (1972) - In bribery prosecution, the Government need not show that defendant fulfilled the illegal bargain, and *it does not matter if he defaults, since acceptance of the bribe is the violation of the statute, not performance of the illegal promise. 18 U.S.C.A. §§ 2, 201(b), (c) (1), (g).

Scheidler v. National Organization for Women, Inc., 123 S.Ct. 1057 (2003) - Crime of "coercion" is separate from extortion and involves the use of force or threat of force to restrict another's freedom of action.

33) She believes that the INDICTMENT and GUILTY verdict by the Jury regarding Damon Ridley (Judge West's former Bailiff) and the longtime and close relationship of Ridley and Judge West shed's additional light on Judge West's fitness for office.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: In approximately a ONE-Year period there have been at least three actions brought against Judges [i.e. this instant lawsuit's Judge West – Bailiff incident and Newsome's filing of Criminal Complaint, in a Mississippi matter Judge DeLaugther, and in a Louisiana matter – Judge G. Thomas Porteous is engaged in IMPEACHMENT hearings and is a Judge in which Newsome has filed Complaint against] and/or their aids involved in legal actions/lawsuits in which Newsome is a party. This is information that is PERTINENT and RELEVENT in that undermined by one person's greed. "When you've got someone putting their thumb on the scales of justice, it's a very serious offense," University of Cincinnati law professor Christo Lassiter said. "You lose faith in government and there is a very serious threat to the judicial branch.

"The whole idea is to have a neutral arbiter. Why do that if there is a judge whose decisions are being bought by a bailiff? We may as well not have a judicial system." Deters is unsure of what role, if any, the judge has in the delay of cases, but he doesn't believe West is involved in wrongdoing. "Wherever this leads, we will go," Deters said, "but it would shock me to my core if the judge was involved. The judge is cooperating with us." . . .

. . . West insisted he knew nothing about why those cases were dormant and noted there were no legal documents - especially none signed by him - that allowed the cases to be continued or set for another court date. Lawyers representing those three defendants admit they have been questioned by investigators about why the cases were dormant for years. Two of those lawyers - Kevin BoBo and Gloria Smith - said the investigators asked them if they had ever given Ridley money or loaned him money to continue the case. Each denied giving or lending Ridley money and denied any wrongdoing. But Ridley did borrow money from some lawyers, Deters said. "Some defense attorneys called us and said they loaned him money," Deters said.

. . . Prosecutors became so frustrated with the slow pace of justice in West's courtroom that one, Katherine Pridemore, filed a legal motion requiring her to be contacted on a specific case that had been continued - without her knowledge or agreement - dozens of times. . . . The investigation has taken an emotional toll on West. West was close personally to Ridley, treating him like family. West and his family vacationed with Ridley and socialized with him. In West's courthouse chambers, there is a studio portrait of West, Ridley and another of West's court workers. Ridley worked for the Hamilton County Clerk of Courts office from April 16, 1997, until Nov. 15, 2002, when he began working as West's bailiff. Ridley's annual salary when he resigned after being confronted by investigators was $43,957. Deters predicted the investigators' audit of West's files would be complete within "two to three weeks."

goes to the fitness of Judge West for the Public Office he holds.

VI. FINDING OF FACT/CONCLUSION OF LAW[60]

[60] U.S. v. Pugh, 99 U.S. 265 (1878) - Where the rights of the parties depend on the ultimate circumstantial facts alone, and there is doubt as to the legal effect of them, the court must frame its findings so that the question as to such effect shall be presented by the record.

Union Consolidated Silver Mining Co. v. Taylor, 100 U.S. 37 (1879) - Special findings of facts by the court in action tried by the court are required only to ascertain only the ultimate facts and not matters of evidence.

Barringer v. Forsyth County Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center, 677 S.E.2d 465 (2009) - *Findings of fact and conclusions of law are necessary on decisions of any motion or order ex mero motu only when requested by a party, and failure to make findings upon request constitutes error.

Cooper v. Cochran, 288 S.W.3d 522 (2009) - A party asserting an affirmative defense in a trial before the court must request findings in support of the defense to avoid waiver.

Bunten v. Bunten, 710 N.E.2d 757 (Ohio.App.3.Dist, 1998) - Judgment entry may be general; where findings of fact and conclusions of law were not specifically requested by party, regularity of proceedings at trial level will be presumed. Rules Civ.Proc., Rule 52.

Evans v. Dayton Newspapers, Inc., 566 N.E.2d 704 (Ohio.App.2.Dist.,1989) - Trial court's obligation to state findings of fact and conclusions of law is triggered by party's request. Rules Civ.Proc., Rule 52.

Rust v. Reeher, 198 N.E.2d 783 (Ohio.App.7.Dist.,1963) - In absence of timely request for findings of fact and conclusions of law, plaintiffs were in no position to complain that conclusions were not detailed.

General Motors Co. v. Swan Carburetor Co., 44 F.2d 24 (C.A.6.Ohio,1930) - Party desiring findings on any specific questions of fact should present such questions to trial court.

Scovanner v. Toelke, 163 N.E. 493 (Ohio,1928) - Application of proper rules will be presumed on review, where case was heard without jury and no request was made for separate findings of fact and law.

Davies v. Angelo, 96 P. 909 (1908) - It is the duty of the court to find on all material issues, regardless of any request of the parties.

Houston v. Crider, 2010 WL 2831094 (2010) - In the absence of a request for such, a trial court does not err in failing to make findings of fact or conclusions of law.

Newsome believes that the record evidence in the lower courts will support efforts taken by Judges/Justices in the Ohio Supreme Court as well as Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas efforts to render Newsome a miscarriage of justices as well as deprive her EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the law and DUE PROCESS of laws secured under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States. Furthermore, Newsome believes that the record evidence of other Government Agencies [i.e. United States Office of the President, United States Department of Justice, United States Department of Labor, United States Senate, United States House of Representatives, etc.] may be engaging in the Private CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome and attempting to cover-up PUBLIC CORRUPTION leveled against Newsome and other citizens of the United States.

Newsome believes that based upon the EXTREME and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances that exist in this instant lawsuit and the fact that the lawsuit in the lower court out of which this action is birthed, was brought in FURTHERANCE of Conspiracies leveled against her and may hinge on each of its own INDIVIDUAL overt acts and criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome; therefore, supporting the United States Supreme Court's INTERVENTION and exercise of Original jurisdiction and/or jurisdiction over this matter and the issues raised herein and to be addressed in Certiorari action.

In the lawsuit out of which this Appeal arises the record evidence will support the following OUTSTANDING Motions and approximately how long they have been pending before the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas:

7/12/2010	DEFENDANTS MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE OUT OF TIME MOTION FOR FINDINGS OF FACT REGARDING JUNE 7 2010 ORDER LIFTING STAY ENTERED APRIL 08 2009 AND ORDER DENYING DEFENDANTS MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

See EXHIBIT "51" – Docket Sheet of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas. The recent hearing set for Tuesday, September 28, 2010, before Judge West was for purposes of dismissing this lawsuit, rendering Newsome a miscarriage of justice and depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities under the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws secured under the Constitution and other governing laws. Now it appears that Judge West on or about Friday, October 22, 2010, is insisting on rendering a DECISION and depriving Newsome of rights secured under the Constitution. See EXHIBIT "51."

The record evidence will further support the Ohio Supreme Court's REFUSAL to provide Newsome with "Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Laws" and/or address the "Issues Raised" in Affidavit of Disqualification that is before it is ARBITRARY and CAPRICIOUS. Said concerns of the Ohio Supreme Court's failure to address issues raised has been addressed in Newsome's August 11, 2010 pleading entitled, Notification of Intent to File EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari with the United States Supreme Court; Motion to Stay Proceedings – Request for Entry of Final Judgment/Issuance of Mandate as Well as STAY of PROCEEDINGS Should Court Insist on Allowing August 2, 2010 Judgment Entry to Stand. See EXHIBIT "8" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome believes that a reasonable person may also conclude that said failure by the Ohio Supreme Court is in furtherance of the Conspiracy leveled against her and is in RETALIATION of Newsome having filed a Criminal Complaint with the United States Department of Justice against Justice and/or Court Officials who engaged in the criminal acts reported by Newsome. See EXHIBIT "16" - Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for United States Presidential Executive Order(s) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Further supporting the Ohio Supreme Court's role in furtherance of the Conspiracy leveled against Newsome and efforts of depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities under the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws secured under the Constitution and other governing laws. Moreover, efforts taken by the Ohio Supreme Court to protect the PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interest of its Justices that have a personal stake and personal interest in the outcome of this lawsuit. In further support herein, the following is stated:

> Freeport Sulphur Co. v. S/S Hermosa, 526 F.2d 300 (1976) - [n.15] Findings not supported by substantial evidence are taken to be clearly erroneous. Western Larry Lyons vs. Wayne Link, 2005 7039; 2005 Ohio App. LEXIS 6339 - See EXHIBIT "52" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Overview: The landlord filed a forcible entry and detainer action against the tenant in a municipal court. The tenant counterclaimed, alleging fraud and abuse of process, and seeking damages in excess of the municipal court's monetary jurisdictional limit. . .

Opinion: [*P12] In his First Assignment of Error, appellant contends the trial court abused its discretion by failing to issue findings of fact and conclusions of laws regarding its denial of the protective order.

[*P13] We note appellant failed to file a request for findings of fact and conclusions of law with the trial court pursuant to Civ.R. 52. Accordingly, we hold appellant has waived any error in this regard.. . .

34) The Ohio Supreme Court and Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas actions CONFLICT with prior decisions of the United States Supreme Court as well as other State and Federal Courts on this issue. The record evidence of the lower courts clearly support that Newsome has timely, properly and adequately requested Finding of Fact and Conclusion of Law to no avail. The lower courts in this lawsuit insist on rendering Newsome a miscarriage of justice in RETALIATION of her bringing Criminal Complaints against Judge/Justices and those involved in the Conspiracies leveled against Newsome. The record evidence will support that Newsome has REPEATEDLY made known to the lower courts her ENTITLEMENT to a Jury Trial on ALL triable issues. Nevertheless, the lower courts was attempting to have this lawsuit dismissed on Tuesday, September 28, 2010, (i.e. however, was met with Newsome's Notification of Non-Attendance) and depriving Newsome rights secured under the Seventh Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Therefore, warranting the United States Supreme Court's intervention and exercise of jurisdiction in this matter.

Mason Lumber Co. v. Buchtel, 101 U.S. 633 (1879) - The defendant was required to see that findings . . . were had on all matters material to the defense, whereas plaintiff was required to see that the findings were sufficient to support judgment in his favor.

The findings . . . should have the precision of a special verdict and specify with distinctness the facts found, and not leave them to be inferred. Id.

Craig v. State of Missouri, 29 U.S. 410 (1830) - Where the office of the jury is performed by the court, the obvious substitute for an instruction to the jury or a special verdict is a statement by the court of the points in controversy on which its judgment is founded, and the motives stated by the court on the record for its judgment and forming part of the judgment itself must be considered as exhibiting the points to which both arguments were directed, and the judgment as showing the decision of the court on those points.

35) Newsome believes that the record evidence will support that the rulings of the lower courts may be deemed ARBITRARY and CAPRICIOUS. Moreover, there is NO evidence, facts or legal conclusions to sustain lower court rulings.[61] Thus, supporting ABUSE-OF-DISCRECTION, USURPATION OF POWER as well as other JUDICIAL ABUSES that are contrary to sound doctrine/law. Judges/Justices in lower courts performing their duties in the same manner that Judge G. Thomas Porteous who is presently engaged in IMPEACHMENT hearings before the United States Senate performed his duties in legal matter in which Newsome is a party. Judges/Justices in lower courts are determined to fulfill their role in Conspiracies leveled against Newsome. Conspiracies that

VII. DUE PROCESS OF FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT TO U.S. CONSTITUTION

Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that EXTREME and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances exist in this lawsuit out of which this Appeal arises. Because lower court Judges/Justices were unfit for the offices they held, Newsome has been targeted in

Conspiracies leveled against her and deprived DUE PROCESS of laws – i.e. rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution. Based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions that underline the September 24, 2009 and December 28, 2009 FBI Criminal Complaints that have been filed, Newsome believes Judges/Justices engagement and role in CONSPIRACIES and attempts to cover-up PUBLIC CORRUPTION is of National/Worldwide interest. The record evidence will further support ACTUAL bias by Judge West, Judge Nadine Allen and Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court against Newsome. Moreover, that a reasonable person knowing all the circumstances circumstances out of which this lawsuit was birthed as well as actions by Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel and Judges/Justices in this lower court actions, may conclude that based on the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE used by Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance provider counsel (i.e. David Meranus, Michael Lively, Molly Vance, Patrick Healy, Raymond Decker, etc.) and/or law firms (i.e. Baker Donelson, Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin, Markesbery & Richardson Co, etc.) used by its insurance provider that such SHAM and FRIVOLOUS arguments to paint Newsome as a "serial litigator" is REPEATEDLY used and provided to Judges/Justices behind the scene and/or in secret meetings and/or ex parte* correspondence – i.e. UNETHICAL and unlawful/illegal tactics evidenced by Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider's (Liberty Mutual) well-established pattern of behavior in other legal matters involving Newsome. Thus, supporting that ACTUAL bias by Judge West, Judge Nadine Allen as well as the Ohio Supreme Court Justices and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators which is TOO high to be Constitutionally tolerable because of the pecuniary interest that Judges/Justices as well as their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators have in the outcome as well as Judges/Justices being the target of personal Criminal

Complaints that Newsome has filed against them. Furthermore, the lower court records will support Newsome's good-faith attacks on Judge West and making known concerns of his bias and prejudices towards her. Moreover, concerns that he may be playing in Conspiracy leveled against her. Then, ACTING TRUE TO FORM, Judge West proceeds to engage in the carrying out of CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs in Conspiracy and now is attempting to use his judicial office to COVER-UP said criminal/civil wrongs – i.e. engaging in the furtherance of PUBLIC CORRUPTION. Furthermore, as a matter of law, because of the pecuniary interest and personal bias, etc. Judge West has towards Newsome; he cannot be a judge to determine his "disqualification" matter.

> Bracy v. Gramley, 117 S.Ct. 1793 (1997) - Due Process Clause of Fourteenth Amendment establishes constitutional floor, not uniform standard, regarding qualifications of judges, and thus, most questions concerning judge's qualifications to hear case are not constitutional ones, but rather, are answered by common law, statute, or professional standards of bench and bar. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14; 28 U.S.C.A. §§ 144, 455; ABA Code of Jud.Conduct, Canon 3, subd. C(1)(a) (1980).
> Withrow v. Larkin, 95 S.Ct. 1456 (1975) - Among cases in which experience teaches that probability of actual bias on part of judge or decisionmaker is too high to be constitutionally tolerable are those in which adjudicator has pecuniary interest in outcome and in which he has been target of personal abuse or criticism from party before him.
>
> Taylor v. Hayes, 94 S.Ct. 2697 (Ky.1974) - Where trial judge became embroiled in running controversy with counsel . . . as trial progressed, there was mounting display of unfavorable personal attitude by trial judge . . . his ability and his motives, it appeared that marked personal feelings were present and that incidents of unseemly conduct had left "personal stings"; thus, another judge should have been substituted for trial judge for purpose of finally disposing of contempt charges against counsel.
> In re Murchison, 75 S.Ct. 623 (1955) - No man can be a judge in his own case, and no man is permitted to try cases where he has an interest in the outcome.

36) Newsome further believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the record evidence will support that the criminal/civil wrongs carried out against Newsome on or about September 9/10, 2009, was done with Judge West's WILLING participation and knowledge. Judge West being PUBLIC Official responsible for establishing final policy with regards to subject matter in question and encouraging the criminal/civil wrongs carried out against Newsome. Furthermore, Judge Allen stuck her nose into affairs in which she lacked jurisdiction. Therefore, any rulings by her are NULL/VOID. Nevertheless, the record evidence will sustain the efforts by the lower courts to get Newsome to forego protected rights (in which she refused). The record evidence will further support that Judge West ABUSED his powers and is attempting to use judicial powers against Newsome as an instrument of oppression, servitude and placing her in bondage. Furthermore, the record evidence will support that Judge West is attempting to ABUSE the power of his office and deprive Newsome of life, liberty and has already engaged in criminal activities in the UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL seizure of Newsome's property (i.e. in violation of the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution). Judge West was attempting to carry out additional criminal/civil wrongs against Newsome on September 28, 2010, in the UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL dismissal of lawsuit and deprive her rights to a JURY trial (i.e. in violation of the Seventh Amendment to the United States Constitution); however, such efforts were met with Newsome's Notification of Non-Attendance and advising lower court that she would be bringing this matter before the United States Supreme Court. Nevertheless, it appears that Judge West is determined to render his DECISION on or about Friday, October 22, 2010, over Newsome's OBJECTIONS. Judge West's actions are WILLFUL, MALICIOUS and WANTON for purposes of depriving Newsome of DUE PROCESS of the laws.[62]

[62] Collins v. City of Harker Heights, Tex., 503 U.S. 115, 112 S.Ct. 1061 (1992) - [n.2] First Amendment, equal protection and due process clauses of Fourteenth Amendment, and other provisions of Federal Constitution afford protection to employees who serve government as well as to those who are served by them, and § 1983 provides cause of action for all citizens injured by abridgement of those protections. U.S.C.A. Const.Amends. 1, 14; 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

[n.4] Proper analysis requires separation of two different issues when claim under § 1983 is asserted against municipality: (1) whether plaintiff's harm was caused by constitutional violation, and (2) if so, whether city was responsible for that violation.

> [4] . . . In a series of later cases, the Court has considered whether an alleged injury caused by municipal employees acting under color of state law provided a proper basis for imposing liability on a city. In each of those cases the Court assumed that a constitutional violation had been adequately alleged or proved and focused its attention on the separate issue of municipal liability. . . On the other hand, in Pembaur v. Cincinnati, 475 U.S. 469, 106 S.Ct. 1292, 89 L.Ed.2d 452 (1986), the Court held that a county was responsible for unconstitutional actions taken pursuant to decisions made by the county prosecutor and the county sheriff because they were the "officials responsible for establishing final policy with respect to the subject matter in question," id., at 483-484, 106 S.Ct., at 1300.

37) Newsome believes that the record evidence, fact and legal conclusions contained herein will support that the acts of Judge West and his Conspirators/Co-Conspirators are so egregious, so outrageous, that it is fair to say one would find to shock the contemporary conscience; that Judge West's actions and those of his Conspirators/Co-Conspirators conspire to get rulings/judgments entered and, when met with opposition by Newsome, seek to "shove such ruling(s) down Newsome's throat" without justification and legal support for its findings.

> County of Sacramento v. Lewis, 118 S.Ct. 1708 (1998) - In due process challenge to executive action, threshold question is whether behavior of governmental officer is so egregious, so outrageous, that it may fairly be said to shock the contemporary conscience; that judgment may be informed by history of liberty protection, but it necessarily reflects understanding of traditional executive behavior, of contemporary practice, and of standards of blame generally applied to them. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14.

> Wilkinson v. Austin, 125 S.Ct. 2384 (2005) - The Fourteenth Amendment's Due Process Clause protects persons against deprivations of life, liberty, or property, and those who seek to invoke its procedural protection must establish that one of those interests is at stake.

[n.8] Due process clause of Fourteenth Amendment was intended to prevent government from abusing its power, or employing it as instrument of oppression. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14.

> [8] . . . "[T]he Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment was intended to prevent government 'from abusing [its] power, or employing it as an instrument of oppression.' " *DeShaney v. As we recognized in DeShaney:

"The Clause is phrased as a limitation on the State's power to act, not as a guarantee of certain minimal levels of safety and security. It forbids the State itself to deprive individuals of life, liberty, or property without 'due process of law,' but its language cannot fairly be extended to impose an affirmative obligation on the State to ensure that those interests do not come to harm through other means. Nor does history support such *127 an expansive reading of the constitutional text." 489 U.S., at 195, 109 S.Ct., at 1003.FN10

> FN10. "Historically, this guarantee of due process has been applied to deliberate decisions of government officials to deprive a person of life, liberty, or property. E.g., Davidson v. New Orleans, 96 U.S. 97 [24 L.Ed. 616] (1878) . . . Hudson v. Palmer, 468 U.S. 517 [104 S.Ct. 3194, 82 L.Ed.2d 393] (1984) (intentional destruction of inmate's property). No decision of this Court before Parratt v. Taylor, 451 U.S. 527, 101 S.Ct. 1908, 68 L.Ed.2d 420 (1981),] supported the view that negligent conduct by a state official, even though causing injury, constitutes a deprivation under the Due Process Clause. This history reflects the traditional and common-sense notion that the Due Process Clause, like its forebear in the Magna Carta, see Corwin, The Doctrine of Due Process of Law Before the Civil War, 24 Harv.L.Rev. 366, 368 (1911), was 'intended to secure the individual from the arbitrary exercise of the powers of government,' Hurtado v. California, 110 U.S. 516, 527 [4 S.Ct. 111, 117, 28 L.Ed. 232] (1884)." Daniels v. Williams, 474 U.S. 327, 331, 106 S.Ct. 662, 665, 88 L.Ed.2d 662 (1986).

VIII. EQUAL PROTECTION OF FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT TO U.S. CONSTITUTION[63]

Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the facts, evidence and legal conclusions will support the DISCRIMINATORY and PREJUDICIAL handling of this lawsuit and how treatment in handling of same is UNLIKE those in similar cases. Moreover, that Judge West and/or lower courts have REPEATEDLY denied Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws – i.e. have subjected Newsome to unlike treatment of those similarly situated. The record evidence will support that Newsome has REPEATEDLY been denied EQUAL protection of the laws in government actions and "uniform treatment of persons standing in the same relation" is LACKING in the handling of matters involving her. The record evidence will support that Newsome has been denied the same protection of the laws that are enjoyed by other citizens and/or other classes in similar cases and under like circumstances.

> Vacco v. Quill, 117 S.Ct. 2293 (1997) - Equal protection clause creates no substantive rights, but rather, it embodies general rule that states must treat like cases alike but may treat unlike cases accordingly. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14.
> State of Missouri v. Lewis, 101 U.S. 22 (1879) - "Equal protection of the laws," within Constitutional guaranty, means that no person or class of persons shall be denied the same protection of the laws which is enjoyed by other persons or other classes in the same place and under like circumstances. U.S.C.A.Const. Amend. 14.

38) Newsome believes that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions will support Judge West is engaged in civil conspiracy with Conspirators/Co-

[63] U.S. v. Virginia, 116 S.Ct. 2264 (1996) - Proper remedy for an unconstitutional exclusion from opportunity or advantage based on discrimination aims to eliminate, so far as possible, discriminatory effects of the past and to bar like discrimination in the future.

Reynolds v. Sims, 84 S.Ct. 1362 (1964) - The concept of equal protection has been traditionally viewed as requiring the uniform treatment of persons standing in the same relation to the governmental action questioned or challenged.

City of Cleburne, Tex. v. Cleburne Living Center, 105 S.Ct. 3249 (1985) - Equal protection clause's command that no state shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws [U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14] is essentially a direction that all persons similarly situated should be treated alike.

Conspirators with intent to deprive Newsome of EQUAL protection of laws and EQUAL privileges and immunities and said deprivations are based on Racial bias towards Newsome and in RETALIATION for her participation in protected activities and filing of Criminal Complaint in which he is a party. Furthermore, the record evidence will support an invidiously discriminatory animus behind Judge West and his Conspirators/Co-Conspirators actions leveled against Newsome and the object of said conspiracy is to deprive her of EQUAL enjoyment of rights secured/guaranteed by law to all.[64]

IX. U.S. OFFICE OF PRESIDENT/EXECUTIVE OFFICE; UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE/ DEPARTMENT OF LABOR ROLE IN CONSPIRACY

Newsome believes that based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions provided herein, it will sustain that EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances exist in this lawsuit. Furthermore, that the records of ALL and/or each of these Government Agencies will support the following filings:

September 17, 2004	Petitioner's Petition Seeking Intervention/Participation of the United States Department of Justice
June 26, 2006	Complaint and Request for Investigation to the United States Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of Investigations Filed by Vogel D. Newsome
July 14, 2008	Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Findings
October 13, 2008	Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Denise Newsome with the Federal Bureau of Investigation – Louisville, Kentucky
September 24, 2009	Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Vogel

[64] United Broth. of Carpenters and Joiners of America, Local 610, AFL-CIO v. Scott, 103 S.Ct. 3352 (1983) - Civil rights conspiracy statute language requiring intent to deprive of equal protection or equal privileges and immunities means that there must be some racial, or perhaps otherwise class-based, invidiously discriminatory animus behind conspirators' action*, and *conspiracy must aim at deprivation of equal enjoyment of rights secured by law to all. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1985(3); U.S.C.A. Const.Amends. 13-15.

Predominate purpose of civil rights conspiracy statute was to combat the prevalent animus against Negroes and their supporters*, including Republicans, generally, as well as others, such as northerners who came south with sympathetic views towards the Negro, and to combat efforts of Ku Klux Klan and its allies to frustrate intended effects of Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments. Id.

Collins v. Hardyman, 71 S.Ct. 937 (1951) - The civil rights statute does not attempt to reach a conspiracy to deprive one of rights, unless it is a deprivation of equality, of equal protection of the laws, or of equal protection and immunities under the law. 8 U.S.C.A. §§ 43, 47; U.S.C.A.Const. Amend. 14.

to sustain just how early Government Agencies were made aware of CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome. Furthermore, based upon said information, Newsome believes a reasonable person may conclude, based upon ALL the circumstances, that Government Agencies/Officials may be WILLING participants in Conspiracies for purposes of covering up PUBLIC CORRUPTION and attempts to shield/mask their role (if any) in said Conspiracies leveled against Newsome.

39) Newsome believes that a reasonable person based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein may conclude that Government Agencies/Federal Officials in RETALIATION against Newsome for bringing action against the United States Department of Labor and/or some of its employees have KNOWINGLY and WILLINGLY engaged in Conspiracies for purposes covering up their role in PUBLIC CORRUPTION. It is clear that Government Officials/Federal Officials place themselves above the law and feel for some reason they are invincible. Furthermore, the record evidence will support that Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) legal representative (i.e. Baker Donelson) has made sure that it has DEEP ROOTS in Government Agencies. See EXHIBITS "22" and "80" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Also see list provided at Paragraph 28(h)/Page 44 and Paragraph 82/Page 203 of this instant pleading. Because of the role Judge West and Judge Nadine Allen played in the September 9/10, 2009 criminal/civil wrongs carried out against Newsome, they each have opened up the City of Cincinnati, County of Hamilton, etc. up for CIVIL Liability for the injury/harm Newsome has sustained as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of the role each played in the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome.

> Baird v. Haith, 724 F.Supp. 367 (1988) - Federal officials can be sued under civil rights conspiracy statute. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1985(3).

> Stone v. Holzberger, 807 F.Supp. 1325 (S.D.Ohio.W.Div.,1992) - Municipality is liable for civil rights conspiracy if it, through its policymaker, agrees to combine with others to deprive individual of her constitutional rights.
> Edmonds v. Dillin, 485 F.Supp. 722 (N.D.Ohio,1980) - City cannot be held liable, under statute creating cause of action for conspiracy to interfere with civil rights, for conspiring with its own employees when they are acting pursuant to official policy or custom, but if through its mayor or other executive leadership, or through mayor and council, a municipal corporation should combine or agree with one or more police officers, acting individually and independently of the city*, to specifically* deprive an individual of his Fourth Amendment rights and in furtherance of that accommodation or agreement one of the police officers acts with specific intent to deprive said individual of such rights, a conspiracy claim under such statute would be stated against the municipal corporation and its police officers. U.S.C.A.Const. Amend. 4; 42 U.S.C.A. § 1985.

Fisher v. City of Cincinnati, 753 F.Supp. 681 (S.D.Ohio,1990) - Two persons sued in their individual capacities may be found liable for conspiracy under federal civil rights statute, even though both are employees of the same municipality. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

In re Welding Fume Products Liability Litigation, 526 F.Supp.2d 775 (N.D.Ohio.E.Div.,2007) - Required intentional participation of a co-conspirator can plausibly be inferred from words, actions, and interdependence of the activities and persons involved; however, in the absence of proof of an express or implied agreement between the parties, mere presence at the commission of a wrong, or failure to object to it, is not enough to charge one with responsibility for conspiring to commit the tortious act.

Walsh v. Erie County Dept. of Job and Family Services, 240 F.Supp.2d 731 (N.D.Ohio.W.Div.,2003) - In a civil conspiracy under Ohio law, the acts of coconspirators are attributable to each other.

40) The record evidence will support that this lawsuit was brought with MALICIOUS intent and Plaintiff Stor-All and it attorneys knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities. Furthermore, that Plaintiff Stor-All was already in UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL possession of Newsome's storage unit and property based upon UNLAWFUL seizure and merely brought MALICIOUS prosecution/lawsuit to COVER-UP/MASK its criminal and civil violations. Supporting Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel and its representatives conspired with Judge West and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators to frustrate and violate legitimate judicial process to an EXTREME and AGGRAVATED extent. The record evidence further support that Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance providers and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators did WILLINGLY, KNOWINGLY and INTENTIONALLY by bad conduct, control the judicial process in the lower court actions by providing PERJURED Affidavits provided by witness(es). Because Judge West and Judge Nadine Allen aided and abetted with knowledge of the role they were to play in Conspiracy, they may each be held EQUALLY liable with the principals. The record evidence of the lower court will support that counsel (Michael Lively) has attempted to distance and/or sever ties and the role he is playing in ONGOING Conspiracies leveled against Newsome; however, as a matter of law, he and his law firm are EQUALLY liable with the principal as well – there is no escaping for him. In that they Lively and other counsel for Plaintiff Stor-All and/or for its insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) encourage PATTERN-OF-JUDICIAL Abuse, CRIMINAL STALKING and contacting employers of Newsome for purpose of getting her terminated, a reasonable person may conclude that their time would have been better spent adhering to Newsome's timely NOTIFICATIONS that they were opening themselves up for LIABILITY actions for the role each played in Conspiracies leveled against her.

> Macko v. Byron, 576 F.Supp. 875 (N.D.Ohio.E.Div.,1983) - If a person plans or a group of persons conspire to frustrate and violate legitimate judicial process to an extreme and aggravated extent, there may be a civil rights violation if such persons intend to and actually do, by intentional bad conduct, control judicial process by giving false testimony before . . . court, testimony is sole basis of indictment and/or conviction, and it is subsequently determined that the foregoing happened and wrongfully charged person was ultimately discharged before trial, acquitted after trial, or discharged after reversal on appeal. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

X. SELECTIVE PROSECUTION

Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted and that the record evidence will support that Government Agencies have engaged in SELECTIVE PROSECUTION and have deprived Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws that they have extended to other citizens who were victims of similar criminal/civil wrongs as that leveled against Newsome.

> Reno v. American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee, 119 S.Ct. 936 (1999) - Standard for proving claim of selective prosecution requires defendant to introduce clear evidence displacing the presumption that a prosecutor has acted lawfully.
> U.S. v. Armstrong, 116 S.Ct. 1480 (1996) - Defendant may demonstrate that administration of a criminal law is directed so exclusively against a particular class of persons with a mind so unequal and oppressive that system of prosecution amounts to a practical denial of equal protection of the law.
>
> Requirements for a selective-prosecution claim draw on ordinary equal protection standards; defendant must demonstrate that federal prosecutorial policy had a discriminatory effect and that it was motivated by a discriminatory purpose. Id.

In further support thereof, Newsome states:

41) The record evidence will support that Newsome has REPEATEDLY been a victim of SELECTIVE PROSECUTION and deprived EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws in the handling of Charges/Complaints filed with Government Agencies (i.e. which includes judicial proceedings):

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Upon review of O.J. Simpson Complaint charges were made without any supporting documentation; however, Newsome's FBI Complaints provide facts, evidence and/or legal conclusions to support Criminal charges reported. O.J. Simpson received approximately 33 years for the crimes he was found guilty of; however, to date, Newsome is neither aware of any INDICTMENTS, ARREST or PROSECUTION of those who engaged in Conspiracies leveled against. Conspiracies organized by SUPREMACIST and TERRORIST groups that harbor Racial bias, Racial Prejudices towards Newsome and members of her class. Furthermore, have engaged in Conspiracies and have RETALIATED against Newsome because of her race and knowledge of engagement in protected activities for reporting criminal/civil violations.

Supporting that the United States has deprived Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws afford to white citizens and/or citizens similarly situated.

42) The record evidence will further support SELECTIVE PROSECUTION in the handling of Newsome's December 28, 2009 FBI Criminal Complaint. For instance upon review of the DeLaughter INDICMENT[66] filed by the United

the United States deprived Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws afford to white citizens and/or citizens similarly situated. PUBLIC Officials and/or Government Agencies/Official engaging in CONSPIRACIES and committing the same and/or similar crimes against Newsome for purposes of RETALIATION, DISCRIMINATION, OPPRESSION, etc. because of her race and engagement in protected activities for reporting such RACIAL bias and RACIAL injustices. Nevertheless, such criminal an unlawful/illegal practices by PUBLIC OFFICIALS and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators are condoned by the United States.

43) Newsome believes that Certiorari is of National/Worldwide importance in that it will provide evidence as to how the President of the United States (Barack Obama) relies upon counsel/advice from attorneys/law firms who have NOT and CANNOT be successful in legal matters brought against Newsome and/or involving Newsome without resorting to CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs for purposes of obtaining and undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in legal matters.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Because Newsome believes that said Counsel/Advisors that the President(s) of the United States relied upon to engage in wars against other foreign nations/countries may have been based upon the counsel/advice of those who HARBOR Racist Views/Ideas against African-Americans and/or people of color – i.e. which may also INFLUENCE their decisions and the advice provided to the President (s) of the United States. FOR EXAMPLE: Lying about "weapons of mass destruction" when there were none because those who advised/counseled in such matters may have had a SPECIAL/PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interest in the mineral resources (i.e. oil, coal, gold, etc.) of the smaller nations/countries they sought to destroy and go in and UNLAWFULLY/ILLEGALLY seize lands/property through such BULLYING and TERRORISTIC/SUPREMACIST ideology that will be evidenced in Certiorari action out of which this matter evolves.

44) Newsome believes that Certiorari action will support that the very people (Counselors/Advisors) President Obama rely upon to make day-to-day and/or periodic decisions are those who may engage in RACIST and DISCRIMINATORY/PREJUDICIAL practices leveled against African-Americans and/or people of color which, most likely than not, have HIDDEN AGENDAS/MOTIVES that are that carried out by those with SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST ideology/views.

45) The "Emergency Motion to Stay" is required in that the Ohio Supreme Court as well as the lower Cincinnati, Ohio Courts (Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas and Hamilton County Municipal Court) have entered into a CONSPIRACY to deprive Newsome of rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Ohio Constitution, Civil Rights Act and other statutes/laws governing said matters. While Newsome requested that the Ohio Supreme Court provide her with findings on "ISSUES raised," the Ohio Supreme Court denied Newsome said findings. Newsome also requested said court enter "Final Judgment/Issue of Mandate" and said requests are acknowledged in its "08/18/10 Judgment Entry" which states:

> Newsome has now filed a motion for the court to issue a final judgment so she can exercise her right to appeal to the United States Supreme Court*. She also seeks a stay of these proceedings while the matter is appealed. . .*
> As to Newsome's motion for stay, R.C. 2701.03 does not authorize the chief justice to stay affidavit-of-disqualification proceedings while the affiant files an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.
> For the reasons stated above, Newsome's motions are denied. The case may proceed before Judge West.

See EXHIBIT "7" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein; the Ohio Supreme Court has DENIED and has FAILED to provide Newsome with the requested documents – i.e. such unlawful/illegal action which may be deemed attempts to OBSTRUCT the administration of justice and deprive Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws in violation of her Constitutional Rights.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The Ohio Supreme Court doing so in efforts of unlawfully/illegally FORCING and/or COERCING Newsome to abandon protected rights. Furthermore, efforts taken by the Ohio Supreme Court in efforts of unlawfully/illegally FORCING and/or COERCING Newsome to proceed before Judge John Andrew West - against whom Newsome has filed Criminal Charges with the United States Department of Justice/Federal Bureau of Investigation.

See EXHIBIT "30" - "Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Vogel Denise Newsome With The Federal Bureau of Investigation – Cincinnati, Ohio September 24, 2009*"* (BRIEF Only) – EMPHASIS Added – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. While Newsome has filed the required Criminal Complaint, to date she has not received the Department of Justice's/FBI's Finding of Facts and Conclusion of Law regarding said complaint and neither is she aware of any arrests, indictments and prosecutions involving said Criminal Complaint. The record evidence will support that the U.S. Department of Justice's/FBI's failure to prosecute is a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of RETALIATION as well as RACIAL bias towards Newsome for exercising her rights under the Constitution and EXPOSING Conspiracy of the FBI Officials in the COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and other African-Americans and/or people of color.

46) The "Emergency Motion to Stay" is required in that Newsome believes that the record evidence will support the criminal/civil violations of the Ohio Supreme Court Justices and concerns of said court's inability to remain IMPARTIAL as well as the appearance of impropriety, obstruction of justice, obstruction of the administration of justice, failure to report criminal wrongs reported, engagement in CONSPIRACY to cover-up the criminal acts reported in Newsome's September 24, 2009 FBI Criminal Complaint, and other reasons known to Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court. Furthermore, the record evidence will support that on or about December 28, 2009, Newsome filed the required CRIMINAL COMPLAINT with the United States Department of Justice (FBI) against the Ohio Supreme Court Justices[68] and others alleging the following Charges/Counts:

. . . The Applicable Statute
At the time this lawsuit was instituted, the . . . statute relating to judicial disqualification provided:

> *1108 Any justice or judge . . . shall disqualify himself in any case in which he has a substantial interest, has been of counsel, is or has been a material witness, or is so related to or connected with any party or his attorney as to render it improper, in his opinion, for him to sit on the trial, appeal, or other proceeding therein.

28 U.S.C. § 455 (1970). While the case was pending, but prior to the commencement of trial, 28 U.S.C. § 455 was amended to bring the statutory grounds for disqualification of judges into conformity with the recently adopted canon of the Code of Judicial Conduct [FN2] relating to disqualification of judges for bias, prejudice, or conflict of interest. 18 USC § 1512. Tampering with a witness, victim, or an informant

See EXHIBIT "11" – Indictment of Bobby B. DeLaughter attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The crimes set forth in the DeLaughter Indictment are similar to crimes Newsome filed with the FBI against the Ohio Supreme Court Justices and others. At least Newsome provided facts, evidence and legal conclusions to support her FBI Criminal Complaint filed against the Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court and others. See EXHIBIT "16" - Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for United States Presidential Executive Order(s) (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

47) Newsome believes that the record evidence in the lower court action(s) will support the appearance of partiality for Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel, and its insurance provider (Liberty Mutual). Furthermore, based upon the Criminal Charges set forth in the September 24, 2009 FBI Complaint in which Judge West is a party charged in Conspiracy and other crimes leveled against Newsome, a reasonable person may conclude, "the appearance of partiality" and Judge West's "robe has been tainted" and he may be receiving bribes from opposing party and its counsel in exchange of providing them with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in this lawsuit. Thus, "keeping tracks of his former Bailiff (Damon Ridley) who was found "GUILTY" of Attempted Bribery. See EXHIBIT "6" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

> [1] To say that one has no present recollection falls short of meeting the acid test required of a judge whose impartiality may be reasonably drawn into question. It is well settled by all legal authorities that even if no bias or prejudice of a judge may actually exist, it is enough to disqualify that there be the mere appearance of partiality. Judges' robes must be as spotless as their actual conduct." Hall v. Small Business Administration, 695 F.2d 175, 176 (5th Cir.1983).

48) The record evidence will support that based upon the September 24, 2009, Criminal Complaint filed by Newsome against Judge West and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators and the December 28, 2009, Criminal Complaint as well as information pertaining to CAMPAIGN Contributors (See EXHIBIT "54" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein) the Ohio Supreme Court Justices and other Conspirator/Co-Conspirators that SUBSTANTIAL pecuniary interest in legal proceedings exist; therefore, excluding Judge West and/or Judges/Justices in lower court proceedings who engaged in Conspiracies leveled against Newsome are PRECLUDED from adjudicating legal disputes.

> Gibson v. Berryhill, 411 U.S. 564, 93 S.Ct. 1689 (1973) - [7] It is sufficiently clear from our cases that those with substantial pecuniary interest in legal proceedings should not adjudicate these disputes. Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 47 S.Ct. 437, 71 L.Ed. 749 (1927). And *Ward v. d) Frost Brown Todd

See EXHIBIT "54" attached hereto. A classic example of "BIG MONEY using the judicial process to inflict and deprive the poor/weak of justice – i.e. that JUSTICE can be purchased for a price."

49) Just HOW BLATANT IS DISCRIMINATION/SELECTIVE PROSECUTION in the handling of Complaints/Charges submitted to the attention of President Obama/His Administration and/or Government Agencies? Newsome requested the TERMINATION/FIRINGS of Department of Labor Officials/Employees that may be found "GUILTY" over criminal/civil wrongs in the COVER-UP and OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE. See EXHIBIT "114" attached hereto. To understand President Barack Obama and his Administration's (United States Department of Labor Secretary Hilda Solis) Officials'/Employees' role in CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of employment (i.e. FMLA) violations, Newsome provides this Court with a copy of the WHISARD Compliance Action Report as well as documents provided by Newsome to REBUT Report (i.e. record of Wage & Hour Division contains additional evidence in support of Newsome's claims) – See EXHIBIT "137" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein – which contain the following information along with Newsome's feedback/comments:

CONCLUSIONS & RECOMMENDATIONS:

EE claims she was denied her right to take FMLA leave. She claims she was terminated for asking for FMLA leave. Contact: Andrea Griffith, Office Manager; stated that at no time did C request or give enough information for her to determine that she needed FMLA leave. Ms.

Griffith stated that C's termination was due to the elimination of her position. No violation was found. Ms. Griffith agreed to continued compliance. No further action.

EMPLOYER CREDIBILITY[70]

The credibility of the employer's explanation is key and must be judged in light of all the evidence obtained during the investigation. If an employer's explanation for the employee's treatment ultimately is not credible, that is powerful evidence that discrimination is the most likely explanation. [Fn. 59 – See Reeves,[71] 530 U.S. at 147 ("Proof that the defendant's explanation is unworthy of credence is simply one form of circumstantial evidence that is probative of intentional discrimination, and it may be quite persuasive. Proving the employer's reason false becomes part of (and often considerably assists) the greater enterprise of proving that the real reason was intentional discrimination. In appropriate circumstances, the trier of fact can reasonably infer from the falsity of the explanation that the employer is dissembling to cover up a discriminatory purpose. Such an inference is consistent with the general principle of evidence law that the factfinder is entitled to consider a party's dishonesty about a material fact as affirmative evidence of guilt.")(citations and internal quotation marks omitted).] An employer's credibility will be undermined if its explanation is unsupported by or contrary to the balance of the facts. Similarly, the credibility of the explanation can be called into question if it is unduly vague, [Fn. 60 – Employers have leeway to make subjective decisions, but regardless of whether the reasons are objective or subjective, the employer's "explanation of its legitimate reasons must be clear and reasonably specific" so that "the plaintiff is afforded a 'full and fair opportunity' to demonstrate pretext." See Texas Dep't of Community Affairs v. Burdine, 450 U.S. 248, 258 (1981). The explanation must be clearly set forth through the *presentation of evidence. Id. at 255. A person evaluating a decision based on subjective factors should do so carefully because subjective factors "are more susceptible of abuse and more likely to mask pretext." See Goosby v. Johnson & Johnson Med., Inc., 228 F.3d 313, 320 (3rd Cir. 2000)(citation and quotation marks omitted)] appears to be an after-the-fact explanation, or appears otherwise fabricated (e.g., the explanation shifts, or inconsistent reasons are given). . . .

QUALIFYING CONDITION/SERIOUS HEALTH CONDITION

Ms. Newsome did not indicate that she had a serious health condition. There is no evidence to indicate that Ms. Newsome gave notice to the firm of her need for FMLA qualifying leave.

EMPLOYER NOTIFICATION

Ms. Newsome stated that in December 2008, she spoke with Andrea Griffith (HR manager at Wood & Lamping) regarding a medical procedure she would need to have completed at the end of January 2009.

Ms. Newsome stated that Ms. Griffith informed her of the process of medical leave under FMLA and sick leave.

FEBRUARY 1, 2009 – TRANSCRIBED VOICEMAIL FROM PAUL BERNINGER

Denise this is Paul Berninger from the law firm. The reason I'm calling you is that I am aware of the lay-off situation that has taken place and I had some conversations with Andrea due to your situation and I've asked for the opportunity to give you a call. I know you wrote a letter addressing some things to C.J. Schmidt regarding health insurance and I wanted to talk to you about that. I believe that the firm should extend your health insurance coverage for a period of time. I believe that is because I understand that you did say something to Andrea about a need for some kind of medical attention. I don't know what it is and she didn't disclose anything to me in regards to what that was. But what I want to do is to talk to you about that. Find out what it is that you would want in terms of extension of your medical insurance at our cost for a period of time. So that you could attend to that medical need. I would just let you know that there would be one part that I know that I would have to get from you in order for me to convince the firm to extend medical insurance coverage for some period of time and that would basically be a release. By that, I mean that I would write something up that you would sign that would clearly indicate that you would not (under any circumstances) be able to file any kind of a charge against the firm or file a lawsuit*.*

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome following up voicemail message left by Paul Berninger and advising of her opposition to discriminatory practices/retaliation and concerns of being deprived protected rights. See EXHIBIT "86" - Medical Coverage – Concerns Discrimination Under FMLA and COBRA Violations attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

STATUS OF COMPLIANCE

Ms. Griffith stated that she only talked to Ms. Newsome about a doctor's appointment later in the month of January 2009. Ms. Griffith stated that there was no mention of a SHC.

RECORD OF DEPARTMENT OF LABOR CONTAINS INFORMATION AS THE FOLLOWING – See EXHIBIT "137" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein:

Newsome:	Andrea, Please see the attached document. I am providing with original.
Griffith:	Denise, We do need to meet this afternoon to discuss your being out of the office so much over the last couple of days. Also, you need to inform me in advance on doctor's appointments. 45 minutes before an appointment is not sufficient time. Please see me when you return.
Newsome:	Andrea: I am going to be leaving to go to the doctor for a 12:15 Sono (the one originally set for Monday that I had to reschedule)[72] Was wondering do you have time for me this afternoon? Thanks.

[72] Appointment that was set PRIOR to the October 8, 2009, criminal acts in Kentucky matter.

STATUS OF COMPLIANCE – Cont'd

Ms. Newsome also stated that she submitted written notice on January 8, 2009. This notice was in the form of an internal leave slip dated January 8, 2009, requesting ½ day off for "medical" on January 9, 2009.

According to 825.208a of the old regulations, the employee must explain the reasons for the needed leave so as to allow the employer to determine that the leave qualifies under FMLA. Ms. Newsome's request for ½ day off for "medical" does not give enough information to the employer for determining if it qualifies under FMLA.

Killian v. Yorozu Automotive Tennessee, Inc., 454 F.3d 549 (6th Cir. 2006) - Even if employee fails to provide medical certification in timely fashion, employer's remedy under FMLA regulations is delayed leave, not termination. STATUS OF COMPLIANCE – Cont'd

Ms. Newsome's request for leave (½ day "medical") was approved by 2 staff attorneys.

On January 9, 2009, Ms. Newsome was informed by Ms. Griffith that her job was eliminated.

Ms. Griffith stated that when Ms. Newsome was terminated, she had not yet received the written notice for 1/2 day off from Ms. Newsome.

STATUS OF COMPLIANCE – Cont'd

Ms. Griffith stated that Ms. Newsome's termination had nothing to do with FMLA as the firm has granted other employees requests for FMLA.[73] She stated that Ms.

[73] Bradley v. Mary Rutan Hosp. Assoc., 322 F.Supp.2d 926 (S.D.Ohio.E.Div.,2004) - An employer violates the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) when it violates either the FMLA statute itself or its implementing regulations. Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, §§ 104, 105, 29 U.S.C.A. §§ 2614, 2415; 29 C.F.R. § 825.220(b).

Hollins v. Ohio Bell Telephone Co., 496 F.Supp.2d 864(S.D.Ohio.W.Div.,2007) - When an employee complies with the requirements of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the employee is entitled to certain substantive rights under the Act, including the right to take FMLA leave and the right, upon return from the leave, to be restored to the position of employment held when the leave commenced or to an equivalent position. Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, §§ 102, 104, 29 U.S.C.A. §§ 2612, 2614.

Schmauch v. Honda of America Manufacturing, Inc., 295 F.Supp.2d 823(S.D.Ohio.E.Div.,2003) - Employers have prescriptive obligation under the FMLA, i.e., they must grant employees substantive rights guaranteed by the FMLA, and they have a proscriptive obligation, i.e., they may not penalize employees for exercising such rights. Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, § 2 et seq., 29 U.S.C.A. § 2601 et seq.

Newsome's termination was the result of her job being eliminated. She was the least senior legal secretary and weakest performer. As of today, her position has not been filled.

Employer may not use reduction-in-force (RIF), reorganization, or improved-efficiency rationale as pretext to mask actual discrimination or retaliation for employee's exercise of FMLA rights; the mere incantation of the mantra of "efficiency" is not a talisman insulating an employer from liability for invidious discrimination. Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, § 105(a), 29 U.S.C.A. § 2615(a); 29 C.F.R. § 825.220.

n.23 - But an employer may not use its RIF/reorganization/improved-efficiency rationale as a pretext to mask actual discrimination or retaliation; the mere incantation of the mantra of "efficiency" is not a talisman insulating an employer from liability for invidious discrimination. See McDonnell Douglas, 411 U.S. at 804, 93 S.Ct. 1817 (employer may not use an ostensibly legitimate reason for an adverse action as a pretext for discrimination that is prohibited by statute); 29 U.S.C. § 2615(a); 29 C.F.R. § 825.220; cf. INS v. Chadha, 462 U.S. 919, 944, 103 S.Ct. 2764, 77 L.Ed.2d 317 (1983): "Convenience and efficiency are not the primary objectives-or the hallmarks-of democratic government." Nor are they the objectives of public policy underlying statutes like the FMLA or the ADA.

Even if employer's articulated reason for its adverse employment action is facially neutral, as in the case of a reduction in force (RIF), if in reality the employer acted for reason prohibited by the FMLA's retaliation provision*, then its asserted legitimate reason and its ostensibly nondiscriminatory selection criteria as to who is subject to RIF* cannot insulate it from liability. Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, § 105(a), 29 U.S.C.A. § 2615(a).

N.25 - Because of the availability of seemingly neutral rationales under which an employer can hide its discriminatory intent, and because of the difficulty of accurately determining whether an employer's motive is legitimate or is a pretext for discrimination, there is reason to be concerned about the possibility that an employer could manipulate its decisions to purge employees it wanted to eliminate. See Weldon v. Kraft, Inc., 896 F.2d 793, 798 (3d Cir.1990) (Subjective evaluations of performance "are more susceptible of abuse and more likely to mask pretext" than objective job qualifications.) (internal quotation marks omitted). The law does not permit this. Even if an employer's actions and articulated reasons are facially neutral (e.g., a RIF), if in reality the employer acted for a prohibited reason (e.g., retaliation for exercising a protected right), then its asserted legitimate reason for the RIF and its ostensibly nondiscriminatory selection criteria as to who gets RIFed cannot insulate it from liability. As Judge Posner wrote in the context of . . . discrimination, "[a] RIF is not an open sesame to discrimination against a . . .person. Even if the employer has a compelling reason wholly unrelated to the disabilities of any of its employees to reduce the size of its work force, this does not entitle it to use the occasion as a convenient opportunity to get rid of its . . . workers." Matthews v. Commonwealth Edison Co., 128 F.3d 1194, 1195 (7th Cir.1997) (citation omitted). Nor can it be an opportunity to get rid of

This settlement offer was presented to Ms. Griffith at Wood and Lamping. On April 29, 2009, Ms. Griffith declined the offer put forth by Ms. Newsome.

BARBARA DOUGHERTY vs. TEVA PHARMACEUTICALS USA, INC., U.S. District Court/Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Case No. 05-02336

ISSUE PRESENTED: The Secretary's regulation at 29 C.F.R. 825.220(d) states, in part, that "[e]mployees CANNOT waive, nor may employers induce employees to waive, their rights under FMLA." The question presented is whether this legislative rule barring waivers of FMLA rights by employees also prohibits settlements of FMLA claims based on past employer actions.

STATUS OF COMPLIANCE – Cont'd

Based on the above information, there was not sufficient evidence to substantiate Ms. Newsome's claim that her rights were violated under FMLA. No evidence was found to show that Ms. Newsome gave Wood & Lamping notice of her intention to take FMLA leave. There is also no evidence to show that the employer denied Ms. Newsome her rights under FMLA.

DISPOSITION

. . . The FMLA was discussed in detail with Ms. Griffith. She stated that she has had other employees on FMLA and there have been no problems. She agreed to continued compliance with the FMLA.

Ms. Newsome was not informed of the final results of the investigation. Ms. Newsome was not satisfied with how the investigation was handled and was not willing to participate in any settlement agreements presented to her. She was only interested in reinstatement and full back pay. She was not willing to hear that violations may not be found.

Every telephone conversation made to Ms. Newsome was met with an angry email the next day. The emails contained threats

Furthermore, how such statements by Official/Employee is WILLFUL,

MALICIOUS and WANTON and is provided to deprive Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws – i.e. deprivation of rights secured under the FMLA, United States Constitution, and other laws of the United States.

Said FALSE and MALICIOUS comments by Official/Employee (Joan Petric) were provided because of her REFUSAL and INABILITY to address/rebut ALL issues raised by Newsome that proved and supported Newsome's FMLA charge/complaint. See for instance EXHIBIT "140" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Green,* 411 U.S. 792, 801 (1973)("it is abundantly clear that Title VII tolerates no racial discrimination, subtle or otherwise").] determining whether race played a role in the decisionmaking requires examination of all of the surrounding facts and circumstances. The presence or absence of any one piece of evidence often will not be determinative. Sources of information can include witness statements, including consideration of their credibility; documents; direct observation; and statistical evidence such as EEO-1 data, among others. See EEOC Compl. Man., Vol. I, Sec. 26, Selection and Analysis of Evidence." A non-exhaustive list of important areas of inquiry and analysis is set out below.

Newsome further believes that a reasonable person/mind knowing all the facts and circumstances surrounding charges/complaints with the Department of Labor as well as her OPPOSITION to President Obama and his Administration's role in CONSPIRACIES to cover-up employment violations is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest – i.e. especially when President Obama and his Administration has gone PUBLIC in requesting that Foreign

XI. "SERIAL LITIGATOR" ISSUE

Newsome believes that based upon the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances that exist Certiorari will be granted. Moreover, the MALICIOUS labeling and/or implication of such labeling against Newsome is the UNDERLYING purpose for its bringing FRIVOLOUS and MALICIOUS lawsuit against Newsome. Furthermore, a NEXUS can be established through a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE that Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) and its attorneys ABUSE of such labeling and reliance upon such labeling in contacting Newsome's employers and using such MALICIOUS attacks in ALL legal matters that it insureds are involved in to which Newsome is a party. The record evidence will support Plaintiff Stor-All and its representatives use of such MALICIOUS labeling is done for purposes of depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws. Furthermore, the lower courts have done nothing to deter such UNETHICAL and unlawful/illegal practices of Plaintiff Stor-All's counsel and/or its insurance provider's engagement in criminal practices and neither require that they produce evidence to sustain such VICIOUS attacks on Newsome.

> In re McDonald, 489 U.S. 180, 109 S.Ct. 993 (1989)[75] Jessie McDonald may well have abused his right to file petitions in this Court without payment of the docketing fee; the Court's order documents that fact. I do not agree, however, that he poses such a threat to the orderly administration of justice that we should embark on the unprecedented and dangerous course the Court charts today. . . . I am most concerned, however, that if, as I fear, we continue on the course we chart today, we will end by closing our doors to a litigant with a meritorious claim. It is rare, but it does happen on occasion that we grant review and even decide in favor of a litigant who previously had presented multiple unsuccessful*188 petitions on the same issue. See, e.g., Chessman v. Teets, 354 U.S. 156, 77 S.Ct. 1127, 1 L.Ed.2d 1253 (1957); see id., at 173-177, 77 S.Ct. at 1136-1138 (Douglas, J., dissenting).[76]
> "Petitioner is no stranger to us. Since 1971, he has made 73 separate filings with the Court, not including this petition, which is his eighth so far this Term. These include 4 appeals, 33 petitions for certiorari, 99 petitions for extraordinary writs, 7 applications for stay and other injunctive relief, and 10 petitions for rehearing." Id. pp. 994-995.

[75] See EXHIBIT "55" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

> "But paupers filing pro se petitions are not subject to the financial considerations - filing fees and attorney's fees - that deter other litigants from filing frivolous petitions." Id. p. 996.
> The Supreme Court (even after all of McDonald's filings) did not close the door to McDonald. A litigant who is identified as filing 73 separate filings in a one-year period; however, ruled, "Petitioner remains free under the present order to file in forma pauperis requests for relief other than an extraordinary writ, if he qualifies under the Court's Rule 46 and does not similarly abuse that privilege." Id. p. 996.

Based on the evidence in lower courts' (Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, Hamilton County Municipal Court and the Ohio Supreme Court) record and other courts' record, Newsome believes it is necessary to address the "SERIAL LITIGATOR" bogus/frivolous defense that underlines the filing of this instant lawsuit and the PREMEDITATION by Plaintiff Stor-All in using such a defense at the time of bringing this MALICIOUS lawsuit against Newsome. Newsome is a paying litigant in the lower court actions, has paid the required JURY FEE, and her Counterclaim has merits and can be sustained by the facts, evidence and legal conclusions presented therein.

Newsome attaches to this pleading a listing of Judges/Justices that Baker Donelson PUBLICLY advertise and/or broadcast on the Internet in support of its SPECIAL TIES/RELATIONSHIPS to members on the judicial bench – See EXHIBIT "35" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome provides this list because she believes it is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest and pertinent/relevant to sustain the issues raised in this instant filing. Newsome believes a reasonable mind may conclude from said listing that it has been produced and posted to send a subliminal messages to clients and/or potential clients and those who oppose Baker Donelson and its clients, that these judges/justices have been purchased by Baker Donelson and just how well-rooted it is with Justices/Judges*. If this is the case, Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that the integrity of the courts in which these Judges/Justices serve may have been compromised. Furthermore, that Baker Donelson, its client (LIBERTY MUTUAL and its insureds) and others involved in the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome have taken decisions of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and other courts to FUEL their criminal/civil violations against Newsome – i.e. criminal/civil violations which clearly are RACIALLY motivated, reprehensible, unacceptable, embarrassing, disgraceful, and an obstruction of justice, deprivation of Constitutional Rights and rights secured/guaranteed under the United States - Newsome finds it hard to believe that the Justices of the Fifth Circuit Court and/or of any other court would intend for their decisions to be taken as a "LICENSE TO COMMIT CRIMES/CIVIL WRONGS" against Newsome and/or any other citizen(s) because they engage in protected activities. In Newsome's case, she is/has engaged in legal actions – i.e. approximately four (4) separate lawsuits in approximately twenty-two (22) years and the instant lawsuit was not one filed by Newsome but is one brought by Plaintiff Stor-All; however, one that clearly (based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions) warranted a Counterclaim by Newsome. Furthermore, Newsome has only brought approximately three (3) separate NON-MONETARY mandamus actions in approximately twenty-two (22) years for purposes of compelling the EEOC to perform the MANDATORY ministerial duties owed Newsome as well as other citizens – i.e. which based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein, will support that the United States Department of Labor and others have RETALIATED and may be engaging in CONSPIRACIES for purposes of COVERING UP corrupt and unlawful/illegal employment practices by employers as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of Newsome having brought mandamus actions as well as depriving her EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and other laws of the United States.

> Pittston Coal Group v. Sebben, 109 S.Ct. 414 (1988) - Extraordinary remedy of mandamus will issue only to compel performance of clear nondiscretionary duty. 28 U.S.C.A. § 1361.
> U.S. ex rel. McLennan v. Wilbur, 51 S.Ct. 502 (1931) - Writ of mandamus will issue only where duty to be performed is ministerial and obligation to act peremptory and plainly defined.
>
> Supervisors v. U.S., 85 U.S. 71 (1873) - The office of a writ of mandamus is not to create duties but to compel the discharge of those already existing.
> Reeside v. Walker, 52 U.S. 272 (1850) - A mandamus is only to compel performance of some ministerial, as well as legal duty.

In response to Newsome's MANDAMUS (non-monetary*) actions, the Fifth Circuit made it clear that she had other remedies available to her – i.e. for instance, ". . . plaintiff is instructed to seek any further relief to which she feels entitled in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, as may be appropriate in due course" (2002 WL 1303123), and "Newsome also is not entitled to the writ because she has another adequate remedy available, i.e. she could file suit in court against her employer. . ." (37 Fed.Appx. 87) – See EXHIBIT "57" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

The record evidence will support that while Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel and its insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL) want it to appear that Newsome is a "serial litigator" there is nothing in the record of the lower courts and/or any other courts to sustain/support such a slanderous and outrageous characterization of Newsome.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome in the instant lawsuit NOT proceeding in forma pauperis and has paid the required JURY FEE. See EXHIBIT "29" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Newsome has also submitted the required $300.00 filing fee associated with filing Certiorari action with the United States Supreme Court. See EXHIBIT "3" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

Again, this instant lawsuit was INITIATED by Plaintiff Stor-All and NOT Newsome Furthermore, said labeling of Newsome as a "serial litigator" neither fits description provided by the United States Supreme Court nor any other court. In fact, the United States Supreme Court provides an example of a pro se in forma pauperis litigant who filed numerous complaints; however, said Court did not close the door to his filing in the future as the lower court and other courts are attempting to do with Newsome in keeping with their ROLE in the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome and initiated/orchestrated by LIBERTY MUTUAL, its counsel (Baker Donelson) and others:

> Carter v. Telectron, Inc., 452 F.Supp. 944 (1977) - [n.1] *Number of actions filed is not, by itself, a determinative factor which would legally support use of district court's power to regulate a . . . litigant on ground of abuse of privilege of proceeding in forma pauperis; instead, court must analyze the nature of plaintiff's litigation in light of the scope of such privilege and additionally pinpoint specific abuses to which appropriate responsive remedies can be tied. 28 U.S.C.A. § 1915.
> > [1] In assessing whether plaintiff has abused the privilege *of proceeding in forma pauperis, it is indeed a highly probative fact that plaintiff has filed pro se a minimum of 178 actions, almost all of which have been filed in forma pauperis. However, the number of actions filed is not, by itself, a determinative factor which would legally support the use of this Court's power to regulate plaintiff as a litigant. See, e. g., Ruderer v. United States, 462 F.2d 897, 899 (8th Cir. 1972), > appeal dismissed, 409 U.S. 1031, 93 S.Ct. 540, 34 L.Ed.2d 482 (1973). Instead, one must analyze the nature of plaintiff's litigation in light of the scope of the Section 1915 privilege and additionally pinpoint specific abuses to which appropriate responsive remedies can be tied.

In this instant lawsuit Plaintiff Stor-All and its counsel attempts to assert and/or has implicated Newsome as a "serial litigator" for filing approximately four (4) lawsuits over an approximate 22-year period and now she has been drawn into having to defend against this MALICIOUS Forcible Entry/Detainer Action in which Plaintiff Stor-All was already in UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL possession of her storage unit and property WITHOUT legal authority/court Order. Furthermore, while subject Newsome to such unfounded labeling, Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel and/or opposing parties fail to mention that Newsome, as in the Mississippi actions is a PAYING litigant. The Supreme Court finding in, Lakes v. State, 333 S.c. 382, 510 S.E.2d 228 (1998) that:

> According to the State, Lakes has submitted one direct appeal, three PCR applications, two petitions for writ of certiorari, a federal petition for writ of habeas corpus, petitions for writs of mandamus, attorney grievances, and proposed orders for release. Although Lakes's requests for relief are numerous, the trial judge failed to make factual findings to show the requests rise to the level of repetitive and abusive filings as in Maxton or those cases cited in Maxton. [FN2] Therefore, 231 we reverse the order of the trial judge and remand the case for further proceedings consistent with this opinion. In so doing, we make no comment as to the merit of Lakes's claims. Lakes still bears the burden of proving why his application should not be dismissed as successive pursuant to *387 S.C.Code Ann. § 17-27-90 (1976). See Foxworth v. State, 275 S.c. 615, 274 S.E.2d 415 (1981).

> FN2. The United States Supreme Court denies litigants who have repeatedly filed frivolous petitions the right to proceed in forma pauperis. However, the Court has done so pursuant to its Rule 39.8. See, e.g., In re Whitaker, 513 U.S. 1, 115 S.Ct. 2, 130 L.Ed.2d 1 (1994) (petitioner filed 23 claims for relief that had all

Rule 39.8 states:

> > If satisfied that a petition for writ of certiorari, jurisdictional statement, or petition for an extraordinary writ, as the case may be, is frivolous or malicious, the Court may deny a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis.

Again, supporting that attempts to label Newsome a "serial litigator" is NOT befitting and neither applicable because Newsome is NOT proceeding in this lawsuit in forma pauperis and has paid the United States Supreme Court's $300.00 filing fee to bring her Certiorari action which has merits and can be sustained/supported by facts, evidence and legal conclusions* (i.e. in accordance with previous decisions by the United States Supreme Court as well as other State Supreme Courts and/or lower courts).

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The Ohio Supreme Court and lower court/Judge West is attempting to deprive Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws by dismissing this action with knowledge that the following TIMELY and PROPERLY motions have been submitted before the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas and to date is still pending:

See EXHIBIT "51" – Docket Sheet of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas. As the United States Supreme Court found in Lakes v. State, "the trial judge failed to make factual findings to show the requests rise to the level of repetitive and abusive filings as in Maxton or those cases cited in Maxton. Therefore, we reverse the order of the trial judge. . .," Newsome believes this Court will find that Judge West as well as the Ohio Supreme Court in keeping with their role in the CONSPIRACY and efforts to COVER-UP the criminal/civil wrongs complained of by Newsome in the lower court filings as well as her September 24, 2009 and December 28, 2009 FBI Criminal Complaints, have FAILED to make factual findings although the proper pleadings have been filed requesting said relief. The United States Supreme Court finding in In re Maxton, 325 S.C. 3, 478 S.E.2d 679 (S.C.,1996) that:

> Petitioner, . . . has submitted sixty-four pro se petitions over the past three years, including forty-six so far this year, asking this Court to hear matters in its original jurisdiction or issue various extraordinary writs. Each petition submitted by petitioner has been frivolous and dismissed pursuant to Key v. Currie, 305 S.C. 115, 406 S.E.2d 356 (1991), because no extraordinary reason existed to entertain the matter in the original jurisdiction of this Court .
> . . . The courts in other jurisdictions have responded in a variety of ways to abusive filings such as those by petitioner. The United States Supreme Court has denied litigants who have filed repetitive, frivolous petitions the right to proceed in forma pauperis, resulting in the litigants having to pay the required filing fee with that Court. In re Whitaker, 513 U.S. I, 115 S.Ct. 2, 130 L.Ed.2d 1 (1994); In re Anderson, 511 U.S. 364, 114 S.Ct. 1606, 128 L.Ed.2d 332 (1994); In re Demos, 500 U.S. 16, III S.Ct. 1569, 114 L.Ed.2d 20 (1991); In re Sindram, 498 U.S. 177, III S.Ct. 596, 112 L.Ed.2d 599 (1991); In re McDonald, 489 U.S. 180, 109 S.Ct. 993, 103 L.Ed.2d 158 (1989). Other courts have required that the abusive litigant file an affidavit certifying that he believes the petition raises an original claim or is nonfrivolous before accepting filings from the litigant. In the Matter of Verdone, 73 F.3d 669 (7th Cir.l995); Abdul-Akbar v. Watson, 901 F.2d 329 (3d Cir.1990); Green v. Warden, 699 F.2d 364 (7th Cir.), cert. denied, 461 U.S. 960, 103 S.Ct. 2436, 77 L.Ed.2d 1321 (1983).

Again, supporting that there is no evidence to support/sustain that Newsome is a "serial litigator." Furthermore, extraordinary reasons exist for the United States Supreme Court to entertain this instant matter in its original jurisdiction. Moreover, that based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions, Newsome is a VICTIM of vicious and malicious SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups (i.e. LIBERTY MUTUAL, BAKER DONELSON, and other conspirators/co-conspirators) who are engaging in a Pattern-Of-Practice, Pattern-Of-Abuse, Pattern-Of-Criminal Conduct, Pattern-Of-Judicial Abuse, Pattern-Of-Usurpation of Power/Authority, etc. In further support of said issue(s) Newsome states:

50) The record evidence will support that Newsome's pleadings are drafted in accordance to the Federal Rules and/or Rules of courts for purposes of expedition and saving costs of litigation. Pleadings are drafted to support the facts, evidence and legal conclusions presented. Thus, supporting opposing parties INABILITY to defend and, therefore, resorting to criminal/civil wrongs for purposes of obtaining an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit.

51) In the Mississippi actions, Newsome shared concerns that courts are entertaining "SERIAL STALKERS/PREDATORS" - who are following her from job-to-job, attorney-to-attorney – harassers, abusers of the judicial system/process, etc. (i.e. as the list can go on and on) who use their clients (i.e. such as Stor-All – with its permission) to hood/mask their ill-gotten fetishes toward Newsome. See EXHIBIT "58" – Response to Motion to Show Cause (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. In the Mississippi matter, Liberty Mutual and Baker

Donelson relied upon an attorney by the name of Clark Monroe to lead opposing parties/counsel in carrying out the attacks on Newsome. Just as sexual offenders are required to be posted on the appropriate offenders websites, so should it be with those who engage in CRIMINAL STALKING (i.e. following citizens from state-to-state, job-to-job/employer-to-employer and court-to-court) for purposes of unlawful/illegal practices – i.e. termination of employment, harassment, threats, intimidation, coercion, extortion, discrimination, obstruction of justice/administration of justice, etc.

> Scheidler v. National Organization for Women, Inc., 123 S.Ct. 1057 (U.S.,2003) - While coercion and extortion overlap to the extent that extortion necessarily involves the use of coercive conduct to obtain property, the two crimes are distinct.

Newsome believes a reasonable mind may conclude that (based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein and in support records) litigants (i.e. as the Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance carrier (Liberty Mutual and their attorneys/law firm such as Baker Donelson)) may be deemed CRIMINAL STALKERS and SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups who are *"hooded and/or masked" and hide in the dark/hide behind the scene to avoid detection and recognition; however, come out during the day and may have assumed positions under the Obama Administration, United States Senate/United States House of Representatives, with legal Bar Associations, courts (i.e. Clerk of Courts, Judge/Justices, etc.),[77] government agencies, and other key PUBLIC offices.[78] As with Clark Monroe and others that engage in such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST acts, once the hood/mask is removed, it apparent from their countenance/face what is really in them and what they are really about. While such STALKERS/PREDATORS and SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST appear to be well-groomed, educated, intelligent, smug, etc., BE WARNED, they are far from that and are of a NATIONAL/WORLDWIDE threat to the PUBLIC and are walking liabilities to whomever they come into contact with in defending claims brought by Newsome[79] – i.e. as evidenced in this instant lawsuit wherein Plaintiff Stor-All's counsel (David Meranus) filed the malicious complaint against Newsome; however, when met with her Counterclaim, quickly "tucked tail and abandoned his client." Meranus did this after opening himself and his client (Stor-All) and their conspirators/co-conspirators up to "CRIMINAL" prosecution and "CIVIL" liability. Now they are looking to Judge West, President Obama and his Administration as well as other corrupt PUBLIC OFFICIALS to AID & ABET in the cover-up of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and are attempting the close the doors of the court to Newsome and deprive her of rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and other laws of the United States on October 22, 2010.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence will support Newsome's OPPOSITION/CONTESTING of said

[77] See _____ of this instant pleading as well as EXHIBIT "17" – DAVID DUKE/KU KLUX KLAN info attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

[78] See _____ List at No. ___ of this instant pleading – i.e. which is NOT an exhaustive list of where members of such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups are hiding and/or having their people serve.

[79] Newsome first warning of said liabilities in the Mississippi action. To no avail. Now because of the courts FAILURE to act as well as United States Legislature/Congress and President Obama's FAILURE to act (i.e. report crimes and prosecute, etc.), Newsome and other citizens have been subjected to and placed in harm's way of such STALKERS/PREDATORS and SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST. See EXHIBIT "58" – Motion to Strike Show Cause at No. __ - Page __ (BRIEF ONLY) attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Furthermore, now the Commonwealth of Kentucky, State of Ohio/County of Hamilton, Ohio and others have been exposed and subjected to LIABILITY as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of the injuries Newsome has sustained – i.e. as reported in her FBI Complaints.

CONSPIRACIES leveled against her was timely, properly and adequately brought to Senators and Representatives of the United States Congress'/Legislature's attention as early as July 14, 2008, through Newsome's Emergency Complaint - See EXHIBIT "38" attached hereto and incorporated by reference along with documentation supporting United States Postal Service PROOF-OF-MAILING and/or RECEIPT information. Nevertheless, *when the FOX is GUARDING the Hen House – i.e. Baker Donelson have their people strategically placed in positions with Government agencies (i.e. such as Branton S. Clanton who at the time of Newsome's filing appears to have been appointed by the United States Commission on Civil Rights for the position of Chairman of its Mississippi Advisory Committee as well as other attorneys serving in KEY Government positions[80] for purposes of OBSTRUCTING justice and COVERING UP criminal/civil wrongs because of the PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interest at stake), then it is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest as well as NATIONAL SECURITY because the record evidence sustains at PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL behavior that are RACIALLY motivated – i.e. clearly *evidence of HATE CRIMES being leveled against Newsome as well as other citizens and/or individuals to promote the AGENDA of such Supremacist/Terrorist group*s.

Nevertheless, because of the NEGLIGENCE of the United States Congress'/Legislature's Newsome has been subjected to further CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs carried out by Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance carrier (LIBERTY MUTUAL), their attorneys (i.e. Baker Donelson, Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin and Markesbery & Richardson Co LPA) and others who each have fulfilled their roles in the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome.

52) The record evidence will support that while Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance provider and its counsel/attorneys may attempt to paint Newsome as a "serial litigator," there is NO evidence to sustain such an argument. However, there is record evidence, facts and legal conclusions to support that Plaintiff Stor-All engage in criminal activities – i.e. Stalking, Burglary, Theft, etc. – and has ill obsession with her that its insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) and its counsel (it appears) rely upon THIRD-PARTY information to aid them in the CRIMINAL Stalking and other crimes leveled against Newsome because she engages in protected activity(s). For instance see Clark Monroe's (attorney for Liberty Mutual's interest and its insureds) FRIVOLOUS assertions in the Mississippi matter – i.e. he uses tactic for the UNtrained eyes since most lawyers know that it is the Law Clerk of the Judges/Justices that review pleadings:

> "Plaintiff's abuse of the judicial system is not limited to the circumstances giving rise to this litigation. Rather, Plaintiff is a "serial litigator," having shown a propensity for filing repeated, frivolous, harassing lawsuits and appeals in the past, and having been previously sanctioned by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Vogel Newsome v. EEOC, 2002 WL 31845750 (5th Circuit 2002). . . . Counsel has reviewed each of the twenty-two "hits" on Westlaw and written the outcome of each in the margin. Twenty-one involved Ms. Newsome and she went 0-21 overall with several specific findings that her complaints were frivolous, one in which she was ordered to file nothing further and of course the sanctions from the Fifth Circuit." See EXHIBIT "60" at Paragraph 4 – Melody Crews and Dial Equities, Inc.'s Joinder in Motion for Security of Costs and Separate Motion for Security of Attorneys Fees (Filed August 1, 2007, in the Mississippi action Case No. 3:07-cv-00099) - filed by LIBERTY MUTUAL'S counsel (Clark Monroe) attached hereto an incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

From Baker Donelson's listing, the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein, it may provide Law Clerks with BRIBES, etc. to obtain rulings in its clients favor – i.e. look at Judge West's Bailiff, he was paid to dismiss lawsuits/legal actions. See EXHIBIT "6" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

53) The record evidence will support that Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) having knowledge of Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping. Moreover, settled a claim with her that occurred during her employment with Wood & Lamping. See EXHIBIT "118" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Supporting that it is Liberty Mutual and its insureds that rely upon THIRD-PARTY information to locate Newsome and engage other CONSPIRATORS/CO-CONSPIRATORS in its criminal/civil attacks on Newsome.

54) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Clark Monroe states "twenty-one" hits – NOT lawsuits. Being very "crafty with the stroke of a pen" and fails to mention that out of his list, it only contains two (2) lawsuits brought by Newsome for monetary relief against her former employers. Clark Monroe fails to mention the role (if any) his client (LIBERTY MUTUAL and its attorneys) may have played in getting decisions in favor of its insured.

Actions brought against the EEOC were for purposes of requiring that they perform ministerial duties MANDATED (NOT discretionary) under the law. Two lawsuits against employers over a period of approximately ten (10) years – hardly grounds and/or evidence to label Newsome as a "serial litigator." Clark Monroe fails to mention the unlawful/illegal tactics used (if any) that his client (LIBERTY MUTUAL and its lawyers) used to get the EEOC to abandon MANDATORY duties owed citizens that bring complaints to its attention. While the court ruled in Newsome v. EEOC and Newsome v. Entergy the following:

> . . .plaintiff is instructed to seek any further relief to which she feels entitled in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, as may be appropriate in due course" (2002 WL 1303123), and "Newsome also is not entitled to the writ because she has another adequate remedy available, i.e. she could file suit in court against her employer. . ." (37 Fed.Appx. 87)

See EXHIBIT "57," the record evidence will support that LIBERTY MUTUAL (Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider) relied upon it or its attorneys' relationships to judges/justices to obtain rulings in its and its client's favor. Moreover, the record evidence will support that in ALL cases (i.e. in which Liberty Mutual's insureds are parties) involving Newsome, it/its counsel/its insureds contacted employers to notify of her engagement in protected activities for purposes of getting her employment terminated and financially devastating her to obtain an UNDUE and unlawful/illegal advantage over Newsome – i.e. depriving her equal protection of the laws, equal immunities and privileges and due process of laws. Supporting the WILLFUL, DELIBERATE, INTENTIONAL and MALICIOUS acts by Liberty, its insureds (i.e. as Plaintiff Stor-All) and its attorneys (i.e at the law firms of Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin and Markesbery & Richardson Co).

55) The record evidence will support that the lower court and/or in court/agency actions that Newsome has been a party to, the factfinder and/or Judges do not require any VERIFICATION of pleadings (as the law requires) by opposing counsel. Therefore, as the lower court record in this instant action as well as others that Newsome is involved in, the evidence will support just how ROGUE opposing parties' (i.e. as Plaintiff Stor-All) attorneys become and are willing to turn the judicial process into a "three-ring circus" – i.e. make a mockery of the judicial system and processes therein. Furthermore, opposing parties' (i.e as Plaintiff Stor-All) attorneys resorting to unlawful/illegal practices merely to "MILK their CASH COW(S)" (i.e. clients) because they have knowledge of clients' financial wealth and WELL-ROOTED connections to CORRUPT Public Officials. See for instance the following evidence:

> "The Dial Defendants expended $10,036.40 in defending Plaintiff's improper "appeal" to the County Court of the initial ruling by the Justice Court. . . This was largely due to Plaintiff repeated abuses of the judicial process in the course of that action, repeated frivolous motions, re-scheduling of hearings, withdrawal of her attorney to whose advice she refused to listen, pro se filing of pleadings even when represented and submission of lengthy tedious papers, much like the Complaint filed herein, that each take hours to review." See EXHIBIT "60"(BRIEF Only) at Paragraph 5 – Melody Crews and Dial Equities, Inc.'s Joinder in Motion for Security of Costs and Separate Motion for Security of Attorneys Fees (Filed August 1, 2007, in the Mississippi action Case No. 3:07-cv-00099) attached hereto an incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.
> "Plaintiff's repeated attempts to extort money from Dial Defendants through oppressive litigation can only be described as stalking by litigation. Indeed, if ever there were a situation where the "bad faith" exception to the "American Rule" should be applied, it is the instant matter. While much leeway is usually afforded to a pro se litigant by the Courts, Ms. Newsome, a current or former paralegal, no longer fits that profile nor should she be afforded the usual courtesy provided to pro se litigants. Ms. Newsome knows the rules, she "games" the system, she ignores court directives and she maliciously causes significant financial harm to her litigation victims." – See EXHIBIT "60" at Paragraph 7 – Melody Crews and Dial Equities, Inc.'s Joinder in Motion for Security of Costs and Separate Motion for Security of Attorneys Fees (Filed August 1, 2007, in the Mississippi action Case No. 3:07-cv-00099) attached hereto an incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

56) Newsome's argument of such SLANDEROUS and FRIVOLOUS labeling of her as a "serial litigator" and/or "veteran pro se litigator" may also be found in pleading provided by her FORMER employer, Page Kruger & Holland ("PKH"). PKH in one of the Mississippi lawsuits is representing Hinds County, the Sheriff, Judge William Skinner and Constable Lewis. This information is RELEVANT and PERTINENT as it goes to the PATTERN-

OF-PRACTICE at the root of the conspiracies leveled against Newsome. Moreover, confirms the TRUE reasons for Newsome's termination being PKH's being contacted and notified of Newsome's engagement in protected activities as evidenced in May 16, 2006, email entitled "VOGEL NEWSOME: PKH's Termination of Employment" – See EXHIBIT "61" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein – as well being contacted by opposing counsel (i.e. a reasonable mind/person may conclude from the STALKING pattern the filing of the lawsuit underlining this appeal, it was LIBERTY MUTUAL's counsel[81]) in lawsuit pending that Newsome was engaging in legal actions. The actions taken by PKH and opposing counsel clearly are PROHIBITED by law and deprived Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the laws, and DUE PROCESS of laws.

> "Plaintiff's records show that she is a veteran pro se litigator who has filed numerous frivolous lawsuits . . ." – See EXHIBIT "62" at Page 5 and Paragraph 14 – Motion for Security Costs (Filed Hinds County/Sheriff McMillan July 13, 2007, in the Mississippi action Case No. 3:07-cv-00099) attached hereto an incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.
> "Additionally, Plaintiff has an extensive record of filing numerous excessive . . ." See EXHIBIT "62" at Page 5 and Paragraph 15 – Motion for Security Costs (Filed Hinds County/Sheriff McMillan July 13, 2007, in the Mississippi action Case No. 3:07-cv-00099) attached hereto an incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

57) To further understand the CRIMINAL STALKING pattern of LIBERTY MUTUAL and its clients/counsel, Newsome provides a copy of the February 6, 2009, correspondence memorializing her conversation with Plaintiff's counsel (David Meranus) who was upset in losing to Newsome on her Motion to Transfer. Therefore, in RETALIATION and for purposes of coercion, intimidation, blackmail, threats, obstructing justice, harassment, bribery, and other reasons known to Meranus to get Newsome to withdraw her Counterclaim, he advised Newsome of his and/or his client's knowledge of her engagement in protected activities in New Orleans, Louisiana. See EXHIBIT "13" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The record evidence will further support that while Meranus was counsel who filed the lawsuit on behalf of Plaintiff Stor-All, upon receipt of Newsome's Counterclaim, he moved SWIFTLY to distance himself and advised of his not wanting to defend against Newsome's Counterclaim. Surely a reasonable mind may conclude, why did Meranus bring legal action on behalf of his client (Stor-All) if he was not ready to suffer the consequences for bringing such a MALICIOUS lawsuit. Furthermore, Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude from the record evidence that Meranus DID NOT file the lawsuit on behalf of his client

[81] Same attorney approaching Newsome's counsel during an in-chamber meeting between Judge and counsel for parties to litigation.

UNTIL he removed the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that existed with Newsome's employment at Wood & Lamping and her working with an attorney by the name of Thomas J. Breed – former lawyer/employee of Schwartz Manes & Ruby (n/k/a Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin and the law firm in which Meranus is employed). Upon reaching a mutual agreement that Wood & Lamping would terminate Newsome's employment on January 9, 2009, Plaintiff Stor-All having said assurance of Newsome's termination moved SWIFTLY to serve her with "NOTICE TO LEAVE THE PREMISES" on January 9, 2009 – See EXHIBIT "63" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Then on or about January 20, 2009, Meranus brought the MALICIOUS Forcible Entry and Detainer action out of which this appeal arises and Judge West is presiding over.

58) The lower court's record will further support Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider (LIBERTY MUTUAL) with knowledge that Meranus wanted to abandon their client, went and retained the legal services of the law firm of Markesbery & Richardson Co. In bringing said law firm onboard, counsel (Michael Lively) wasted no time in attempting to mask/hide the "serial litigator" defense and ACKNOWLEDGING his and his clients' (i.e. Liberty Mutual and Stor-All) role in the CRIMINAL STALKING of Newsome. Lively's term for such unlawful/illegal and criminal behavior being "multi-state conspiracy." Lively's use of such term coming through his filing of Motion For Protective/Restraining Order wherein he and his clients attempt to paint Newsome as a potential murder and associate her with criminals who have gone on shooting sprees – i.e. such characterizations alone which are slanderous, malicious, libelous, defamatory, etc. – especially when Lively is fully aware of HIS role and the role of his clients and others in the CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome.

Plaintiff's (Stor-All) Motion For Protective/Restraining Order - See EXHIBIT "64" attached hereon and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Lively stating on behalf of himself and his clients:

> "Throughout her brief, Defendant consistently lumped Plaintiff, its counsel and insurance carrier together in an alleged multi-state conspiracy against her. Within said Motion, Defendant made reference to unrelated news stories, including that of Carl Brandon in Mississippi. . . and even went so far as to attach an article of the Motion explaining how Mr. Brandon went on a shooting spree targeting county employees and legal counsel involved in his case. . . Defendant stated, 'Stor-All and its representatives have stooped to criminal acts as a direct intent to cause the Defendant harm/injury. Moreover, efforts taken by Stor-All, its counsel, its insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) being done in hopes of driving the Defendant to the point they did Carl Brandon, Jena 6 victims, and who knows who else.' (Emphasis added)."
> "These statements can be reasonably construed as a physical threat to Plaintiff, its representatives, its legal counsel and perhaps even the Court itself." @ Page 3.

Then Lively on behalf of himself and his clients moved to file Plaintiff's (Stor-All) Memorandum In Opposition To Defendant's Motion To Strike Plaintiff's Motion For Protective Order . . . . - See EXHIBIT "65" attached hereon and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein – wherein he states:

> "Of course, this counsel takes some personal offense at being lumped into Defendant's category of "certain whites" that have and apparently still commit legal violations against and otherwise conspire to deprive Defendant of her civil rights in multiple states . . . including burglary, robbery, assault and kidnapping. For the record and clarity, the undersigned strongly denies any such activity on his part and that of his client."[82] @ page 2.

Solomon v. U.S., 276 F.2d 669 (1960) - *Under basic concept of conspiracy, act of any one conspirator is legally the act of each.

Pumphrey v. Quillen, 141 N.E.2d 675 (Ohio.App.9.Dist. 1955) - One who knows purpose of a conspiracy to do an unlawful act or to do a lawful act by unlawful means and who enters into such conspiracy* is bound by things said and done by any of the conspirators in carrying out purpose of the conspiracy, so long as he remains in the conspiracy.

> "Perhaps most troubling and pertinent to the actual case before the Court, however, is Defendant's statement on Page 31, Paragraph h) of her brief where she states, 'Newsome believes that the record evidence will support that Stor-All, their counsel/representatives, and others are relying upon their wealth, social status, powers and controls, relationships to judges, etc. to get them verdict (sic) and decisions they know are contrary to statutes/laws." Defendant seems to make a veiled accusation of improper collusion between legal counsel in the case and the Court, perhaps in reference to other procedural motions and orders. @ page 3.
> "While interesting for political dialogue, Defendant's discussion of the overarching meaning of President Obama's election and the 2008 Presidential campaign are wholly irrelevant to the case. No one should make light of Scripture and the teachings of the Apostles Paul and Peter and David's Psalms, but their placement by Defendant into the argument is improper for purposes of this motion and the Court in general." @ Page 3.

Keeping to true form of SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups, Lively and his Conspirators/Co-Conspirators WILLINGLY, KNOWINGLY and MALICIOUS engage in criminal/civil wrongs for purposes of promoting their RACIAL bias, RACIST agenda, DISCRIMINATORY and PREJUDICAL practices which target citizens (as Newsome). Not only that the resort to HOSTILE methods for purposes of destroying a person's livelihood (i.e. taking of job, property, monies, etc.), life, liberties and pursuit of happiness and mentally and physically breaking them down in efforts to have their victims resort to such criminal acts that he has SLANDEROUSLY, MALICIOUSLY, LIBELOUSLY and with DEFAMATORY intent, etc. implied and/or asserted that Newsome is capable of. Making such unfounded actions of criminal intent that Newsome would never engage in. Such attacks on Newsome by Lively for purposes of distracting the factfinder from the truth – Plaintiff Stor-All failed to file a timely Answer to Newsome's Answer and Counterclaim and that on or about March 20, 2009, Newsome filed a timely MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT. See EXHIBIT "66" – Docket Sheet. Newsome believes that a reasonable person may conclude from ALL circumstances, facts, evidence and legal conclusion, that such VICIOUS attacks on Newsome by Lively will also support efforts to steer factfinder away from the relief Newsome is now entitled to because of Calcutt v. Gerig, 271 F. 220 (C.A.6. 1921) - All who participated in unlawful acts committed in furtherance of a conspiracy are equally liable as co-conspirators, regardless of whether they were original parties to the conspiracy or not.

Plaintiff Stor-All's failure to file a timely Answer to her Counterclaim which supports the following relief:

a) General Damages in an amount of no less than $150,000;

b) Special Damages in an amount of no less than $550,000;

c) Compensatory Damages in an amount no less than $1,000,000;

d) Punitive Damages in an amount no less than $2,500,000; and

e) Attorney/Litigation Fees; and

f) Any/All other relief that the laws allow.

Relief Newsome is now entitled to as a matter of law that Lively its clients and Judge West as well as other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators are trying to keep Newsome from receiving. Therefore, Lively and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators that are conspiring with Judge West to deprive Newsome of EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws have placed "all their eggs in one basket" in the DECISION set to be entered on or about Friday, October 22, 2010, where Judge West is expected to move to dismiss the lawsuit in their favor for purposes and in effort of providing Lively, Meranus, their clients (i.e. Liberty Mutual, Stor-All, etc.) with a SHAM/BOGUS and FRIVOLOUS defense to the inevitable civil lawsuits which will arise from their September 9/10, 2010 criminal acts and/or criminal/civil wrongs birthed from the filing of this MALICIOUS Forcible Entry and Detainer Lawsuit.

59) The lower court records will support that Newsome has REPEATEDLY addressed the Conspiracies leveled against her to destroy her life. To no avail. Matters of EXTREME and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances to support granting of Certiorari relief and the need for the United States Supreme Court's INTERVENTION in this lawsuit. While the laws are clear that the statute of limitation begins to run from EACH over act, it is of PUBLIC and NATIONAL/WORLDWIDE interest that the United States Supreme Court exercise its jurisdiction over this Appeal and correct the legal wrongs complained of herein. In fact, in Newsome's Motion to Strike Plaintiff's Motion for Protective/Restraining Order Against Defendant Denise V. Newsome; Request for Rule 11 Sanctions; and Memorandum in Support (Jury Trial Demanded in this Action) – See EXHIBIT "67" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto. She addresses just how evil and wicked Plaintiff Stor-All and its counsel/representatives are:

No there are laws to address the work of evil and malicious acts as Stor-All and its counsel/representatives. Said laws being designed to expose and rid the world of the work of the evil and malicious discriminatory practices that Stor-All and its counsel/representatives seeks to breed through their hatred towards Newsome and members of her class.

> Neff v. Civil Air Patrol, 916 F.Supp. 710 (S.D.Ohio.E.Div., 1996) - . . . designed to rid the world of work of the evil of discrimination because of individual's race. . .
> Salinas v. U.S., 118 S.Ct. 469 (1997) - Conspiracy may exist and be punished whether or not substantive crime ensues, for conspiracy is distinct evil, dangerous to public, and so punishable in itself.

See Page 5 at Paragraph 11. Clearly there are court decisions to support the characterization of Plaintiff Stor-All and their counsel/representatives is appropriate. Moreover, that because Judges/Justices and Government Agencies/Officials may have engaged in CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome, as in the handling of this matter, on or about September 9/10, 2009, Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel/representatives and Judge West, Judge Allen and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators moved SWIFTLY to subject Newsome to further crimes for purposes of covering up PUBLIC CORRUPTION involving Government Officials. At least Newsome's allegations can be sustained by facts, EVIDENCE and legal conclusions. Furthermore, prior decision(s) by the United States Supreme Court will support that such failure to prosecute and handle Newsome's legal claims in the accordance with the laws governing said matters, will further encourage and allow such CAREER CRIMINALS as Plaintiff Stor-All, its attorneys (Meranus, Lively, Vance, Healy, Decker, etc.), its representatives (i.e. Liberty Mutual, etc.) and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators to go on and spread and subject/impose such RACIAL bias, RACIAL injustices, DISCRIMINATORY and PREJUDICIAL practices on other citizens.

> U.S. v. Jimenez Recio, 123 S.Ct. 819 (2003) - Essence of a conspiracy is an agreement to commit an unlawful act.
> Agreement to commit an unlawful act, which constitutes the essence of a conspiracy, is a distinct evil that may exist and be punished whether or not the substantive crime ensues. Id.
> Conspiracy poses a threat to the public over and above the threat of the commission of the relevant substantive crime, both because the combination in crime makes more likely the commission of other crimes and because it decreases the probability that the individuals involved will depart from their path of criminality. Id.

60) The record evidence will support that while there is no offense intended; however, Stor-All's MFPRO[83] is merely an underhanded effort to paint African-Americans as those who are hostile, full of hate, revenge, rage, etc. To the contrary. Newsome harbors no ill will and would commit no such criminal acts asserted by Stor-All and its counsel. Newsome is in a very good position in this lawsuit- in that Stor-All has waived its rights to file an Answer and/or responsive pleading or Rule 12 motion - and even if she was not, no such criminal acts asserted by Stor-All against her in its MFPRO would be committed. It is a known fact that such unlawful practices as Stor-All, its counsel, its representatives, etc. in contacting Newsome's employer to get her terminated is a common practice by certain whites to keep African-Americans oppressed. Moreover, acts and characteristics of SUPREMACIST and TERRORIST groups. It was Stor-All who brought this instant lawsuit and, therefore, as a matter of law, Newsome was entitled to file a counterclaim. To Stor-All's disappointment and not taking the Carl Brandon route, Newsome has brought this matter to the lower court to allow a JURY (i.e. not Judge West) to decide the matter. Moreover, Stor-All and its counsel/representatives are aware that rather than taking such matters into her own hand, Newsome has brough such unlawful acts of Stor-All and others to the proper agency's attention to address such criminal/civil wrongs. No the lower court records will sustain, being the Christian that she is, Newsome believes in relying upon the laws to decide this matter – what would be the purpose of claiming to be a Christian and then stooping to the level in which Stor-All and its counsel/representatives were trying to take her. Both the laws of the United States as well as that set out in books (i.e. issued by KING James) advise Newsome on how she is to proceed against such CAREER CRIMINALS as Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel/representatives, Judge West and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators. No when one is on the housetop he/she does not need to come down:

> (8) But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;
>
> (9) Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murders of mothers, for manslayers.
> (12) Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you;

[83] Abbreviation for "Motion For Protective/Restraining Order."

(13) But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

(15) But let none of you suffer as a murder, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

(16) Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

It is apparent the laws have been put in place for such as Stor-All, its counsel and representatives; therefore, Newsome is exercising her rights under the governing statutes/laws. It is Stor-All and its counsel/representatives who have engaged in criminal acts, stalking Newsome from job-to-job, contacting her employer to get her terminated, etc. Such evil deeds which are being rewarded with them falling into the traps they set for Newsome – in which Newsome is now allowed to recover from damages/liability. Oh what a tiny web one weaves when he/she practice to deceive.

Psalm 141:
(9) Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

(10) Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape.

Psalm 35:
(7) For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

(8) Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he had hid catch himself; into that very destruction let him fall.

See Pages 5 through 6 at Paragraph 12. Clearly the record evidence will support just how far Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel/representatives, Judge West and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators have gone to lay traps and force Newsome into committing criminal acts; however, instead, they became ensnared and resorted to of a LIFE and PATTERN of criminal practices.

61) The record evidence will further support the role Plaintiff Stor-All and its counsel/representatives played in getting Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping terminated. Moreover, the PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interest in having Judge West dismiss this lawsuit on October 22, 2010, for purposes of providing them with a defense to further lawsuits which they know are inevitable.[84]

[84] Haddle v. Garrison, 119 S.Ct. 489 (1998) - [n.1] At-will employee who alleged that his employer and two of its officers conspired to terminate him in retaliation for obeying federal grand jury subpoena and to deter him from testifying at federal criminal trial was "injured in his person or property" and, thus, could state claim for damages under civil rights statute prohibiting conspiracies to intimidate or retaliate against witnesses in federal court proceedings, though employee had no constitutionally protected interest in continued employment. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1985(2, 3).

Section 1985(2), in relevant part, proscribes conspiracies to "deter, by force, intimidation, or threat, any party or witness in any court of the United States from attending such court, or from testifying to any matter pending therein, freely, fully, and truthfully, or to injure such party or witness in his person or property on account of his having so attended or testified." [FN1] The statute provides that *if one *125 or more persons engaged in such a conspiracy "do, or cause to be done, any act in furtherance of the object of such conspiracy, whereby another is injured in his person or property, ... the party so injured ... may have an action for the recovery of damages occasioned by such injury ... against any one or more of the conspirators." § 1985(3).[FN2]

> FN1. Section 1985(2) proscribes the following conspiracies: "If two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire to deter, by force, intimidation, or threat, any party or witness in any court of the United States from attending such court, or from testifying to any matter pending therein, freely, fully, and truthfully, or to injure such party or witness in his person or property on account of his having so attended or testified, or to influence the verdict, presentment, or indictment of any grand or petit juror in any such court, or to injure such juror in his person or property on account of any verdict, presentment, or indictment lawfully assented to by him, or of his being or having been such juror; or if two or more persons conspire for the purpose of impeding, hindering, obstructing, or defeating, in any manner, the due course of justice in any State or Territory, with intent to deny to any citizen the equal protection of the laws, or to injure him or his property for lawfully enforcing, or attempting to enforce, the right of any person, or class of persons, to the equal protection of the laws."
> FN2. Section 1985(3) contains the remedial provision granting a cause of action for damages to those harmed by any of the conspiracies prohibited in § 1985. See Kush v. Rutledge, 460 U.S. 719, 724-725, 103 S.Ct. 1483, 75 L.Ed.2d 413 (1983) (listing the various conspiracies that § 1985 prohibits).

[n.3] Fact that employment at will is not "property" for purposes of the Due Process Clause does not mean that loss of at-will employment may not injure employee in his person or property for purposes of stating claim for damages under civil rights statute prohibiting conspiracies to intimidate or retaliate against witnesses in federal court proceedings. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14; 42 U.S.C.A. § 1985(2, 3).

[n.4] Harm occasioned by third-party interference with at-will employment relationship may give rise to claim for damages under civil rights statute prohibiting conspiracies to intimidate or retaliate against witnesses in federal court proceedings. 42 U.S.C.A. § 1985(2, 3).

> [4] We hold that the sort of harm alleged by petitioner here-essentially third-party interference with at-will employment relationships-states a claim for relief under § 1985(2). Such harm has long been a compensable injury under tort law, and we see no reason to ignore this tradition in this case. As Thomas Cooley recognized:
> > "One who maliciously and without justifiable cause, induces an employer to discharge an employee, by means of false statements, threats or putting in fear, or perhaps by means of malevolent advice and persuasion, is liable in an action of tort to the employee for the damages thereby sustained. And it makes no difference whether the employment was for a fixed term not yet expired or is terminable at the will of the employer*." 2 Law of Torts 589-591 (3d ed.1906) (emphasis added).

This Court also recognized in Truax v. Raich, 239 U.S. 33, 36 S.Ct. 7, 60 L.Ed. 131 (1915):

"The fact that the employment is at the will of the parties, respectively, does not make it one at the will of others. The employee has manifest interest in the freedom of the employer to exercise his judgment without illegal interference or compulsion and, by the weight of authority, the unjustified interference of third persons* is actionable although the employment is at will." Id., at 38, 36 S.Ct. 7 (citing cases).

62) Newsome believes that this instant action will support how it evolved from the ONGOING conspiracy leveled against her and the CRIMINAL STALKING, harassment and discriminatory/prejudicial practices leveled against her because of her race and/or the color of her skin as well as her exercising PROTECTED rights secured/guaranteed under United States Constitution and other laws.

63) *Information which is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE importance because when courts allow CRIMINAL STALKING as that addressed by Newsome to

The kind of interference with at-will employment relations alleged here is merely a species of the traditional torts of intentional interference with contractual relations and intentional interference with prospective contractual relations. See Restatement (Second) of Torts § 766, Comment*127 g, pp. 10-11 (1977); see also id., § 766B, Comment c, at 22. This protection against third-party interference with at-will employment relations is still afforded by state law today. See W. Keeton, D. Dobbs, R. Keeton, & D. Owen, Prosser and Keaton on Law of Torts § 129, pp. 995-996, and n. 83 (5th ed.1984) (citing cases). For example, the State of Georgia, where the acts underlying the complaint in this case took place, provides a cause of action against third parties for wrongful interference with employment relations*. See Georgia Power Co. v. Busbin, 242 Ga. 612, 613, 250 S.E.2d 442, 444 (1978) ("[E]ven though a person's employment contract is at will, he has a valuable contract right which may not be unlawfully interfered with by a third person"); see also Troy v. Interfinancial, Inc., 171 Ga.App. 763, 766-769, 320 S.E.2d 872, 877-879 (1984) (directed verdict inappropriate against defendant who procured plaintiff's termination for failure to lie at a deposition hearing)...Thus, to the extent that the terms "injured in his person or property" in § 1985 refer to principles of tort law, see 3 W. Blackstone, Commentaries on 493 the Laws of England 118 (1768) (describing the universe of common-law torts as "all private wrongs*, or civil injuries, which may be offered to the rights of either a man's person or his property"), we find ample support for our holding that the harm occasioned by the conspiracy here may give rise to a claim for damages under § 1985(2). . . .

At-will employee brought action against his employer and two of its officers for alleged violation of civil rights conspiracy statute, claiming that employer and officers conspired to have him fired from his job in retaliation for obeying federal grand jury subpoena and to deter him from testifying at federal criminal trial. The United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia granted defendants' motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim. On appeal, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit affirmed. After granting certiorari, the Supreme Court, Chief Justice Rehnquist, held that employee was "injured in his person or property" and, thus, could state claim for damages under civil rights conspiracy statute.

Held: The sort of the harm alleged by petitioner-essentially third-party interference with at-will employment relationships-states a claim for damages under § 1985(2). 490 In relevant part, the statute proscribes conspiracies to "deter, by force, intimidation, or threat, any ... witness in any [federal] court ... from attending such court, or from testifying to any matter pending therein, ... or to injure [him] in his person or property on account of his having so attended or testified," § 1985(2), and provides that if conspirators "do ... any act in furtherance of ... such conspiracy, whereby another is injured in his person or property, ... the party so injured ... may" recover damages, § 1985(3). The Eleventh Circuit erred in concluding that petitioner must suffer an injury to a "constitutionally protected property interest" to state a claim. Nothing in the language or purpose of the proscriptions in the first clause of § 1985(2), nor in its attendant remedial provisions, establishes such a requirement. The gist of the wrong at which § 1985(2) is directed is not deprivation of property, but intimidation or retaliation against witnesses in federal-court proceedings. The terms "injured in his person or property" define the harm that the victim may suffer as a result of the conspiracy to intimidate or retaliate. Thus, the fact that employment at will is not "property" for purposes of the Due Process Clause, see Bishop v. Wood, 426 U.S. 341, 345-347, 96 S.Ct. 2074, 48 L.Ed.2d 684, does not mean that loss of at-will employment may not "injur[e] [petitioner] in his person or property" for § 1985(2)'s purposes. Such harm has long been, and remains, a compensable injury under tort law, and there is no reason to *122 ignore this tradition here. To the extent that the terms "injured in his person or property" refer to such tort principles, there is ample support for the Court's holding. Pp. 491-493. See EXHIBIT "122" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

XII. CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATION(S)[85]

Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that EXTREME and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances exist. Moreover, that as early as July 14, 2008, Newsome submitted for filing her Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Findings (See EXHIBIT "38" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein); however, to date has not received anything regarding the status of said filing. Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of the United States Legislature's/Congress' FAILURE to prosecute and/or report crimes/civil wrongs reported, those engaging in CONSPIRACIES proceeded to ESCALATE their attacks on Newsome. Furthermore, the record evidence will support that the MAJOR Conspirators (i.e Baker Donelson and Liberty Mutual) have DEEP ROOTS in Government Agencies charged with handling the Complaints/Charges filed by Newsome. See EXHIBITS "59," "22," "80" and "35" respectively, attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. In further support thereof, Newsome states:

[85] Watkins v. U.S., 77 S.Ct. 1173 (1957) - Power of Congress to conduct investigations is inherent in the legislative process, and is broad.

Congressional power of investigation is not unlimited and there is no general authority to expose the private affairs of individuals without justification in terms of the functions of Congress. Id.

It is duty of all citizens to co-operate with Congress in efforts to obtain facts needed for intelligent legislative action, to respond to subpoenas, to respect the dignity of Congress and its committees, and to testify fully with respect to matters within province of proper investigation, assuming that constitutional rights of witnesses will be respected by Congress as they are in a court of justice. Id.

Eastland v. U. S. Servicemen's Fund, 95 S.Ct. 1813 (1975) - Although the power of Congress to investigate is as penetrating and far-reaching as the potential power to enact and appropriate under the Constitution, Congress is not vested with a general power to inquire into private affairs and the subject of any inquiry always must be one on which legislation could be had. U.S.C.A.Const. art. 1, § 6, cl. 1; Amend. 1.

Watkins v. U.S., 77 S.Ct. 1173 (1957) - [n.2] Power of Congress to conduct investigations is inherent in the legislative process, and is broad.

[n.5] In conducting investigation, Congress is not a law enforcement or trial agency and no inquiry is an end in itself, but it must be related to and in furtherance of a legitimate task of Congress.

> [2][5]We start with several basic premises on which there is general agreement. The power of the Congress to conduct investigations is inherent in the legislative process. That power is broad. It encompasses inquiries concerning the administration of existing laws as well as proposed or possibly needed statutes. It includes surveys of defects in our social, economic or political system for the purpose of enabling the Congress to remedy them. It comprehends probes into departments of the Federal Government to expose corruption, inefficiency or waste. But, broad as is this power of inquiry, it is not unlimited. There is no general authority to expose the private affairs of individuals without justification in terms of the functions of the Congress. This was freely conceded by the Solicitor General in his argument of this case. [FN8] Nor is the Congress a law enforcement or trial agency. These are functions of the executive and judicial departments of government. No inquiry is an end in itself; it must be related to, and in furtherance of, a legitimate task of the Congress. Investigations conducted solely for the personal aggrandizement of the investigators or to 'punish' those investigated are indefensible.
> > FN8. 'Now, we don't claim on behalf of the Government that there is any right to expose for the purposes of exposure. And I don't know that Congress has ever claimed any such right. But we do say, in the same breath, that there is a right to inform the public at the same time you inform the Congress.'

64) Newsome believes that Certiorari action is of National/Worldwide importance because President Obama advised that he wanted his Presidency and/or Administration to be one of TRANSPARANCY and/or open to the PUBLIC. Therefore, the granting of the Certiorari relief Newsome will seek, will do just that. Moreover, EXPOSE the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE involving the Racial Injustices and Discriminatory/Prejudicial practices of those in whom President Obama relies upon for counsel/advice which has deprived Newsome as well as other citizens of EQUAL protection of the laws, DUE PROCESS of laws, life, liberties and the pursuit of happiness that are secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution.

How early were President Obama and the United States Legislature/Congress made aware of such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST practices? As early as July/August 2008. See EXHIBIT "38" – Emergency Complaint. Newsome following up with President Obama (i.e. then Senator Obama) on or about November 12 and 14, 2009 – See EXHIBIT "68" (Letters ONLY with supporting RECEIPT confirmations) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

65) The record evidence will support that Newsome has followed many avenues and filed numerous complaints and charges in pursuit of happiness, life and liberties. Moreover, has contacted the proper government officials – i.e. United States President, Governor, United States Senate, United States House of Representatives – to no avail. The record evidence will support that Baker Donelson has cornered the market and LOBBYIST on behalf of its clients and are willing to violate the laws no matter what it costs. The record evidence will support, for instance, in the Mississippi matter, Newsome contacted Senator Thad Cochran who advised her on or about June 1, 2006:

> This appears to be a private, legal matter. However, in an effort to be of assistance, I have contacted the proper Office of the Attorney General officials on your behalf. As soon as I receive a report from them, I will get back in touch with you.

See EXHIBIT "69" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. However, upon research Newsome found information wherein a reasonable person/mind may conclude he is one of the Senators purchased by Baker Donelson and its BIG MONEY interest groups – i.e. insurance companies, private/public corporations, etc. See EXHIBITS "69" and "18". Also see EXHIBIT "59" which contains the following information:

66) The record evidence will further support that one of Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider's (Liberty Mutual) counsel on record for another legal action involving Newsome, provides information on the INTERNET of how their special services in "White Collar Crime and Government Investigations" would be beneficial and experience in "STATE law enforcement, heavily-regulated litigation, civil lawsuits and criminal prosecution." Again, when there are foxes (i.e. like Bradley S. Clanton – SHAREHOLDER and attorney for Baker Donelson) placed in CRITICAL positions to handle Complaints and Charges as those filed by Newsome, clearly the smoking gun and others have been found/exposed:

> White Collar Crime and Government Investigations: . . . few corporations can safely assume that their operations and employees are immune from government investigations and even prosecution. . . the very existence of such probes can do substantial damage. When the stakes are highest, corporations and individuals need lawyers versed in the unique challenges of such cases.
> When the unthinkable happens, businesses and executives need a law firm that moves quickly to answer and defend against charges of illegal behavior. Attorneys in the White Collar Crime Group limit client exposure in government and internal investigations of employee wrongdoing, and defend companies and executives in parallel proceedings involving agency litigation, civil lawsuits and criminal prosecution.

> Relying upon attorneys with backgrounds in state law enforcement, heavily-regulated industries, DOJ, FBI. . . and various agencies, this Group assists clients in responding. . .handle appeals and fight threats of suspension, debarment and exclusion. . .

See EXHIBIT "70" – Baker Donelson's "White Collar Crime and Government Investigations" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

XIII. PROHIBITION/MANDAMUS ACTION(S)

Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the record evidence supports that prior to bringing this Appeal she EXHAUSTED avenue in which to address the judicial abuses, usurpation of judicial power, etc. of Judge Nadine Allen – i.e. a Judge who clearly LACKED Jurisdiction to act. Nevertheless, keeping to TRUE FORM and PATTERN-OF-PRACTICES supporting Conspiracies leveled against Newsome, she proceeded even with knowledge that jurisdiction was lacking:

> Schlagenhauf v. Holder, 85 S.Ct. 234 (U.S.Ind.,1964) - The writ of mandamus is appropriately issued when there is usurpation of judicial power or a clear abuse of discretion.
> Commonwealth of Virginia v. Rives, 100 U.S. 313 (1879) - Mandamus may be used to restrain inferior courts to keep them within their lawful bounds.
>
> Ex parte Bradley, 74 U.S. 364 (1868) - Mandamus issues to judges of any inferior court commanding them to do justice according to powers of their office whenever the same is delayed.

In further support thereof, Newsome states:

67) The record evidence, facts and legal conclusions will sustain that Newsome has REPEATEDLY followed the laws and brought the applicable Mandamus and/or Prohibition actions. To no avail.

68) This instant action involves a COMPLICATED matter in which the Ohio Supreme Court has proven that it is INCAPABLE of handling issues raised by Newsome. Moreover, its INABILITY to remain impartial due to the FINANCIAL/PERSONAL interests of the Justices of said court because the Insurance Carrier (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and/or its attorneys/lawyers/law firms are BIG FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTORS of at least 86% of the justices. See EXHIBIT "54" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

69) The Certiorari action that Newsome will bring CANNOT be determined without her addressing the PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs and/or ABUSE-OF-PRACTICES, USURPATION OF POWER, CONSPIRACY, etc. out of which the lower court lawsuit arose and this instant Appeal action is birthed. This is a matter of EXECPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances that is beyond comprehension as to why Newsome has been targeted for no other reasons for RACIAL bias and RACIAL injustices. Further supporting this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

70) The Certiorari action Newsome desires to bring will also address and confirm the longstanding-beliefs of many African-Americans and/or people of color regarding the RACIAL INJUSTICES as well as how the United States Constitution is REPEATEDLY violated and that when African-Americans and/or people of color are involved, the laws are NOT *EQUALLY applied. Furthermore, will support how BIG MONEY has repeatedly been used to BUY/PURCHASE decision as a means of bribery, extortion, coercion, blackmail, to obtain favorable rulings that are clearly contrary to statutes/laws governing said matters.

71) Newsome believes that the Certiorari matter she will bring before this Court is of NATIONAL and HOMELAND SECURITY importance in that the evidence provided herein as well as to be provided in Certiorari will support the DOOM, DESPAIR and HOPELESSNESS that citizens such as:

a. Omar Thornton[86] – i.e. Hartford Distributors Shooter (See EXHIBIT "71") attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

[86] ". . . Some people don't want to discuss racism as being a form of violence because it would reveal that they themselves are in fact extremely violent and in denial about it. . .

Hartford Distributors may have used racism and gradually managed to kill Omar Thornton mentally and emotionally before the killing spree via attrition. . ."

"Thornton seethed with a sense of racial injustice for years that culminated in a shooting rampage. . .

'You probably want to know the reason why I shot this place up.' Thornton said in a recording released Thursday. 'This place is a racist place. They're treating me bad over here. And treat all other black employees bad over here, too. So I took it to my own hands and handled the problem. I wish I could have got more of the people. . .

b. Carl Brandon - i.e. Port Gibson, Mississippi Shooting (See EXHIBIT "72") attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

c. Andrew Joseph Stack III – i.e. Austin, Texas (flew plan into IRS Building) See EXHIBIT "73" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

may have felt when they resorted to the criminal acts carried out by each of them. Furthermore, will support how such unlawful/illegal practices as those administered by President Obama, his Administration, his counselors/advisors and others are used to drive and/or BULLY citizens to commit such crimes by stripping them of their livelihood; moreover, life, liberties and the pursuit of happiness – i.e. rights secured under the United States Constitution.

72) There are no excuses for the acts of Thornton, Brandon Stack, etc. Men apparently felt they were pushed to such extremes through the acts of others and/or no fault of their own and believed that, the only way out, was to take the law into their own hand and render SWIFT justice.

73) Newsome believes that Thornton, Brandon and Stack may have been driven to such crimes because unlike her, they knew that there were those who sought to destroy their lives; however, when reporting such matters, said reports fell on deaf ears. Unlike Newsome these men probably did not have the evidence to support their claims although they knew that there were those who sought to deprive them the pursuit of happiness, life and liberties. In Newsome's situation CONSPIRATORS (Plaintiff Stor-All) and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators (Liberty Mutual, its attorneys and other government officials) have engaged in the following for purposes of destroying her life, depriving her of liberties and pursuit of happiness so that it could obtain an UNDUE and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit filed against her:

Hartford Distributors president Ross Holland said there was no record to support claims of 'racial insensitivity' made through the company's anti-harassment policy, the union grievance process or state and federal agencies. Relatives of the victims also rejected the claims . . .

'I'm sick of having to quit jobs and get another job because they can't accept me'. . .

'He was such a caring person,'. . . 'He showed me so much love. He was like a teddy bear.'

'He just didn't understand why people had so much hatred in their lives, . . .'

he showed her cell phone photos of racist graffiti in the bathroom at the beer company and overheard a company official using a racial epithet in reference to him, but a union representative did not return his phone calls. Police said they recovered the phone and forensics experts would examine it.

'Nothing else bothered him except these comments he would make about them doing the racial things to him,. . .' "

a) Criminal/Civil wrongs in contacting Newsome's employer (Wood & Lamping) to obtain termination of her employment – in which they were successful in accomplishing;

b) Obtaining FRIVOLOUS and UNLAWF/ILLEGAL rulings for purposes to covering up the criminal acts reported in Newsome's September 24, 2009 FBI Criminal Complaint;

c) Unlawful/Illegal seizure and/or EMBEZZLEMENT of her 2009 Federal Income Tax Return by the United States Department of Treasury – i.e. research yielding relationship between Secretary for the Department of Treasury (Timothy Geithner) and that of Liberty Mutual (insurance provider for Plaintiff Stor-All) and their counsel/attorneys (Baker Donelson) – See EXHIBIT "79" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The PUBLIC/WORLD needs to know who actually is RUNNING THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. Geithner having been selected for this position by United States President Barack Obama. Geithner who during the time approached by President Obama for this position appears to owe approximate $140,000 in back taxes. Nevertheless, he was confirmed. Geithner's other friend (Thomas Daschle) that President Obama for the position for Secretary of the Health and Human Services Department, is the husband of one of Baker Donelson's TOP and/or PROMINENT LOBBYIST (Linda Daschle).[87]

d) Theft and EMBEZZLEMENT of her monies. Engaging bank(s) in which Newsome conducts business to engage in such CONSPIRACIES and allow the unlawful/illegal seizure of her monies – See EXHIBIT "27" attached hereto. Banks failing to determine whether or not prior to allowing actions, whether legal procedures (i.e. notification to Newsome/citizens) were followed. In Newsome's case, legal procedures and/or prerequisites for taking said actions (if lawful, which they were not) were adhered to. In fact, the [87] "Daschle withdrew his name from consideration as Barack Obama's nominee for secretary of the Health and Human Services Department after he revealed that he owed until recently $140,000 in back taxes. . . Obama had asked Daschle to spearhead a massive effort to reform health care in the United States and, as such, head the new White House Office of Health Reform. . .

Daschle spent ten years as leader of the Senate's Democratic Party, but only two as majority leader. A liberal with big ideas for health care and international development, he spent most of his Senate career in the minority fighting against the majority Republicans.

One of his biggest accomplishments in the Senate was keeping his party from convicting President Clinton after the House impeached the former president in December 1998. . .

Daschle's wife, Linda Daschle, who worked . . . under President Clinton, is a prominent lobbyist for Baker Donelson. . ." See EXHIBIT "79."

Kentucky Department of Revenue did KNOWINGLY, WILLINGLY and MALICIOUS altered Kentucky Statute and issued SHAM Legal Process with knowledge that it was committing a crime. In fact, according to the bank's (JP Morgan Chase Bank [a/k/a Chase Bank]) representative (LaTrenda – Supervisor in the Levy Department of Chase Bank at (866) 578-7022)), the Kentucky Department of Revenue and JP Morgan Chase Bank has a relationship and they handle such seizures (i.e. unlawful) all of the time. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest. How many other citizens have been victims of such FRAUDULENT and unlawful/illegal SCAMS of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and Chase Bank? A reasonable person/mind may conclude that Chase Bank is KNOWINGLY and WILLINGLY with MALICIOUS intent allowing such unlawful/illegal seizures/liens on other citizens of the United States based on SHAM/BOGUS document as that created by the Kentucky Department of Revenue to obtain monies from Newsome's account(s). This unlawful/illegal lien/seizure coming approximately four (4) days [i.e. executed on July 17, 2010) prior to the July 21, 2010 hearing that was set before Judge West, then was set for September 28, 2010, and now a DECISION is set to be rendered on or about Friday, October 22, 2010, although Newsome has timely, properly notified Judge West, opposing parties and President Obama that she would be appealing this matter to the United States Supreme Court and OPPOSE Judge West's presiding over lawsuit. See EXHIBIT "8" - "Notification of Intent to File EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari with the United States Supreme Court; Motion to Stay Proceedings – Request for Entry of Final Judgment/Issuance of Mandate as Well as STAY of PROCEEDINGS Should Court Insist on Allowing August 2, 2010 Judgment Entry to Stand" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. From Newsome's research she was also able to find out that attorney involved in the Mississippi Matter (Lawson – i.e. who was employed at PKH when Newsome's employment was terminated upon learning of her engagement in protected activities), has abandoned PKH and is now employed by a law firm by the name of Wyatt Tarrant & Combs – i.e. whose clients is Chase Bank, PNC Bank and Liberty Mutual.

e) For other malicious reasons known to it.

74) In fact, another citizen was beat down by such criminal abuses as that Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) and its attorneys rely upon to destroy a person and to leave them hopeless, that some citizens believe there is no other way out but to take the laws into their own hands and resort to criminal acts as Carl Brandon (See EXHIBIT "72") and others:

> Karl Devine, Brandon's longtime friend, said Brandon never got over the fact that the courts upheld the board's decision to fire him in 1997.
>
> Devine believes the years Brandon spent unsuccessfully trying to clear his name, caused him to finally snap. "Carl, would always talk about it he said 'The one thing that I want, I just want them to clear my name. > "Some time a person try to walk away from a problem, but there are people in this world that want let them do that. This man had left his job and move on, but that was not good enough. They had to call his job and tell them what happened 9 years ago, and got this man fired. I hate that he let the devil take over him at the time, but I do understand . . . I hope we can learn something from this tragedy." – Shelly Jones (Nashville, TN)

He lost his reputation and the respect of some. When he tried to move on some vindictive, vicious persons went to his next job and scandalized him*. He fought through every legal avenue available to him and found* no justice." – Cassandra Cook Butler (AOL)

75) Newsome believes that Certiorari action is of National/Worldwide importance in that it will shed additional light and/or EXPOSURE the NEXUS between this instant legal matter involving Newsome and the recent ATTACK that President Obama and his Administration launched against Shirley Sherrod.

> Shirley Sherrod: White House Forced My Resignation
>
> The Department of Agriculture employee who resigned after a controversy erupted over recent remarks she made is now saying that the White House forced her resignation. . .
>
> Shirley Sherrod, the USDA's former director of rural development in Georgia, said USDA deputy undersecretary Cheryl Cook called her Monday and said the White House wanted her to resign, the Associated Press reports.
> "They called me twice," Sherrod told the AP, noting that she was driving when she received the calls. "The last time they asked me to pull over the side of the road and submit my resignation on my Blackberry, and that's what I did."

Revealing the NEXUS between those who counsel/advise[88] President Obama and the need to BULLY, DESTROY, BEAT DOWN/BREAK DOWN the strong will of African-Americans and/or people of color who are determined to see EQUALITY, equal protection of the laws, due process of laws, civil rights, etc. prevail for all.

76) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that it will support the need to address such SYSTEMATIC racial injustices leveled against African-Americans and/or people of color and the criminal/civil wrongs orchestrated to see that such classes of people NEVER achieve and arise above the OBSTACLES set to keep them in BONDAGE and mentally/physically enslaved. Furthermore, the need to explore why citizens are attacked on their "First Amendment Rights" as Justice Sotomayor – i.e. wherein she came under attack during the "Confirmation Hearings" for the following comment:

> "I would hope that a wise Latina woman with the richness of her experiences would more often than not reach a better conclusion than a white male who hasn't lived that life."

[88] See EXHIBIT "4" – Internet Articles on Shirley Sherrod matter attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

When potential Justices and/or citizens are going to be subjected to such HOSTILE, AGGRESSIVE and BULLYING as that of the United States Senators for such comments and stating the TRUTH, what does that say about "First Amendment Rights" and those who seek to CONTROL and PREVENT the truth of being revealed? This is 2010 *and rather than going forward and progressing, it appears that African-Americans are living in a country *that is being run by those who insist on taking them and the United States back into an era of SLAVERY and OPPRESSION. A reasonable mind may conclude that when a United States Senator (Arlan Specter) is willing to address concerns of the LACK of DIVERSITY on the Judiciary, then, INDEED, something is wrong:

> Specter supported a broader range of experience on the Court and said the future Justice should represent minorities. . . .
> "I'd like to see more diversity," he said. "I think another woman. Ultimately maybe now we need a Hispanic; African Americans are underrepresented. . .
>
> "I'd like to see more diversity," he said. "I think another woman would be good. I think that ultimately maybe now we need an Hispanic. African-Americans are underrepresented."
> Specter also said that he could envision, and could support, someone who was not a lawyer for the opening seat, acknowledging that there is no Constitutional requirement that a Supreme Court Justice be an attorney.. . .

See EXHIBIT "74" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. In light of the facts, evidence and legal conclusions sustained herein, Newsome believes a reasonable mind may conclude that CONSPIRACY to COVER-UP criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her as well as deprive her EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws will sustain the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances supporting this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

77) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted because as with her, she believes a reasonable mind may conclude that such attacks leveled against Justice Sotomayor during her "Confirmation Hearing" for such remark as, "I would hope that a wise Latina woman with the richness of her experiences would more often than not reach a better conclusion than a white male who hasn't lived that life" was handled in a manner to place her in FEAR of not getting the job as well as a SUBLIMINAL message-of-control used by the United States Senators conducting such hearings to COVER-UP known RACISM and RACIAL INJUSTICES in the United States. In fact, it appears as with Newsome, there were others who saw such "Confirmation Hearing" used to attempt to get one to DENY their beliefs and to separate himself/herself from their race and/or ethnicity which defines them and/or have made them the person he/she is – see EXHIBIT "75" which states in part:

> As we saw in the confirmation hearings, Sotomayor's ethnicity, gender, heritage, public service, judicial philosophy came under fire and Sotomayor while demonstrating intellectual acumen and an impressive cool, did, in fact, distance herself from the very details that define herself*.*

Furthermore, such attacks as those leveled against Justice Sotomayor appeared to have been conducted to FORCE her to abandon the promise made to President Obama wherein the following was requested and confirmed:

> But my attention lingers on the two promises Obama asked Sotomayor to keep:
>
> > "The first was to remain the person I was, and the second was to stay connected to my community," she said. "And I said to him that those were two easy promises to make, because those two things I could not change." . . .
> > Sotomayor's elevation to the high court should inspire the many she is said to represent –women, Latinas/non-whites– and the nation that has presumably been enriched by the social advancement that her confirmation heralded, to embrace the challenges that were left in the wake of "progress."

see EXHIBIT "75" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome believes considering the facts and evidence contained herein as well as recent attacks on her life and wellbeing, a reasonable min may conclude that President Obama may have realized that he has allowed himself to be PURCHASED by BIG MONEY/SPECIAL INTERESTS and SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups that required/demanded that he abandon who he is and his race to be successful in becoming the President of the United States as well as the need to DISCONNECT himself from his community and RACIAL bias and RACIAL INJUSTICES leveled against African-Americans and/or people of color. President Obama becoming the person that his TOP/KEY Financial Supporters and Contributors (i.e. Baker Donelson, Liberty Mutual, etc.) have clearly shaped and molded him into – losing touch with himself and his community.

Newsome's experience has shown that the attacks on her life, liberties and pursuit of happiness are RACIALLY motivated and have been done to BREAK her DOWN and to BEAT her into SUBMISSION and ABANDONMENT of her heritage/roots as well as the rights to which she is entitled to under the United States Constitution and other statutes/laws governing such matters. Nevertheless, President Obama (it appears) is authorizing, leading, supporting and condoning such attacks leveled on Newsome's and other African-Americans (i.e. such as Shirley Sherrod) in efforts of silencing her as well as get her to ABANDON who she is and to disconnect from her community/heritage/people as he has done.

> Important To Note: As with the attacks on Newsome, so were such practices RECENTLY used on Shirley Sherrod and PUBLICLY put on the INTERNET (i.e. via YouTube). Newsome believes that these are such DISCRIMINATORY and RACIST measures SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups (i.e. as Liberty Mutual and Baker Donelson) resort to when they want to destroy African-Americans and/or people of color that are seen as STRONG and PASSIONATE about Civil Rights and EQUALITY for all regardless of the color of their skin.

78) Newsome believes Certiorari action is of National/Worldwide importance in that it will EXPOSE the ELABORATE techniques and criminal techniques - used by those who provide the President of the United States with counsel/advice – SYSTEMATICALLY used for purposes of destroying the livelihood and liberties of African-Americans and/or people of color. Moreover, to MENTALLY and PHYSICALLY beat those African-Americans and/or people of color into SUBMISSION/ACCEPTANCE of slavery practices who oppose and/or speak out against Constitutional/Civil Rights violations. Said practices/tactics that were OUTLAWED decades ago.

79) Newsome believes that the recent HARASSMENT and VICIOUS attacks in the unlawful/illegal EMBEZZLEMENT of her 2009 Federal Income Tax Refund by the United States Department of Treasury (i.e. on behalf of the Department of Education) that is headed by Timothy Geithner – i.e. who, based on information retrieved from the INTERNET was confirmed owing approximately $43,000 in BACK TAXES – is another example of how the United States Government abuses its authority and FAILS to comply with the statutes/laws governing matters. Moreover, unlawfully/illegally embezzling monies owed Newsome in efforts of providing Baker Donelson's (i.e. whose attorney [Lamar Alexander] served as Secretary of the United States Department of Education – See EXHIBIT "80" and Paragraph 82 at about Page 205 above) and its client's (Liberty Mutual) with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit by committing such CRIMES for purposes of FINANCIAL devastation and depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws; EQUAL privileges and immunities of the laws; and DUE PROCESS of laws.

Newsome believes that based upon the July 14, 2010 Email as well as other emails released to the PUBLIC/WORLD by her, that a reasonable person/mind may conclude that President Obama/his Administration and other Government Agencies are RETALIATING in to deprive Newsome First Amendment Rights, Constitutional Rights as well as efforts to silence her for speaking out about the RACIAL INJUSTICES and CORRUPTION in the United States Government.

XIV. PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE

While United States law PROHIBITS criminal/civil violations such as CRIMINAL STALKING (i.e. for example, stalking citizens from state-to-state, employer-to-employer and contacting their employers to advise of employee(s) participation in protected activities), the evidence contained herein will support that this did not stop Plaintiff Stor-All in this this instant lawsuit, its attorneys, insurance provider and/or opposing parties from engaging in such crimes. In fact, the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions will support this instant Appeal is birthed from a malicious lawsuit filed against Newsome because of Plaintiff Stor-All's knowledge of her engagement in protected activities and that Stor-All did not file its lawsuit against Newsome until it was successful in getting her employment with Wood & Lamping terminated.

To understand the EVOLVEMENT of the Certiorari to be brought, the following facts are PERTINENT and/or CRITICAL for purposes of understanding and seeing the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE, PATTERN-OF-ABUSE, PATTERN-OF-JUDICIAL ABUSE, PATTERN-OF-USURPATION OF POWER/AUTHORITY, *PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL/CIVIL WRONGS, etc. Furthermore, to understand the EVOLVEMENT of the Certiorari action to be brought, it is important for Newsome to establish a NEXUS and/or the RELATIONSHIP between the legal matters addressed herein and how it now involves the lawsuit in which this Certiorari action arises. Therefore, it is IMPORTANT to note the KEY/MAJOR culprits/conspirators who may also be the SUPREMACIST and TERRORIST groups (i.e. from information/evidence obtained) in the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and other citizens:

a) Liberty Mutual Insurance Company who claims to be:

> . . .the 5th *largest P&C insurance company in the United States, why we've earned an A.M. Best Co. 'A' (Excellent) rating, and why we have the breadth, depth and financial strength *that you can always depend on - in the United States and around the world.

See EXHIBIT "76" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. It appears Liberty Mutual is the insurance provider for Plaintiff (Stor-All) in the Ohio lower case actions in Cincinnati, Ohio out of which this instant action arises. It appears that Liberty Mutual may also be the insurance provider for Defendant (Entergy Services Inc./Entergy New Orleans, Inc.) in the Louisiana matter involving Newsome. It also appears that Liberty Mutual is the insurance provider for the Defendants (Dial Equities, Inc/Melody Crews – in Spring Lake Apartments matter) in the Jackson, Mississippi involving Newsome.

Baker Donelson is the law firm that stepped in to represent Entergy Services, Inc./Entergy New Orleans Inc. in Louisiana legal matters involving Newsome after Entergy's in-house counsel abandoned it – being the "Go-To Law Firm" as mentioned in the above list (see EXHIBIT "78" – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein) and supported by its entering the New Orleans lawsuit replacing Entergy's In-House counsel – See EXHIBIT "33."

Important To Note: This is a law firm which also has an office in Jackson, Mississippi – however, Newsome believes that the reason why it did not enter an appearance to represent in Mississippi matter is because it knew and/or may have known that Newsome would have readily made the connection with the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her out of which lawsuit arose as well as the reasons for her unlawful/illegal termination of her employment to which Baker Donelson/Liberty Mutual remained behind the scenes directing and/or orchestrating criminal/civil wrongs[90] – i.e. supporting documentation to sustain engagement in CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome. Newsome believes that a reasonable mind from the evidence presented herein and/or to be presented in Certiorari will further support the role this law firm as well as its client (Liberty Mutual) and others played in the unlawful/illegal terminations of her employment in Louisiana, Mississippi and Ohio. Moreover, the NEXUS ties to government officials, court officials and others involving criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome. Furthermore, the role it is playing in the RECENT attacks leveled against Newsome.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This is a law firm which also has an office in Washington, DC as well as DEEP ROOTS and TIES in POLITICS and GOVERNMENT (i.e. United States White House, United States Senate, United States House of Representatives, Governorships, etc.) – See for example information provided at Paragraph 28(h)/Page 44 of this instant pleading.

[90] See No. __ of this pleading – i.e. definition for TERRORIST CELL.

To support that Newsome has timely, properly and adequately brought the required legal actions to address the CONSPIRACY, CRIMINAL STALKING, HARASSMENT, THREATS, INTIMIDATION, DISCRIMINATORY/PREJUICIAL practices leveled against her as well as other citizens (i.e. which clearly affect the PUBLIC-AT-LARGE) to the proper authorities, she provides the following documentation (BRIEF Only – Government Agencies/Courts' record contain the supporting Exhibits if referenced in pleading/document):

A. ENTERGY SERVICES INC./ENTERGY NEW ORLEANS MATTER

This is a matter which was REALLOTTED to Judge G. Thomas Porteous ("Judge Porteous"). Judge Porteous may presently be before Congress for IMPEACHMENT purposes.[91] When the case was filed, it was assigned to Judge Morey L. Sear. Judge Sear failed to advise Newsome of any CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST with his presiding over lawsuit. Judge Sear abandoning case AFTER Newsome's success on appeal challenging his decision as to whether or not she was entitle to legal representation. See EXHIBIT "33" – Docket Sheet and EXHIBIT "32"- Fifth Circuit Ruling regarding appointment of counsel (EMPHASIS ADDED).

[91] • Involvement in a corrupt kickback scheme

- Failure to recuse himself from a case he was involved in
- Allegations that Porteous made false and misleading statements, including concealing debts and gambling losses
- Allegations that Porteous asked for and accepted "numerous things of value, including meals, trips, home and car repairs, *for his personal use and benefi*t" while taking official actions on behalf of his benefactors
- Allegations that Porteous lied about his past to the U.S. Senate and to the FBI about his nomination to the federal bench "in order to conceal corrupt relationships," Schiff said in his floor statement as prepared for delivery

. . .Schiff said. "His long-standing pattern of corrupt activity*, so utterly lacking in honesty and integrity, demonstrates his unfitness to serve as a United States District Court judge . . . "

See EXHIBIT "12" – CNN, FoxNews and Washington Post Articles attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

80) Petitioner's Petition Seeking Intervention/Participation of the United States Department of Justice ("PPSI/POUSDOJ")– This was submitted for filing on or about September 17, 2004, to the attention of the following persons:

Original To:	Office of the Solicitor General c/o Paul D. Clement United States Department of Justice 950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20530-0001
Copy To:	Office of the Assistant Attorney General Civil Rights Division c/o R. Alexander Acosta United States Department of Justice 950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20530

See EXHIBIT "34" – 09/17/04 Petition (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. At the time of said filing, neither the United States Department of Justice, Baker Donelson, nor Liberty Mutual made known to Newsome of any potential CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST. Newsome has recently retrieved information from the Internet which she finds very disturbing (i.e. and believes that a reasonable mind may also find disturbing) in that Baker Donelson thrives on PUBLICLY advertising positions its attorneys hold and/or held with the United States Department of Justice – United States Attorneys. See EXHIBIT "22" attached hereto and/or listing above at Paragraph 28(h)/Page 44 of this instant pleading. However, since going PUBLIC and releasing such information to other citizens, foreign Nations/Leaders, Baker Donelson has SCRUBBED the website from which this information was retrieved. It is a good thing that Newsome retained a hard copy of such evidence to sustain her allegations and issues raised.

Even more disturbing is information Newsome has uncovered to support that Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance provider relies on its relationship with its attorneys (i.e. Baker Donelson) to be sure its law firms have their attorneys in KEY/PROMINATE positions (i.e. which include judges/justice) to SECURE favorable rulings:

> Mr. Clanton, a shareholder in Baker Donelson's Jackson and Washington, D.C. offices, concentrates his practice in government litigation, securities and other fraud investigations, and litigation, election law and appeals. His appellate practice has included matters before the U.S. Supreme Court, U.S. Courts of Appeals, the Mississippi Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, and various other state appellate courts*. His internal investigations and government litigation practice has included matters related to Securities and Exchange Commission investigations, health care fraud investigations, federal campaign finance investigations, and state and federal securities fraud class action litigation and arbitration proceedings. Previously, Mr. Clanton served as Chief Counsel to the U.S. House Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on the Constitution, where his responsibilities included advising the Chairman and Republican Members of the Judiciary Committee on legislation and Congressional oversight implicating civil and constitutional rights, Congressional authority, separation of powers, proposed constitutional amendments and oversight of the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice and the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

The record evidence supports that Newsome as early as the litigation of the Entergy matter as well as filing of the PPSI/POUSDOJ supports/sustains that the proper Government Agencies (i.e. higher courts, Department of Justice, etc.) were timely, properly and adequately notified of Newsome's concerns of Judge Porteous and others role in CONSPIRACY and CORRUPT practices which infringed upon her Constitutional Rights and deprived her EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws as well as other rights secured/guaranteed under the laws of the United States that has been afforded to other citizens. In fact, in PPSI/POUSDOJ, relief sought clearly states at:

Paragraph 131 – Page 51: "that the United States Department of Justice and/or Congress retain jurisdiction of the action sub judice and see that Newsome is provided legal representation/counsel for the duration of this lawsuit;"

Paragraph 134 – Pages 51: "that the United States Department of Justice prepare and submit the applicable pleadings for the disqualification of the following Judge(s)/Magistrate(s):

c. Magistrate Judge Sally Shushan"

Paragraph 135 – Pages 51 thru 52: "that the United States Department of Justice, on behalf of Newsome, file the applicable Criminal lawsuits or actions (if warranted) for Obstructing Justice, conspiracy, fraud, etc. – under the applicable laws governing said violations or the likes – against any or all of the following:

81) While Newsome also appealed this matter to the United States Supreme Court, it was not made known to her that Baker Donelson had attorneys who were holding and/or held positions as:

- Chief of Staff of the Supreme Court of the United States
- Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice of the United States

see EXHIBIT "22" attached hereto as well as the List above at Paragraph 28(h)/Page 44. Therefore, Newsome believes leaving a reasonable mind to conclude that a CONFLICT OF INTEREST may have existed with the Justices of the United States Supreme Court. Information Newsome believes is CRITICAL and PERTINENT; however, was not made known to her but withheld. Nevertheless, Newsome brings this instant matter in that since her last visit the make-up of this Court has changed tremendously. Moreover, Newsome comes with much more experience, evidence and information regarding criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her since her last visit to this Court and present facts and evidence to sustain said allegations. Newsome prays that justice will prevail and the legal wrongs rendered her will be vindicated through this instant filing as well as Certiorari action to be brought.

82) While President Obama made the following statement during his January 27, 2010 State of the Union Address:

> But we can't stop there. It's time to require lobbyists to disclose each contact they make on behalf of a client with my Administration or Congress. And it's time to put strict limits on the contributions that lobbyists give to candidates for federal office. Last week, the Supreme Court reversed a century of law to open the floodgates for special interests – including foreign corporations – to spend without limit in our elections. Well I don't think American elections should be bankrolled by America's most powerful interests*, or worse, by foreign entities*. They should be decided by the American people, and that's why I'm urging Democrats and Republicans to pass a bill that helps to right this wrong.

While President Obama has proven himself to be an ELOQUENT speaker proving speeches "full of hot air and no substance," Newsome believes and believes that a reasonable mind may conclude, that it is time to call President Obama out on such statements and make him (i.e. as well as his Administration and others involved in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome) ACCOUNTABLE for his and/or his Administration's actions.

Newsome found the following information retrieved from the INTERNET regarding Baker Donelson and its SPECIAL/BIG MONEY INTEREST supporting the financial contributions to President Obama and members of those in his Administration and others. See EXHIBIT "24" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

83) In support of this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC Newsome found the following information she believes a reasonable mind as well as the United States Supreme Court may find PERTINENT/CRITICAL to the issues and allegation raised herein as it relates to the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome – bringing the meaning of the cliché "The FOX guarding the Hen House" to light and explaining why Newsome has had so much difficulty in getting JUSTICE and EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws because those in whom she is involved in legal matters are using their TIES/RELATIONSHIP to Government Officials and Agencies for purposes of COVERING UP Conspiracy and influencing decisions Courts, Government Agencies, etc.:

B. OTHER FORMER EMPLOYERS OF NEWSOME

BARIA FYKE HAWKINS STRACENER ("BFH&S");
BRUNINI GRANTHAM GROWER & HEWES ("BGG&H");
MITCHELL MCNUTT & SAMS ("MM&S"); AND

Newsome believes that the information pertaining to employment with these employers is RELEVANT and PERTINENT as it goes to the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her and RETALIATION by these employers based on their knowledge of her engagement in protected activities. Moreover, UNADDRESSED and UNPROSECUTED actions against such employers that engage in DISCRIMINATORY and PREJUDICIAL practices gives rise and FUELS other RACIST employers and/or businesses that harbor RACIAL bias (i.e. as Plaintiff Stor-All in the lower court action) to engage in ONGOING Conspiracies that result in malicious lawsuits as the one Plaintiff Stor-All has brought against Newsome out of which this Appeal arises. Furthermore, information will sustain/support the need for the United States Supreme Court's exercising its ORIGINAL jurisdiction to address the issues contained in this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC as well as the Certiorari action to be brought. Newsome believes that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions contained herein further support the United States Supreme Court retaining jurisdiction and intervention in this matter because of the EXTREME and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances which exist; moreover, without this Court's intervention, SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups (i.e. such as Plaintiff Stor-All, Liberty Mutual and their attorneys/counsel [such as Baker Donelson, Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin and Markesbery & Richardson Co LPA, etc.]

and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators) will continue to engage in criminal/civil wrongs (which are motivated by RACIAL bias) leveled against Newsome as well as other citizens – i.e. matters which are of a PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE concern.

84) BARIA FYKE HAWKINS & STRACENER: This is a law firm Newsome began working for in late 2002. It is a law firm Newsome was employed with while she was involved in a lawsuit against Entergy (USDC-Eastern District of LA, New Orleans; Case No. 2:99-cv-03109). As a matter of law, this case is still pending (while the Docket may show it as closed for purposes of COVERING UP CONSPIRACY) because NO Final Judgment (although Newsome repeatedly requested entry of "final" judgment) has ever been entered in this case. Now with the recent IMPEACHMENT proceedings involving Judge G. Thomas Porteous and admission by attorneys who paid monies for services, it brings to light further evidence of the JUDICIAL Injustice that Newsome has been REPEATELY subjected to.

> As they did earlier before House investigators, the two acknowledged giving Porteous thousands of dollars in cash going back to the 1980s, including about $2,000 stuffed in an envelope in 1999, just before Porteous *decided a major civil case in their client's favor. They also acknowledged taking him on trips such as one to Las Vegas for a bachelor party for the judge's son, at which Creely said he helped pay for an expensive meal, a hotel room and dancing at a strip club.

See EXHIBIT "12" – Articles attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Clearly, further evidence of the courts' blatant disregard for Newsome's rights and refusal to enter the required judgments in compliance with the statutes/laws in which they are governed. Therefore, this is a matter that Newsome also brought before the Legislature/Congress through her Emergency Complaint submitted it.

While employed at BFH&S, Newsome worked with David Baria (Former President of the Mississippi Trial Lawyers Association). Prior to a trip to New Orleans, Louisiana for a conference, Newsome realized that Mr. Baria's behavior and/or attitude towards her had changed. After his return from New Orleans it was more noticeable and his demeanor very agitated, hostile, etc. Newsome believed that prior to and during his trip to New Orleans that Baria may have met with attorneys representing Entergy in a lawsuit she had filed. Baria (with the consensus of the Partners/Shareholders of BFH&S) abruptly terminated Newsome's employment with BFH&S telling her that she did not seem to be happy there, so he was letting Newsome go to do something else. Such a statement which Newsome knew was false and never did she advise him she was not happy there. In fact, the employment agency, which assigned Newsome to BFH&S, advised her of the positive feedback they had received in regards to her job performance and how the firm wanted to extend to Newsome a job. This being a job offer in which Newsome accepted. While Newsome believed that her abrupt termination with BFH&S was due to the fact that she was suing Entergy and was done as a favor for Entergy's attorneys, at the time she had no proof so Newsome merely moved on. However, Newsome believes that based upon the evidence presented herein as well as that obtained through further research into the CONSPIRACY and criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her, a reasonable mind may conclude and sustain the role of BFH&S in the unlawful/illegal actions leveled against her and that Newsome's employment with BFH&S was terminated in RETALIATION because of her engagement in protected activities. Moreover, evidence to sustain the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE regarding the CRIMINAL STALKING of Newsome from job-to-job/employer-to-employer and state-to-state for purposes of depriving her EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws as well as life, liberties and pursuit of happiness – rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution and other laws of the United States.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome's last research on David Baria yielded that he is presently serving as State Senator in the Mississippi Senate. However, based on her observation of him during her employment, she realized how ambitious he is. Concerns because the next seat that Baria may be eyeing is that of the GOVERNOR of the State of Mississippi. Concerns because if Baria is a member and a participant and/or member of such SUPREMACIST and TERRORIST groups that are involved in the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome, then such information is of PUBLIC and WORLDWIDE interest.

See EXHIBIT "81" – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

85) BRUNINI GRANTHAM GROWER & HEWES: After leaving BFH&S an employment agency assigned Newsome to the law firm of Brunini Grantham Grower & Hewes (BGG&H). The people there seemed to be nice and happy that Newsome came to work for them. Newsome being there for only a couple/few days; however, the person Newsome was assigned to work with, Charles L. McBride ("Chuck"), was pleased with her work. Newsome was approached by the Human Resource person and asked if she was interested in the job and that BGG&H was interested in hiring her. Newsome advised that she was interested and accepted. Newsome then had a conversation with Chuck which during that conversation he had mentioned to her the need to run everything (correspondence, etc.) by him before going out because he was aware of a situation where a secretary had inadvertently mailed out legal documents to the opposing side in error. Had he been the attorney on the other side, he would not have opened the document and would have destroyed realizing that it was information that he should not have received. Newsome advised Chuck she understood. Newsome had first-hand knowledge of the situation Chuck was referring to from the additional information he provided. Upon leaving his office and thinking on their conversation, Newsome returned to advise Chuck that she had first-hand knowledge of the situation he brought to her attention because she was the secretary for the other law firm (which was BFH&S) which had received the inadvertent information that was sent to BFH&S and left it at that. Chuck advised Newsome that he would have to check into this; however, it should be okay. However, it was to the contrary. Apparently, upon checking with BFH&S – David Baria – Baria was upset and objected to BGG&H hiring Newsome. As a direct and proximate result of Baria's behavior and his threats to bring legal action against BGG&H if they hired Newsome, it resulted in BGG&H's offer of employment being rescinded.[93] When Newsome discussed this matter with an attorney she had worked with at another firm, she was advised that BGG&H could have taken actions in that lawyers are known to do this (i.e. move to other law firms) all the time. That if there were concerns, all BGG&H needed to do was have her sign an agreement to confidentiality - not only that, Chuck and the case or files in relation to the case in question were not even in the department of BGG&H that Newsome would be working for. Nevertheless, this is what happened. This matter was addressed in Newsome's July 2008 Emergency Complaint filed. See EXHIBIT "38."

[93] Haddle v. Garrison, 119 S.Ct. 489 (1998) [4] We hold that the sort of harm alleged by petitioner here-essentially third-party interference with at-will employment relationships-states a claim for relief under § 1985(2). Such harm has long been a compensable injury under tort law, and we see no reason to ignore this tradition in this case. As Thomas Cooley recognized:

> "One who maliciously and without justifiable cause*, induces an employer to discharge an employee,* by means of false statements*,* threats or putting in fear*, or perhaps by means of* malevolent advice and persuasion, is liable in an action of tort to the employee for the damages thereby sustained. And it makes no difference whether the employment was for a fixed term not yet expired or is terminable at the will of the employer." 2 Law of Torts 589-591 (3d ed.1906) (emphasis added).

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: While BGG&H also contacted a former employer of Newsome (Owens Law Firm – African-American owned) to see if there would be a problem with her working for BGG&H. Owens Law Firm had no problem with Newsome's working with BGG&H. However, one can see how BFH&S (White owned law firm) began to create problems for Newsome.
> Recent research by Newsome regarding BGG&H has also yielded information to revealing that LIBERTY MUTUAL is a client of theirs. Therefore, based on the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein as well as in Emergency Complaint filed, a reasonable mind may conclude that BGG&H's rescinding of employment opportunity may be a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of obtaining knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and actions taken by Liberty Mutual and its attorneys to interfere with employment opportunities to subject Newsome to FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES for purposes of obtaining an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in legal matters.

See EXHIBIT "82" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

> This is PERTINENT and RELEVANT information because if BGG&H and/or any of its attorneys are members and/or participants of SUPREMACIST and TERRORIST groups that are involved in the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome, then such information is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest.

86) MITCHELL MCNUTT & SAMS: This is a former employer of Newsome who subjected her to very very. . . hostile, sexual and discriminatory treatment. MM&S also encouraged and/or condoned its employees providing of false information during government investigation to deprive Newsome rights secured under the Constitution, Civil Rights Act, and other statutes/laws for the purpose of obstructing the administration of justice, depriving her EQUAL protection of the laws, DUE PROCESS of laws, etc.

CUT & PASTED FROM:
http://miami.fbi.gov/statutes/title_18/section1001.htm

Title 18, U.S.C., Section 1001 - False Statements or Entries Generally

This statute makes it a crime for falsifying, concealing, or covering up material facts surrounding a civil rights investigation, or making false statements, representations, or writings.

This law prohibits a person acting under color of law, statute, ordinance, regulation or custom to make false statements or misrepresentations surrounding their individual or collective actions, during a civil rights investigation. It has been successfully applied to civil rights investigations involving the loss of life, where the subjects of the investigation lied to protect their careers and those of other co-conspirators.

Punishment varies from a fine or imprisonment of up to five years or both.

MM&S conducting and/or operating a business in which it knew and/or should have known that it was violating the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"), Title VII, Occupational Safety & Health Administration ("OSHA"). Newsome brought employment violations to MM&S' attention and as a direct and proximate result of reporting employment violations, MM&S RETALIATED and allowed its employees to subject Newsome to retaliatory practices, constant hostile, sexual and discriminatory practices. MM&S was aware of its employees' unlawful/illegal actions towards Newsome; however, did nothing to deter such behavior. Instead, MM&S moved to terminate Newsome's employment.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome was able to obtain such admission of hostile, sexual harassment and discriminatory practices from MM&S' employees during cross examination during the Mississippi Department of Employment Security handling of her request for Unemployment Benefits. Such examination will further support MM&S' willingness to produce employees who are willing to falsify and/or perjure themselves to protect their jobs and to see that Newsome was deprived unemployment benefits and/or EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws which are secured/guaranteed under the Constitution. (See EXHIBIT "83" – Excerpt of Transcript attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.)[94]

[94] TRANSCRIPT: Excerpts From Allen's and Gordon's Examination during Unemployment Compensation Hearing: McArn v. Allied v. Allied Bruce-Terminix Co., Inc., 626 So.2d 603 (Miss. 1993) – Whether or not there is a written contract, there should be public policy exceptions to employment-at-will doctrine for employee who refuses to participate in illegal act or employee who reports illegal act of his employer; these exceptions will apply even where there is "privately made law" governing employment relationship, or where illegal activity either declined by employee or reported by him affects third parties among general public, though they are not parties to lawsuit. (n.3) Employer's alleged statement to Employment Security Commission that employee was terminated for a "bad attitude" was privileged and could not be basis for libel suit, absent proof that such statements were false or maliciously made.

Newsome	56	2-4	Okay, so my December 1, 2004 e-mail in regards to harassment incident, was not out of the ordinary. I have submitted complaints in the past in regards to Mr. Gordon's behavior, is that correct?
Allen	56	5	You have.
Newsome	56	6-8	At any time during my employment, did I mention to you that I felt that Mr. Gordon's treatment, or his behavior, and conduct in regards to me was hostile?
Allen	56	9	You did.
Newsome	56	10	Okay, was this before your June 7th Memorandum or after?
Allen	56	11	I don't recall.[94]
Newsome	56	16-18	And the complaint that I submitted to OSHA, OSHA contacted the firm, you were to respond, if I'm not mistaken, by June 8, 2004. Is that correct?
Allen	56	19-20	I don't know the exact date. We did respond within the time limits they asked us to.
Newsome	57	1-4	Okay, the date of that Memorandum . . .was June 7, 2004, the response, if I'm not mistaken, because like I said, I wasn't aware this was coming up, was due on June 8, 2004. That e-mail or that Memorandum came out the day prior. Did that have anything to do?
Allen	57	5-6	Absolutely not, that's why I stated in here, you could do all you wanted about, with, with agencies.[94]

Newsome	57	7-10	But also in regards to the complaints that I had submitted to the firm, have I ever submitted any complaints of harassment, discrimination, or anything to the attention of Mitchell, McNutt & Sams in regards to Bob Gordon?
Allen	57	11	Discrimination, harassment, yes, you've used that word several times.
Newsome	57	12-14	Okay, and did I ever mention to you that I felt that I was discriminated or either in the handling of my complaints being discriminative in any nature?
Allen	57	15-16	You asked me to follow through with going to the Board, is that what you're referring to?
Newsome	57	17-20	No, I'm asking did you ever receive any e-mail correspondence from me in regards to complaints I submitted to the firm, that I felt I was being subjected to certain treatment?
Allen	57	20	Discriminatory.
Newsome	58	1	Discriminative treatment?
Allen	58	2	You're, I believe you sent me one like that, yes.
Newsome	58	3-5	Okay, so you were, so Mitchell, McNutt & Sams was made aware prior to November 30th on several occasions that I had filed complaints in regards to Mr. Gordon's behavior?
Allen	58	6	Yes.
Newsome	58	7-9	Did Mitchell, McNutt & Sams at any time prior to November 30, 2004 submit in writing to me, written responses to my complaints in regards to Mr. Gordon's behavior?
Allen	58	10-12	Let's see, we, we talked about it at the Board, and talked to Mr. Gordon about it, and I'm trying to think if, what happened from that point forward. I don't recall if we sent anything to you, if I did.
Newsome	58	13-15	Okay, so I can, it, it is your testimony that I submitted several complaints, but the firm never responded to me in writing in regards to my complaints on Mr. Gordon's behavior.
Allen	58	16	I responded back to you.
Newsome	58	17	In regards to Mr. Gordon's behavior?
Allen	58		Uh hum.
Newsome	58	17-18	Do you have any documentation?[94]
Allen	58	19-20	Oh, I tried, I may have some e-mails that we had through correspondence commenting back on.
Newsome	59	1-3	Okay, did Mr. Gordon ever receive an elaborate e-mail or Memorandum such as. . . that you forwarded to me in regards to the complaints I submitted in regards to him?
Allen	59	4	Did he receive one?

Newsome	59	5-9	Did Mr. Gordon, I submitted a complaint in regards to harassment or discrimination like I said, I don't' have them all, but I submitted my complaints to the firm in regards to Mitchell, McNutt & Sams conduct and behavior as well as Mr. Gordon, did you ever follow up with an e-mail or memorandum as you June 7, 2004?
Allen	59	10	To Mr. Gordon?
Newsome	59	11	To Mr. Gordon?
Allen	59	12	No.
Newsome	59	13-14	So Mitchell, McNutt & Sams did nothing to deter or discourage Mr. Gordon's behavior?
Allen	59	15-16	I don't know if there was, there was some discussions with, that, that we had.

PRETEXT: (1) Allen's memory was so good with dates, etc. when MMS' attorney, Ardelean, was coaching him; however, now unable to recall dates and time under cross-examination; (2) Credibility, malicious, willful and wanton memorandum brief. Claims Allen was not aware that Memorandum was created day before OSHA deadline to respond to complaint; however, he coincidentally mentions my filing complaints with agencies in Memorandum; and (3) At hearing regarding matter, MMS representatives were turning over exhibits regarding Newsome and its evidence of unlawfully and/or illegally padding her personnel file; however, produced not one document to support MMS' handling of discrimination and harassment complaints Newsome submitted against Gordon.

Newsome	144	19-20	Yes, just a moment. It was the incident that I went out to lunch with Attorney Mike Farrell and Ladye Margaret?
Gordon	146	7-13	She was gone for, what to me was an inordinate of the time to get something to pick up, to pick something up to bring it back. My recollection is that she was gone approximately forty-five minutes or so, and then she returned and at that time I criticized her for having gone and eaten out when I had told her that she needed to work through the lunch hour, and if she was going to get something to eat, go get it, and bring it back.
Newsome	146	14-15	So you said it was about forty-five minutes. For the record, can you explain your conduct when I did return, your behavior?
Newsome	147	1-2	So would you say your behavior, for instance stomping around and slamming the door is acceptable?
Gordon	147	3-4	I don't know that I stomped around and slammed the door, but I, yes, I was very upset.
Newsome	147	5	Okay, would you say you were hostile?
Gordon	147	6	Yes.
Newsome	147	8-9	Were you aware that your behavior was noticed by other employees at Mitchell, McNutt & Sams?
Gordon	147	10	Yes.
Newsome	147	11	Are you aware that I reported that behavior to Mr. Allen?

The record evidence will support a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and how MM&S has a total disrespect for the laws and place itself above the laws, relying upon the SPECIAL favors of government employees and/or Courts. Moreover, its links ties to TOP/KEY organizations that have been associated with SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups. The record evidence will support how MM&S would stop at nothing to deprive Newsome the relief she sought through the action with the MDES. How MM&S' employees were willing to come before the MDES and produce information they knew to be false and/or misleading. MM&S' witnesses came with what they thought was a well laid out plan, that before they knew it, they were providing testimony to support Newsome's claims of retaliation, discrimination, hostile treatment, etc. AFTER the

Gordon	147	12	Sitting here right now, I don't, I do not recall being aware of that.
Newsome	148	1-2	You, were you aware that when I went to lunch, that I was not driving, that I did go with Mr. Farrell and Ladye Margaret?
Gordon	148	3-4	You told me that when you returned, you did not tell me that before you were going.
Newsome	148	5-6	Prior to leaving. Were you aware that the lunch break was only about probably thirty-five minutes?
Gordon	148	7	It occurred, it appeared to me it was around forty-five minutes.
Newsome	148	16-17	Did that thirty-five minutes, or if you say forty-five minutes, did that preclude or prevent you from getting that Pleading filed in time?
Gordon	148	18-20	We got the Pleading filed on that day, but while you were out, a revision or revisions to that Pleading were sitting at your desk and not being done.
Newsome	149	14-16	And are you aware that your conduct affected the work of another attorney, who was wondering whether or not you had calmed down that day after that particular incident?
Gordon	149	17	No.
Newsome	150	2	So Mr. Gordon, you would say your conduct was hostile?
Gordon	150	3	That's what I, yes, I said that.
Newsome	150	4-5	Did Mitchell, McNutt & Sams ever notify you of your conduct of being you know, you being a hostile employee?
Gordon	150	6	No.
Newsome	150	13-14	Are you aware that I have, that I submitted complaints in regards to your conduct to Mitchell, McNutt & Sams?
Gordon	150	15	You have submitted complaints or e-mails alleging harassment.

MDES hearing, in efforts of doing damage control, MM&S closed their Jackson, Mississippi office. Newsome believes MM&S closed their doors – i.e. letting employees go at that location – in that she had notified it that she will be bringing legal action against it. See EXHIBIT "84" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence will support that in the handling of such matters, the United States Department of Labor has REPEATEDLY subjected Newsome to "Selective Prosecution" in the handling of complaints/charges filed in RETALIATION of Newsome having brought legal action(s) against it. The Department of Labor depriving Newsome of EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws afforded to other citizens who were deprived rights under the FLSA – for instance see EXHIBIT "112" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein:

>
> 'The Labor Department will not hesitate to enforce federal law to the fullest extent possible when employers do NOT pay their employees ALL of the wages to which they are entitled,' said Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis. 'These workers received the back wages they earned and deserved.' "
>
> "Employees have the right to expect that they will receive full pay on time for their work, and the Labor Department will NOT sit by while employers attempt to evade their responsibilities,' said Secretary Labor Hilda L. Solis. . ."
>
> "Employers should know that when workers are deprived of their rightful wages, the Labor Department will NOT hesitate to take action to recover those wages," said Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis. "It's not just the right thing to do, it's the law."

To better understand the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and Racial bias/Discriminatory practices of some of Newsome's former employers and how they have employees who are willing to lie and/or perjure themselves for their jobs, the following information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT:

A. MISSISSIPPI DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY ("MDES")

Decision Code No. 2400
Reporting Point No. 0480
Case No. 00002-R-05-01 and 00241-R-05-01
Circuit Court Case No. 251-2005-163CIV

The record evidence will support a pattern-of-practice and how opposing parties in actions involving Newsome have a total disrespect for the laws and place themselves above the laws, relying upon the special favors of government employees and/or Courts. Moreover, their links ties to key organizations. How they stopped at nothing to deprive Newsome the relief from injury/harm sustained through the action with the MDES. How MM&S' employees were willing to come before the MDES and produce information they knew to be false and/or misleading. They came with what they thought was a well laid out plan, that before they knew it, they were providing testimony to support Newsome's claims of retaliation, discrimination, hostile treatment, etc.

> DeCarlo v. Bonus Stores, Inc., 413 F.Supp.2d 770 (S.D.Miss.,2006.) - In his complaint, McArn charged that Terminix maliciously defamed him before the Mississippi Employment Security Commission by stating he was fired for a "bad attitude." At trial, McArn testified that Terminix's contention that he was insubordinate was false. That is the extent of McArn's evidence of defamation.
> > (n. 10) Under Mississippi law, public policy exception to employment at will doctrine permits employee to bring action in tort for damages against his employer if he is terminated for: (1) refusing to participate in illegal act, or (2) reporting illegal acts of his employer to employer or anyone else.
> McArn v. Allied Bruce-Terminix Co., Inc., 626 So.2d 603 (Miss.,1993) - [3] McArn argues that the Mississippi Employment Security Commission was falsely told that he was terminated for a bad attitude and not told the true reason for his firing. McArn argues that Miss.Code Ann. § 71-5-131 (1972) permits a claim for defamation whenever the employer makes statements *to the Commission which are "false in fact and maliciously . . . made for the purpose of causing a denial of benefits."*

> There is no question but that Miss.Code Ann. § 71-5-131 provides that communications between an employer and the Commission are privileged and "when qualified privilege is established, statements or written communications are not actionable as slanderous or libelous absent bad faith or malice if the communications are limited to those persons who have a legitimate and direct interest in the subject matter." Benson v. Hall, 339 So.2d 570, 573 (Miss.1976).

> In his complaint, McArn charged that Terminix maliciously defamed him before the Mississippi Employment Security Commission by stating he was fired for a "bad attitude." At trial, McArn testified that Terminix's contention that he was insubordinate was false.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This is a matter in which Judge Bobby DeLaughter resided over. Based on information Newsome was able retrieve from research, Judge DeLaughter was recently INDICTED for:

18 USC § 371. Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States

18 USC § 666. Theft or bribery concerning programs receiving Federal funds

18 USC § 1341. Frauds and Swindles

18 USC § 1346. . . .Scheme or Artifice to Defraud

18 USC § 1512. Tampering with a witness, victim, or an informant*;*

however, only pled guilty to "lying to an FBI agent who was investigating a corruption case. . . attempting to obstruct, influence and impede an official proceeding while being interviewd. . ." and pled GUILTY. See EXHIBIT "11" attached hereto and incorporated by reference, as well as Paragraph B/Page 14 of this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

This is PERTINENT and RELEVANT information because if Judge DeLaughter is a hidden member and participant (i.e. based on the listing provided at Paragraph 28(h)/Page 44 above and listing of Judges/Justices PUBLISHED and ADVERTISED on the Internet by Baker Donelson – See EXHIBIT "35") of such SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups that are involved in the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome, then such information is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest.

B. UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR – EEOC, WAGE & HOUR AND OSHA: See EXHIBIT "38" at Pages 49 thru 52 of July 14, 2008 Emergency Complaint. There is record evidence to support that Newsome voiced her OPPOSITION to the unlawful/illegal employment violations (i.e. as evidenced in excerpt of MDES Hearing Transcript) as well as in the Charges/Complaints she filed with the United States Department of Labor's Wage & Hour Division ("W&H") for Fair Labor Standard Act violations ("FLSA"); Equal Employment Opportunity ("EEOC") for Title VII/employment violations; and Occupational Safety & Health Administration ("OSHA") for health and safety violations. As a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result and in RETALIATION of Newsome having brought MANDAMUS (non-monetary) actions against the United States Department of Labor in the past, said Government Agency(s) RETALIATED and failed to enforce the statutes/laws (MANDATORILY[95] required) governing the employer violations reported by [95] NOT discretionary.

Newsome. Moreover, said failure to enforce the laws resulted in the RETALIATION by the United States Department of Labor's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and its DELIBERATE, WILLFUL and MALICIOUS acts in posting FALSE/MISLEADING and MALICIOUS information on the Internet regarding Newsome's Wage & Hour Division charge as well as its role in CONSPIRACY to provide outcome of proceedings in which it knew and/or should have known results were obtained through the use of UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL practices for purposes of depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws – i.e. violations which infringes upon rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States – that have been afforded to other citizens of the United States. For example, see the list of cases the Department of Labor has brought against employers for Wage & Hour/FLSA violations at EXHIBIT "112" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. However, when Newsome filed her Wage & Hour Charge/FLSA Complaint, the United States Department of Labor took a far departure from the laws in RETALIATION of Newsome having engaged in protected activities and for purposes of depriving her rights secured under the Constitution.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Prior to Newsome bringing her Wage & Hour/FLSA Charge/Complaint, she checked with an attorney she knew to determine if her understanding of the Wage & Hour/FLSA was correct. Newsome's understanding was confirmed. Moreover, the List contained in EXHIBIT "112" sustains/supports that Newsome's understanding of the laws are correct. Nevertheless, the United States Department of Labor sought to CONSPIRE and COVER-UP said employment violations of MM&S.

Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions provided herein and in the record of the Government Agencies (i.e EEOC, W&H, OSHA, courts, Legislature/Congress) and the United States White House/United States Department of Justice, etc. that a CONSPIRACY and actions taken to COVER-UP criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome can be sustained/established. Moreover, further supporting and sustaining the need for the United States Supreme Court's intervention in this matter through this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC.

The record evidence will support that Newsome has voiced her OPPOSITION to RACIAL bias, DISCRIMINATORY practices and CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against her as well as other citizens of the United States to President Barack Obama (i.e. Head of the Executive Department), United States Attorney General Eric Holder (i.e. United States Department of Justice), United States Legislature/Congress and others. Moreover, the proper agencies/officials have ALL been timely, properly and adequately notified of the employment violations of MM&S. To no avail. Said agency(s) records will support sufficient facts, evidence and legal conclusions presented to sustain the complaint(s) and/or concern(s) Newsome has brought to their attention. Newsome on or about September 23, 2004 provided a letter (i.e. RE: Request for Department of Justice Intervention/Participation in this Case – See EXHIBIT "169" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein) to Paul D. Clement at the Office of Solicitor General/United States Department of Justice, Tammy D. McCutchen/Alfred Robinson with the Wage and Hour Division of the U.S. Department of Labor/ESA, and Madonna Cynthia Douglass with the Administrative Review Board. While these agency(s) were aware of MM&S' violation of the laws governing the FLSA and/or Wage and Hour Laws, they did nothing to deter such acts or to see that the wrongs complained of were corrected and that the injustices rendered against Newsome cease. Instead, the Department of Labor, as a direct and proximate result of her OPPOSITION and reporting said employment violations RETALIATED against Newsome. Furthermore, this agency, its agents and others engaged in conspiracy and RETALIATED by POSTING false/misleading/malicious information on the Internet that it knew was for unlawful/illegal purposes. See EXHIBIT "87" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. It is a good thing that Newsome retained a copy of the MDES transcript to support MM&S' admission to employment violations and the LIST of cases brought by the Department of Labor (see EXHIBIT "112") further sustain DISCRIMINATORY/PREJUDICIAL treatment in its handling of Newsome's Charge/Complaint which resulted in her being deprived EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws; moreover, deprivation of protected rights that have REPEATEDLY been extended to other citizens of the United States; however, deprived Newsome for exercising her CONSTITUTIONAL rights and speaking out against such criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her.

In further support of the Wage & Hour/FLSA violations, Newsome was able to obtain from the United States Department of Labor the following FLSA NARRATIVE REPORT:

> Evidence: Interviews of Supervisor Robert Gordon, Attorney Mike Farrell, and Secretary Ladye Margaret Townsend[96] revealed that Ms. Newsome had been rebellious and insubordinate in job duties assigned her from the start of her employment.

[96] All of whom are "White" and having a personal interest and financial interest (either employment and/or business investment related).

[redacted] interview (Exhibit [redacted]) stated that every since Ms Newsome was hired she been looking for a way to get fired to pursue a lawsuit. . . After this incident Ms Newsome began working on whether she was paid properly . . . Newsome disagreed with Attorney Farrell and told Cochanuer and Townsend she was going to contact Wage Hour. [redacted] didn't know if Newsome did or not because nothing came of it. [redacted] further confirmed other events of insubordination. (Exhibit [redacted]).

Further action:

(Note) During the course of this investigation, District Director ("DD") Billy Jones retired from the department. Regional Administrator McKeon assigned Assistant District Director ("ADD") Oliver Peebles as Acting DD for the Gulf Coast District. DD Peebles has been advised through all actions of this case, and all of his instructions have been followed.

See EXHIBIT "88" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Information which clearly supports MM&S and its employee's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities. Newsome believes the redacted information is pertinent. Moreover, that Newsome may not have been provided with the entire file. During Newsome's employment with MM&S, she noticed how Billy Jones would call quite often requesting to speak to Michael Farrell (one of the attorneys). Newsome found it interesting because during one of the meetings with Farrell, he made it known how he was familiar with the Wage & Hour Division; moreover, how he had the employees personal direct lines and provided such information. While the Department of Labor (Wage & Hour) Officials wanted Newsome to believe she did not understand the FLSA and that MM&S was not in violation, such is not the case. Prior to bringing FLSA action, Newsome spoke with an attorney she had worked with at another firm and said attorney confirmed Newsome's understanding of the statute/laws was correct. In fact, said attorney had also advised that their firm had recently represented a client who was paying its employees in the same way as MM&S, violations were found and the matter was resolved. According to information Newsome has been able to retrieve from the United States Department of Labor's website they have brought MANY lawsuits on behalf of other citizens for the very violations that Newsome reported was occurring at MM&S. See EXHIBIT "112" attached hereto, it confirms that this agency DISCRIMINATED in the handling of Newsome's Wage & Hour Charge/Complaint and RETALIATED by POSTING (see EXHIBIT "87") what it knew to be false/misleading/malicious information on the INTERNET for purposes of depriving Newsome EQUAL protection of the laws and due process of laws; moreover, to subliminally/deceptively notify potential employers of Newsome's engagement in protected activities. Moreover, engaging in CONSPIRACY to deter and send a subliminal message to citizens that speak out like Newsome and take on suing the United States Department of Labor will suffer the same unlawful/illegal practices of said Government Agency seeing to it that citizens' (i.e. such as Newsome) lives, liberties and pursuit of happiness are STRIPPED. Said criminal/civil violations leveled against Newsome in RETALIATION of her speaking out and OPPOSING unlawful/illegal employment practices can be sustained by GOOGLING her name on the Internet. See EXHIBIT "89" – "Vogel Newsome" and/or any other version of her name attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Because Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that when the United States Department of Labor and its Officials engage in criminal/civil violations, that most likely than not, it is in RETALIATION against Newsome for speaking out and exercising rights secured/guaranteed under the CONSTITUTION – i.e. criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome to silence her; moreover, for purposes of coercion, intimidation, threats, discrimination, harassment, etc. Therefore, as a matter of law, just as the United States Department of Labor as well as other GOVERNMENT AGENCIES have gone PUBLIC to post FALSE/MALICIOUS and MISLEADING information on the INTERNET that it knew and/or should have known was obtained through unlawful/illegal practices, Newsome has a right to REBUT such malicious attacks that are unlawful and illegal practices PUBLICLY/NATIONALLY and WORLDWIDE. Furthermore, it is Newsome's duty to NOTIFY the PUBLIC that such MALICIOUS attacks by the United States Government are criminal and violates the Constitutional Rights, Civil Rights and other laws of the United States that have been afforded to other citizens.

This is PERTINENT and RELEVANT information because (based upon the listing provided by Baker Donelson at Paragraph 28(h)/Page 44 and EXHIBITS "22," and "35") if the United States Department of Labor and/or its Officials are members and participants of such SUPREMACIST and TERRORIST groups that are involved in the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and other citizens, then such information is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest. Moreover, a reasonable mind may conclude that Newsome is entitled to know why the United States Department of Labor has brought legal actions/lawsuits on behalf of other citizens for similar employment violations; however, when Newsome reported employment violations, it DISCRIMINATED, RETALIATED and failed to perform MANDATORY ministerial duties owed Newsome (i.e. performed for other citizens*) and failed to enforce the statutes/laws in which it is MANDATORILY required enforce.*

C. PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE INTEREST: Newsome believes this matter is of public concern in that it affects the financial welfare and/or being of other citizens and other employees of MM&S. Newsome believes it is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE importance to expose just how far the United States Government will go to silence and deter its citizens from exercising their CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS!! Newsome believes that based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions that MM&S may be a member and/or participant with SUPREMACIST/TERRORIST groups who have used their SPECIAL TIES/RELATIONSHIPS to government agencies to deprive employees of wages/earnings in RETALIATION of its knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities as well as her bringing legal action against the United States Department of Labor.

Furthermore, the Wage & Hour Division's assistance and condoning such of such unlawful/illegal employment practices was done as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result realizing that to find in favor of Newsome and the evidence, will require that MM&S compensate its employees as well as Newsome for the unpaid wages earned that they failed to pay. Thus, being a huge financial hit on MM&S.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That there is a Mississippi Appeals Court Judge (Donna Barnes) who was employed by MM&S prior to taking judgeship role. See EXHIBIT "90" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. Judge Barnes name appears on the List of Judges that Baker Donelson has posted on the Internet. See EXHIBIT "35" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: It appears MM&S has closed its Jackson, Mississippi Office out of which Newsome was working AFTER the MDES matter and perhaps AFTER their receipt of the Transcript provided from the MDES hearing. However, while the MDES was in the position to deter and punish MMS and its employees for the unlawful/illegal actions committed against Newsome, said government agency failed to do so for the purposes of aiding and abetting MM&S and its employees in employment violations; moreover, for purposes of depriving Newsome of unemployment benefits. MM&S may have closed its downtown Jackson, Mississippi location shortly AFTER the January 27, 2005 MDES hearing when it had just moved into the facility about May 2004, and had plans of expanding. The MMS matter is one in which an INDICTED Judge (Bobby DeLaughter)[97] presided over. See EXHIBIT "132" - March 9, 2005 Letter to DeLaugther attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Magistrate Judge James C. Sumner in the Mississippi matter filed an Order on or about August 13, 2007, requiring Newsome to post Security Bond for purposes of FINANCIALLY DEVASTING her and to preclude/prevent her from litigating lawsuit. Then on or about September 5, 2007, Magistrate Sumner filed ORDER OF RECUSAL because of CONFLICT OF INTEREST. See EXHIBIT "42" – Docket Sheet and EXHIBIT "92" – Order of Recusal attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The laws are clear (i.e. and have been briefed in the required pleadings in that action to preserve Newsome's rights) that because of the CONFLICT OF INTEREST and RECUSAL ORDER that any such rulings by Magistrate Sumner is NULL/VOID; moreover, parties are not required to comply with any rulings by him. Furthermore, Judge Tom S. Lee CANNOT, as a matter of law, sustain any such rulings by Magistrate

[97] See EXHIBIT "11" attached hereto.

Sumner because of the RECUSAL and CONFLICT OF INTEREST. Based upon the Listing of Judges provided above at Paragraph F(x)/Page 62 as well as at EXHIBIT "35" of this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC, Judge Lee should have also RECUSED himself; however, elected to remain in the case and play a role in the CONSPIRACY, in which, under his watch the record of the Southern District Court of Mississippi has become HEAVILY breached and compromised as a direct and proximate result to COVER-UP criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome. When Judge Lee and opposing parties thought that Newsome was bringing her MM&S lawsuit in 2007, it worked hard to try and FINANCIALLY devastate her to prevent and/or OBSTRUCT the administration of justice in insisting that she pay a bogus Security Bond to which the laws do not sustain nor require based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusion provided. Furthermore, the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions will support that Judge Lee's actions in the Mississippi matter are WILLFUL and MALICIOUS in efforts of attempting to provide opposing parties with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit. Moreover, attempts to provide Baker Donelson (based on his relationship with Baker Donelson) and its client (LIBERTY MUTUAL) with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit on behalf of opposing parties and their counsel/attorneys. Therefore, on or about November 13, 2007, Judge Lee authorized an entry requiring that Newsome be required to post a Security Bond approximately one month from the deadline (three-year) for Newsome to bring action against MM&S. However, to Judge Lee and opposing counsel's disappointment, Newsome has until December 2010 (six-year statute of limitation).[98]

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Based upon such information, Judge Lee and opposing counsel and their clients have LAUNCHED an ALL out LYNCHING mob to go after Newsome with clear instructions to do whatever it takes to see that she does not have access to the COURTS and that the DOORS of the Courts are closed to her. Therefore, requiring the intervention of the United States Supreme Court in this matter, in that the DECISION set to be rendered on or about October 22, 2010, by Judge John Andrew West is a part of said CONSPIRCY that has been leveled against Newsome to deprive her EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws secured under the Constitution; moreover, are attempts by President Barack Obama, Judge West and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators to cover up the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and reported to the United States Department of Justice/FBI in September 24, 2009 Criminal Complaint.

[98] However, to their disappointment Mississippi has a SIX-YEAR Catch All Statute of Limitation. Therefore, giving Newsome until December 2010 to bring legal action against MM&S.

87) PAGE KRUGER & HOLLAND ("PKH"): Is the law firm Newsome was employed with at the time of my arrest on February 14, 2006. Prior to my termination of employment, the PKH did not advise Newsome of any employment violations and neither was Newsome on probation for any employment issues. In fact, during Newsome's employment, she was commended on her work ethics to support Letter of References and/or information provided in EXHIBIT "93" of this instant EMTS & MFEOTWOC which provide:

> This letter is to confirm and recommend Ms. Vogel Newsome to a position of Executive Assistant, Administrative Assistant or greater. While working with Lash Marine, she performed the duties of Executive Assistant with skill and energy. Her spirit and motivation acted as a beacon of light to others. Her leadership and training of others was a great service. Always willing to share; she possess a unique ability to teach complex skills to the beginner and bring them quickly up to speed. In addition, being a caring and concerned citizen she put aside her time to train and work with Training, Inc. employees to develop their office skills for a better future.
> She is an asset and will be sorely missed at Lash Marine. -- ROBERT K. LANSDEN (VICE PRESIDENT)
>
> I have been very, very pleased with Vogel, not only in terms of her work product, but also in terms of her attitude and personality. I would rate her as one of the best legal secretaries with whom I have ever worked. I would highly recommend her to anyone who is looking for a full-time legal secretary. If my previous secretary were not rejoining me, I would want

Vogel to be my new permanent secretary.

If anyone would care to discuss Vogel with me, please do not hesitate to give them my name and number. I will be more than happy to talk with them.

I am not certain of the exact day when my previous secretary will rejoin me. It could be immediately, or, it could be a couple of weeks. In light of that, we would like to request that we be allowed to continue to work with Vogel until further notice. However, the last thing I want to do is have Vogel miss another good opportunity that might lead to permanent employment. Therefore, if she must be reassigned, I will understand, but grudgingly so.. . . . - - RALPH B. GERMANY, JR. (ATTORNEY)

I was first introduced to Ms. Newsome over five (5) years ago. Since that time, she has been a Woman of integrity and intelligence. Ms. Newsome always has presented herself in a professional manner and has always addressed me and others with the uttermost of respect. Ms. Newsome outgoing personality and personal strengths would make her an excellent additional to anyone's staff. I have had the opportunity to work with Ms. Newsome and she has demonstrated flexibility in working outside of her field of endeavor and doing an excellent job is a strong indicator of how well she will do in her chosen field of endeavor. Ms. Newsome demonstrated a willingness to perform any task assigned to her promptly and correctly with little supervision. Ms. Newsome is a very pleasant person to associate with, works as a team player, and would truly be an ASSET to your organization because she is the best one for the job. - - LISA J. WASHINGTON (COORDINATOR)

As well as the following feedback Newsome received during her employment with PKH:

TOMMY PAGE EMAIL – 06/16/05:

TP: "You looked very smart & professional as you walked toward the building!"

VN: "Why thank you. I strive to dress and carry myself in the manner in which PKH requires. ☺"

TP: "You do it well."

Also, such compliments as:

Vogel, First and foremost, you are doing an excellent job. These are just a few things that I thought of that might save us both some time and help things flow smoother. . . - - SUSAN O. CARR[99]

See EXHIBIT "94" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Other PERTINENT and RELEVENT information to support Newsome's ability to use software applications and possesses the skills necessary to perform duties assigned her to sustain/support the Letter of References and comments provided above is as follows:

Alphanumeric – 8844 kph / 2% error rate
Typing – 60 wpm / 1% error rate
Word 97 – 100 overall (100 on basic, intermediate & advanced) Excel 97 – 100 overall (100 on basic, intermediate & advanced)

See EXHIBIT "95" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: At EXHIBIT "96" Newsome provides a copy of PKH's Telephone Directory (i.e.which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein). In looking at the PKH Phone Directory, during Newsome's employment with PKH and from information, understanding and belief, there was a Legal Assistant, John Noblin, who was an attorney; however, did not want to practice law. Therefore, as a filler (until something better came along) he worked at PKH. John later left PKH to accept another job opportunity (non-legal). John is the son of the Clerk of the Court – United States District Court/Southern District Mississippi (Jackson Division) – J. T. Noblin. See EXHIBIT "97" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Newsome believes the court record/files in the Mississippi matters have been BREACHED and/or COMPROMISED. Furthermore, record evidence reveals that file released to NON- Party (Mr. Moorehead) without notification to parties to the action was provided with court record. See EXHIBIT "42:"

12/18/2007 DOCKET SHEET ENTRY: "Remark - Certified copy of record and [99] It is important to note that since leaving PKH and from information obtained from research, Carr has since left PKH as well and is presently a Law Clerk for one of the Mississippi Courts. See EXHIBIT "111" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

exhibits checked out to Mr. Moorehead*, 633 Northstate Street, Jackson, MS 39209. . .."*

attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Newsome believes that a reasonable person/mind knowing all the facts and circumstances, may conclude efforts taken by the United States District Court/Southern District of Mississippi (Jackson Division) may have compromised its records because of the CONFLICT of INTEREST that existed with the Clerk (J.T. Noblin) of said court and son's (John Noblin) relationship with PKH – i.e. counsel for defendant parties (Hinds County, Mississippi; Sheriff Malcom McMillan, Judge William Skinner, Constable Jon Lewis and other possible county employees) in the lawsuit

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That since Newsome's employment with PKH was terminated it appears that at least two of the attorneys are now working "WITHIN" the courts (judicial system) in Mississippi. Carr being a Clerk now and another attorney by the name of A.B. (Trey) Smith III is a judge in a Mississippi court. (See EXHIBIT "98" attached hereto and incorporated by reference).

EMPHASIS ADDED: Because the evidence presented herein reveals the "special" relationships Newsome's former employers have with the courts as well as Baker Donelson's need to get acquainted with attorneys (i.e. such as Donna Barnes – Mississippi Appeal Court Judge [Chairs Pro Se Litigation Subcommittee of the Mississippi Access to Justice Commission] who was employed at MM&S during Newsome's employment with it – See EXHIBIT "90") and law firms that Newsome has worked with. Information PERTINENT and RELEVANT to establish the CONSPIRACY and CRIMINAL STALKING practices, bias and prejudices, etc. by Baker Donelson, Liberty Mutual and/or opposing parties in legal matters involving Newsome.

The reasons provided Newsome at the time of my termination are set out in my e-mail of May 15, 2006. Although Newsome requested whether or not she would be given written reasons (pink slip) for my termination, PKH denied providing her with the grounds upon which it was basing termination of her employment. Therefore, as a follow-up and to memorialize the reasons provided for Newsome's termination, Newsome memorialized said meeting and submitted PKH's reasons for her termination in an e-mail:

> E-MAIL of 05/16/06 from Vogel Newsome to Louis J. Baine III (shareholder), Thomas Y. Page, Jr. (shareholder), Linda Thomas (Office Administrator) – providing the reasons given for my termination. Page Kruger & Holland's advising being contacted and having knowledge of lawsuit filed by me.

See EXHIBIT "61" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Clearly supporting that PKH engaged in a CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome wherein it was contacted and notified of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED activities. Furthermore, as a direct and proximate result of the February 14, 2006 arrest, Newsome responded to CONFLICT CHECK conducted by PKH.

> E-MAIL of 03/30/06 regarding CONFLICT CHECK to Lawson Hester (shareholder) and providing Linda Thomas (Office Administrator) a copy on 06/31/06:
> VN: Lawson: I recently had a matter occur with a Constable of Hinds County, where I am presently considering. Would this present a conflict? Thanks.

NOTE: Newsome's concerns went unaddressed. See EXHIBIT "99" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. The record evidence further supporting that PKH was timely, properly and adequately notified of Newsome's concerns of conflict in its representing Hinds County, as well as her advising of considering filing a lawsuit against Constable. To no avail. It is important to note that this conflict was also brought to Newsome's attention by another attorney, Raymond Fraser (African-American attorney with whom she worked and in whom Newsome confided in regarding what was transpiring and called during the unlawful/illegal seizure of her property/residence on February 14, 2006). Newsome advising Fraser upon her return to PKH of the February 14, 2006 arrest. In fact, Fraser advised Newsome that he had tried to call her back on the day she was arrested in follow up to their telephone conversation because Newsome had called him during the time Constable Lewis, Crews and others were in her residence to advise him of what was going on. During said conversation Fraser confirmed that the actions being rendered against her were unlawful and his surprise in the way things were taking place since he had knowledge of the legal pleadings that were before the court which prohibited such practices.

It is important to note that Fraser also advised that Newsome should talk to Jamie Travis (an African-American attorney at PKH – who during the time of her employment was an Associate; however, since Newsome's termination and the filing of lawsuit, it appears PKH has made him a shareholder – perhaps a move to buy his silence in that from Newsome's understanding and belief, during her employment Travis had been seeking shareholder status for a while and felt that he was entitled to it; however, PKH was not budging) in that Travis went to school with Judge Skinner and may be able to assist in getting the matter resolved. How would the average citizen with no connection to law firms, or the legal industry be aware of such a relationship? Based upon the information provided by Fraser, Newsome has found the following: a) Travis completed laws school (Mississippi College of Law in 1999) and was admitted to practice 09/28/1999; and b) Judge Skinner completed law school (Mississippi College of Law in December 1998, and was admitted to practice 4/27/99). See Travis' Bio at EXHIBIT "100" and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein, and Skinners Resume at EXHIBIT "101".

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: From Skinner's Resume, a reasonable person/mind may conclude that a SPECIAL TIES/RELATIONSHIP to FBI can be established and the FBI's connection in the death of Skinner's father. Possibly COVER-UP of the FBI's murder of his father (Officer William Skinner) and framing members of the New Republic of Africa for his death (i.e. conflicting reports state Officer Skinner was standing under a tree while another places him inside a car). Leaving a reasonable mind to conclude that the FBI may be engaging in a CONSPIRACY leveled against an African-American organization and its members and FRAMED them for Officer Skinner's murder to break up and/or destroy the group. Relying on the Willie Lynch Practices and those recently used in the Iran/Afghanistan wars by United States Soldiers. See EXHIBIT "153" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. If said information is true, then it explains why the FBI has failed to deter/prevent Judge Skinner from committing further acts – i.e. it CONDONES such racial injustices and relying upon its powers and sources to cover HATE CRIMES carried out by the FBI and/or under its instructions/knowledge and control – i.e. for example like the Malcolm X set up and Martin > Luther King assassination. A reasonable person may conclude based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions as well as the prosecution of other citizens who commit the same and/or similar crimes as that reported by Newsome, the FBI and others are engaging in CONSPIRACIES and PUBLIC CORRUPTION.

However, Newsome did not discuss this matter with Travis in that she knew that the actions rendered her were unlawful/illegal and the very acts of engaging Travis to seek what she took as "special" favors due to his relationship with Judge Skinner to Newsome was UNETHICAL/UNACCEPTABLE and clearly went to the very concerns that she realized that African-Americans have believed for years - the judicial system is tainted and the "shady/corrupt" dealings that take place behind the scenes. Newsome definitely did not want to be a part of such corrupt practices that she as well, as other African-Americans, knew was present and the reason why the laws are so adverse towards them when faced with judicial and/or justice issues. Leaving Newsome wondering whether or not Travis used her incident and/or PKH knew from Newsome's incident that making Travis a partner/shareholder was simply a "buy-out" tactic (for his silence) – giving him an interest in the firm in efforts of warring of any liability it knew it would be facing and any other possible CONFLICT OF INTEREST – due to Travis' (and perhaps others) relationship with Judge Skinner. Newsome wanted justice to be based upon the statutes/laws and not upon such improprieties and special favors. Said beliefs being confirmed in the filing of the legal action(s) brought by Newsome in Mississippi.

88) There is record evidence to support that AFTER Lawson Hester's blowing of the Mississippi lawsuit – i.e. in leaving litigation in the hands of a NOVICE – he moved on to the law firm of Wyatt Tarrant & Combs ("WT&C"). This is important information because prior to Newsome's termination, Hester had just joined Page Kruger & Holland as a SHAREHOLDER. Now Hester is with WT&C – a law firm with offices in the State of Kentucky. See EXHIBIT "138" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. WT&C having relationships with Liberty Mutual as well as banks in which Newsome conduct(ed) business – i.e. banks [JP Morgan Chase Bank and PNC] that retaliated against Newsome and engaged in unlawful/illegal actions in furtherance of CONSPIRACIES leveled against her. Chase Bank having a working relationship with Kentucky Department of Revenue and it appears with Liberty Mutual's counsel – i.e. NEXUS established.

89) WOOD & LAMPING LLC ("W&L"): The record evidence will support that Newsome's employment with W&L was terminated as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of its knowledge of her engagement in protected activities. Moreover, for RACIAL and bias intent. The record evidence will further support that in efforts of COVERING UP its role in CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome, W&L had its employee(s) engage in criminal acts – i.e. breaking and entering Newsome desk – for purposes of DESTROYING evidence, OBSTRUCTING justice, and other reasons known to it in efforts of fulfilling its role in conspiracy as well as TAMPERING/DESTROYING[100] evidence W&L knew was incriminating. From information Newsome was able to obtain from the Wage & Hour Division, she was able to see disturbing information in which W&L KNOWINGLY, WILLINGLY and with MALICIOUS intent lied and/or falsified information provided to the Wage & Hour Division during its handling of Charge. See EXHIBIT "137" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Wood & Lamping engaging in criminal/civil wrongs because it did not want Newsome to have evidence of its EEO violations and EEOC policy statement which acknowledges Title VII violations for retaliation taken against employees who engage in protected activities. See EXHIBIT "146" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein which states in part:

> As the federal agency charged with the enforcement of this nation's employment discrimination laws, the EEOC has a unique and profoundly important role in the government's antidiscrimination efforts. Accordingly, it is the Commission's policy to ensure equal opportunity in all of its employment policies and practices and to prohibit discrimination in all aspects of the agency's operations. . .
> . . .Acts of reprisal against any employee who engages in protected activity will NOT be tolerated.
> EEOC managers and supervisors are reminded of their responsibility to prevent, document and promptly correct harassing conduct in the workplace. . .

90) The record evidence will further support the United States Department of Labor's/Wage & Hour Division's knowledge of W&L's violations under the RETALIATION laws. For instance see said Department's posting of "RETALIATION. . ." Press Release at EXHIBIT "147" which states in part:

> There are three main terms that are used to describe retaliation. Retaliation occurs when an employer. . .takes an adverse action against a covered individual because he or she engaged in protected activity. These three terms are described below.
> ADVERSE ACTION: An adverse action is an action taken to try to keep someone from opposing a discriminatory practice, or from participating in an employment discrimination proceeding. Examples of adverse actions include:
>
> - Employment actions such as termination, refusal to hire, and denial of promotion

[100] Ohio Revised Code §2921.12 Tampering with evidence.

- Other actions affecting employment such as threats, unjustified negative evaluations, unjustified negative references, or increased surveillance, and
- any other action such as an assault or unfounded civil or criminal charges that are likely to deter reasonable people from pursuing their rights

Even if the prior protected activity alleged wrongdoing by a different employer, retaliatory adverse actions are unlawful. For example, it is unlawful for a worker's current employer to retaliate against him for pursuing an EEO charge against a former employer.

COVERED INDIVIDUALS: Covered individuals are people who have opposed unlawful practices, participated in proceedings, or requested accommodations related to employment discrimination. . . Individuals who have a close association with someone who has engaged in such protected activity also are covered individuals. For example, it is illegal to terminate an employee because his spouse participated in employment discrimination litigation.

PROTECTED ACTIVITY- Protected Activity Includes:
Opposition to a practice believed to be unlawful discrimination: Opposition is informing an employer that you believe that he/she is engaging in prohibited discrimination. Opposition is protected from retaliation as long as it is based on a reasonable, good-faith belief that the complained of practice violates anti-discrimination law; and the manner of the opposition is reasonable.

Examples of protected opposition include:

- Complaining to anyone about alleged discrimination against oneself or others;
- Threatening to file a charge of discrimination. . .
- Refusing to obey and order reasonably believed to be discriminatory. . .

Participation in an employment discrimination proceeding: Participation means taking part in an employment discrimination proceeding. Participation is protected activity even if the proceeding involved claims that ultimately were found to be invalid. Examples of participation include:

- Filing a charge of employment discrimination;
- Cooperating with an internal investigation of alleged discriminatory practices; or
- Serving as a witness in an EEO investigation or litigation.

and EXHIBIT "150" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - which states in part:

RETALIATION

> All of the laws we enforce make it illegal to fire, demote, harass, or otherwise "retaliate" against people (applicants or employees) because they filed a charge of discrimination, because they complained to their employer or other covered entity about discrimination proceeding (such as an investigation or lawsuit).
> For example, it is illegal for an employer to refuse to promote an employee because she filed a charge of discrimination with the EEOC, even if EEOC later determined no discrimination occurred.

As well as "GUIDELINES. . ." clarifying protection AGAINST Retaliation for participation in protected activities. See EXHIBIT "148" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - which states in part:

> EEOC ISSUES GUIDANCE CLARIFYING RIGHT TO PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION
> The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) announced today the release of comprehensive guidance on the prohibition against retaliation aimed at individuals who file charges of employment discrimination or who participate in the investigation of an EEO charge.
>
> The Supreme Court addressed the issue of retaliation last year, in Robinson v. Shell Oil Company. The Court made it *clear that employers are prohibited from retaliating against former employees as well as current employees for engaging in activity protected under the employment discrimination laws. The guidance explains that decision and also provides direction on what constitutes protected activity, what constitutes an adverse action that can be challenged as retaliatory, and what evidence is necessary to prove that an adverse action was caused by protected activity.
> . . . "Few things are more fundamental to stopping discrimination than protecting a person's access to their rights without fear of retribution."

Moreover, what "ACT" are "PROHIBITED" under Title VII. See EXHIBIT "149" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - which states in part:

> PROHIBITED EMPLOYMENT POLICIES/PRACTICES
>
> Under the laws enforced by EEOC, it is illegal to discriminate against someone (applicant or employee) because of that person's race. . . It is also illegal to retaliate against a person because he or she complained about discrimination, filed a charge of discrimination, or participated in an employment discrimination investigation or lawsuit.
>
> The law forbids discrimination in every aspect of employment. . .
>
> HARASSMENT: It is illegal to harass an employee because of race. . .
> It is also illegal to harass someone because they have complained about discrimination, filed a charge of discrimination, or participated in an employment discrimination investigation or lawsuit.

> Harassment can take the form of . . . other verbal or physical conduct. . . harassment is illegal if it is so frequent or severe that it creates a hostile or offensive work environment or if it results in an adverse employment decision (such as the victim being fired or demoted).
> The harasser can be the victim's supervisor, a supervisor in another area, a co-worker, or someone who is not an employee of the employer, such as a client or customer. . . .
> CONSTRUCTIVE DISCHARGE/FORCED TO RESIGN: Discriminatory practices under the laws EEOC enforces also include constructive discharge or forcing an employee to resign by making the work environment so intolerable a reasonable person would not be able to stay.

The United States Department of Labor bringing civil lawsuits on behalf of other citizens who were victims of similar employment violations that Newsome suffered REPEATEDLY from various employers. See EXHIBIT "108" – EEOC Press Releases attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

91) Wood & Lamping attempting to get Newsome to waive her rights under the FMLA and wanted her to execute a "Release Agreement" giving up her protections under the FMLA and/or any other statutes governing employers and/or employment practices. The record evidence will support that the Wage & Hour Division has brought legal action on behalf of others citizens who were subjected to such unlawful/illegal practices W&L attempted to subject Newsome in the waiving of rights. See EXHIBIT "130" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

92) The record evidence will support that Newsome timely, properly and adequately notified the Wage & Hour Division's Representative (Joan Petric) as well as the United States Department of Labor Secretary Hilda Solis of the unlawful/illegal practices of Wood & Lamping and its efforts to OBSTRUCT the administration of justice. To no avail. See EXHIBIT "140" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. President Obama, Secretary Solis and/or the Obama Administration were determined on COVERING UP the employment violations of Wood & Lamping. In so do, deprived Newsome equal protection of the laws, equal privileges and immunities under the laws and due process of laws.

93) Newsome states the following (i.e. taken from the EEOC's Compliance Manual)[101] in further support thereof and can be sustained in the Charges that have been filed with Administrative Agencies:

I. PROTECTED ACTIVITY[102]

A. Did Newsome Oppose Discrimination?

[101] See EXHIBIT "145" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

[102] Hughes v. Miller, 909 N.E.2d 642 (Ohio.App.8. 2009) - In order for a claimant worker to adequately set forth a prima facie case against a co-worker for retaliation for participation in a protected activity under the Ohio Civil Rights Act, his or her pleading must sufficiently set forth facts establishing the following four elements: (1) claimant engaged in a protected activity, (2) claimant's engagement in the protected activity was known to the opposing party, (3) the opposing party thereafter took adverse action against the claimant, and (4) there exists a causal connection between the protected activity and the adverse action. O.R.C. § 4112.02(I). See also, Greer-Burger v. Temesi, 879 N.E.2d 174 (Ohio,2007); Clark v. City of Dublin, 2002 -Ohio- 1440 (Ohio.App.10. 2002);

Hollingsworth v. Time Warner Cable, 812 N.E.2d 976 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton.Co.,2004) - To prove a prima facie case of retaliation under Title VII or state employment discrimination statute, a plaintiff must demonstrate that (1) she engaged in a protected activity, (2) her employer knew about the protected activity, (3) her employer took adverse employment action against the plaintiff, and (4) there was a causal connection between the protected activity and the adverse employment action. Civil Rights Act of 1964, § 704, as amended, 42 U.S.C.A. § 2000e-3; O.R.C. § 4112.02(I). See also, Shepard v. Griffin Services, Inc., 2002 -Ohio- 2283 (Ohio.App.2. 2002).

1. Did Newsome explicitly or implicitly communicate to the Respondent/Employer or another covered entity a belief that its activity constituted unlawful discrimination under Title VII . . .

    - If the protest was broad or ambiguous, would Newsome's protest reasonably have been interpreted as opposition to such unlawful discrimination?

2. Did Newsome have a reasonable and good faith belief that the opposed practice violated the anti-discrimination laws?

    - If so, Newsome is protected against retaliation, even if she was mistaken about the unlawfulness of the challenged practices.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The supporting Exhibits to this instant pleading as well as lower court records, Government Agency(ies) records, employers' records as well as that of opposing parties will support:

a) Newsome timely, properly and adequately made known her opposition to discrimination – i.e. more importantly her opposition to the RETALIATION (which is discriminatorily based on race and her engagement in protected activities, etc.), Criminal Stalking and other criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her by Judge West and his Conspirators/Co-Conspirators (i.e. which just happens to include the United States President Barack Obama, his Administration and others because of their as well as the personal/financial interest of their KEY/TOP Financial Campaign Contributors and/or Advisors/Counselors).

b) The record evidence will support that Newsome explicitly and implicitly communicated (i.e. verbally and/or in writing) to Judge West/the lower courts, opposing counsel and others of her concerns of their engagement and/or participation in unlawful discrimination practices secured under Title VII. Moreover, that this instant lawsuit (while brought as a Forcible Entry/Detainer action) was brought in RETALIATION by Plaintiff (Stor-All) and its knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. See EXHIBITS "13" – February 6, 2009 Letter to David Meranus; "60" and "62."

c) Based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusion presented in this instant pleading as well as the lower court records, Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude, that she has a good faith belief that her opposition to the RETALIATION, criminal stalking and other criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her violated the ANTI-DISCRIMINATION laws – i.e. the record evidence will further support that said criminal/civil wrongs stems from Newsome's engagement involving Title VII actions (i.e. engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES).

d) While President Obama and his LYNCH men-Administration, opposing parties to this lawsuit as well as other actions brought by Newsome have attempted to make it appear that she is PARANOID, CRAZY, a LUNATIC, the BOY WHO CRIED WOLF, etc., her patience, determination and perseverance has allowed her to PROVE from FACTUAL DOCUMENATION/EVIDENCE that Judge West, opposing parties (i.e. those with a personal/financial interest in the outcome of this lawsuit) have RETALIATED against Newsome because of their knowledge of her participation in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. Furthermore, the lower court record will support and/or sustain opposing counsel's ADMISSION and/or KNOWLEDGE of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES and efforts to use such knowledge to obtain and undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in this lawsuit – i.e. said actions which are clearly PROHIBIT by statutes/laws governing said matters.

e) PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE, PATTERN-OF-ABUSE, criminal stalking, harassment, threats, extortion, blackmail, coercion, etc. leveled against Newsome by Judge West, President Obama, his Administration as well as opposing parties to this action because of their knowledge of her engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. The record evidence will support that Plaintiff's (Stor-All) insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL), its counsel/attorneys have left a trail of evidence (the "proverbial smoking gun") to sustain that this instant lawsuit as well as other attacks (i.e. stalking Newsome and contacting her employer(s) for purposes of getting her fired/terminated and contacting her attorneys for purposes of getting them to withdraw representation) leveled against Newsome are a direct and proximate result of its knowledge of her engagement in protected activities and to provide them with an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in legal matters; moreover, for purposes of depriving Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Rights guaranteed/secured under the United States Constitution and/or laws of the United States.

B. Did Newsome participate in the statutory complaint process?

Did Newsome file a charge, testify, assist, or participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or lawsuit under the statutes enforced by the EEOC?

- If so, Newsome is protected against retaliation regardless of the validity or reasonableness of the original allegation of discrimination.

- Newsome is protected against retaliation by a Respondent/Employer for participating in statutory complaint proceedings even if that complaint involved a different covered entity.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence will support and/or sustain that Newsome participated in the statutory complaint process. Moreover, that the United States Government (i.e. courts, U.S. Department of Labor, etc.) has RETALIATED and has gone to great lengths by POSTING false/malicious/misleading information on the Internet regarding Newsome that it knew and/or should have known was obtained through unlawful/illegal practices. Moreover, that said U.S. Government Agency(s) was engaging in actions clearly PROHIBITED by law and clearly in violation of Newsome's Constitutional and Civil Rights in RETALIATION of her having engaged in protected activities – i.e. bringing legal actions/lawsuit against the United States Department of Labor's Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") and others. Furthermore, exposing Government Agencies like the EEOC who BLATANTLY/DELIBERATELY covered up Civil Rights violations. The recent attacks leveled against Newsome by Judge West, President Obama, his Administration and opposing parties having a financial/personal interest, are a direct and proximate result of their knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES – i.e. Title VII actions as well as bringing legal actions against the EEOC, her employers and others that are protected/secured under the United States Constitution, Civil Rights Act, Title VII and/or the applicable statutes/laws governing said matters brought.

PUBLIC EXPOSURE: The unlawful/illegal actions taken by the United States Government in publishing/releasing false/malicious/misleading information on the Internet[103] regarding Newsome is of PUBLIC/NATIONAL importance and therefore, may be met by her with the filing of this instant pleading as well as with a counter response of Newsome's going PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE and releasing information to other citizens and/or PUBLIC/WORLD.

II. ADVERSE ACTION

Did Respondent/Employer subject Newsome to any kind of adverse treatment?

- Significant retaliatory treatment that is reasonably likely to deter protected activity is unlawful. There is no requirement that the adverse action materially affect the terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

[103] One website link for example: http://www.scribd.com/doc/1815544/Department-of-Labor-04-082.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence of this instant action and the lower court records will support/sustain that in keeping with the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome, that Judge West, President Obama, his Administration, opposing parties with a financial/personal interest in the outcome of this lawsuit subjected Newsome to RETALIATION and/or adverse treatment because of their knowledge of her engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. Furthermore, that Judge West's actions in the lower court matter is now attempting to THROW the case in efforts of COVERING UP the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome that stemmed from RETALIATION of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. Criminal/Civil wrongs in which Newsome on or about September 24, 2009, reported to the FBI in her Criminal Complaint entitled, "Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Vogel Denise Newsome With The Federal Bureau of Investigation – Cincinnati, Ohio" which clearly supports that Judge West is to recuse himself from this lawsuit; moreover, the efforts taken by President Obama and his Administration's efforts to AID & ABET in the Conspiracy and COVER-UP of crimes timely, properly and adequately reported – i.e. however, to date, no ARRESTS, indictments nor prosecution has been initiated to Newsome's knowledge and, as a matter of law, remains pending. Thus, depriving Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws – rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution and/or other governing laws.

Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that RETALIATORY treatment was done to deter her from engaging in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. Furthermore, the posting of false/misleading/malicious information on the Internet that was obtained through unlawful/illegal means and/or practices and was POSTED on the Internet for subliminal purposes to let other citizens know what will happen to them if they challenge the United States Government as well as DETER citizens from coming forth reporting/exposing Title VII violations and/or other criminal/civil wrongs as Newsome has done.

III. CAUSAL CONNECTION

A. Is there direct evidence that retaliation was a motive for the adverse action?

1. Did Respondent/Employer admit that it undertook the adverse action because of the protected activity?

2. Did Respondent/Employer express bias against Newsome based on the protected activity? If so, is there evidence linking that statement of bias to the adverse action?

- Such a link would be established if, for example, the statement was made by the decision-maker at the time of the challenged action.

If there is direct evidence that retaliation was a motive for the adverse action, "cause" should be found. Evidence as to any additional legitimate motive would be relevant only to relief, under a mixed-motives analysis.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence in this instant action as well as the lower court action, records of Government Agency(ies), opposing parties records, former employers, etc. will sustain/support that there is direct evidence that RETALIATION was a motive for the adverse action taken against Newsome because of knowledge of her engagement in protected activities. Moreover, that the lawsuit (while brought as a "Forcible Entry/Detainer Action"), out of which this instant action arises, stems from RETALIATION as the motive for being filed and opposing party and its counsel's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. See EXHIBIT "13" – February 6, 2009 Letter to David Meranus attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Furthermore:

a) The record evidence will support/sustain not only the ADMISSION of opposing party and/or its counsel's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES but that they undertook adverse action (i.e. in keeping of PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE, etc.) and contacted Newsome's employer (Wood & Lamping) to advise of Newsome's engagement in protected activities as well as its intent to bring lawsuit against Newsome; therefore, needing its termination of her employment to provide it with an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit to be filed against her.

> Plaintiff (Stor-All) bringing Forcible Entry/Detainer Action with knowledge that it was already in unlawful/illegal possession of Newsome's storage unit and property WITHOUT legal authority/court order. Stor-All taking the laws into its own hands and unlawfully/illegally took possession of Newsome's storage unit/property without court order and/or legal authority. The record evidence will support that Stor-All providing Newsome with "NOTICE TO LEAVE THE PREMISES" dated "January 9, 2009" which MATCHES the exact date that Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping was terminated. Stor-All, its counsel/insurance company seeking Newsome's termination of employment with knowledge there was a CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST that arose due to the fact that Newsome provided legal support to an attorney by the name of Thomas J. Breed (i.e. whose former employer was Schwartz Manes & Ruby – n/k/a Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin ["SMR&S"]) – See EXHIBIT "102" – Letterhead of SMR&S bearing Breed's name. Stor-All seeking Newsome's termination to keep her from seeking representation by Wood & Lamping because of the CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST. Upon being successful in obtaining Newsome's termination of employment, Stor-All through its counsel (David Meranus of SMR&S) on or about January 21, 2009, filed its Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer – see EXHIBIT "103" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Said complaint was met with Newsome's "Answer to Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer; Notification Accompanying Counter-Claim; Counter-Claim and Demand For Jury Trial" – see EXHIBIT "104" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.
> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: To better understand the link/nexus between the Title VII violations and/or Constitutional/Civil Rights violations deprived Newsome because of Stor-All's, its counsel and her employer's (Wood & Lamping's) knowledge of her engagement in protected activities, Newsome attaches a copy of the BRIEFS ONLY of the following complaints/charges filed with the United States Department of Labor:
>
> ii) Official United States Government of Labor United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and Ohio Civil Rights Commission Charge of Discrimination of and Against Wood &

[104] Estrada v. Cypress Semiconductor (Minnesota) Inc., 16 Wage & Hour Cas.2d (BNA) 819 C.A.8. (2010) - There are two types of claims under the FMLA: interference and retaliation. Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, § 105(a)(1), 29 U.S.C.A. § 2615(a)(1).

Coffman v. Ford Motor Co., 159 Lab.Cas. P 35,769 (S.D.Ohio.W.Div.,2010) - In order to establish prima facie claim of retaliation under FMLA, plaintiff must show that: (1) she was engaged in an activity protected by FMLA; (2) her employer knew that she was exercising her rights under FMLA; (3) her employer took an employment action adverse to her; and (4) there was a causal connection between the protected FMLA activity and the adverse employment action. Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, § 105(a)(2), 29 U.S.C.A. § 2615(a)(2). See also, Bernhard v. Brown & Brown of Lehigh Valley, Inc., 2010 WL 2431821 (2010); Brown v. Hartt Transp Systems, Inc., 2010 WL 2804134 (2010)

b) The record evidence will further support the link/nexus between CRIMINAL STALKING of those Judge West is CONSPIRING with to THROW THIS LAWSUIT and efforts being taken to provide opposing party with an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in this lawsuit because of his knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITY. Furthermore, how opposing party's insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL) repeatedly retains counsel to come before the courts (i.e. as in this instant lawsuit) and use the judicial arena as a circus to entice, coerce, bribe, extort, blackmail, etc. judges/justices and other willing participants to engage in the ONGOING Conspiracy leveled against Newsome to deprive her rights secured under the Constitution, Civil Rights Act and other governing statutes/laws because of their knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES secured/protected under Title VII and other laws.

c) The record evidence will support that opposing party (Plaintiff Stor-All) in lower court action, its counsel, its insurance carrier (LIBERTY MUTUAL), its attorneys and others have engaged in criminal/civil wrongs such as CRIMINAL STALKING and contacting Newsome's employers (i.e. as it did prior to bringing the lower court action) and notifying of her engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES for purposes of getting her terminated and/or subjecting her to adverse action as well as purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in legal actions.

B. Is there circumstantial evidence that retaliation was the true reason for the adverse action?

1. Is there evidence raising an inference that retaliation was the cause of the adverse action?

- Such an inference is raised if the adverse action took place after the protected activity and if the decision-maker was aware of the protected activity before undertaking the adverse action.

- If there was a long period of time between the protected activity and the adverse action, determine whether there is other evidence raising an inference that the cause of the adverse action was retaliation.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: There is circumstantial evidence in this instant filing as well as in the lower court records, employers' records, opposing parties records and government records to support circumstantial evidence that retaliation was the true reason for the adverse action and the bringing of the lawsuit out of which this instant action arises.

The record evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE by Judge West and his Conspirators/Co-Conspirators. Moreover, there is circumstantial evidence to sustain/support that retaliation is the true reason that the lawsuit in which this instant action arises is a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and that Judge West is fully aware of the protected activities because opposing parties have made it SERIALLY/HABITUALLY a priority to make known their knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and providing Newsome with such INCRIMINATING circumstantial evidence to sustain/support the true reason for the DISCRIMINATORY/RETALIATORY and ADVERSE ACTIONS repeatedly leveled against Newsome. Therefore, there is evidence raising an inference that retaliation was the cause of the adverse action – i.e. filing of this lawsuit. Said knowledge was confirmed at the February 6, 2009 hearing on Newsome's Motion to Transfer when opposing counsel made known to her, during the execution of "MAGISTRATE ORDER" of his knowledge of her engagement in protected activity. See EXHIBIT "13" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Meranus making known this information to Newsome for purposes of bribery, extortion, coercion, blackmail, etc. to get Newsome to withdraw her Counterclaim; however, was disappointed when Newsome would not. Therefore, it led to Meranus ABANDONING his clients in that he did not want to defend against Newsome's Counterclaim and the need to engage Judge West in the CONSPIRACY and to get him to throw the lawsuit. Judge West whose Bailiff (Damon Riley) was indicted for:

(a) Theft in office;
(b) Bribery; and
(c) Attempted Bribery

and was found "GUILTY" by a jury of Attempted Bribery.

PERTINENT/RELEVENT information because from the Pattern-Of-Practice and History Newsome has with insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and its attorneys/counsel, they look to find dirt and/or incriminating information such as information on Damon Riley for purposes of blackmail, bribery, extortion, coercion, etc. as LEVERAGE against persons (i.e. such as Judge West) to engage them in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage over legal matters. Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that based upon the crimes that Judge West and others engaged in on or about September 24, 2009, against her, that Judge West may have known and/or should have known of the crimes that his Bailiff (Riley) was committing – i.e. may have even gotten a piece of the action.

> From such evidence, it will support the steps/procedures to be followed once a Criminal Complaint is filed. Bailiff Damon Riley has already been indicted, tried and convicted within a YEARS time. O.J. Simpson in the Las Vegas matter was arrested, indicted and tried in about a year's time. However, Judge West and his Conspirators/Co-Conspirators who committed similar crimes as that in which O.J. Simpson committed as well as that of Bailiff Riley still remain at large. Why? Because they associated with and/or have a personal/financial interest in the outcome of this lawsuit just as PRESIDENT OBAMA and his ADMINISTRATION'S Top/Key Financial Campaign Contributors and Advisors/Counselors do. Therefore, based upon such INCRIMINATING facts and evidence, Judge West and others involved in the crimes September 24, 2009 crimes reported remain at large. President Obama and his Administration failing to prosecute the crimes reported because they need Judge West to fulfill his role in the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome on October 22, 2010 – THROWING LAWSUIT and DISMISSING LAWSUIT for purposes of depriving Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws in RETALIATION for her having engaged in protected activities and going PUBLIC in exposing such criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her.
> 2. Has Respondent/Employer produced evidence of a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for the adverse action?

Important To Note: Newsome relies upon the EEOC's Compliance Manual in addressing this action in that the lawsuit in which this instant action arises is a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of RETALIATION because of Newsome's engagement in protected activities. Newsome is CONFIDENT that the record of the lower court will support that while Plaintiff Stor-All brought MALICIOUS Forcible Entry/Detainer Action against Newsome that it was already in unlawful/illegal possession of Newsome's storage unit and property WITHOUT legal authority/court order. Furthermore, that while Stor-All brought this lawsuit against Newsome, once served with her Counterclaim, sought to ABANDON lawsuit and is now looking to Judge West and other Judges/Justices to AID & ABET in criminal/civil wrongs to keep from having to pay Newsome for the damages/injuries sustained. In fact, Stor-All allowed the time to lapse (i.e. even though the lower court advised of time within which to file an Answer to Counterclaim and Newsome in good faith advised that she would file a Motion for Default Judgment if Answer is not filed within time required by law) to file an Answer to Newsome's Answer and Counterclaim and is now DEPENDING on Judge West to come through on his part in the CONSPIRACY on October 22, 2010, and throw the lawsuit and deprive Newsome the relief to which she is entitled. Moreover, deprive Newsome JURY trial as well as other relief secured under the United States Constitution and Ohio Constitution.

3. Is Respondent's/Employer's explanation a pretext designed to hide retaliation?

   - Did Respondent/Employer treat similarly situated employees who did not engage in protected activity differently from Newsome?

   - Did Respondent/Employer subject Newsome to heightened scrutiny after she engaged in protected activity?

   If, on the basis of all the evidence, the investigator is persuaded that retaliation was the true reason for the adverse action, then "cause" should be found.

Important To Note: This information is PERTINENT/RELEVANT in that it will support that the lawsuit out of which this instant action arises resulted as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of the role Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL), and its attorneys played in succeeding in getting Newsome's employment terminated so they could bring the MALICOIUS lawsuit against her.

Not only is Plaintiff Stor-All's inability to defend against Newsome's Answer and Counterclaim further evidence of its inability to defend against lawsuit but the DECISION set to be rendered on or about Friday, October 22, 2010, is PRETEXTUALLY designed to hide/shield an illegal animus and a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE of RETALIATION leveled against Newsome because the facts and evidence will support/sustain that LIBERTY MUTUAL, its clients and attorneys have a WELL-ESTABLISHED record of knowingly/willingly engaging in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and relying upon CORRUPT JUDGES and/or CORRUPT PUBLIC OFFICIALS to get them off.

Record evidence will support how Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and its counsel/attorneys relied upon Newsome's employer to fulfill its role in the conspiracy (i.e. terminating Newsome's employment) for purposes of providing them with an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit that would be brought against her. The record evidence will support that a reasonable mind may conclude that based upon the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE of Plaintiff's insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL), its attorneys and others in contacting Newsome's employer(s) and advising of her engagement in protected activities, that it did the same with Wood & Lamping; however, Wood & Lamping was already aware of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and knew that based on such information that it could not terminate her. Nevertheless, for purposes of fulfilling its role in the ongoing CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome and to provide Stor-All, its insurance company (LIBRETY MUTUAL), and its counsel with an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in the lawsuit to brought against Newsome, W&L terminated her employment with knowledge that it was violating the laws – i.e. moreover, its own POLICIES and PROCEDURES:

> EQUAL OPPORTUNITY
> The firm is an equal opportunity employer, and as such, is firmly committed to treating all employees and applicants equally without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, marital status, veteran status, or other protected classes. We will endeavor to make reasonable accommodations for known physical or mental limitations of otherwise qualified employees and applicants with disabilities unless the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of or business. Our employment decisions, including, but not limited to, hiring, compensation, benefits, training, and promotions are based on the principles of equal employment opportunity. Discrimination by any member of the firm will not be tolerated. Suspected violations of this policy must be reported promptly to a member of management or to a partner. Violators will receive discipline appropriate to the offense, up to an including termination. This policy also prohibits retaliation against anyone who has filed a complaint of discrimination or harassment. – See excerpt of Wood & Lamping LLP Policies and Procedures Manual @ p. 11 at EXHIBIT "107" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Said knowledge of criminal/civil wrongs was the DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of W&L breaking into Newsome's desk and removing Employee Handbook/Manual and/or evidence that it knew would be incriminating and for purposes of OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE. However, W&L was disappointed to find that Newsome retained another copy of said Handbook/Manual.

Ohio Revised Code §2921.12 Tampering with evidence.

(A) No person, knowing that an official proceeding or investigation is in progress, or is about to be or likely to be instituted, shall do any of the following:

(1) Alter, destroy, conceal, or remove any record, document, or thing, with purpose to impair its value or availability as evidence in such proceeding or investigation;

(2) Make, present, or use any record, document, or thing, knowing it to be false and with purpose to mislead a public official who is or may be engaged in such proceeding or investigation, or with purpose to corrupt the outcome of any such proceeding or investigation.

(B) Whoever violates this section is guilty of tampering with evidence, a felony of the third degree.

IV. SPECIAL REMEDIES ISSUES

A. Is it appropriate to seek temporary or preliminary relief pending final disposition of the charge?

1. Is there a substantial likelihood that the challenged action will be found to constitute unlawful retaliation?

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is RELEVANT and/or PERTINENT in that this instant action has been brought to preserve the rights of Newsome secured under the United States Constitution and to assure that she obtains equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Newsome seeks the United States Supreme Court to exercise JURISDICTION over this matter and to take the MANDATORY steps to assure that Newsome receives any and all applicable relief she is entitled. The record evidence clearly supports that Newsome has filed the required Charges/Complaints with the United States Department of Labor:

i) Official Family and Medical Leave Act Complaint of and Against Wood & Lamping, LLP Filed With The United States Department of Labor Employment Standards Administration Wage and Hour Division – Cincinnati Area Office on January 16, 2009 - See EXHIBIT "105" (BRIEF and supporting Exhibits) attached hereto and incorporated by reference.[105]

Coffman v. Ford Motor Co., 159 Lab.Cas. P 35,769 (S.D.Ohio.W.Div.,2010) - In order to establish prima facie claim of retaliation under FMLA, plaintiff must show that: (1) she was engaged in an activity protected by FMLA; (2) her employer knew that she was exercising her rights under FMLA; (3) her employer took an employment action adverse to her; and (4) there was a causal connection between the protected FMLA activity and the adverse employment action. as well as the proper CRIMINAL COMPLAINTS with the United States Department of Justice:

i) June 26, 2006 - - Complaint and Request for Investigation To The United States Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of Investigations Filed by Vogel D. Newsome. See EXHIBIT "45" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

ii) October 13, 2008 - - Complaint and Request For Investigation Filed by Denise Newsome With The Federal Bureau Of Investigation - Louisville, Kentucky See EXHIBIT "46" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

iii) September 24, 2009 - - Criminal Complaint And Request For Investigation Filed By Vogel Denise Newsome With the Federal Bureau of Investigation - Cincinnati, Ohio. See EXHIBIT "30" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

iv) December 28, 2009 - - Complaint And Request For Investigation Filed By Vogel Denise Newsome With The Federal Bureau Of Investigation - Cincinnati, Ohio; and REQUEST FOR UNITED STATES PRESIDENTIAL EXECUTIVE ORDER(S). See EXHIBIT "16" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

Therefore, Newsome is seeking the intervention of the United States Supreme Court to exercise Jurisdiction and take any and all appropriate actions to CORRECT the criminal/civil wrongs that have been brought to its attention through this instant pleading and to be brought through the Certiorari action to be filed (if necessary).

Newsome believes that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions provided herein will support/sustain that there is substantial likelihood that the challenged actions by Judge West and others will be found to be constitute unlawful retaliation and clearly PUBLIC CORRUPTION. Moreover, that the integrity of the lower court and/or judicial system has been heavily compromised by Judge West and his CONSPIRATORS/CO-CONSPIRATORS. Furthermore, that this case is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest.

2. Will the retaliation cause irreparable harm to Newsome and/or the EEOC?

   - Will Newsome likely incur irreparable harm beyond financial hardship because of retaliation?

   - If the retaliation appears to be based on Newsome's filing of a prior EEOC charge, will that retaliation likely cause irreparable harm to EEOC's ability to investigate Newsome's original charge of discrimination?

   If there is a substantial likelihood that the challenged action will constitute retaliation and that retaliation will cause irreparable harm to Newsome and/or the EEOC, contact the Regional Attorney about pursuing temporary or preliminary relief.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and/or RELEVANT in that it will support that the Newsome has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm from the ongoing RETALIATION if the United States Supreme Court does not intervene. Moreover, that the next scheduled attack leveled against Newsome has been formally set for Friday, October 22, 2010, with Judge West presiding. Furthermore:

i) Newsome will likely and has incurred irreparable harm beyond financial hardship because of RETALIATION leveled against her – i.e. in fact, the most recent attacks include:

a) The unlawful/illegal EMBEZZLEMENT of her 2009 Federal Income Tax Return by the United States Department of Treasury – Leading the Charge was President Obama and Secretary Timothy Geithner - i.e. who himself has been reported to receiving his position although he owed approximately $43,000 in back taxes. See EXHIBIT "79."

b) The unlawful/illegal EMBEZZLEMENT of monies in Newsome's Bank Account(s) through the use of SHAM Legal Process (i.e. Notice of Levy) wherein the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue FALSIFIED and REWROTE/COMPROMISED legal statute to AID in committal of crimes. See Paragraph F(i)/Page 50 of this instant pleading and EXHIBIT "27."

ii) The record evidence will support that the RETALIATION leveled against Newsome is based on her filing of prior EEOC charges. In fact, the lower court record will support that on or about March 13, 2009, in Stor-All's request for Protective/Restraining Order it makes known said acts when it alleges its involvement in a "multi-state" conspiracy. Such attacks on Newsome is further evidenced in Mississippi action as well and will support that the KEY PLAYERS being Stor-All's insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and its and/or legal representatives. Thus, supporting/sustaining a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE, criminal stalking, harassment, threats, etc. as evidenced in this lawsuit from the pleadings filed and the criminal/civil violations carried out on or about September 24, 2009.

B. Are compensatory and punitive damages available and appropriate?

Compensatory and punitive damages are available for retaliation claims under all of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

Punitive damages often are appropriate in retaliation claims under any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome believes that based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein and in the record of the lower courts, she is entitled to compensatory damages, punitive damages and any and all other relief afforded to her under the Constitution and laws of the United States to correct the legal wrongs complained of.

Newsome believes that the record evidence supports/sustains the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE of RETALIATION leveled against that arises under all of the statutes enforced by the EEOC as well as other government agency(s) giving rise to compensatory damages and punitive damages sought.

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 [Section 704[a] of Title VII, 42 USC §2000e-3(a)] – PROHIBIT retaliation by an employer, employment agency, or labor organization because an individual has engaged in PROTECTED ACTIVITY. Protected activity consists of the following:

(1) Opposing a practice made unlawful by one of the employment discrimination statutes (the "opposition" clause); or

(2) Filing a charge, testifying, assisting, or participating in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under the applicable statute (the "participation" clause).

This chapter reaffirms the Commission's policy of ensuring that individuals who oppose unlawful employment discrimination, participate in employment discrimination proceedings, or otherwise assert their rights under the laws enforced by the Commission are protected against retaliation. - - If retaliation for such activities were permitted to go unremedied, it would have a chilling effect upon the willingness of individuals to speak out against employment discrimination or to participate in EEOC's administrative process or other employment discrimination proceedings.

The Commission can sue for temporary or preliminary relief before completing its processing of a retaliation charge if the charging party or the Commission will likely suffer irreparable harm because of the retaliation.

A charging party can challenge retaliation by a respondent even if the retaliation occurred after their employment relationship ended – See Section 8-II D of EEOC COMPLIANCE MANUAL – A charging party can also challenge retaliation by a respondent based on her protected activity involving a different employer, or based on protected activity by someone closely related to or associated with the charging party. See Sections 8-II B.3.c. and d. and 8-II C.3. and 4 of EEOC COMPLIANCE MANUAL.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT in that Newsome has provided this Court with a copy of the following Charges/Complaints filed to support her opposition to unlawful practices leveled against her:

i) Official Family and Medical Leave Act Complaint of and Against Wood & Lamping, LLP Filed With The United States Department of Labor Employment Standards Administration Wage and Hour Division – Cincinnati Area Office on January 16, 2009 - See EXHIBIT "105" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.[106]

ii) Official United States Government of Labor United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and Ohio Civil Rights Commission Charge of Discrimination of and Against Wood & Lamping, LLP Filed Through Its Cincinnati Area Office- See EXHIBIT "106" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

to expose PUBLIC CORRUPTION in the United States Department of Labor; moreover, how the EEOC, WAGE & HOUR Division and other branches of the Government (i.e. Courts) have RETALIATED against Newsome and has gone PUBLIC by placing false/misleading/malicious information on the internet to DETER and PUNISH Newsome for OPPOSING discriminatory treatment and handling of charges/complaints. Furthermore, Newsome presents information to support her ability to get employer (Mitchell McNutt & Sams) to ADMIT to discriminatory and hostile treatment of Newsome during her employment – See EXHIBIT "83" - attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Nevertheless, when the EEOC was provided with Newsome's Charge/Complaint it KNOWINGLY and WILLINGLY failed to perform MANDATORY duties afforded to other citizens – for example see the following cases/matters the "Equal Employment Opportunity Commission" has brought on behalf of other citizens similarly situated:

[106] Estrada v. Cypress Semiconductor (Minnesota) Inc., 16 Wage & Hour Cas.2d (BNA) 819 C.A.8. (2010) - There are two types of claims under the FMLA: interference and retaliation. Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, § 105(a)(1), 29 U.S.C.A. § 2615(a)(1).

Coffman v. Ford Motor Co., 159 Lab.Cas. P 35,769 (S.D.Ohio.W.Div.,2010) - In order to establish prima facie claim of retaliation under FMLA, plaintiff must show that: (1) she was engaged in an activity protected by FMLA; (2) her employer knew that she was exercising her rights under FMLA; (3) her employer took an employment action adverse to her; and (4) there was a causal connection between the protected FMLA activity and the adverse employment action. See EXHIBIT "151" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The EEOC failing to do so in RETALIATION to Newsome having engaged in protected activities and bringing legal actions against the United States Department of Labor – EEOC, its officials and others. The record evidence will support the EEOC's DISCRIMINATORY and PREJUDICAL practices leveled against Newsome – i.e failing to provide Newsome with EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws afforded to other similarly situated citizens who were deprived rights under Title VII and/or the Civil Rights Act, etc. The record evidence will support that Newsome requested the firing/termination of Department of Labor Officials/Employees engaging in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her – See verification of submittal of document entitled, "PATTERN OF DISCRIMINATION: COVER-UP OF DISCRIMINATION/CONSTITUTIONAL/ CIVIL RIGHTS VIOLATIONS - Requests for Investigation; Request for Termination/Firings (Of Secretary Hilda L. Solis; District Director Karen R. Chaikin and Investigator Joan M. Petric) If Violations are Found in the Handling of Wage and Hour Division Charge no. 1537034; Request for Documentation Regarding Administrative Appeal Process; and DEMAND/RELIEF REQUESTED" at EXHIBIT "141" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

When Newsome reported "Fair Labor and Standard Act" violations the United States Department of Labor RETALIATED against Newsome and COVERED UP said violations of Mitchell McNutt & Sams because of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and for filing lawsuit(s) against the United States Department of Labor. The record evidence will support DISCRIMINATORY and PREJUDICAL practices leveled against Newsome – i.e failing to provide Newsome with EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws afforded to other similarly situated citizens who were deprived rights under the Fair Labor Standard Act ("FLSA"). See the following evidence at EXHIBIT "112" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Nevertheless, it brought legal action on behalf of other citizens for the same and/similar violations (i.e. FLSA) Newsome brought.

When Newsome reported "Family & Medical Leave Act" violations the United States Department of Labor RETALIATED against Newsome and COVERED UP said violations of Wood & Lamping because of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and for filing lawsuit(s) against the United States Department of Labor. The record evidence will support DISCRIMINATORY and PREJUDICAL practices leveled against Newsome – i.e failing to provide Newsome with EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities and DUE PROCESS of laws afforded to other similarly situated citizens who were deprived rights under the Fair Labor Standard Act ("FLSA"). See the following evidence:

i) EEOC vs. COGNIS CORP., U.S. District Court/Central District of Illinois (Urbana Division), Case No. 2:10-cv-02182-MPM-DGB

ii) DOUGHERTY vs. TEVA PHARMACEUTICALS USA, INC., U.S. Districct Court/Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Case No. 05-02336

See EXHIBIT "113" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Nevertheless, it brought legal action on behalf of other citizens for the same and/similar violations (i.e. FLSA) Newsome brought.

The record evidence will support that Plaintiff (Stor-All) brought this lawsuit in RETALIATION and its knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities. Stor-All prior to bringing this lawsuit PREMEDITATED on a defense to paint Newsome as a "serial litigator" based on its knowledge her engagement in protected activities. Stor-All failing to mention that it, its insurance provider (LIBERTY MUTUAL), its attorneys and others are engaging in criminal/civil wrongs – i.e. CRIMINAL STALKING, HARASSMENT, THREATS, etc. of Newsome because of her engagement in protected activities and contacting Newsome's employer(s) for purposes of getting her terminated.

The record evidence will support that the EEOC is involved in the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of Title VII violations and other criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome. Moreover, that in RETALIATION of Newsome having sued it EXPOSING Public Corruption and its refusal to perform MANDATORY ministerial duties, has REPEATEDLY allowed Newsome's employers to go unpunished. Moreover, has placed what it knows to be FALSE/MISLEADING/MALICIOUS information on the Internet in regards to its investigations – i.e. for example see EXHIBIT "87" information posted on the INTERNET by the Review Board that it knew was false, misleading and malicious for purposes of COVERING-UP the criminal/civil wrongs of Mitchell McNutt & Sams attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Such acts which are clearly DISCRIMINATORY and deprives Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws afforded to other citizens. Unlawful/Illegal practices which infringes upon rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Civil Rights Act and other laws of the United States.

When Newsome brought her charges/complaints, the United States Department of Labor RETALIATED and failed to investigate, prosecute, deter unlawful practices, report violations, etc. of employers and allowed its employees to COVER-UP said violations. Therefore, based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions provided herein, Newsome believes a reasonable mind may conclude that Department of Labor Officials/Employees assigned her matter have knowingly, willingly and deliberately engaged in conspiracy with those (i.e. Newsome's former employers, Liberty Mutual, Baker Donelson, Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin, Markesbery & Richardson Co, United States President Barack Obama and his Administration and other conspirators/co-conspirators):

> U.S. v. Johnson, 86 S.Ct. 749 (1966) - Statute making it unlawful for two or more persons to conspire to commit any offense against United States or to defraud the United States or any agents encompasses . . . any conspiracy for purpose of impairing, obstructing or defeating the lawful function of any department of government. 18 U.S.C.A. § 371.
> Ingram v. U.S., 79 S.Ct. 1314 (1959) - Conspiracy to commit particular substantive offense cannot exist without at least the degree of criminal intent necessary for substantive offense itself. 18 U.S.C.A. § 371.
>
> U.S. v. Bayer, 67 S.Ct. 1394 (1947) - An agreement or confederation to commit a crime is punishable as a "conspiracy," if any overt act is taken in pursuit of it, and the agreement is punishable regardless of whether the contemplated crime is consummated.

ELEMENTS OF RETALIATION:

(1) Opposition to discrimination or participation in covered proceedings;

(2) Adverse action;

(3) Causal connection between the protected activity and the adverse action

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT to this lawsuit and this instant action in that it will support that Plaintiff Stor-All brought this action in keeping with a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE of RETALIATION against Newsome for her opposing the discriminatory practices of Stor-All, its insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL)/its clients, their attorneys and others and their knowledge of Newsome's participation in protected activities/covered proceedings.

This lawsuit is an ADVERSE ACTION brought by Plaintiff Stor-All based on its knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities.

The record evidenced will support that there is causal connection between Newsome's engagement in protected activity and Plaintiff Stor-All bringing a MALICIOUS Forcible Entry/Detainer Action. Moreover, a causal connection in which Judge West is now attempting to commit further CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs against Newsome on or about October 22, 2010, in keeping with CONSPIRACY and the COVER-UP of unlawful/illegal actions that have been timely, properly and adequately reported by Newsome.

> PROTECTED ACTIVITY – OPPOSITION:
> The anti-retaliation provisions make it unlawful to discriminate against Newsome because she has opposed any practice made unlawful under the employment discrimination statutes:
>
> > The anti-retaliation provision of the Fair Labor Standards Act, which applies to the Equal Pay Act, does not contain a specific "opposition" clause. However, courts have recognized that the statute prohibits retaliation based on opposition to allegedly unlawful practices. See, e.g., EEOC v. Romeo Community Sch., 976 F.2d 985, 989-90 (6th Cir. 1992); EEOC v. White & Son Enterprises, 881 F.2d 1006, 1011 (11th Cir. 1989). Contra Lambert v. Genessee Hospital, 10 F.3d 46, 55 (2d Cir. 1993), cert. denied, 511 U.S. 1052 (1994).
> This protection applies if Newsome explicitly or implicitly communicates to her employer or other covered entity a belief that its activity constitutes a form of employment discrimination that is covered by any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT in that the record evidence will support that this lawsuit is a MALICIOUS action brought against Newsome in RETALIATION of Plaintiff Stor-All's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activity. Moreover, evidencing discriminatory and retaliatory actions by Plaintiff Stor-All against Newsome because she has opposed practices made unlawful under the employment discrimination statutes.

The record evidence clearly supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE with Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and its attorneys STALKING Newsome and contacting her employers and others and making known Newsome's engagement in protected activities.

The record evidence in the lower courts will support/sustain that Plaintiff Stor-All and its counsel are attempting to use knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities as a defense in this lawsuit. Not only that, that Stor-All's insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL), its attorneys and others have established a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE to support CRIMINAL STALKING, HARASSMENT, THREATS, etc. of Newsome and contacting her employers and her attorneys for purposes CONSPIRACY in Obstructing the Administration of Justice and COVERING UP the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome.

The record evidence will support that LIBERTY MUTUAL encourages its clients to engage in employment violations as well as criminal/civil wrongs because of its attorneys' ties to TOP/KEY Government Officials – i.e. BIG MONEY and CORRUPT PUBLIC OFFICIALS. Then when lawsuits are brought against Newsome (as this instant lawsuit) and/or involving Newsome, LIBERTY MUTUAL and its attorneys rely upon SPECIAL ties/relationships to BIG MONEY/CORRUPT OFFICIALS to provide them with special favors as it is attempting to do in this instant lawsuit. LIBERTY MUTUAL and its attorneys' ability to get Justices/Judges to engage in criminal/civil wrongs as a part of the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome because of her engagement in protected activities is further evidenced in this instant lawsuit. Now they are attempting to get Judge West to fulfill additional role in CONSPIRACY and the COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs on or about Friday, October 22, 2010. Doing so because they have obtained PARTICIPATION by President Barack Obama and his Administration to COVER-UP the criminal/civil wrongs that have been reported by Newsome in her September 24, 2009 Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Vogel Denise Newsome With The Federal Bureau of Investigation – Cincinnati, Ohio and December 28, 2009 Criminal Complaint and Request for Investigation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for United States Presidential Executive Order(s).

EXAMPLES OF OPPOSITION:

- Threatening to file a charge or other formal complaint alleging discrimination

  Threatening to file a complaint with the Commission, a state fair employment practices agency, court or any other entity that receives complaints relating to discrimination is a form of opposition.

- Complaining to anyone about alleged discrimination against oneself or others

  A complaint or protest about alleged employment discrimination to a manager, co-worker, company EEO official, attorney, newspaper reporter*,* CONGRESSPERSON, or anyone else constitutes opposition.

  A complaint about an employment practice constitutes protected opposition only if the individual explicitly or implicitly communicates a belief that the practice constitutes unlawful employment discrimination.

- Refusing to obey an order because of a reasonable belief that it is discriminatory

  Refusal to obey an order constitutes protected opposition if Newsome reasonably believes that the order requires her to carry out unlawful employment discrimination.

  Refusal to obey an order also constitutes protected opposition if Newsome reasonably believes that the order make discrimination a term or condition of employment. – Moyo v. Gomez, 40 F.3d 982 (9th Cir. 1994), cert. denied, 513 U.S. 1081 (1995).

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT to this instant lawsuit and instant pleading in that it will support a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE as well as the evidence of Newsome's OPPOSITION to the RETALIATION and unlawful/illegal actions against her. Moreover, that:

i) Newsome has repeatedly made known OPPOSITION(s) and intent to bring a charge/lawsuit for discriminatory practices and/or unlawful/illegal behavior – i.e. as she did with Stor-All.

ii) Newsome believes that her OPPOSITION to the discriminatory and/or unlawful/illegal practices of Stor-All, led to Stor-All and its attorneys/representatives to contact Newsome's employers and notify employer of her engagement in protected activities.

iii) The record evidence will support that while opposing parties attempt to paint Newsome as a "serial litigator," one that paranoid, crazy, boy who cried wolf, etc. that Newsome has repeatedly been blessed to use attorneys as sounding boards and/or retain attorneys to represent her in legal matters. Furthermore, the record evidence will even support that in Mississippi matter, Newsome moved swiftly to protect her rights and filed a FORMAL Complaint:

> Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Finding - See EXHIBIT "16" (BRIEF Only) attached hereto and incorporated by reference - to preserve her rights. While the record evidence will support mailing and receipt of Newsome's Emergency Complaint submitted to the following persons:

a) Senator Patrick Leahy
b) Representative John Conyers
c) President Barack Obama (i.e. then Senator)
d) Senator John McCain
e) Representative Debbie Wasserman-Schultz

See EXHIBIT "109" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein, TO DATE, Newsome has NOT received a STATUS of filing and has reasonable concerns that those receiving Emergency Complaint have engaged in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome and may have engaged in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs in the destruction of Complaint – FAILING to report CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs timely, properly reported by Newsome. A reasonable mind may conclude, based upon such information provided regarding Branton S. Clanton[107] and his employment with Baker Donelson as well as Baker Donelson's relationships to TOP/KEY Government Officials – i.e. White House, Senate, House of Representatives, Justices/Judges and other PUBLIC Officials (See EXHIBIT "22") – this is a classic example of the "FOX GUARDING THE HEN HOUSE;" moreover, the MAGNITUDE of the Conspiracies leveled against Newsome and the role each and every conspirator played in OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE and depriving Newsome protected rights and/or rights secured under the United States Constitution.

This information is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE importance because record evidence will support the SPECIAL RELATIONSHIPS and TIES of United State Government Agency(s)/Official(s) with LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or its attorneys/counsel. Moreover, the FINANCIAL/PERSONAL interest of Liberty Mutual and its attorneys (i.e. Baker Donelson) in legal matters involving Newsome because they involve INSUREDS of Liberty Mutual.

iv) The record evidence will further support that Newsome was REPEATEDLY subjected to discriminatory and "HOSTILE" work environments in RETALIATION to her OPPOSITION to discrimination practices by her employers or others. The record evidence will support that as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of the United States Department of Labor's NEGLIGENCE and REFUSAL to perform MANDATORY ministerial duties owed Newsome, Newsome has suffered IRREPARABLE injury/harm; moreover, has REPEATEDLY been deprived EQUAL PROTECTION of the laws and due process of laws that the United States Department of Labor has afforded to others citizens for the same and/or similar violations as that reported by Newsome.

[107] For instance:

> Mr. Clanton, a shareholder in Baker Donelson's Jackson and Washington, D.C. offices, concentrates his practice in government litigation, securities and other fraud investigations, and litigation, election law and appeals. His appellate practice has included matters before the U.S. Supreme Court*, U.S.* Courts of Appeals*, the Mississippi Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, and various other state appellate courts*. His internal investigations and government litigation practice has included matters related to Securities and Exchange Commission investigations, health care fraud investigations, federal campaign finance investigations, and state and federal securities fraud class action litigation and arbitration proceedings. Previously, Mr. Clanton served as Chief Counsel to the U.S. House Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on the Constitution, where his responsibilities included advising the Chairman and Republican Members of the Judiciary Committee on legislation and Congressional oversight implicating civil and constitutional rights*,* Congressional authority, separation of powers, proposed constitutional amendments and oversight of the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice and the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights*.*

See EXHIBIT "59" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full herein.

MANNER OF OPPOSITION MUST BE REASONABLE

The manner in which Newsome protests perceived employment discrimination must be reasonable in order for the anti-retaliation provisions to apply. In applying a "reasonableness" standard, courts and the Commission balance the right of individuals to oppose employment discrimination and the public's interest in enforcement of the EEO laws against an employer's need for a stable and productive work environment.

Public criticism of alleged discrimination may be a reasonable form of opposition. Courts have protected an employee's right to inform an employer's customers about the employer's alleged discrimination, as well as the right to engage in peaceful picketing to oppose allegedly discriminatory employment practices. - Sumner v. United States Postal Service, 899 F.2d 203 (2d Cir. 1990) (practices protected by opposition clause include writing letters to customers criticizing employer's alleged discrimination).

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT to this lawsuit and instant filing in that Newsome believes it is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE interest and there is a need to go PUBLIC in exposing such criminal/civil wrongs as that addressed herein.

The record evidence will support how the United States Government (i.e. Government Agencies, courts, etc.) will go as far as posting FALSE/MISLEADING/MALICIOUS information on the Internet regarding citizens that it knew and/or should have known was obtained through unlawful/illegal practices and has been posted for purposes of destroying a person's life (i.e. as it did with Newsome) and for purposes of depriving citizens life, liberties and pursuit of happiness. Actions clearly in violation of the United States Constitution, Civil Rights Act and other laws of the United States.

Newsome believes that there is sufficient evidence to support that the most recent attacks on her as well as other African-Americans (i.e such as Shirley Sherrod) may be a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of her having gone PUBLIC and EXPOSING the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her. Moreover, revealing how she has REPEATEDLY brought matters through the proper and required legal channels; however, has been DISCRIMINATED against and DEPRIVED justice because those with BIG MONEY are REPEATEDLY allowed to buy, bribe, purchase, blackmail, coerce, etc. Government Officials/Judges/Justices for rulings and decisions in their favor.

OPPOSITION NEED ONLY BE BASED ON REASONABLE AND GOOD FAITH BELIEF

Newsome is protected against retaliation for opposing perceived discrimination if she had reasonable and good faith belief that the opposed practices were unlawful. Thus, it is well settled that a violation of the retaliation provision can be found whether or not the challenged practice ultimately is found to be unlawful.

> [This standard has been adopted by every circuit that has considered the issue. See, e.g., Little v. United Technologies, 103 F.3d 956, 960 (11th Cir. 1997), and Trent v. Valley Electric Association, Inc., 41 F.3d 524, 526 (9th Cir. 1994)]

As one court has stated, requiring a finding of actual illegality would "undermine Title VII's central purpose, the elimination of employment discrimination by informal means; destroy one of the chief means of achieving that purpose, the frank and non-disruptive exchange of ideas between employers and employees; and serve no redeeming statutory or policy purposes of its own.

[Berg v. La Crosse Cooler Co., 612 F.2d 1041, 1045 (7th Cir. 1980)]

PARTICIPATION IS PROTECTED REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE

ALLEGATIONS IN THE ORIGINAL CHARGE WERE VALID OR REASONABLE

The anti-discrimination statutes do not limit or condition in any way the protection against retaliation for participating in the charge process. While the opposition clause applies only to those who protest practices that they reasonably and in good faith believe are unlawful, the participation clause applies to all individuals who participate in the statutory complaint process. *Thus, courts have consistently held that a respondent is liable for retaliating against an individual for filing an EEOC charge regardless of the validity or reasonableness of the charge.

[Wyatt v. Boston, 35 F.3d 13, 15 (1st Cir. 1994).]

To permit an employer to retaliate against a charging party based on its unilateral determination that the charge was unreasonable or otherwise unjustified would chill the rights of all individuals protected by the anti-discrimination statutes.

ADVERSE ACTIONS CAN OCCUR AFTER THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN NEWSOME AND RESPONDENT/EMPLOYER HAS ENDED

In Robinson v. Shell Oil Company, 519 U.S. 337, 117 S. Ct. 843 (1997), the Supreme Court unanimously held that Title VII prohibits respondents from retaliating against former employees as well as current employees for participating in any proceeding under Title VII or opposing any practice made unlawful by that Act. Some courts previously had held that former employees could not challenge retaliation that occurred after their employment had ended because Title VII prohibits retaliation against "any employee." However, the Supreme Court stated that coverage of post-employment is more consistent with the broader context of the statute and with the statutory purpose of maintaining unfettered access to the statute's remedial mechanisms. The Court's holding applies to each of the statutes enforced by the EEOC because of the similar language and common purpose of the anti-retaliation provisions.

Examples of post-employment retaliation include actions that are designed to interfere with Newsome's prospects for employment, such as giving an unjustified negative job reference, refusing to provide a job reference, and informing Newsome's prospective employer about her protected activity.

[EEOC v. L. B. Foster, 123 F.3d 746 (3d Cir. 1997), cert. denied, 66 U.S. L.W. 3388 (U.S. March 2, 1998); Ruedlinger v. Jarrett, 106 F.3d 212 (7th Cir. 1997)]

Retaliatory acts designed to interfere with Newsome's prospects for employment are unlawful regardless of whether they cause a prospective employer to refrain from hiring her.

[Hashimoto v. Dalton, 118 F.3d 671, 676 (9th Cir. 1997)]

Third Circuit stated, "an employer who retaliates cannot escape liability merely because the retaliation falls short of its intended result."

[EEOC v. L. B. Foster, 123 F.3d at 754]

ADVERSE ACTIONS NEED NOT QUALIFY AS "ULTIMATE EMPLOYMENT ACTIONS" OR MATERIALLY AFFECT THE TERMS OR CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT TO CONSTITUTE RETALIATION:

The Commission has found that the statutory retaliation clauses prohibit any adverse treatment that is based on a retaliatory motive and is reasonably likely to deter the charging party or others from engaging in protected activity. Significant retaliatory treatment, however, can be challenged regardless of the level of harm. As the Ninth Circuit has stated, the degree of harm suffered by the individual "goes to the issue of damages, not liability."

> [Hashimoto, 118 F.3d at 676. See also EEOC v. L. B. Foster, 123 F.3d at 754 n.4 (plaintiff need not prove that retaliatory denial of job reference caused prospective employer to reject her; such a showing is relevant only to damages, not liability); Smith v. Secretary of Navy, 659 F.2d 1113, 1120 (D.C. Cir. 1981) ("the questions of statutory violation and appropriate statutory remedy are conceptually distinct. An illegal act of discrimination -- whether based on race or some other factor such as a motive of reprisal -- is a wrong in itself under Title VII, regardless of whether that wrong would warrant an award of [damages]").

The Commission's position is based on statutory language and policy considerations. The anti-retaliation provisions are exceptionally broad. They make it unlawful "to discriminate" against Newsome because of her protected activity. This is in contrast to the general anti-discrimination provisions make it unlawful to discriminate with respect to Newsome's "terms, conditions, or privileges of employment." The retaliation provisions set no *qualifiers on the term "to discriminate," and therefore* prohibit any discrimination that is reasonably likely to deter protected activity.

> [Knox v. State of Indiana, 93 F.3d 1327, 1334 (7th Cir. 1996) ("[t]here is nothing in the law of retaliation that restricts the type of retaliatory act that might be visited upon an employee who seeks to invoke her rights by filing a complaint"); Passer v. American Chemical Society, 935 F.2d 322, 331 (D.C. Cir. 1991) (Section 704(a) broadly prohibits an employer from discriminating against its employees in any way for engaging in protected activity and does not "limit its reach only to acts of retaliation that take the form of cognizable employment actions such as discharge, transfer or demotion")]

They do not restrict the actions that can be challenged to those that affect the terms and conditions of employment.

> [Even if there were a requirement that the challenged action affect the terms or conditions of employment, retaliatory acts that create a hostile work environment would meet that standard since, as the Supreme Court has made clear, the terms and condition of employment include the intangible work environment. Meritor Savings Bank v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57, 64-67 (1986). For examples of cases recognizing that retaliatory harassment is unlawful, see DeAngelis v. El Paso Municipal Police Officers Ass'n., 51 F.3d 591 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 116 S. Ct. 473 (1995); Davis v. Tri-State Mack Distributor, 981 F.2d 340 (8th Cir. 1992)]

Thus, a violation will be found if an employer retaliates against Newsome for engaging in protected activity through threats –

> [McKnight v. General Motors Corp., 908 F.2d 104, 111 (7th Cir. 1990) ("[r]etaliation or a threat of retaliation is a common method of deterrence"), cert. denied, 499 U.S. 919 (1991);

Garcia v. Lawn, 805 F.2d 1400, 1401-02 (9th Cir. 1986) (threatened transfer to undesirable location); Atkinson v. Oliver T. Carr Co., 40 FEP Cases (BNA) 1041, 1043-44 (D.D.C. 1986) (threat to press criminal complaint)]

- harassment in or out of the workplace, or any other adverse treatment that is reasonably likely to deter protected activity by Newsome or other employees.

[For examples of cases finding unlawful retaliation based on adverse actions that did not affect the terms or conditions of employment, see Hashimoto, 118 F.3d at 675-76 (retaliatory job reference violated Title VII even though it did not cause failure to hire); Berry v. Stevinson Chevrolet, 74 F.3d 980, 986 (10th Cir. 1996) (instigating criminal theft and forgery charges against former employee who filed EEOC charge found retaliatory)]

This broad view of coverage accords the primary purpose of the anti-retaliation provisions, which is to "[m]aintain unfettered access to statutory remedial mechanisms -

[Robinson v. Shell Oil Co., 117 S. Ct. 843, 848 (1997)]

- Regardless of the degree or quality of harm to Newsome, retaliation harms the public interest by deterring others from filing a charge.

[Garcia, 805 F.2d at 1405]

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT in that this lawsuit was brought in RETALIATION of Plaintiff Stor-All's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities. Moreover, for purpose of PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE involving the Criminal Stalking, Harassment, Threats, Discrimination, etc. leveled against Newsome.

It is of PUBLIC/WORLDWIDE importance that citizens and others know how the United States Government CONSPIRES with EMPLOYERS and OTHERS and post False/Misleading/Malicious information on the INTERNET in RETALIATION to citizens (i.e. such as Newsome) who bring lawsuits against it Agency(s) /Officials/Employees for failure to perform ministerial duties MANDATORILY required under the law. The good thing about Newsome's situation, Newsome was able to obtain facts, evidence and legal conclusions to support DEPRIVATION of equal protection of the laws and due process of laws as well as her ability to obtain information from employer(s) ADMITTING and/or SUPPORTING DISCRIMINATION, etc.

PROOF OF CAUSAL CONNECTION:

In order to establish unlawful retaliation, there must be proof that Respondent/Employer took an adverse action because Newsome engaged in protected activity*. Proof of this retaliatory motive can be through direct or circumstantial evidence.* The evidentiary framework that applies to other types of discrimination claims also applies to retaliation claims.

If there is credible direct evidence that retaliation was a motive for the challenged action, "cause" should be found.

[The basis for finding "cause" whenever there is credible direct evidence of a retaliatory motive is Section 107 of the 1991 Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e-2(m) and 2000e-5(g)(2)(B). Section 107 provides that an unlawful employment > practice is established whenever race, color, religion, sex, or national origin was a motivating factor, even though other factors also motivated the practice. It further provides that a complainant who makes such a showing can obtain declaratory relief, injunctive relief, and attorneys fees but no damages or reinstatement if the respondent proves that it would have taken the same action even absent the discrimination. Section 107 partially overrules Price Waterhouse v. Hopkins, 490 U.S. 228 (1989), which held that a respondent can avoid liability for intentional discrimination in mixed-motives cases if it can prove that it would have made the same decision in the absence of the discrimination.

> Some courts have ruled that Section 107 does not apply to retaliation claims. See, e.g., Woodson v. Scott Paper, 109 F.3d 913 (3d Cir.), cert. denied, 118 S. Ct. 299 (1997). Those courts apply Price Waterhouse v. Hopkins, and therefore absolve the employer of liability for proven retaliation if the establishes that it would have made the same decision in the absence of retaliation. Other courts have applied Section 107 to retaliation claims. See, e.g., Merritt v. Dillard Paper Co., 120 F.3d 1181, 1191 (11th Cir. 1997).]

Direct evidence: Is any written or verbal statement by Respondent that he/she undertook the challenged action because Newsome engaged in protected activity. Such evidence includes a written or oral statement by Respondent that on its face demonstrates a bias toward Newsome based on her protected activity*, along with evidence linking that bias to the adverse action. Such a link could be shown if the statement was made by the decision-maker at the time of the adverse action.* Direct evidence of retaliation is rare*.*

> [In Merritt v. Dillard Paper Company, 120 F.3d 1181 (11th Cir. 1997), the plaintiff testified in a co-worker's Title VII action about sexual harassment in the workplace. Shortly after the case was settled, the president of the company fired the plaintiff. The court found direct evidence of retaliation based on the president's statement to the plaintiff, "[y]our deposition was the most damning to Dillard's case, and you no longer have a place here at Dillard Paper Company."]

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT in this instant lawsuit because the record evidence supports that this lawsuit was brought in RETALIATION to Newsome's engagement in protected activities. Moreover, that Plaintiff Stor-All did not bring the lawsuit until it secured Newsome's TERMINATION of EMPLOYMENT based on her engagement in protected activities and the need to see that Newsome was irreparably injured/harmed financially to prevent her from defending against this lawsuit and for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit.

In fact, Newsome's employer (Wood & Lamping) knew that it was engaging in criminal/civil violations against her. Therefore, in an effort to obstruct justice, Wood & Lamping's representative(s) broke into Newsome's desk and removed evidence (i.e. Employee Handbook/Manual) that it knew would be incriminating for purposes of OBSTRUCTING the administration of justice and then proceeded to provide FALSE/MISLEADING information for purposes of IMPEDING/OBSTRUCTING/HINDERING a federal investigation. It is a good thing Newsome extra retained copy(s) of documents. Wood & Lamping fulfilling its role in CONSPIRACY orchestrated and carried out by Plaintiff Stor-All (i.e. its insurance company and attorneys).

The record evidence clearly supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE by Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and their attorneys. Unlawful/Illegal practices of Criminal Stalking, Harassment, Threats, Discrimination, etc. leveled against Newsome.

Circumstantial Evidence: The most common method of proving that retaliation was the reason for an adverse action is through circumstantial evidence. A violation is established if there is circumstantial evidence raising an inference of retaliation and if the Respondent fails to produce evidence of a legitimate, non-retaliatory reason for the challenged action, or if the reason advanced by the Respondent is a pretext to hide the retaliatory motive.

Circumstantial Evidence of Retaliation:

(1) Evidence raises inference that retaliation was the cause of the challenged action;

(2) Respondent/Employer produces evidence of a legitimate, non-retaliatory reason for the challenged action; and

(3) Newsome proves that the reason advanced by the Respondent/Employer is a pretext to hide the retaliatory motive.

An initial inference of retaliation arises where there is proof that the protected activity and the adverse action were related.

[Simmons v. Camden County Bd. of Educ., 757 F.2d 1187, 1189 (11th Cir.), cert. denied, 474 U.S. 981 (1985)]

Typically, the link is demonstrated by evidence that:

(a) the adverse action occurred shortly after the protected activity, and

(b) the person who undertook the adverse action was aware of the complainant's protected activity before taking the action.

An inference of retaliation may arise even if the time period between the protected activity and the adverse action was long, if there is other evidence that raises an inference of retaliation. For example, in Shirley v. Chrysler First, Inc., 970 F.2d 39 (5th Cir. 1992), a 14-month interval between the plaintiff's filing of an EEOC charge and her termination did not conclusively disprove retaliation where the plaintiff's manager mentioned the EEOC charge at least twice a week during the interim and termination occurred just two months after the EEOC dismissed her charge.

[Kachmar v. Sunguard Data Systems, 109 F.3d 173 (3d Cir. 1997) (district court erroneously dismissed plaintiff's retaliation claim because termination occurred nearly one year after her protected activity; when there may be reasons why adverse action was not taken immediately, absence of immediacy does not disprove causation)]

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is RELEVANT and PERTINENT in that it will support this lawsuit was brought in RETALIATION of Plaintiff Stor-All's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities. Furthermore, just as this instant lawsuit, a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE involving the Criminal Stalking, Harassment, Threats, Discrimination, RETALIATION, etc. leveled against Newsome, which REPEATEDLY results in criminal/civil violations by Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance company (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and their attorneys against Newsome because of their knowledge of her engagement in protected activities.

The record evidence will further support a CONSPIRACY and PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE by LIBERTY MUTUAL, its clients and attorneys to engage in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and when legal actions are brought, their reliance on SPECIAL FAVORS/RELATIONSHIPS with Judges/Justices and/or Government Agency(s)/Officials to obtain rulings in their favor.

The record evidence will support that Judge West and/or lower courts were timely, properly and adequately notified of the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and PATTERN-OF-ABUSE of the judicial/legal process of Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance carrier (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and their attorneys leveled against Newsome because of knowledge of her engagement in protected activities. Thus, supporting the PRIMA FACIE requirements that Circumstantial Evidence of Retaliation can be sustained. Moreover, Plaintiff Stor-All's inability to defend against Newsome's Answer/Counterclaim filed in this lawsuit, resulted in its engagement and ability to BRIBE, COERCE, BLACKMAIL, etc. Judges/Justices and Government Agency(s)/Officials to engage in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and fulfill their role in CONSPIRACY to deprive her EQUAL protection of the laws and due process of laws. Rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution and/or other laws of the United States.

> Even if the Respondent/Employer produces evidence of a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for the challenged action, a violation will still be found if this explanation is a pretext designed to hide the true retaliatory motive. Typically, pretext is proved through evidence that the Respondent/Employer treated Newsome differently from similarly situated employees or that Respondent's/Employer's explanation for the adverse action is not believable. Pretext can also be shown if Respondent/Employer subjected Newsome's work performance to heightened scrutiny after she engaged in protected activity.
> > [Hossaini v. Western Missouri Medical Center, 97 F.3d 1085 (8th Cir. 1996) (reasonable person could infer that defendant's explanation for plaintiff's discharge was pretextual where defendant launched investigation into allegedly improper conduct by plaintiff shortly after she engaged in protected activity)]

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT in to this lawsuit and instant filing in that Newsome is confident that the record evidence will support the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and PATTERN-OF-JUDICIAL ABUSE, etc. by Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance carrier (LIBERTY MUTUAL)/its attorney and their inability to defend against legal matters involving Newsome that they have REPEATEDLY resorted to criminal/civil wrongs for purposes of obtaining an undue/illegal/unlawful advantage – i.e. acts clearly PROHIBITED by laws of the United States. Moreover, the record evidence will support that, like this instant lawsuit brought by Stor-All, actions are PRETEXTUAL to COVER-UP/MASK an illegal animus – i.e. the unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's storage unit and property without legal authority and Newsome's being subjected to discriminatory treatment and being treated differently from similarly situated employees/persons and that the reasons set forth by Plaintiff Stor-All, its representatives and others is NOT BELIEVABLE and cannot be sustained by any FACTUAL evidence and legal findings.

Furthermore, the record evidence will support efforts by President Barack Obama and his Administration's efforts to fulfill their role in CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP the criminal/civil wrongs of Judge West, Plaintiff Stor-All, opposing parties and others in this instant lawsuit and the role played in the termination of Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping and other employers because of her engagement in protected activities. This instant pleading is being filed to EXPOSE such CORRUPTION and how ELABORATE the scheme is to destroy the lives of citizens that OPPOSE discrimination and engage in the legal process to address such matters.

SPECIAL REMEDIES ISSUES

A. Temporary or Preliminary Relief

Section 706(f)(2) of Title VII authorizes the Commission to seek temporary injunctive relief before final disposition of a charge when a preliminary investigation indicates that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of Title VII.

Temporary or preliminary relief allows a court to stop retaliation before it occurs or continues*.* Such relief is appropriate if there is a substantial likelihood that the challenged action will be found to constitute unlawful retaliation, and if the charging party and/or EEOC will likely suffer irreparable harm because of retaliation. Although courts have ruled that financial hardships are not irreparable, other harms that accompany loss of a job may be irreparable. - - For example, in one case forced retirees showed irreparable harm and qualified for a preliminary injunction where they lost work and future prospects for work consequently suffering emotional distress, depression, a contracted social life, and other related harms.

> [EEOC v. Chrysler Corp., 733 F.2d 1183, 1186 (6th Cir.), reh'g denied, 738 F.2d 167 (1984). See also EEOC v. City of Bowling Green, Kentucky, 607 F. Supp. 524 (D. Ky. 1985) (granting preliminary injunction preventing defendant from mandatorily retiring policy department employee because of his age; although plaintiff could have collected back pay and been reinstated at later time, he would have suffered from inability to keep up with current matters in police department and would have suffered anxiety or emotional problems due to compulsory retirement)]

A temporary injunction also is appropriate if the Respondent's/Employer's retaliation will likely cause irreparable harm to the Commission's ability to investigate Newsome's original charge of discrimination. - - For example, the retaliation may discourage others from providing testimony or from filing additional charges based on the same or other alleged unlawful acts.

> [Garcia v. Lawn, 805 F.2d 1400, 1405-06 (9th Cir. 1986) (chilling effect of retaliation on other employee's willingness to exercise their rights or testify for plaintiff constitutes irreparable harm)]

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT in that it will support that the United States Department of Labor was REPEATEDLY timely, properly and adequately notified of Title VII violations as well as other employment violations by Newsome; however, in RETALIATION to Newsome having brought legal actions against the Commission, it made CONSCIOUS and DELIBERATE decision to COVER-UP violations of employers and POST False/Misleading/Malicious information on the Internet in regards to Newsome for purposes of deterring her from exercising rights secured under the United States Constitution, Civil Rights Act and other laws of the United States. The Department of Labor (Wage & Hour and EEOC) should have sought the court(s) for temporary injunctive relief on behalf of Newsome until matters were resolved.

B. Compensatory and Punitive Damages:

A 1977 amendment to the Fair Labor Standards Act authorizes both legal and equitable relief for retaliation claims under the Act. - 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

Compensatory and punitive damages therefore are available for retaliation claims brought under Title VII.

> [Moskowitz v. Trustees of Purdue University, 5 F.3d 279 (7th Cir. 1993); Soto v. Adams Elevator Equip. Co., 941 F.2d 543 (7th Cir. 1991)]

APPROPRIATENESS OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES:

Proven retaliation frequently constitutes a practice undertaken "with malice or with reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of an aggrieved individual." Therefore, punitive damages often will be appropriate in retaliation claims brought under any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

[Kim v. Nash Finch Co., 123 F.3d 1046 (8th Cir. 1997) (evidence of retaliation supported jury finding of reckless indifference to plaintiff's rights; although $7 million award for punitive damages was excessive, district court's lowered award of $300,000 was not)]

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT and RELEVANT in that this lawsuit was brought in RETALIATION of Plaintiff Stor-All's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities.

The record evidence will support that the lower court and Newsome advised Plaintiff Stor-All of the importance of filing a timely Answer to Counterclaim; however, Stor-All knowingly and willingly elected to ignore notifications and allowed time to respond to elapse.

The record evidence will support that Newsome moved within the time allowed and filed her Motion for Default Judgment. Now in keeping with CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome, Judge West and/or lower court on or about Friday, October 22, 2020, is attempting to render a DECISION to deprive Newsome of relief she is entitled to through her Counterclaim which includes:

a) General Damages in an amount of no less than $150,000;

b) Special Damages in an amount of no less than $550,000;

c) Compensatory Damages in an amount no less than $1,000,000;

d) Punitive Damages in an amount no less than $2,500,000; and

e) Attorney/Litigation Fees; and

f) Any/All other relief that the laws allow.

Moreover, most likely than not to be awarded to Newsome by a JURY based on the facts, evidence and legal conclusion and the IRREPARABLE injury/harm Newsome has sustained as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE result of the Malicious lawsuit brought against her.

94) Wood & Lamping attempted to get Newsome to waive her rights to bring legal action against her and required that she agree to not bring legal actions against it to which she is entitled in exchange for benefits to which Newsome is entitled to by law. Newsome declined such offer(s) made by Wood & Lamping. See EXHIBIT "130" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

95) Newsome further seeks the United States Supreme Court through this instant Motion to Stay and/or EMTS & MFEOTWOC for said relief in that it appears that the lower Ohio Courts are attempting to throw the lawsuit in favor of Plaintiff Stor-All, without legal authority and is attempting to deprive Newsome a right to a JURY TRIAL secured under the Seventh Amendment of the United States Constitution along with other rights secured under the United States Constitution. With plans to dismiss this action on or about Friday, October 22, 2010*, if the United States Supreme Court do not intervene and exercise its jurisdiction over this matter and put an end* to the RACIAL injustices, RACIAL bias, CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and other citizens of the United States.

96) The record evidence will also support that Plaintiff Stor-All's CREDIBILITY is lacking, WILLINGNESS to provide witnesses who will PERJURE themselves. For instance, providing perjured/false testimony (See EXHIBIT "156" attached hereto) for purposes of OBSTRUCTING the Administration of JUSTICE and IMPEDING judicial proceedings, and other reasons known to it such as:

PARAGRAPH	TESTIMONY
3.	Prior to Stor-All Alfred's purchase of the property on January 18, 2008, I had never had any communication with Denise Newsome or knowledge concerning her.
4.	To my knowledge, none of the employees at Stor-All had any prior communication with or knowledge of Denise Newsome prior to Stor All Alfred's purchase of the property on January 18, 2008.
	RESPONSE: A reasonable person/mind may conclude that Whiteside's selective use of "prior" and "knowledge" that Stor-All, its employees and/or representatives "AFTER" purchase of property proceeded to obtain information and knowledge as to who Newsome was. Moreover, may have relied upon information received from its insurance provider (LIBERTY MUTUAL) and others.
6.	Between approximately December 8, 2008 and January 9, 2009, I personally communicated multiple times with Denise Newsome in an attempt to either have her vacate the premises and/or become current on her past-due payments.
	RESPONSE: The record evidence in the lower court records will support that Plaintiff Stor-All and its employees/representatives (i.e. Whiteside) communicated with Newsome on multiple occasions. Furthermore, that in efforts of COVERING UP the unlawful/illegal seizure of her storage unit and property attempted to COERCE, BRIBE, MANIPULATE, BLACKMAIL, etc. Newsome into forgoing protected rights. Under Ohio law, since Plaintiff Stor-All was already in unlawful/illegal possession of Newsome's property WITHOUT legal authority and/or WITHOUT a legal court order, then legal action to resolve this matter was inevitable. Had Newsome moved without legal authority, Plaintiff Stor-All, its employees/representatives and counsel may have set her up to be SHOT and KILLED and then moved to COVER-UP their crimes – i.e. role in CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome. The record evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL STALKING of Newsome and PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL ABUSE by Landlords leveled against Newsome. Therefore, a reasonable person/mind may conclude based upon the criminal acts carried out on or about September 9/10, 2009 as well as the murder of Sabrina Smith (See EXHIBIT "129" of this instant pleading); that actions of Plaintiff Stor-All was in furtherance of Conspiracies leveled against Newsome and similar to crimes carried out in Mississippi (See EXHIBIT "45") and Kentucky (See EXHIBIT "46").

>
> A notice by the landlord that the tenancy is being terminated, combined with a demand by him or her for possession of the premises, and voluntary compliance therewith by the tenant without protest, is not an eviction for which damages may be recovered. (Greenberg v. Murphy, 16 Ohio C.D. 359, 1904 WL 1147 (Ohio Cir. Ct. 1904)). [Practice Guide: If the tenant is rightfully in possession and entitled to remain, the tenant should await legal proceedings that are threatened, and make defense thereto, rather than comply with the demand, and then bring an action for alleged damages that perhaps never would have resulted. (Greenberg)]
> Where a tenant, upon request or notice to vacate, voluntarily abandons the premises without protest, no action for damages against the landlord, based on fraud or misrepresentations as to the reasons for such request can be maintained under rights recognized by the common law, or any statute of Ohio. (Ferguson v. Buddenberg, 87 Ohio App. 326, 42 Ohio Op. 488, 57 Ohio L. Abs. 473, 94 N.E.2d 568 (1st Dist. Hamilton County 1950)).

The record evidence will support that Newsome was in rightful possession of her storage unit and property. Nevertheless, Plaintiff Stor-All resorted to criminal acts and "Abuse of Legal Process" for purposes of unlawfully/illegally forcing Newsome from her unit/property. When Newsome objected and/or voiced her opposition, Plaintiff Stor-All moved forward and filed a MALICIOUS Forcible Entry and Detainer Complaint. See EXHIBIT "103" which was met with Newsome's Answer and Counterclaim. See EXHIBIT "104." As a matter of law, had Newsome voluntarily vacated her unit/property, she would have lost rights to recover damages/liability sustained and Plaintiff Stor-All would have succeeded in the COVER-UP of the unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's storage unit/property.

7. On December 8, 2008 I had a telephone conversation with Newsome while I was working from my home, attempting to resolve this matter. At that time I told Ms. Newsome I would fax a letter confirming our conversation when I arrived at the office on December 9, 2008.

RESPONSE: The record evidence will support that Whiteside was successful in contacting Newsome at home/residence number provided and, therefore, had no need to make direct contact with Newsome's employer as later asserted by her.

8. On December 9, 2008, after I had prepared the letter to fax to Newsome, I realized I did not have her fax number with me. I called Ms. Newsome's work number which was listed as a contact when we bought out Crown Self-Storage, and called that number. When the receptionist answered, I requested a fax number for Denise Newsome. The receptionist provided me with a fax number and I then faxed my correspondence to Ms. Newsome. My only intention in sending this fax was to follow through on my promise to Newsome by faxing a letter confirming our telephone conversation the previous evening.

RESPONSE: The record evidence will support that the testimony provided by Whiteside is FALSE and PERJURED! Whiteside states that "I called Ms. Newsome's work number which was listed as a contact when we bought out Crown Self-Storage, and called that number." See EXHIBIT "156" Whiteside Affidavit.

According to record evidence (i.e. Ledger History of Stor-All Alfred dated May 1, 2008 [See EXHIBIT "157" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein] – approximately seven [7] months prior to the December 9, 2008 facsimile from Whiteside) the contact information clearly reflects the following:

Phone: (513) 680-2922
Alternate Phone: (513) 852-6053

Nevertheless, Whiteside testifies that, "When the receptionist answered, I requested a fax number for Denise Newsome. The receptionist provided me with a fax number and I then faxed my correspondence to Ms. Newsome."

The testimony provided by Whiteside is FALSE/PERJURED! The alternate phone number provided by Newsome is not one for the Receptionist but was Newsome's DIRECT Dial Number. See EXHIBIT "158" – Wood & Lamping Phone Directory attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Whiteside's own admission is that she called the Receptionist. This statement/information is DISCOVERABLE material to determine whether or not Whiteside actually called the Receptionist as testified to. Whiteside's employer's (Plaintiff Stor-All) office is located in Grayson, Kentucky – i.e. (606) Area Code. Therefore, this was a LONG DISTANCE phone call which should be evidenced in phone records. Furthermore, Receptionist now becomes a viable witness to any testimony that Whiteside provided. The record evidence will support that the Main Telephone Number for Newsome's employer (Wood & Lamping) being (513) 852-6000. The record evidence will support that Whiteside sent facsimile to Wood & Lamping's Main Facsimile Number at (513) 852-6087 – See EXHIBIT "160" 12/09/08 Fax Cover Page attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference – and not to Newsome's DIRECT DIAL Facsimile (513) 419-6453 which she later did. See EXHIBIT "160" at Page 2.

9. On December 19, 2008, Stor-All offered to provide transportation to Denise Newsome so that she may remove her property from Stor-All's premises. Stor-All also offered to waive late fees and reduce the amount of past due rent. Newsome rejected these offers.

RESPONSE: The record evidence will support NEXUS between the "Amnesty Weekend" to be held January 9, 10, 11, 2009 [See EXHIBIT "161" December 19, 2008 Facsimile from Whiteside to Newsome attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein], Newsome's termination of employment which occurred on January 9, 2009, and Plaintiff Stor-All's NOTICE TO LEAVE THE PREMISES dated January 9, 2009 – See EXHIBIT "63."

Therefore, Newsome believes a reasonable person/mind may conclude that Stor-All, its employees/representatives resorted to criminal/civil wrongs for purposes of COERCING, BLACKMAILING, BRIBING, etc. Newsome release her unit/property.

10. With Newsome refusing to negotiate her past-due rent and/or vacate the storage unit, Stor-All initiated a forcible entry and detainer action, pursuant to R.C. §1923

RESPONSE: The record evidence will support that Plaintiff Stor-All REPEATEDLY engaged in criminal/civil wrongs in the unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's storage unit/property. Moreover, REPEATEDLY served Newsome with Sham Legal Process[108] – i.e. the issuance of NOTICE OF INTENT [108] O.R.C. § 2921.52 USING SHAM LEGAL PROCESS.

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Lawfully issued" means adopted, issued, or rendered in accordance with the United States constitution, the constitution of a state, and the applicable statutes, rules, regulations, and ordinances of the United States, a state, and the political subdivisions of a state.

(2) "State" means a state of the United States, including without limitation, the state legislature, the highest court of the state that has statewide jurisdiction, the offices of all elected state officers, and all departments, boards, offices, commissions, agencies, institutions, and other instrumentalities of the state. "State" does not include the political subdivisions of the state.. . .

(4) "Sham legal process" means an instrument that meets all of the following conditions:

(a) It is not lawfully issued.

(b) It purports to do any of the following:

(i) To be a summons, subpoena, judgment, or order of a court, a law enforcement officer, or a legislative, executive, or administrative body.

(ii) To assert jurisdiction over or determine the legal or equitable status, rights, duties, powers, or privileges of any person or property.

(iii) To require or authorize the search, seizure, indictment, arrest, trial, or sentencing of any person or property.

(c) It is designed to make another person believe that it is lawfully issued.

(B) No person shall, knowing the sham legal process to be sham legal process, do any of the following:

(1) Knowingly issue, display, deliver, distribute, or otherwise use sham legal process;

(2) Knowingly use sham legal process to arrest, detain, search, or seize any person or the property of another person;

(3) Knowingly commit or facilitate the commission of an offense, using sham legal process;

(4) Knowingly commit a felony by using sham legal process.

(C) It is an affirmative defense to a charge under division (B)(1) or (2) of this section that the use of sham legal process was for a lawful purpose.

(D) Whoever violates this section is guilty of using sham legal process. A violation of division (B)(1) of this section is a misdemeanor of the fourth degree. A violation of division (B)(2) or (3) of this section is a misdemeanor of the first degree, except that, if the purpose of a violation of division (B)(3) of this section is to commit or facilitate the commission of a felony, a violation of division (B)(3) of this section is a felony of the fourth degree. A violation of division (B)(4) of this section is a felony of the third degree.

TO ENFORCE LIEN ON STORED PROPERTY PURSUANT TO RC §5322.01, ET SEQ. [See for example EXHIBIT "162" NOTICE attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein] with knowledge that under Ohio laws that it MUST comply with the provisions of the LANDLORD & TENANT Act and was to bring a Forcible Entry and Detainer Action against Newsome rather than "placing the cart before the horse" – i.e. unlawfully/illegally seizing unit and property WITHOUT first obtaining legal authority (Court Order)].

11. In order to comply with R.C. §1923, I served Denise Newsome with written notice to leave the premises via first class mail, certified mail, and posting of the notice on Unit #173 at Stor All Alfred.

> RESPONSE: Plaintiff Stor-All failed to comply with the statutes/laws governing Landlord & Tenant matters. The record evidence further supports that as early as April 2008, Plaintiff Stor-All unlawfully/illegally seized Newsome's storage unit/property without legal authority (court order) and denied her access. See EXHIBIT "157." Then in efforts of covering up its criminal/civil wrongs, brought the MALICIOUS Forcible Entry and Detainer action against Newsome upon being successful in getting her employment with Wood & Lamping terminated.

12. The only motivation for initiating the forcible entry and detainer action against Denise Newsome was so that Stor-All may re*-acquire its property*. After several attempts to negotiate with Ms. Newsome, including offering the free use of Stor All Alfred's moving truck, driver, and gas, and reducing her balance due to $0.00, there was no other way for us to re-acquire Unit #173 from Ms. Newsome but court intervention. There was no ulterior motive or purpose for the forcible entry and detainer action.

> RESPONSE: Newsome believes that a reasonable person/mind may conclude from the statements of Whiteside alleging, "so that Stor-All may re*-acquire*," and "no other way for us to re*-acquire*" that she is asserting Stor-All [who was already in possession] was not in possession and/or had not already ACQUIRED of Newsome's storage unit/property when in fact it had. See EXHIBIT "157" – "4/4/2008 Overlock Fee" entry.
> Furthermore, the record evidence supports Stor-All and Wood & Lamping's ULTERIOR motive or purpose for the forcible entry

---

(E) A person who violates this section is liable in a civil action to any person harmed by the violation for injury, death, or loss to person or property incurred as a result of the commission of the offense and for reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and other expenses incurred as a result of prosecuting the civil action commenced under this division. A civil action under this division is not the exclusive remedy of a person who incurs injury, death, or loss to person or property as a result of a violation of this section.

and detainer action being:

a) Knowledge of Newsome's participation in protected activities and its unlawful/illegal acts taken to deter, interfere and deprive her equal protection of the laws, equal privileges and immunities and due process of laws.

b) To have Wood & Lamping terminate Newsome's employment on January 9, 2009 [i.e. on date that Stor-All's "Amnesty Weekend" that Newsome declined began and to provide Stor-All with an undue and unlawful/illegal FINANCIAL and LEGAL advantage in the MALICICIOUS forcible entry and detainer action brought against Newsome on or about January 20, 2009.

c) To have Wood & Lamping terminate Newsome's employment for purposes of eliminating the CONFLICT of INTEREST that existed because of her employment with Wood & Lamping and Newsome's working with Thomas J. Breed (See EXHIBITS "158" and "159") who is a former attorney of Schwartz Manes & Ruby (n/k/a Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin – Plaintiff Stor-All's legal firm/counsel) – See Letterhead at EXHIBIT "102."

d) To have Wood & Lamping terminate Newsome's employment in FURTHERANCE of Conspiracies leveled against Newsome and the PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL acts by landlords leveled against Newsome. See Mississippi FBI Criminal Complaint at EXHIBIT "45," Kentucky FBI Criminal Complaint at EXHIBIT "46" and Ohio Criminal Complaint at EXHIBIT "30."

Furthermore, the record evidence will support that prior to Plaintiff Stor-All's bringing of malicious forcible entry and detainer action it was already in possession of Newsome's storage unit and property as well as that of other citizens and relied upon SHAM LEGAL PROCESS (i.e. establishing a pattern-of-practice) in the committal of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against other citizens:

See EXHIBIT "163" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Further evidence to support how Plaintiff Stor-All will continue to engage in such criminal acts if not stopped – i.e. going on to become CAREER CRIMINALS.[109] Thus, requiring the intervention of the United States Supreme Court and reporting of said criminal acts.

RESPONSE: The record evidence will support that counsel/attorney(s) for Plaintiff Stor-All encourage criminal/civil wrongs by its client(s); moreover, engage in criminal/civil wrongs themselves in accomplishing the termination of Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping because of the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that existed. Acts clearly in violation of the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct –

[109] U.S. v. Jimenez Recio, 123 S.Ct. 819 (2003) - Essence of a conspiracy is an agreement to commit an unlawful act.

Agreement to commit an unlawful act, which constitutes the essence of a conspiracy, is a distinct evil that may exist and be punished whether or not the substantive crime ensues. Id.

Conspiracy poses a threat to the public over and above the threat of the commission of the relevant substantive crime, both because the combination in crime makes more likely the commission of other crimes and because it decreases the probability that the individuals involved will depart from their path of criminality. Id.

See EXHIBIT "164" Rules 1.7, 1.9 and 1.10 attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Then in attempts to COVER-UP unlawful/illegal wrongs leveled against Newsome, Plaintiff Stor-All and its attorney(s)/counsel engage in criminal/civil violations to obtain an undue advantage in lawsuit. Newsome believes a reasonable person/mind may conclude that Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel and/or representatives knew they were engaging in criminal acts clearly in violation of the laws as well as the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct – i.e. Rules 1.2 and 1.16 (See EXHIBIT "165" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein).

The record evidence will further support that Plaintiff Stor-All's counsel's (Michael Lively) willfully and maliciously encourage and EMBELLISH the criminal acts of his/firm's client(s):

> There is no evidence that Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action was 'perverted in any way to accomplish an ulterior purpose for which it was not designed. . . Newsome failed to make payments owed to Stor-All for use of a storage facility. Because of Newsome's refusal to pay the rent or vacate the premises, Stor-All properly set in motion a forcible entry and detainer action so that it may legally re*acquire the storage facility and begin leasing it out to other potential customers*. . . . There is no evidence that the eviction action was initiated for any purpose other than to legally re-acquire its property.
>
> Stor-All properly filed its motion for summary judgment in the Municipal Court. Presumably satisfied that all procedural and legal requirements had been met, Judge Allen ruled in Stor-All's favor on the forcible entry and detainer action, and entered a Writ of Possession September 9, 2009. . .
>
> Because Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action was properly initiated, it was not pursued with an ulterior purpose other than to re-acquire rental property for which Newsome was not paying in violation of contract, and it was carried out to its authorized conclusion, Newsome's abuse of process claim is not appropriate and must fail as a matter of law.. . .
> It should also be observed that Stor All never "obtained" Ms. Newsome's property. On September 10, 2009, Ms. Newsome's property was removed and set out of the storage facility in the course of the eviction of the same date, said eviction being attended by members of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department. Ms. Newsome is free to recover her property, as she was invited to do previously.". . . .

> "Newsome's only basis for her IIED[110] claim is that a representative from Stor-All, Lori Whiteside, sent a facsimile transmission on December 9, 2008 regarding Newsome's default on the storage unit to Newsome's place of employment, the law firm of Wood & Lamping.. . . Certainly, sending a fax is not 'extreme and outrageous' conduct, such that would give rise to an IIED claim."

97) Newsome further seeks the United States Supreme Court through this instant Motion to Stay and/or EMTS & MFEOTWOC for said relief in that she believes the facts, evidence and legal conclusions provided herein will sustain that the lower Ohio Courts are attempting to "CLOSE THE DOORS OF THE COURTS" to her which clearly are in violation of Newsome's Constitutional Rights*, Civil Rights and other rights secured under the laws of the United States.*

98) Record evidence will support that the lower Ohio Court action was initiated by Plaintiff (Stor-All) who is an insured by one of President Barack Obama's Top/Key Financial Contributors (Liberty Mutual) who are represented by lawyers/law firms who are Top/Key Financial Contributors/Advisors (i.e. Baker Donelson, etc.) of President Barack Obama. Said law firms who may have had a role in the filling of VACANCIES in the Obama Administration – being sure to place their people in said positions so that if their clients are sued it will have a BARGAINING CHIP to use to obtain and/or INFLUENCE decisions in their and/or their clients' favor (i.e. that is in their PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interest).

XV. MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

> Notices of appeal filed May 3 and May 7 from decision announced February 17 but not formally entered until April 9 were timely whether judged by date of entry or by fact that order incorporated in February 17 decision was not finally made effective until decision of April 28. Burns v. Richardson (1966), 86 S.Ct. 1286, 384 U.S. 73, 16 L.Ed.2d 376.
> Ninety-day limit for filing petition for certiorari in civil case is mandatory and jurisdictional. Federal Election Com'n v. NRA Political Victory Fund (1994), 115 s.Ct. 537, 513 U.S. 88, 130 L.Ed.2d 439.

[110]Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress.

> Where ninetieth day within which appeal could be taken from judgment of Missouri Supreme Court to United States Supreme Court fell on Sunday, an appeal taken on the following day was timely. Union Nat. Bank of Wichita, Kan. V. Lamb (1949), 69 S.Ct. 911, 337 U.S. 38, 93 L.Ed. 1190, 69 S.Ct. 1492, 337 U.S. 928, 93 L.Ed. 1736.

Newsome believes that based upon the fact, evidence and legal conclusions contained herein as well as the EXCEPTIONAL and EXTREME circumstances involved in the lower court lawsuit that the United States Supreme Court will grant Certiorari. Therefore, Newsome is requesting an Enlargement of Time to bring her Certiorari action. In further support of this instant request and EMTS & MFEOTWOC, Newsome states the following:

99) This instant "Motion for Enlargement of Time" is submitted in good faith and is not submitted for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, etc. and is filed to protect and preserve the rights of Newsome secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution and other laws of the United States.

100) Newsome believes this instant filing sustains just how EXCEPTIONAL and COMPLEX this lawsuit has become and because of the role of a sitting United States President (Barack Obama) and his Administration to protect his personal/financial interest as well as those of his TOP/KEY Financial Contributors and Advisors, additional time is to be granted for GOOD cause shown.

101) The record evidence will support that Newsome has exhausted ALL available remedies known to her and because of the REPEAT attacks on her life as well as any attorney she retains, the EXPERTISE the United States Supreme Court is needed to assist in the taking down of such GIANTS who are pitted against indigent citizens/litigants as Newsome.

102) Newsome, at this time, further seeks an "Extension of Time to File Writ of Certiorari" in that she will be requesting that the following lower courts "CERTIFY" their records for this Appeal process in the below referenced cases should she and/or the United States Supreme Court require records contained in said files to determine Writ of Certiorari ("WOC") matter to be brought:

a) Ohio Supreme Court Case Numbers: 10-AP-069 and 09-1690;

b) Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Cincinnati, Ohio) – Case No. A0901302;

c) Hamilton County Municipal Court (Cincinnati, Ohio) – Case No. 09CV01690

in that said cases are important and CRITICAL to establish a PATTERN-OF-ABUSE/JUDICIAL ABUSE/ABUSE-OF-POWER which will also support and/or sustain relief Newsome will seek through "Certiorari" action. Moreover, the Application for Disqualification evolves from longstanding CONSPIRACY and PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE engaged in by Plaintiff Stor-All (in lower court action) and initiated by its insurance company (Liberty Mutual Insurance Company) and/or its law firm(s) – i.e. Baker Donelson and others.

103) Newsome further requests additional time in that it is necessary to assure that she obtain additional documentation she believes is pertinent/relevant to sustain the Certiorari action to be brought.

104) The record evidence will support that Newsome has requested access to records pertaining to her Charges/Complaints filed with the United States Department of Labor (i.e. Wage & Hour Division and Equal Employment Opportunity Commission); however, believes that in furtherance of said Agencies/Officials role in the CONSPIRACY surrounding the UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL termination of Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping, said Government Agencies/Officials are attempting to OBSTRUCT Justice and/or the OBSTRUCT the Administration of Justice. Newsome provides the following COVER PAGES and SIGNATURE PAGES and United States Postal Service PROOF-OF-MAILINGS/RECEIPTS to support timely demands made by Newsome; however, President Obama and his Administration because of his and his Administration's PERSONAL and FINANCIAL interest as well as the PERSONAL and FINANCIAL interest of his TOP/KEY Financial Contributors/Supporters is attempting to keep Newsome out of the records of Government Agency(s) for purposes of shielding/masking PUBLIC CORRUPTION by him and his Staff.

105) Newsome's request for additional time will be used to conduct further legal research into matters in that the criminal/civil attacks are NUMEROUS and will require additional time to determine on how she wants to proceed and/or how such matters may be presented in the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE out of which this instant lawsuit arose and under the GUIDELINES and RULES of the United States Supreme Court.

106) Newsome further request an Enlargement of Time so that she can obtain the status and request the "Finding of Facts and Conclusion of Law" from Complaints/Charges filed in the following cases:

June 26, 2006 — Complaint and Request for Investigation to the United States Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of

Investigations Filed by Vogel D. Newsome

July 14, 2008	Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Findings

FILES FOR REVIEW & COPYING IN THE CINCINNATI, OHIO WAGE & HOUR OFFICE AND EEOC OFFICE ON DECEMBER 22, 2009 - HEALTH CARE REFORM: See How The Obama Administration Has Interfered/Blocked Newsome's Health Care Options and Denied Her Medical Attention Sought Under The FMLA - - What to Expect Under A Government-Runned Health Care Program

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: President Obama and his Administration are attempting to keep Newsome out of the United States Department of Labor's records because of their knowledge and role in DISCRIMINATORY practices and the BLACKLISTNG of Newsome to preclude and/or deprive her of Equal Employment Opportunities. Newsome has been denied rights not only secured under the Constitution but that of the Freedom of Information Act. Acts in furtherance of the CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome and efforts to COVER-UP corruption by government officials/employees. Newsome believes that the record evidence will support that government agencies/officials RETALIATION practices leveled against her is due to Newsome's involvement in protected activities as well as her OPPOSING such discriminatory practices in the handling of her cases that she sought legal recourse to address such unlawful/illegal practices by government officials/employees. Moreover, the evidence to support that the very agencies that are supposed to be enforcing Title VII, FMLA, FLSA, etc. are the very ones that are involved in CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome and efforts taken to BLACKLIST her and deprive her EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws.

See also EXHIBIT "141" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The record evidence will support that Newsome has requested under the Freedom of Information Act access to the records involving her with the United States Department of Labor - moreover, has timely requested the termination/firings of officials who have engaged in the COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs in the W&L matter – just to be met with DILATORY and further unlawful/illegal actions by President Obama and members of his Administration.

107) The record evidence will further support GOOD-FAITH efforts to follow up on her July 14, 2008 Emergency Complaint filed with the United States Congress/Legislature in December 2008. Furthermore, after Newsome's trip to Washington, D.C. in December 2008, said trip was met with RETALIATION and the firing of Newsome. Newsome memorialized said trip in faxes to Senator Patrick Leahy, Congressman John Conyers and then Senator (know United States Vice President) Joseph Biden. See EXHIBIT "135" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

108) The record evidence will sustain that there are still outstanding Motions before the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (see EXHIBIT "51" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein) out of which this instant appeal arises that requires the United States Supreme Court's IMMEDIATE intervention to protect the Constitutional rights of Newsome that affects those of other citizens of the United States as well.

109) Newsome believes that "EMERGENCY Injunctions and/or Restraining Orders" as well as preparation of other legal documents known to the United States Supreme Court will need to be issued to assure that Newsome is provided information governed under the "Freedom Of Information Act" that President Obama, his Administration and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators are involved in for purposes of OBSTRUCTING justices and/or OBSTRUCTING the Administration of Justice.

XVI. RELIEF SOUGHT

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, for the above and forgoing reasons, Newsome prays that the United States Supreme Court exercise jurisdiction and GRANTS the staying of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas proceedings and afford Newsome justice under the laws. Newsome further prays that the United States Supreme Court grants an ENLARGMENT OF TIME to be determined by it due to the EXTREME and EXCEPTIONAL circumstances which exists in this matter. Newsome is further requesting Motion to Stay and Enlargement of Time for the following reasons and those known to the United States Supreme Court (which Newsome may not be aware of) which will aid in the EQUAL protection of the laws, EQUAL privileges and immunities of the law and DUE PROCESS of laws:

their subdivisions/departments/branches, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, successors, assigns, and all persons in active concert or participation with them, from engaging in any further conspiracies and/or criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome addressed herein and/or known to them that is prohibited by statutes and laws of the United States and the States in which they reside and/or conduct business.

iii) In the interest of justice, Newsome request the United States Supreme Court issue the proper Order(s)/Judgment(s) and take the proper action to have the cases regarding Newsome in the following Courts "REOPENED" (if closed) and the record(s) "CERTIFIED:"

a) Ohio Supreme Court;

b) Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas;

c) Hamilton County Municipal Court;

d) United States District Court/Eastern Division (New Orleans Division);

e) United States District Court/Southern Division (Jackson, Mississippi);

f) United States District Court/Northern Division (Dallas, Texas);

g) United States District Court/Eastern Division (Covington, Kentucky);

h) Kenton County Circuit Court (Kenton County, Kentucky); and

i) United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

iv) In the interest of justice, Newsome request the United States Supreme Court issue the proper Order(s)/Judgment(s) and take the proper action to have the cases/charges brought by Newsome in the following Government/Administrative Agencies "REOPENED" (if closed) and the record(s) "CERTIFIED:"

a) Executive Office of the United States/White House;

b) United Stated Department of Justice;

c) United States Department of Labor;

d) United States Department of Treasury;

e) United States Department of Education; and

f) United States Legislature/Congress.

v) In the interest of justice, issue the proper Order(s)/Judgment to have the United States Department of Labor make available to Newsome ALL records regarding charges/cases brought by Newsome filed against:

a) Floyd West & Company;

b) Louisiana State University Medical Center (a/k/a Louisiana State University Health Science Center);

c) Christian Health Ministries;

d) Entergy Services, Inc./Entergy New Orleans;

e) Mitchell McNutt & Sams; and

f) Wood & Lamping.

vi) That the United States Supreme Court issue the applicable Order(s)/Judgment(s) for purposes of DETERRING and PREVENTING further conspiracies leveled against Newsome and the birthing/breeding of more CAREER CRIMINALS (i.e. CRIMINAL BULLIES) for purposes of mitigating damages and pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1986.

> U.S. v. Jimenez Recio, 123 S.Ct. 819 (2003) - Essence of a conspiracy is an agreement to commit an unlawful act.
>
> Agreement to commit an unlawful act, which constitutes the essence of a conspiracy, is a distinct evil that may exist and be punished whether or not the substantive crime ensues. Id.
>
> Conspiracy poses a threat to the public over and above the threat of the commission of the relevant substantive crime, both because the combination in crime makes more likely the commission of other crimes > and because it decreases the probability that the individuals involved will depart from their path of criminality. Id.

vii) Based upon the United States Department of Labor's failure to follow rules governing charges filed, Newsome is requesting that, in the interest of justice and under the laws governing jurisdiction to CORRECT legal wrongs made know, that the United States Supreme Court issue the proper Order(s)/Judgment(s) to the following former employers requiring the "OPENING" (if closed) and "CERTIFICATION" of employment records regarding Newsome. This request is made in good faith in that Newsome is entitled to said relief for purposes of mitigating damages until legal actions are resolved for the following employers and those this Court has become aware of through this instant filing:

a) Floyd West & Company;

b) Louisiana State University Medical Center (a/k/a Louisiana State University Health Science Center);

c) Christian Health Ministries;

d) Entergy Services, Inc/Entergy New Orleans;

e) Mitchell McNutt & Sams;

f) Page Kruger & Holland; and

g) Wood & Lamping.

viii) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s) to Wood & Lamping LLP to reinstate Newsome's employment for purposes of mitigating damages until legal matters are resolved; however, instructing that in the interest, safety and wellbeing of Newsome she is not required to return to place of employment – i.e just returned to receipt of payroll and benefits restored to which she is entitled. Newsome presently seeks back pay/front pay in the amount in the amount of approximately $88,888.53[112] by November 5, 2010. Newsome request that Wood & Lamping be required to continue to pay her BI-WEEKLY from November 5, 2010, in the amount of $1,882.85 (i.e. to be adjusted according to annual pay raises on anniversary date of employment) forward until legal matters are resolved. Newsome further seeks this Court's intervention in that the injunctive relief sought herein is that in which she was entitled to; however, was deprived of by the United States Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division's and EEOC's efforts to COVER-UP employment violations in its role in CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome – See Page 263 above and EXHIBIT "145" at Page 18 attached hereto.

> Section 706(f)(2) of Title VII authorizes the Commission to seek temporary injunctive relief before final disposition of a charge

> Temporary or preliminary relief allows a court to stop retaliation before it occurs or continues. Such relief is appropriate if there is a substantial likelihood that the challenged action will be found to constitute unlawful retaliation, and if the charging party and/or EEOC will likely suffer irreparable harm because of retaliation. Although courts have ruled that financial hardships are not irreparable, other harms that accompany loss of a job may be irreparable. - - For example, in one case forced retirees showed irreparable harm and qualified for a preliminary injunction where they lost work and future prospects for work consequently suffering emotional distress, depression, a contracted social life, and other related harms.

Newsome believes that the record evidence as well as the FALSE/MALICIOUS information posted on the INTERNET by the United States Government Agencies will support unlawful/illegal acts infringing upon her Constitutional Rights, Civil Rights and other protected rights for purposes of BLACKLISTING her and to see that Newsome is NOT employable. Thus, supporting the immediate relief sought herein.

ix) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment(s) to Mitchell McNutt & Sams to pay Newsome back pay and front pay in the amount of $182,101.34[113] by November 5, 2010, for purposes of mitigating damages until legal matters are. Newsome request that MM&S be required to continue to pay her BI-WEEKLY from November 5, 2010, in the amount of $1,515.53 (i.e. to be adjusted according to annual pay raises on anniversary date of employment) forward until legal matters are resolved. The record evidence supports MM&S admission of subjecting Newsome to Discriminatory practices and a Hostile Work Environment. See EXHIBIT "83" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Newsome further seeks this Court's intervention in that the injunctive relief sought herein is that in which she was entitled to; however, was deprived of by the United States Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division's, EEOC's and OSHA's efforts to COVER-UP employment violations in its role in CONSPIRACIES leveled against Newsome – See Page 263 above and EXHIBIT "145" at Page 18 attached hereto.

> Section 706(f)(2) of Title VII authorizes the Commission to seek temporary injunctive relief before final disposition of a charge when a preliminary investigation indicates that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of Title VII.

Thus, supporting the immediate relief sought herein.

x) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment(s) to Page Kruger & Holland to pay Newsome back pay and front pay in the amount of $168,321.38[114] by November 5, 2010, for purposes of mitigating damages until legal matters are resolved. Newsome request that PKH be required to continue to pay her BI-WEEKLY from November 5, 2010, in the amount of $1,560.99 (i.e. to be adjusted according to annual pay raises on anniversary date of employment) forward until legal matters are resolved. The record evidence supports PKH's admission of subjecting Newsome to Discriminatory practices and Retaliation because of its learning of lawsuit filed by her and knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED activities. See EXHIBIT "61"attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. PKH terminating Newsome's employment upon learning of her engagement in protected activities and for purposes of providing opposing counsel and their clients with an undue and unlawful/illegal advantage. NEXUS can be established between PKH being contacted, Newsome's termination of employment and her attorney's (Brandon Dorsey) request to withdraw. Newsome's termination occurring on or about May 15, 2006 (See EXHIBIT "61"), and withdrawal of counsel set for May 18, 2006 (See EXHIBIT "131"). Newsome further seeks this Court's intervention in that the injunctive relief sought herein is that in which she is entitled to as a matter of law.

xi) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to Kenton County Circuit Court to return monies by November 5, 2010, in the amount of approximately $16,250.00 for monies embezzled and unlawfully/illegally released to opposing parties (GMM Properties and its counsel Gailen Bridges) in or about October 2008. Returning of monies is sought in good faith for purposes of mitigating damages/injuries that Newsome has already sustained and continues to suffer.

xii) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to GMM Properties awarding Newsome monies by November 5, 2010, in the amount of $18,480.00 (i.e. which encompasses the amount of rent and storage from October 2008 to present/October 2010. Furthermore, ordering that GMM Properties is to continue to pay Newsome the amount of $770.00 until the conclusion of all legal matters pending and/or to be brought for good-faith purposes and the mitigating of damages/injuries and irreparable harm sustained.

xiii) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to Spring Lake Apartments LLC awarding Newsome monies by November 5, 2010, in the amount of $40,320.00 (i.e. which encompasses the amount of rent and storage from February 2006 to present/October 2010. Furthermore, ordering that Spring Lake Apartments LLC is to continue to pay Newsome the amount of $720.00 until the conclusion of all legal matters pending and/or to be brought for good-faith purposes and the mitigating of damages/injuries and irreparable harm sustained.

xiv) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to Wanda Abioto to return monies owed Newsome by November 5, 2010, in the amount of $4,000.00 for monies embezzled and unlawfully/illegally retained. Returning of monies is sought in good faith for purposes of mitigating damages/injuries that Newsome has already sustained and continues to suffer.

xv) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to Richard Allen Rehfeldt to return monies owed Newsome by November 5, 2010, in the amount of $700.00 for monies embezzled and unlawfully/illegally retained. Returning of monies is sought in good faith for purposes of mitigating damages/injuries that Newsome has already sustained and continues to suffer.

xvi) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to Brian Bishop to return monies owed Newsome by November 5, 2010, in the amount of $1,500.00 for monies embezzled and unlawfully/illegally retained. Returning of monies is sought in good faith for purposes of mitigating damages/injuries that Newsome has already sustained and continues to suffer.

xvii) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue to return monies owed Newsome by November 5, 2010, in the amount of $600.00 for monies embezzled and unlawfully/illegally retained through the use of SHAM LEGAL PROCESS. Returning of monies is sought in good faith for purposes of mitigating damages/injuries that Newsome has already sustained and continues to suffer. The record evidence supports that on or about July 17, 2010, said Agency executed process for purposes of FRAUD and obtaining monies from Newsome's bank account(s) to which it was not entitled. Moreover, that said Agency did KNOWINGLY, WILLINGLY and MALICIOUSLY rewrite, tamper and compromise the Kentucky Revised Statute 131. 130(11) for the purposes of fulfilling role in conspiracies leveled against Newsome, FRAUD and other reasons known to it. See EXHIBITS "27" and "28" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The record evidence will further support that the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue KNEW that it was engaging in criminal acts in that Newsome timely, properly and adequately notified it of violations and her right to sue said Agency through her August 12, 2008 Complaint submitted to the attention of Commissioner Thomas Miller and United States Attorney General Eric Holder – with a copy to United States President Barack Obama. See EXHIBIT "26" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

xviii) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to United States Department of the Treasury to return monies owed Newsome by November 5, 2010, in the amount of $1,800.00 for monies embezzled and unlawfully/illegally retained through the use of ABUSE OF POWER and Sham Legal Process. Returning of monies is sought in good faith for purposes of mitigating damages/injuries that Newsome has already sustained and continues to suffer. The record evidence supports a NEXUS between the unlawful/illegal acts of said Agency and the CONSPIRACIES that have been leveled against Newsome. Moreover, that said Agency embezzled said monies on behalf of the United States Department of Education WITHOUT legal authority and/or just cause.

xix) That the United States Supreme Court issue Order(s)/Judgment to Stor-All Alfred LLC to pay monies to Newsome by November 5, 2010, in the amount of $5,500.00 for costs associated with replacing property unlawfully/illegally stolen through the use of SHAM LEGAL PROCESS, ABUSE OF POWER, OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE and other reasons known to it. Reward of monies is sought in good faith for purposes of mitigating damages/injuries that Newsome has already sustained and continues to suffer. The record evidence supports a NEXUS between the unlawful/illegal acts of Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel and/or representatives and the CONSPIRACIES that have been leveled against Newsome. The record evidence supports that there is sufficient facts, evidence and legal conclusions to support that Plaintiff Stor-All and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators knew and/or should have known that they were engaging in criminal/civil wrongs; nevertheless, KNOWINGLY and WILLINGLY with MALICIOUS intent proceeded to engage in unlawful/illegal acts.

xx) That the United States Supreme Court request the United States Congress to create a "SPECIAL/INFERIOR Court" to handle ALL of the pending lawsuits and/or lawsuits filed on behalf of Newsome in the following Courts:

a) Ohio Supreme Court;
b) Hamilton County (Ohio) Court of Common Pleas;
c) United States District Court/Eastern Division (New Orleans Division);
d) United States District Court/Southern Division (Jackson, Mississippi);
e) United States District Court/Northern Division (Dallas, Texas);
f) United States District Court/Eastern Division (Covington, Kentucky);
g) Kenton County Circuit Court (Kenton County, Kentucky)
h) United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals; and
i) Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue.

xxi) That the United States Supreme Court issue the applicable Order(s)/Judgment(s) requiring that the following Government Agencies/Courts "CERTIFY" record(s) regarding Complaints/Charges filed by Newsome – i.e. providing a DEADLINE of November 23, 2010 and to make the record available for review in the Cincinnati, Ohio Offices of the:

a) United States Department of Justice; and
b) United States Department of Labor.

Said Government Agencies/Courts are to also provide this Court and Newsome with their Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Laws regarding the Complaints/Charges filed by Newsome by November 23, 2010.

xxii) That the United States Supreme Court issue the applicable Order(s)/Judgment(s) requiring the United States Legislature and/or United States Congress to "CERTIFY" records regarding July 14, 2008 "Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Findings" submitted by Newsome and to provide this Court and Newsome with the status of said Complaint and the Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Laws of said Complaint on November 30, 2010.

See EXHIBIT "38" (BRIEF Only and supporting "PROOF OF MAILING/RECEIPTS") attached hereto. Emergency Complaint was submitted to the attention of the following for handling:

Original To:

a) Senator Patrick Leahy;

Copies To:

b) Representative John Conyers;

c) President Barack Obama (i.e. then United States Senator);

d) Senator John McCain; and

INVESTIGATIONS OF PUBLIC CORRUPTION: Rooting Crookedness Out of Government

03/15/04

Today marks an important anniversary in the annals of public corruption investigations in the U.S.

Twenty years ago today, in a federal courtroom in Chicago, a jury found Harold Conn (top center in photo) guilty on all 4 counts of accepting bribes to be passed on to Cook County judges as payment for fixing tickets. The evidence? He had been caught live on FBI tapes.

This "bagman" had been Deputy Traffic Court Clerk in the Cook County judicial system, and he was the first defendant to be found guilty in a mammoth sting investigation of crooked officials in the Cook County courts.

It was called OPERATION GREYLORD, named after the curly wigs worn by British judges. And in the end -- through undercover operations that used honest and very courageous judges and lawyers posing as crooked ones... and with the strong assistance of the Cook County court and local police -- 92 officials had been indicted, including 17 judges, 48 lawyers, 8 policemen, 10 deputy sheriffs, 8 court officials, and 1 state legislator. Nearly all were convicted, most of them pleading guilty (just a few are shown in our photo). It was an important first step to cleaning up the administration of justice in Cook County.

That's really the whole point. Abuse of the public trust cannot and must not be tolerated. Corrupt practices in government strike at the heart of social order and justice. And that's why the FBI has the ticket on investigations of public corruption as a top priority.

How'd that happen? Historically, of course, these cases were considered local matters. A county court clerk taking bribes? Let the county handle it.

But in the 1970s, state and local officials asked for help. They didn't have the resources to handle such intense cases, and they valued the authority and credibility that outside investigators brought to the table. By 1976, the Department of Justice had created a Public Integrity Section, and the FBI was tasked with the investigations, focusing on major, systemic corruption in the body politic.

Who's investigated? Public servants: members of Congress and state legislatures; members of the Administration and governors' offices; judges and court staffs; all of law enforcement; all government agencies. Plus everyone who works with government and is willing to pay for "special favors": lobbyists, contractors, consultants, lawyers, U.S. businesses in foreign countries, you name it.

What kind of crimes? Bribery, kickbacks, and fraud. Vote buying, voter intimidation, impersonation. Political coercion. Racketeering and obstruction of justice. Trafficking of illegal drugs.

How serious of a problem is it? Last year the FBI investigated 850 cases; brought in 655 indictments/informations; and got 525 who were either convicted or chose to plead.

Last words: Straight from Teddy Roosevelt: "Unless a man is honest we have no right to keep

Shirley Sherrod, ex-USDA worker: White House forced me to resign over fabricated racial controversy

BY ALIYAH SHAHID
DAILY NEWS STAFF WRITER

Tuesday, July 20th 2010, 2:46 PM

One strike and she was out.

A black employee who resigned from the Agriculture Department on Monday said the White House forced her out after remarks that she says have sparked a fabricated racial controversy.

Shirley Sherrod, the former Georgia director of Rural Development, said she received a phone call from the USDA's deputy undersecretary Cheryl Cook on Monday while she was in a car. Cook told her that the White House wanted her to call it quits.

"They called me twice," Sherrod told the Associated Press. "The last time they asked me to pull over the side of the road and submit my resignation on my Blackberry, and that's what I did."

The controversy began after several media organizations posted a 38-second video clip of Sherrod speaking to a local Georgia chapter of the NAACP. She tells the group that she did not give a white farmer "the full force of what I could do" after he asked for assistance.

The video surfaced days after the NAACP quarreled with Tea Party members over allegations of racism.

Sherrod said her statements were taken out of context.

"My point in telling that story is that working with him helped me to see that it wasn't a black and white issue," she said. Sherrod added that the episode took place in 1986 before she worked for the Agriculture Department.

Sherrod said that she eventually became friends with the farmer and worked with him for two years to help him avoid foreclosure.

The woman who says she is the wife of the farmer referenced in the clip told CNN Sherrod helped her family save their farm. Eloise Spooner described Sherrod as "getting in there and doing all she could do to help us."

President of the national NAACP, Benjamin Todd Jealous, supported the resignation, saying the organization has a zero-tolerance

The Department of Agriculture employee who resigned after a controversy erupted over recent remarks she made is now saying that the White House forced her resignation.

Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack, however, is taking responsibility for the resignation, and the White House reportedly says it had no part in his decision.

Shirley Sherrod, the USDA's former director of rural development in Georgia, said USDA deputy undersecretary Cheryl Cook called her Monday and said the White House wanted her to resign, the Associated Press reports.

"They called me twice," Sherrod told the AP, noting that she was driving when she received the calls. "The last time they asked me to pull over the side of the road and submit my resignation on my Blackberry, and that's what I did."

Sherrod submitted her resignation after she became the focus of scrutiny from Fox News and conservative blogs over remarks she gave at an NAACP Freedom Fund Banquet on March 27. A video of a portion of her remarks were posted on a conservative blog, giving the impression that Sherrod admitted to discriminating against a white farmer as an employee of the USDA.

The comments were taken out of context, however. In her remarks that day, Sherrod was recounting a story that pre-dates her tenure at the USDA by more than two decades. Sherrod says in her story that Chapter 12 bankruptcy had just been enacted; Chapter 12 was instituted for family farmers in 1986, while Sherrod was appointed to head the USDA's Rural Development office in Georgia just last July. Furthermore, the point of Sherrod's story is that race is not an issue.

Sherrod has said the video excerpt did not include the full story of her relationship with the farmer, with whom she says she became friends after helping him avoid foreclosure.

Nevertheless, Sherrod says the White House pressed for her resignation.

Earlier today, Vilsack released a statement saying he had accepted Sherrod's resignation, and added that the department has no tolerance for discrimination.

This afternoon, Vilsack released another statement saying he asked for Sherrod's resignation.

"First, for the past 18 months, we have been working to turn the page on the sordid civil rights record at USDA and this controversy could make it more difficult to move forward on correcting injustices," Vilsack said. "Second, state rural development directors make many decisions and are often called to use their discretion. The controversy surrounding her comments would create situations where her decisions, rightly or wrongly, would be called into question making it difficult for her to bring jobs to Georgia."

A White House official told CBS News that the White House did not pressure Sherrod or the Department, contrary to Sherrod's claims.

The NAACP on Monday released a statement condemning Sherrod's statements and saying the organization supported the USDA's position. The group said late Tuesday, however, that "We have come to the conclusion we were snookered by Fox News and Tea Party Activist Andrew Breitbart."

Sherrod's steadfast motto: 'Let's work together'

STORY HIGHLIGHTS

- Shirley Sherrod forced out of USDA after excerpted speech posted on internet
- Sherrod, raised on Georgia farm, has 45-year civil rights record
- White man killed father; white sheriff stopped husband-to-be from registering to vote
- "If I tried to hate all the time, I wouldn't be able to see clearly," she says

Atlanta, Georgia (CNN) -- Shirley Miller Sherrod has spent most of her life fighting injustice.

On the Baker County, Georgia, farm where the Miller family grew corn, peanuts, cotton and cucumbers and raised hogs, cows and goats, oldest daughter Shirley despised the work.

"I swore I would never have anything to do with a farm past high school," she said Wednesday with an easy chuckle. "I would talk to the sun as I picked cotton and picked cucumbers and worked out there in that hot field, and [say], 'This is not the life for me.' I didn't want to have anything to do with agriculture ever again."

On the night in 1965 when her father, Hosie Miller, a black man and a deacon at Thankful Baptist Church, was shot to death by a white farmer in what ostensibly was a dispute over a few cows, Sherrod -- then 17 years old -- changed her mind.

"I decided to stay in the South and work for change," said Sherrod, now 62, who believes her father's killing was more about a Southern black man speaking up to a white man than about who owned which animals. The all-white grand jury didn't bring charges against the shooter.

That summer, when she and several other blacks went to the county courthouse to register to vote, the county sheriff blocked the door and even pushed her husband-to-be, Lester Sherrod, down the stairs, she said. Activists used that incident to get a restraining order against the sheriff so blacks could register to vote, she said.

Sherrod worked for civil rights with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee while studying sociology at Albany State University in Georgia. She later earned her master's degree in community development from Antioch University in Yellow Springs, Ohio.

Sherrod returned to rural Georgia to help minority farmers keep their land in a place where history is against them. She has often gone toe to toe with the local offices of government agencies, including the U.S. Department of Agriculture before she worked there, she said.

Sherrod was forced out of her job with the USDA this week after a video emerged in which she seemingly admitted to failing to try to help a white farmer save his land from foreclosure in 1986. She has since said her words, recorded in March at a Douglas County, Georgia, NAACP meeting, were deliberately taken out of context. The story, she said, was part of a broader message she has given many times about the need to move beyond race.

White House spokesman Robert Gibbs said Wednesday afternoon that Sherrod is "owed an apology. I would do that on behalf of this administration."

Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack said Wednesday that he offered his "personal and profound apology for the pain and discomfort" caused to Sherrod and her family.

"It makes me feel better," she said in response on CNN. "It took too long, but it makes me feel better that the apology's coming."

"... Why did they hire me in the first place if they didn't believe in what I had done up to this point?"

What she had done is work tirelessly for minority farmers for four decades.

Because of discriminatory lending practices, black farmers were losing their farms in the late 1960s and '70s. After college, Sherrod co-founded New Communities Inc., a black communal farm project in Lee County, Georgia, that was modeled on kibbutzim in Israel. Local white farmers viciously opposed the 6,000-acre operation, accusing participants of being communists and occasionally firing shots at their buildings, Sherrod said.

"They did everything they could to fight us," she said.

When drought struck the South in the 1970s, the federal government promised to help New Communities through the Office of Economic Opportunity. But the money was routed through the state, led by segregationist Gov. Lester Maddox, and the local office of the Farmers Home Administration, whose white agent was in no hurry to write the checks, she said.

It took three years for New Communities to get an "emergency" loan, she said.

"By the time we got it, it was much too late," Sherrod said.

The operation hobbled along for a few years with other financing, but creditors ultimately foreclosed on the property in 1985, she said.

Getting money for any minority farmer out of that FmHA office "was always a fight," Sherrod said. But she made a point of learning the regulations so thoroughly that she understood them better than the bureau agent, she said.

"I was such a thorn in his side," she said, that the agent eventually left the bureau for good.

Using that experience, Sherrod worked with the Federation of Southern Cooperatives to help black farmers keep their land. The group worked with U.S. Rep. Mike Espy, D-Mississippi (who later became agriculture secretary), and Sen. Wyche Fowler, D-Georgia, to pass the Minority Farmers Rights Act in 1990. The measure, known as Section 2501, authorized $10 million a year in technical assistance to black farmers, but only $2 million to $3 million a year has been distributed.

With black-owned farms heading toward extinction, Sherrod and other activists sued the USDA. In a consent decree, the USDA agreed to compensate black farmers who were victims of discrimination between January 1, 1981, and December 31, 1999. It was the largest civil rights settlement in history, with nearly $1 billion being paid to more than 16,000 victims. Legislation passed in 2008 will allow nearly 70,000 more potential claimants to qualify.

"I was deeply involved in all of that work and in the settlement, and in helping farmers to file their claims," she said. "So I was having to fight USDA just for the services, for the loans for farmers, for some of the programs that should have been automatic, that others were getting."

USDA hired Sherrod as its Georgia director of rural development in August 2009. She was the first black person in that position; of 129 USDA employees in Georgia, only 20 are black, she said.

Her family still owns the farm in Baker County, plus an additional 30 acres she bought from a cousin. She hasn't had time to work the land yet.

"I'd like to try some of the things I've taught others," she said, again laughing.

Sherrod emphasizes that the speech that caused all the controversy was about embracing diversity and using the strengths of every culture.

"We've got to get beyond this [racial division]," she said. "... My message has been, 'Let's work together.' That's what my message has always been."

Despite her father's killing and the injustices that followed, the racial hatred she has fought all her life, and now her quick exit from the USDA, Sherrod refuses to become bitter.

"I can't hold a grudge. I can't even stay mad for long," she said. "I just try to work to make things different. If I stayed mad, if I tried to hate all the time, I wouldn't be able to see clearly in order to do some of the things that I've been able to do.

"Even with this, I'm not angry. I'm not angry. I'm out of a job today, but I'm not angry. I will survive. I have. I can't dwell on that. I just feel there's a need to go forward."

The Willie Lynch Letter: The Making Of A Slave!

This speech was delivered by Willie Lynch on the bank of the James River in the colony of Virginia in 1712. Lynch was a British slave owner in the West Indies. He was invited to the colony of Virginia in 1712 to teach his methods to slave owners there. The term "lynching" is derived from his last name.

December 25, 1712

Gentlemen:

I greet you here on the bank of the James River in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve. First, I shall thank you, the gentlemen of the Colony of Virginia, for bringing me here. I am here to help you solve some of your problems with slaves. Your invitation reached me on my modest plantation in the West Indies, where I have experimented with some of the newest and still the oldest methods for control of slaves. Ancient Rome's would envy us if my program is implemented.

As our boat sailed south on the James River, named for our illustrious King, whose version of the Bible we cherish, I saw enough to know that your problem is not unique. While Rome used cords of wood as crosses for standing human bodies along its highways in great numbers, you are here using the tree and the rope on occasions. I caught the whiff of a dead slave hanging from a tree, a couple miles back. You are not only losing valuable stock by hangings, you are having uprisings, slaves are running away, your crops are sometimes left in the fields too long for maximum profit, You suffer occasional fires, your animals are killed.

Gentlemen, you know what your problems are; I do not need to elaborate. I am not here to enumerate your problems, I am here to introduce you to a method of solving them. In my bag here, I have a foolproof method for controlling your black slaves. I guarantee every one of you that if installed correctly it will control the slaves for at least 300 years [2012]. My method is simple. Any member of your family or your overseer can use it. I have outlined a number of differences among the slaves and make the differences bigger. I use fear, distrust and envy for control.

These methods have worked on my modest plantation in the West Indies and it will work throughout the South. Take this simple little list of differences and think about them. On top of my list is "age" but it's there only because it starts with an "A." The second is "COLOR" or shade, there is intelligence, size, sex, size of plantations and status on plantations, attitude of owners, whether the slaves live in the valley, on a hill, East, West, North, South, have fine hair, course hair, or is tall or short. Now that you have a list of differences, I shall give you an outline of action, but before that, I shall assure you that distrust is stronger than trust and envy stronger than adulation, respect or admiration. The Black slaves after receiving this indoctrination shall carry on and will become self refueling and self generating for hundreds of years, maybe thousands. Don't forget you must pitch the old black Male vs. the young black Male, and the young black Male against the old black male. You must use the dark skin slaves vs. the light skin slaves, and the light skin slaves vs. the dark skin slaves. You must use the female vs. the male. And the male vs. the female. You must also have you white servants and overseers distrust all Blacks. It is necessary that your slaves trust and depend on us. They must love, respect and trust only us. Gentlemen, these kits are your keys to control. Use them. Have your wives and children use them, never miss an opportunity. If used intensely for one year, the slaves themselves will remain perpetually distrustful of each other.

Thank you gentlemen

Lets Make a Slave

It was the interest and business of slave holders to study human nature, and the slave nature in particular, with a view to practical results. I and many of them attained astonishing proficiency in this direction. They had to deal not with earth, wood and stone, but with men and by every regard they had for their own safety and prosperity they needed to know the material on which they were to work. Conscious of the injustice and wrong they were every hour perpetuating and knowing what they themselves would do. Were they the victims of such wrongs? They were constantly looking for the first signs of the dreaded retribution. They watched, therefore with skilled and practiced eyes, and learned to read with great accuracy, the state of mind and heart of the slave, through his sable face. Unusual sobriety, apparent abstractions, sullenness and indifference indeed, any mood out of the common was afforded ground for suspicion and inquiry.

Let us make a slave. What do we need? First of all we need a black nigger man, a pregnant nigger woman and her baby nigger boy. Second, we will use the same basic principle that we use in breaking a horse, combined with some more sustaining factors. What we do with horses is that we break them from one form of life to another that is we reduce them from their natural state in nature. Whereas nature provides them with the natural capacity to take care of their offspring, we break that natural string of independence from them and thereby create a dependency status, so that we may be able to get from them useful production for our business and pleasure

Cardinal Principles for making a Negro

For fear that our future Generations may not understand the principles of breaking both of the beast together, the nigger and the horse. We understand that short range planning economics results in periodic economic chaos; so that to avoid turmoil in the economy, it requires us to have breath and depth in long range comprehensive planning, articulating both skill sharp perceptions. We lay down the following principles for long range comprehensive economic planning. Both horse and niggers is no good to the economy in the wild or natural state. Both must be broken and tied together for orderly production. For orderly future, special and particular attention must be paid to the female and the youngest offspring. Both must be crossbred to produce a variety and division of labor. Both must be taught to respond to a peculiar new language. Psychological and physical instruction of containment must be created for both. We hold the six cardinal principles as truth to be self evident, based upon the following the discourse concerning the economics of breaking and tying the horse and the nigger together, all inclusive of the six principles laid down about. NOTE: Neither principle alone will suffice for good economics. All principles must be employed for orderly good of the nation. Accordingly, both a wild horse and a wild or nature nigger is dangerous even if captured, for they will have the tendency to seek their customary freedom, and in doing so, might kill you in your sleep. You cannot rest. They sleep while you are awake, and are awake while you are asleep. They are dangerous near the family house and it requires too much labor to watch them away from the house. Above all, you cannot get them to work in this natural state. Hence both the horse and the nigger must be broken; that is breaking them from one form of mental life to another. Keep the body take the mind! In other words break the will to resist. Now the breaking process is the same for both the horse and the nigger, only slightly varying in degrees. But as we said before, there is an art in long range economic planning. You must keep your eye and thoughts on the female and the offspring of the horse and the nigger. A brief discourse in offspring development will shed light on the key to sound economic principles. Pay little attention to the generation of original breaking, but concentrate on future generations.

Therefore, if you break the female mother, she will break the offspring in its early years of development and when the offspring is old enough to work, she will deliver it up to you, for her normal female protective tendencies will have been lost in the original breaking process. For example take the case of the wild stud horse, a female horse and an already infant horse and compare the breaking process with two captured nigger males in their natural state, a pregnant nigger woman with her infant offspring. Take the stud horse, break him for limited containment.

Completely break the female horse until she becomes very gentle, whereas you or anybody can ride her in her comfort. Breed the mare and the stud until you have the desired offspring. Then you can turn the stud to freedom until you need him again. Train the female horse where by she will eat out of your hand, and she will in turn train the infant horse to eat out of your hand also. When it comes to breaking the uncivilized nigger, use the same process, but vary the degree and step up the pressure, so as to do a complete reversal of the mind. Take the meanest and most restless nigger, strip him of his clothes in front of the remaining male niggers, the female, and the nigger infant, tar and feather him, tie each leg to a different horse faced in opposite directions, set him a fire and beat both horses to pull him apart in front of the remaining nigger. The next step is to take a bull whip and beat the remaining nigger male to the point of death, in front of the female and the infant. Don't kill him, but put the fear of God in him, for he can be useful for future breeding.

The Breaking Process of the African Woman

Take the female and run a series of tests on her to see if she will submit to your desires willingly. Test her in every way, because she is the most important factor for good economics. If she shows any sign of resistance in submitting completely to your will, do not hesitate to use the bull whip on her to extract that last bit of resistance out of her. Take care not to kill her, for in doing so, you spoil good economic. When in complete submission, she will train her off springs in the early years to submit to labor when the become of age. Understanding is the best thing. Therefore, we shall go deeper into this area of the subject matter concerning what we have produced here in this breaking process of the female nigger. We have reversed the relationship in her natural uncivilized state she would have a strong dependency on the uncivilized nigger male, and she would have a limited protective tendency toward her independent male offspring and would raise male off springs to be dependent like her. Nature had provided for this type of balance. We reversed nature by burning and pulling a civilized nigger apart and bull whipping the other to the point of death, all in her presence. By her being left alone, unprotected, with the male image destroyed, the ordeal caused her to move from her psychological dependent state to a frozen independent state. In this frozen psychological state of independence, she will raise her male and female offspring in reversed roles.

For fear of the young males life she will psychologically train him to be mentally weak and dependent, but physically strong. Because she has become psychologically independent, she will train her female off springs to be psychological independent. What have you got? You've got the nigger women out front and the nigger man behind and scared. This is a perfect situation of sound sleep and economic. Before the breaking process, we had to be alertly on guard at all times.

Now we can sleep soundly, for out of frozen fear his woman stands guard for us. He cannot get past her early slave molding process. He is a good tool, now ready to be tied to the horse at a tender age. By the time a nigger boy reaches the age of sixteen, he is soundly broken in and ready for a long life of sound and efficient work and the reproduction of a unit of good labor force. Continually through the breaking of uncivilized savage nigger, by throwing the nigger female savage into a frozen psychological state of independence, by killing of the protective male image, and by creating a submissive dependent mind of the nigger male slave, we have created an orbiting cycle that turns on its own axis forever, unless a phenomenon occurs and re shifts the position of the male and female slaves. We show what we mean by example. Take the case of the two economic slave units and examine them closely.

The Nigger Marriage

We breed two nigger males with two nigger females. Then we take the nigger males away from them and keep them moving and working. Say one nigger female bears a nigger female and the other bears a nigger male. Both nigger females being without influence of the nigger male image, frozen with an independent psychology, will raise their offspring into reverse positions. The one with the female offspring will teach her to be like herself, independent and negotiable (we negotiate with her, through her, by her, we negotiate her at will). The one with the nigger male offspring, she being frozen with a subconscious fear for his life, will raise him to be mentally dependent and weak, but physically strong, in other words, body over mind. Now in a few years when these two offspring's become fertile for early reproduction we will mate and breed them and continue the cycle. That is good, sound, and long range comprehensive planning.

Warning: Possible Interloping Negatives

Earlier we talked about the non economic good of the horse and the nigger in their wild or natural state; we talked out the principle of breaking and tying them together for orderly production. Furthermore, we talked about paying particular attention to the female savage and her offspring for orderly future planning, then more recently we stated that, by reversing the positions of the male and female savages, we created an orbiting cycle that turns on its own axis forever unless a phenomenon occurred and resift and positions of the male and female savages. Our experts warned us about the possibility of this phenomenon occurring, for they say that the mind has a strong drive to correct and re-correct itself over a period of time if I can touch some substantial original historical base, and they advised us that the best way to deal with the phenomenon is to shave off the brute's mental history and create a multiplicity of phenomena of illusions, so that each illusion will twirl in its own orbit, something similar to floating balls in a vacuum.

This creation of multiplicity of phenomena of illusions entails the principle of crossbreeding the nigger and the horse as we stated above, the purpose of which is to create a diversified division of labor thereby creating different levels of labor and different values of illusion at each connecting level of labor. The results of which is the severance of the points of original beginnings for each sphere illusion. Since we feel that the subject matter may get more complicated as we proceed in laying down our economic plan concerning the purpose, reason and effect of crossbreeding horses and nigger, we shall lay down the following definition terms for future generations.

Orbiting cycle means a thing turning in a given path. Axis means upon which or around which a body turns. Phenomenon means something beyond ordinary conception and inspires awe and wonder. Multiplicity means a great number. Sphere means a globe. Cross breeding a horse means taking a horse and breeding it with an ass and you get a dumb backward ass long headed mule that is not reproductive nor productive by itself.

Crossbreeding niggers mean taking so many drops of good white blood and putting them into as many nigger women as possible, varying the drops by the various tone that you want, and then letting them breed with each other until another cycle of color appears as you desire. What this means is this; Put the niggers and the horse in a breeding pot, mix some assess and some good white blood and what do you get? You got a multiplicity of colors of ass backward, unusual niggers, running, tied to a backward ass long headed mule, the one productive of itself, the other sterile. (The one constant, the other dying, we keep the nigger constant for we may replace the mules for another tool) both mule and nigger tied to each other, neither knowing where the other came from and neither productive for itself, nor without each other.

Control the Language

Crossbreeding completed, for further severance from their original beginning, we must completely annihilate the mother tongue of both the new nigger and the new mule and institute a new language that involves the new life's work of both. You know language is a peculiar institution. It leads to the heart of a people. The more a foreigner knows about the language of another country the more he is able to move through all levels of that society. Therefore, if the foreigner is an enemy of the country, to the extent that he knows the body of the language, to that extent is the country vulnerable to attack or invasion of a foreign culture. For example, if you take a slave, if you teach him all about your language, he will know all your secrets, and he is then no more a slave, for you can't fool him any longer. For example, if you told a slave that he must perform in getting out "our crops" and he knows the language well, he would know that "our crops" didn't mean "our crops" and the slavery system would break down, for he would relate on the basis of what "our crops" really meant. So you have to be careful in setting up the new language for the slaves would soon be in your house, talking to you "man to man" and that is death to our economic system. In addition, the definitions of words or terms are only a minute part of the process. Values are created and transported by communication through the body of the language. A total society has many interconnected value system. All the values in the society have bridges of language to connect them for orderly working in the society. But for these language bridges, these many value systems would sharply clash and cause internal strife or civil war, the degree of the conflict being determined by the magnitude of the issues or relative opposing strength in whatever form.

For example, if you put a slave in a hog pen and train him to live there and incorporate in him to value it as a way of life completely, the biggest problem you would have out of him is that he would worry you about provisions to keep the hog pen clean, or the same hog pen and make a slip and incorporate something in his language where by he comes to value a house more than he does his hog pen, you got a problem. He will soon be in your house.

Ex-Bailiff Gets 18 Months For Attempted Bribery

CINCINNATI -- A judge sentenced a former Hamilton County bailiff Thursday to 18 months in prison.

Damon Ridley, 39, was convicted in March of attempted bribery.

Prosecutors said Ridley tried to help a man convicted of a drug charge in the court of Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge John West.

Ridley denies attempting to get a bribe from the man and suggesting he could get the man's sentence reduced.

Bailiffs run day-to-day courtroom operations and schedule when cases are heard.

Ridley resigned in 2008 after investigators questioned him about why some cases hadn't been acted on in years.

He had been charged with one count each of theft in office, bribery and attempted bribery and faced a possible 8 years in prison if convicted on all those counts.

Ohio ex-bailiff found guilty of attempted bribery

The Associated Press

5:05 PM Tuesday, March 9, 2010

CINCINNATI — A former Ohio court bailiff accused of offering to get a case dismissed for money inthe courtroom where he worked has been found guilty of attempted bribery.

Damon Ridley was found guilty Tuesday. He was acquitted of charges of theft in office and bribery. The former bailiff for Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge John West could be sentenced to up to 18 months in prison.

A convicted drug dealer testified that he gave Ridley $1,000 to ensure he wouldn't go to prison for a drug conviction before West.

Bailiffs run day-to-day courtroom operations and schedule when cases are heard.

Ridley resigned in October 2008 after investigators questioned him about why some cases hadn't been acted on in years.

New Year, New Court Corruption Exposed: Bailiff Tampering

Bribery probe snares bailiff

Defendants allegedly could buy secret friend in courtroom

The Cincinnati EnquirerBy Kimball Perry -January 2, 2009 - kperry@enquirer.com

Hoping to crack a federal drug case, investigators were listening in on telephone calls when they stumbled across a conversation that is sending shock waves through Hamilton County's judicial system. On that wiretap, federal officials heard what they believe was an attempt by convicted drug dealer Charles Johnson to buy his freedom by arranging a meeting with a court bailiff he hoped would fix his sentence. That alleged incident is the centerpiece of a criminal investigation into Damon Ridley, who was the bailiff for Hamilton County Common Pleas Judge John "Skip" West until Ridley was confronted with the allegations and resigned. Johnson's case has investigators poring over thousands of court documents involving criminal cases before West over the last five years. They are looking at why some cases presided over by West never had their sentences carried out and why other cases before him had no activity for years.

The issue is whether Ridley, 37, who also is the girls' varsity basketball coach at Woodward High, accepted money or favors in exchange for fixing sentences handed down by West or delaying them so long that thousands of dollars in fines and court fees were never paid. Bailiffs run the day-to-day operations of courtrooms and schedule when cases are heard. Johnson was arrested in July 2007, accused of selling heroin and cocaine in Over-the-Rhine. He was staring at 8½ years behind bars after police caught him with drugs and $2,165 in cash. That's when Johnson made a few calls, heard on the wiretaps, and arranged a meeting at a Spring Grove Avenue baseball field to try to avoid jail time. Johnson, now also under a federal drug indictment, was offering to pay Ridley $1,000 to help Johnson fix his criminal case so he wouldn't go to prison, Hamilton County Prosecutor Joe Deters said. Ridley showed up at the baseball field, Deters said, but the prosecutor wouldn't discuss the issue further, citing an ongoing investigation. Johnson pleaded guilty March 25 before West to reduced charges that still could have sent him to prison for 5½ years. Instead, West sentenced Johnson to probation and to serve up to six months in the River City Correctional Center, a drug-rehabilitation center run by Hamilton County judges. Investigators asked Ridley on Oct. 29 about the allegation. He resigned the next day. "I can tell you (Ridley) has told us numerous stories," Deters said.

None of what Deters says is true, Ridley told The Enquirer. "I haven't done anything wrong," Ridley said, denying he ever took money or favors for altering sentences. Ridley confirms he was questioned by investigators who asked him if he took money to alter West's sentences - which he denied - but said he hasn't spoken to investigators "in the last two months." "They just put my name on a lot of stuff that is not true," Ridley said. Investigators, Ridley said, also asked him about his visits to Indiana's riverboat casinos, where Ridley admits he gambles often. Ridley resigned after being questioned, he said, to lessen any impact on the judge. "I have a lot of respect for Judge West and I wasn't going to bring anything (negative) to him," Ridley said. He declined to answer additional questions, he said, on the advice of his attorney. He refused to say who his attorney was. If the allegations are proved, Ridley's actions could be disastrous to the Hamilton County court system as the public - and criminals - may infer the judicial system was undermined by one person's greed. "When you've got someone putting their thumb on the scales of justice, it's a very serious offense," University of Cincinnati law professor Christo Lassiter said. "You lose faith in government and there is a very serious threat to the judicial branch.

"The whole idea is to have a neutral arbiter. Why do that if there is a judge whose decisions are being bought by a bailiff? We may as well not have a judicial system." Deters is unsure of what role, if any, the judge has in the delay of cases, but he doesn't believe West is involved in wrongdoing. "Wherever this leads, we will go," Deters said, "but it would shock me to my core if the judge was involved. The judge is cooperating with us." West has refused to talk about the investigation, referring questions to Deters. Because Johnson's case is one of many being looked at, Deters asked for help from the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, an arm of the Ohio Attorney General. Investigators seized all of West's notes and files on the cases he presided over since 2003, shortly after Ridley became West's bailiff. In late November, Investigator McKinley Brown and several other prosecutor's staff took so many documents from West's fifth-floor courtroom they needed a flatbed to take them to the prosecutor's office. Ridley's work computer also was seized and its hard drive pulled for analysis. While on the bench, West talked about several of the stalled cases in question.

In three specific cases, West acknowledged from the bench that the case files he uses to track each case's progress contained handwriting that wasn't his. Generally, judges write their notes from each case on a case file or card they keep for their records. Some judges, though, cede the responsibility of maintaining the case file to their bailiffs. In each of those three cases, the person charged with a crime had no action taken on their case in at least two years. In each, West insisted he knew nothing about why those cases were dormant and noted there were no legal documents - especially none signed by him - that allowed the cases to be continued or set for another court date. Lawyers representing those three defendants admit they have been questioned by investigators about why the cases were dormant for years. Two of those lawyers - Kevin BoBo and Gloria Smith - said the investigators asked them if they had ever given Ridley money or loaned him money to continue the case. Each denied giving or lending Ridley money and denied any wrongdoing. But Ridley did borrow money from some lawyers, Deters said. "Some defense attorneys called us and said they loaned him money," Deters said.

At a Nov. 18 court hearing, West called the case of Josh Ludlum, who pleaded guilty Feb. 15, 2005 - 3½ years earlier - to attempted possession of cocaine. West sentenced Ludlum at that time to pay court costs and a fine. West then allowed Ludlum until March 15, 2005, to pay the fines and fees. But they were never paid. "I have no other record of this defendant being before this court," West said that day. "I have no indication that the fine or the court costs have been paid." The judge then turned to Brown, the prosecutor's investigator who was in the courtroom, and said, "Mr. Brown, this is one of those ones (cases) we discussed." "Yes sir," Brown responded. The second case in question that day involved the 2005 drug case against Gary Walker. "The entry that appears on the (judge's) card and not in my writing is that on 2/24/06, this matter was continued to 4/13/06 for plea or trial setting," West said. "There is no other entry, and I don't know what's happened since then."

In another case that day, Sakinah Thomas, a co-defendant of Walker, had her drug case called. It dated from 2005, three years before. Thomas was represented by attorney Smith. The week before, she told West that the case was still dormant. "You brought it to my attention last week and I'm very curious about that," West told Smith. "But more so, there is an investigator here and that's also curious. ... I know he wants to speak to your client." Smith confirmed she and her client had been interviewed by investigators about the case. West then noted that the last entry made on Thomas' case file was from March 9, 2006, which set the next court date for April 13, 2006. "I made no other notation," West said. "The next notation that appears on my note card is not in my writing, and it's dated 4/13/06, and it says 'continued to 5/10/06 ...' " In a Dec. 15 hearing on Thomas' case, her attorney told the judge she and Thomas had been to the courthouse "many times" to try to plead guilty and dispose of the case. "The case has always been continued," Smith told the judge. "By whom?" West asked. "Mr. Ridley," Smith answered. West also noted that all of the activity on the Thomas case "took place on dates when I wasn't in court" and there were no court entries continuing the case. "All of this is contrary to the way I do business," West told Smith.

Prosecutors became so frustrated with the slow pace of justice in West's courtroom that one, Katherine Pridemore, filed a legal motion requiring her to be contacted on a specific case that had been continued - without her knowledge or agreement - dozens of times. David Gvozdanovic was convicted Oct. 25, 2003, in West's room for trafficking in marijuana. Almost three years later, an exasperated Pridemore filed a motion that showed her frustration. Titled "State's Supplemental motion to be present for any further action taken on this case," the motion reads, in part: "On August 31, 2006, it came to the attention of the State that this case was yet again moved from the September 1, 2006 docket to September 11, 2006 without notice to the State, causing this case to be continued for the 34th time." The investigation has taken an emotional toll on West. West was close personally to Ridley, treating him like family. West and his family vacationed with Ridley and socialized with him. In West's courthouse chambers, there is a studio portrait of West, Ridley and another of West's court workers. Ridley worked for the Hamilton County Clerk of Courts office from April 16, 1997, until Nov. 15, 2002, when he began working as West's bailiff. Ridley's annual salary when he resigned after being confronted by investigators was $43,957. Deters predicted the investigators' audit of West's files would be complete within "two to three weeks."

a woman who worked at the state for many years has been trying to get answers for some time over similar occurrences in upstate ny in the hudson valley region one attorney in upstate ny got a phone call at night after a jury trial started that a judge put a "fix" in ("dirty deal" as described) in favor of some connected law firms representing insurance defendants and the info on the "dirty deal" came from a witness in the case who was told about the dirty deal from a friend who worked as a court deputy who overheard the "dirty deal" according to the witness sure enough, the "dirty deal" was put in to place the next day and the lawyer could never get the court deputy or witness back on the stand but tried the witness and the deputy thereafter got political advancements as the deputy was transferred up to the state capital in another case out of the same courthouse the judge's bailiff was hanging out and watching a valuable home in the middle of a matrimonial / family case the judge was in that looked more like an extortion custody scandal by the wife and others bringing false allegations to get substantial 6 figure monies and property the judge repeatedly cut off the the wife during cross exam when the wife was letting out information about the Bailiff who worked in the judge's court the judge never disclosed the conflicts of interest of his own bailiff working for one side in a case and the state cjc and others have done nothing to date for several years now

oh, and those insurance defendants were able to save their companies a lot of money in a case which was otherwise won unanimously by the plaintiff in a jury verdict but the jury never got to hear the key expert witnesses who had been cleared to testify by a previous judge even though one witness was a recognized expert in the field statewide who had done similar work internationally so the unanimous jury verdict was rather low on damages since the jury

Ex-bailiff accused of seeking bribe to kill case

A grand jury has indicted a former court bailiff accused of offering to get a case dismissed for money in the courtroom where he worked.

The grand jury in Cincinnati on Thursday indicted 37-year-old Damon Ridley on theft in office, bribery and attempted bribery charges.

Ridley's phone number is unpublished and he could not be reached for comment yesterday. He has denied any wrongdoing.

Prosecutors say Ridley told a suspected drug dealer that he could get the charges dropped in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court for a price. Authorities think Ridley took $1,000.

Ridley resigned in October after investigators questioned him about why some cases hadn't been acted on in years. Bailiffs run day-to-day courtroom operations and schedule when cases are heard.

Common Pleas Case No. A-0901302

From the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas

Supreme Court Case No. 10-AP-069

Judgment Entry on Defendant's 8/11/10 Motion for Final Entry and Stay

The affidavit of disqualification filed by Denise Newsome in this case on July 13, 2010 was denied by entry dated July 17, 2010. On July 27, 2010, Newsome filed a motion for reconsideration, which I denied on August 2, 2010.

Newsome has now filed a motion for the court to issue a final judgment entry so she can exercise her right to appeal to the United States Supreme Court. She also seeks a stay of these proceedings while the matter is appealed.

R.C. 2701.03(E) provides that if the chief justice "determines that the interest, bias, prejudice, or disqualification alleged in the affidavit does not exist, the chief justice * * * shall issue an entry denying the affidavit of disqualification." In accordance with R.C. 2701.03(E), I issued an entry on July 17, 2010 denying Newsome's affidavit of disqualification. Likewise, I issued another entry on August 2, 2010 denying Newsome's motion for reconsideration. Thus, contrary to Newsome's assertion, final entries have been issued in this case and there are no issues left to be resolved.

As to Newsome's motion for stay, R.C. 2701.03 does not authorize the chief justice to stay affidavit-of-disqualification proceedings while the affiant files an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

EXHIBIT 7

For the reasons stated above, Newsome's motions are denied. The case may proceed before Judge West.

Dated this 18 day of August, 2010.

Therefore, as a matter of law, the Ohio Supreme Court's failure to address the issues raised by Newsome as well as provide legal conclusions to sustain its decision, may be deemed ARBITRARY and CAPRICIOUS; moreover, entered with ill purposes, prejudices, and intent to cause irreparable injury/harm to Newsome.

The "Judgment Entry of Defendant's 7/27/10 Motion for Consideration" executed by the Ohio Supreme Court neither addresses the ISSUES timely, properly and adequately raised in > Three conditions must be met before single justice of the Supreme Court will issue a stay; there must be a reasonable probability that certiorari will be granted or probable jurisdiction noted, significant possibility that judgment below will be reversed, and likelihood of irreparable harm, assuming the correctness of the applicant's position, if the judgment is not stayed. (Per Justice Scalia, as Circuit Justice.) Barnes v. E-Systems, Inc. Group Hosp. Medical & Surgical Ins. Plan, (1991), 112 S.Ct. 1, 501 U.S. 1301, 115 L.Ed.2d 1087.

Newsome believes that there is reasonable probability that certiorari will be granted and that the United States Supreme Court will have jurisdiction; Newsome believes that should the Ohio Supreme Court refuse to comply with the statutes/laws governing said matters, that there is significant possibility that its August 2, 2010 Judgment Entry will be reversed; and based upon the FACTS, EVIDENCE, and LEGAL AUTHORITIES the record and testimony provided will support Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm based upon the correctness of her position taken and the CRITICAL/CRUCIAL arguments and sustaining evidence in the record of this Court and/or accessible to this Court. In further support of this instant "NOTICE OF INTENT," Newsome further states that the "Writ of Certiorari" that she seeks to file with the United States Supreme Court will support:

1) This instant NOTICE OF INTENT is submitted in good faith and is not submitted for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, etc. and is filed to protect and preserve the rights of Newsome.

2) Should it become necessary, Newsome will file her EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari in that she believes the Justices of the United States Supreme Court will see from the record evidence the WELL-ESTABLISHED racism that targets educated African-Americans such as herself that white employers want to control and keep in place; therefore, they engage in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome which clearly in violation of her Constitutional Rights, Civil Rights and other rights secured/guaranteed under the laws.

3) Newsome believes that EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari will issue in that the record evidence, facts and legal conclusion to be provided will sustain the IRREPABALE INJURY/HARM Newsome has REPEATEDLY been subjected to because of the criminal/civil wrongs as that by Judge John Andrew West and his Conspirators/Co-Conspirators who have purposed in their hearts to subject Newsome to MALICIOUS actions as well as bring the lower court(s) in ILL REPUTE!!

4) Newsome believes that the record evidence will support that while this supposed to be a "Court of Law" those who oppose Newsome and come before this Court are not practicing, not arguing and/or relying upon the laws; however, are looking for SPECIAL FAVORS and HANDOUTS from this Court to obtain an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage.

5) Newsome believes that filing of EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari is PERTINENT/RELEVANT in hopes that it will shed additional light on the NEED TO ADDRESS RACIAL INJUSTICES LEVELED AGAINST AFRICAN-AMERICANS and/or PEOPLE OF COLOR. In light of the recent shooting on or about August 3, 2010, in Manchester, Connecticut see Article(s) attached at EXHIBITS "1" – incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - and/or the following links:

Using the following excerpts:

> Some people don't want to discuss racism as being a form of violence because it would reveal that they themselves are in fact extremely violent and in denial about it.
>
> Omar Thornton's incident has a host of websites spewing hate talk toward African-Americans. Hartford Distributors may have used racism and gradually managed to kill Omar Thornton mentally and emotionally before the killing spree via attrition. Jessica Anne Brocuglio, an ex-girlfriend of Omar Thornton, comes forward with character evidence:
>
> > He always felt like he was being discriminated (against) because he was black[.]" "Basically they wouldn't give him pay raises. He never felt like they accepted him as a hard working person."
>
> This statement corroborates with what Kristi Hannah, Omar Thornton's fiancée before his death, had been telling the Manchester Police Department about Hartford Distributors treating him like a persona non grata.
>
> Plus, a fellow co-worker who was employed with Omar Thornton at Hartford Distributors has come forward stating that he had seen the racist taunts: "Stuff on walls. Racist comments. I saw with my own eyes." More importantly, the fellow co-worker said Mr. Thornton was hired as a truck driver; yet, he was assigned to loading boxes in the warehouse. Mr. Thornton had to fight to get behind the wheel. The co-worker then states that Hartford Distributors are lying and the evidence is in Omar's cell phone. These statements are serious and they are not based upon speculation. This places the co-worker in a position to be called as a key witness to racism within Hartford Distributors. Although the co-worker is no longer under the employ of Hartford Distributors, he has witnessed these incidents first-hand. These statements make it appear as if Hartford Distributors is deliberately being obtuse to shield themselves from potential liability. As Marcellus said in > William Shakespeare's play "Hamlet," "[s]omething is rotten in the state of Denmark." Thus far, the answers provided by Hartford Distributors just rubs me the wrong way.

> But underneath, Thornton seethed with a sense of racial injustice for years that culminated in a shooting rampage Tuesday in which the Connecticut man killed eight and wounded two others at his job at Hartford Distributors in Manchester before killing himself.
>
> "I know what pushed him over the edge was all the racial stuff that was happening at work," said his girlfriend, Kristi Hannah.
>
> Thornton, a black man, said as much in a chilling, four-minute 911 call.
>
> "You probably want to know the reason why I shot this place up," Thornton said in a recording released Thursday. "This place is a racist place. They're treating me bad over here. And treat all other black employees bad over here, too. So I took it to my own hands and handled the problem. I wish I could have got more of the people." . . .
>
> One time Thornton had a confrontation with a white co-worker who used a racial slur against him, she said. Thornton changed jobs a few times because he was not getting raises, Brocuglio said.
>
> "I'm sick of having to quit jobs and get another job because they can't accept me," she said he told her. . . .
>
> Brocuglio's sister, Toni, said Thornton would come home and say co-workers called him racial slurs. He was also upset by comments made by passers-by about the interracial couple, she said.
>
> "He just didn't understand why people had so much hatred in their lives," Toni Brocuglio said. . . .
> But Hannah said he showed her cell phone photos of racist graffiti in the bathroom at the beer company and overheard a company official using a racial epithet in reference to him, but a union representative did not return his phone calls. Police said they recovered the phone and forensics experts would examine it.

are just a few of many shootings why Newsome believes it is of SERIOUS/CRITICAL nature that the issues raised herein as well as in this Court's filing and lower court filings be addressed. Newsome in her filings will provide the EVIDENCE and LEGAL CONCLUSIONS to sustain her arguments.

6) Newsome believes there are compelling reasons to support GRANTING of "EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari" which include, but is not limited to, the following:

a) The Ohio Supreme Court has entered a decision in conflict with the decision of another state Supreme Court on the same important matter;

b) Has taken a FAR DEPARTURE from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or sanctioned such a departure by the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, as to call for the exercise of the United States Supreme Court;

c) The Ohio Supreme Court (as the court of last resort) has decided an important federal question in a way that conflicts with the decision of another state court of last resort;

d) The Ohio Supreme Court has decided an important question of federal law that may not have been, but should be, settled by the United States Supreme Court, and/or has decided an important federal question in a way that conflicts with relevant decisions of the United States Supreme Court.

e) It is of PUBLIC/NATIONAL/WORLDWIDE importance because such matters affect not only Newsome but will have a heavy impact on the lives of many others who have suffered similar wrongs; however, may not have had the means and/or resources available to them to retain documentation and/or evidence and legal conclusions as Newsome.

f) The issues to be presented through "EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari" is of PUBLIC/NATIONAL importance and affects the substantial Constitutional and Civil Rights of Newsome as well as other citizens of the United States.

7) Newsome believes that the record evidence will support there are "special and important reasons" within Rule 10 of the United States Supreme Court to substantiate "problems beyond the academic or episodic, especially where issues involved reach constitutional dimensions." Rice v. Sioux City Memorial Park Cemetery (1955), 75 S.Ct. 614, 349, U.S. 70, 99 L.Ed. 897.

8) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the evidence will support that RECURRING importance of problem that exists in administration of federal laws and conflict between the courts (i.e. State and/or Federal), that the United States Supreme Court has granted Certiorari. U.S. v. Zacks (1963), 84 S.Ct. 178, 375 U.S. 59, 11 L.Ed.2d 128.

9) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the evidence will support the CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against her by the Justices of this Court as well as lower court(s). Furthermore, that a reasonable mind may conclude that the SUBSTANTIAL/EXCESSIVE campaign contributions paid to Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court by Liberty Mutual and/or it lawyers were for purposes of obtaining SPECIAL FAVORS and/or FAVORABLE rulings on behalf of their client Liberty Mutual and/or Liberty Mutual's clients. Such contributions which this Court apparently finds acceptable; however, federal statutes/laws says otherwise especially when such monies are received with knowledge that special rulings in favor of contributors are expected in EXCHANGE for receipt of monies. Thus, supporting further intervention by the United States Supreme Court in this matter.

10) Based upon the SIGNIFICANCE nature and IMPORTANCE of filing "EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari," and the evidence that will support the PATTERN-OF-ABUSE, CRIMINAL STALKING, HARASSMENT, etc. contacting of Newsome's employers for reasons of getting her TERMINATED and purposes of obtaining an UNDUE/UNLAWFUL/ ILLEGAL advantage in lawsuits by Plaintiff (Stor-All), its insurance carrier (Liberty Mutual), their attorneys and others, Newsome will be requesting to proceed in Certiorari action "in forma pauperis." Moreover, providing SUFFICIENT and SUBSTANTIAL evidence to support Plaintiff's (Stor-All's) insurance carrier's (Liberty Mutual's) and its attorneys/lawyers criminal/civil wrongs involved in that Newsome's termination of employment for purposes of FINANCIALLY devastating her as well as means of crippling her to prevent/preclude her from being successful in defending against legal actions.

11) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the record evidence will support the Ohio Supreme Court being TIMELY, PROPERLY and ADQUATELY notified of crimes committed by the Judge(s)/Members of the Ohio Bar pursuant to Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct; however, has failed to take the appropriate legal actions to deter/prevent further injury/harm to Newsome and/or the PUBLIC/CITIZENS at large. Newsome, therefore, providing as evidence pleadings filed in action as well as those in the records of this Court and lower court(s).

12) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that the evidence in the record of the Ohio Supreme Court as well as the lower court(s) will support that the INTEGRITY of this Court as well as lower court(s) have been HEAVILY compromised/breached. Moreover, IMPROPRIETY is apparent/prevalent.

13) Newsome believes that the Certiorari will be granted because the issues to be raised affects the PUBLIC/CITIZENS at large and the CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against her and are those of great ECONOMIC proportions.

14) The record evidence as well as the information contained in this instant filing will support: (a) There is a reasonable probability that certiorari will be granted and that the United States Supreme Court will have jurisdiction over this matter; (b) There is significant possibility that if the Ohio Supreme Court does not move immediately to correct the "Judgment Entry of Defendant's 7/27/10 Motion for Consideration," that said Judgment will be reversed; and (c) To allow the Judgment Entry of Defendant's 7/27/10 Motion for Consideration" to stand would subject Newsome to further irreparable injury/harm considering the correctness of the position she will take if the August 2, 2010 Judgment Entry is not stayed.

15) It is important that Newsome REITERATE that it was Plaintiff Stor-All, in the lower court action, that brought this lawsuit against her. Stor-All and its counsel doing so upon securing the TERMINATION of Newsome's employment – a termination RACIALLY/DISCRIMINATORALLY *motivated. Stor-All being an insured of LIBERTY MUTUAL insurance company in which Newsome will be providing ADDITIONAL information to sustain granting of *"*EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari." Newsome believes that the information contained in this instant filing as well as the record of the Ohio Supreme Court regarding lower court(s) actions will sustain the CRIMINAL motives and/or UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL motives behind the filing of the lawsuit against her as well as well as the CRIMINAL STALKING (i.e. amongst other crimes leveled against Newsome) by Liberty Mutual, its lawyers, clients and/or representatives and others who have a PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interest in legal matters involving Newsome as well as have a WELL-ESTABLISHED discriminatory/prejudicial/malicious intent to ruin Newsome's life. Information which is PERTINENT because it will support the concerns of the United States Congress actions in the passing of House Report No. 92-238. Congress demonstrated its awareness that claimants might not be able to take advantage of the federal remedy without appointment of counsel. As explained in House Report No. 92-238:

> By including this provision in the bill, the committee emphasizes that the nature of . . . actions more often than not pits parties of unequal strength and resources against each other. The complainant, who is usually a member of the disadvantaged class, is opposed by an employer who . . . has at his disposal a vast of resources and legal talent*.*

H.R. Rep. No. 238, 92nd Cong., 2d Sess., reprinted in 1972 U.S.C.C.A.N. 2137, 2148.

Newsome borrows the passing of such Bills to support Congress' concerns and how Plaintiff (Stor-All), its insurance carrier, attorneys and others willingness to CONSPIRE and commit criminal/civil wrongs against Newsome have, through their actions, left the proverbial SMOKING GUN behind[2] that she diligently sought to find in that such evidence that she has been blessed with, is very hard/difficult to come by because of the CORRUPTION/CRIMINAL acts that violators resort to cover their tracks. Newsome now being able to confirm the CRIMINAL STALKING and other criminal/civil civil wrongs rendered her by Stor-All, its insurance carrier (Liberty Mutual), their attorneys/clients' attorneys (i.e. Baker Donelson Bearman Caldwell & Berkowitz, DunbarMonroe, Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin, and Markesbery & Richardson Co., etc.).

16) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that it will UNCOVER and/or EXPOSE the criminal/civil wrongs of one of the Nation's LEADING Insurance Carrier (Liberty Mutual – who alleges to be the 5th largest P&C insurance company in the United States) – see document attached at EXHIBIT "2"– incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein – as well as information which may be at the following link:

http://www.libertymutualgroup.com/omapps/ContentServer?pagename=LMGroup/Views/LMG

as well as its lawyers - i.e. one, for example Baker Donelson Bearman Caldwell & Berkowitz ("Baker Donelson"), which alleges "as one of the 10 fastest growing law firms in the U.S. by The National Law Journal and is one of the 100 largest law firms in the country":

http://www.aboutus.org/BakerDonelson.com and believes in PROMOTING and BOASTING about their STRONG TIES/CONNECTIONS/RELATIONSHIPS to Government Officials and JUDGES/JUSTCES:

- Chief of Staff to the President of the United States
- United States Secretary of State
- United States Senate Majority Leader
- Members of the United States Senate
- Members of the United States House of Representatives
- Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control for United States
- Department of Treasury
- Director of the Administrative Office of the United States

[2] Because discrimination often is subtle, and there rarely is a "smoking gun," [Fn. 45 - See Aman v. Cort Furniture Rental Corp., 85 F.3d 1074, 1081-82 (3rd Cir. 1996)("It has become easier to coat various forms of discrimination with the appearance of propriety, or to ascribe some other less odious intention to what is in reality discriminatory behavior. In other words, while discriminatory conduct persists, violators have learned not to leave the proverbial „smoking gun" behind."); cf. McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. Green, 411 U.S. 792, 801 (1973)("it is abundantly clear that Title VII tolerates no racial discrimination, subtle or otherwise").] determining whether race played a role in the decisionmaking requires examination of all of the surrounding facts and circumstances. The presence or absence of any one piece of evidence often will not be determinative. Sources of information can include witness statements, including consideration of their credibility; documents; direct observation; and statistical evidence such as EEO-1 data, among others. See EEOC Compl. Man., Vol. I, Sec. 26, Selection and Analysis of Evidence." A non-exhaustive list of important areas of inquiry and analysis is set out below.

- Chief Counsel, Acting Director, and Acting Deputy Director of United States Citizenship & Immigration Services within the United States Department of Homeland Security
- Majority and Minority Staff Director of the Senate Committee on Appropriations
- Member of United States President's Domestic Policy Council

http://www.martindale.com/Baker-Donelson-Bearman-Caldwell/law-firm-307399.htm

see attached as EXHIBIT "3"– incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - however, since Newsome has been gone PUBLIC and is releasing this information, Baker Donelson has SCRUBBED this information from the Internet. It was a good thing Newsome retained copy for her record to EVIDENCE information posted on the Internet.

This information is PERTINENT/RELEVANT in that it will sustain how Liberty Mutual, its attorneys, Judge John Andrew West and others have REPEATEDLY CONSPIRED to destroy the lives of citizens of the United States; moreover, PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL/CIVIL WRONGS targeting and exacting revenge on citizens that exercise their rights under the United States Constitution, Civil Rights Act and other governing statutes/laws.

17) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted because the record evidence will support that it is PUBLIC/NATIONAL and WORLDWIDE importance to address the RACIAL INJUSTICES that Newsome as well as other citizens have been subjected to and to EXPOSE the culprits (i.e. as Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance carrier (Liberty Mutual), their attorneys, Judge John Andrew West and others who have a financial/personal interest in the outcome of legal actions involving Newsome and/or may be brought) of such criminal/civil wrongs as that rendered Newsome in her pursuit of justice. Furthermore, supporting unlawful/illegal actions taken against Newsome to deprive her of life, liberties and the pursuit of happiness because she has elected to exercise her rights under the Constitution, Civil Rights act and other governing statutes laws.

18) Newsome believes that Certiorari will be granted in that she will provide SUBSTANTIAL evidence to support RACIAL INJUSTICES as well as the DISCRIMINATORY/PREJUDICIAL application of the laws that has REPEATEDLY had an ADVERSE impact on Newsome's life – i.e. as well as other citizens in which such criminal/civil wrongs are leveled against for their engagement in PROTECTED activities and/or exercising of rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution.

TO FURTHER UNDERSTAND THE CONSPIRACY LEVELED AGAINST NEWSOME and/or AFRICAN-AMERICANS or PEOPLE OF COLOR; as well as just how ELABORATE and the MAGNITUDE/SCALE of the RACIAL INJUSTICES/DISCRIMINATION/PREJUDICES are and in preservation for purposes of raising such issues on appeal in that this Court's records and the lower court(s) records will sustain said defense and the grounds for Newsome's filing of AFFIDAVIT OF DISQUALIFICATION. Newsome further sets forth the following in support of her beliefs as to why Certiorari will be granted:

PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL/CIVIL WRONGS INJUSTICES LEVELED AGAINST NEWSOME

– Lead CONSPIRATORS Newsome believes being Liberty Mutual and its lawyers

(i.e. Baker Donelson) who have the ability to INDUCE the willing participation of Judges/Justices and others to engage in their criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her:

I. ENTERGY NEW ORLEANS/ENTERGY SERVICES, INC.

MATTER: White employer insured by White Insurance Carrier and represented by White Law Firms

19) To support the EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari Newsome will file, if required to do so, it is necessary to establish the role of Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance carrier's (Liberty Mutual's) role and its insurance carrier's attorney's (i.e. for example as Baker Donelson and others - Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin, and Markesbery & Richardson Co. who are counsel for Liberty Mutual and/or Liberty Mutual's insured in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas matter in Cincinnati, Ohio out of which this matter arises) in the CONSPIRACY and the carrying out of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome:

a) Newsome attaches hereto at EXHIBIT "4" the COVER PAGE only of the lawsuit captioned, "Newsome v. Entergy NO Inc., et al." – Civil Action No. 2:99-cv-03109-GTP - that was filed in the United States District Court of Louisiana (Eastern Division – New Orleans) – incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Documentation which will evidence that legal counsel for Entergy New Orleans, Inc./Entergy Services, Inc. being Baker Donelson along with other co-counsel.

Just as Plaintiff Stor-All's counsel David Meranus was UNABLE to defend against Newsome's Answer and Counterclaim filed in the lower court action (out of which the Affidavit of Disqualification arises) and clearly ABANDONED his client Stor-All after he initiated the lawsuit on their behalf; similar actions in the Entergy matter arose. While Entergy began with its in-house legal counsel, realizing its INABILITY to defend against Newsome's lawsuit, it HIRED and/or RETAINED two HUGE law firms (Baker Donelson as well as Jones Walker – Jones Walker who advertises on its website:

http://www.joneswalker.com/about.html

> Since our inception in 1937, Jones Walker has grown over the past several decades in size and scope to become one of the largest law firms in the Gulf South. We serve local, regional, national, and international business interests in a wide range of markets and industries. Today, we have nearly 300 attorneys in Alabama, Arizona, the District of Columbia, Florida, Louisiana, and Texas.

Bringing in an ARSENAL of attorneys wherein Entergy having close to 1000 attorneys at its disposal against ONE Plaintiff (Newsome) – however, still UNABLE to defend against Newsome's claims that Entergy and its counsel KNOWINGLY/WILLINGLY/DELIBERATELY resorted to criminal/civil wrongs for purposes of obtain an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit.

Information PERTINENT/RELEVANT because it goes to the grounds which substantiate/support the Affidavit of Disqualification filed with this Court and will ESTABLISH the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome by Judge John Andrew West, Liberty Mutual's client Plaintiff Stor-All and others – PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL/ABUSE. Furthermore, will support the reasons for the United States Congress' passing of H.R. Rep. No. 238, 92nd Cong., 2d Sess., reprinted in 1972 U.S.C.C.A.N. 2137, 2148, which provides:

> By including this provision in the bill, the committee emphasizes that the nature of . . . actions more often than not pits parties of unequal strength and resources against each other. The complainant, who is usually a member of the disadvantaged class, is opposed by an employer who . . . has at his disposal a vast of resources and legal talent.

b) Newsome's ability to be successful on appeal is the reason that Liberty Mutual, its insureds and its counsel may have also resort to criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her in furtherance of its racial prejudices/bias towards her*. On appeal to the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal on the issue of appointment of counsel, the Fifth Circuit ruled that the lower court (United States Eastern District Court of Louisiana) erred in its ruling and the criteria used to determine this matter and REMANDED. See EXHIBIT "5" – August 4, 2000 5th Circuit Judgment - attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

The record evidence in the Entergy matter will support Newsome's ability to retain counsel (Michelle Ebony Scott-Bennett). However, Newsome believes that from the unlawful/illegal actions of Scott-Bennett to ABRUPTLY move to withdraw without her permission may have been as DIRECT and PROXIMATE results of THREATS received from Entergy's/Liberty Mutual's attorneys (Baker Donelson and/or Jones Walker) to have her DISBARRED, etc. if she did not withdraw. Newsome believes that in obtaining Entergy's/Liberty Mutual's attorneys may have relied upon its POSITIONS as "Presidents of State and Local Bar Associations" to induce Scott-Bennett. See EXHIBIT "3" – Baker Donelson information attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that no attorney (i.e. sole counsel/attorney as Scott-Bennett) would turn down PRO BONO assistance from another law firm that was willing to provide legal services in such a capacity. However, this was just the case. Newsome's past employer (Owens Law Firm) had offered Scott-Bennett its legal services PRO BONO in the lawsuit filed by Newsome. Again, Scott-Bennett did not consider and moved ABRUPTLY to withdraw as legal counsel for Newsome without Newsome's permission and/or just grounds for doing so. See EXHIBIT "6" – Affidavit of Rajita I. Moss (Owens Law Firm attorney assigned to assist in lawsuit) attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Newsome, in accordance with the statutes/laws governing such crimes/civil wrongs reported this matter to the United States Department of Justice on or about September 17, 2004; however, to date has not heard anything regarding such filing. Therefore, Newsome believes that a reasonable mind may conclude that Entergy's/Liberty Mutual's attorneys (i.e. Baker Donelson, etc.) ties to UNITED STATES ATTORNEY GENERALS may have played a role in the COVER-UP and destruction of her Complaint entitled, "Petition Seeking Intervention/Participation of the United States Department of Justice." Baker Donelson's advertisement of their attorneys' roles as United States Attorney Generals was evidenced on information posted on the Internet. It was a good thing Newsome printed and retained information for her record because since going PUBLIC, Baker Donelson has sought to have such special ties/relationships to GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, Judges/Justices and others SCRUBBED/REMOVED from the Internet. See the list provided above beginning at Page 13 and/or attached hereto at EXHIBIT "3."

c) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome filed the required Complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"); however, AGAIN, most likely Entergy/Liberty Mutual, its counsel and others CONSPIRED to assure that Newsome was not able to recover damages for discriminatory practices sustained. Furthermore, in efforts of doing DAMAGE CONTROL and the hiding of its Title VII violations and many others violations, Entergy moved and TERMINATED the employment of the Manager/Supervisor and co-worker involved in the discrimination, harassment, etc. of Newsome during her employment. Nevertheless, would want the factfinder to think that there were no employment violations – when in FACT there were!! Most likely resorting to criminal acts and denial as the employer (Hartford Distributors) in the recent Connecticut shooting had done!!! While Newsome appealed this matter to the United States Supreme Court, she knew something was wrong; however, could not put her finger on it. Why, because said courts handling of matter clearly CONFLICTED with past decisions and/or handling of matters by it. Low and behold, Newsome's research yielded that Entergy's/Liberty Mutual's attorneys having Special TIES/RELATIONSHIPS to Justices on the United States Supreme Court – i.e. Chief of Staff of the Supreme Court of the United States and Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice of the United States. See list above as well as document attached as EXHBIT "3" to this instant pleading.

d) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: While the Fifth Circuit Court's decision in Newsome v. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 301 F.3d 227 in clearly states:

> Newsome also is not entitled to the writ because she has another adequate remedy available, i.e. she could file suit in court against her employer*. . . .*

clearly, any such efforts taken by Newsome to bring legal action against her employers and/or others have been met by CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against her as a direct and proximate result of the CONSPIRACY orchestrated and carried out by Liberty Mutual, its insureds, its counsel and other opposing parties with a PERSONAL/FINANCIAL interest in the outcome of legal actions. Furthermore, Newsome has been RETALIATED AGAINST and BLACKLISTED through the role of such Conspirators as well as United States Government Agencies/Officials because of the lawsuit filed against the United States Department of Labor. Furthermore, the record evidence in this instant action, the lower court (Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas) action and others, will sustain that Justices/Judges resorted to engaging and fulfilling their role in the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome for purposes of AIDING and ABETTING Baker Donelson and others in the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome. Participants in the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome having a PERSONAL as well as FINANCIAL interest in the outcome of lawsuit.

e) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That in light of the recent Connecticut Shooting on or about August 3, 2010, as well as other shootings (i.e. as that listed above), Newsome believes such information is RELEVANT/PERTINENT in that it clearly goes to what apparently is REPEATEDLY echoed by African-American males who went on shooting rampage to avenge the RACIAL INJUSTICES and/or discriminatory/prejudicial treatment they were being subjected to. Furthermore, Newsome believes that the information contained herein will support beliefs of many regarding the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICES targeting African-Americans and/or people of color. Unlike Omar Thornton and Carl Brandon in the shootings mentioned above, Newsome elected to abide by the law and bring the appropriate legal actions – i.e. also was instructed by the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals to bring the proper action against her employer if Newsome felt she was being subjected to employment violations/legal wrongs. Therefore, supporting the EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari action to be brought if necessary.

II. MISSISSIPPI MATTERS:

20) To support the EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari Newsome will file, if required to do so, it is necessary to establish the role of Plaintiff Stor-All's insurance carrier's (Liberty Mutual's) role and its insurance carrier's attorney's (i.e. for example as Baker Donelson and others - Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin, and Markesbery & Richardson Co. who are counsel for Liberty Mutual and/or Liberty Mutual's insured in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas matter in Cincinnati, Ohio out of which this matter arises) in the CONSPIRACY and the carrying out of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome:

a) BARIA FYKE HAWKINS & STRACENER EMPLOYMENT (JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI) – WHITE EMPLOYER: Newsome was assigned to this employer through an employment agency. Pleased with Newsome's work, she was able to obtain permanent employment. However, PRIOR to and only AFTER, a trip by David Baria (former President for the Mississippi Trial Lawyers) to New Orleans, Louisiana did Newsome notice that the working relationship with this employer had changed. Newsome's employment with this law firm was ABRUPTLY ended by Baria – i.e. according to Baria he had the consensus of other Partners of the law firm to end her employment. While Newsome believed that her ABRUPT termination of employment may have been due to criminal/civil wrongs by attorneys for Entergy; she would have to await until sufficient evidence to support the role they may have played in her termination – i.e. as that which surfaced during the lower court's (Hamilton County Municipal Court in Cincinnati, Ohio action) when Plaintiff Stor-All's/Liberty Mutual's client's attorney (David Meranus) made known to Newsome upon losing his argument on Motion to Transfer filed by Newsome of his knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. See EXHIBIT "7" – February 6, 2009 Letter to Meranus – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. At the execution of the "MAGISTRATE DECISION," Meranus made known to Newsome his knowledge of her participation in protected activities in New Orleans. Newsome memorialized said conversation in her February 6, 2009 correspondence with is attached as indicated.

> To establish a violation of ~2000e-3(a), it must be shown that employer had actual or imputed knowledge that the plaintiff participated in a protected activity (7 Am. Jur. Proof of Facts 2d 38, 39; EEOC Decision No. 71-1000, 1973 CCH EEOC Decisions ¶6194; EEOC Decision No. 70-840, 1973 CCH EEOC Decisions ¶6155), and further, that based on such knowledge the discharge was in fact retaliatory - that is, motivated by the employee's participation in protected activity with the intent to retaliate against the employee for such participation, and not by unrelated legitimate business reasons.

b) BRUNINI GRANTHAM GROWER & HEWES EMPLOYMENT ["BGG&H"] (JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI) – WHITE EMPLOYER: Newsome was assigned to this employer through an employment agency. After only approximately TWO days, pleased with Newsome's work performance, BGG&H offered Newsome employment which she accepted. BGG&H having contacted Newsome's previous employer (Owens Law Firm – i.e. an African American Law Firm) and getting no objection to her hiring proceeded then to contact Baria Fyke Hawkins & Stracener ["BFH&S"]. BFH&S objected to Newsome's hiring and took it to a level to which it threatened BGG&H with legal action if it were to hire Newsome. Newsome believes that based upon such threats by BFH&S as well as other ILLEGAL/UNLAWFUL motives, the employment offer extended to Newsome by BGG&H was rescinded. Newsome's research has yielded that IN FACT Liberty Mutual is a client of BGG&H. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that based upon said information Baria, Liberty Mutual and others relied upon RELATIONSHIP to deprive Newsome of an employment opportunity as well as subject her to further CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs in RETALIATION of her lawsuit against Entergy as well as engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES known to them. See EXHIBIT "8" – BGG&H information revealing Liberty Mutual as a client – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

21) MITCHELL MCNUTT & SAMS EMPLOYMENT ["MM&S"] (JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI)- WHITE EMPLOYER. Newsome was sent to this employer to interview for position. Out of the applicants that applied, Newsome was selected and offered employment which she accepted. As in the Omar

Thornton matter, there were payment/salary issues as well as other violations that Newsome reported. However, Newsome did not take the law into her own hand and filed the required Complaint with the Wage & Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor. However, in RETALIATION to Newsome having brought legal action against the United States Department of Labor – EEOC Division, said Department was willing to DENY Newsome the protection required under the law and prosecute MM&S for said violations. Instead, the Wage & Hour ("W&H") Division advised Newsome that there was no violation. What said Division did not know, was that Newsome had inquired of an attorney and shared what was going on and was advised that her understanding of the statutes/laws under the Fair Labor Standard Act ("FLSA") was indeed correct and that a matter with one of their clients had been recently been resolved because they were paying in the same manner as MM&S were paying their employees. In further support of employment violations with this employer, Newsome states:

a) That just as in the Omar Thornton (and most likely the Carl Brandon) incidents/shooting mentioned above, MM&S lied/falsified information provided to government agency handling investigation. In fact, in RETALIATION and in its role in the CONSPIRACY and cover-up of FLSA violations, the United States Department of Labor placed information on the INTERNET for PUBLIC viewing regarding Newsome that it knew and/or should have known was FALSE/FABRICATED and MALICIOUS information provided for purposes of destroying and ruining Newsome's life. See EXHIBIT "9" – FINAL DECISION AND ORDER – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Information Newsome was able to retrieve from the Internet regarding her as well as other matters obtained from GOOGLE Search. See EXHIBIT "10" – Google Search Results incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

b) When Newsome requested copy of file, the W&H Division redacted information. Information Newsome is entitled to; however, knew that it was damaging information that would support its reliance upon information provided and the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome to BLACKLIST her in RETALIATION of having exercised her rights and/or engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES.

> To establish a violation of ~2000e-3(a), it must be shown that employer had actual or imputed knowledge that the plaintiff participated in a protected activity (7 Am. Jur. Proof of Facts 2d 38, 39; EEOC Decision No. 71-1000, 1973 CCH EEOC Decisions ¶6194; EEOC Decision No. 70-840, 1973 CCH EEOC Decisions ¶6155), and further, that based on such knowledge the discharge was in fact retaliatory - that is, motivated by the employee's participation in protected activity with the intent to retaliate against the employee for such participation, and not by unrelated legitimate business reasons.

c) Furthermore, MM&S provided FALSE, MISLEADING and MALICIOUS information for purposes of impeding investigation. Such acts which merely FUELED the RETALIATORY feelings the United States Department of Labor harbored against Newsome for bringing legal action against it. See information attached at EXHIBIT "11" – FLSA Information – and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein which provides information such as:

> U.S. Department of Labor – FLSA NARRATIVE REPORT:
> Evidence: Interviews of Supervisor Robert Gordon, Attorney Mike Farrell, and Secretary Ladye Margaret Townsend[3] revealed that Ms. Newsome had been rebellious and insubordinate in job duties assigned her from the start of her employment.
>
> [redacted] interview (Exhibit [redacted]) stated that every since Ms Newsome was hired she been looking for a way to get fired to pursue a lawsuit. . . After this incident Ms Newsome began working on whether she was paid properly . . . Newsome disagreed with Attorney Farrell and told Cochanuer and Townsend she was going to contact Wage Hour. [redacted] didn't know if Newsome did or not because nothing came of it. [redacted] further confirmed other events of insubordination. (Exhibit [redacted]).
>
> Further action:
> (Note) During the course of this investigation, District Director ("DD") Billy Jones retired from the department. Regional Administrator McKeon assigned Assistant District Director ("ADD") Oliver Peebles as Acting DD for the Gulf Coast District. DD Peebles has been advised through all actions of this case, and all of his instructions have been followed.

d) Newsome's employment with MM&S was ABRUPTLY terminated upon her reporting of employment violations – i.e. DISCRIMINATORY and her being subjected to HOSTILE work environment, etc. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: When

[3] All of whom are "White" and having a personal interest and financial interest (either employment and/or business investment related).

Newsome filed for employment benefits, MM&S sent its lawyer Paula Graves Ardelean and two of its employees (James Allen and Robert. Gordon) as witnesses. It was apparent to Newsome from listening to questions presented by MM&S counsel to its witnesses that they had rehearsed what would be said at the hearing. However, what they could not prepare for (because they did not know what Newsome would ask) was CROSS-EXAMINATION by Newsome and the questions presented. Under cross-examination, Newsome was able to get MM&S' witnesses to admit that she was subjected to DISCRIMINATION and/or DISCRIMINATORY practices during her employment and that the work environment was HOSTILE. See EXHIBIT "12" – MM&S Transcript – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

e) There is record evidence to support that Newsome filed a complaint with the EEOC as well as against MM&S; however, in keeping with CONSPIRACY and the COVER-UP of employment violations in RETALIATION to Newsome having brought legal against the United States Department of Labor – EEOC Division, etc. it failed to perform MANDATORY ministerial duties owed Newsome. Therefore, as a direct and proximate result of said RETALIATION and criminal/civil wrongs rendered Newsome for exercising protected rights, the United States Department of Labor failed to prosecute MM&S although it having sufficient evidence and/or the means to obtain further evidence to support the Title VII Complaint filed by Newsome. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: It was obvious to Newsome that the United States Department of Labor was CONSPIRING with others to cover-up RACIAL INUSTICES, DISCRIMINATORY/PREJUDICIAL practices, TITLE VII VIOLATIONS, FLSA violations, OSHA violations, etc. that were timely, properly and adequately reported by Newsome.

f) MM&S realizing Newsome's ability to get ADMISSION from its witnesses to support the RACIAL DISCRIMINATION as well as HOSTILE work environment – in efforts of doing DAMAGE CONTROL – moved shortly thereafter to CLOSE DOWN their Jackson, Mississippi Office. An office which was JUST RENOVATED and OPENED; however, ABRUPTLY closing. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome having advised L.F. Sams (Partner/Shareholder) – person who came down to the Jackson, Mississippi Office to personally TERMINATE Newsome's employment – of her intent to bring legal action. See EXHIBIT "26" – December 4, 2004, Letter to L.F. Sams – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

g) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That Judge Bobby DeLaughter, judge assigned matter when Newsome appealed denial of Unemployment Benefits, was INDICTED on or about July 30, 2009, for federal crime(s). See EXHIBIT "13" – Indictment and News Articles – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

h) In the Mississippi matter the Magistrate Judge/Judge attempted to aid MM&S in trying to get Newsome to pay bond in SLA matter in which, as a matter of law, she was not required to pay. Furthermore, said demand coming at the THREE-YEAR statute of limitation for Newsome to bring legal action against MMS; however, Newsome's claims will arise under Mississippi's "CATCH-ALL" statute which has a SIX-YEAR period for a litigant to bring action. Judge demanding said Bond clearly having a Conflict of Interest and entered his RECUSAL ORDER. Therefore, as a matter of law, any ruling by him is NULL/VOID.

22) PAGE KRUGER & HOLLAND (JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI) – WHITE EMPLOYER: Newsome was assigned to this employer through an employment agency. Pleased with Newsome's work, she was able to obtain permanent employment. It was during this employment that:

a) Newsome encountered problems (i.e. racially motivated) with Landlord/Representatives of Spring Lake Apartments. Spring Lake Apartments' owner (Dial Equities, Inc.) is an insured of LIBERTY MUTUAL.

b) Landlord/Representative(s) of Spring Lake Apartment subjected Newsome to violations under the Fair Housing Act, Constitution, Civil Rights Act as well as other statutes/laws governing said matters.

c) Newsome was subjected to similar crimes as that in which O. J. Simpson was INDICTED on:

- Conspiracy to Commit a Crime
- Conspiracy to Commit Kidnapping
- Conspiracy to Commit Robbery
- First Degree Kidnapping With Use Of A Deadly Weapon
- Assault With a Deadly Weapon
- Coercion With Use Of A Deadly Weapon

See EXHIBIT "14" – O.J. Simpson Criminal Complaint – attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

On or about June 26, 2006, Newsome filed a timely Criminal Complaint with the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"). A document which will be submitted with Newsome's EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari if it becomes necessary to file said action with the United States Supreme Court. The Criminal Complaint filed with the FBI resulted out of the: i) Conspiracy leveled against Newsome by Liberty Mutual, its insured (Dial Equities – owner of Spring Lake Apartments), its counsel and other; ii) Unlawful/Illegal seizure of Newsome's Apartment; iii) Kidnapping of Newsome; iv) Theft of Newsome's property; v) Burglary of Newsome's Apartment; vi) Breaking and Entering of Newsome's Apartment; vii) First Degree Kidnapping with use of a deadly weapon; vii) Assault with a deadly weapon, etc. – i.e. other crimes known and/or should be known to the FBI.

d) As in the Omar Thornton matter, Newsome had retained evidence by tape recording incident. However, in efforts of COVERING-UP and concealing his criminal activities, the Constable (Jon Lewis) involved with and the carrying out of KIDNAPPING as well as other crimes against Newsome removed the tape recorder from her person. Rather than turn recorder/microcassette recorder and tape in at the Detention Center, Constable Lewis compromised the case and STOLE and TAMPERED with said microcassette recorder and tape because he knew and/or should have known that it had INCRIMINATING evidence recording the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome as well as NOTIFICATION by Newsome to Constable Lewis and others (i.e. CONSPIRATORS) that they were engaging in unlawful/illegal actions. Newsome having telephoned attorney (Raymond Fraser) at PKH to advise him as to what was going on. Fraser very surprised in that he knew that Newsome was involved in legal action and had filed the required pleadings to PRECLUDE/PREVENT the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her.

It will be interesting to see whether the evidence alleged to have been stored on Omar Thornton's (the Connecticut Shooter in the above Article and attached documents at EXHIBIT "1") phone ever see the light of day or whether (if such evidence exist) evidence is destroyed. While Newsome demanded that Constable Lewis return her microcassette recorder/tape on or about March 17, 2006, via facsimile, said demand was ignored. SEE EXHIBIT "15" – "Request for Arrest Report & Return of Personal Property Retrieved by Constable Jon C. Lewis – Arrest of Vogel Newsome by Constable Jon C. Lewis on February 14, 2006" - attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This information is PERTINENT/RELEVANT in that it goes to support the Affidavit of Disqualification that has been filed in this instant action; establishment of the PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Newsome; and the role Judge John Andrew West is playing in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome – i.e in the fulfilling and completion in the carrying out of his part in the COVER-UP of crimes/civil wrongs reported.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: In that there appears to be sufficient evidence that law enforcement and/or the proper government agencies knew and/or should have known of the PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL behavior of Constable Lewis and others; however, clearly ignored. Newsome finding during her research a blog posted by another victim (Frank Baltimore) of Constable Lewis which states in part:

> I know Jon Lewis has been taking money his whole term in office because his stolen money and property from me. I feel he should have criminal charges filed against him for his criminal behavior. No one wants to help me and every Law enforcement agency and official have not done their jobs.
>
> My name is Frank D. Baltimore Sr., Sr., I am an African American citizen who resided in Jackson Mississippi and was run out by threats made and Constitutional rights violations performed by Constable Jon Lewis against me. I currently reside in Los Angeles, CA…. I contacted the board of supervisors and the board's attorney back in 2004, 2005, and 2006. I have asked you to help me on numerous occasions to no avail from any board member…. I am asking that you call for and add my complaint to our already internal investigation presently going on against Jon Lewis. He took my badges, stun gun, diamond earring, and $100 dollars in cash from me, and never returned them to me to his present date….
>

Baltimore, Sr., Damon Baltimore, and Baltimore Enterprises,* who had and has a legal right to the said property illegally seized.
> This letter is a demand for you to return all said property seized by you on October 30, 2003, November 1, 2003, and November 2, 2003 dates. Please be advised that if the said property is not returned within 5 days, a civil lawsuit is prepared and will be filed against you in your official and > individual capacities, the County of Hinds, and the County of Hinds Board of Supervisors for constitutional and civil rights violations of my 1st, 4th, 5th, and 14th amendments, discrimination, and other Federal and State amendments not mentioned herein.

Furthermore, criminal charges will also be filed against you...

See EXHIBIT "27" – Frank Baltimore Blog – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Information/Evidence PERTINENT/RELEVANT in that it goes to support the LONGSTANDING Racial Injustices against African-Americans in which the evidence supports Newsome has been REPEATEDLY subjected to; Connecticut Shooter (Omar Thornton) complained of to no avail so he took the laws into his own hands and rendered SPEEDY justice; and Port Gibson Shooter (Carl Brandon) complained of to no avail so he took the laws into his own hand and rendered his own justice in that he found that following the legal recourses available to him proved to be FRUITLESS because those who engaged in the CONSPIRACY to destroy his life would not stop and apparently were UNRELENTING in their CRIMINAL/CIVIL violations leveled against him and to destroying his life.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION to support the EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari with the United States Supreme Court should Newsome be required to file due to the FAILURE of the Ohio Supreme Court's to uphold the laws and grant the relief sought through her Affidavit of Disqualification.

e) As in the Cambridge Police Department and Louis Gates (African-American male) matter that occurred last year:

http://www.boston.com/news/local/breaking_news/2009/07/harvard.html

it appears in efforts to cover-up criminal/civil violations committed against Louis Gates, the Police Officer (Crowley) may have filed a FALSE police report. See EXHIBIT "16" – "Cambridge Police Department Incident Report" - attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

As in the Spring Lake Apartments matter with Newsome, in efforts to provide himself with a DEFENSE to Newsome's CIVIL lawsuit filed, Constable Lewis went and filed "MALICIOUS" criminal charges against Newsome. Resulting in Newsome having to retain a criminal lawyer (i.e. white attorney – Richard Rehfeldt). Criminal lawyer who attempted to sell Newsome out; however, to his disappointment, he was unaware that Newsome had moved to expose the CRIMINAL actions/practices leveled against her commonly used against African-Americans. Rehfeldt KNOWINGLY and DELIBERATELY failed to advise Newsome of the Court date for the charges brought against her. To Rehfeldt's disappointment the charges brought by Constable Lewis against Newsome were dismissed.

Newsome believes that Rehfeldt may have conspired with others (i.e. Liberty Mutual's counsel, PKH and others – ALL white) to throw her case so that the Judge would find her "guilty" and provide Constable Lewis and Judge William Skinner (judge involved in the carrying out of crimes leveled against Newsome in the Spring Lake matter) with a legal defense to Newsome's CIVIL lawsuit filed in the United States Southern District of Court of Mississippi (Jackson, Mississippi) – Civil Action No. 3:07-cv-00099-TSL-LRA. Again, having no knowledge that Newsome had began to go public and reporting their intentions to set her up and send her to PRISON/JAIL. However, REHFELDT, Liberty Mutual, its attorneys, PKH and others involved in efforts of THROWING the case were disappointed when the Judge dismissed the charges against Newsome. CONSPIRING to withhold the Court date from Newsome because Rehfeldt and CO-CONSPIRATORS were seeking to get an AUTOMATIC conviction for Newsome's failure to appear due to his NEGLIGENCE has her attorney to keep her informed and notify her what date was set for criminal charges filed against her. See EXHIBIT "17" – Criminal Charges filed by Constable Lewis against Newsome alleging:

- Resisting Arrest; and
- Disorderly Conduct – Failure to Comply With Law Enforcement

attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. See EXHIBIT "18" – DISMISSAL of Criminal Charges against Newsome – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

f) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Rather than file a timely Answer to the Civil lawsuit filed by Newsome in the United States Southern District Court of Mississippi (Jackson), Constable Lewis elected instead to file the MALICIOUS criminal charges (which were filed WELL over a year) against Newsome which were DISMISSED and resulted in the UNTIMELY filing of his and Judge Skinner's Answer to Civil Lawsuit filed. Nevertheless, Constable Lewis' and Judge Skinner's attorney (Clifford McDaniel - of PKH) attempted to abuse the Court's Electronic Filing System and file an UNTIMELY Answer on behalf of Constable Lewis and Judge Skinner which was TIMELY met by Newsome's MOTION TO STRIKE. A reasonable mind may conclude that clearly, it was more important to Constable Lewis' and Judge Skinner's counsel that the MALICIOUS criminal charges be filed to provide them with a defense to Newsome's lawsuit rather than file a timely Answer to Newsome's Civil Lawsuit. Criminal charges which were DISMISSED and the GAMBLE taken by McDaniel proved to be FATAL/DETRIMENTAL to PKH's clients (Constable Lewis and Judge Skinner).

g) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That while PKH had a Partner/Shareholder (J. Lawson Hester) who is counsel for Hinds

County/Sheriff of Hinds County, Hester apparently DID NOT want to represent Hinds County Constable Jon Lewis or then Hinds County Justice Court Judge William Skinner. Instead, Hester left Constable Lewis and Judge Skinner to a NOVICE – attorney/Associate (Clifford McDaniel) that had not been practicing the law long. Newsome believes a reasonable mind may also conclude that Hester knew and/or should have known of the CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs of Constable Lewis and Judge Skinner and was not willing to sacrifice his legal career in defending them – i.e. especially after FAILING to file a timely Answer to Newsome's Civil Lawsuit.

h) Spring Lake Apartment's owner (Dial Equities) appears to be an insured by LIBERTY MUTUAL and in the Mississippi matter is represented by DunbarMonroe. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: In that Baker Donelson has a Jackson, Mississippi Office, Newsome believes that Baker Donelson's failure to represent Spring Lake Apartments/Dial Equities may be due to the fact that Newsome would have READILY made the connection and established the CULPRITS in the CRIMINAL STALKING and other crimes leveled against her. See EXHIBIT "19" – DunbarMonroe Information revealing Liberty Mutual as client – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

i) Based on the information provided Newsome at the time of her termination of employment with PKH, PKH advised Newsome that it had been contacted and notified of her participation in lawsuit – thus resulting in the termination of Newsome's employment. While Newsome requested that PKH provide her with information as to who contacted it and advised of such, PKH refused to reveal this information. Nevertheless, believes a reasonable mind may conclude that it was LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or its counsel having done so. See EXHIBIT "20" – May 16, 2006, PKH Termination of Employment - attached hereto memorializing reasons provided for Newsome's termination of employment. Newsome recalls that a "PRINTOUT LIST" was given to Newsome's attorney, Brandon Dorsey (African-American male), by Liberty Mutual's counsel during a hearing before the judge. Should EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari become necessary to file, Newsome will produce said documentation as an Appendix/Exhibit. A hearing that was held in the Chamber of the Judge to which Newsome was not privy. Liberty Mutual's counsel provided Dorsey with said list for purposes of CRIMINAL/MALICIOUS intent (i.e. bribery/blackmail, etc.) - to get Dorsey to abandon his representation of Newsome. Clearly, based upon such list, it was apparent that Liberty Mutual's/Liberty Mutual's counsel preyed on the IGNORANCE of Newsome's attorneys and others INABILITY to see that is List is merely A DUPLICATE of same cases and produced to make it appear that Newsome was involved in 100'S of lawsuits – when she WAS NOT!! A document used by Liberty Mutual's counsel to THROW Newsome's lawsuit and for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage. A document used by Liberty Mutual's counsel to bribe, blackmail, etc. Newsome's attorney (Brandon Dorsey) to get him to withdraw his legal representation of her. Thus, Newsome believes that based upon Dorsey's comment to her that he "need to live in Mississippi and feed his family," a reasonable mind may conclude that threats may have been made against him if he did not withdraw in legal representation of Newsome. Therefore, he ABRUPTLY withdrew from representing Newsome over Newsome's objections. Furthermore, by so doing, fulfilled his role in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome. Criminal/Civil wrongs which Newsome reported through the applicable filing of Complaint.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome was later able to obtain information to support that it appears Brandon Dorsey apparently abandoned her to go over to the DARK SIDE and represent Judge William Skinner. In fact, from information, is representing Judge Skinner in what appears to be matters that may involve CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs in the running of the Henley Young Juvenile Detention Center (a/k/a Hinds County Youth Detention Center). Detention Center which Newsome believes the majority of the detainees are African-Americans and/or people of color. Concerning Newsome because Newsome experiencing FIRST HAND the racial bias/prejudices of Judge Skinner as well as was able to obtain information from research that revealed that Judge Skinner's father (Lt. William Louis Skinner of the Jackson Police Department) was killed during an FBI raid on an activist group (New Republic of Africa). Concerning Newsome because she believes the FBI may have shot and killed Officer Skinner; however, FRAMED New Republic of Africa members because it had for some time, sought ways to bring an end to this African-American group that had organized and sought to improve the living conditions in the African-American communities, etc. Newsome filing a Complaint on or about June 24, 2009, with United States President Barack Obama and United States Attorney General Eric Holder.

From information Newsome was able to obtain from the Internet, the United States Department of Justice appears to have prosecuted others for similar crimes as that taking place at the Henley Young Juvenile Detention Center. See information at the United States Department of Justice's website entitled: DOJ Press Release: Justice Department Files Lawsuit Challenging Conditions at Two Erie County, New York, Correctional Facilities. See EXHIBIT "28" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full hrein. This information may also be found at the following link if it has not been scrubbed.

http://www.justice.gov/opa/pr/2009/September/09-crt-1053.html

However, in light of the recent shooting in Connecticut, those in Port Gibson matter, Virginia Tech matter, as well as, the Jena Six incident, it is OBVIOUS that the Department of Justice/FBI is KNOWINGLY, WILLINGLY and DELIBERATELY covering up the criminal actions of Judge William Skinner. Newsome believes it may be due to the fact that Judge Skinner has knowledge the that FBI may have FRAMED New Republic of Africa members for his father's death (i.e. in the 1972 FBI shoot out with this group) for purposes of destroying this group.

j) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: While Newsome was able to retain legal representation from another attorney (Wanda Abioto – African American female), this did NOT stop Liberty Mutual's counsel from coming after Abioto and subjecting her to THREATS, HARASSMENT, etc. if she did not withdraw lawsuit filed on Newsome's behalf. See EXHIBIT "22" – February 2008 Letters to Abioto from Liberty Mutual's counsel (Clark Monroe) – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Such attacks on Newsome's attorney(s) by Liberty Mutual's counsel/attorney(s) clearly is violation of federal statutes/laws governing said matters:

> This statute makes it unlawful for any individual(s), by the use of force or threatened use of force, to injure, intimidate, or interfere with (or attempt to injure, intimidate, or interfere with), any person's housing rights because of that person's race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin. Among those housing rights enumerated in the statute are:
>
> - The sale, purchase, or renting of a dwelling;
> - the occupation of a dwelling;
> - the financing of a dwelling;
> - contracting or negotiating for any of the rights enumerated above.
> - applying for or participating in any service, organization, or facility relating to the sale or rental of dwellings.

Succumbing to the THREATS, HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION, etc. from Liberty Mutual's counsel and/or opposing counsel, Abioto ABRUPTLY moved to withdraw as Newsome's counsel without client's permission. Said move to withdraw clearly is in violation of the statutes/laws governing said matters. Criminal/Civil wrongs which Newsome has reported through the applicable filing of Complaint.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That while Liberty Mutual's attorney (Clark Monroe) subjected Newsome's counsel to such BRUTAL/HOSTILE and MALICIOUS attacks and accused Newsome of attacking judges, he failed to reveal to Newsome and her attorney Liberty Mutual's and/or its attorneys' SPECIAL TIES/RELATIONSHIPS to Judges. Moreover, the special TIES/RELATIONSHIP to Judge Tom S. Lee who was presently presiding over case. Newsome having to find out from information posted on the Internet. See EXHIBIT "23" – Baker Donelson Ties/Relationships to Judges/Justices - attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Information previously stored at the following website location:

http://www.bakerdonelson.com/appellate-practice-sub-practice-areas/

however, only AFTER Newsome went PUBLIC in revealing and releasing this information did Baker Donelson seek to move information thinking Newsome may not think to look elsewhere for it. However, she did and was able to find information moved to the following location:

http://www.bakerdonelson.com/courtclerks.htm

III. KENTUCKY MATTER – WHITE LANDLORDS:

23) To support the EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari Newsome will file, if required to do so, it is necessary to establish the PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Newsome in the Kentucky matter that she believes is a part of an ONGOING CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome. In further supports, Newsome states the following:

a) One of attorneys (James) representing GMM Properties – Landlords-in lawsuit did NOT make it known that he and Judge assigned in Circuit Court matter were employed and worked at the by the same law firm prior to Judge Gregory M. Bartlett taking the bench. Although required by law to reveal such information, both James West and Judge Bartlett failed to advise Newsome of such. It was only because one of the attorneys at the law firm (Wood & Lamping)

Newsome was employed at advised her of such CRUCIAL/PERTINENT information that she found out. Newsome moved to file the required pleading to clarify and verify this information; however, Judge Bartlett REFUSED to reveal and/or provide Newsome with information to which she was entitled.

b) GMM Properties and its attorneys were subjecting Newsome to unlawful/illegal practices for purposes of FORCING her to give up her apartment and for purposes of depriving her rights secured under the Constitution, Fair Housing Act, Civil Rights Act and other governing statutes/laws.

c) On October 9, 2008, GMM's counsel (Gailen Bridges) contacted Newsome at her place of employment to advise that her property had been set out on the street. Newsome leaving work returned home to see that she had been burglarized and THREATENED not to enter the building. Newsome seeing where criminals had fenced/left property that they could not get away with on the street for others to steal and/or help themselves to.

d) Newsome called the Covington Police Department to report the crimes committed against her. A white police officer was sent out however, refused to take Newsome's criminal complaint. Covington Police Department having been contacted apparently by GMM's legal counsel and advised not to take Newsome's criminal complaint.

e) On or about October 13, 2008, Newsome filed a Criminal Complaint entitled, "Complaint and Request for Investigation Filed by Denise Newsome with the Federal Bureau of Investigation – Louisville, Kentucky." Should it be necessary for Newsome to file an EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari, she will submit a copy of said Criminal Complaint to the United States Supreme Court. Said criminal complaint alleging the following Counts/Charges:

i. Conspiracy;
ii. Burglary;
iii. Theft;
iv. Larceny
v. Invasion;
vi. Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action;
vii. Obstruction of Justice/Process;
viii. Color of Law;
ix. Conspiracy Against Rights;
x. Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights;
xi. Power/Failure to Prevent recalling that O.J. Simpson was INDICTED for the following crimes:

- Conspiracy to Commit a Crime

- Conspiracy to Commit Kidnapping
- Conspiracy to Commit Robbery
- First Degree Kidnapping With Use Of A Deadly Weapon
- Assault With a Deadly Weapon
- Coercion With Use Of A Deadly Weapon

See EXHIBIT "14" – O.J. Simpson Criminal Complaint.

Clearly criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome are racially motivated and carried out by white landlords and their white attorneys who feel that they are above the laws and that the laws do not apply to them. To date, Newsome has not aware of the status of the October 13, 2008 FBI Criminal Complaint.

f) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: At the time of the October 9, 2008, criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome, she had a LEGAL/BINDING Injunction and Restraining Order in place which PROHIBITED and/or PRECLUDED the actions taken against Newsome by GMM, its counsel and others. See EXHIBIT "24" – Injunction and Restraining Order – attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Newsome was ordered by the Kenton County Circuit Court to pay rent into escrow and *was NOT delinquent at the time the October 9, 2008, criminal/civil wrongs were rendered her. See EXHIBIT "25" – October 6, 2008 Facsimile supporting "PROOF OF PAYMENT" - attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That the "Warrant of Possession" relied upon to carry out the criminal/civil violations on October 9, 2008, was executed by Judge Ann Ruttle of the Kenton County DISTRICT Court who clearly LACKED jurisdiction and GMM and its counsel were aware that Judge Ruttle could not execute Warrant of Possession. In fact, the Deputy/Officer that engaged in the criminal acts wrote the contents on the "NOTICE" on backside of Warrant of Possession that Newsome had posted on the Front and Back doors of apartment:

> IMPORTANT NOTICE: The Circuit Court has ORDERED Injunction and Restraining Order against owners, GMM Properties from taking any type of eviction (Removal or Obtaining Premises) action against this tenant

Furthermore, in efforts of COVER-UP the criminal acts of GMM, the Officer falsified "EXECUTION" information on Warrant of Possession. Furthermore, the Kenton County Sheriff's Department failed to serve Newsome with Warrant of Possession PRIOR to entry and WITHOUT warning because he and GMM owners, its lawyers and others in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome knew and/or should have known they were acting in violation of the statutes/laws governing said matters.

g) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The other TARGET (i.e. besides the unlawful/illegal removal of Newsome from her residence) was the money Newsome had entrusted to the Kenton County Circuit Court in an ESCROW account with monies totaling approximately $16,250.00. GMM Properties and its attorneys CONSPIRED with Court officials to EMBEZZLE and unlawfully/illegally take monies out of Newsome's Escrow Account set up with the Kenton County Circuit Court.

24) Newsome believes that the Kentucky matter is PERTINENT/RELEVANT to this instant action and the Affidavit of Disqualification in that it will sustain and shed additional light on the PATTERN-OF-RACIAL INJUSTICES, JUDICIAL INJUSTICES, harassment, threats, intimidation, and criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome and an investigation into said matter may yield the role that LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or its attorneys had in said crimes. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That Newsome believes that this information is PERTINENT/RELEVANT to support the EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari to be filed should it become necessary to proceed to the United States Supreme Court regarding Affidavit of Disqualification. Thus, said information is being timely, properly and adequately raised so that it may be addressed on appeal to the United States Supreme Court if necessary.

25) In light of the recent Connecticut Shootings by Omar Thornton, as well as other shootings (i.e. Port Gibson, Mississippi, Virginia Tech, etc.) in support of EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari, Newsome believes that this issues as well as other mentioned herein (and in the record of the courts) need to be preserved in that it sustains/substantiates the PATTERN-OF-ABUSE of criminal/civil violations leveled against Newsome as well as the CRIMINAL STALKING of Newsome by white employers, white insurance carrier, white attorneys, - i.e. opposing parties – that have engaged in CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome to destroy her life as well as deprive her rights secured under the Constitution and other governing statutes/laws which are motivated by RACIAL/DISCRIMINATORY/PREJUDICAL biases.

IV. WOOD & LAMPING (CINCINNATI, OHIO) – WHITE EMPLOYER: Newsome was assigned to this employer through an employment agency. Pleased with Newsome's work, she was able to obtain permanent employment. It was during this employment that:

26) Newsome was subjected to Racial Discrimination, Family and Medical Leave Act violations as well as other criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her because Wood & Lamping ("W&L") found out about Newsome's engagement in protected activities.

27) On or about July 14, 2008, Newsome filed a document entitled, "Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Findings." In follow-up to this Complaint, Newsome flew to Washington, D.C. in December 2008 to check on the status of said filing. While Newsome submitted the Original and four copies it appears that the United States Legislature/Congress may have engaged in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs to cover-up the criminal/civil wrongs reported by Newsome. Newsome memorialized the conduct and behavior of Senator Leahy's Staff as well as Congressman John Conyer's Staff's handling of this matter –i.e. UNPROFESSIONALISM and run around Newsome was subjected to. Information that Newsome intends to provided with Certiorari action should it become necessary to file so the United States Supreme Court will understand the CONSPIRACY as well as the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome addresses said issue for purposes of PRESERVING for appeal should the filing of EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari become necessary to file in regards to the Affidavit of Disqualification with the United States Supreme Court because based on information Newsome was able to retain from the Internet regarding Liberty Mutual's Law Firm (Baker Donelson) – said firm makes known attorneys employed by it and/or having been employed by it holding TOP/KEY positions such as:

- United States Senate Majority Leader
- Members of the United States Senate
- Members of the United States House of Representatives
- Majority and Minority Staff Director of the Senate Committee on Appropriations

See EXHIBIT "3" – Baker Donelson Information attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

28) Record evidence will support the role Plaintiff Stor-All, its counsel and Liberty Mutual played in the termination of Newsome's employment. Moreover, the unlawful/illegal actions taken to eliminate the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that arose because of Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamp and providing Legal Assistance to Thomas Breed – an attorney who prior to working at W&L was employed by the law firm now known as Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin (SMR&S). SMR&L being the law firm Plaintiff Stor-All retained to file the lawsuit in this action. SMR&S being a white employer.

29) In the W&L matter, Newsome's employment was terminated the NEXT day after attorneys approved her to begin the medical procedure she advised doctors recommended. Said termination clearly in violation of the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA").

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Newsome filed the required FMLA Complaint with the United States Department of Labor. Realizing that it had committed criminal/civil wrongs, W&L DELIBERATELY and KNOWINGLY provided false and misleading information to the Wage and Hour Division for purposes of obstructing a federal investigation and depriving Newsome rights secured under the FMLA, Civil Rights Act, Constitution and other statutes/laws governing said matters. PRIOR to terminating Newsome's employment and in efforts of DESTROYING documentation that W&L knew would be incriminating should legal action be brought, it BROKE into Newsome's desk (which she kept locked) and removed Employee Handbook/Manual and/or information secured by Newsome. However, to its disappointment, Newsome had retained copies of Employee Handbook/Manual and/or information W&L had broke into her desk and stolen. Clearly these are ACTS of PREMEDITATION and PRETEXT to support efforts taken by W&L to cover-up/shield employment violations.

> EEOC Decision No. 70-925, Case No. YME9-141 (¶ 6158) Discharge for Civil Rights Activities Indicates Racial Discrimination: Racial Discrimination-Discharge-Participation in Civil Rights Activities – There was reasonable basis for a belief that joint employers of a Negro airline ticket agent engaged in unlawful employment practices by causing him to be removed from his regular employment and subsequently discharging him because of his race and for absenting himself to participate in various civil rights activities. Evidence indicated that the charging party's attendance record compared favorably with those of other ticket agents and that he was never officially reprimanded or warned against further absences or against engaging in civil rights activities prior to his termination. . . . . It is now well settled that, where an employer has mixed motives for discharging an employee, and any one of those reasons is unlawful, the non-discriminatory nature of other motives does not preclude a finding of reasonable cause to believe that the employer (or, in this case, employers) has engaged in an unlawful employment practice within the meaning of Title VII of the Act. [NLRB v. Murray Ohio Manufacturing Company, (48 LC ¶ 18,691) 326 F.2d 509, 517 (6th Cir. 1964); Wonder State Manufacturing Company v. NLRB (49 LC ¶ 18,870) 331 F.2d 737, 738 (6th Cir. 1964)].

30) Newsome further believes that EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari will issue not only because it is of NATIONAL/WORLDWIDE importance but will EXPOSE the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome and the CRIMINAL

STALKING and other crimes/civil wrongs Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance carrier and lawyers have engaged in for purposes of seeing that Newsome's life is ruined and in RETALIATION of Newsome having engaged in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES which involve insureds of Liberty Mutual. Furthermore, the record evidence will support that while Newsome has attempted to move on with her life that Liberty Mutual relied upon information obtained from THIRD-PARTIES and/or its clients to track her and contact Newsome's employer(s) for purposes of getting her terminated. The record evidence as well as that to be presented on appeal to support EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari will sustain that the CRIMINAL STALKING that Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance carrier, its attorneys and others subject Newsome to is clearly PROHIBITED BY LAW:

> Barela v. United Nuclear Corp., 317 F.Supp. 1217 (1970) - (n. 1)Refusal to process plaintiff's application for employment simply because he had filed with Equal Employment Opportunity Commission a charge against another employer violated Civil Rights Act. (n.2) Filing of charge against employer with Equal Employment Opportunity Commission is protected right under Civil Rights Act and conduct infringing upon that right cannot be permitted. Civil Rights Act of 1964, § 704(a), 42 U.S.C.A. § 2000e-3(a).
> . . .(N.2) - The evidence will support no other inference than that United . . . did not want the plaintiff only because of the charge against Kerr. . . The filing of such a charge is a protected right under the Civil Rights Act, and conduct infringing upon that right cannot be permitted. See Pettway v. American Cast Iron Pipe Co., 411 F.2d 998 (5th Cir. 1969): Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. United Ass'n. of Journeymen and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipefitting Indus. of the United States and Canada, Local Union No. 189, 311 F.Supp. 464 (S.D.Ohio, 1970).
>
> (n.3) Plaintiff was entitled to injunction restraining defendant from refusing to process his application for employment simply because he had a complaint pending before Equal Employment Opportunity Commission against another employer. Civil Rights Act of 1964, § 704(a), 42 U.S.C.A. § 2000e-3(a).
>
> Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. United Ass'n of Journeymen, 311 F.Supp. 464 (D.C.Ohio 1970) - (n.2) By utilizing statutorily established machinery of the equal employment opportunity commission an employee is exercising a protected right and federal court cannot permit conduct which would tend to infringe on that right to be practiced with impunity. Civil Rights Act of 1964, § 704(a), 42 U.S.C.A. § 2000e-3(a).
> Christopher v. Stouder Memorial Hosp., 936 F.2d 870 (C.A.6.Ohio, 1991) - Fact that Congress used words "any individual" in provision making it unlawful employment > practice to refuse to hire or discriminate against person, while it used term "employees or applicants for employment" in retaliation provision of Title VII, did not limit class of persons entitled to sue for retaliation; rather, Congress intended to prohibit discrimination on basis of race or sex and to prohibit discrimination against person who engages in protected activity under Title VII. Civil Rights Act of 1964, §§ 703, 704, as amended, 42 U.S.C.A. §§ 2000e-2, 2000e-3.

31) Newsome believes that EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari will issue because the record evidence will support the role Plaintiff Stor-All, its insurance carrier, its attorneys played in the termination of Newsome's employment and how they REPEATEDLY rely upon such criminal acts for purposes of FINANCIALLY devastating Newsome and hinder her from defending against lawsuits filed against her and/or by her.

32) Newsome believes that EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari will issue because the February 6, 2009, ADMISSION by Plaintiff Stor-All's counsel (David Meranus) will not only support the CRIMINAL STALKING of Newsome, but his advising Newsome of his knowledge of her participation in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES was presented for purposes of BRIBERY, BLACKMAIL, EXTORTION, etc. in efforts to get Newsome to withdraw Counterclaim. FAILING to REALIZE it was he who filed the lawsuit on behalf of his client (Stor-All). Said ADMISSION further sustains the UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL practices used by Liberty Mutual, its insureds, its attorneys and others in making KNOWN their knowledge of Newsome's engagement in PROTECTED ACTIVITIES. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that a NEXUS can be established between: a) the issuance of Plaintiff Stor-All's January 9, 2009 document served upon Newsome and her termination on January 9, 2009; b) the filing of Plaintiff's Stor-All's Forcible Entry and Detainer Action on January 20, 2009, when it was already in possession of Newsome's storage unit without legal authority – i.e. Court Order; and c) the setting of Hearing on February 6, 2009, in that they had no clue that it would be met with Newsome's Counterclaim and the role they played in the termination of her employment being EXPOSED:

33) Newsome believes that EMERGENCY Writ of Certiorari will issue because the Justices of the United States Supreme Court will see to deny Newsome of said relief will only allow Liberty Mutual, its insureds, its attorneys and others to CONTINUE in the criminal stalking of Newsome and will not cease except it intervenes. Such criminal/civil violations which clearly affect the PUBLIC/CITIZENS at large and are methods RELIGIOUSLY used by white employers for purposes of keeping African-Americans and/or people of color oppressed and in bondage. The record evidence will support Newsome's GOOD-FAITH efforts to move on with her life; however, Liberty Mutual, its lawyers, its insureds and others REFUSE to allow Newsome to do so and are determined to destroy her life and deprive her life, liberties and the pursuit of happiness. Rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution, Civil Rights Act and other governing statutes/laws.

Elements of Damages – In General: All employment-related losses for salaried and hourly wage employees are recoverable in a wrongful discharge suit, regardless of whether the action sounds in contract or tort. Thus, the employee may recover back pay, bonuses, and commissions that would have been earned but for the dismissal. The employee's recovery may include damages for loss of fringe benefits. . . The employee is also entitled to recover the cost of securing other employment, and this cost may include moving expenses. The amount of the award for back pay and loss of fringe benefits during the employee's period of unemployment may be offset by the amount of unemployment insurance, if any, received by the employee during that time.. . the employee has NO duty to seek inferior employment, and the burden of proof of the employee's failure to mitigate damages is on the employer. Moreover, it has been held that the employer may be estopped from raising the issue of the employee's duty to mitigate damages IF the employee's dismissal was maliciously motivated.. . . Damages for consequential losses and emotional distress generally are not allowed in a wrongful discharge case if the cause of action sounds entirely in contract. Where the action sounds in tort alone, or in both contract and tort, such compensatory damages are allowed. . . Plaintiff testified that as a result of the firing he suffered emotional distress by way of humiliation and lost confidence and trust. . . The court held that this evidence supported an award of compensatory damages.. . . Punitive damages are recoverable in an action for bad faith wrongful discharge if the defendant's conduct is sufficiently culpable.. . . The amount of punitive damages or exemplary damages to be awarded is a matter for the discretion of the jury; it depends on the circumstances of the particular case. Punitive damages must bear a reasonable relationship to the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff, though there is no fixed ratio by which punitive and actual damages are properly proportioned. An appellate court generally will not substitute its judgment for that of the trier of fact as to the amount of punitive damages to be awarded. . . . Plaintiff experienced substantial difficulty finding subsequent employment, and she ultimately had to leave the state. She had lived and worked in a small community where a dismissal for poor work performance would necessarily have an adverse consequence on her reputation and ability to earn a livelihood. One of the charges against her had been fabricated and her personnel file had been altered to support the allegation. An award of punitive damages against her former > employer was affirmed on the basis of this evidence. . . .Plaintiff had a . . . faithful performance until she was fired by a vindictive supervisor . . .At the trial of Plaintiff's wrongful discharge case, expert witnesses testified that the employer had violated its own personnel practices and policies in thirteen separate instances; and the employer's evidence at trial was often inconsistent and even contradictory as to whether plaintiff was fired . . . as a part of a reduction-in-force program. In addition, the president of the company for which she had worked had revealed a calloused attitude toward. . . plaintiff in particular. . . An award of exemplary damages against the plaintiff's former employer was affirmed on appeal. [FN 89] Flanigan v. Prudential Federal Sav. & Loan Asso. (1986), 720 P2d 257. . . 105 CCH LC ¶ 55614 (verdict for $95,000 economic damages, $100,000 compensatory damages for mental distress, and $1,300,000 punitive damages). See also Cancellier v. Federated Dept. Stores (1982) 672 F.2d 1312. . . 48 Am. Jur. Proof of Facts 2d 235-240.

Newsome reiterating the story of Carl Brandon referenced above in the Claiborne County/Port Gibson Shootings because a reasonable mind may conclude that this is where Liberty Mutual is attempting to take Newsome; however, she "JUST AIN'T BITING." Further supporting the role of Liberty Mutual, is insured (i.e. Stor-All), its attorneys actual involvement in CRIMINAL WRONGDOING with intent to drive their VICTIMS TO COMMIT HIDEOUS CRIMES, etc.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Newsome prays that through this instant "NOTIFICATION OF INTENT TO FILE EMERGENCY WRIT OF CERTIORARI WITH THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT; MOTION TO STAY PROCEEDINGS – REQUEST FOR ENTRY OF FINAL JUDGMENT/ISSUANCE OF MANDATE AS WELL AS STAY OF PROCEEDINGS SHOULD COURT INSIST ON ALLOWING AUGUST 2, 2010 JUDGMENT ENTRY TO STAND", that the Ohio Supreme Court has a DUTY and OBLIGATION to report the criminal actions of that provided in Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification as well as her Motion for Reconsideration in this instant action. Furthermore, that this Court has a DUTY and OBLIGATION based upon the PATTERN-OF-ABUSE, INTEGRITY of this Court as well as the appearance of IMPROPRIETY to exercise its discretion and VACATE the August 2, 2010 "Judgment Entry of Defendant's 7/27/10 Motion for Consideration" and do the right thing and UPHOLD JUSTICE and the EQUAL PROTECTION OF THE LAWS in that it is clear that said ruling is BIAS/PREJUDICIAL and to allow it to stand would cause Newsome irreparable injury/harm; moreover is of PUBLIC interest for the wellbeing of many that such

CRIMINAL STALKING and PATTERN-OF-CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR of by Judge John Andrew West, opposing counsel and others who have targeted Newsome to subject her to criminal/civil wrongs be stopped as a matter of law.

Newsome further prays that if this Court insist on allowing its August 2, 2010 "Judgment Entry of Defendant's 7/27/10 Motion for Consideration" to stand, that it issue the applicable Order STAYING these proceedings while Newsome appeals to the United States Supreme Court on this issues raised herein as well as those in her Affidavit of Disqualification and Motion of Reconsideration.

Respectfully submitted this 11th day of August, 2010.

SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

DENISE V. NEWSOME PLAINTIFF vs. HAMILTON COUNTY MUNICIPAL COURT and Hon. JOHN ANDREW WEST Judge, Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas DEFENDANTS/RESPONDENTS	:	SUPREME COURT CASE NO.: AFFIDAVIT OF DISQUALIFICATION Out of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas Case No. A0901302

AFFIDAVIT OF DISQUALIFICATION OF V. DENISE NEWSOME

COMMONWEATH OF KENTUCKY) )SS: COUNTY OF CAMPBELL)

I, V. Denise Newsome (a/k/a Denise V. Newsome "Newsome" and/or "Plaintiff/Newsome"), being sworn, depose and say:

1. Newsome is the Plaintiff in the above numbered and entitled cause and that the Honorable John Andrew West ("Judge West"), Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Hamilton County, Ohio, in whose court her matter is pending and before whom it is assigned, is prejudiced in this matter against the Plaintiff and is by reason of such prejudice disqualified to sit in the proceedings and trial of this cause.

2. The next scheduled hearing in the matter in the Court below (Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas) is set for July 21, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. before Judge West. See EXHIBIT "1" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

3. This instant Affidavit of Disqualification is being timely submitted and in accordance with the statutes/laws governing said matters:

> If a judge of the court of common pleas allegedly is interested in a proceeding pending before the court, is related to, or has a bias or prejudice either for or against a part to a proceeding pending before the court or a party's counsel, or allegedly otherwise is disqualified to preside in a proceeding pending before the court, any party to the proceeding or the party's counsel may file and affidavit of disqualification with the clerk of the supreme court.[1]

An affidavit of disqualification must be filed with the clerk not fewer than seven calendar days before the day on which the next hearing on the proceeding is scheduled. . .

The clerk of the Supreme Court will not accept an affidavit of disqualification if it is not timely presented for filing or does not satisfy the statutory requirements. However, the requirement that an affidavit of disqualification of a judge be filed not less than seven days before the scheduled hearing date can be set aside when it is demonstrated that compliance with the seven-day requirement is impossible.

When a proper affidavit of disqualification is timely presented to the clerk of the supreme court for filing, the clerk must accept the affidavit for filing and must forward it to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.[2]

The supreme court must send notice of the filing of the affidavit to the clerk of the court served by the judge against whom the affidavit is filed. Upon receipt of notice, the appropriate clerk will enter the fact of the filing of the affidavit on the docket of the court.[3]

Except for certain activities enumerated by statute, if the clerk of the supreme court accepts an affidavit of disqualification for filing, the affidavit deprives the judge against whom the affidavit was filed of any authority to preside in the proceeding until the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or a justice of the supreme court designated by the Chief Justice, rules on the affidavit.[4]

A judge who is aware of a pending disqualification affidavit should not continue to proceed with the case,[5] and a judge who proceeds with substantive matters pending resolution of the affidavit risks the proceedings being held for naught if disqualification is ordered.[6]

A judge against whom an affidavit of disqualification is filed may do the following if applicable:

[1] Ohio Revised Code § 2701.03.
[2] ORC § 2701.03(C)(1)(a).
[3] ORC § 2701.03(C)(1)(b), (c).
[4] ORC § 2701.03(D)(1).
[5] In re Disqualification of Celebrezze, 74 Ohio St. 3d 1242, 657 N.E.2d 1348 (1992).
[6] Rife v. Morgan, 106 Ohio App. 3d 843, 667 N.E.2d 450 (2d Dist. Clark County 1995).

- If, based on the scheduled hearing date, the affidavit was not timely filed, the judge may preside in the proceeding . . .[7]

- Determine a matter that does not affect the substantive right of any of the parties.[8]

4. Newsome believes that while she submitted a sufficient Affidavit of Disqualification on or about May 28, 2010 (See EXHIBIT "2" – Affidavit/Brief Only), the Clerk of Court (Patricia M. Clancy), may have failed to implement and handle said Affidavit in compliance with the statutes/laws governing said matters. In the NOTIFICATION TO CLERK OF COURT of the May 28, 2010 Affidavit of Disqualification at Page 11, it states in part:

> the clerk of the court of common pleas shall enter the fact of such filing on the trial docket in such cause and forthwith notify the presiding judge of the court of appeals for the district in which such court of common pleas is located. If such presiding judge finds that such judge of the court of common pleas is disqualified he shall forthwith notify the chief justice of the Supreme Court. The chief justice shall designate and assign some other judge to take the place of the judge against whom such affidavit is filed.

See EXHIBIT "2" at p.11 attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Therefore, as a matter of law, Newsome is entitled to know whether or not upon submittal of her Affidavit of Disqualification whether or not Clancy followed the proper procedures in the handling thereof.

Newsome is not aware whether or not these procedures were followed and now it appears Judge West is attempting to usurp authority, abuse his discretion, violate the Code of Judicial Conduct, infringe upon the rights of Newsome and rule on her Affidavit of Disqualification on July 21, 2010.

5. Newsome is informed and believe, and based on such information and belief allege, that the Honorable John Andrew West ("Judge West"), the judge before whom this cause is pending: (a) has a personal bias or prejudice against her and in favor of Stor-All Alfred LLC ("Stor-All"), who is the Plaintiff in the lower court action, and its counsel/attorneys; (b) has a personal interest in the proceeding and the outcome thereof; (c) a CONFLICT OF INTEREST exist; and (d) is disqualified from presiding over matter in that formal criminal charges have been filed against him and others with the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") – a matter which to Newsome's knowledge is still pending.

6. This Affidavit is submitted in good faith and for purposes of preserving the rights of Plaintiff/Newsome and is not being submitted for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, obstruction of justice, etc.

[7] ORC § 2701.03(D)(2)(b).
[8] ORC § 2701.03(D)(3).

7. The facts and the reasons for Plaintiff's/Newsome's belief that such bias or prejudice exists are set forth in this instant Affidavit of Disqualification.

8. In support of this instant Affidavit for Disqualification, Newsome states the following in support thereof: (a) the specific allegations on which the claim of interest, bias, prejudice, or disqualification is based and the facts to support each of her allegations; (b) the jurat of a notary public authorized to administer oaths or affirmations; (c) certification supporting that a copy of the affidavit has been served on Judge West and opposing parties and/or their counsel; (d) The Plaintiff (Stor-All) in the lower court action has requested a hearing on its Motion to Dismiss/Motion for Summary Judgment which appears to be set for July 21, 2010 (See EXHIBIT "1" attached hereto and incorporated by reference; however, Defendant (Newsome) in the lower court action and in response to Plaintiff's/Stor-All's request has timely, properly and adequately notified the lower court and Judge John Andrew West that she WILL NOT be available for the time and date set by said court in that there is pending Affidavit of Disqualification that was submitted for filing on or about May 28, 2010 and DOCKETED on or about June 1, 2010. See EXHIBIT "3" – Docket Printout attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

9. In the preservation of Plaintiff's/Newsome's rights the instant Affidavit of Disqualification is submitted in that the evidence and record in this matter will support that without intervention, Judge West will attempt to move forward with the July 21, 2010 hearing OVER Plaintiff's/Newsome's objections and despite the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that exist regarding him and his knowledge of the pending Affidavits of Disqualification – the May 28, 2010 submittal and now this instant Affidavit.

10. On or about June 7, 2010, with knowledge that Newsome had filed her Affidavit of Disqualification, Judge West executed NULL/VOID Orders Lifting Stay Entered April 28, 2009 and Denying Defendant's Motion for Default Judgment. Doing so with knowledge that he lacked authority and/or jurisdiction to do so given light of the pending TIMELY FILED Affidavit of Disqualification submitted on May 28, 2010.

11. Disqualification of Judge John Andrew West is sought pursuant to the Ohio Constitution, Article IV, § 5(C), as amended in 1968, and Revised Code § 2701.03 and other governing statutes/laws.

12. The Ohio Revised Code § 2701.03, as amended in 1963, provides:

> When a judge of the court of common pleas is interested in a cause or matter pending before the court, is related to, or has a bias or prejudice either for or against, a party to such matter or cause or to his counsel, or is otherwise disqualified to sit in such cause or matter, on the filing of an affidavit by any party to such cause or matter, or by the counsel of any party, setting forth the fact of such interest, bias, prejudice, or disqualification, the clerk of the court of common pleas shall enter the fact of such filing on the trial docket in such cause and forthwith notify the presiding judge of the court of appeals for > the district in which such court of common pleas is located. If such presiding judge finds that such judge of the court of common pleas is disqualified he shall forthwith notify the chief justice of the Supreme Court. The chief justice shall designate and assign some other judge to take the place of the judge against whom such affidavit is filed. The judge so assigned shall try such matter or cause. Such affidavit shall be filed not less than three days prior to the time set for the hearing in such matter or cause.

13. The term "bias or prejudice" in the canon requiring Judge West to perform judicial duties without bias or prejudice implies a hostile feeling in spirit of ill will or undue friendship or favoritism toward Stor-All and/or its counsel with the formation of a fixed anticipatory judgment on part of Judge West, as contra-distinguished from an open state of mind which will be governed by the law and the facts. Cleveland Bar Assn. v. Cleary, 93 Ohio St. 3d 191, 2001-Ohio-1326, 754 N.E.2d 235 (2001), reinstatement granted, 96 Ohio St. 3d 1204, 2002-Ohio-3639, 771 N.E. 2d 863 (2002); State v. Seller, 173 Ohio App. 3d 60, 2007-Ohio-4681, 877 N.E. 2d 387 (8th Dist. 2007).

14. In further support of this instant Affidavit of Disqualification and in keeping with Revised Code § 2701.03, the following are specific allegations, facts, evidence and legal conclusions to substantiate the claim of interest, bias, prejudice and/or disqualification of Judge John Andrew West:

    a) The record evidence will support that Plaintiff/Newsome prior to filing this Affidavit and during the course of proceedings notified the Court of concerns of bias and/or prejudices against her – to no avail. Judge West continued to march forward disregarding Plaintiff's/Newsome's timely notifications and concerns submitted in the preservation of "PROTECTED RIGHTS."

    b) Judge West has a personal bias or prejudice concerning Plaintiff/Newsome as well as PERSONAL knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning this lawsuit;

    c) On or about September 9-10, 2009, Judge West and others engaged in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Plaintiff/Newsome which resulted in Plaintiff/Newsome filing an OFFICIAL FBI Criminal Complaint on or about September 24, 2009, which is presently pending and includes (however not limited) to the following Charges/Counts:

        i. Conspiracy;

        ii. Public Corruption;

iii. Complicity;

iv. Corruption;

v. Aiding and Abetting;

vi. Extortion and Blackmail;

vii. Bribery;

viii. Coercion;

ix. Retaliation;

x. Pattern of Conduct;

xi. Intimidation;

xii. Deprivation of Rights;

xiii. Power/Failure to Prevent;

xiv. Stalking/Menacing by Stalking;

xv. Burglary and Breaking & Entering;

xvi. Theft;

xvii. Trespass;

xviii. Larceny

xix. Invasion;

xx. Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action;

xxi. Obstruction of Justice/Process;

xxii. Color Law;

xxiii. Conspiracy Against Rights; and

xxiv. Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights.

Judge West's role and engagement in the above criminal acts IS NOT protected under the Cloak of Immunity. The role Judge West played in the carrying out of the above crimes was done knowingly, willingly and maliciously for purposes of aiding and abetting Stor-All, its attorneys and others in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Plaintiff/Newsome.

> Dennis v. Sparks, 101 S.Ct. 183 (U.S.Tex.,1980) - State judge may be found criminally liable for violation of civil rights even though the judge may be immune from damages under the civil statute. 18 U.S.C.A. § 242; 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

d) Because Judge West is named in the FBI Criminal Complaint with Stor-All, its counsel and others, a reasonable mind may conclude he has an interest in the outcome of this lawsuit and therefore, cannot remain impartial and rulings by him clearly supports his inability to remain impartial when deciding matters in this lawsuit because of his relationship and interest to Stor-All and/or their counsel. This instant Affidavit of Disqualification is submitted to further support Plaintiff's/Newsome's objection to Judge West presiding in this lawsuit. Said rights of Plaintiff/Newsome to object to Judge West WILL NOT and IS NOT hereby waived and is timely submitted in good faith.

e) Judge West, as a matter of law, is under an obligation to disqualify himself in this lawsuit because his impartiality is reasonably questioned and Plaintiff/Newsome has filed a timely FBI Criminal Complaint during the course of this lawsuit that also now renders his inability to continue presiding over this lawsuit and his inability to remain impartial. Judge West now further has an additional PERSONAL interest in the outcome of this lawsuit. Furthermore, where the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions supports Judge West harbors personal bias or prejudice concerning Defendant/Newsome. ORC § 2701.03.

f) Judge West also now has a personal interest in the outcome of this lawsuit because of the FBI Criminal Complaint Plaintiff/Newsome has filed; therefore, disqualifying and requiring his removal/recusal. State ex rel. Taylor v. Winget, 37 Ohio St. 153, 1881 WL 80 (1881).

15. In the interest of justice Judge John Andrew West should step down and have this case transferred to another judge not only because of Plaintiff's/Newsome's instant Affidavit but on his own to give place to another, conceding that he might be prejudiced and therefore disqualified to sit in the case. State v. Hunt, 72 Ohio St. 643, 76 N.E. 1132 (1905). Ohio courts have long held that not only may a judge refuse to sit when such conflicts arise, but has been recognized as highly proper and becoming to the dignity of the court to step down when he considers it appropriate. As in this case, when Judge West exhibited bias and interest and acted upon questions of facts that clearly were contrary to prior rulings by him and other judges/justices and/or this Court, the laws require that he refuse to sit and should have made known his interest at the earliest stage of proceeding than requiring Plaintiff/Newsome to have to conduct IN-DEPTH research to determine why he and others engaged in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Defendant/Newsome. Probasco v. Raine, 50 Ohio St. 378, 34 N.e. 536 (1893); Gregory v. Cleveland, C. & C. R.Co., 4 Ohio St. 675, 1855 WL 31 (1855); Ashland Bank & Sav. Co. v. Houseman, 5 Ohio App. 165, 1915 WL 1296 (5th Dist. 1915).

16. Stor-All (Plaintiff in lower case action) as recent as May 19, 2010, contacted Judge West with knowledge of the pending Criminal FBI Complaint as well as Plaintiff/Newsome notifying the Court of Common Pleas/Judge West of her objections to his further sitting on the case. Stor-All and/or opposing counsel was provided with a copy of same. See EXHIBIT "4" – May 19, 2010 correspondence to Judge West attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Judge West received a copy of said correspondence via facsimile as well.

If Stor-All and/or its counsel is aware of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's findings and/or rulings on the Criminal Complaint and that said issues have been resolved, then it is important/eminent that such information be produced to support that Plaintiff's/Newsome's FBI Complaint against Judge West, Plaintiff and their counsel have been exonerated of the charges/crimes filed against them. However, Plaintiff nor its counsel has done so because criminal charges are still pending against those Plaintiff/Newsome has filed a September 24, 2009 FBI Criminal Complaint against.

17. A ruling by the lower court may be considered to be the product of judicial bias if based on improper extrajudicial motives or if it is so extreme as to display clear inability to render fair judgment as the facts and evidence in this instant matter displays. Cleveland Bar Assn. v. Cleary, 93 Ohio St. 3d 191, 2001-Ohio-1326, 754 N.E.2d 235 (2001), reinstatement granted, 96 Ohio St. 3d 1204, 2002-Ohio-3639, 771 N.E. 2d 863 (2002).

18. Judge West's mode of articulating; moreover, his FAILURE to articulate the basis for decision(s) may exhibit such a degree of antagonism or other offensive conduct that a single incident would indicate that impartial judgment is not reasonably possible. Cleveland Bar Assn. v. Cleary, 93 Ohio St. 3d 191, 2001-Ohio-1326, 754 N.E.2d 235 (2001), reinstatement granted, 96 Ohio St. 3d 1204, 2002-Ohio-3639, 771 N.E. 2d 863 (2002).

19. Plaintiff/Newsome is entitled, as a matter of statute/law, to a fair and impartial trial before a disinterested court and also to provide the same to opposing parties and/or any party who discovers, AFTER the filing of lawsuit, conditions in the court which would likely prevent either party from having a fair and impartial trial before a disinterested court. Moore v. O'Dell, 16 Oio Op. 460, 30 Ohio L. Abs. 297, 1 Ohio Supp. 389 (C.P. 1939).

20. The record evidence will support that the lower Court/Judge West had sufficient facts, evidence and legal conclusions to support his DISQUALIFICATION/REMOVAL/RECUSAL from this lawsuit.

21. Plaintiff's/Newsome's research has further yielded disturbing information which supports Stor-All's Insurance Company (Liberty Mutual) and Liberty Mutual's attorneys' and their clients' role in CONSPIRACIES involving criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome which involve; however, is not limited to the following:

    a) Stalking, harassing, contacting employers of Newsome to get her terminated, relying upon special favors and relationships to judges assigned lawsuits in which Newsome is involved to obtain special favors/rulings from judges. Neither Liberty Mutual, its attorneys or the judges involved in lawsuit to which Newsome is a party revealed or made known their special relationships to Liberty Mutual, its insureds or attorneys. CRITICAL/CRUCIAL/PERTINENT information to which Newsome was entitled; however, withheld from her. Had it not been from the information obtained through this instant lawsuit and Stor-All's counsel's, David Meranus, disappointment in losing against Plaintiff/Newsome on the Motion to Transfer filed by her and Meranus' revealing his and his client's knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities unrelated to this lawsuit, Plaintiff/Newsome may not have been able to determine who the COMMON DENOMINATOR/ CONSPIRATORS (Liberty Mutual and its attorneys) were that have been STALKING, HARASSING, ENGAGING IN CRIMINAL/CIVIL WRONGS from state-to-state, job-to-job that has been leveled against Defendant/Newsome.

b) Based upon information provided Plaintiff/Newsome in February 2009 by Stor-All's counsel, David Meranus, and filings by one of Liberty Mutual's many attorneys, Molly Vance, Plaintiff/Newsome was able to conduct research and CONFIRM the NEXUS/ASSOCIATION of Liberty Mutual, its attorneys and others in lawsuits involving Newsome. Moreover, special relationships as well as FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS Liberty Mutual and its attorneys have made to SITTING Judges before which lawsuits/matters involving Newsome was pending. Facts and evidence clearly supporting "CONFLICT OF INTEREST" however, there were judges who knew of their special relationships to Stor-All's Insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) and the FINANCIAL gains received therefrom; however, failed to advise Plaintiff/Newsome and/or or counsel of same. Again, Newsome has filed the required FBI Criminal Complaints as well as other Complaints to address such issues which, as a matter of law, are presently pending. Plaintiff/Newsome is currently in the process of determining the status of other Complaints and what has happened to them – i.e considering the PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and well-established CONSPIRACY that has been leveled against Plaintiff/Newsome by Liberty Mutual, its insureds and its attorneys.

22. For example, in Plaintiff's/Newsome's research she was able to obtain CRUCIAL/CRITICAL/PERTINENT information regarding Liberty Mutual's attorney's ties/relationships to judges assigned lawsuits/matters involving her. See EXHIBIT "5" – Baker Donelson Info regarding relationships to Judges/Justices (i.e. Plaintiff/Newsome UNDERLINED names of judges/ justices associated in matters involving her) attached hereto and incorporated by reference. In efforts of concealing one of Liberty Mutual's MAJOR LAW FIRMS (i.e. Baker Donelson Bearman Caldwell & Berkowitz ["Baker Donelson"]) so that Plaintiff/Newsome would not easily make the connection, Liberty Mutual relied upon using smaller law firms in efforts of throwing Plaintiff/Newsome off of Liberty Mutual's trail as well as the role Baker Donelson was playing at every level. Baker Donelson being a very HUGE and well established law firm with KEY/MAJOR ties to judges/justices, senators/representatives, White House, government officials, etc. In fact, such major ties and relationships to those holding key positions was OPENINGLY and WILLINGLY advertised on website containing Baker Donelson information. See EXHIBIT "6" – Baker Donelson Info regarding RELATIONSHIPS to TOP/KEY Government Officials, etc. attached hereto and incorporated by reference. However, since Plaintiff/Newsome has confronted the United States President and his Administration regarding such special ties and information supporting that Liberty Mutual and Baker

Donelson are TOP/KEY FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTORS and ADVISORS to President Obama and others, Baker Donelson has since tried to do DAMAGE CONTROL and remove information from the Internet. See EXHIBIT "7" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. However, to their disappointment, Plaintiff/Newsome retained HARD COPY evidencing Liberty Mutual's and its attorneys' TIES to judges/justices, the United States White House, Supreme Court (United States and Ohio) and many others.

23. Newsome forwarded a copy of the May 19, 2010 letter to Judge West to United States President Barack Obama and United States Attorney General Eric Holder. United States President Barack Obama because he is Head over the Executive Department under which the United States Department of Justice resides. United States Attorney General Eric Holder because he is the Head of the Department of Justice under which the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") resides. The United States Postal records reveal that both President Obama (on May 25, 2010) and Attorney General Eric Holder (on May 24, 2010) received the copy mailed to them. See EXHIBIT "8" – U.S. Mailing Receipt attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

24. While Ohio law pursuant to Ohio Revised Code § 2701.03, as amended in 1963, provides in part:

> . . . the clerk of the court of common pleas shall enter the fact of such filing on the trial docket in such cause and forthwith notify the presiding judge of the court of appeals for the district in which such court of common pleas is located. If such presiding judge finds that such judge of the court of common pleas is disqualified he shall forthwith notify the chief justice of the Supreme Court. The chief justice shall designate and assign some other judge to take the place of the judge against whom such affidavit is filed. The judge so assigned shall try such matter or cause. Such affidavit shall be filed not less than three days prior to the time set for the hearing in such matter or cause.

It is important to note that Plaintiff's/Newsome's research has also yielded that Liberty Mutual and its attorneys own the MAJORITY, if not the ENTIRE, Supreme Court of Ohio. Plaintiff's/Newsome's research found that Liberty Mutual and/or its attorneys FINANCIALLY CONTRIBUTED hundreds of thousands/millions of dollars to Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio. A reasonable mind may conclude that such large FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS to the Supreme Court justices being provided for special favors and rulings from said court.

25. In Newsome's research she found that the MAJORITY if not all of the Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court receive a SUBSTANTIAL financial benefit from Liberty Mutual and/or its attorneys/law firms as well. See EXHIBIT "9" –

Ohio Supreme Court Justices information attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

26. While it appears the DECK MAY BE STACKED against Newsome in that the evidence uncovered reveals that Liberty Mutual, its counsel and others engage in practices to PURCHASE, BRIBE, etc. Justices/Judges by providing HUGE and SUBSTANTIAL financial contributions to obtain rulings in their favor – Evidence of such contributions supporting that at least SIX of the Seven Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court receive SUBSTANTIAL financial contributions from LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or its attorneys/law firms – it is imperative and of PUBLIC interest that the record reveals that this information is properly recorded.

27. In December 2009, it appears Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio sought to make good on their special relationships to Liberty Mutual and its attorneys and in so doing engaged in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs in the handling of matters involving this lawsuit. In efforts of COMPROMISING Plaintiff's/Newsome's appeal, the Supreme Court of Ohio deprived Newsome of "PROTECTED RIGHTS" and withheld its ruling from her. As a direct and proximate result of said CRIMINAL wrongs by the Justices and/or Supreme Court of Ohio, Plaintiff/Newsome was DEPRIVED rights secured to her under the Ohio Constitution, United States Constitution, Civil Rights Act and others statutes/laws governing said matters. Because of such criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her which clearly infringed upon Plaintiff's/Newsome's protected rights, she moved and timely filed an FBI Criminal Complaint against the Justices and/or officials of the Supreme Court of Ohio and others which include (however is not limited) to the following CHARGES/COUNTS:

i. Conspiracy (18 USC§ 371);
ii. Conspiracy Against Rights (18 USC§ 241);
iii. Conspiracy to Defraud (statutes provided)
iv. Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights (42 USC§ 1985);
v. Public Corruption (provided information taken from FBI's website);
vi. Bribery (statutes cited);
vii. Complicity (statutes cited);
viii. Aiding and Abetting (statutes cited);
ix. Coercion (statutes cited);
x. Deprivation of Rights Under COLOR OF LAW (18 USC§ 242);
xi. Conspiracy to Commit Offense to Defraud United States (18 USC§ 371);
xii. Conspiracy to Impede (18 USC§ 372);
xiii. Frauds and Swindles (18 USC§ 1341 and 1346);
xiv. Obstruction of Court Orders (18 USC§ 1509);
xv. Tampering with a Witness (18 USC§ 1512);
xvi. Retaliating Against A Witness (18 USC§ 1513);

xvii. Destruction, Alteration, or Falsification of Records (18 USC§ 1519);

xviii. Obstruction of Mail (18 USC§ 1701);

xix. Obstruction of Correspondence (18 USC§ 1702);

xx. Delay of Mail (18 USC§ 1703);

xxi. Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail (18 USC§ 1708);

xxii. Avoidance of Postage by Using Lower Class (18 USC§ 1723);

xxiii. Postage Collected Unlawfully (18 USC§ 1726);

xxiv. Power/Failure to Prevent (42 USC§ 1986);

xxv. Obstruction of Justice

To Plaintiff's/Newsome's knowledge this FBI Criminal Complaint is still pending. While a conviction of the Justices involved in such crimes may be SCANDELOUS, it is important for the PUBLIC sake that such CORRUPTION/CRIMINAL practices be cleaned up. If Stor-All and/or its counsel is aware of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's findings and/or rulings on the Criminal Complaint and that said issues have been resolved, then it is important/eminent that such information be produced to support that Plaintiff's/Newsome's FBI Complaint against Judge West, Stor-All and their counsel have been exonerated of the charges/crimes filed against them. However, Stor-All nor its counsel has done so because criminal charges are still pending against those Plaintiff/Newsome has filed the September 24, 2010 FBI Criminal Complaint against.

28. Plaintiff/Newsome is responding in a timely manner to correspondence received from United States President Barack Obama and his Administration in efforts of resolving said matters and determining the status of Complaints filed. Defendant/Newsome's most recent response to correspondence sent from the Administration being May 19, 2010.

29. While there is no legal/lawful justification for the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome by Judge West, Stor-All, its counsel and others, Plaintiff/Newsome has abided by the laws of the State of Ohio and United States and filed the required Complaints. Furthermore, while justice is supposed to be blind, apparently rather than EQUALLY apply and render justice in accordance with the statutes/laws governing said matters, it appears there are Judges (i.e. such as Judge West) who are willing to peep beneath the blindfold and DISCRIMINATE against Plaintiff/Newsome in efforts of rendering special favors to Stor-All, Liberty Mutual, its counsel and others. However, the record will reveal that Plaintiff/Newsome does not look at the color of skin when seeking justice and has filed the required criminal complaints against those who have violated the laws and deprived her rights secured under the Constitution (Ohio and United States) as well as other governing statutes/laws regardless of the color of their skin. As a matter of law, citizens are entitled to EQUAL protection of the laws and DUE PROCESS of laws under the Constitution and other governing laws.

30. In Newsome's May 28, 2010 Affidavit of Disqualification at Paragraph 24, she states:

> While Judge West and opposing counsel were advised that Plaintiff/Newsome would not be available until AFTER July 15, 2010, he and opposing counsel may attempt to file and act in furtherance of CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Newsome which further warrants the DISQUALIFICATION of Judge West. Actions by Judge West in furtherance of bias and prejudices towards Plaintiff/Newsome and efforts of extending SPECIAL FAVORS to Stor-All and its counsel/attorneys.

See EXHIBIT "2" – May 28, 2010 Affidavit of Disqualification attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Surely enough on June 7, 2010, Judge West executed Order Lifting Stay Entered April 28, 2009 and Order Denying Defendant's Motion for Default Judgment with knowledge that Newsome would not be in town and would be on vacation. Judge West doing so deliberately, knowingly and MALICIOUSLY in efforts of rendering LIBERTY MUTUAL, Stor-All and their counsel special favors.

31. While Judge West and opposing counsel will receive a copy of this instant Affidavit, a reasonable mind may conclude that in keeping with tradition and criminal acts, Judge West and counsel may be present at the July 21, 2010 hearing set for purposes of COMPLETING the OBJECT of the CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome. However, Newsome has timely, properly and adequately submitted for filing NOTICE OF NONATTENDANCE of the July 21, 2010 hearing set in light of the PENDING Affidavits of Disqualification of May 28, 2010 and this instant submittal to the Ohio Supreme Court.

32. Newsome through this instant filing also request that if CONFLICT OF INTEREST exist with the Chief Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court and/or any other Justices of this Court because of the pending FBI Complaint filed on December 28, 2009, as well as for other reasons known to this Court that the proper RECUSAL/DISQUALIFICATIONS as well as Conflict of Interests be provided Newsome and matter presented to Justice under which bias and prejudice as well as grounds for disqualification do not exist.

DEFENDANT	:

COMES NOW Defendant, Denise V. Newsome ("Defendant" or "Newsome"), through this instant "Motion for Reconsideration ("MFR")," without waiving her defenses as to DISQUALIFICATION of Judge John Andrew West ("Judge West") of the Hamilton County Court Of Common Pleas to reconsider its July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry (Attached hereto as EXHIBIT "I" – Judgment Entry and copy of Envelope in which mailed incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full herein.)

Newsome further moves this Court pursuant to S. Ct. R. XI, Section 2 to VACATE and SUSPEND its July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry and reconsider this matter and enter a ruling GRANTING the relief Newsome seeks through this instant Motion for Reconsideration and her subsequent filing of Affidavit of Disqualification. In support thereof Newsome further states:

1. This instant MFR is submitted in good faith and is not submitted for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, etc. and is filed to protect and preserve the rights of Newsome.

2. Newsome through her Affidavit of Disqualification at Paragraph 11, TIMELY, PROPERLY and ADEQUATELY sought the following relief:

> Disqualification of Judge John Andrew West is sought pursuant to the Ohio Constitution, Article IV, § 5(C), as amended in 1968, and Revised Code § 2701.03 and other governing statutes/laws.

EXHIBIT 10

Therefore, as a matter of law, the legal conclusions, relief sought through Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification is NOT ONLY limited to arguments presented in Affidavit; however, *are to include those known to this Court which would support Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification and the Recusal/Removal of Judge John Andrew West from presiding over lawsuit.

3. The Ohio Supreme Court through its July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry insist on providing the Judge West in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas with jurisdiction over subject matter; wherein as a matter of law, Judge West lacks jurisdiction and is not qualified to continue to proceed in the action before the lower court (Court of Common Pleas) based upon the grounds set forth in the Affidavit of Disqualification – which is attached hereto as EXHIBIT "II" and incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, as a direct and proximate result, Newsome's rights secured under the United States Constitution, Ohio Constitution, Article IV, § 5(C), as amended in 1968, Revised Code § 2701.03, Ohio Revised Code 2701.12 – Cause for Removal, Suspension or Retirement of Judge which states in part:

> (A) Cause for removal or suspension of a judge from office without pay under section 2701.11 of the Revised Code exists when he has, since first elected or appointed to judicial office:
> (1) Engaged in any misconduct involving moral turpitude, or a violation of such of the canons of judicial ethics adopted by the supreme court as would result in a substantial loss of public respect for the office;
> (2) Been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude; or . . . ,

Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct which states in part:

> CANON 1: A judge shall uphold and promote the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary, and shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety.
>
> RULE 1.2: Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary - - A judge shall act all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary, and shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety.
>
> OFFICIAL COMMENT:
>
> [1] Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by improper conduct that creates the appearance of impropriety. This principle applies to both the professional and personal conduct of a judge.
> [2] A judge should expect to be the subject of public scrutiny that might be viewed as burdensome if applied to other citizens, and must accept the restrictions imposed by the code.

[3] Conduct that compromises or appears to compromise the independence, integrity, and impartiality of a judge undermines public confidence in the judiciary. Because it is not practicable to list all such conduct, the rule is necessarily cast in general terms.

[4] Judges should participate in activities that promote ethical conduct among judges and lawyers, support professionalism within the judiciary and the legal profession, and promote access to justice for all.

[5] Actual improprieties include violations of the law, court rules, OR provisions of this code. The test for appearance of impropriety is an objective standard that focuses on whether the conduct would create, in reasonable minds, a perception that the judge violated this code, engaged in conduct that is prejudicial to public confidence in the judiciary, or engaged in other conduct that reflects adversely on the judge's honesty, impartiality, temperament, or fitness to serve as a judge.

RULE 1.3: Avoiding Abuse of the Prestige of Judicial Office - - A judge shall not abuse the prestige of judicial office to advance the personal or economic interest of the judge or others, or allow others to do so.

CANON 2: A judge shall perform the duties of judicial office impartially, competently, and diligently.

RULE 2.2: Impartiality and Fairness - - A judge shall uphold and apply the law, and shall perform all duties of judicial office fairly and impartially.

RULE 2.3: Bias, Prejudice, and Harassment - - (A) A judge shall perform the duties of judicial office, including administrative duties, without bias or prejudice.

(B) A judge shall not, in the performance of judicial duties, by words or conduct manifest bias or prejudice, or engage in harassment, including but not limited to bias, prejudice, or harassment based upon race, sex, gender, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status, socioeconomic status, or political affiliation, and shall not permit court staff, court officials, or others subject to the judge's direction and control to do so.

(C) A judge shall require lawyers in proceedings before the court to refrain from manifesting bias or prejudice, or engaging in harassment, based upon attributes including but not limited to race, sex, gender, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status, socioeconomic status, or political affiliation, against parties, witnesses, lawyers, or others.

OFFICIAL COMMENT:

[1] A judge who manifests bias or prejudice in a proceeding impairs the fairness of the proceeding and brings the judiciary into disrepute.

[2] Examples of manifestations of bias or prejudice include, but are not limited to: . . . threatening, intimidating, or hostile acts; suggestions of connections between. . . crime, . . . A judge must avoid conduct that may reasonably be perceived as prejudiced or biased.

RULE 2.6: Ensuring the Right to be Heard - - (A) A judge shall accord to every person who has a legal interest in a proceeding, or that person's lawyer, the right to be heard according to law.

OFFICIAL COMMENT:

[1] The right to be heard is an essential component of a fair and impartial system of justice. Substantive rights of litigants can be protected only if procedures protecting the right to be heard are observed.

[1A] The rapid growth in litigation involving self-represented litigants and increasing awareness of the significance of the role of the courts in promoting access to justice have led to additional flexibility by judges and other court officials in order to facilitate a self-represented litigant's ability to be heard. By way of illustration, individual judges have found the following affirmative, nonprejudicial steps helpful in this regard: (1) providing brief information about the proceeding and evidentiary and foundational requirements; (2) modifying the traditional order of taking evidence; (3) refraining from using legal jargon; (4) explaining the basis for a ruling; and (5) making referral to any resources available to assist the litigant in the preparation of the case.

RULE 2.7: Responsibility to Decide - - A judge shall hear and decide matters assigned to the judge, except when disqualification is required by Rule 2.11 or other law.

RULE 2.11: Disqualification - - (A) A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in any proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to the following circumstances:

(1) The judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party's lawyer, or personal knowledge of facts that are in dispute in the proceeding.

OFFICIAL COMMENT:

[2] A judge's obligation not to hear or decide matters in which disqualification is required applies regardless of whether a motion to disqualify is filed.

[3] . . . In matters that required immediate action, the judge must disclose on the record the basis for possible disqualification and make reasonable efforts to transfer the matter to another judge as soon as practicable.

RULE 2.15: Responding to Judicial and Lawyer Misconduct - -

(A) A judge having knowledge that another judge has committed a violation of this Code that raises a question regarding the judge's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a judge in other respects shall inform the appropriate authority.

(B) A judge having knowledge that a lawyer has committed violation of the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct that raises a question regarding the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a lawyer in other respects shall inform the appropriate authority.

OFFICIAL COMMENT:

[1] Taking action to address known misconduct is a judge's obligation. Division (A) and (B) impose an obligation on the judge to report to the appropriate disciplinary authority the known misconduct of another judge or a lawyer that raises a question regarding honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness of that judge or lawyer. Ignoring or denying known misconduct among one's judicial colleagues or members of the legal profession undermines the judge's responsibility to participate in efforts to ensure public respect for the justice system*. This rule limits the reporting obligation to those offenses that an independent judiciary must vigorously endeavor to prevent.*

[2] A judge who does not have actual knowledge, but who receives information indicating a substantial likelihood that another judge or a lawyer has committed misconduct, should take appropriate action. Appropriate action may include, but is not > limited to, . . .reporting of the suspected violation to the appropriate disciplinary authority.

> RULE 2.16: Cooperation With Disciplinary Authorities - - (B) A judge shall not retaliate, directly or indirectly, against a person known or suspected to have assisted or cooperated with an investigation of a judge or a lawyer.

Therefore, Newsome herein and hereby REITERATES and INCORPORATES the defenses/grounds set forth in her Affidavit of Disqualification filed with this Court as if set forth in full in this instant Motion for Reconsideration.

4. This Court's July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry, as a matter of law, CANNOT be sustained and can be DEFEATED by more favorable rulings rendered by other courts as well as by the arguments contained herein as well as rulings by other courts and/or higher courts on the same subject matter. Furthermore, the evidence contained in Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification supports disqualification and recusal/removal of Judge West for violations under the Code of Judicial Conduct, Ohio Revised Code and/or other statutes/laws governing said matters.

5. The Ohio Supreme Court's failure to act as well as its DENIAL of Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification, clearly goes against the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and said Court has failed to REPORT and/or DETER the legal wrongs/injustices that have been TIMELY, PROPERLY and ADEQUATELY brought to its attention pursuant to Newsome Affidavit of Disqualification as well as Rule 2.15 of the Ohio code of Judicial Conduct.

6. Newsome believes that because this Court's July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry is CONTRARY to law and clearly the legal conclusions cited therein were provided for DECEPTIVE and FRAUDLENT intent, that a reasonable mind may conclude that said Judgment Entry may be in RETALIATION of Newsome's filing an FBI Complaint against Justices/Officials of the Ohio Supreme Court. Nevertheless, it is this Court's DUTY and OBLIGATION to uphold the law and remain IMPARTIAL, FAIR and JUST in the handling of matters brought by Newsome.

7. Newsome through her Affidavit of Disqualification filed with this Court in Paragraph 14 provided further evidence to support disqualification of Judge West for violation of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct. Said Paragraph which stated:

> In further support of this instant Affidavit of Disqualification and in keeping with Revised Code § 2701.03, the following are specific allegations, facts, evidence and legal conclusions to substantiate the claim of interest, bias, prejudice and/or disqualification of Judge John Andrew West:
>
> a) The record evidence will support that Plaintiff/Newsome prior to filing this Affidavit and during the course of proceedings notified the Court of concerns of bias and/or prejudices against her – to no avail. Judge West continued to march forward disregarding Plaintiff's/Newsome's timely notifications and concerns submitted in the preservation of "PROTECTED RIGHTS."

b) Judge West has a personal bias or prejudice concerning Plaintiff/Newsome as well as PERSONAL knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning this lawsuit;

c) On or about September 9-10, 2009, Judge West and others engaged in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs leveled against Plaintiff/Newsome which resulted in Plaintiff/Newsome filing an OFFICIAL FBI Criminal Complaint on or about September 24, 2009, which is presently pending and includes (however not limited) to the following Charges/Counts:

i. Conspiracy;
ii. Public Corruption;
iii. Complicity;
iv. Corruption;
v. Aiding and Abetting;
vi. Extortion and Blackmail;
vii. Bribery;
viii. Coercion;
ix. Retaliation;
x. Pattern of Conduct;
xi. Intimidation;
xii. Deprivation of Rights;
xiii. Power/Failure to Prevent;
xiv. Stalking/Menacing by Stalking;
xv. Burglary and Breaking & Entering;
xvi. Theft;
xvii. Trespass;
xviii. Larceny
xix. Invasion;
xx. Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action;
xxi. Obstruction of Justice/Process;
xxii. Color Law;
xxiii. Conspiracy Against Rights; and

xxiv. Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights.

Judge West's role and engagement in the above criminal acts IS NOT protected under the Cloak of Immunity. The role Judge West played in the carrying out of the above crimes was done knowingly, willingly and maliciously for purposes of aiding and abetting Stor-All, its attorneys and others in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Plaintiff/Newsome.

> Dennis v. Sparks, 101 S.Ct. 183 (U.S.Tex.,1980) - State judge may be found criminally liable for violation of civil rights even though the judge may be immune from damages under the civil statute. 18 U.S.C.A. § 242; 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983.

d) Because Judge West is named in the FBI Criminal Complaint with Stor-All, its counsel and others, a reasonable mind may conclude he has an interest in the outcome of this lawsuit and therefore, cannot remain impartial and rulings by him clearly supports his inability to remain impartial when deciding matters in this lawsuit because of his relationship and interest to Stor-All and/or their counsel. This instant Affidavit of Disqualification is submitted to further support Plaintiff's/Newsome's objection to Judge West presiding in this lawsuit. Said rights of Plaintiff/Newsome to object to Judge West WILL NOT and IS NOT hereby waived and is timely submitted in good faith.

e) Judge West, as a matter of law, is under an obligation to disqualify himself in this lawsuit because his impartiality is reasonably questioned and Plaintiff/Newsome has filed a timely FBI Criminal Complaint during the course of this lawsuit that also now renders his inability to continue presiding over this lawsuit and his inability to remain impartial. Judge West now further has an additional PERSONAL interest in the outcome of this lawsuit. Furthermore, where the record evidence, facts and legal conclusions supports Judge West harbors personal bias or prejudice concerning Defendant/Newsome. ORC § 2701.03.

f) Judge West also now has a personal interest in the outcome of this lawsuit because of the FBI Criminal Complaint Plaintiff/Newsome has filed; therefore, disqualifying and requiring his removal/recusal. State ex rel. Taylor v. Winget, 37 Ohio St. 153, 1881 WL 80 (1881).

See EXHIBIT "II" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Judge West and other CONSPIRATORS/CO-CONSPIRATORS apparently engaging in similar CRIMINAL activities:

- Conspiracy to Commit a Crime . . .
- Conspiracy to Commit Robbery . . .
- Coercion With Use Of A Deadly Weapon

in which O.J. Simpson was INDICTED on and found GUILTY. See EXHIBIT "III" O.J. Simpson Criminal Complaint attached hereto. Like O.J. Simpson Judge West, Plaintiff in the lower court action, their counsel and others felt that on September 9/10 2010, they could just go in and take property/possession of property through CRIMINAL/UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL actions. However, like O.J. Simpson, Judge West and his COHORTS in Criminal/Civil wrongs leveled against Newsome will have to learn the HARD way that the laws are clear. Judge West and other CONSPIRATORS/CO-CONSPIRATORS elected to take the laws into their own hands WITHOUT legal authority that as a DIRECT and PROXIMATE RESULT of their actions resulted in Newsome's filing of the September 24, 2009 FBI Complaint.

8. The July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry of this Court deprived Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws – rights secured/guaranteed under the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution.

9. Newsome through her Affidavit of Disqualification filed with this Court in Paragraph 27 provided further evidence to support concerns of this Court's handing of her Affidavit of Disqualification because of the December 28, 2009 FBI Criminal Complaint filed against the Ohio Supreme Court Justices/Officials and whether it could itself remain IMPARTIAL and UNBIAS in its handling of this matter due to the pending FBI Complaint filed against Justices/Officials of this Court. Said Paragraph which stated:

> In December 2009, it appears Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio sought to make good on their special relationships to Liberty Mutual and its attorneys and in so doing engaged in CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs in the handling of matters involving this lawsuit. In efforts of COMPROMISING Plaintiff's/Newsome's appeal, the Supreme Court of Ohio deprived Newsome of "PROTECTED RIGHTS" and withheld its ruling from her. As a direct and proximate result of said CRIMINAL wrongs by the Justices and/or Supreme Court of Ohio, Plaintiff/Newsome was DEPRIVED rights secured to her under the Ohio Constitution, United States Constitution, Civil Rights Act and others statutes/laws governing said matters. Because of such criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her which clearly infringed upon Plaintiff's/Newsome's protected rights, she moved and timely filed an FBI Criminal Complaint against the Justices and/or officials of the Supreme Court of Ohio and others which include (however is not limited) to the following CHARGES/COUNTS:

i. Conspiracy (18 USC§ 371);

ii. Conspiracy Against Rights (18 USC§ 241);

iii. Conspiracy to Defraud (statutes provided)

iv. Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights (42 USC§ 1985);

v. Public Corruption (provided information taken from FBI's website);

vi. Bribery (statutes cited);

vii. Complicity (statutes cited);

viii. Aiding and Abetting (statutes cited);

ix. Coercion (statutes cited);

x. Deprivation of Rights Under COLOR OF LAW (18 USC§ 242);

xi. Conspiracy to Commit Offense to Defraud United States (18 USC§ 371);

xii. Conspiracy to Impede (18 USC§ 372);

xiii. Frauds and Swindles (18 USC§ 1341 and 1346);

xiv. Obstruction of Court Orders (18 USC§ 1509);

xv. Tampering with a Witness (18 USC§ 1512);

xvi. Retaliating Against A Witness (18 USC§ 1513);

xvii. Destruction, Alteration, or Falsification of Records (18 USC§ 1519);

xviii. Obstruction of Mail (18 USC§ 1701);

xix. Obstruction of Correspondence (18 USC§ 1702);

xx. Delay of Mail (18 USC§ 1703);

xxi. Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail (18 USC§ 1708);

xxii. Avoidance of Postage by Using Lower Class (18 USC§ 1723);

xxiii. Postage Collected Unlawfully (18 USC§ 1726);

xxiv. Power/Failure to Prevent (42 USC§ 1986);

xxv. Obstruction of Justice

To Plaintiff's/Newsome's knowledge this FBI Criminal Complaint is still pending. While a conviction of the Justices involved in such crimes may be SCANDELOUS, it is important for the PUBLIC sake that such CORRUPTION/CRIMINAL practices be cleaned up. If Stor-All and/or its counsel is aware of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's findings and/or rulings on the Criminal Complaint and that said issues have been resolved, then it is important/eminent that such information be produced to support that Plaintiff's/Newsome's FBI Complaint against Judge West, Stor-All and their counsel have been exonerated of the charges/crimes filed against them. However, Stor-All nor its counsel has done so because criminal charges are still pending against those Plaintiff/Newsome has filed the September 24, 2010 FBI Criminal Complaint against.

Charges which should not be new to the FBI in that prosecutors went after Judge Bobby DeLaughter (i.e. judge in Mississippi) for crimes such as "USE OF MAIL" violations. See EXHIBIT "IV" – INDICTMENT filed against Bobby DeLaughter attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Newsome's December 28, 2010 FBI Criminal Complaint of course if MORE ELABORATE and DETAILED to support her Charges/Claims. This information is PERTINENT and of PUBLIC importance because Newsome is diligently seeking to determine the status of her FBI Criminal Complaints as well as going PUBLIC with releasing this information so that CITIZENS can see the DISCRIMINATORY practices in the United States Government (FBI, etc.) handling of matters brought by her. It is merely important to Newsome JUST TO MAKE SURE INFORMATION IS IN THE RECORD and INFORMATION HAS BEEN TIMELY, PROPERLY AND ADEQUATELY PRESENTED TO THIS COURT to support the Disqualification of Judge West.

So no while there are those who want to make it appear that Newsome is crazy, etc. She laughs because clearly the FBI goes after judges for similar crimes as that committed by the Ohio Supreme Court Justices/Officials in their handling of Newsome's matters; however, may now be attempting to look the other way. No the FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS by Liberty Mutual's counsel to the Justices of this Court is pertinent information based on the INDICTMENT Newsome pulled on Judge DeLaughter. Said monies are not given without EXPECTIONS of special favors in rulings by this court – i.e. confirmed through the CRIMINAL ACTS of the Justices'/Officials' handling of the December Order they attempted to keep from Newsome. Moreover, a reasonable mind may reach the same conclusion that monies paid to Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court are done for means of BRIBERY, EXTORTION, BLACKMAIL, etc.

10. Even the Ohio Supreme Court's recent mailing of its July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry, it is not clear to Newsome why said entry was executed on July 17, 2010; however, the Court HELD it for approximately THREE (3) day – i.e. until July 20, 2010 – before mailing. Further concerns of this Court's COMPROMISING and/or TAMPERING with the handling of Orders/Rulings/Entry by it and its DETERMINATION to OBSTRUCT THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE. See EXHIBIT "I" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

11. This instant pleading is also filed in good faith to afford this Court the opportunity to reconsider its ruling prior to Newsome taking the matter to the United States Supreme Court via writ of certiorari.

12. In the exercise of the power given to it by the United States Constitution (U.S. Const. Art. III, § 2 cl 2),[1] the United States Supreme Court has jurisdiction to review the judgment of the Ohio Supreme Court when a party in the state court action claims to have been denied a right or immunity under the laws of the United States. A review by the United States Supreme Court of a judgment or decree of by the Ohio Supreme Court is to be conducted in the same manner and under the same regulations, and will have the same effect, as if the judgment or decree reviewed had been rendered in a court of the United States (28 U.S.C.A. § 2104). The United States Supreme Court has jurisdiction to review state court decisions by writ of certiorari pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. § 1257(a) where:

(a) the validity of a treaty or statute of the United States is drawn into question;

(b) the validity of a state statute is drawn into question on the ground that it is repugnant to the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States; or

(c) any title, right, privilege, or immunity is specially set up or claimed under the Constitution, treaties, or statutes of, or commission held or authority exercised under, the United States.

13. While Newsome believes that this matter is also ripe for a Writ of Certiorari to the United States Supreme Court in that:

(a) the Ohio Supreme Court has decided an important federal question in a way that not only conflicts with its own decisions, but conflicts with the decision of another state court of last resort or of a United States Court of Appeals; and

(b) the Ohio Supreme Court has decided an important question of federal law in a way that conflicts with relevant decisions of the United States Supreme Court and clearly goes against Newsome's Constitutional rights.

she believes it is of PUBLIC INTEREST that this Court VACATE its July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry and PERFORM the ministerial duties owned to Newsome by

[1] . . . In all the other Cases before mentioned, the supreme Court shall have appellate Jurisdiction, both as to Law and Fact, with such Exceptions, and under such Regulations as the Congress shall make.

correcting its errors as well as GRANTING Newsome the relief sought through her Affidavit of Disqualification.

14. State court judgments that are rendered after September 25, 1988, may be appealed to the United States Supreme Court by a petition for writ of certiorari (see American Jurisprudence 2d Appellate Review § 14).

15. In the exercise of the power given it by the United States Constitution, the United States Supreme Court will have jurisdiction to review the judgment of the Ohio Supreme Court as well as the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas because Newsome claims to have been denied a right secured/guaranteed under the laws of the United States as well as the United States Constitution. Moreover, the record evidence clearly supports there is a federal question which exist as to the validity of a federal or state statute. See 23 Ohio Jur. 3d § 412.

16. On EVERY writ of error or appeal, the first and fundamental question is that of jurisdiction, first, of the United States Supreme Court, and then of the court from which the record comes. Steel Co. v. Citizens for a Better Environment, 523 U.S. 83, 118 S.Ct. 1003, 140 L.Ed. 2d 210 (1998). The United States Supreme Court must first consider whether it has jurisdiction to decide a case even if the parties to the action do not raise the issue of jurisdiction in their briefs on the merits. Florida v. Thomas, 532 U.S. 774, 121 S.Ct. 1905, 150 L.Ed. 2d 1 (2002). See 23 Ohio Jur. 3d § 412.

17. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. § 1257, in order for the United States Supreme Court to review the Ohio Supreme Court's judgment or decree by writ of certiorari, it must affirmatively appear from the record as whole that the federal claim was adequately presented to the highest court of the state in which a decision could be had and the claim was passed upon by that court. See Am. Jur. 2d. Appellate Review § 39; also 23 Ohio Jur. 3d § 410.

18. The record evidence will support that Newsome's Affidavit of Disqualification and/or (4) Newsome's filings in this matter, will support that Newsome has filed the applicable and required pleadings presenting federal claim(s) in which the Ohio Supreme Court is attempting to avoid having to address in FURTHERANCE of the CORRUPTION, CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome.

19. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. § 1257, the jurisdiction of the United States Supreme Court to review the Ohio Supreme Court's decision, is dependent upon the existence of a federal question in the case. The federal question must be real and substantial. Am. Jur. 2d Appellate Review § 34. Moreover, the United States Supreme Court cannot consider an alleged federal question when it appears that the question relied upon was not called to the attention of the state and considered by it. Capital City Diary Co. v. State of Ohio, 183 U.S. 238, 22 S.Ct. 120, 46 L. Ed. 171 (1902). Because the United States Supreme Court will refuse to consider any federal-law challenge to an Ohio Supreme Court's decision unless the federal claim(s) to be asserted through writ of certiorari was either addressed by or properly presented to the Ohio Supreme Court that is being asked to be reviewed. Howell v. Mississippi, 543 U.S. 440, 125 S.Ct. 856, 160 L.Ed. 2d 873 (2005). Newsome believes that the record evidence will sustain that there is sufficient facts, evidence and legal conclusions in the record of the Ohio Supreme Court and lower courts to sustain the existence of a federal question in the case; moreover, the federal question is one that is real and of substance. Furthermore, the CRIMINAL actions of Judge West and others which resulted in Newsome's filing of Complaints with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

20. Whether Newsome's pleadings submitted in this instant action sets up a sufficient right of action or defense grounded on the United States Constitution or laws of the United States is necessarily a question of federal law, and where a case from the Ohio Supreme Court presents that question, the United States Supreme Court must determine for itself their sufficiency of the allegations. Moreover, the United States Supreme Court is not precluded from reaching its own decision concerning such issues by the view taken of them by the Ohio Supreme Court. Allied Stores of Ohio, Inc. v. Bowers, 166 Ohio St. 116, 1 Ohio Op. 2d 342, 140 N.E. 2d 411 (1957), judgment aff'd, 358 U.S. 522, 79 S. Ct. 437, 3 L. Ed. 2d 480, 82 Ohio L. Abs. 312 (1959). See 23 Ohio Jur. 3d § 411.

21. Once Newsome has properly brought a federal claim before the Ohio Supreme Court, she can make any argument in support of that claim on certiorari to the United States Supreme Court. On Writ of Certiorari to the United States Supreme Court, Newsome will not be limited to the precise arguments that were made in her Affidavit of Disqualification. Newsome seeking review to the United States Supreme Court of a federal claim properly raised in the Ohio Supreme Court generally have the ability to frame the question(s) to be decided without being limited to the manner in which the question was presented in the Ohio Supreme Court. Am. Jur. 2d. Appellate Review § 36. The United States Supreme Court has jurisdiction to review a decision of the Ohio Supreme Court which is based upon both federal and a nonfederal ground, where the nonfederal ground is so interwoven with the other as not to be an independent basis for the decision. Milkovich v. Lorain Journal Co., 497 U.S. 1, 110 S. Ct. 2695, 111 L.Ed. 2d 1, 60 Ed. Law Rep. 1061 (1990). See 23 Ohio Jur. 3d § 411.

22. Newsome is confident that the record evidence will support that the Ohio Supreme Court through its JUDGMENT ENTRY denying the relief sought has willingly, knowingly, and maliciously sought to deprive Newsome rights secured under the Constitution and efforts taken to deprive Newsome the right to a JURY trial in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas action - which has been timely, properly and adequately DEMANDED through Newsome's Answer and Counterclaim in the lower court action and subsequent pleadings/filings by her. Moreover, Newsome has concerns that this Court may be attempting to COVER-UP the CORRUPTION, CONSPIRACY and CRIMINAL acts of the lower court judges through its July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry. Moreover, is attempting to avoid seeing that the proper actions are initiated to INVESTIGATE the lower court's judge's (John Andrew West) handling of matters and see that the proper punishment is rendered against said this judge and opposing counsel in that action as required by the OHIO CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT.

23. Because the Ohio Supreme Court has REFUSED to advise of any potential CONFLICT OF INTEREST with the Justices of its Court and parties to the action, INSURANCE Company(s), etc., Newsome has taken it upon herself to determine whether such Conflicts of Interest exist based upon information provided by Stor-All's counsel on February 6, 2009, during the hearing in the Hamilton County Municipal Court regarding Newsome's Motion to Transfer. Based upon Newsome's research, she has found information that is VERY DISTURBING and clearly support FINANCIAL

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS from Stor-All's (Plaintiff in the lower court action out of which this action is brought) Insurance Company's law firms to a MAJORITY of the Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court from Liberty Mutual's attorneys' law firms – such as:

(a) Frost Brown Todd LLC;
(b) Jones Day;
(c) Keating, Muething & Klekamp PL
(d) Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP;
(e) Squire, Sanders & Dempsey LLP;
(f) Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP;

See EXHIBIT "V" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. While these are only a select few of the law firms that Newsome pulled for this Exhibit, what is more disturbing is the amount of monies Justices received from these laws firms and/or others. While this Court in its July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry attempts to justify the RECEIPT of such contributions as lawful, to the CONTRARY. The laws are clear that it is a CRIMINAL offense to enter judgment/rulings that in which a reasonable mind may conclude, based upon the facts, evidence and legal conclusions, may sustain that decision is ARBITRARY and/or CAPRICIOUS and may have been influenced by such campaign contributions. Especially, when the actions/behavior of the factfinder is CONTRARY TO LAW – i.e. clearly goes against prior rulings of the court and/or other courts on the same issue.

24. From information Newsome has been able to obtain from research, the following financial contributions have been made by law firms represented by Liberty Mutual to Ohio Supreme Court Justices as follows:

JUSTICE	POLITICAL PARTY	LAW FIRM(S) WITH LIBERTY MUTUAL AS CLIENT	CONTRIBUTION
MOYER, THOMAS (Chief Justice)	Republican	Baker & Hostetler	$15,800
		Jones Day	$21,525
		Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP	$14,530

		TOTAL:	$74,925
O'CONNOR, MAUREEN	Republican	Jones Day	$12,700
		Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP	$10,075

CUPP, ROBERT	Republican	Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP	$12,610
		Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP	$18,350
		TOTAL:	$30,960
LAZINGER, JUDITH	Republican	Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP	$12,735
		TOTAL:	$12,735
O'DONNELL, TERRENCE	Republican	Baker & Hostetler	$30,475
		Jones Day	$37,025
		Squire, Sanders & Dempsey LLP	$30,600
		Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP	$39,925
		TOTAL:	$138,025

See EXHIBIT "V" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: ALL Justices are REPUBLICANS and ALL Justices are WHITE!! Information Newsome believes is PERTINENT in that the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her are indeed RACIALLY motivated.

25. Again, Newsome mentions Castner v. Colorado Springs Cablevision, 979 F.2d 1417, 1421 (10th Cir. 1992), a decision which addresses whether to appoint counsel requiring accommodation of two competing considerations. First, the court must consider Congress's "special . . . concern with legal representation with Title VII actions." Jenkins v. Chemical Bank, 721 F.2d 876, 879 (2nd Cir. 1983). In enacting the attorney appointment provision of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and later reaffirming the importance of that provision in the legislative history of the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, Congress demonstrated its awareness that Title VII claimants might not be able to take advantage of the federal remedy without appointment of counsel. As explained in House Report No. 92-238:

> By including this provision in the bill, the committee emphasizes that the nature of Title VII actions more often than not pits parties of unequal strength and resources against each other. The complainant, who is usually a member of the disadvantaged class, is opposed by an employer who . . . has at his disposal a vast of resources and legal talent.

H.R. Rep. No. 238, 92nd Cong., 2d Sess., reprinted in 1972 U.S.C.C.A.N. 2137, 2148. Why, because there is record evidence to support at what GREAT LENGTHS Judge

West, other Judges/Justices with an interest in the outcome of the lower court lawsuit, employers/landlords, their lawyers, their insurance companies and others opposing Newsome have gone to, to TIP-THE-SCALES of Justice in their favor and obtain rulings/decisions they knew were obtained through CORRUPTION and CONSPIRACY to Obstruct the Administration of Justice; moreover, deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution and/or other laws of the United States.

26. From information Newsome was able to obtain from research to support the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against her through STALKING and Pattern-of-Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct in CONSPIRACY and corruption in matters before Courts, that there is record evidence to support the following:

Law Firms Representing Liberty Mutual Clients	Present Status	State of Pending Lawsuit/Legal Action	Client
Baker Donelson	Submitted to the U.S. Legislature/Congress, U.S. Office of President and U.S. Attorney Office Attention – Awaiting Findings	New Orleans, Louisiana	Entergy
DunbarMonroe	Important to Note: Baker Donelson has an Office in Jackson, MS. Surely Liberty Mutual was aware of this fact. Newsome believes Baker Donelson was aware its representation would have alerted Newsome sooner of its involvement in STALKING, Pattern-of-Conduct/Pattern-of-Practices of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome. Submitted to the U.S. Legislature/Congress, U.S. Office of President and U.S. Attorney's Office's attention – Awaiting Findings	Jackson, Mississippi	Spring Lake Apartments
Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin	Ohio Supreme Court	Cincinnati, Ohio	Stor-All Alfred LLC
Markesbery & Richardson Co., LPA	Ohio Supreme Court		Stor-All Alfred LLC

27. To get an understanding as to the CONSPIRACY and CORRUPTION involving Judges and Justices involved in lawsuits brought by Newsome, as well as trying to figure out why Judges/Justices originally comply with the statutes/laws – ruling in favor of Newsome and upholding the laws; however, when given another opportunity to address issues (after opposing parties have availed themselves through POLITICAL connections and relationships to key government and judicial officials) have REPEATEDLY taken a far departure from the laws to deprive Newsome rights secured under the United States Constitution and laws of the United States for purposes of depriving her equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Newsome's research has found that such actions by Judges/Justices are RACIALLY, DISCRIMINATORILY and PREJUDICIALLY motivated. Furthermore, that Judges/Justices involved in lawsuits filed by Newsome have a direct PERSONAL and FINANCIAL interest in the outcome of case – SPECIAL relationships to Liberty Mutual's attorneys' law firms and the monies they pay into their campaigns. For example - See EXHIBIT "VI" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein:

> *James C. Sumner RECUSED himself from matter for reason as CONFLICT OF INTEREST. However, this was not the case with Judge Barbour or Judge Lee. The record in matter before said court will support request for recusal was sought. Nevertheless, Judge Lee was determined to throw the case and compromise the integrity of the Court for purposes of aiding Liberty Mutual's attorneys and others. Said information has been submitted to the appropriate government authorities addressing Newsome's matters in Washington, D.C.

It is a good thing that law firms (such as Baker Donelson) and/or Liberty Mutual enjoy BOASTING and/or BRAGGING about their relationships. In so doing, Newsome has been able to link them to the CRIMINAL stalking of Newsome, Pattern-of-Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct as well as relationships to the Judges/Justices in the lawsuits involving Newsome. Now since Newsome is going public and releasing such pleadings for review to the PUBLIC, Baker Donelson has attempted to move this information from original location at:

http://www.bakerdonelson.com/courtclerks.htm

the following location in which Newsome was able to find through her research/surfing of the Internet:

http://www.bakerdonelson.com/appellate-practice-sub-practice-areas/

CONCLUSION

The Affidavit of Disqualification was brought as a direct and proximate result of Judge John Andrew West's refusal to RECUSE himself and his ACTIVE/WILLING role in bias and prejudices harbored towards Newsome. Because of such bias/prejudices of Judge West towards Newsome, he lacks jurisdiction to proceed any further in this lower court action. The evidence contained in this Affidavit of Disqualification as well as this instant Motion for Reconsideration will support what African-Americans and/or people of color have known for quite some time:

a) Racial/Prejudicial biases in the application of the laws – the laws are not equally applied when whites are involved. Whites get more lenient sentences for criminal acts than that of African-Americans and/or people of color. However, Newsome in her Criminal Complaint filed with the FBI out of the completion of additional crimes and/or furtherance of crimes and conspiracies – to obtain the object pursued - is requesting the maximum punishment (fine and imprisonment) under the laws for such egregious criminal acts rendered her by those found to be guilty of the September 9-10, 2009, crimes carried out against her as well as those reported by this Court in its December 2009 criminal conduct leveled against Newsome. This instant pleading will further support how Stor-All has used its vast financial and legal resources for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in this lawsuit and has relied upon special favors by Judge John Andrew West and others to obtain rulings in its favor that are contrary to statutes/laws governing said matters.

b) Racial profiling. Stalking of Newsome, etc. for purposes of attempting to get her to commit a crime and/or crimes – i.e. which backfired and Stor-All, its representatives and others instead being those who have engaged in criminal activities similar to those in which O.J. Simpson was found guilty of. Moreover, this Court's Justices/Officials allowed themselves to be induced to commit such crimes as that of Judge Bobby DeLaughter in the handling of Orders/Rulings by this Court.

c) Deprivation of rights, obstruction of justice, conspiracy to interfere with civil rights through the obstruction of justice. Deprivation of equal protection of the laws and due process of laws – rights secured under the Constitution (Ohio and United States), Civil Rights Act and other governing statutes/laws.

d) Racial discrimination, discrimination in employment, discrimination in the handling of judicial lawsuits, etc.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Newsome reiterates the issues/defenses presented in her Affidavit of Disqualification as well as this instant Motion for Reconsideration and other pleadings filed with the Ohio Supreme Court to support this instant Motion for Reconsideration and, hereby, moves this honorable Court to GRANT the relief sought through this instant filing. Moreover, any and all applicable relief the Ohio Supreme Court deems just and fair to correct the legal wrongs complained of herein. Newsome moves this Court through this instant Motion for Reconsideration to VACATE its July 17, 2010 Judgment Entry and GRANT Newsome the relief sought herein as well as in her Affidavit of Disqualification.

Respectfully submitted this 26th day of July, 2010.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS and
BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER

CRIMINAL CASE NO. 3:09CR002
18 U.S.C. § 2
18 U.S.C. § 371
18 U.S.C. § 666
18 U.S.C. §§ 1341 & 1346
18 U.S.C. § 1512

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

At all times relevant and material to this Indictment:

1. Defendant RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS was an attorney licensed to practice in the State of Mississippi and a member of a private law firm, Richard F. Scruggs, P.A., known as "The Scruggs Law Firm."

2. BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER was a public officer and a duly elected official serving the State of Mississippi in the capacity of Circuit Court Judge for Hinds County, Mississippi, part of the Seventh Circuit Court District, a subdivision of the judicial branch of the State of Mississippi.

3. Under the Constitution and laws of the State of Mississippi and pursuant to the Code of Judicial Conduct and under his oath, BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER owed a duty of fair and honest services to the people of the State of Mississippi.

4. BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER was the presiding judge assigned to the case of Wilson v. Scruggs, Cause No. 251-94-582, pending for a decade in the Circuit Court of Hinds County, Mississippi, a case in which Wilson sued Scruggs, his former associate, for millions of dollars in legal fees resulting from asbestos litigation.

5. During the summer, 2005, RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS asked Joseph C. Langston and the Langston Law Firm (not named as defendants herein) to take over the lead as chief counsel in the Wilson case.

Count One

6. From on or about July, 2005 until on or about October, 2007, in the Northern District of Mississippi and elsewhere, RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS, defendant, Joseph C. Langston, Timothy R. Balducci, Steven A. Patterson and Ed Peters, not named as defendants herein, and Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, defendant, did knowingly and willfully conspire with each other and with others to the grand jury known and unknown to corruptly give, offer and agree to give, and in the case of Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER to accept and to agree to accept for himself and others, anything of value with the intent that Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, as an agent of a state and local government, would be corruptly influenced and rewarded in connection with his handling of the Wilson case, then the business of such government and judicial agency involving a thing of value of $5,000 or more, when such government and judicial agency received in a one-year period benefits in excess of $10,000 under a federal program, in violation of Section 666 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

7. It was part of the conspiracy that Ed Peters would be used secretly and corruptly to influence his very close friend BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER and that BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER's aspirations to become a federal judge would also be exploited in order to secretly and corruptly obtain rulings from the court that while not plainly unlawful, would ultimately minimize Scruggs' financial liability and preclude his exposure to excessive damages.

8. It was further part of the conspiracy that Ed Peters, an attorney, would not officially enter an appearance as counsel of record in the case of Wilson v. Scruggs, so that his involvement on behalf of Scruggs would be unknown to the Wilson legal team.

OVERT ACTS

9. During and in furtherance of the conspiracy and to promote and accomplish its objectives, the co-conspirators committed one or more of the following overt acts:

a. On or about July, 2005, at New Albany, Mississippi, in the Northern District of Mississippi, RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS asked Joseph C. Langston and the Langston Law Firm to take the lead in the case of Wilson v. Scruggs, Cause No. 251-94-582, pending in the Circuit Court of Hinds County, Mississippi, in the Southern District of Mississippi.

b. On or about August 2005, Joseph C. Langston, Timothy R. Balducci and Steven A. Patterson flew from the Northern District of Mississippi to the Southern District of Mississippi and paid Ed Peters $50,000 cash in order to procure his assistance in corruptly influencing his very close friend Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, in connection with the Wilson case.

c. On or about January 19, 2006, Joseph C. Langston and Timothy R. Balducci, lawyers with the Langston Law Firm in Booneville, Mississippi, in the Northern District of Mississippi, entered appearances as attorneys of record for RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS in the case of Wilson v. Scruggs, Cause No. 251-94-582, pending in the Circuit Court of Hinds County, Mississippi, in the Southern District of Mississippi.

d. On or about January 24, 2006, Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER accepted a secret, ex parte communication from the Scruggs legal team, essentially reversing his earlier ruling and accepting, almost verbatim, a scheduling order favorable to Scruggs.

e. On or about February 27, 2006, Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER secretly provided the Scruggs legal team with an ex parte advance copy of a court order in the Wilson case by electronically mailing the same to Ed Peters.

f. On or about August 2005 until on or about August 2006, Ed Peters had a number of improper ex parte meetings with Judge Delaughter designed and intended to secretly influence the judge to shade his rulings in favor of Scruggs.

g. On or about August 2005 until on or about August 2006, Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER secretly and corruptly communicated with the Scruggs legal team through Ed Peters, affording them a unique and valuable opportunity to foresee and attempt to influence his rulings.

h. On or about March 29, 2006, in order to exploit Judge Delaughter's aspirations to become a federal judge, RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS caused his brother-in-law, then a United States Senator from Mississippi, to offer Judge Delaughter consideration for appointment to a federal judgeship then open in the Southern District of Mississippi.

i. From on or about October, 2006, until on or about October, 2007, Joseph C. Langston wired approximately $950,000 from his law office in Booneville, Mississippi, in the Northern District of Mississippi, to Ed Peters for his role in corruptly influencing Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

Count Two

10. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1-5 preceding Count One of this Indictment are realleged and incorporated herein as though wholly set forth herein.

11. From on or about July, 2005, until on or about October, 2007, in the Northern District of Mississippi and elsewhere, RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS, defendant, Joseph C. Langston, Timothy R. Balducci, Steven A. Patterson, and Edward Peters, none of whom are named as defendants herein, and BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, defendant, aided and abetted by each other, devised and executed and intended to devise and execute a scheme and artifice to defraud the plaintiff in the Hinds County Circuit Court case of Wilson v. Scruggs, Cause No. 251-94-582, thereby depriving the plaintiff and the citizens of the State of Mississippi of their intangible right to the honest services of Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, who as circuit court judge had a duty to perform impartially, without affording either side an unfair advantage or secret access to the court.

THE PURPOSE OF THE SCHEME

12. The purpose of the scheme was to ensure that Scruggs enjoyed an unlawful advantage, in secret and unknown to the plaintiffs. RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS and his legal team consisting of Joseph C. Langston, Timothy R. Balducci and non-lawyer Steven A. Patterson devised a scheme and artifice to secretly and corruptly influence Hinds County Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER by exploiting two vulnerabilities: first, his close association with former district attorney Ed Peters and, second, his known ambition to become a federal judge. Langston, Balducci and Patterson paid Ed Peters $50,000 cash and Langston later paid Peters an additional $950,000, all for the purpose of using Ed Peters to influence BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER. Additionally, RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS prevailed upon his brother-in-law, then a United States Senator from Mississippi, to offer Judge Delaughter consideration for a federal district judgeship then open in the Southern District of Mississippi. All of this occurred as the Wilson v. Scruggs case gained intensity and proceeded to a final resolution in Judge Delaughter's court. In return, Judge Delaughter afforded the Scruggs legal team secret access to the court by way of Ed Peters, forwarding them advance copies of his rulings and proposed orders on issues before the court and on one occasion accepting from the Scruggs legal team a scheduling order favorable to Scruggs, which the court then adopted, almost verbatim.

USE OF THE MAIL

13. On or about January 19, 2006, for the purpose of executing and attempting to execute the aforesaid scheme and artifice to defraud in the Northern District of Mississippi and elsewhere, defendant RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS, aided and abetted by other non-defendants named but not charged herein, and Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, defendant, knowingly caused to be deposited in a post office or other authorized depository for mail matter in the Northern District of Mississippi to be delivered by the Postal Service according to the directions thereon, Joseph C. Langston's and Timothy R. Balducci's Entry of Appearance for filing in the Hinds County Circuit Court case of Wilson v. Scruggs, Cause No. 251-94-582.

All in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2, 1341 and 1346.

Count Three

14. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1-5 and in paragraphs 10-12 of this indictment are realleged and incorporated herein as though wholly set forth herein.

15. On or about February 27, 2006, for the purpose of executing and attempting to execute the aforesaid scheme and artifice to defraud in the Northern District of Mississippi and elsewhere, defendant RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS, aided and abetted by other non-defendants named but not charged herein, and Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, defendant, knowingly caused to be deposited in a post office or other authorized depository for mail matter to be delivered by the Postal Service in the Northern District of Mississippi according to the directions thereon, Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER's "Memorandum Opinion and Order Adopting in Part and Rejecting in Part Special Master's Report and Recommendation of January 9, 2006" in the Hinds County Circuit Court case of Wilson v. Scruggs, Cause No. 251-94-582.

All in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2, 1341 and 1346.

Count Four

16. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1-5 and in paragraphs 10-12 of this indictment are realleged and incorporated herein as though wholly set forth herein.

17. On or about July 7, 2006, for the purpose of executing and attempting to execute the aforesaid scheme and artifice to defraud in the Northern District of Mississippi and elsewhere, defendant RICHARD F. "DICKIE" SCRUGGS, aided and abetted by other non-defendants named but not charged herein, and Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, defendant, knowingly caused to be deposited in a post office or other authorized depository for mail matter to be delivered by the Postal Service in the Northern District of Mississippi according to the directions thereon, Circuit Judge BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER's "Order Quantifying Moneys Due Plaintiffs from Defendants" in the Hinds County Circuit Court case of Wilson v. Scruggs, Cause No. 251-94-582.

All in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2, 1341 and 1346.

Count Five

18. On or about December 10, 2007, in the Northern District of Mississippi and elsewhere, BOBBY B. DELAUGHTER, defendant, did corruptly attempt to obstruct, influence and impede an official proceeding, that is, while being interviewed by FBI agents in connection with an official federal corruption investigation and grand jury proceeding, he stated that he "never spoke to Ed Peters regarding . . . ." substantive issues related to the case of Wilson v. Scruggs, at a time when said case was pending in his court, when in truth and fact he had corruptly discussed with Ed Peters substantive issues in the Wilson v. Scruggs case on numerous occasions and knew Peters was secretly acting on behalf of Scruggs' lawyers in an attempt to gain favorable rulings for Scruggs, at a time when Peters was not counsel of record, all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1512(c)(2).

Feds Recommend 18 Month Sentence For Bobby DeLaughter

Judge DeLaughter Pleads Guilty To Federal Charge...

Associated Press and Staff Reports
Published: July 30, 2009
Updated: July 30, 2009

Hinds County Circuit Judge Bobby DeLaughter has pleaded guilty in court to a federal charge against him in Aberdeen. The government has dropped the other 4 counts against him. The government has recommended an 18 month sentence, however the charge carries a maximum sentence of 20 years. The judge won't sentence him until a presenting report is completed in about 5 weeks. Also this morning DeLaughter handed in his resignation from the court to Gov. Haley Barbour this morning.

The charge DeLaughter pleaded guilty to was for lying to an FBI agent who was investigating a judicial corruption case involving former prominent lawyer Richard "Dickie" Scruggs.

An indictment accused DeLaughter of attempting to obstruct, influence and impede an official proceeding while being interviewed. Prosecutors accused DeLaughter of ruling in favor of Scruggs, a once powerful Mississippi lawyer who is now in prison, in hopes that Scruggs would use his connections to help DeLaughter get appointed to a federal judgeship.

Mississippi Judge Bobby DeLaughter Admits He Lied to FBI

Mississippi judge Bobby DeLaughter pleads guilty to lying to FBI agent

Miss. — Mississippi judge Bobby DeLaughter pleaded guilty to an obstruction of justice charge after lying to an FBI agent during an investigation into corruption.

In return for DeLaughter admitting guilt, conspiracy and mail fraud charges were dropped by prosecutors.

Previously, DeLaughter had been accused of giving an unfair advantage to former attorney Richard Richard "Dickie" Scruggs; who won millions from asbestos lawsuits.

(Scruggs, father and son, are in prison.)

Prosecutors recommended an 18-month prison sentence for Delaughter.

Washington (CNN) -- The House of Representatives voted unanimously Thursday to impeach Judge G. Thomas Porteous Jr. of U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, making him the nation's 15th federal judge ever impeached.

"Our investigation found that Judge Porteous participated in a pattern of corrupt conduct for years," said U.S. Rep. Adam Schiff, D-California, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee Task Force on Judicial Impeachment.

"Litigants have the right to expect a judge hearing their case will be fair and impartial, and avoid even the appearance of impropriety. Regrettably, no one can have that expectation in Judge Porteous' courtroom."

After the impeachment vote, Schiff and Rep. Bob Goodlatte, R-Virginia, were named the lead impeachment managers for the Senate trial, which will decide whether to remove Porteous from the bench.

"Today's vote marks only the second time in over 20 years that this has occurred," Goodlatte said in a House news release. "However, when evidence emerges that an individual is abusing his judicial office for his own advantage, the integrity of the entire judicial system becomes compromised."

In a statement, Porteous' lawyer Richard W. Westling said the Justice Department had decided not to prosecute because it did not have credible evidence.

"Unfortunately, the House has decided to disregard the Justice Department's decision and to move forward with impeachment. As a result, we will now turn to the Senate to seek a full and fair hearing of all of the evidence."

In a telephone interview, Westling said he did not know when the Senate trial would be held. "There are no clear rules that dictate timing," he said.

Last year, the Task Force on Judicial Impeachment held evidentiary hearings that led to unanimous approval of the four articles of impeachment, citing evidence that Porteous "intentionally made material false statements and representations under penalty of perjury, engaged in a corrupt kickback scheme, solicited and accepted unlawful gifts, and intentionally misled the Senate during his confirmation proceedings," the House release said.

Porteous was appointed to the federal bench in 1994.

In 2007, after an FBI and federal grand jury investigation, the Justice Department alleged "pervasive misconduct" by Porteous and evidence "that Judge Porteous may have violated federal and state criminal laws, controlling canons of judicial conduct, rules of professional responsibility, and conducted himself in a manner antithetical to the constitutional standard of good behavior required of all federal judges."

EXHIBIT 12

The complaint said the department opted not to seek criminal charges for reasons that included issues of statute of limitations and other factors. But Westling said the statute of limitations was not applicable.

An Impeachment Task Force held four hearings late last year that focused on allegations of misconduct by Porteous, including:

-- Involvement in a corrupt kickback scheme

-- Failure to recuse himself from a case he was involved in

-- Allegations that Porteous made false and misleading statements, including concealing debts and gambling losses

-- Allegations that Porteous asked for and accepted "numerous things of value, including meals, trips, home and car repairs, for his personal use and benefit" while taking official actions on behalf of his benefactors

-- Allegations that Porteous lied about his past to the U.S. Senate and to the FBI about his nomination to the federal bench "in order to conceal corrupt relationships," Schiff said in his floor statement as prepared for delivery

Porteous was invited to testify, but he declined to do so, Schiff said. "His long-standing pattern of corrupt activity, so utterly lacking in honesty and integrity, demonstrates his unfitness to serve as a United States District Court judge," he said.

Porteous, 63, has not worked as a judge since he was suspended with pay in the fall of 2008, Westling said.

The last federal judge impeachment occurred last year, when Judge Samuel B. Kent of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas resigned after being impeached on charges of sexual assault, obstructing and impeding an official proceeding, and making false and misleading statements, according to the Web site of the Federal Judicial Center.

The Senate, sitting as a court of impeachment, dismissed the articles.

Before then, Judge Walter L. Nixon of U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi was impeached in 1989 on charges of perjury before a federal grand jury. The Senate convicted him and removed him from office that year.

Senate Begins Impeachment Trial of Federal Judge

Published September 13, 2010 | Associated Press

WASHINGTON -- A federal judge from Louisiana is corrupt and unfit to serve on the bench, House members said Monday as they began a rare congressional impeachment trial by laying out their case against the jurist.

Playing the role of prosecutors, Reps. Adam Schiff, D-Calif., and Bob Goodlatte, R-Va., used their opening statements to a Senate impeachment panel to outline what they called a decades-long pattern of unethical behavior by New Orleans-area U.S. District Judge G. Thomas Porteous.

They said that included taking cash, expensive meals and gifts from lawyers and a bail bondsman, lying to Congress and filing for bankruptcy under a false name.

"It is the unanimous view of the House of Representatives that his conduct is not only wrong but so violative of the public trust that he cannot be allowed to remain on the bench without making a mockery of the court system," Schiff said.

Porteous' attorney, Jonathan Turley, denied some allegations but acknowledged others such as accepting meals, which he said is perfectly legal. He said the judge's behavior, while perhaps reflecting poor judgment, doesn't meet the high crimes and misdemeanors standard set in the Constitution for impeachment.

"Judge Porteous has never been indicted, let alone convicted, of any crime," Turley said. "What the Congress has impeached this judge for is an appearance of impropriety."

Turley also said much of the conduct in question occurred when Porteous was a state judge and that Congress would be breaking from precedent by convicting him for behavior that occurred before he joined the federal bench.

The Senate trial is the first since the 1999 case against former President Bill Clinton. Porteous, who was appointed by Clinton in 1994, would be just the eighth judge to be impeached and convicted by Congress.

The House voted unanimously in March to impeach Porteous. A two-thirds vote is needed in the Senate to convict him.

Senators hearing the case appear ready to resolve it quickly, scheduling a series of all-day hearings this week and next.

Porteous' behavior was uncovered in a five-year FBI investigation in Jefferson Parish dubbed "Operation Wrinkled Robe." Although the sting netted convictions against more than a dozen others, Porteous was never charged with a crime. He was, however, suspended from the bench.

Turley said Porteous, 63, plans to retire next year regardless of what happens.

Senate opens impeachment trial against judge

WASHINGTON -- A federal judge from Louisiana is corrupt and unfit to serve on the bench, House members said Monday as they began a rare congressional impeachment trial by laying out their case against the jurist.

Playing the role of prosecutors, Reps. bring charges. A two-thirds vote is needed in the Senate to convict him.

The Senate panel hearing the case, chaired by Sen. Claire McCaskill, D-Mo., appears ready to resolve it quickly, scheduling a series of all-day hearings this week and next.

House investigators who spent months investigating say Porteous was struggling with drinking and gambling and had racked up more than $150,000 in credit card debt by 2000, mostly for cash advances spent in casinos.

Most of Monday's testimony involved a close relationship that Porteous maintained with t wo attorneys who once worked with the judge, Robert Creely and Jacob Amato.

As they did earlier before House investigators, the two acknowledged giving Porteous thousands of dollars in cash going back to the 1980s, including about $2,000 stuffed in an envelope in 1999, just before Porteous decided a major civil case in their client's favor. They also acknowledged taking him on trips such as one to Las Vegas for a bachelor party for the judge's son, at which Creely said he helped pay for an expensive meal, a hotel room and dancing at a strip club.

Creely and Amato, however, said they never received favorable treatment from Porteous and that they gave him money only because he was a longtime friend who needed help.

Porteous' behavior was uncovered in a five-year FBI investigation in Jefferson Parish dubbed "Operation Wrinkled Robe." Although the sting netted convictions against more than a dozen others, Porteous was never charged with a crime. He was, however, suspended from the bench, and the Judicial Conference of the United States recommended that Congress consider impeachment.

Turley said Porteous, 63, plans to retire next year regardless of what happens.

Impeaching G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, for high crimes and misdemeanors.
United States House Committee on the Judiciary

Introduced by Representative John Conyers, Jr. on January 21, 2010.

RESOLUTION

Resolved, That G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., a judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, is impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and that the following articles of impeachment be exhibited to the Senate:

Articles of impeachment exhibited by the House of Representatives of the United States of America in the name of itself and all of the people of the United States of America, against G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., a judge in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, in maintenance and support of its impeachment against him for high crimes and misdemeanors.

Article I

G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., while a Federal judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, engaged in a pattern of conduct that is incompatible with the trust and confidence placed in him as a Federal judge, as follows:

Judge Porteous, while presiding as a United States district judge in Lifemark Hospitals of Louisiana, Inc. v. Liljeberg Enterprises, denied a motion to recuse himself from the case, despite the fact that he had a corrupt financial relationship with the law firm of Amato & Creely, P.C. which had entered the case to represent Liljeberg. In denying the motion to recuse, and in contravention of clear canons of judicial ethics, Judge Porteous failed to disclose that beginning in or about the late 1980s while he was a State court judge in the 24th Judicial District Court in the State of Louisiana, he engaged in a corrupt scheme with attorneys, Jacob Amato, Jr., and Robert Creely, whereby Judge Porteous appointed Amato's law partner as a `curator' in hundreds of cases and thereafter requested and accepted from Amato & Creely a portion of the curatorship fees which had been paid to the firm. During the period of this scheme, the fees received by Amato & Creely amounted to approximately $40,000, and the amounts paid by Amato & Creely to Judge Porteous amounted to approximately $20,000.

Judge Porteous also made intentionally misleading statements at the recusal hearing intended to minimize the extent of his personal relationship with the two attorneys. In so doing, and in failing to disclose to Lifemark and its counsel the true circumstances of his relationship with the Amato & Creely law firm, Judge Porteous deprived the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals of critical information for its review of a petition for a writ of mandamus, which sought to overrule Judge Porteous's denial of the recusal motion. His conduct deprived the parties and the public of the right to the honest services of his office.

Judge Porteous also engaged in corrupt conduct after the Lifemark v. Liljeberg bench trial, and while he had the case under advisement, in that he solicited and accepted things of value from both Amato and his law partner Creely, including a payment of thousands of dollars in cash. Thereafter, and without disclosing his corrupt relationship with the attorneys of Amato & Creely PLC or his receipt from them of cash and other things of value, Judge Porteous ruled in favor of their client, Liljeberg.

By virtue of this corrupt relationship and his conduct as a Federal judge, Judge Porteous brought his court into scandal and disrepute, prejudiced public respect for, and confidence in, the Federal judiciary, and demonstrated that he is unfit for the office of Federal judge.

Wherefore, Judge G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., is guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors and should be removed from office.

Article II

G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., engaged in a longstanding pattern of corrupt conduct that demonstrates his unfitness to serve as a United States District Court Judge. That conduct included the following: Beginning in or about the late 1980s while he was a State court judge in the 24th Judicial District Court in the State of Louisiana, and continuing while he was a Federal judge in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, Judge Porteous engaged in a corrupt relationship with bail bondsman Louis M. Marcotte, III, and his sister Lori Marcotte. As part of this corrupt relationship, Judge Porteous solicited and accepted numerous things of value, including meals, trips, home repairs, and car repairs, for his personal use and benefit, while at the same time taking official actions that benefitted the Marcottes. These official actions by Judge Porteous included, while on the State bench, setting, reducing, and splitting bonds as requested by the Marcottes, and improperly setting aside or expunging felony convictions for two Marcotte employees (in one case after Judge Porteous had been confirmed by the Senate but before being sworn in as a Federal judge). In addition, both while on the State bench and on the Federal bench, Judge Porteous used the power and prestige of his office to assist the Marcottes in forming relationships with State judicial officers and individuals important to the Marcottes' business. As Judge Porteous well knew and understood, Louis Marcotte also made false statements to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in an effort to assist Judge Porteous in being appointed to the Federal bench.

Accordingly, Judge G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., has engaged in conduct so utterly lacking in honesty and integrity that he is guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors, is unfit to hold the office of Federal judge, and should be removed from office.

Article III

Beginning in or about March 2001 and continuing through about July 2004, while a Federal judge in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., engaged in a pattern of conduct inconsistent with the trust and confidence placed in him as a Federal judge by knowingly and intentionally making material false statements and representations under penalty of perjury related to his personal bankruptcy filing and by repeatedly violating a court order in his bankruptcy case. Judge Porteous did so by--

(1) using a false name and a post office box address to conceal his identity as the debtor in the case;

(2) concealing assets;

(3) concealing preferential payments to certain creditors;

(4) concealing gambling losses and other gambling debts; and

(5) incurring new debts while the case was pending, in violation of the bankruptcy court's order.

In doing so, Judge Porteous brought his court into scandal and disrepute, prejudiced public respect for and confidence in the Federal judiciary, and demonstrated that he is unfit for the office of Federal judge.

Wherefore, Judge G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., is guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors and should be removed from office.

Article IV

In 1994, in connection with his nomination to be a judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., knowingly made material false statements about his past to both the United States Senate and to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in order to obtain the office of United States District Court Judge. These false statements included the following:

(1) On his Supplemental SF-86, Judge Porteous was asked if there was anything in his personal life that could be used by someone to coerce or blackmail him, or if there was anything in his life that could cause an embarrassment to Judge Porteous or the President if publicly known. Judge Porteous answered `no' to this question and signed the form under the warning that a false statement was punishable by law.

(2) During his background check, Judge Porteous falsely told the Federal Bureau of Investigation on two separate occasions that he was not concealing any activity or conduct that could be used to influence, pressure, coerce, or compromise him in any way or that would impact negatively on his character, reputation, judgment, or discretion.

(3) On the Senate Judiciary Committee's `Questionnaire for Judicial Nominees', Judge Porteous was asked whether any unfavorable information existed that could affect his nomination. Judge Porteous answered that, to the best of his knowledge, he did `not know of any unfavorable information that may affect [his] nomination'. Judge Porteous signed that questionnaire by swearing that `the information provided in this statement is, to the best of my knowledge, true and accurate'.

However, in truth and in fact, as Judge Porteous then well knew, each of these answers was materially false because Judge Porteous had engaged in a corrupt relationship with the law firm Amato & Creely, whereby Judge Porteous appointed Creely as a `curator' in hundreds of cases and thereafter requested and accepted from Amato & Creely a portion of the curatorship fees which had been paid to the firm and also had engaged in a corrupt relationship with Louis and Lori Marcotte, whereby Judge Porteous solicited and accepted numerous things of value, including meals, trips, home repairs, and car repairs, for his personal use and benefit, while at the same time taking official actions that benefitted the Marcottes. As Judge Porteous well knew and understood, Louis Marcotte also made false statements to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in an effort to assist Judge Porteous in being appointed to the Federal bench. Judge Porteous's failure to disclose these corrupt relationships deprived the United States Senate and the public of information that would have had a material impact on his confirmation.

Wherefore, Judge G. Thomas Porteous, Jr., is guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors and should be removed from office.

RE: Stor-All Alfred, LLC v. Denise V. Newsome; Hamilton County Municipal Court-Hamilton County, Ohio; Case No. 09CV01690

Dear Mr. Meranus:

This will confirm the Court hearing on today in regards to the above referenced matter. As you know, this case has been transferred to the Common Pleas Court as my counterclaim exceeds the Municipal Court's jurisdiction.

This will confirm that during the signing of the attached Magistrate's Decision, you brought to my attention your knowledge of legal actions brought by me in New Orleans, Louisiana. Information I believe a reasonable mind will conclude has no bearing on the above referenced lawsuit. I gather your bringing of this information was done to blackmail and/or extort monies from me – thinking I was going to drop my Counter-Claim against your client. I gathered from the way you presented the information to me, you that I was going to back down. To your disappointment, I advised you that I had a feeling that there were illegal motives behind the filing of this lawsuit on behalf of your client (Stor-All Alfred, LLC). It also appears your arrogance got the best of you. At least I now have additional information as to the reason and ill motives behind you and/or your client contacting Wood & Lamping and the reasons underlying my termination (along with the Conflict of Interest – Thomas J. Breed's relationship with Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin – my working directly with Breed at Wood & Lamping and the conflict that would arise if Wood & Lamping were to represent me in this matter. So to appease you and your client, my employment with Wood & Lamping was terminated and I was denied rights under the Family & Medical Leave Act, etc.) SHAME, SHAME, SHAME!!!!!!

I advised you that I was just up in Washington, D.C. in December 2008 addressing concerns of such unlawful/criminal acts committed by you and/or your client. This stalking, harassing, etc. me from state-to-state, job-to-job (CONTACTING MY EMPLOYER), is clearly prohibited by laws/statutes and clearly in violation of my Constitutional Rights (Ohio and United States), Civil Rights, Landlord & Tenant Act, etc. Thanks for confirming my beliefs as to Wood & Lamping's motives. This is well deserved information.

While you seemed to be comfortable in advising me that it is the insurance company that is going to pay the liability, what you failed to understand is that the divulgence of your knowledge of matters regarding me in New Orleans, Louisiana opens the doors for additional claims of and against you, your law firm (Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin), Stor-All Alfred, LLC, Wood & Lamping and who knows who else. I THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU. . . . . for such good news. I shared during my trip to Washington, D.C. continued concerns of conspiracies to destroy my life, liberties and pursuit of happiness, etc. and such willful, malicious and wanton acts as that committed by you and others to continue to cause me irreparable harm/injury.

My termination from employment with Wood & Lamping, LLP, your acknowledgment in Court today in efforts of extorting and/or blackmailing me, (along with other reasons known to you) etc. is clearly UNACCEPTABLE!!!! Your acts which not only violate the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, but that of the Ohio Code of Professional Conduct and/or other statutes/laws governing such matters. You are aware that I have filed the appropriate Motion for Sanctions and through this motion am I not only seeking sanctions but, if possible, your disbarment. When you use your profession to interfere with the life of another for unlawful/illegal gain; moreover, for racial and/or prejudicial reasons, I do not believe as an "officer of the court" that you uphold neither the integrity nor the respect of the Court and/or judicial process. The criminal/civil wrongs you, your client and others have committed against me have cause irreparable injury/harm and such acts which cannot go unaddressed.

Again, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU. . . . You know this is news/information that needs to be shared. This was the nail I needed to expose and shine the light on such criminal/civil wrong. Did you and others in cohort with you not understand the message sent on November 4, 2008 (Presidential Election) – CHANGE, NOT MORE OF THE SAME!!!!

Should you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

RE: Stor-All Alfred, LLC v. Denise V. Newsome; Hamilton County Municipal Court-Hamilton County, Ohio; Case No. 09CV01690

Dear Mr. Meranus:

This will confirm the Court hearing on today in regards to the above referenced matter. As you know, this case has been transferred to the Common Pleas Court as my counterclaim exceeds the Municipal Court's jurisdiction.

This will confirm that during the signing of the attached Magistrate's Decision, you brought to my attention your knowledge of legal actions brought by me in New Orleans, Louisiana. Information I believe a reasonable mind will conclude has no bearing on the above referenced lawsuit. I gather your bringing of this information was done to blackmail and/or extort monies from me – thinking I was going to drop my Counter-Claim against your client. I gathered from the way you presented the information to me, you that I was going to back down. To your disappointment, I advised you that I had a feeling that there were illegal motives behind the filing of this lawsuit on behalf of your client (Stor-All Alfred, LLC). It also appears your arrogance got the best of you. At least I now have additional information as to the reason and ill motives behind you and/or your client contacting Wood & Lamping and the reasons underlying my termination (along with the Conflict of Interest –

vs.
HAMILTON COUNTY MUNICIPAL COURT and JUDGE NADINE L. ALLEN 1000 Main Street Cincinnati, OH 45202 Defendants	:	In the Hamilton County Municipal Court Case No. 09CV01690

EMERGENCY WRIT OF PROHIBITION AND SUPPORTING AFFIDAVITS

COMES NOW Plaintiff/Relator, named as Denise V. Newsome ("Plaintiff" and/or "Relator") and files this instant EMERGENCY WRIT OF PROHIBITION in the Supreme Court of Ohio. In further support thereof, Defendant states:

1. The Relator is the defendant in an eviction/civil action that was originally filed bearing the Docket/Case No. 09CV0160 which was instituted on or about January 20, 2009, in the Hamilton County Municipal Court in order to have the Defendant evicted.

2. An action in which party (Stor-All Alfred, LLC) is attempting to have Relator evicted from property in which is already in illegal/unlawful possession of.

3. The Defendants are the Hamilton County Municipal Court in Hamilton County, Ohio (hereinafter called "the Municipal Court") and the judges of said court.

4. On or about January 23, 2009, the Relator was served with process and copy of the complaint in that action.

5. Thereafter, the Relator on or about January 29, 2009, moved to have the matter transferred to the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas on the ground that the Municipal Court lacked jurisdiction in that the amount sought through her compulsory[1] Counterclaim exceeded the Municipal Court's jurisdiction. Therefore, the Municipal Court lacked jurisdiction over that action but it is the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas who has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action.

6. An eviction action which was properly met with a compulsory Counterclaim which exceeds the Municipal Court's jurisdiction.[2]

7. On February 6, 2009, the Magistrate Judge in the Municipal Court granted Relator's Motion to Transfer matter to the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas. Said action by the Magistrate Judge was in compliance with the statutes/laws governing said matters in that the relief sought through the original compulsory Counterclaim exceeded the Municipal Court's jurisdiction.[3] The parties to the action executed and agreed to the Magistrate's Decision to have the matter transferred to the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas. See EXHIBIT "1" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

8. The transfer of this matter to the Hamilton County Municipal Court is in compliance with the statutes/laws governing said matters.[4]

13. The Municipal Court's record will support that on June 26, 2009, Relator filed with the Municipal Court a timely pleading entitled, "DEFENDANT'S NOTIFICATION TO THE COURTS OF APPEAL PROCESS BEGUN – TRANSFER/REMAND IS IN ERROR – Court of Common Pleas' Engagement in Criminal Activity."

14. The Municipal Court's record will support that on or about August 1, 2009, Relator filed with the Municipal Court a timely pleading entitled, "NOTIFICATION: DEFENDANT'S REITERATION OF NON-WAIVER TO JURISDICTION."

15. Despite Relator's repeated efforts to notify the Municipal/Judge Nadine L. Allen that it lacked jurisdiction, such efforts failed.

16. The action was scheduled for a hearing on the plaintiff's (Stor-All Alfred, LLC) Motion for Summary Judgment on September 9, 2009, in the Municipal Court.

17. In learning of the September 9, 2009 hearing on Stor-All Alfred, LLC's Motion for Summary Judgment to be held in the Municipal Court, Relator timely, properly and adequately notified said court that it lacked jurisdiction over the subject matter. The record evidence of said Court will support that on August 27, 2009, Relator filed her "NOTIFICATION: DEFENDANT'S REITERATION OF NON-WAIVER TO JURISDICTION – DEFENDANT WILL NOT BE ATTENDING HEARING SCHEDULED FOR SEPTEMBER 9, 2009; REQUEST TO KNOW WHEATHER PROHIBITION ACTION WILL BE NECESSARY." See proof from excerpt only (Title page & signature page) of said filing attached hereto at EXHIBIT "2" and incorporated by reference.

18. On September 9, 2009, the Municipal Court/Judge Nadine L. Allen executed a Writ of Execution. A copy of which is attached as EXHIBIT "3" and incorporated herein by reference. Judge Nadine L. Allen executing said Writ of Execution with knowledge that she and/or said court lacked jurisdiction/subject matter jurisdiction.

19. On or about September 9, 2009, the Municipal Court/Judge Nadine L. Allen executed an ENTRY GRANTING WRIT OF IMMEDIATE POSSESSION AND PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT. A copy of said Entry is attached hereto at EXHIBIT "4" and incorporated herein.

Judge Nadine L. Allen executing said Writ of Execution with knowledge that she and/or said court lacked jurisdiction/subject matter jurisdiction.

20. Prior to rendering the September 9, 2009 ruling and/or executing said Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment, Judge Nadine L. Allen was timely, properly and adequately placed on notice that she and/or the Municipal Court lacked jurisdiction.

21. Prior to rendering the September 9, 2009 ruling and/or executing Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment, Judge Nadine L. Allen knew and/or should have known that her actions would not be protected under JUDICIAL IMMUNITY.[5] Moreover, that any injury sustained by her unlawful acts and lack of jurisdiction would be met with a civil legal action.[6] With said knowledge, Judge Nadine L. Allen has knowingly

[6] Borkowski v. Abood, 884 N.E.2d 7 (Ohio, 2008) - Interval between filing of notice of removal and . . . court's remand is equivalent to an "absence of jurisdiction" as to a part of the proceedings, and, thus, judge's actions in this interval are in excess of jurisdiction and do not deprive judge of immunity from civil liability.

Civil liability attaches if a judge acts in an absence of all jurisdiction.

An absence of all jurisdiction exists subjecting judge to civil liability when the judge lacks . . . subject matter jurisdiction over the controversy, but, nevertheless, takes action in a judicial capacity that violates the rights of a party to the lawsuit.

A judge will be subject to civil liability for actions while presiding in a case only if (1) the judge's actions were not judicial in nature, or (2) the judge acted in a clear absence of jurisdiction.

Where a judge knows that he lacks jurisdiction*, or acts in the face of clearly valid statutes or case law expressly depriving him of jurisdiction, he acts in a "clear absence of jurisdiction" and, as a result,* judicial immunity is LOST.

and willingly subjected herself to be sued in her individual capacity for any injury harm sustained from her actions.[7]

22. The actions of the Hamilton County Municipal Court/Judge Nadine L. Allen was willful, malicious and wanton and done with deliberate intent to cause the Relator injury/harm; moreover, deprive Relator rights secured to her under the Constitution, Civil Rights Act, Landlord & Tenant Act, Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, Ohio Revised Code, etc.

23. The actions of the Hamilton County Municipal Court/Judge Nadine L. Allen was done in retaliation of her being timely, properly and adequately notified that a PROHBITION ACTION would be sought. Therefore, in an effort of depriving Relator said right, on September 9, 2009, Judge Nadine L. Allen entered Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment.

24. The actions of Judge Nadine L. Allen has breached the integrity of this Court; moreover, compromised the integrity of the court.

25. Relator is in receipt of the Supreme Court of Ohio's August 31, 2009 letter – a copy of which is attached hereto at EXHIBIT "5" and incorporated by reference. Therefore, Relator will be moving to file the appropriate actions for disqualification against the appropriate Judge(s) and/or disciplinary action against the proper counsel/attorney(s) through the appropriate process as well.

[7] McBride v. Gould, 16 Ohio Dec. 241 (Ohio.Com.Pl.,1905) - Where a judge acts without jurisdiction he is a trespasser and is not entitled to immunity from civil liability.

Condit v. Planned Parenthood Assn. of Cincinnati, 692 N.E.2d 1081 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton.Co.,1997) - Judges are extended immunity when acting in their official capacity, forfeited only when judges act in clear absence of all jurisdiction.

Dalhover v. Dugan, 560 N.E.2d 824 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton. Co.,1989) - Judge is immune from civil liability for actions taken in his judicial capacity when jurisdiction is proper.

Abood, 861 N.E.2d 872 (Ohio.App.6.Dist. 2006) - Judge who presided over eviction action involving tenant was not entitled to dismissal of tenant's claims against him based on statutory immunity for public employees and officers, given that tenant made allegations that judge acted in bad faith in eviction proceeding for which statutory immunity did not apply. R.C. § 9.86.

26. The Hamilton County Municipal Court has acted in a matter to which it has no jurisdiction. Therefore, requiring the issuance of the relief sought through this instant Writ of Prohibition.

27. The Relator has no plain and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law.

28. Under the direction of the Supreme Court of Ohio, Relator makes herself available to provide said Court with any additional evidence and/or legal conclusions (Brief) if this honorable Court deems necessary to sustain this instant EMERGENCY WRIT OF PROHIBITION.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Relator prays that a Writ of Prohibition issue directing and restraining the Defendants from usurping jurisdiction or that an alternative writ be issued directing and restraining the Defendants from usurping jurisdiction and rendering any such rulings/orders/entry of said Court NULL/VOID for lack of jurisdiction and for any and all other purposes known to the Supreme Court of Ohio for the granting and issuance of Writ of Prohibition; moreover, ordering Defendants to show cause before this court at a specified time and place why the writ should not be made permanent.

Dear Ms. Newsome:

The enclosed document was forwarded to the Clerk's Office for a response. Because the Supreme Court has limited jurisdiction as defined by Article IV, Section 2(B) of the Ohio Constitution, the Court cannot provide legal advice or advocate for any particular person or entity. Additionally, it does not have the authority to directly intercede in a matter not formally before the Court.

An attorney can provide you with legal advice and advocacy. Enclosed is a copy of the Lawyer Referral & Information Services registered with the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Although the Clerk's Office is not permitted to offer legal advice, we can provide guidance with filing in accordance with the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Enclosed with this letter are a copy of the rules and a list of frequently asked questions. For guidance in preparing an original action, please refer to Rules VIII, X, XIV and XV.

If you are seeking the disqualification of a common pleas judge, you may file an affidavit of disqualification with the Clerk's Office pursuant to R.C. 2701.03. Enclosed with this letter is information on filing an affidavit of disqualification. Please note that affidavits of disqualification against municipal court judges cannot be filed here.

Sincerely,

JoElla

RELATOR'S REBUTTAL/OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO DISMISS AND MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO DISMISS OF RESPONDENTS; AND REQUEST/MOTION FOR SANCTIONS

COMES NOW Relator, Denise V. Newsome ("Relator" or "Newsome"), without submitting to the jurisdiction of Hamilton County Municipal Court and without waiving her right to appeal the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas' FINAL Judgments on her pending motions[1] – when

[1] (a) Motion to Strike Pleading (Statements and Supporting Documents) of Plaintiff's Motion to Bifurcate Claim and Remand to Municipal Court; and Motion for Rule 11 Sanctions – Jury Trial Demanded In this Action – submitted for filing on or about February 17, 2009; (b) Motions to Strike Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to File Memorandum in Opposition to Motion for Rule 11 Sanctions – Submitted by Attorneys David Meranus and Molly G. Vance on Behalf of Plaintiff; and Requests for Rule 11 Sanctions (Jury Trial Demanded in this Action) – submitted for filing on or about February 25, 2009; (c) Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law*; Motion to* Vacate (If Permissible) March 2, 2009 Entry Granting Motion of Stor-All Alfred, LLC for Enlargement of Time; and Supporting Memorandum Brief – submitted for filing on or about March 10, 2009; (d) Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law*; Motion to* Vacate (If Permissible) March 2, 2009 Entry Granting Motion of Stor-All Alfred, LLC for Leave to File Memorandum in Opposition to Motion for Rule 11 Sanctions; and Supporting Memorandum Brief – submitted for filing on or about March 10, 2009; (e) Motion to Strike Plaintiff's Motion for Protective/Restraining Order Against Defendant Denise V. Newsome; Request for Rule 11 Sanctions; and Memorandum in Support (Jury Trial Demanded in this Action) – submitted for filing on or about March 19, 2009 (f) Motion for Default Judgment of and Against Stor-All Alfred, LLC for Failure to Answer or Otherwise Plead; and Memorandum in Support (Jury Trial Demanded in this Action) – submitted for filing on or about March 19, 2009; (g) Defendant's Motion to Strike Plaintiff's Answer to Defendant's Counterclaim; Jury Demand Endorsed Hereon; Request for Rule 11 Sanctions; and Memorandum in Support (Jury Trial Demanded in this Action) – submitted for filing on or about March 26, 2009; (h) Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law*; Motion to* Vacate April 17, 2009 Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Partial Stay (Jury Trial Demanded in this Action)- submitted for filing on or about April 24, 2009; (i) Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law*; Motion to* Vacate April 29, 2009 Order Granting Bifurcation and Remand – submitted for filing on or about May 5, 2009; and any/all pending Motions of Defendant known to this Court.

ENTERED in that no Final Judgments on Relator's pending motions for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Laws and Motions to Strike were ever entered prior to the unlawful remand/transferring of this matter to the Hamilton County Municipal Court – granting bifurcation and/or remand/transfer of Case No. A0901302 in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas to the Hamilton County Municipal Court as Case No. 09CV01690 – and hereby files this Relator's Rebuttal/Opposition To Motion To Dismiss and Memorandum In Support of Motion To Dismiss of Respondents; and Request For Sanctions ("R/OTMTD") in accordance with S. Ct. R. XIV, Section 4 to Respondents' Motion to Dismiss ("RespMTD") and moves through this EMERGENCY filing that the original action in Prohibition/Mandamus be GRANTED. Moreover, RespMTD be DENIED. At the time of filing of Emergency Writ of Prohibition and Supporting Affidavits, Relator reserved her rights to file this instant pleading and also advised this honorable Court at Paragraph 28 of said Emergency Writ, "Under the direction of the Supreme Court of Ohio, Relator makes herself available to provide said Court with an additional evidence and/or legal conclusion (Brief) if this honorable Court deems necessary to sustain this EMERGENCY WRIT OF PROHIBITION."

Relator further moves this Court pursuant to S. Ct. R. XIV, Section 5 to issue the appropriate sanctions of and against Respondents and their prosecuting attorney, Christian J. Schaefer, in that RespMTD is sham/frivolous and has been submitted for delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, fraud, misrepresentation, deprivation of protected rights, in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Relator, evil and malicious intent, other reasons known to Respondents and the prosecuting attorney; therefore sustaining that the Ohio Supreme Court sua sponte or on motion by party, award to Relator reasonable expenses, fees, costs or double costs and/or any other sanction (i.e. including being found in contempt) the Ohio Supreme Court deems just. In support thereof Relator further states:

1. This instant R/OTMTD is submitted in good faith and is not submitted for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, etc. and is filed to protect and preserve the rights of Relator.

2. Relator's filing of Emergency Writ of Prohibition is timely submitted. While Respondents' counsel asserts that Relator was served on October 9, 2009, Relator was not served and/or copy of RespMTD was not mailed until approximately four (4) days later (September 13, 2009) – See EXHIBIT "1" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

3. Relator's Emergency Writ of Prohibition is sought to invalidate Respondents' September 9, 2009 Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment. Moreover, arrest continuing effect of order issued by court without authority – i.e. as plaintiff (Stor-All Alfred, LLC) in lower court actions is attempting to do. See EXHIBITS "22" and "23" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

4. For this Court to grant Respondents' Motion to Dismiss would be prejudicial to Relator, clearly go against prior decisions of the Ohio Supreme Court on the same issue(s) presented herein and/or known to this Court, deprive Relator rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution (Ohio and United States), Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct, and other statutes/laws governing said matters.

5. In further defense to RespMTD, Relator asserts averments/arguments contained in her Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes submitted for filing with this Court on September 13, 2009, as if set forth in full herein.

6. Because Relator's Writ of Prohibition is neither frivolous nor obviously devoid of merit, this Court is to DENY Respondents' Motion to Dismiss.

7. The evidence in the record of this Court and that of the lower courts (Hamilton County Municipal Court/Case No. 09CV01690 and Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas/Case No. A0901302) will sustain that RespMTD is merely in furtherance of the many vexatious pleadings filed with the lower courts underlying this instant Prohibition action and has been filed with this Court for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, fraud, misrepresentation, deprivation of protected rights, in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Relator, evil and malicious intent, and other reasons known to Respondents, etc.

8. Respondents' Motion to Dismiss is frivolous and IS NOT reasonably well-grounded in facts, evidence or legal conclusion to sustain it and has NOT been presented in good faith. Respondents knew and/or should have known that prior to filing its RespMTD that they had no hope of succeeding on same.

9. Respondents' single issue/argument appears to be:

> In order for a writ of prohibition to be issued, the relator must prove that (1) the lower court is about to exercise judicial authority, (2) the exercise of authority is not authorized by law, and (3) the relator either possesses no other adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law if the writ of prohibition is denied or the lack of jurisdiction of the lower court is patent and unambiguous.

Said proposition of law set forth by Respondents in its Motion to Dismiss, has no merit to Relator's Emergency Writ of Prohibition and cannot be sustained under the statutes/laws governing said prohibition matters. Said proposition of law by Respondents is frivolous/sham and presented for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, fraud, misrepresentation, deprivation of protected rights, in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Newsome, evil and malicious intent, other reasons known to Respondents, etc.

10. The legal conclusions – i.e. Isaiah's Wings, LLC v. McCourt, 2006 WL 1901015, (Ohio App. Fifth Dist.) No. 2005-CA-39 and Lyons v. Link, 2003 WL 21213656 (Ohio App. 5 Dist.), 2003 –Ohio- 2706 – have no merits to this instant prohibition action and have been provided for frivolous/sham intent for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, fraud, misrepresentation, deprivation of protected rights, in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Relator, evil and malicious intent, other reasons known to Respondents, etc.

11. The facts, evidence and legal conclusions set forth in this instant pleading, the record of this honorable Court and the lower courts will support that Relator can move forward with this instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition action against Judge Nadine L. Allen and/or the Hamilton County Municipal Court because the FACTUAL allegations in the record of the courts will sustain:

(a) Judge Allen used her judicial powers in the underlying proceeding to which she had no legal authority to use;

(b) Hamilton County Municipal Court patently and unambiguously lacked jurisdiction to act and issue/execute the September 9, 2009 Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment rendered by Judge Allen;

(c) The Ohio Supreme Court's issuance of Writ is warranted to correct results of the Respondents' September 9, 2009 execution of Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment and to restore Relator to same position she occupied before excesses occurred;

(d) Judge Allen's exercise of said power was unauthorized under the law;

(e) Judge Allen issued a NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary

Judgment to which she was not legally authorized under the laws to execute;

(f) Because Judge Allen lacked jurisdiction over the subject-matter any assertion by Respondents that Relator "has an adequate remedy at law" is moot/immaterial;

(g) Unless the Writ issues, Relator will suffer and incur damages to which there is no adequate legal remedy;

(h) Emergency Writ of Prohibition is to issue in that plaintiff (Stor-All Alfred, LLC) in the lower courts' actions is attempting to use NULL/VOID rulings of Judge Allen's Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas action (Case No. A0901302) to support its filing of Motion to Lift the Court Order Stay on or about September 10, 2009 and to support its filing of 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss and/or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Newsome's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached on or about September 18, 2009. Said filings by Stor-All which have been timely, properly and adequately met by Relator's:

(i) Rebuttal/Response to Plaintiff Stor-All Alfred LLC's Motion to Lift the Court Ordered Stay submitted for filing on/or about September 24, 2009;

(ii) Motion to Strike Plaintiff Stor-All Alfred LLC's 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss And/Or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Newsome's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached; Request for Rule 11 Sanctions; and Memorandum in Support (Jury Trial Demanded in this Action) on or about October 1, 2009; and

(iii) Rebuttal To Plaintiff's Reply To Defendant's Motion To Strike Plaintiff's Motion To Dismiss/Summary Judgment And Memorandum In Support (Served October 1, 2009); Motion For Attorney Fees and/or Rule 11 Sanctions And Hearing Request; Request for Rule 11 Sanctions, Fees Costs Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code §2323.51, Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 56(G) and Stor-All's Counsel be Found in Contempt of Court submitted for filing on or about October 15, 2009.

> A relator can go forward in a writ of prohibition action against a judge only if her factual allegations are sufficient to satisfy the following three elements: (1) respondent had used, or intended to use, his judicial power in the underlying proceeding, (2) respondent's exercise of his power was unauthorized under the law, and (3) unless a writ is issued, relator will incur damages for which there is no adequate legal remedy. State ex rel. Kister-Welty v. Hague, 827 N.E.2d 846 (Ohio.App.11.Dist.,2005)

12. Emergency Writ of Prohibition is to issue to prevent the Hamilton County Municipal Court from exercising jurisdiction it knew that it did not have.

> A writ of prohibition is an extraordinary writ issued to prevent a court from proceeding in a judicial matter in which it seeks to exercise jurisdiction it does not have under the law. State ex rel. Jason V. v. Cubbon, 2009 -Ohio- 267 (Ohio.App.6.Dist. 2009)
>
> A writ of prohibition is a preventive measure that is designed to prevent a tribunal from proceeding in a matter which it is not authorized to hear and determine. State ex rel. Roberts v. Winkler, 2008 -Ohio- 2843 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton.Co.,2008)

The record evidence of the lower courts will support:

(a) That on February 6, 2009 a parties to the lawsuit brought by Stor-All appeared at hearing held before Magistrate Judge in the Hamilton County Municipal Court regarding Relator's Motion to Transfer – said Magistrate Judge granted Relator's Motion to Transfer. Parties and/or their counsel to the action agreed to Magistrate Judge's Motion to Transfer and executed same. While Stor-All could have appealed Magistrate Judge's ruling, it elected not to and proceeded to litigate matter in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas ("HCCOCP") and to date continues to do so in the Court of Common Pleas – See EXHIBIT "2" attached hereto and incorporated by reference;

(b) On or about February 13, 2009, Stor-All filed its NON-Rule 12 motion entitled, "Motion to Bifurcate Claim and Remand to Municipal Court" which was met by Relator's timely and properly submitted Motion to Strike Pleading (Statements and Supporting Documents) of Plaintiff's Motion to Bifurcate Claim and Remand to Municipal Court; and Motion for Rule 11 Sanctions – Jury Trial Demanded In this Action on February 17, 2009. See EXHIBIT "2" – HCCOCP Docket Sheet Case Summary attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

(c) On or about March 10, 2009 there was a hearing on Stor-All's Motion to Bifurcate. The record evidence and court transcript will support that Relator made an appearance to argue her Motion to Strike Pleading (Statements and Supporting Documents) of Plaintiff's Motion to Bifurcate Claim and Remand to Municipal Court; and Motion for Rule 11 Sanctions – Jury Trial Demanded In this Action; however, Judge West acknowledged he was not aware of Relator's filing of said motion to strike. See EXHIBIT "2" – HCCOCP Docket Sheet Case Summary attached hereto and incorporated by reference. The record evidence and court transcript will support that Judge John Andrew West came to March 10, 2009 hearing without knowledge that Relator had filed her motion to strike bifurcation motion. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that Judge West's lack of knowledge of her filing of Motion to Strike may have been influenced by unlawful/illegal means of opposing party (i.e. Stor-All, its counsel and/or representatives).

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Relator found the following information regarding Judge West's former Bailiff, Damon Ridley, being indicted by a Grand Jury for Theft in Office, Bribery, and Attempted Bribery VERY DISTRUBING. In light of the September 9-10, 2009 criminal actions carried out as a direct and proximate result of Judge West's and Judge Allen's aiding and abetting of such crimes on said dates, a reasonable mind may conclude that decisions rendered in underlying lawsuit regarding this matter may have been unlawfully/illegally influenced – clearly sustaining and appearance of impropriety. During the March 2009 hearing on Stor-All's Motion to Bifurcate, the record evidence will support that Judge West was not familiar with Newsome's Motion to Strike Stor-All's Bifurcation Motion; moreover, was not familiar with the facts, evidence and legal defense Newsome was asserting. In light of Mr. Ridley's recent indictment in May, Judge West's lack of knowledge of Newsome's filing of Motion to Strike, Judge West's aiding and abetting Stor-All's criminal actions carried out on or about September 9-10, 2009, a reasonable mind may conclude the apple (Damon Ridley) did not fall too far from the tree (Judge West). Moreover, raising valid and serious concerns as to what role (if any) this Bailiff (Ridley) had during his employment that would influence cases handled in Judge West's courtroom. Moreover, whether or not Stor-All's knowledge of Ridley information afforded it with the leverage it needed to influence decisions by Judge West through bribery, blackmail, etc. Furthermore, sufficient information that a reasonable mind may conclude is pertinent to determine whether or not Judge West and others engaged in the crimes that have been filed against them with the FBI. This is PERTINENT information and worthy of being passed on to the FBI as well as the Ohio Supreme Court Justices.

(d) On or about April 29, 2009, the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas filed its Entry Granting Bifurcation and Remand. Said entry provided no facts, evidence or legal conclusion to sustain it and can be defeated by facts, evidence and legal conclusions in the record of said court; moreover, is contrary to laws governing said matters. Furthermore, Entry Granting Bifurcation was met with Relator's timely and properly submitted, Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law; Motion to Vacate April 29, 2009 Order Granting Bifurcation and Remand pursuant to Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure ("ORCP") Rule 52; ORCP Rule 12(G) governing matters regarding consolidation of defenses and objections; and ORCP Rule 60 governing relief from entry/judgment/order. See EXHIBIT "2" – HCCOCP Docket Sheet Case Summary attached hereto and incorporated by reference. As a matter of law, to date this matter is still legally and lawfully pending before said court. Moreover, said post-motion (as a matter of law) tolls the time for Relator to file Notice of Appeal. Relator has requested to know the status of said filing; however, to date Judge John Andrew West has REFUSED to provide her with same; therefore may warrant further intervention by the Ohio Supreme Court through prohibition/mandamus action.

13. Pursuant to Ohio Rules of Appellate Procedure Rule 4(B)(2)[2] a timely request for findings of fact and conclusions of law under OCRP 52 tolls the time for filing a notice of appeal until an order disposing of the request is entered. > Until a court files its findings of fact and conclusions of law, an appellant has no opportunity to determine the basis for an appeal. Requiring an appellant to perfect an appeal without having findings and conclusions before him would deter [sic] judicial economy, for it would guarantee two trips to the appellate court – first, to compel the findings and conclusions, and second, to review the decision on the merits.

Therefore, as a matter of law, the filing of Relator's Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law; Motion to Vacate April 29, 2009 Order Granting Bifurcation and Remand TOLLS the time in which Relator is required to file her Notice of Appeal and/or begin the appeal process.[3] A reasonable mind may conclude that lower court's

[2] In a civil case or juvenile proceeding, if a party files a timely motion for judgment under Civ. R. 50(B), a new trial under Civ. R. 59(B), vacating or modifying a judgment by an objection to a magistrate's decision under Civ. R. 53(E)(4)(c) or Rule 40(E)(4)(c) of the Ohio Rules of Juvenile Procedure, or findings of fact and conclusions of law under Civ. R. 52, the time for filing a notice of appeal begins to run as to all parties when the order disposing of the motion is entered.

[3] Walker v. Doup, 36 Ohio St.3d 229, 522 N.E.2d 1072 (Ohio,1988) - When timely motion for findings of fact and conclusions of law has been filed, time period for filing notice of appeal does not commence to run until the trial court files its findings of fact and conclusions of law. Rules Civ.Proc., Rule 52.

. . . .The issue presented in this case is whether a timely motion for separate findings of fact and conclusions of law under Civ.R. 52 prevents an otherwise final judgment from becoming final for purposes of App.R. 4 until the findings of fact and conclusions of law are filed by the trial court. FN1 For the reasons discussed below, we hold in the affirmative, and reverse the decision of the court of appeals. . . .

Appellant argues that the trial court's judgment entry was not a final order for purposes of commencing the time for filing a notice of appeal because the entry did not contain findings of fact and conclusions of law. Because appellant made a timely request under Civ.R. 52 for such findings and conclusions, he contends that the court's decision did not become "final" for appeal purposes until its findings of fact and conclusions of law were filed.

Appellant relies on Reineck, supra, in support of his argument that the filing of a motion for findings and conclusions after the issuance of a judgment entry precludes the commencement of the time period for filing a notice of appeal until the trial court files its findings and conclusions. The court of appeals below rejected that argument in favor of the holding in Price, supra.

In Price, the appellant filed a timely motion for separate findings of fact and conclusions of law after the trial court had filed its judgment entry. The appellant filed his notice of appeal within thirty days of the filing of the court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, but more than thirty days after the court filed its judgment entry. The court of appeals dismissed the appeal on the ground that the notice of appeal was not timely filed as required under App.R. 4(A). The court held:

"The filing of findings of fact and conclusions of law does not extend the time for filing a notice of appeal." Id. at paragraph two of the syllabus.

failure to provide the facts, evidence and legal conclusions in its April 29, 2009 entry, was arbitrary and capricious. Moreover, in furtherance of the role Judge John Andrew West was to play in the aiding and abetting of crimes carried out on September 9-10, 2009, against Relator.

14. The record evidence will sustain that the Hamilton County Municipal Court/Judge Allen was timely, properly and adequately notified that said court/she lacked jurisdiction to proceed through Relator's filings:

(a) On or about June 26, 2009, "DEFENDANT'S NOTIFICATION TO THE COURTS OF APPEAL PROCESS BEGUN – TRANSFER/REMAND IS IN ERROR – Court of Common Pleas' Engagement in Criminal Activity."

(b) On or about August 1, 2009, "NOTIFICATION: DEFENDANT'S REITERATION OF NON-WAIVER TO JURISDICTION."

(c) On or about August 27, 2009, "NOTIFICATION: DEFENDANT'S REITERATION OF NON-WAIVER TO JURISDICTION – DEFENDANT WILL NOT BE ATTENDING HEARING SCHEDULED

In Reineck, supra, the Court of Appeals for Sandusky County considered the same issue, but declined to rule as did the court in Price. The court in Reineck, applying our reasoning in State v. Mapson (1982), 1 Ohio St.3d 217, 1 OBR 240, 438 N.E.2d 910, to the provisions of Civ.R. 52, held:

"Where a timely motion for findings of fact and conclusions of law has been filed in accordance with Civ.R. 52, the time period for filing a notice of appeal does not commence to run until the trial court files its findings of fact and conclusions of law." (Emphasis added.) Id. at syllabus.

In Mapson, supra, the issue was the timeliness of an appeal from the denial of a petition for post-conviction relief. We held that an appeal from a denial of such a petition is timely if it is filed within thirty days of the filing of the statutorily required findings of fact and conclusions of law and that, since R.C. 2953.21 mandates that a judgment denying post-conviction relief include findings of fact and conclusions of law, a judgment filed without such findings and conclusions is incomplete and does not commence the running of the time period for filing an appeal therefrom. In addition to the statutory basis for that decision, however, we noted that there were important policy considerations underlying our decision:

" * * * The obvious reasons for requiring findings are ' * * * to apprise petitioner of the grounds for the judgment of the trial court and to enable the appellate courts to properly determine appeals in such a cause.' Jones v. State (1966), 8 Ohio St.2d 21, 22 [37 O.O.2d 357, 222 N.E.2d 313]. The existence of findings and conclusions [is] essential in order to prosecute an appeal. Without them, a petitioner knows no more than he lost and hence is effectively precluded from making a reasoned appeal. In addition, the failure of a trial judge to make the requisite findings prevents any meaningful judicial review, for it is the findings and the conclusions which an appellate court reviews for error. [Footnote omitted]." Id. at 219, 1 OBR at 242, 438 N.E.2d at 912.

The same policy considerations that underlie Mapson apply in this case. Until a trial court files its findings of fact and conclusions of law, an appellant has no opportunity to determine the basis for an appeal. Requiring an appellant to perfect an appeal without having findings and conclusions before him would deter judicial economy, for it would guarantee two trips to the appellate court-first, to compel the findings and conclusions and second, to review the decision on the merits.

We believe that there are compelling reasons for adopting the rule set forth in Reineck, supra. Therefore, we hold that when a timely request for findings of fact and conclusions of law has been filed in accordance with Civ.R. 52, the time period for filing a notice of appeal does not commence to run until the trial court files its findings of fact and conclusions of law.

For the foregoing reasons, the judgment of the court of appeals is reversed, and this cause is remanded to that court for further proceedings.

Judgment reversed and cause remanded. See EXHIBIT "1" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

FOR SEPTEMBER 9, 2009; REQUEST TO KNOW WHEATHER PROHIBITION ACTION WILL BE NECESSARY."

Despite Relator's repeated efforts to notify the Municipal/Judge Nadine L. Allen that it lacked jurisdiction, such efforts and notifications were ignored. The Hamilton County Municipal Court patently and unambiguously lacked jurisdiction to act and issue/execute the September 9, 2009 Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment rendered by Judge Allen. Moreover, Judge Allen made a conscience, willful, deliberate and intentional decision to proceed with knowledge that she and/or said court lacked subject-matter jurisdiction. In so doing, Judge Allen has usurped judicial power and therefore, the Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment executed on September 9, 2009 is NULL/VOID and CANNOT be enforced or is of NO effect; moreover plaintiff (Stor-All) in that action cannot act upon said rulings. Therefore, sustaining that Relator's relief for Emergency Writ of Prohibition is to issue and any sham/frivolous defense asserted by Respondents alleging Relator "has an adequate remedy at law" is unacceptable and lacks merits to sustain RespMTD. The Hamilton County Municipal Court's assumption of subject-matter jurisdiction where none existed is an usurpation of judicial power and any assertion that Respondents may attempt to assert that Relator "has an adequate remedy at law" and/or "no patently and unambiguously improper exercise of jurisdiction is alleged" is sham/frivolous and may be defeated by the above filings in the Hamilton County Municipal Court – See EXHIBIT "3" – Hamilton County Municipal Court's Docket Sheet ("HCMC") attached hereto and incorporated by reference; moreover, the plaintiff's (Stor-All's) in lower court action is attempting to use said September 9, 2009 rulings of Judge Allen to sustain its Motion to Lift the Court Order Stay submitted for filing on or about September 10, 2009 and in support of its filing of 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss and/or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Newsome's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached submitted for filing on or about September 18, 2009 – therefore, warranting the issuance of Relator's Emergency Writ of Prohibition.

> State ex rel. Osborn v. Jackson, 46 Ohio St.2d 41, 346 N.E.2d 141 (Ohio 1976) - [n.6] Where court, in deciding its own jurisdiction, attempts to confer jurisdiction upon itself where in fact no jurisdiction whatsoever exists, such improper assumption of jurisdiction is usurpation of judicial power and any order made by such court pursuant to such usurpation of judicial power is void and of no force or effect. [n.7] Where trial court's action is usurpation of judicial power and any order it makes is, therefore, void, superior court will not deny extraordinary writ upon ground that person seeking writ has plain and adequate remedy in ordinary course of law by way of appeal. [n.8] Court . . . was without jurisdiction to act with regard to appeal taken . . .seeking review of order . . . court's assumption of jurisdiction where none existed was usurpation of judicial power and orders made by court pursuant to such attempted appeal were void.
> [5] [6] [7] The answer to that question is that a superior court will afford an inferior court the opportunity to decide its own jurisdiction before granting an extraordinary writ (State ex rel. Mansfield Telephone Co. v. Mayer (1966), 5 Ohio St.2d 222, 215 N.E.2d 375), but where the court, in deciding its own jurisdiction attempts to confer jurisdiction upon itself where in fact no jurisdiction whatsoever *51 exists, such an improper assumption of jurisdiction is a usurpation of judicial power and any order made . . . pursuant to such a usurpation of judicial power is void and of no force or effect. Where, as in the instant cause, the trial court's action is a usurpation of judicial power and any order it makes is, therefore, void, a superior court will not deny an extraordinary writ upon the ground that the relator has a plain and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law by way of appeal. State ex rel. Northern Ohio Telephone Co. v. Winter (1970), 23 Ohio St.2d 6, 260 N.E.2d 827; State ex rel. Adams v. Gusweiler (1972), 30 Ohio St.2d 326, 285 N.E.2d 22; and Cincinnati v. Whitman (1975), 44 Ohio St.2d 58, 337 N.E.2d 773.

In Winter, supra, Justice Duncan stated, at pages nine and ten:

'We hold that the action of the Court of Common Pleas is unauthorized by law and amounts to a usurpation of judicial power. * * *

'* * * The order of the Court of Common Pleas, insofar as it enjoined the discontinuance of service by relator, in effect suspended the commission's order, and was not authorized by law.

'Respondent relies upon the case of 148 State ex rel. Mansfield Telephone Co. v. Mayer, 5 Ohio St.2d 222, 215 N.E.2d 375, arguing that a Court of Common Pleas must have the opportunity to decide its own jurisdiction, subject to the right of appeal. However, in the Mansfield case it was held that a writ of prohibition would not issue before the Court of Common Pleas was given an opportunity to decide its own jurisdiction. The instant case differs from the Mansfield case in that, in this case, the Court of Common Pleas had such an opportunity, and decided the jurisdictional question.'

In Gusweiler, supra, Justice Schneider stated, 30 Ohio St.2d at page 329, 285 N.E.2d at page 24:

'If an inferior court is without jurisdiction whatsoever52 to act, the availability or adequacy of a remedy of appeal to prevent the resulting injustice is immaterial to the exercise of supervisory jurisdiction by a superior court to prevent usurpation of jurisdiction by the inferior court.'

Winter, supra, and Gusweiler, supra, were prohibition cases.

15. Respondents' Motion to Dismiss appears to hinge on such sham/frivolous defenses – i.e. Relator has an adequate remedy at law (at pg. 5 of RespMTD).

16. Respondents are attempting to use its Motion to Dismiss to circumvent the statutes/laws and deprive Relator the relief sought through her Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law; Motion to Vacate April 29, 2009 Order Granting Bifurcation and Remand. Relator, as a matter of law, is entitled to findings of fact and conclusion of laws timely requested; therefore, Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas was WITHOUT legal authority to file its Entry Granting Bifurcation and Remand and in so doing deprived Relator's rights secured to her under the Constitution, Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure and other statutes/laws governing said matters. Further sustaining that Hamilton County Municipal Court lacked jurisdiction to act and was timely, properly and adequately notified of Court of Common Pleas reversible error; moreover, pending motion for findings of fact and conclusions of law necessary to begin the appeal process. Therefore, clearly PROHIBITING the bifurcation and remand of matter to the Hamilton County Municipal Court. EXHIBIT "26" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

> State ex rel. Adams v. Gusweiler, 30 Ohio St.2d 326, 285 N.E.2d 22 (Ohio 1972) - [n.2] If inferior court is without jurisdiction whatsoever to act, availability or adequacy of remedy of appeal to prevent resulting injustice is immaterial to exercise of supervisory jurisdiction by superior court to prevent usurpation of jurisdiction by inferior court. [n.3] Court which has jurisdiction to issue writ of prohibition as well as writs of procedendo and mandamus has plenary power not only to prevent excesses of lower tribunals, but to correct results thereof and to restore parties to same position they occupied before excesses occurred. [n.4] Prohibition lay to arrest continuing effect of order issued by court without authority.

> It should be clearly understood that where language seemingly to the contrary appears in our prior decisions, the inferior court had at least basic statutory jurisdiction to proceed in the case. See, for example, State ex rel. Dickison v. Court of Common Pleas (1971), 28 Ohio St.2d 179, 277 N.E.2d 210 (declaratory judgment). . .
>
> The final question for us arises from the alternative reason upon which the Court of Appeals based its dismissal of the action, i. e., that the Court of Common Pleas had acted prior to the filing of the complaint for a writ of prohibition.
>
> This reasoning is supported by the second sentence of the third paragraph of the syllabus of State ex rel. Frasch v. Miller (1933), 126 Ohio St. 287, 185 N.E. 193; the second paragraph of the syllabus of *march v. Goldthorpe (*1930), 123 Ohio St. 103, 174 N.E. 246; and the fifth paragraph of the syllabus of State ex rel. Brickell v. Roach (1930), 122 Ohio St. 117, 170 N.E. 866. However, in none of those cases was the rule, that prohibition may be invoked only to prevent a future act and not to undo an act already performed, necessary to its disposition.

Our present opinion is that a strict adherence to that rule exalts form over substance, particularly where, as here, a total and complete want of jurisdiction by the lower court is presented and the issuance of the writ will serve to arrest the authority to act of the arbitrator appointed by that court.

See State ex rel. Northern Ohio Telephone Co. v. Winter, supra (23 Ohio St.2d 6, 260 N.E.2d 827), in which, after an ultra vires temporary injunction had been issued by the Court . . ., we granted a writ of prohibition which was effectual not only to prevent further action by that court but to invalidate the order already made.

[3] [4] Thus, a court which has jurisdiction to issue the writ of prohibition as well as the writs of procedendo and mandamus has plenary power, not only to prevent excesses of lower tribunals, but to correct the results thereof and to restore the parties to the same position they occupied before the excesses occurred.

The judgment below is vacated and the writ prayed for is allowed.

Judgment vacated and writ allowed.

IMPORANT TO NOTE: The record evidence will sustain that the Hamilton County Municipal Court patently and unambiguously lacked jurisdiction to act and issue/execute the September 9, 2009 Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment rendered by Judge Allen. Therefore, as a matter of law this Court is to issue prohibition and mandamus to prevent any future unauthorized exercise of jurisdiction and to correct the results of Hamilton County Municipal Court's/Judge Allen's jurisdictionally unauthorized actions; moreover, Stor-All's attempts to act upon the NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment executed by Judge Allen. The sham/frivolous assertion made by Respondents that Relator "has an adequate remedy at law" and/or "no patently and unambiguously improper exercise of jurisdiction is alleged" is IMMATERIAL in this instant prohibition and mandamus action, because the Hamilton County Municipal Court patently and unambiguously lacked jurisdiction to act.[4] Moreover, the record will sustain that Hamilton County Municipal Court/Judge Because . . . complaint for writs of mandamus and prohibition is neither frivolous nor obviously devoid of merit, the court of appeals erred in sua sponte dismissing his complaint.

17. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Even if Respondents would attempt to make such a defense that the Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment has been acted upon and eviction action has been carried out; therefore, making Relator's Writ of Prohibition action moot, such defense(s) MUST also FAIL. The Ohio Supreme Court has found that a prohibition action is not necessarily rendered moot when the act sought to be prevented has occurred prior to the prohibition claim. The record evidence will sustain that as early as June 2009, and as late as August 2009, Judge Allen/Hamilton County Municipal Court was notified that it was acting without jurisdiction; moreover, that Relator inquired as to whether or not a PROHIBITION action (i.e. through NOTIFICATION: DEFENDANT'S REITERATION OF NON-WAIVER TO JURISDICTION – DEFENDANT WILL NOT BE ATTENDING HEARING SCHEDULED FOR SEPTEMBER 9, 2009; REQUEST TO KNOW WHEATHER PROHIBITION ACTION WILL BE NECESSARY) would be necessary. A reasonable mind may conclude from the sham/frivolous defenses set forth by Respondents that prior to its September 9, 2009 action, they may have prepared for such sham/frivolous defenses based upon knowledge of Relator's engagement in protected activities outside the lawsuit underlying this Prohibition action.

In retaliation to Relator's notification, Judge Allen retaliated and consciously knowingly, willingly and deliberately engaged in conspiracy initiated by Stor-All - aiding and abetting in criminal wrongs leveled against Relator needed to bring about the completion of the object/goal [i.e. COVER-UP and destroying evidence through criminal acts of Stor-All in the unlawful/illegal seizure of Relator's storage unit as early as April 2008 and property without legal/lawful authority. Said cover-up of crimes and destroying of evidence could not be accomplished without: (a) Stor-All obtaining an unlawful/illegal Entry Granting Bifurcation and Remand by Judge West on or about April 29, 2009. Once Judge West completed his role in the conspiracy – with knowledge that Municipal Court lacked jurisdiction – Stor-All pounced on such criminal acts of Judge West and filed in the Hamilton County Municipal Court (Case No. 09CV01690) its Motion for Partial Summary Judgment With Affidavit of Leslie Smart Attached; and (b) Judge Allen on September 9, 2009, executed NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment. Once Judge Allen completed her role in the conspiracy, Stor-All and other Co-Conspirators moved swiftly to act on Judge Allen's rulings. As a direct and proximate result of Judge West's and Judge Allen's role in the conspiracy, they aided and abetted the commission of a series of crimes to be carried out by other Conspirators. Judge West and Judge Allen aided and abetted with knowledge they were engaging in criminal activity – moreover, the record evidence will support that courts were timely, properly and adequately notified through filing of Relator of criminal acts. To no avail. Judge Allen and Judge West consciously, willingly and knowingly authorized the carrying out of criminal acts against Relator. Having the power to prevent, elected instead to engage in the crimes of Stor-All and Co-Conspirators.] which was accomplished. - - - Now Stor-All is attempting to use the NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment to support its motion requesting a lifting of a court-ordered stay and dismissal of Relator's counterclaim. Such efforts are memorialized in Stor-All's pleadings in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302) submitted for filing: September 10, 2009 Motion to Lift the Court Ordered Stay and September 18, 2009 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss and/or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Relator's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached.

Therefore, this instant Writ of Prohibition action is necessary to prevent further unauthorized exercise of jurisdiction over cause, future failure to prevent unauthorized exercise of jurisdiction, failure to perform ministerial duties owed and to correct the results of the previously jurisdictionally unauthorized actions – i.e. as that evidenced by the NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment and Stor-All's CONTINUED efforts to use VOID ruling to support further criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Relator. Respondents have failed to present any facts, evidence and legal conclusion to sustain that it had jurisdiction over the subject-matter. The record evidence further sustains that the Hamilton County Municipal Court on TWO occasions acknowledged that it lacked jurisdiction over the subject matter – i.e. first in the February 6, 2009, issuance of Magistrate's Order agreed to by parties to action (See EXHIBIT "4" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein); and then again the second time on July 10, 2009, in the issuance of Order Granting Motion to Transfer For Jurisdiction. (See EXHIBIT "5" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein). Nevertheless, upon Judge Allen's learning of what her role was to be in the conspiracy leveled against Relator and the need for the Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment to cover-up criminal acts of Stor-All, Judge Nadine L. Allen provided said sham legal process for purpose of carrying out crimes against Relator. Judge Allen knowingly, willingly and maliciously proceeded to execute same for purposes of aiding and abetting of criminal acts by Stor-All to cover-up the fact that it had unlawfully/illegally seized Relator's storage unit and property (as early as April 2008) without legal authority. Sustaining Judge Allen knew that she and/or the Hamilton County Municipal Court acted without subject-matter jurisdiction.

19. Relator is entitled issuance of prohibition in that: (a) to prevent the Hamilton County Municipal Court from illegally usurping jurisdiction regardless as to whether or not Respondents have ruled and/or carried out forcible entry and detainer action; and (b) prevent Stor-All and others from acting upon and/or attempting to enforce NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment executed by Judge Allen and/or issued by the Hamilton County Municipal Court.

20. Respondents' defense asserting that Relator's Writ of Prohibition is to be dismissed because she "has an adequate remedy at law" and/or "no patently and unambiguously improper exercise of jurisdiction is alleged" is sham/frivolous and immaterial in that the Hamilton County Municipal Court patently and unambiguously lacked jurisdiction – having sufficient facts, evidence and legal conclusions to sustain that said court was timely, properly and adequately placed on notice that it lacked subject-matter jurisdiction. Nevertheless, proceeded to usurp jurisdiction and ENGAGE in conspiracy leveled against Relator and aid and abet in criminal wrongs against her.

> Where a court's jurisdiction to take an action is patently and unambiguously lacking, a relator need *not establish the lack of an adequate remedy at law to be entitled to a writ of prohibition to prevent the action, because the availability of alternate remedies like appeal would be immaterial. State ex rel. Cordray v. Marshall, 2009 WL 3151861 (Ohio,2009)

21. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The lower courts (Hamilton County Municipal Court and Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas) were timely, properly and adequately placed on notice through Relator's Answer to Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer; Notification Accompanying Counter-Claim; Counter-Claim and Demand for Jury Trial and her subsequent filings that there was NO rental agreement between Stor-All and Relator. The Respondents will NOT be able to produce documentation/evidence to sustain that Stor-All and Relator had a Rental Agreement/Contract, because none existed. Moreover, the record evidence sustains that Stor-All was notified via written correspondence that Relator did not wish to enter into a contract with it. Nevertheless, Stor-All filed its forcible entry and detainer action for purposes of malicious prosecution/intent, fraud, misrepresentation, obstruction of administration of justice, and other reasons known to it. Then Stor-All in furtherance of its conspiracy leveled against Relator induced judges (Judge Allen and Judge West) in the lower courts to provide them with rulings for purposes of obtaining the object pursued – i.e. cover-up of criminal actions.

22. The record evidence sustains that Relator is entitled to issuance of Prohibition; moreover, clear and indisputable right to the relief sought through said action based upon Respondents' judicial usurpation of power and Stor-All's attempts to rely upon such usurpation of power in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Relator and the covering up of criminal activities. Moreover, to preserve the existing status of lawsuit pending in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302) which is still an active lawsuit based upon the timely filings of Relator to preserve rights secured/guaranteed to her under Constitution (Ohio and U.S.) and applicable statutes/laws governing said matters.

23. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Relator believes an investigation into the lower courts' (Hamilton County Municipal Court as well as Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas) will sustain that Judges (Nadine L. Allen and John Andrew West) handled Relator's counterclaim in a matter that conflicts with prior rulings by them and/or clearly contradict decisions rendered by their courts and higher courts on the same subject matter. The record evidence will sustain that Relator has been prejudiced by Respondents' unlawful/illegal actions in the handling of the underlying lawsuit. Moreover, Respondents subjected Relator to discriminatory and prejudicial treatment in the handling of her compulsory counterclaim and subsequent filings. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that Respondents and/or lower courts acts are arbitrary and capricious and were done with malicious intent to deprive Relator equal protection of the laws, due process of laws, rights secured under the Constitution (Ohio and U.S.) and other statutes/laws governing said matters. Further sustaining the need for issuance of Prohibition in this matter.

> The prohibition against the denial of equal protection of the laws requires that the law shall have an equality of operation on persons according to their relation; so long as the laws are applicable to all persons under like circumstances and do not subject individuals to an arbitrary exercise of power and operate alike upon all persons similarly situated, it suffices the constitutional prohibition. U.S.C.A. Const.Amend. 14; Const. Art. 1, § 2. Pickaway Cty. Skilled Gaming, L.L.C. v. Cordray, 2009 -Ohio- 3483 (Ohio.App.10.Dist. 2009)

24. Relator believes that an investigation into Respondents' handling of underlying lawsuit and its discriminatory/prejudicial handling thereof in the issuance of Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment is a direct and proximate result of knowledge of Relator's engagement in protected activities in unrelated matters outside lawsuit and efforts by Respondents in its aiding and abetting Stor-All to infringe/impinge on the constitutionally protected rights of Relator. Respondents' placing of said obstacles and aiding and abetting in Stor-All's criminal activities without justification and in retaliation to Realtor's NOTIFICATION: DEFENDANT'S REITERATION OF NON-WAIVER TO JURISDICTION – DEFENDANT WILL NOT BE ATTENDING HEARING SCHEDULED FOR SEPTEMBER 9, 2009; REQUEST TO KNOW WHEATHER PROHIBITION ACTION WILL BE NECESSARY. Moreover, said acts by Respondents were for purposes of providing Stor-All with an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in underlying lawsuit and to conceal/cover-up criminal acts known to Respondents. In so doing, Respondents have compromised the integrity of court and supports an appearance of impropriety. Further supporting the issuance of Prohibition relief sought through this instant action before the Ohio Supreme Court.

> Government may not place obstacles in path of a person's exercise of a constitutionally protected right by impinging on the right, absent a compelling justification, but government does not in any constitutionally significant way impinge on a constitutional right when it refuses to remove obstacles "not of its own creation" to exercise of a constitutional right. *Toledo Area AFL-CIO Council v. I. FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER

> Ohio Jurisprudence 3d 65: Landlord and Tenant – Rental of Storage Space in Self-Service Storage Facility § 504 Generally: In 1980, legislation was enacted governing the rental of storage space in self-service storage facilities. The owner of a self-service storage facility is given a lien on personal property stored in the facility, and upon default of an occupier, the owner may regain possession of the rented space by bringing an action of forcible entry and detainer. (Ohio Jur.3d, Ejectment and Related Remedies).

Forcible Entry and Detainer Defined:

a) The act of violently taking and keeping possession of lands and tenements without legal authority.

b) A quick and simple legal proceeding for regaining possession of real property from someone who has wrongfully taken, or refused to surrender, possession.[5]

Respondents' Motion to Dismiss asserts that it had jurisdiction to proceed over Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action – when in fact did not. Respondents have failed to provide any facts or evidence to sustain that Relator was in possession of the storage unit and property asserted to be repossessed and/or regained through the fraudulent Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer filed by Stor-All. The record evidence further supports:

> 25. The record evidence will support that Stor-All prior to bringing said vexatious Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer, was already in unlawful/illegal possession of Relator's storage unit and property without legal process – i.e. court order – as early as April 2008. See EXHIBIT "6" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. The record evidence will sustain that Relator had not wrongfully taken possession of her storage unit and property. Information Respondents failed to obtain because it lacked jurisdiction and because it knew and/or should have known that discovery had not been conducted to support the sham/frivolous motion brought by Stor-All upon which it acted.

> 26. UNDISPUTABLE: There is no written or verbal contract between Relator and Stor-All under which Stor-All can sustain its forcible entry and detainer action against Relator. This is information in the records of the lower courts and available to Judge Nadine L. Allen and/or the Hamilton County Municipal Court. Stor-All's malicious intent for bringing forcible entry and detainer action was to cover-up its criminal action in the unlawful/illegal seizure of Relator's property obtained without legal process and/or court order.

[5] Black's Law Dictionary – Ninth Edition.

> An action of forcible entry and detainer is an action at law based upon contract. R.C. § 1923.01 et seq. Gvozdanovic v. Woodford Corp., 742 N.E.2d 1145 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton.Co.,2000)

27. UNDISPUTED: The lawsuit brought by plaintiff Stor-All underlying this instant action, is for forcible entry and detainer; however, Stor-All prior to bringing its lawsuit, Stor-All was already in unlawful/illegal possession of Relator's storage unit and property – therefore, said forcible entry and detainer action was MOOT. Stor-All was timely, properly and adequately placed on notice that Relator did not want to enter a contract (i.e. rental agreement) with it. The record evidence in the lower courts will sustain Judge Nadine Allen/lower courts having sufficient information that no contract existed between Relator and Stor-All – i.e. for instance first being raised in Answer to Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer; Notification Accompanying Counter-Claim; Counter-Claim and Demand for Jury Trial and in said Counterclaim filed as well as in subsequent pleadings filed by Relator. The record evidence will sustain that Stor-All repeatedly provided document entitled, "Bill of Sale" however, has repeatedly failed to present a written contract between it and Relator because no said contract existed. Presentation of said Bill of Sale is in furtherance of covering up its criminal action. Moreover, said Bill-Of-Sale information is immaterial in that a forcible entry and detainer action is for purpose of obtaining possession or repossession of real property which had been transferred based upon contract and is not an action to determine ownership of the title of the property.

> An action of forcible entry and detainer is an action to obtain possession or repossession of real property which had been transferred from one to another pursuant to contract; it is not an action to determine ownership of the title to the property. R.C. § 1923.01 et seq. Gvozdanovic v. Woodford Corp., 742 N.E.2d 1145 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton.Co.,2000)

28. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence will support that Stor-All knew that it was in illegal/unlawful possession of Relator's storage unit and property; however, in furtherance of conspiracy it needed Judge Allen to aid and abet in the covering up of it crimes. Moreover, in obtaining the object of its conspiracy – i.e. receipt of Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment for purposes of COVERING UP the unlawful/illegal seizure of Relator's storage unit and property without legal authority. Moreover, for purposes of EXTORTING/BLACKMAILING monies from Relator to which Stor-All is not entitled. When Stor-All included its claims of "UNPAID RENT" (i.e. not just seeking possession and/or repossession of property) in the sham/frivolous forcible entry and detainer action it opened the door for Relator's compulsory counterclaim and the relief sought therein.

> Forcible entry and detainer is a possessory action and determines only the right to immediate possession. State ex rel. Jenkins v. Hamilton County Court, Area No. Eight, 173 N.E.2d 186 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton.Co.,1961)

29. Relator's compulsory Counterclaim is one that existed at the time of her being served with Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer lawsuit and said Counterclaim arises out of transaction or allegations and is the subject matter of Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action. See Rettig v. Koehler at n. 1 and 2. See EXHIBIT "7" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. The record evidence clearly supporting that Relator's Counterclaim set forth the Counts/Claims that are clearly dependent upon the subject matter of Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action:

Count One – Abuse of Process
Count Two – Wrongful Eviction
Count Three – Loss of Enjoyment/Disturbance
Count Four – Extortion
Count Five – Retaliation
Count Six – Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress
Count Seven – Action for Neglect to Prevent Count Eight – Negligence
Count Nine – Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

Stor-All was already unlawfully/illegally in possession of Relator's storage unit and property and has refused to return said property unless Relator pay monies it is attempting to unlawfully/illegally extort from her and/or deprive Relator of the damages/liability she has sustained. Stor-All had already unlawfully/illegally seized Relator's storage unit and property without legal or statutory authority – WITHOUT court order. On September 9, 2009, Respondent (Judge Nadine L. Allen) executed Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment for purposes of COVERING UP the unlawful/illegal seizure of Relator's storage unit and property by Stor-All.

30. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action a reasonable mind may conclude that it is asserting to be an aggrieved landlord; however, there is no contract (written or verbal) between Relator and Stor-All to sustain such a claim. Stor-All's Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer was timely met and opposed by Relator's compulsory counterclaim (Answer to Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer; Notification Accompanying Counter-Claim; Counter-Claim and Demand for Jury Trial).

> Forcible-entry-and-detainer actions are intended to serve as an expedited mechanism by which an aggrieved landlord may recover possession of real property. Rules Civ.Proc., Rule 53. Steadman v. Nelson, 800 N.E.2d 775 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton.Co.,2003)

To further support the Hamilton County Municipal Court's lack of jurisdiction over the subject-matter the record evidence will support that Stor-All filed its Motion to Bifurcate Claim and Remand to Municipal Court. Said bifurcation motion was met by Relator's timely Motion to Strike Pleading (Statements and Supporting Documents) of Plaintiff's Motion to Bifurcate Claim and Remand to Municipal Court; and Motion for Rule 11 Sanctions – Jury Trial Demanded In this Action. The record evidence sustains that Relator's Answer to Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer; Notification Accompanying Counter-Claim; Counter-Claim and Demand for Jury Trial is a compulsory counterclaim within meaning of the Ohio Supreme Court's decision in Rettig Ent., Inc. v. Koehler (1994), 68 Ohio St.3d 274, 626 N.E.2d 99.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Relator provided Judge John Andrew West with a copy of the Supreme Court's ruling in Rettig during the March 10, 2009 hearing supporting her defense and argument for Motion to Strike. Then when Judge West entered his April 29, 2009 Entry Granting Bifurcation and Remand, said entry was met with Relator's Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law*; Motion to* Vacate April 29, 2009 Order Granting Bifurcation and Remand and the Ohio Supreme Court's decision in Rettig was provided at Exhibit 7 of said filing. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that the lower courts were timely, properly and adequately notified that bifurcation of lawsuit was prohibited by law; moreover, could not be sustained by the facts evidence and legal conclusions. Moreover, because of Judge West's inability to defeat arguments raised by Relator, he elected to engage in criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Relator by Stor-All and others. The Counts set forth in Relator's compulsory counterclaim to sustain Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action could not be bifurcated in that they are all a part of a single transaction (i.e. Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer) and Stor-All has claimed "UNPAID RENT." are as follows:

Malicious prosecution sustaining that Stor-All was already in unlawful/illegal possession of Relator's storage unit and property without legal authority and/or court order to sustain it. Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action sought relief claiming "unpaid rent" which was met by Relator's compulsory counterclaim and the relief Relator sought clearly and well exceeded the jurisdiction of the Hamilton County Municipal Court. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude based upon the evidence in the record of the lower courts, said judges (Judge Nadine L. Allen and Judge John Andrew West) acted arbitrarily and capriciously in the handling of matters before it for purposes of retaliation, aiding in abetting Stor-All in covering up its crime of unlawfully/illegally seizing Relator's storage unit and property without legal authority; moreover, knowledge of Relator's engagement in protected activities. In fact the appellant court in Sherman v. Pearson, 673 N.E.2d 643 (Ohio.App.1.Dist.Hamilton.Co.,1996) found:

> Forcible entry and detainer is action at law based on contract, and is subject to counterclaim by tenant. R.C. § 5321.04(A)(3).
> [n.3]Purpose of logical relation test applied in determining what transactions constitute compulsory counterclaims is to avoid multiplicity of actions and to achieve just resolution requiring in one lawsuit litigation of all claims arising from common matters, and to that end, in determining whether claims arise from same transaction or occurrence and involve common matters, courts employ liberal construction favoring compulsory counterclaims. Rules Civ.Proc., Rule 13.
>
> [2] [3] Counterclaims in Ohio are governed by Civ.R. 13, which provides:
>
> "(A) A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction * * *."

In defining what transactions constitute a compulsory counterclaim, the Ohio Supreme Court has adopted the "logical relation" test. *73 Rettig Ent., Inc. v. Koehler (1994), 68 Ohio St.3d 274, 626 N.E.2d 99. The purpose behind the test is "to avoid multiplicity of actions and to achieve a just resolution by requiring in one lawsuit the litigation of all claims arising from common matters." Id. at 278, 626 N.E.2d at 103. To this end, i*n determining whether claims arise from the same transaction or occurrence, i.e., involve "common matters," Ohio courts employ a liberal construction favoring compulsory counterclaims* under Civ.R. 13(A), as do their federal counterparts under Fed.R.Civ.P. 13(a). Maduka v. Parries (1984), 14 Ohio App.3d 191, 192, 14 OBR 209, 211, 470 N.E.2d 464, 466.

Although one of many different standards employed by courts to determine whether a counterclaim is compulsory, the logical-relation test is recognized to be the most flexible in its approach.

"Unlike [the other tests], under the [logical-relation test] * * * the principal consideration in determining whether a counterclaim is compulsory rests on the efficiency or economy of trying the counterclaim in the same litigation as the main claim. As a result, t*he convenience of the court, rather than solely the counterclaim's relationship to the facts or issues of the opposing claim, will be controlling in counterclaim classification.* The hallmark of this approach, therefore, is flexibility. Although the [logical-relation] test has been criticized for being overly broad in scope and uncertain in application, it has by far the widest acceptance among the courts." Friedenthal, Civil Procedure (1985) 352, Section 6.7.

Emphasizing the flexibility afforded by the logical-relation test, the court in Rettig noted:

" ' "Transaction" is a word of flexible meaning. It may comprehend a series of many occurrences, depending not so much upon the immediateness of their connection as upon their logical relationship. * * * That they are not precisely identical, or that the counterclaim embraces additional allegations * * * does not matter*. To hold otherwise would be to rob this branch of the rule of all serviceable meaning, since the facts relied upon by the plaintiff rarely, if ever, are, in all particulars, the same as those constituting the defendant's counterclaim.' Moore v. New York Cotton Exchange* (1926), 270 U.S. 593, 610, 46 S.Ct. 367, 371, 70 L.Ed. 750, 757." Rettig, supra, 68 Ohio St.3d at 278-279, 626 N.E.2d at 103.

See EXHIBIT "8" - Sherman v. Pearson attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

31. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Respondents are attempting to PREMATURELY bring matters regarding bifurcation issue before the Supreme Court prematurely. The record evidence will sustain that Relator has timely, properly and adequately presented her claims and defenses to bifurcation action through the Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law; Motion to Vacate April 29, 2009 Order Granting Bifurcation and Remand pursuant to Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure ("ORCP") Rule 52; ORCP Rule 12(G) governing matters regarding consolidation of defenses and objections; and ORCP Rule 60 governing relief from entry/judgment/order filed in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas Case No. A0901302 and is presently pending said ruling of Request/Motion. Relator has briefed and provided facts and EVIDENCE to sustain her Request/Motion. The issue before this Court through Relator's instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition is whether Respondents has usurped jurisdiction; if so, the applicable relief allowed under the governing statutes/laws to correct such injustices.

II. PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE/PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT

In support of this issue, Relator incorporates the arguments and defenses set forth in this instant filing and supporting Exhibits, her Emergency Writ of Prohibition and Supporting Affidavits and supporting Exhibits, Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes and supporting Exhibits, the record of the lower courts (Hamilton County Municipal Court Case No. 09CV01690 and Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas Case No. A0901302). Further in support of criminal actions filed against Judge Nadine L. Allen and others with the Federal Bureau of Investigation it is important to note the additional information regarding PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE/PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT to sustain criminal complaint and the need for issuance of the instant Writ of Prohibition:

32. Relator provided this Court with a copy of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals' decision in Newsome v. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 301 F.3d 227 because she knew that said information was pertinent to establish PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE/PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT to sustain the engagement in conspiracy leveled against her by Respondents and others. Said matter was a mandamus action brought by the Relator in a totally unrelated matter; however, is a matter Relator believe an investigation will yield influence the criminal/civil wrongs engaged in by judges of lower courts to aid and abet Stor-All in the covering up of its unlawful/illegal seizure of Relator's storage unit and property as early as April 2008. Moreover, said knowledge of Newsome v. EEOC encouraged Respondents to engage in such criminal acts of September 9-10, 2009, because they PREMEDITATED to use Newsome v. EEOC should a prohibition/mandamus action be brought. However, what Respondents, Stor-All and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators did not expect was that Relator would expose such conspiracy and their criminal acts against her. Respondents allowed Stor-All and/or its representatives to influence its decisions through the use of criminal acts – i.e. bribery, blackmail, etc. Moreover, Respondents allowed knowledge of Newsome v. EEOC to influence its decision in the Hamilton County Municipal Court and/or lower courts regarding the underlying lawsuit of this Writ of Prohibition action. In Newsome v. EEOC, the Fifth Circuit found:

> Newsome also is not entitled to the writ because she has another adequate remedy available, i.e. she could file suit in court against her employer*. . . .*

33. Relator believes a reasonable mind may conclude that Respondents allowed plaintiff (Stor-All) in the lower court matter to use such information for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuit underlying this Writ of Prohibition action. Moreover, an investigation by the FBI into the Stor-All's insurance Company's (Liberty Mutual Insurance Company) role through to use of its financial wealth, vast legal resources, has REPEATEDLY used such advantages in other lawsuits OUTSIDE the lawsuit underlying this Writ of Prohibition to influence the decisions of factfinders for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in matters involving Newsome. Moreover, that a reasonable mind may conclude that Respondents' counsel basing its Motion to Dismiss of Respondents on said knowledge of Fifth Circuit's ruling in Newsome v. EEOC. Therefore, counsel, Christian J. Schaefer, brought Motion to Dismiss of Respondents and asserts therein sham/frivolous grounds for dismissal because: (i) No patently and unambiguously improper exercise of jurisdiction is alleged – at pg. 4.; (ii) Relator has an adequate remedy at law – at pg. 5; and (iii) Relator is merely attempting to substitute the extra-ordinary writ of prohibition for a direct appeal. A writ of prohibition is not a substitute for an appeal – at pg. 5.

34. Respondents' counsel, Christian J. Schaefer, having over approximately 33 years in the legal profession. The Hamilton County Prosecuting Attorney, Joseph T. Deters, having approximately over 27 years in the legal profession – for a combined total of approximately 60 years of legal experience. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that there was no excuse for the sham/frivolous filing of RespMTD in that it is a vexatious pleading submitted for purposes of delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, fraud, misrepresentation, deprivation of protected rights, in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Relator, evil and malicious intent, and other reasons known to Respondents, etc.

35. A reasonable mind may conclude that the reason for which Respondents' counsel did not use Newsome v. EEOC information is because Relator exposed its knowledge of same through NOTIFICATION TO THE COURT(S) OF FILING OF CRIMINAL COMPLAINT WITH THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION submitted for filing in the lower courts on September 24, 2009. See EXHIBIT "3" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Relator believes that based upon Respondents' counsel's knowledge of said filing, he may have attempted to obstruct the administration of justice and withhold filing of Respondents' Motion to Dismiss from Relator; however, upon learning of submittal of Relator's Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes may have released mailing of Relator's a copy of Respondents' Motion to Dismiss approximately four (4) days AFTER (September 13, 2009) allegedly certified to have mailed and on the SAME date (September 13, 2009) that the Ohio Supreme Court filed Relator's Notice of Filing of the Criminal Complaint filed with FBI. Based upon said information, a reasonable mind may conclude that delay in mailing may have been done to obtain an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in this Prohibition action. Even if Respondents' counsel may attempt to blame such delay on persons handling mail (inter-office mailroom), it is the duty of Respondents counsel to adhere to policies of the Prosecuting Attorney's Office and to assure that pleadings are mailed out as certified –i.e. especially if mailings are provided to mailroom for handling AFTER deadline of pickup.

36. Even if Respondents are relying upon Newsome v. EEOC, such defense is sham/frivolous in that the Fifth Circuit addresses matters brought against the EEOC and instructs Newsome of other options – i.e. suing her employer. In the lawsuit brought by Stor-All underlying this instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition action, Relator is the DEFENDANT and is the party that has been sued. Therefore, there is no merit to such defenses asserted Respondents for their Motion to Dismiss. Nevertheless, AGAIN, Relator must reiterate, that said ruling by the Fifth Circuit is NOT to be taken that the Fifth Circuit was saying that Relator cannot bring legal actions or prohibition/mandamus actions in the future. Neither should said ruling be taken that ALL lawsuits brought by Relator will be frivolous. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE/PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT of opposing parties/attorneys/insurance companies in matters involving Relator have repeatedly engaged in criminal/civil wrongs against Relator for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in lawsuits brought by her and/or against her. It is important to note that in ALL lawsuits Relator brought against employer(s) or nongovernment entities, she is represented by legal counsel; however, in this lawsuit underlying this instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition action, the record evidence will sustain Stor-All's engagement in criminal/civil wrongs (i.e. engagement in termination of Relator's employment with Wood & Lamping to eliminate CONFLICT OF INTEREST) for purposes of depriving Relator equal employment opportunities, equal protection of the laws, due process of laws, Constitutional/Civil Rights, etc.

37. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence sustains opposing parties/attorneys/insurance companies in matter(s) involving Relator have sought ways to see that Relator is not represented by legal counsel – i.e. relying on unlawful/illegal practices (threats, attempts to paint her as a serial litigator, paranoid, etc.) behind the scene to get Relator's counsel to withdraw and to influence the decisions of judges; moreover, for purposes of obtaining an undue advantage. The record evidence sustains that Relator has been represented by counsel in other matters; however, said counsel is REPEATEDLY attacked and threatened by opposing parties' counsel if they did not abandon Relator. In Castner v. Colorado Springs Cablevision, 979 F.2d 1417, 1421 (1992), the decision whether to appoint counsel requires accommodation of two competing considerations. First, the court must consider Congress's "special . . . concern with legal representation with Title VII actions." Jenkins v. Chemical Bank, 721 F.2d 876, 879 (2nd Cir. 1983). In enacting the attorney appointment provision of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and later reaffirming the importance of that provision in the legislative history of the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, Congress demonstrated its awareness that . . . claimants might not be able to take advantage of the federal remedy without appointment of counsel. As explained in House Report No. 92-238:

> By including this provision in the bill, the committee emphasizes that the nature of Title VII actions more often than not pits parties of unequal strength and resources against each other. The complainant, who is usually a member of the disadvantaged class, is opposed by an employer who . . . has at his disposal a vast of resources and legal talent.

H.R. Rep. No. 238, 92nd Cong., 2d Sess., reprinted in 1972 U.S.C.C.A.N. 2137, 2148. Given the history behind the attacks on attorneys retained by Relator and the conflict of interest that existed in Stor-All's counsel's law firm (Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin) and Relator's former employer (Wood & Lamping), the record evidence sustains the conspiracy [Pattern-of-Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct] leveled against Relator by Stor-All and its counsel's proceeding in lawsuit in violation of the Ohio Code of Professional Conduct and/or governing statutes/law regarding said matters; moreover, Stor-All's role in Relator's termination of employment with Wood & Lamping for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful advantage in its vexatious forcible entry and detainer lawsuit filed against her. Further sustaining Stor-All's motive for bringing the vexatious lawsuit against Relator – i.e. or ill purposes: knowledge of Relator's engagement in protected activities in New Orleans, etc. See EXHIBIT "9" – February 6, 2009 letter to David Meranus attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Relator believes there is sufficient evidence to sustain and conclude that her proceeding pro se and reliance upon equal protection of the laws, due process of laws and belief that justice will prevail and may sustain entitlement to the relief sought herein and through the FBI Criminal Complaint that has been filed.

38. THE REASON RELATOR HAD TO ESTABLISH HISTORY OF HAVING LEGAL REPRESENATION IN Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes, IS THAT, what Respondents' counsel and Stor-All's counsel will fail to reveal its role and/or its insurance company's role in getting Relator's counsel to withdraw – i.e. tactics used in lawsuit underlying this instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition to see that Relator's employment with Wood & Lamping was terminated to eliminate the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that arose in Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin's representation of Stor-All because of Relator's employment with Wood & Lamping and working directly with Thomas J. Breed who was a former employee and attorney at Shwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin prior to his employment at Wood &Lamping. Moreover, to reveal to this Court that the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in Case No. 00-30521 ruled in favor of Relator and the issue regarding appointment of counsel. See EXHIBIT "10" – July 12, 2000 Fifth Circuit Ruling attached hereto and incorporated by reference. EVIDENCE TO SUSTAIN Stor-All's Insurance Company's (Liberty Mutual Insurance) ability to see that Relator can be successful on appeal; therefore, it became necessary for Liberty Mutual and others to resort to criminal actions for purposes of obstructing the administration of justice to obtain an undue/unlawful advantage in lawsuits brought by Relator against Liberty Mutual's insured's and/or Liberty Mutual Insured's against Relator. While Relator was faced with great opposition of such MEGA GIANT EMPLOYERS (i.e. as Entergy) with all its financial wealth, arsenal of attorneys and vast legal resources, she was able to obtain legal representation

(Michelle Bennett); however, Relator believes an investigation will support that unlawful/illegal actions were committed by opposing party's (Entergy/Liberty Mutual) counsel for purposes of obtaining an undue/illegal advantage in the matter. The record evidence will support that Relator indeed had a valid lawsuit; therefore, in desperation Entergy (i.e. as Stor-All and its counsel/representatives/insurance company Liberty Mutual Insurance in the instant lawsuit underlying this Emergency Writ of Prohibition), its counsel and others went to great lengths to see that the scale of justice is tipped in its favor through unlawful/illegal means, and deprived Relator equal protection of the laws, due process of laws, Constitutional/Civil Rights, etc. As in the Mitchell, McNutt in Sams matter addressed in Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes [i.e. See EXHIBIT "C" at Exhibit "45" of said Notice of Filing] in shutting down the Jackson, Mississippi office for purposes of damage control. In fact Mitchell McNutt & Sams' representative acknowledged under oath that employer subjected Relator to discriminatory and hostile treatment, etc. See EXHIBIT "C" at Exhibit "44" of said Notice of Filing of October 13, 2009 with this Court. Entergy terminated the employment of the persons involved in the Title VII/Civil Rights/Employment violations rendered Relator shortly AFTER her termination for purposes of damage control and to cover-up its legal wrongs against Relator.

There is evidence to support that Relator's counsel (Michelle Bennett) in the Entergy matter was offered legal assistance from another law firm which Relator was employed; however, legal wrongs were committed to deprive Relator protected rights. A reasonable mind may conclude that when a law firm extends free legal assistance in representing Relator PRO BONO and said offer by Michelle Bennett is turned down that there is definitely something wrong with the picture. A former law firm at which Relator was employed offered said services to Michelle Bennett; however, rather than accept said offer, Bennett moved swiftly to withdraw as Relator's counsel. See EXHIBIT "11" – Excerpt of Docket in United States Eastern District Court and EXHIBIT "12" – Affidavit of Rajita I. Moss offering assistance PRO BONO attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

39. Relator believes an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation may support that Stor-All's insurance company (Liberty Mutual) has used confidential and privileged information of its insured's to stalk and track Relator from job-to-job, employer-to-employer and state-to-state for malicious intent – i.e. in retaliation of Relator exercising protected rights and bringing lawsuits against Liberty Mutual insured's and for purposes of depriving Relator rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution, Civil Rights Act and other governing statutes/laws. If Liberty Mutual has used information obtained from its insured's records for purposes of stalking Relator and engaging in criminal/civil wrongs against her, the appropriate FBI Criminal Complaint filed on September 24, 2009 against it and others has merits.

40. Given Stor-All's counsel's (David Meranus) February 6, 2009 admission to Relator, a reasonable mind may conclude that his arrogance got the best of him and knowledge of her engagement in protected activities was provided for ill purposes. Not only that, the NEXUS between the lawsuit underlying this instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition brought against Relator by Meranus on behalf of Stor-All because of the New Orleans matter – i.e. conspiracy leveled against Relator. Stor-All's counsel, Michael Lively, labeled such attacks on Relator as a "multi-state" conspiracy through its request for Protective Order filed in this lawsuit – which Relator has timely moved to have stricken in accordance with the applicable statutes/laws. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Evidence will support that those opposing Relator in legal action have had an arsenal of attorneys (over 500) at their disposal* against what appeared to be one person (Relator); however, ALL have been unable to close the deal. Therefore, they resort to criminal/civil wrongs (i.e. similar to crimes in which O.J. Simpson was found guilty of) to obtain a victory on their behalf of their clients and to cover-up criminal/civil wrongs. This is a classic example of the Biblical story David & Goliath. From said story, one may remember, *it only took one ROCK (and the power therein – God) to bring down the Giant (Goliath). On February 6, 2009, Stor-All's counsel, David Meranus, provided Relator with key information to open the door to many other crimes/civil wrongs leveled against her and that the COMMON DENOMINATOR/LINK is Stor-All's insurance company (Liberty Mutual Insurance).

41. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: A reasonable mind may conclude from the evidence contained in this instant pleading and the lawsuit underlying this Emergency Writ of Prohibition, that like Stor-All, those who have opposed Relator have relied upon special relationships to key officials (JUDGES, court, government, etc.) for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage over Relator in the defense of matters involving her. For example, it is important to note possible ties of Stor-All's insurance carrier's (Liberty Mutual Insurance Company) ties to law firms such as Baker Donelson (Entergy's counsel) – see EXHIBIT "13" attached hereto and incorporated by reference - and Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin/Markesbery & Richardson Co. (Stor-All's counsel) and its attempts to rely upon such defense tactics as that used by Entergy in the New Orleans matter that was addressed by Stor All's counsel (David Meranus) on February 6, 2009.[6] Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that Stor-All's lawsuit was brought against Relator with ill/malicious intent; moreover, with knowledge that it was already in UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL possession of Relator's storage unit and property without legal authority – i.e. without court order prior the September 9, 2009 Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment because it was looking forward to being successful in its lawsuit in the use Liberty Mutual Insurance Company's playbook/practices used to defend matters involving Newsome. Therefore, it needed special favors from Judge Nadine L. Allen and Judge John Andrew West and others for purposes of obtaining an undue advantage and for purposes of covering up its criminal/civil wrongs.

[6] How big is Baker Donelson? Its boasting of its legal arsenal is apparent. Moreover, its vast financial wealth/power, vast political ties/relationships to Washington, D.C, ties/relationships to the courts are prevalent, etc. No, Stor-All, its counsel, insurance provider (Liberty Mutual) relied upon such vast legal resources as that of Baker Donelson – a law firm with approximately 540 attorneys - against a sole single African-American female. Moreover, Liberty Mutual relying upon information perhaps obtained through other means (confidential and protected sources, claims, insurance, etc.) to track the Defendant and embark on criminal sprees with others to destroy the Defendant's life. Criminal/Civil wrongs leveled against the Defendant which are clearly UNACCEPTABLE, in VIOLATION OF THE LAWS/STATUTES and worthy of an investigation.

III. OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE/INTERFERENCE WITH PROTECTED RIGHTS

42. As a matter of law, Relator is entitled to an explanation as to the reasons for Respondents' actions. While Respondents through their Motion to Dismiss is attempting to evade an investigation by the Ohio Supreme Court in the handling of the underlying lawsuit, Relator is entitled to know the reasons for Respondents actions. Therefore, RespMTD is to be DENIED. The record evidence sustains that Respondents were timely, properly and adequately provided with facts, evidence and legal conclusion to sustain that it lacked subject-matter jurisdiction; therefore, in the interest of justice and in the interest of the public, Relator demands and explanation for Respondents to justify its interference with Relator's freedom, life liberties and pursuit of happiness – infringement on Relator's rights. Relator is entitled to know the reasons for Respondents usurpation of jurisdiction. Said concerns of Realtor is of valid concerns not only to her but that of the public.

43. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through Relator's NOTIFICATION: DEFENDANT'S REITERATION OF NON-WAIVER TO JURISDICTION – DEFENDANT WILL NOT BE ATTENDING HEARING SCHEDULED FOR SEPTEMBER 9, 2009; REQUEST TO KNOW WHEATHER PROHIBITION ACTION WILL BE NECESSARY, Respondents were timely, properly and adequately placed on notice that discovery had not been conducted in the underlying lawsuit pursuant to Rule 56 of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure.[7] Moreover, Stor-All had failed to respond to discovery propounded on it on or about January 29, 2009. Said Notification smoked out Stor-All's DELINQUENT responses (in support of its Motion t Dismiss/Summary Judgment) on or about September 23, 2009 (approximately eight months later– See EXHIBIT "21" Notice Of Service of Responses attached hereto.) in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas Case No. A0901302 pleadings and or discovery responses will sustain the following was provided for sham/frivolous/malicious intent:

[7] RULE 56. Summary Judgment . . .

(C) Motion and proceedings. The motion shall be served at least fourteen days before the time fixed for hearing. The adverse party, prior to the day of hearing, may serve and file opposing affidavits. Summary judgment shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, written admissions, affidavits, transcripts of evidence, and written stipulations of fact, if any, timely filed in the action, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. No evidence or stipulation may be considered except as stated in this rule. A summary judgment shall not be rendered unless it appears from the evidence or stipulation, and only from the evidence* or stipulation, that reasonable minds can come to but one conclusion and that conclusion is adverse to the party against whom the motion for summary judgment is made, that party being entitled to have the evidence or stipulation construed most strongly in the party's favor. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages. . . .

(E) Form of affidavits; further testimony; defense required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated in the affidavit. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts of papers referred to in an affidavit shall be attached to or served with the affidavit. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions or by further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the party's pleadings, but the party's response, by affidavit or as otherwise provided in this rule, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If the party does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against the party. . . .

(G) Affidavits made in bad faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused the other party to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

At that time I told Ms. Newsome I would fax a letter confirming our conversation when I arrived at the office on December 9, 2008."

"On December 9, 2008, after I had prepared the letter to fax to Newsome, I realized I did not have her fax number with me. I called Ms. Newsome's work number which was listed as a contact when we bought out Crown Self-Storage, and called that number. When the receptionist answered*, I requested a fax number for Denise Newsome. The* receptionist provided me with a fax number and I then faxed my correspondence to Ms. Newsome. My only intention in sending this fax was to follow through on my promise to Newsome by faxing a letter confirming our telephone conversation the previous evening."

"The only motivation for initiating the forcible entry and detainer action against Denise Newsome was so that Stor-All may re-acquire its property. After several attempts to negotiate with Ms. Newsome, including offering the free use of StorAll Alfred's moving truck, driver, and gas, and reducing her balance due to $0.00, there was no other way for us to re-acquire Unit #173 from Ms. Newsome but court intervention. There was no ulterior motive or purpose for the forcible entry and detainer action."

A reasonable mind may conclude to re-acquire provides sufficient and adequate evidence that Stor-All asserts that Relator was in possession of the storage unit and property contained therein when it brought its forcible entry and detainer action – wherein Relator was not. Therefore, such statement by Stor-All's representative is false and/or misleading. Stor-All had already unlawfully/illegally seized Relator's storage unit and property without legal authority and/or court order as early as April 2008 – See EXHIBIT "6" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. There is evidence to sustain that said witness acknowledges that she had a conversation with Relator on December 8, 2008. There is evidence to sustain that Stor-All had no problem contacting Relator the evening before the fax of December 9, 2008, and the motive behind sending to Relator's place of employment. Therefore, it is IMPORTANT TO NOTE:

(a) The work number Stor-All's representative may assert to have called WAS NOT the phone number for the receptionist and was Relator's DIRECT phone number to her desk. The receptionist DID NOT answer Relator's phone as Stor-All may attempt to assert. Relator's direct phone number had voicemail. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude, if Stor-All's representative indeed called the work number provided, then why did representative not request number fax number again from Relator directly and/or leave voicemail message. Instead, Stor-All's representative advises she contacted Relator's employer's Receptionist to obtain Wood & Lamping's fax number. See EXHIBIT "14" Wood & Lamping Telephone Directory attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

(b) Wood & Lamping's telephone number is (513) 852-6000 and would be the telephone number at which the receptionist could be reached NOT at the telephone number (513) 852-6053 that representative/Whiteside may assert was called to obtain fax number. See EXHIBIT "15" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

(c) A reasonable mind may question why Stor-All's representative would not FIRST call the phone number in which she reached Relator on the night (December 8, 2008) prior if genuinely acting in good faith. Stor-All's representative was provided with Relator's direct facsimile* number on December 8, 2008; however, representative elected to act with malicious intent and purpose and submit fax to Wood & Lamping's main fax number for purposes of getting Relator terminated and/or cause problems with Relator's employer. Stor-All's representative resorting to such unlawful/illegal practices of sending the December 9, 2008, facsimile for purposes of placing Relator's employer on notice as to what was going on. See EXHIBIT "16" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

(d) This is discoverable information – should Stor-All's representative/Whiteside continue to assert that she called Relator's work number, there should be a telephone record/bill in that this was a LONG DISTANCE CALL – representative calling from Kentucky.* While this Court can expect Stor-All to provide such testimony, then it is of PERTINENT and CRUCIAL concern that Stor-All be required to PROVE such statement by evidence and not mere words by way of rebuttal to defend against the EVIDENCE Relator has provided to support her Motion to Strike MTDMFSJ.* Stor-All's counsel has over ten (10) years of experience; therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that *he knew and/or should have known that evidence is required to support Affidavit(s) was made in good faith; however, because Affidavits provided by Stor-All and its counsel were made in bad faith, the record is silent on any such evidence to sustain relief sought through such perjured/sham/frivolous, etc. testimony.

44. IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Is the date and time of Lori Whiteside's FIRST December 9, 2008 facsimile to Relator showing 12/09/2008 10:19. See EXHIBIT "16" – Whiteside's 12/09/2008 facsimile to Relator attached hereto and incorporated by reference. The date and time is important because it was sent in the later part of the morning and at a time in which Relator could have been reached had Whiteside truthfully called the work contact number alleged. Said fax of Whiteside was met with a responsive fax by Relator on December 9, 2009 – See EXHIBIT "17" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

45. There was a SECOND facsimile sent by Lori Whiteside to Relator on December 9, 2008, which will shed additional light on the PERJURY allegations and testimony provided by Relator which states in part:

1. When we spoke last night, I advised you I was working from home during our conversation. You are correct, I asked for your fax number and you provided it to me. When I left the office this morning, I failed to bring my notes with me but had promised you a letter this morning and was unable to go back home to obtain the number you provided. However, since your work number was provided as a contact number, I figured the quickest way to get your fax number was to call your office – and rather than bothering you to let you know I forgot to bring your fax number with me, I simply asked the receptionist for your fax number. I would hope that you would see that I was using the means available to me (your work contact number) to follow through with my correspondence as promised. That's it. Nothing more to it. Frankly, I don't have time to play games and create unnecessary issues. Like you, my schedule is crazy and I have way too many projects and a personal life as well. This error was unintentional and there is not now nor ever been any intention on my part or on the part of Stor All for any Stor All employees to cause you any distress.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through said fax, Whiteside affirms that she was provided with Relator's direct fax number of (513) 419-6453 in response to Relator's fax of December 9, 2008, attached at EXHIBIT "18." While Whiteside alleges information provided the night before was left at home, a reasonable mind may question: (a) why Whiteside did not contact Relator at the same phone number 513-680-2922 that she contacted Relator on the night before in that this was also a contact number provided Stor-All. See EXHIBIT "6" – Ledger History(s) attached hereto and incorporated by reference; and (b) if explanation was genuine whether or not Whiteside could have contacted someone at her residence to provide her with information provided by Relator the night before.
> Whiteside's statement alleges that the contact number (513) 852-6053 that was provided was the phone number she called and reached the Receptionist at Relator's place of employment (Wood & Lamping); however, said number is not the phone number for the Receptionist and was Relator's direct number and one which had voicemail. Wood & Lamping's main phone number is (513) 852-6000. Therefore, for Whiteside to have reached the Receptionist, a reasonable mind may conclude (had she actually called as stated) that she would have had to call (513) 852-6000 phone number. If so, then where did Whiteside get the Receptionist number? Therefore, sustaining the willful, malicious and wanton acts of Stor-All. For PRETEXT Purposes: This is discoverable information as to authenticity of the reason provided by Stor-All/Whiteside. Moreover, a reasonable mind may determine whether or not Stor-All's/Whiteside's explanation was provided to cover-up an illegal animus. Stor-All's corporate office is in Kentucky; therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that there should be a phone record for the long-distance phone call Whiteside has alleged was made. Said information will provide evidence as to what phone number was called (if any) by Whiteside to obtain Relator's work fax number. If no such phone record can be produced to sustain Whiteside's statement, a reasonable mind may conclude that her acts were willful, malicious and wanton – i.e. done with ill intent. Thus, supporting PERJURY and goes to CREDIBIILTY of witness; moreover sustaining acts are in furtherance of conspiracy, etc.

2. . . . I was shocked at your tone of correspondence. We have never dealt with each other prior to our telephone discussion of December 8, which I felt was of the utmost professionalism. I am not one to mix words, and I certainly have no personal issues with you. But I was certainly shocked at your attack on me as being malicious. . .

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: While Whiteside may want to appear she was shocked at the tone of correspondence, a reasonable mind (jury) may conclude Relator's response was justifiable given the facts, evidence and legal conclusions which sustains her Answer and Counterclaim. Moreover, that while Whiteside attempts to assert that there were no "personal issues," a reasonable mind may conclude that said acts were personal and based upon knowledge of Relator's engagement in protected activities – i.e. as that made known by Stor-All's counsel on February 6, 2009. (See EXHIBIT "9"). Furthermore, Stor-All/Whiteside being timely, properly and adequately placed on notice of its malicious acts rendered Relator.

4.. . . As I stated to you during our phone call on December 8, I have 20 years of experience in trial work and paralegal work in the State of Ohio. You and I both know that no one is required to provide you with their grounds for a legal defense until suit is brought and an Answer is filed. Providing the documentation you have requested would not have to be done until discovery once an action has been commenced. . . .

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: A reasonable mind may conclude that based on Whiteside's admission, she has sufficient legal experience to know and/or should have known that Stor-All was engaging in illegal/unlawful activities in the handling of Relator's account – i.e. acknowledging Relator's background in the legal profession as well.

Relator knew that Whiteside's explanation provided on how she obtained Wood & Lamping's fax number was a LIE/FALSE. Nevertheless, Relator knew that in order to prove such that the discovery process (as mentioned by Whiteside) would have to be conducted. On January 29, 2009, Relator provided Stor-All with Answer to Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer; Notification Accompanying Counter-Claim; Counter-Claim and Demand for Jury Trial and discovery requests: (a) Admissions demand; (b) Interrogatories; and Request for Production of Documents.

TO SEAL HER FATE, STOR-ALL, its COUNSEL and others, Whiteside produced an Affidavit with Stor-All's 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss And/Or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Relator's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached. This is information sustaining Stor-All's acts being PRETEXT.

5. Regarding your Item #4, you in fact told me how you felt about our lien foreclosure proceedings. I am not aware of the "emotional mental anguish, etc., harm/injury sustained by" you. I am aware that you did tell me how you felt*, at which time I told you that* we follow the requirements of the law. . . What company would want to send out letters that are not required by law and waste their postage, toner, paper, and especially employee time if they were not required to do so? I can rest assure you that we would not!

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Whiteside (as a representative of Stor-All) acknowledges from said affirmation that Stor-All was timely, properly and adequately placed on notice that the affect and/or impact Stor-All's actions have had on Relator. Moreover, that Whiteside (as a representative of Stor-All) acknowledged Stor-All "follow the requirements of the law." Therefore, supporting/sustaining that Stor-All upon receipt of facts, evidence and legal conclusions in its possession having knowledge that it was acting in violation of the statutes/laws governing said matters and was in unlawful/illegal possession of Relator's storage unit and property.

6. I know you wish to seek legal counsel. I understand that. But, this has been going on for quite some time and we are now down to the wire. I would hope that you would have had ample time to have done your research since May when correspondence transpired between you and our Director of Operations. . . .

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Whiteside (as a representative of Stor-All) admits to knowledge that Relator would desire to have legal representation and her understanding of such. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that Stor-All knew and/or should have known that Relator may have requested legal representation from Wood & Lamping to represent her in legal action brought against her by Stor-All.

Regarding your closing paragraph, there may have been a misunderstanding regarding communication with our corporate counsel so let me be clear. I had spoken to corporate counsel prior to my call with you on December 8, 2008. I have not spoken with them again. During my conversation with corporate counsel PRIOR TO DECEMBER 8, 2008, our file on your unit, your correspondence and all of the tenant notes were reviewed at which time I was instructed to turn our files over to them for handling should you file suit. . . .

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Whiteside (as a representative of Stor-All) admits through said statement that she was communicating with their corporate counsel – a reasonable mind may conclude was David Meranus and/or Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin – PRIOR to the December 8, 2008 phone conversation. Therefore, PRIOR to the December 9, 2008 fax that is in question. Moreover, Whiteside confirms that its corporate counsel was in possession of Stor-All's file regarding Relator. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that Stor-All's corporate counsel had sufficient information available and/or that could have been obtained to determine the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that arose in its representation of Stor-All. A reasonable mind may conclude that Stor-All's December 8, 2008 phone call to Relator and follow-up of December 9, 2008 faxes may have been done under the advisement of Stor-All's corporate counsel (David Meranus and/or Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin). There is pertinent information in the record supporting PRETEXT and Stor-All's efforts to cover-up an illegal animus. Moreover, David Meranus' admission on February 6, 2009 of his and Stor-All's knowledge of Relator's engagement in protected activities. Now Stor-All's MTDMFSJ and PERJURED *testimony/*bad faith Affidavits.

Stor-All's counsel, Michael Lively, being certain and CAREFUL not to provide the FAX COVER PAGES of Whiteside's faxes in documents provided with September 23, 2009, discovery documents provided Relator. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude from said factual information, Stor-All's legal counsel was fully aware of legal wrongs of its client.

Lastly, I have changed your contact fax number in Stor-All's system so that you will not receive faxes to the previous fax number which I obtained in error*. This should ensure no further errors when faxing correspondence. . . .*

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Stor-All failed to provide evidence to sustain there was a contact fax number on file PRIOR to Whiteside's December 9, 2008 fax to Relator. Neither has Stor-All produced any evidence to sustain that Whiteside obtained the (513) 852-6087 fax number in error and/or evidence to support how Whiteside came about obtaining fax number. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that reasons provided for Whiteside's actions of December 8, 2008, December 9, 2008 and thereafter, were for ill intent/malicious intent. Moreover, was done under her own personal interest, interest of Stor-All and advisement of corporate counsel.

See EXHIBIT "18" – December 9, 2008 facsimile from Whiteside to Relator attached hereto and corporate by reference as if set forth in full herein. Because of such damaging and crucial evidence, this Court will see that Stor-All and its counsel was in possession of Whiteside's SECOND fax of December 9, 2008, to Relator; however, failed to provide said evidence because it knew contained INCRIMINATING evidence to sustain Relator's Counterclaim and its role in the conspiracy leveled against Relator. A reasonable mind may conclude that Stor-All realizing that Whiteside's providing of December 9, 2008 fax was the rope which has lead to the death of their lawsuit and/or career suicide of those who engaged in the criminal/civil wrongs initiated by it against Relator. Stor-All and its representatives obtaining enough rope that they have hung themselves.

46. The record evidence will sustain Stor-All's counsel (i.e. such as Michael E. Lively) for example may be encouraged to file sham/frivolous pleadings for purposes of embellishing perjured/false and/or misleading testimony on behalf of his client which may for example allege:

> There is no evidence that Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action was 'perverted in any way to accomplish an ulterior purpose for which it was not designed. . . Newsome failed to make payments owed to Stor-All for use of a storage facility. Because of Newsome's refusal to pay the rent or vacate the premises, Stor-All properly set in motion a forcible entry and detainer action so that it may legally reacquire the storage facility and begin leasing it out to other potential customers. . . There is no evidence that the eviction action was initiated for any purpose other than to legally re-acquire its property.
>
> Stor-All properly filed its motion for summary judgment in the Municipal Court. Presumably satisfied that all procedural and legal requirements had been met, Judge Allen ruled in Stor-All's favor on the forcible entry and detainer action, and entered a Writ of Possession September 9, 2009. . .
> Because Stor-All's forcible entry and detainer action was properly initiated, it was not pursued with an ulterior purpose other than to re-acquire rental property for which Newsome was not paying in violation of contract, and it was carried out to its authorized conclusion, Newsome's abuse of process claim is not appropriate and must fail as a matter of law.. . .

It should also be observed that Stor All never "obtained" Ms. Newsome's property. On September 10, 2009, Ms. Newsome's property was removed and set out of the storage facility in the course of the eviction of the same date, said eviction being attended by members of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department. Ms. Newsome is free to recover her property, as she was invited to do previously.". . . .

"Newsome's only basis for her IIED[8] claim is that a representative from Stor-All, Lori Whiteside, sent a facsimile transmission on December 9, 2008 regarding Newsome's default on the storage unit to Newsome's place of employment, the law firm of Wood & Lamping.. . . Certainly, sending a fax is not 'extreme and outrageous' conduct, such that would give rise to an IIED claim."

"Lori Whiteside ("Whiteside"), contacted the Defendant via facsimile at Defendant's employer's fax number (513) 852-6087. Whiteside doing so without approval of Defendant to fax her information at this (513) 852-6087" - "Admit that fax was sent to (513) 852-6087 on December 9, 2008, but no known prior disapproval to use said number. Defendant also sent Plaintiff faxes from this same number."

"On December 9, 2008, Lori Whiteside, who sent the fax in question, was working from home, but did not have her hard copy file with her that contained the Defendant's fax number. Ms. Whiteside did have the work number provided by the Defendant (513) 853-6053 [sic]. Ms. Whiteside called that number and requested the fax number from the receptionist and used said fax number (513-852-6087) for her first fax of the day. No prior notice of fax was given to Defendant because Ms. Whiteside did not know one would be required. Defendant's work fax number also appeared at the top of her responses faxed 12-19-08 and 12-23-08[9] from Wood & Lamping."

Pleading of Stor-All's counsel is memorialized in the record of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas and is presently facing Relator's Motion to Strike. PERTINENT/UNDISPUTED FACTS further support:

(a) Lower courts have not required Stor-All to produce any factual evidence to sustain for example Relator "refused to pay rent or vacate the premises." The record evidence supports to the contrary. In fact, will support that as early as mid-2008, Relator had been trying to get her property back; however, said efforts were met with criminal actions and/or unlawful/illegal practices by Stor-All.

[8]Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress.

[9] AFTER receipt of December 9, 2008, did Stor-All receive faxes sent from 513-852-6087. This was not a fax number provided by receptionist as Stor-All may attempt to claim, because 513-852-6053 was Relator's direct phone number at work and NOT the receptionist's and/or Wood & Lamping's main phone number.

(b) The averments such as "There is no evidence that the eviction action was initiated for any purpose other than to legally re-acquire its property" will sustain Relator's defense that Stor-All and its counsel knew and/or should have known that it was in unlawful/illegal possession without court order of Relator's storage unit and property. Moreover, that Stor-All failed to follow the laws in the taking of Relator's storage unit and property. Further sustaining Relator's defense and claim to support the FBI Criminal Complaint that has been filed. Thus, a reasonable mind may conclude further supporting PRETEXT and Stor-All's efforts to shield an illegal animus.

(c) A reasonable mind may conclude that based upon such knowledge of Stor-All and/or its counsel, its knowledge of being in unlawful/illegal possession of Relator's storage unit and property will sustain its need to obtain the NULL/VOID September 9, 2009 Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment executed by Judge Nadine L. Allen of the Hamilton County Municipal Court. The motive for obtaining said ruling being to COVER-UP/MASK an illegal animus – unlawful/illegal seizure of Relator's storage unit and property without court order.

(d) A reasonable mind may conclude for Stor-All and/or its counsel to repeatedly state its motive was to re-acquire rental property, that such information is provided for ill purposes: false and misleading, delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, deprivation of rights, in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Relator, other reasons known to it, etc. Thus, a reasonable mind may conclude further supporting PRETEXT and Stor-All's efforts to shield an illegal animus – i.e. cover-up criminal actions of unlawful/illegal seizure of Relator's storage unit and property without court order.

(e) A reasonable mind may conclude that statements made such as "eviction being attended by members of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department" will sustain Relator's FBI Criminal Complaint. Moreover, that such criminal action was carried out with guns/weapons present. Stor-All and its counsel engaging in criminal activities similar to that in which O.J. Simpson was indicted of:

i. Conspiracy to Commit a Crime;
ii. Conspiracy to Commit Robbery;
iii. First Degree Kidnapping With Use of A Deadly Weapon;
iv. Burglary While in Possession of a Deadly Weapon;

v. Robbery With Use Of A Deadly Weapon; and

vi. Coercion With Use Of A Deadly Weapon.

See EXHIBIT "T" – O. J. Simpson Criminal Complaint provided in Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes filed with this Court. And EXHIBIT "U" of said filing which supports:

> In the O.J. Simpson Matter: . . .believed he did nothing wrong. Glass, however, brushed his apology aside, saying his actions amounted to "much more than stupidity," and calling him both arrogant and ignorant.
>
> > "Earlier in this case, at a bail hearing, I said to Mr. Simpson, I didn't know if he was arrogant, ignorant or both," Glass said. "During the trial and through this proceeding, I got the answer, and it was both."
>
> In O.J. Simpson Matter: A jury convicted Simpson, 61, and Stewart, 54, on 12 charges including conspiracy to commit a crime, robbery, assault and kidnapping with a deadly weapon stemming from a September 13, 2007, incident at Las Vegas' Palace Station hotel and casino.
> In O.J. Simpson Matter: Prosecutors alleged that Simpson led a group of men who used threats, guns and force to take sports memorabilia from dealers . . .. Simpson claimed that he was attempting to recover items that belonged to him.

47. A reasonable mind may conclude that as during the March 2009 hearing, Stor-All's counsel (David Meranus) attempted to lure Relator onto its property for ill purposes and is evidence to sustain that Stor-All's counsel (Michael Lively) to date, is still attempting to do for purposes of getting Relator to waive protected rights by making such statements that she, "is free to recover her property, as she was invited to do previous. . ." A reasonable mind may conclude that such attempts to lure Relator onto its property were done for ill purposes (i.e. to subject her to injury/harm – murder, assault, etc.). Look what happened to another AFRICAN-AMERICAN tenant as recent as December 2008 when her WHITE landlord was claiming UNPAID RENT. Landlord murdered this tenant for such assertions. See EXHIBIT "19" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. That Landlord took the laws into his own hands and subjected victim (tenant) to criminal acts. Resorting to criminal wrongs as Stor-All has done in the underlying lawsuit involving this Emergency Writ of Prohibition. Moreover, the record evidence will sustain Stor-All, its counsel and others stalking of Relator for malicious intent and the carrying out of criminal activities on or about September 10, 2009, with intent to cause her injury/harm. The record evidence sustains that this Court as well as Stor-All had sufficient facts, evidence and legal conclusion to sustain that removal of her property would have precluded her from bringing the Counterclaim she filed:

65 Ohio Jur.3d § 164 – Notice to vacate; bringing possessory action:

A notice by the landlord that the tenancy is being terminated, combined with a demand by him or her for possession of the premises, and voluntary compliance therewith by the tenant without protest, is not an eviction for which damages may be recovered. (Greenberg v. Murphy, 16 Ohio C.D. 359, 1904 WL 1147 (Ohio Cir. Ct. 1904)). [Practice Guide: If the tenant is rightfully in possession and entitled to remain, the tenant SHOULD AWAIT legal proceedings that are threatened, and make defense thereto, RATHER THAN COMPLY with the demand,* and then bring an action for alleged damages that perhaps never would have resulted. (Greenberg)]

Where a tenant, upon request or notice to vacate, VOLUNTARILY abandons the premises without protest, no action for damages against the landlord, based on fraud or misrepresentations as to the reasons for such request can be maintained under rights recognized by the common law, or any statute of Ohio. (Ferguson v. Buddenberg, 87 Ohio App. 326, 42 Ohio Op. 488, 57 Ohio L. Abs. 473, 94 N.E.2d 568 (1st Dist. Hamilton County 1950)).

In an eviction action for nonpayment of rent brought by a landlord pursuant to RC Ch 1923, a tenant MAY RESPOND by asserting any legal defense he has to that action, pursuant to RC 1923.061(A), and/or by filing a COUNTERCLAIM for damages caused by the landlord's breach of the rental agreement and/or the landlord's breach of his duties under RC 5321.04. Smith v. Wright (Ohio App. 1979) 65 Ohio App.2d 101, 416 N.E.2d 655, 19 O.O.3d 59.

There is evidence to sustain Stor-All's counsel acknowledges "Defendant also sent Plaintiff faxes from this same number;" however, FAILS to produce any FACTUAL evidence* to sustain that Relator provided Stor-All with any faxes PRIOR to the December 9, 2008 transmittal in question. Thus, a reasonable mind may conclude further supporting PRETEXT and Stor-All's efforts to shield an illegal animus. Moreover, Stor-All's counsel's (David Meranus) role in the sending of the December 9, 2008 fax that has come into question.

Stor-All's counsel alleges that "Lori Whiteside, who sent the fax in question, was working from home, but did not have her hard copy file with her that contained the Defendant's fax number;" however, provides NO FACTUAL documentation to sustain Relator prior to the December 9, 2008 fax in question provided Stor-All with a fax number. Counsel acknowledges that the fax number used was obtained from faxes alleged to have been received from Relator of 12-19-08 and 12-23-08 – dates AFTER the December 9, 2008 fax and actions of Stor-All's representative that has been called into be questioned. Thus, a reasonable mind may conclude further supporting PRETEXT and Stor-All's efforts to shield an illegal animus.

IV. REQUEST FOR SANCTIONS

> Disciplinary Counsel v. Davis, 2009 -Ohio- 500 (Ohio,2009) - When imposing sanctions for attorney misconduct, the Supreme Court considers relevant factors, including the duties the respondent breached and the sanctions imposed in similar cases.
>
> Warren Cty. Bar Assn. v. Marshall, 2009 -Ohio- 501 (Ohio,2009) - When imposing sanctions for attorney misconduct, the Supreme Court considers relevant factors, including the duties the lawyer violated, the lawyer's mental state, and sanctions imposed in similar cases.
> Disciplinary Counsel v. Zigan, 2008 -Ohio- 1976 (Ohio,2008) - In determining the appropriate sanction to impose for attorney misconduct, the Supreme Court considers the duties violated, the actual or potential injury caused, the attorney's mental state, the existence of aggravating or mitigating circumstances, and sanctions imposed in similar cases.

Relator, through this instant filing Request/Motion for Sanctions of and against Respondents and/or their counsel, Christian J. Schaefer (#0015494) pursuant to S. Ct. R. XIV, Section 5 to issue the appropriate sanctions, in that RespMTD is sham/frivolous and has been submitted for delay, harassment, hindering proceedings, embarrassment, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, fraud, misrepresentation, deprivation of protected rights, in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Relator, evil and malicious intent, other reasons known to Respondents and the prosecuting attorney; therefore sustaining that the Ohio Supreme Court sua sponte or on motion by party, award to Relator reasonable expenses, fees, costs or double costs and/or any other sanction the Ohio Supreme Court deems just..

Relator through this instant motion, request this Court exercise to also exercise its own discretion and/or accept this motion and issue the applicable sanctions (if permissible – via "snapshot rule" and "inherent power," etc.) in that Respondents and/or their counsel knew and/or should have known that RespMTD lacked legal and evidentiary support and has been submitted for purposes of evading rule, annoyance, delay, sham, frivolousness, ill motive, bad faith, hindering proceedings, harassment, embarrassment, intimidation, obstructing the administration of justice, vexatious litigation, increasing the cost of litigation, deprivation of rights, deprivation of equal protection of the laws, deprivation of due process of laws, etc. of Relator; therefore warranting sanctions pursuant to S. Ct. R. XIV, Section 5 and/or applicable statutes/laws governing said matters. In support thereof, the Relator states:

> Skidmore Energy, Inc. v. KPMG, 455 F.3d 564, 569-570 (2006) – Under the "snapshot" rule, sanctions based on a frivolous pleading were proper because the lack of legal and evidentiary support for the pleading at the time it was filed. The . . .court found the claims lacked both legal and factual support and imposed more than $500,000 in sanctions against plaintiffs and their counsel, based on defendants' reasonable expenses incurred in litigating against the claims. . . . This test focuses on the instant when the signature is placed on the document, and the state of mind of the signer at the time. The test ensures the Rule 11 liability is assessed only for violation existing at the moment of filing. The . . . court had clearly concluded that the pleadings were frivolous when filed. The fact that they continued to lack evidentiary support throughout the proceedings only underscored the violation.
> Skidmore Energy, Inc. v. KPMG, 455 F.3d 564 (2006) - (n. 4) Both client and attorney have duty to conduct reasonable inquiry into facts or law before filing lawsuit; (n. 5) In lawsuit addressing ongoing dispute . . .court did not abuse its discretion in awarding Rule 11 sanctions against plaintiffs; rather than sanctioning them for legally frivolous nature of pleadings, it sanctioned them for . . .factually groundless allegations in their complaint; and (n. 7) Fifth Circuit's "snapshot" rule/test ensures that Rule 11 liability is assessed only for a violation existing at moment of filing.
> Reasonable counsel fees for defending a suit pursued without justification was an appropriate sanction to be imposed against plaintiff, whose counsel was evidently operating in a flagrant disregard of norms of proper legal practice or in flagrant ignorance of legal principles easily discernible and relevant to the case. Costanzo v. Plain Dealer Pub. Co., 715 F.Supp. 1380 (N.D. Ohio, 1989) (West Ohio Digest)

48. Just as Stor-All (who is plaintiff in underlying lawsuit of Emergency Writ of Prohibition) filed Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer for malicious intent, so has Respondents in the bringing of its Motion to Dismiss in this action. Respondents knew prior to brining its Motion to Dismiss, it had no hopes at success.

> Attorney's ethical obligation of zealous advocacy on behalf of his or her client does not amount to carte blanche to burden the . . .courts by pursuing claims that are frivolous on the merits, and, when attorney knows or reasonably should know that claim pursued is frivolous, or that his or her litigation tactics will needlessly obstruct the litigation of nonfrivolous claims, trial court does not err by assessing fees attributable to such actions against the attorney. Wilson-Simmons v.

Lake County Sheriff's Dept., 207 F.3d 818, 2000 Fed.App. 104P (6th Cir., Ohio 2000) (West Ohio Digest).

When attorney knows or reasonably should know that claim pursued is frivolous, or that his or her litigation tactics will needlessly obstruct litigation of nonfrivolous claims, assessment of fees attributable to such actions against attorney is proper. Fifth Third Bank v. Boswell, 125 F.R.D. 460 (S.D. Ohio, 1989) (West Ohio Digest)

Reasonable counsel fees for defending a suit pursued without justification was an appropriate sanction to be imposed against plaintiff, whose counsel was evidently operating in a flagrant disregard of norms of proper legal practice or in flagrant ignorance of legal principles easily discernible and relevant to the case. Costanzo v. Plain Dealer Pub. Co., 715 F.Supp. 1380 (N.D. Ohio, 1989) (West Ohio Digest)

49. As a matter of law, Relator is entitled to relief from sanctions of and against Respondents and/or their counsel, Christian J. Schaefer (#0015494) for the bringing of this instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition and subsequent pleadings which fees/costs for bringing and defending is approximately $14,768.75 (Time for Research/Drafting of pleadings - Emergency Writ of Prohibition, Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes and now this instant filing of approximately 126.25 hours at $115 hr. = $14,518.75; copying/postage/out-of-pocket expenses of approximately $250). The record evidence will sustain that Relator has filed the applicable Motions for Sanctions in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas Case No. 09CV01690 which are presently pending; however may need the Supreme Court's intervention through prohibition/mandamus and/or applicable statutes/laws known to said Court to assure issuance and granting of sanctions warranted to deter legal wrongs rendered Relator.

Roo v. Sain, 2005 -Ohio- 2436 (Ohio.App.10.Dist.,2005) - Landlord engaged in habitually persistent, vexatious conduct, as required to support order declaring landlord vexatious litigator and limiting future litigation against tenant; after tenant was granted summary judgment on grounds of res judicata in landlord's action to recover unpaid rent that arose from same transaction that was basis for prior unlawful detainer action and judgment was affirmed on appeal, landlord appealed to Supreme Court, which denied jurisdiction and then denied reconsideration of jurisdiction issue, granted motions for sanctions, denied landlord's motion for relief from sanctions, and then ordered further sanctions when landlord renewed motion. R.C. § 2323.52.

See EXHIBIT "20" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. The record evidence clearly sustains Stor-All's and its insurance company's (Liberty Mutual) knowledge of Relator's engagement in protected activities and said knowledge being the motive behind the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Relator. Moreover, the bringing of the malicious forcible entry and detainer action underlying this instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition.

50. Relator believes that the hourly rate charged considering history/pattern-of-practice/pattern-of-conduct to interfere with legal representation and/or obstructing Relator's access through legal representation for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in matters. Relator is college educated (B.S. Degree) and has experience in the legal profession.

51. Relator believes the record evidence further sustains that she is entitled to costs/fees/expenses associated with bringing of this Prohibition action and the defending thereof due to her indigent status that has been contributed to plaintiff's (Stor-All Alfred, LLC) and others actions in the lawsuit underlying this matter. The Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer was a malicious lawsuit brought against Relator for purposes of covering up its criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Relator. Once filed, Stor-All engaged the services of Respondents to aid and abet in the furtherance of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Relator. Moreover, Stor-All relied upon unlawful/illegal practices to influence Respondents' decision; therefore, warranting the filing of this Emergency Writ of Prohibition for the reasons set forth herein.

52. Relator believes the record evidence will sustain that Stor-All and others (i.e. such as Respondents) continue to file vexatious pleadings for purposes of bankrupting Relator and causing her financial ruin/devastation; moreover, for purposes of preventing her from obtaining justice. Pitting its Respondents and Stor-All's and its representatives mega financial wealth, vast legal resources, arsenal of attorneys against the single pro se litigant (Relator) who is presently unemployed as a direct and proximate result of criminal/civil wrongs leveled against Newsome for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in the lawsuit underlying this Emergency Writ of Prohibition.

53. JUSTICE demands and due to public concerns, Relator is entitled to the sanctions she seeks of and against Respondents and their counsel for having to bring this instant Emergency Writ of Prohibition. Said filing has been submitted in good faith.

54. Should the Ohio Supreme Court grant Emergency Writ of Prohibition and the relief of sanctions, that it order that said fees/costs/expenses incurred by Relator be made payable approximately 15 days from the time of entry of granting to Prohibition relief.

CONCLUSION

This Emergency Writ of Prohibition action was brought as the direct and proximate result of the racial and malicious intent of the plaintiff, Stor-All Alfred, LLC, in the underlying lawsuit from which this action has been brought. Stor-All's and its insurance company's, Liberty Mutual Insurance's, knowledge of Relator's engagement in protected activities clearly outside this matter and unrelated, resulted in its bringing of Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer in the lower court. Said Complaint was met with Relator's Answer to Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer; Notification Accompanying Counter-Claim; Counter-Claim and Demand for Jury Trial. Stor-All's bringing its forcible entry and detainer action was also for purposes of covering up its criminal/civil wrongs, in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Relator, and other reasons known to Stor-All. The evidence contained in this Emergency Writ of Prohibition action and that in the records of the lower courts will support what African-Americans and/or people of color have known for quite some time:

a) Racial/Prejudicial biases in the application of the laws – the laws are not equally applied when whites are involved. Whites get more lenient sentences for criminal acts than that of African-Americans and/or people of color. However, Relator in her Criminal Complaint filed with the FBI out of the completion of additional crimes and/or furtherance of crimes and conspiracies – to obtain the object pursued - is requesting the maximum punishment (fine and imprisonment) under the laws for such egregious criminal acts rendered her by those found to be guilty of the September 9-10, 2009, crimes carried out against her. This instant pleading will further support how Stor-All has used its vast financial and legal resources for purposes of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage in this lawsuit and has relied upon special favors by Respondents, Judge John Andrew West and others to obtain rulings in its favor that are contrary to statutes/laws governing said matters.

b) Racial profiling. Stalking of Relator, etc. for purposes of attempting to get her to commit a crime and/or crimes – i.e. which backfired and Stor-All, its representatives and others instead being those who have engaged in criminal activities similar to those in which O.J. Simpson was found guilty of.

c) Deprivation of rights, obstruction of justice, conspiracy to interfere with civil rights through the obstruction of justice. Deprivation of equal protection of the laws and due process of laws – rights secured under the Constitution (Ohio and United States), Civil Rights Act and other governing statutes/laws.

d) Racial discrimination, discrimination in employment, discrimination in the handling of judicial lawsuits, etc.

Such concerns which the United States President, Barack Obama, is fully aware of and has committed to addressing and NOT tolerating under his administration. Said commitment to said causes is evidenced in his nomination of the United States Attorney General, Eric Holder, Supreme Court Justice, Sonia Sontomayer, Tom Perez, and others. Moreover, his concerns to see that the laws are equally applied free of discrimination, prejudices and bias – such concerns may be evidenced in his promise requested of Sontomayer:

> Sonia Sotomayor's Big Day
> September 25, 2009 11:00 AM
>
> With the first Monday in October just around the corner, Justice Sonia Sotomayor sat for an interview with C-Span's Susan Swain and reveals the dramatic tale of how she came to learn that she was being nominated to the Supreme Court:
>
> . . . SOTOMAYOR: Still at home, still packing. I actually stood by my balcony doors, and I had the - my cell phone in my right hand and I had my left hand over my chest trying to calm my beating heart, literally. And the president got on the phone and said to me, 'Judge, I would like to announce you as my selection to be the next Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.'
> And I said to him--I caught my breath and started to cry and said, 'Thank you, Mr. President.' That was what the moment was like.
> SWAIN: And then what?
> SOTOMAYOR: He asked me to make him two promises. The first was to remain the person I was, and the second was to stay connected to my community. And I said to him that those were two easy promises to make, because those two things I could not change. And he then said we would see each other in the morning. Which we obviously did. . . .

Apparently, aware of how such judges (as Judge John Andrew West and Judge Nadine L. Allen) when given the opportunity to make a difference and see that they laws are equally applied and justice is rendered regardless of the color of skin, etc., they succumb to bribery, threats, intimidation, blackmail, conspiracies, etc. which strips and deprives citizens of protected rights. Further evidence of Stor-All's ability to influence the Judge's decision and getting it vacated, is that of Judge Nadine L. Allen's July 10, 2009 ruling (Order Granting Motion to Transfer for Jurisdiction) – See EXHIBIT "5" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Moreover, out of

ALL post judgments filed in the lower court actions lawsuit, the ONLY one that has been acted upon was that of Judge Allen's July 10, 2009 ruling. Wherein she vacated said Order on or about August 6, 2009 – See EXHIBIT "3" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Doing so without jurisdiction and without just cause. Nevertheless, ALL of Relator's post motions in lower court and the relief sought are REPEATEDLY IGNORED. Moreover, a reasonable mind may conclude, that as Judge West admitted at the March 2009 hearing, the court does not consider any filings of Relator. Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude the TRUE motives/reasons why Judge Sonia Sotomayor was attacked for her statement:

It is apparent what was meant by such statement; moreover, why those who are not African-American and/or a person of color would be offended and/or oppose such statement. Look at the rulings and the handling of matters involving Relator and how they have been influenced by criminal/illegal/unlawful practices by corrupt officials and Stor-All. No one with the morals, integrity, personal experience and review of the statutes/laws on the books, would definitely have not engaged in such criminal/illegal/unlawful practices as those repeatedly leveled against Relator and carried out on September 9-10, 2009. The record evidence will support that those orchestrating and carrying out of such crimes against Relator have been of the white majority and that their decisions are racially motivated and done with purposes of oppression and to keep "Relator in her place." Just as Judge Sotomayor has attempted to retract making such a statement, the TRUTH is the TRUTH and there should have been no apology necessary for the truth; however, when one is bent on keeping such racial and discriminatory practices as that leveled against Relator and carried out by corrupt judges and others UNDERCOVER/HIDDEN, then of course they would be offended by such a statement.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Relator reiterates the defenses set forth in Rebuttal/Opposition To Motion To Dismiss and Memorandum In Support of Motion To Dismiss of Respondents; and Request For Sanctions and hereby moves this honorable Court to GRANT the relief sought through this instant filing as well as that of her Emergency Writ of Prohibition and Supporting Affidavits and Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes and to issue the applicable sanctions of and against Respondents and their counsel, Christian J. Schaefer for the reasons set forth above and pursuant to S. Ct. R. XIV, Section 5 and the applicable statutes/laws governing said matters. Moreover, any and all applicable relief the Ohio Supreme Court deems just and fair to correct the legal wrongs complained of herein.

Respectfully submitted this 19th day of October, 2009.

Maple Hts. v. Ephraim, 2008 -Ohio- 4576 (Ohio.App.8.Dist. 2008) - Much like the rule of aiding and abetting, the overt acts of one person in a criminal conspiracy are attributable to all persons in the conspiracy.

COUNT ONE: CONSPIRACY

I. CONSPIRACY[3]

Conspiracy - An agreement by two or more persons to commit an unlawful act, coupled with an intent to achieve the agreement's objective, and (in most states) action or conduct that furthers the agreement; a combination for an unlawful purpose. 18 USC § 371. . .

> "When two or more persons combine for the purpose of inflicting upon another person an injury which is unlawful in itself, or which is rendered unlawful by the mode in which it is inflicted, and in either case the other person suffers damage, they commit the tort of conspiracy." P.H. Winfield, A Textbook of the Law of Tort §128, at 434 (5th ed. 1950)

Chain Conspiracy - A single conspiracy in which each person is responsible for a distinct act within the overall plan. . . .*All participants are interested in the overall scheme and liable for all other participants' acts in furtherance of that scheme. (Conspiracy §24(3) C.J.S. Conspiracy §§117-118).

Conspire - To engage in conspiracy; to join in a conspiracy.

Conspirator - A person who takes part in a conspiracy.

O.R.C. § 2923.01 CONSPIRACY.

(A) No person, with purpose to commit or to promote or facilitate the commission of . . . engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity, . . . shall do either of the following:

> (1) With another person or persons, plan or aid in planning the commission of any of the specified offenses;
> (2) Agree with another person or persons that one or more of them will engage in conduct that facilitates the commission of any of the specified offenses.

(B) No person shall be convicted of conspiracy unless a substantial overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy is alleged and proved to have been done by the accused or a person with whom the accused conspired, subsequent to the accused's entrance into the conspiracy. For purposes of this section, an overt act is substantial when it is of a character that manifests a purpose on the part of the actor that the object of the conspiracy should be completed.

(C) When the offender knows or has reasonable cause to believe that a person with whom the offender conspires also has conspired or is conspiring with another to commit the same offense, the offender is guilty of conspiring with that other person, even though the other person's identity may be unknown to the offender.

(D) It is no defense to a charge under this section that, in retrospect, commission of the offense that was the object of the conspiracy was impossible under the circumstances.

(E) A conspiracy terminates when the offense or offenses that are its objects are committed or when it is abandoned by all conspirators. In the absence of abandonment, it is no defense to a charge under this section that no offense that was the object of the conspiracy was committed.

(F) A person who conspires to commit more than one offense is guilty of only one conspiracy, when the offenses are the object of the same agreement or continuous conspiratorial relationship.

(G) When a person is convicted of committing or attempting to commit a specific offense or of complicity in the commission of or attempt to commit the specific offense, the person shall not be convicted of conspiracy involving the same offense.

(H)(1) No person shall be convicted of conspiracy upon the testimony of a person with whom the defendant conspired, unsupported by other evidence.

(2) If a person with whom the defendant allegedly has conspired testifies against the defendant in a case in which the defendant is charged with conspiracy and if the testimony is supported by other evidence, the court, when it charges the jury, shall state substantially the following:

> "The testimony of an accomplice that is supported by other evidence does not become inadmissible because of the accomplice's complicity, moral turpitude, or self-interest, but the admitted or claimed complicity of a witness may affect the witness' credibility and make the witness' testimony subject to grave suspicion, and require that it be weighed with great caution.

It is for you, as jurors, in the light of all the facts presented to you from the witness stand, to evaluate such testimony and to determine its quality and worth or its lack of quality and worth."

(3) "Conspiracy," as used in division (H)(1) of this section, does not include any conspiracy that results in an attempt to commit an offense or in the commission of an offense.

(I) The following are affirmative defenses to a charge of conspiracy:

(1) After conspiring to commit an offense, the actor thwarted the success of the conspiracy under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of the actor's criminal purpose.

(2) After conspiring to commit an offense, the actor abandoned the conspiracy prior to the commission of or attempt to commit any offense that was the object of the conspiracy, either by advising all other conspirators of the actor's abandonment, or by informing any law enforcement authority of the existence of the conspiracy and of the actor's participation in the conspiracy.

(J) Whoever violates this section is guilty of conspiracy, which is one of the following:

(1) A felony of the first degree, when one of the objects of the conspiracy is aggravated murder, murder, or an offense for which the maximum penalty is imprisonment for life;

(2) A felony of the next lesser degree than the most serious offense that is the object of the conspiracy, when the most serious offense that is the object of the conspiracy is a felony of the first, second, third, or fourth degree;

(3) A felony punishable by a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than eighteen months, or both, when the offense that is the object of the conspiracy is a violation of any provision of Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code, other than section 3734.18 of the Revised Code, that relates to hazardous wastes;

(4) A misdemeanor of the first degree, when the most serious offense that is the object of the conspiracy is a felony of the fifth degree.

(K) This section does not define a separate conspiracy offense or penalty where conspiracy is defined as an offense by one or more sections of the Revised Code, other than this section. In such a case, however:

(1) With respect to the offense specified as the object of the conspiracy in the other section or sections, division (A) of this section defines the voluntary act or acts and culpable mental state necessary to constitute the conspiracy;

(2) Divisions (B) to (I) of this section are incorporated by reference in the conspiracy offense defined by the other section or sections of the Revised Code.

(L)(1) In addition to the penalties that otherwise are imposed for conspiracy, a person who is found guilty of conspiracy to engage in a pattern of corrupt activity is subject to divisions (B)(2) and (3) of section 2923.32, division (A) of section 2981.04, and division (D) of section 2981.06 of the Revised Code.

1) The herein named Conspirator each are bound by the acts of other Conspirators and/or Co-Conspirators in furtherance of the conspiracy made known through Newsome's Supreme Court of Ohio pleadings; as provided through Newsome's filings entitled, Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 Of The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes and subsequent pleadings.

2) The herein Conspirators each is criminally responsible and liable for all acts done in furtherance of the conspiratorial design leveled against Newsome.

3) Conspirators knew and/or should have known of the crimes being committed against Newsome in the handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Said ENTRY which is attached hereto at EXHIBIT "A" and incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full herein. Said criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice) committed in the handling of December 2, 2009, ENTRY by Conspirators were done with willful, deliberate, intentional and malicious intent to deprive Newsome rights secured to her under the Constitution as well as other laws of the United States.

4) Conspirator(s) through their criminal acts on or about December 2, 2009 and in their handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio, did knowingly, willing, intentionally and maliciously aid and abet the overt acts of each other in the criminal conspiracy leveled against Newsome.

5) Conspirators agreed to commit an unlawful act Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice, coupled with intent to achieve the agreement's objective – i.e. deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws, due process of laws, rights secured/guaranteed to her under the laws of the State of Ohio and laws of the United States – criminal acts knowingly, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously done for an unlawful purpose.

6) Conspirators combined for the purpose of inflicting upon Newsome an injury – i.e. tampering with mail, obstructing and impeding receipt of December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio regarding Emergency Writ of Prohibition - which is unlawful in itself; moreover, was rendered unlawfully by the mode in which it was inflicted to deprive her equal protection of the laws and due process of laws, wherein Newsome has been injured/harmed/damaged.

7) Conspirators engaged in a Chain Conspiracy wherein each Conspirator was responsible for the carrying out of the distinct act within the overall plan – i.e. Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio did knowingly and willingly AGREE to the December 2, 2009 ENTRY executed by Justice Thomas J. Moyer dismissing Newsome's Emergency Writ of Prohibition action. Doing so with knowledge that said ruling clearly conflicted with said Court's prior rulings on matter as well as that of other courts of the United States. - - All Conspirators having an interest in the overall scheme of the criminal conspiracy leveled against Newsome and are liable for all other Conspirators' acts in furtherance of that scheme.

8) Conspirators, with purpose to commit or to promote or facilitate the commission of engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity, did knowingly, willingly, intentionally, deliberately and maliciously:

    a. Plan or aid with other Conspirator(s) in planning the commission of criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice) leveled against Newsome to deprive her equal protection of the laws, due process of laws, infringement upon Newsome's Constitutional and Civil Rights as well as other rights secured/guaranteed under the laws of the United States.

b. Agree with other Conspirator(s) that one or more of them would engage in conduct that would impede, hinder and interfere with Newsome's timely receipt of December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio for purposes of depriving Newsome equal protection of the laws, due process of laws and other rights secured under the laws of the United States.

9) By engaging in the criminal acts involving the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio, each Conspirator carried out an OVERT act in furtherance of the conspiracy made known to the Ohio Supreme Court and lower courts through Newsome's Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 Of The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes. Conspirators in engaging in conspiracy and fulfilling their role in criminal conspiracy did knowingly, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously did see that the object of their conspiracy was obtained – i.e. engagement in CORRUPTION for purposes of COVERING UP, aiding and abetting, and in furtherance of the criminal acts filed with the FBI on or about September 24, 2009 (made known to the Supreme Court of Ohio through Newsome's pleading filed entitled, "Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 Of The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes") with intent to deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws by obstructing, impeding, tampering and compromising mailing through committal of criminal acts - which resulted in what the Supreme Court of Ohio alleges was an untimely filing of Newsome's Motion for Reconsideration with knowledge that it had engaged in criminal activities to deter, impede and interfere with rights secured to Newsome under the laws of the State of Ohio as well as the laws of the United States. The record evidence will support that the Supreme Court of Ohio was timely, properly and adequately notified of its engagement in CRIMINAL activities. To no avail.

10) Conspirators knew and/or had reasonable cause to believe that other person with whom he/she conspired also has conspired with another to commit the same criminal offense(s) -- Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice - - and/or the fulfilling of said criminal offense although the identity may be unknown to the offender.

11) Any defense that Conspirators may attempt to assert such as, "object of the conspiracy was impossible under the circumstances," is frivolous and cannot be sustained.

12) Conspirators fulfilled the object of their criminal conspiracy and engagement in criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to

CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD

III. CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD

(c) CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD:[5]

Words "conspiracy to defraud" import moral obliquity and, according to their natural meaning, signify an attempt to deceive by fraud, and such conduct may not be presumed nor established by surmise or conjecture but must be proved by direct evidence or by justifiable inferences from established facts and circumstances. Pumphrey v. Quillen, 141 N.E.2d 675, 102 Ohio App. 173, 2 O.O.2d 152, affirmed 135 N.E.2d 328, 165 Ohio St. 343, 59 O.O. 460.

wrongful act, but also as involving wickedness, depravity and evil intent.

Willful, Wanton, and Reckless Acts:[8] Tort liability may be based on willful, wanton, or reckless acts. A willful act is one done intentionally, or on purpose, and not accidentally. Willfulness implies intentional wrongdoing. . . Willfulness is sufficiently established where there is a knowledge that the act will probably result in an injury to another, and an utter disregard of the consequences.. . A finding of willful misconduct will be sustained where it is clear from the facts that the defendant, whatever his state of mind, has proceeded in disregard of a high degree of danger, whether known to him or apparent to a reasonable person in his position.. . .Wanton act is a wrongful act done on purpose or in malicious disregard of the rights of others. A tort having some of the characteristics of both negligence and willfulness occurs when a person with no intent to cause harm intentionally performs an act so unreasonable and dangerous that he knows, or should know, it is highly probable that harm will result from it.

(1) (a) TACIT AGREEMENT -

Occurs when two or more persons pursue by their acts the same object by the same means. One person performing one part and the other another part, so that upon completion they have obtained the object pursued. Regardless whether each person knew of the details or what part each was to perform, the end results being they obtained the object pursued. Agreement is implied or inferred from actions or statements.

(b) TACIT DEFINED: [9]

Implied but not actually expressed; implied by silence or silent acquiescence .

(c) TACIT CONTRACT DEFINED: [10]

A contract in which conduct takes the place of written or spoken words in the offer of acceptance (or both).

Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice - for purposes depriving Newsome the right to contest and/or acquiesce the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Therefore, Newsome is requesting through this instant Complaint that an investigation into the claims and allegations set forth herein and that those found to have acted in such unlawful/illegal manner be prosecuted and indicted for said legal wrongs.

2) Newsome learned of the completion of criminal conspiracy of Conspirators upon receiving the December 16, 2009, letter of JoElla (Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court of Ohio). See EXHIBIT "B" attached hereto and incorporated by reference. Said letter advising Newsome of the Supreme Court of Ohio's refusal to file her Motion for Reconsideration alleging "The Clerk's Office is prohibited by from filing an untimely motion for reconsideration by Rule XI, Section 2(D)." See EXHIBIT "C" – Motion attached hereto and incorporated by reference. As a matter of law and in the interest of justice, Newsome's Motion for Reconsideration was timely filed and would have been considered timely filed absent the criminal acts of the Supreme Court of Ohio's engagement in criminal conspiracy to deprive Newsome of said rights and because GOOD CAUSE has been established.

3) While Newsome had concerns as to the Supreme Court of Ohio's handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY, said concerns were VALIDATED in receipt of the December 16, 2009, letter from JoElla Jones. Furthermore, said concerns of Newsome were memorialized by including United States President Barack Obama and United States Attorney General Eric Holder as recipients of the Motion for Reconsideration. See EXHIBIT "D" – December 14, 2009 Mailing Receipt Information attached hereto and incorporated by reference. With said Motion for Reconsideration, Newsome provided a copy of her October 19, 2009, letter to the Supreme Court of Ohio wherein she was requesting AGAIN to be advised of any Conflict of Interest. See EXHIBIT "E" – 12/14/09 Cover Letter attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

4) On or about December 19, 2009, Newsome timely, properly and adequately notified the Supreme Court of Ohio of its criminal acts through her correspondence dated same (See EXHIBIT "F" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein) as well as her pleading entitled, "Motion To File Motion For Reconsideration Out Of Time and Notice of Ohio Supreme Court's Obstruction Of Justice – Impeding Relator's Timely Receipt of 12/02/09 Entry" attached hereto at EXHIBIT "G" and incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full herein. However, said filing was also rejected by the Supreme Court of Ohio. See EXHIBIT "S" – 12/21/09 Letter attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

5) Both United States President Barack Obama as well as United States Attorney Eric Holder was also provided with Newsome's December 19, 2009, Motion To File Motion For Reconsideration Out Of Time and Notice of Ohio Supreme Court's Obstruction Of Justice – Impeding Relator's Timely Receipt of 12/02/09 Entry. See EXHIBIT "H"- USPS Mailing Receipts (sent with "Delivery" Only Confirmation) attached hereto and incorporated by reference. If President Barack Obama and U.S. Attorney General Holder have not received said pleading at the time of this instant FBI Complaint, it is of their own doing. They were each provided via e-mail that filings had been submitted to their attention. See EXHIBIT "I" attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

6) Through this instant Complaint, Newsome is requesting an investigation into the claims/crimes and allegations set forth herein to determine whether any and/or all of the above referenced Conspirators engaged in a conspiracy toward Newsome and committed crimes [i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice] which were the object of said conspiracy. If so, that the proper prosecution and indictments be rendered and the applicable punishment permissible and/or required by statutes/laws be had of and against all/any of the Conspirators found to be guilty of said crime and/or unlawful/illegal action.

7) Newsome believes that an investigation into allegations and claims against the above referenced Conspirators will support that two or more of said Conspirators agreed to commit unlawful/illegal acts coupled with the intent to achieve the agreements' objectives: (a) to conspire against Newsome in exercise of protected rights; (b) subjecting Newsome to criminal acts – i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice; (c) acts in furtherance of criminal acts leveled against Newsome on or about September 9-10, 2009 in which a timely criminal complaint has also been filed with the FBI and the Supreme Court of Ohio was notified of through Newsome's Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 Of The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes; and (d) any such unlawful/illegal acts found during the handling of this investigation.

8) Conspirators conspired for the purpose of inflicting upon Newsome intentional and deliberate injury/harm which they knew was unlawful/illegal and inflicted in a manner known to said Conspirators to be unlawful/illegal and prohibited by statutes/laws. Such actions which resulted in criminal wrongs done of and against Newsome by Conspirators as a direct and proximate result of the conspiracy leveled against her.

9) Conspirators were responsible for a distinct act within the overall plan of the conspiracy in which they were willing participants. Said Conspirators having an interest in the overall scheme and the outcome of said scheme/conspiracy and is therefore, liable for their action and/or those of others in the carrying out of their role in the illegal/unlawful actions against Newsome in furtherance of the conspiracy alleged.

10) The completion of the most recent conspiracy involving the above referenced Conspirators was executed on or about December 2, 2009.

11) Conspirators, under color of their office or authority, knowingly deprived or conspired to deprive Newsome of constitutional and statutory rights.

12) Conspirators, under color of their office or authority, knowingly interfered with Newsome's civil rights.

13) The plan or scheme embodied by the Supreme Court of Ohio and others was done for the purpose of accomplishing the object[11] (i.e. engagement in CORRUPTION for purposes of COVERING UP, aiding and abetting, and in furtherance of the criminal acts filed with the FBI on or about September 24, 2009 (made known to the Supreme Court of Ohio through Newsome's pleading filed entitled, "Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 Of The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes") with intent to deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws by obstructing, impeding, tampering and compromising mailing through committal of criminal acts) of conspiracy by: (a) Knowingly, willfully, intentionally, deliberately, and maliciously withholding the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio from Newsome to deprive her equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. (b) Furthering the Pattern-of-Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct in the conspiracy leveled against Newsome. (c) Prejudicing factfinder, justices and others, etc. against Newsome by advising of knowledge of her engagement in protected activities unrelated to the Stor-All matter. (d) Projecting Newsome as a "serial/vexatious" litigator, paranoid, psychotic, hostile, potential murderer, boy-who-cried-wolf, etc. (e) Getting factfinders, justices and others to engage in conspiracy and/or in furtherance of pattern-of-practice/pattern-of-conduct underlying the conspiracy against Newsome. (f) Engaged in criminal conspiracy on December 2, 2009, for purposes of furthering conspiracy and criminal acts made known to the Supreme Court of Ohio through Newsome's Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 Of The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes.

14) There was an agreement/understanding between persons – Conspirators – wherein they became definitely committed to cooperate, play their part for the accomplishment of object[12] by the agreement/understanding embodied in said agreement/understanding.

15) The concerns of the PUBLIC, media and others regarding the Supreme Court of Ohio's taking and receiving monies from insurance companies through financial campaign contribution is not new to the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices. Neither are they ashamed of the impropriety that such acts present. The record evidence will support that the MAJORITY of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices have received well over $320,000 in financial campaign contributions from law firms who represent LIBERTY MUTUAL.

19) Conspirators conspired to commit criminal acts made known in the criminal complaint with knowledge or should have known of their engagement in wrongful acts done on purpose and in malicious disregard to Newsome's rights.

20) Conspirators acted with negligence and willfulness with deliberate intent to harm/injure Newsome – acts said Conspirators knew were unlawful/illegal, unreasonable and dangerous and having knowledge that Newsome would be injured/harmed.

21) Record evidence of Conspirators and that of courts will sustain said Conspirators' knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and their eagerness to share said knowledge with each other in furtherance of Pattern-of-Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct underlying conspiracy against Newsome. Record evidence and that of courts will support Conspirators having knowledge of Newsome's engagement in statutorily protected rights [i.e. Title VII, Fair Housing Act, Landlord & Tenant Act, etc.], and with said knowledge subjected Newsome to an adverse action [i.e. contacting employers, factfinders, judges and others to notify of Newsome's engagement in protected activities – either present or past]. The record evidence of Conspirators will support there is a causal link between protected activities Newsome is engaged in and the adverse criminal actions Conspirators have leveled against her. In the present matter, on or about December 2, 2009, the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices/Officials/Employees and others did knowingly engage in criminal conspiracy leveled against Newsome to deprive her rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and laws of the United States. Said Criminal Conspiracy and evidence to sustain is set forth in this instant FBI Complaint.

22) Conspirators conspired to injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate Newsome in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege of the United States and the State of Ohio secured to her under the Constitution (Ohio and U.S.), Civil Rights Act, and any/all statutes/laws governing said matters because of Newsome having exercised said rights.

23) Conspirators on or about December 2, 2009, engaged in criminal conspiracy to deprive Newsome the right to contest and/or acquiesce the December 2, 2009 ENTRY as required under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States. In so doing deprived Newsome her free exercise or enjoyment of rights or privileges so secured to her under the applicable statutes/laws governing said matters.

24) There is record evidence to sustain Conspirators engaged in furtherance of Pattern-of Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct underlying the conspiracy leveled against Newsome that has existed for approximately 24 years and is still ongoing. That the egregious acts of Conspirators in the carrying out of object of conspiracies were willful, malicious and wanton warranting the maximum punishment – i.e. fine(s) and imprisonment for maximum time required under the laws. 30) Conspirator(s) committed said criminal acts in the handling of December 2, 2009 ENTRY, with knowledge that said actions would result in injury/harm to Newsome and deprive her of equal protection of the laws and due process of laws; moreover, rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States. Conspirator(s) knowingly committed criminal acts with utter disregard of the consequences. Moreover, for willful, malicious and wanton intent.

31) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

32) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

CONSPIRACY TO INTERFERE WITH CIVIL RIGHTS

IV. CONSPIRACY TO INTERFERE WITH CIVIL RIGHTS:

42 U.S.C. § 1985
Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights

(2) Obstructing justice; intimidating party, witness, or juror:

> If two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire to deter, by force, intimidation, or threat, any party or witness in any court of the United States from attending such court, or from testifying to any matter pending therein, freely, fully, and truthfully, or to injure such party or witness in his person or property on account of his having so attended or testified, or to influence the verdict, presentment, or indictment of any grand or petit juror in any such court, or to injure such juror in his person or property on account of any verdict, presentment, or indictment lawfully assented to by him, or of his being or having been such juror; or if two or more persons conspire for the purpose of impeding, hindering, obstructing, or defeating, in any manner, the due course of justice in any State or

Territory, with intent to deny to any citizen the equal protection of the laws, or to injure him or his property for lawfully enforcing, or attempting to enforce, the right of any person, or class of persons, to the equal protection of the laws;

(3) Depriving persons of rights or privileges:

If two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire or go in disguise on the highway or on the premises of another, for the purpose of depriving, either directly or indirectly, any person or class of persons of the equal protection of the laws, or of equal privileges and immunities under the laws; or for the purpose of preventing or hindering the constituted authorities of any State or Territory from giving or securing to all persons within such State or Territory the equal protection of the laws; or if two or more persons conspire to prevent by force, intimidation, or threat, any citizen who is lawfully entitled to vote, from giving his support or advocacy in a legal manner, toward or in favor of the election of any lawfully qualified person as an elector for President or Vice President, or as a Member of Congress of the United States; or to injure any citizen in person or property on account of such support or advocacy; in any case of conspiracy set forth in this section, if one or more persons engaged therein do, or cause to be done, any act in furtherance of the object of such conspiracy, whereby another is injured in his person or property, or deprived of having and exercising any right or privilege of a citizen of the United States, the party so injured or deprived may have an action for the recovery of damages occasioned by such injury or deprivation, against any one or more of the conspirators.

O.R.C. § 2921.45 Interfering with civil rights.

(A) No public servant, under color of his office, employment, or authority, shall knowingly deprive, or conspire or attempt to deprive any person of a constitutional or statutory right.

(B) Whoever violates this section is guilty of interfering with civil rights, a misdemeanor of the first degree.

1) Newsome requests through the filing of this instant Complaint and investigations as to whether or not there has been a conspiracy against her rights pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1985.

2) Conspirators conspired to deter, force, and intimidate Newsome from freely exercising rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and laws of the United States. Moreover, for purposes of unlawfully/illegally influencing the ruling of the Supreme Court of Ohio and precluding and depriving Newsome with the right to contest the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of said Court.

3) Conspirators conspired for the purpose of impeding, hindering, obstructing and/or defeating through their criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice) the due course of justice in the State of Ohio, with intent to deny Newsome the equal protection of the laws and/or to injure Newsome in her person or property for lawfully enforcing or attempting to enforce rights secured to her under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States.

4) Conspirators conspired for the purposes of preventing or hindering the constituted authorities of the State of Ohio from giving or securing to Newsome within the State of Ohio the equal protection of the laws and compromising and impeding the handling of United States mailing to Newsome as that afforded to citizens of the United States and those of the State of Ohio.

5) Conspirators, under the color of their office, employment and/or authority, did willingly, deliberately, intentionally, and maliciously conspire to deprive Newsome of a constitutional and statutory right.

6) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint and investigation seeks the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of conspiracy against rights. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said conspiracy was being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done were about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

7) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT FIVE:
PUBLIC CORRUPTION

V. PUBLIC CORRUPTION

CUT & PASTED FROM:
http://www.fbi.gov/hq/cid/pubcorrupt/pubcorrupt.htm
Public corruption is one of the FBI's top investigative priorities—behind only terrorism, espionage, and cyber crimes. Why? Because of its impact on our democracy and national security. Public corruption can affect everything from how well our borders are secured and our neighborhoods protected…to verdicts handed down in courts…

CUT & PASTED FROM:
http://www.fbi.gov/page2/june05/obrien062005.htm
CRACKING DOWN ON PUBLIC CORRUPTION

Why We Take It So Seriously...and Why It Matters To You
It's #4 in our top 10 list of investigative priorities—following counterterrorism, espionage, and cyber. Why do we rank it so highly? What are we doing to stop it? For the answers to these questions and more, we talked with Supervisory Special Agent Dan O'Brien, chief of our Public Corruption and Government Fraud program at FBI Headquarters.

Q: Why's the FBI so concerned about public corruption?
Dan: Two main reasons. First, it strikes at the core of what our country's about. Our democracy depends on a healthy, efficient, and ethical government—whether it's in the courtroom or the halls of Congress. . . .

CUT & PASTED FROM:
http://www.fbi.gov/page2/march04/greylord031504.htm
That's really the whole point. Abuse of the public trust cannot and must not be tolerated. Corrupt practices in government strike at the heart of social order and justice. And that's why the *FBI has the ticket on investigations of public corruption as a top priority. . . .

What kind of crimes? Bribery, kickbacks, and fraud. Vote buying, voter intimidation, impersonation. Political coercion. Racketeering and obstruction of justice. Trafficking of illegal drugs.

How serious of a problem is it? Last year the FBI investigated 850 cases; brought in 655 indictments/informations; and got 525 who were either convicted or chose to plead.

Last words: Straight from Teddy Roosevelt: "Unless a man is honest we have no right to keep him in public life, it matters not how brilliant his capacity, it hardly matters how great his power of doing good service on certain lines may be... No man who is corrupt, no man who condones corruption in others, can possibly do his duty by the community."

1) In that the FBI profess that Public Corruption is one of its TOP investigative priorities, Newsome requests an investigation and indictment of Conspirators engaging in public corruption and the criminal conspiracy leveled against Newsome on or about December 2, 2009, in the handling of the Supreme Court of Ohio's ENTRY in Newsome's Writ of Prohibition action. The public corruption of Conspirators have had a SERIOUS and IMPERATIVE impact on the Emergency Writ of Prohibition brought by Newsome to expose additional PUBLIC CORRUPTION by lower court officials and/or government officials in the handling of criminal acts rendered against Newsome on September 9-10, 2009. The criminal actions of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices and others were done with willful, intentional, malicious and wanton intent to COVER-UP corruption and criminal acts of other public officials. Said public corruption if not stopped will an ADVERSE impact and affect on our democracy, the public and court rulings.

2) The FBI's failure to prevent and deter such PUBLIC CORRUPTION will further send a message to the Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio and their Conspirators and/or Co-Conspirators that they are above the law.

3) The record evidence will support that the Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio have long known that they were engaging and/or should have known that they were engaging in criminal activities in their receipt of BRIBES (in the form of Campaign Contributions) from LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or LIBERTY MUTUAL's lawyers and/or lawyers' law firms for purposes of influencing the outcome of decisions in favor of LIBERTY MUTUAL's insured(s).

4) The Supreme Court of Ohio Justices and their Conspirators and/or Co-Conspirators knew and/or should have known that in the handling of its December 2, 2009 ENTRY that they were engaging in criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice).

5) Newsome believes that an investigation into this instant FBI Complaint will also support that the PUBLIC has repeatedly voiced concerns of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices' involvement and/or engagement in criminal wrongs – to no avail. Nevertheless, like any career criminal the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices, their Conspirators and Co-Conspirators committed one crime too many and on or about December 2, 2009 in the handling of ENTRY in Newsome's Emergency Writ of Prohibition action did knowingly and/or should have known they were engaging in criminal activities (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice). Furthermore, Newsome through her December 14, 2009, Motion for Reconsideration and December 19, 2009, Motion To File Motion For Reconsideration Out Of Time and Notice of Ohio Supreme Court's Obstruction Of Justice – Impeding Relator's Timely Receipt of 12/02/09 Entry did so timely, properly and adequately notify the Supreme Court of Ohio of its engagement in criminal activities and/or unlawful/illegal practices prohibited by the statutes/laws of the United States.

6) Newsome brings this instant FBI Complaint against Conspirators in that the FBI states that its concerns about Public Corruption strikes at the core of what the United States is all about. Moreover, that the democracy of the United States depends on a healthy, efficient and ethical government. The Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the performance of their roles in the handling of December 2, 2009 ENTRY in Newsome's Emergency Writ of Prohibition action committed said criminal acts because they placed themselves above the law and felt that they were untouchable.

7) Newsome brings the instant FBI Complaint in that the abuse of the public trust by the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices and their Conspirators/Co-Conspirators cannot and must not be tolerated.

8) Newsome believes that the instant FBI Complaint will support that the Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio's December 2, 2009 ENTRY in Emergency Writ of Prohibition action was influenced by bribes and fraud, etc. Moreover, handling of said December 2, 2009 ENTRY was done for purposes of CORRUPTION and the COVER-UP of criminal acts.

9) Because of the corruption and dishonesty, etc. of Conspirators – regardless of their titles or profession (i.e. Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio) – there is no need to keep them in public life to allow them to continue such HABITUAL criminal practices on other citizens. Said Conspirators belong behind bars for the safety of the public and/or other citizens.

10) No Justice or public officials who condone such corrupt and criminal practices/acts; moreover, engage in such corrupt and criminal acts, can possibly do his/her duty by the community.

11) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime(s) was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

12) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this FBI Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

O.R.C. § 2923.31 Corrupt activity definitions.

As used in sections 2923.31 to 2923.36 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Beneficial interest" means any of the following:

(1) The interest of a person as a beneficiary under a trust in which the trustee holds title to personal or real property;
(2) The interest of a person as a beneficiary under any other trust arrangement under which any other person holds title to personal or real property for the benefit of such person;
(3) The interest of a person under any other form of express fiduciary arrangement under which any other person holds title to personal or real property for the benefit of such person.. . .

(E) "Pattern of corrupt activity" means two or more incidents of corrupt activity, whether or not there has been a prior conviction, that are related to the affairs of the same enterprise, are not isolated, and are not so closely related to each other and connected in time and place that they constitute a single event.

At least one of the incidents forming the pattern shall occur on or after January 1, 1986. Unless any incident was an aggravated murder or murder, the last of the incidents forming the pattern shall occur within six years after the commission of any prior incident forming the pattern, excluding any period of imprisonment served by any person engaging in the corrupt activity.

For the purposes of the criminal penalties that may be imposed pursuant to section 2923.32 of the Revised Code, at least one of the incidents forming the pattern shall constitute a felony under the laws of this state in existence at the time it was committed or, if committed in violation of the laws of the United States or of any other state, shall constitute a felony under the law of the United States or the other state and would be a criminal offense under the law of this state if committed in this state.. . .

(G) “Person” means any person, as defined in section 1.59 of the Revised Code, and any governmental officer, employee, or entity.

(H) “Personal property” means any personal property, any interest in personal property, or any right, including, but not limited to, bank accounts, debts, corporate stocks, patents, or copyrights. Personal property and any beneficial interest in personal property are deemed to be located where the trustee of the property, the personal property, or the instrument evidencing the right is located.

(I) “Corrupt activity” means engaging in, attempting to engage in, conspiring to engage in, or soliciting, coercing, or intimidating another person to engage in any of the following:. . .

(2) Conduct constituting any of the following:

(a) A violation of section 1315.55, 1322.02, 2903.01, 2903.02, 2903.03, 2903.04, 2903.11, 2903.12, 2905.01, 2905.02, 2905.11, 2905.22, 2907.321, 2907.322, 2907.323, 2909.02, 2909.03, 2909.22, 2909.23, 2909.24, 2909.26, 2909.27, 2909.28, 2909.29, 2911.01, 2911.02, 2911.11, 2911.12, 2911.13, 2911.31, 2913.05, 2913.06, 2921.02, 2921.03, 2921.04, 2921.11, 2921.12, 2921.32, 2921.41, 2921.42, 2921.43, 2923.12, or 2923.17; division (F)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of section 1315.53; division (A)(1) or (2) of section 1707.042; division (B), (C)(4), (D), (E), or (F) of section 1707.44; division (A)(1) or (2) of section 2923.20; division (J)(1) of section 4712.02; section 4719.02, 4719.05, or 4719.06; division (C), (D), or (E) of section 4719.07; section 4719.08; or division (A) of section 4719.09 of the Revised Code.. . .

(J) “Real property” means any real property or any interest in real property, including, but not limited to, any lease of, or mortgage upon, real property. Real property and any beneficial interest in it is deemed to be located where the real property is located. . . .

O.R.C. § 2923.32 Engaging in pattern of corrupt activity.

(A)(1) No person employed by, or associated with, any enterprise shall conduct or participate in, directly or indirectly, the affairs of the enterprise through a pattern of corrupt activity or the collection of an unlawful debt.

(2) No person, through a pattern of corrupt activity or the collection of an unlawful debt, shall acquire or maintain, directly or indirectly, any interest in, or control of, any enterprise or real property.

(3) No person, who knowingly has received any proceeds derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of corrupt activity or the collection of any unlawful debt, shall use or invest, directly or indirectly, any part of those proceeds, or any proceeds derived from the use or investment of any of those proceeds, in the acquisition of any title to, or any right, interest, or equity in, real property or in the establishment or operation of any enterprise.

A purchase of securities on the open market with intent to make an investment, without intent to control or participate in the control of the issuer, and without intent to assist another to do so is not a violation of this division, if the securities of the issuer held after the purchase by the purchaser, the members of the purchaser's immediate family, and the purchaser's or the immediate family members' accomplices in any pattern of corrupt activity or the collection of an unlawful debt do not aggregate one per cent of the outstanding securities of any one class of the issuer and do not confer, in law or in fact, the power to elect one or more directors of the issuer.

(B)(1) Whoever violates this section is guilty of engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity. Except as otherwise provided in this division, engaging in corrupt activity is a felony of the second degree. Except as otherwise provided in this division, if at least one of the incidents of corrupt activity is a felony of the first, second, or third degree, aggravated murder, or murder, if at least one of the incidents was a felony under the law of this state that was committed prior to July 1, 1996, and that would constitute a felony of the first, second, or third degree, aggravated murder, or murder if committed on or after July 1, 1996, or if at least one of the incidents of corrupt activity is a felony under the law of the United States or of another state that, if committed in this state on or after July 1, 1996, would constitute a felony of the first, second, or third degree, aggravated murder, or murder under the law of this state, engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity is a felony of the first degree. If the offender also is convicted of or pleads guilty to a specification as described in section 2941.1422 of the Revised Code that was included in the indictment, count in the indictment, or information charging the offense, engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity is a felony of the first degree, and the court shall sentence the offender to a mandatory prison term as provided in division (D)(7) of section 2929.14 of the Revised Code and shall order the offender to make restitution as provided in division (B)(8) of section 2929.18 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person may be convicted of violating the provisions of this section as well as of a conspiracy to violate one or more of those provisions under section 2923.01 of the Revised Code.

1) Conspirators had a personal or beneficial interest in the commission of the crimes committed against Newsome. Two or more of the above reference Conspirators engaged in two or more corrupt activities to bring about the components of the object [i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice] needed to bring about the completion of the object/goal [i.e. engagement in CORRUPTION for purposes of COVERING UP, aiding and abetting, and in furtherance of the criminal acts filed with the FBI on or about September 24, 2009 (made known to the Supreme Court of Ohio through Newsome's pleading filed entitled, "Supreme Court of Ohio Notice of Filing: Criminal Complaint With The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Request for Applicable Relief Pursuant to Rule 2.15 Of The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Applicable Statutes/Codes") with intent to deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws by obstructing, impeding, tampering and compromising mailing through committal of criminal acts] which was accomplished. - - to support charges in this FBI Criminal Complaint.

2) The criminal actions of the Conspirators were done in furtherance of conspiracy; moreover, "PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE"/"PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT" underlying the conspiracy against Newsome that has been addressed in the September 24, 2009 FBI Complaint filed. Conspirator(s) in this instant filing relying upon their knowledge of the criminal/civil wrongs leveled against and other information to fuel their criminal activities. Conspirator(s) in this instant matter have resorted to criminal activities also in RETALIATION of his/her knowledge regarding Newsome that occurred in Jackson Mississippi on or about February 14, 2006 – FBI Complaint filed on or about June 26, 2006; in Covington, Kentucky on or about October 9, 2008 – FBI Complaint filed on or about October 13, 2008; in Cincinnati, Ohio on September 9-10, 2009 – FBI Complaint filed on or about September 24, 2009; and its knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities involving Title VII violations, Fair Housing Act violations, Civil Rights Violations, Constitutional Rights violations, and any and all applicable statutes/laws governing said matters. The criminal act committed by Conspirators constitutes, through such "PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE"/"PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT" underlying the criminal wrongs leveled against Newsome, a conspiracy under this statute and/or the applicable statutes/laws governing said matters. Conspirators engaged in the criminal actions underlying this Complaint for the purposes of unlawful/illegally depriving Newsome the right to contest and/or acquiesce the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio regarding Emergency Writ of Prohibition. Conspirators engaged in corrupt/criminal activities [i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice] for the purposes of unlawfully/illegally precluding Newsome from exercising her rights. The record evidence will support that Conspirators knew and/or should have known that Newsome would not waive her rights. With said knowledge by Conspirators that Newsome would not waive her rights and would contest December 2, 2009 ENTRY in Writ of Prohibition action, said Conspirators did willingly, knowingly, intentionally and maliciously conspire to impede, interfere, hinder and obstruct the administration of justice by engaging in the criminal acts leveled against her.

3) Conspirators conducted and participated in, either directly or indirectly, the conspiracy leveled against Newsome in the obstruction of justice and/or criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice) leveled against Newsome. Conspirators doing so through "PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE"/"PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT" underlying the conspiracy against Newsome. Certain Conspirators have knowingly received financial proceeds in advance derived from LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or LIBERTY MUTUAL's lawyers/law firms on behalf of its clients in exchange for rulings in their favor.

4) Conspirators in this instant Complaint have engaged in a PATTERN OF CORRUPT ACTIVITY. Conspirators in this instant Complaint by engaging in PATTERN OF CORRUPT ACTIVITY has committed a felony under this section.

5) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence contained herein will support that concerns of that Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio are tainted and corrupt through the financial contributions they receive. For instance the following information has been published regarding the PUBLIC'S concern of Corruption amongst Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio because of their receipt of financial campaign contributions:

In the fall of 2004, Terrence O'Donnell, an affable judge with the placid good looks of a small-market news anchor, was running hard to keep his seat on the Ohio Supreme Court. He was also considering two important class-action lawsuits that had been argued many months before.

In the weeks before the election, Justice O'Donnell's campaign accepted thousands of dollars from the political action committees of three companies that were defendants in the suits. Two of the cases dealt with defective cars, and one involved a toxic substance.

Weeks after winning his race, Justice O'Donnell joined majorities that handed the three companies significant victories.

Justice O'Donnell's conduct was unexceptional. In one of the cases, every justice in the 4-to-3 majority had taken money from affiliates of the companies. None of the dissenters had done so, but they had accepted contributions from lawyers for the plaintiffs. . . .

An examination of the Ohio Supreme Court by The New York Times found that its justices routinely sat on cases after receiving campaign contributions from the parties involved or from groups that filed supporting briefs. On average, they voted in favor of contributors 70 percent of the time. Justice O'Donnell voted for his contributors 91 percent of the time, the highest rate of any justice on the court.…

Even sitting justices have started to question the current system. "I never felt so much like a hooker down by the bus station in any race I've ever been in as I did in a judicial race," said Justice Paul E. Pfeifer, a Republican member of the Ohio Supreme Court. "Everyone interested in contributing has very specific interests."

"They mean to be buying a vote," Justice Pfeifer added. "Whether they succeed or not, it's hard to say.". . .

Elected justices there recently refused to disqualify themselves from hearing suits in which tens or hundreds of millions of dollars were at stake. The defendants were insurance, tobacco and coal companies whose supporters had spent millions of dollars to help elect the justices. . . .

Many judges said contributions were so common that recusal would wreak havoc on the system. The standard in the Ohio Supreme Court, its chief justice, Thomas J. Moyer, said, is to recuse only if "sitting on the case is going to be perceived as just totally unfair."

See EXHIBIT "J" – October 1, 2006 Article attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

Nevertheless, Newsome believes the evidence support and a reasonable mind may conclude that Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio engaged in the criminal acts arising out of the handling of said Court's December 2, 2009 ENTRY in regards to the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter. The evidence contained in said article supports that present presiding Justices have received Hundreds and Millions of dollars from financial campaign contributions and their knowledge and/or they should know that such SUBSTANTIAL and HEFTY financial campaign contributions are not provided without expectations of special favors and considerations being given in cases brought wherein the contributors have an interests in the outcome of legal proceedings.

The criminal conspiracy and the handling of the Supreme Court of Ohio's December 2, 2009 ENTRY is racially motivated and was entered in retaliation against Newsome and based on racial animus and bias towards her. Moreover, in furtherance of the conspiracy leveled against Newsome by other Conspirators addressed in her September 24, 2009 FBI Complaint filed in Cincinnati, Ohio.

As Mr. Adams shared in the above October 1, 2006 Article, "These gentlemen, they should be prosecuted for what I consider is taking a bribe," Newsome agrees and believes there is sufficient evidence in this instant FBI Complaint as well as to be obtained through an investigation to support that the criminal conspiracy leveled against Newsome on or about December 2, 2009, was influenced and motivated by the monies obtained by Justices through financial campaign contributions from LIBERTY MUTUAL, LIBERTY MUTUAL's lawyers and/or lawyers' law firms on their behalf and their clients were provided with knowledge that monies were paid to obtain rulings in their favor and for purposes of influencing decisions in favor of LIBERTY MUTUAL, its lawyers/law firms and their insureds/clients.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence will support that on or about October 19, 2009, Newsome requested that the Supreme Court of Ohio advise her of any Conflict of Interest; however, said request for information was ignored. See EXHIBIT "K" – Letter attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein; which contain in part:

> While I understand that said pleading might be lengthy, it is pertinent and crucial for the Justices to have an understanding of what is going on and further supports the Criminal Complaint filed with the FBI and the Emergency Writ of Prohibition filed with this Court. Please advise if there is a "Conflict of Interest" (i.e. because of parties/names mentioned in pleading includes Judge John Andrew West; Judge Nadine L. Allen; Patricia M. Clancy; Joseph H. Deters; Christian J. Schaefer; Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin/David Meranus; Markesbery & Richardson Co./Michael E. Lively/Patrick B. Healy; Liberty Mutual Insurance Company/Molly G. Vance/Raymond H. Decker, Jr.; Stor-All Alfred LLC/Lori A. Whiteside/Leslie Smart/Leslie Calhoun; Wood & Lamping and/or those persons/parties involved in this action that may be known to this Court; however, not to Denise Newsome) with any of the Justices of the Supreme Court in regards to this matter.

While Justice Pfeifer of the Supreme Court of Ohio states: ''I never felt so much like a hooker down by the bus station in any race I've ever been in as I did in a judicial race'' and further goes on to mention ''Everyone interested in contributing has very specific interests,'' a reasonable mind may conclude that the Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio know and/or should know that the monies paid into their campaign was for the prostituting of their services as well as expectation of rulings in favor of the Insurance Companies, their lawyers and insureds when matters are brought before said Court. Justice Pfeifer making known his knowledge that such contributors have specific interest by stating: ''They mean to be buying a vote'' . . .''Whether they succeed or not, it's hard to say.''; therefore, a reasonable mind may also conclude that Justice Pfeifer and other Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio are fully aware of the purposes of financial contributions to their campaigns and that said monies are provided with intent of bribery and obtaining rulings and decisions in contributors favor by said High Court. In Newsome's matter before the Supreme Court of Ohio in Case No. 2009-1690, she believes said monies received by LIBERTY MUTUAL, its lawyers/lawyer's law firms, its insureds/clients influenced and contributed to said Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio and their Conspirators engagement in the criminal acts – i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice - arising out of the handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: According to Justice Thomas J. Moyer (Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio and Justice executing the December 2, 2009 ENTRY) the October 1, 2006, article mentions: "The standard in the Ohio Supreme Court, its chief justice, Thomas J. Moyer, said, is to recuse only if 'sitting on the case is going to be perceived as just totally unfair;'" however, in the handling of Newsome's Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter appears to have taken a FAR DEPARTURE from said statement and said Justice engaged in the criminal acts arising out of the handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY addressed herein. The record evidence will support that prior (on or about October 1, 2009) to the December 2, 2009 ENTRY, Newsome, timely, properly and adequately requested that the Supreme Court of Ohio advised her of any Conflict of Interest. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: It appears from the evidence that Justice Moyer handled the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in that his signature appears on same in execution thereof. See EXHIBIT "A" – Entry attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Through this instant investigation a reasonable mind may conclude that the change in handling and addressing of envelope may be a direct and proximate result of Justice Moyer's direct and/or on-hands involvement in criminal conspiracy and criminal actions leveled against Newsome for purposes of obstructing the administration of justice, depriving Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws in the Supreme Court of Ohio's efforts to render LIBERTY MUTUAL, its lawyers/lawyers' law firms and its clients/insureds with a favorable ruling. In so doing Conspirators in this instant FBI Complaint engaged in criminal acts in which Newsome brings charges and request the proper indictments be had.

6) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: The record evidence contained herein will support that concerns of that Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio are tainted and corrupt through the financial contributions they receive. For instance, additional information has been published regarding the PUBLIC'S concern of Corruption amongst Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio because of their receipt of financial campaign contributions:

> The current state of Ohio's system of judicial election is putting the legitimacy of our judicial system at stake.
> When the public believes that their judges can be bought, that they are beholden to campaign donors, or that their decisions are influenced by special interests or other branches of government, our respected system of justice is jeopardized.
>
> Options to improve the process of selecting impartial and qualified judges in Ohio is a major topic of judicial reform. Judicial reform can take the partisanship and special interests out of judicial elections. It can help guarantee both the appearance and the reality of an independent and impartial judiciary.
>
> Commonly discussed reform options include:
>
> 1. Prohibiting judges from presiding in cases that involve their campaign contributors;. . .
>
> PROHIBITING JUDGES FROM PRESIDING IN CASES THAT INVOLVE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTORS.
>
> Ohio's Code of Judicial Conduct requires that judges recuse, or disqualify, themselves from cases where a reasonable person might question the judge's impartiality. For example, such a conflict might arise if a judge had prior involvement in a case as an attorney, is a friend or family member of one of the people involved, or has an economic interest in the proceeding—including, many believe, if the judge has received substantial financial support from a person or entity involved in the case.
>
> Indeed, a League of Women Voters of Ohio survey (see pages 24-26 in "Judicial Selection in Ohio: History, Recent Developments, and an Analysis of Reform Proposals.") in 2002 revealed that eight of every 10 Ohioans believe campaign contributions influence judges and their judicial opinions. In addition, enormous amounts of money are spent on judicial campaigns in Ohio by candidates, political parties and by special interests. It is natural that voters may question judges' impartiality in cases that involve financial supporters.

However, Ohio's elected supreme court judges rarely disqualify themselves from cases involving their contributors. From 1994-2006, "[i]n the 215 cases with the most direct potential conflicts of interest, justices recused themselves just 9 times." Adam Liptak and Janet Roberts. "Campaign Cash Mirrors a High Court's Rulings." NewYork Times (page 1); October 1, 2006.

. . . The rising cost of Ohio judicial elections, along with well-funded efforts by interest groups to influence the outcomes of these races, has raised serious concerns about the judiciary's independence and impartiality. Judicial candidates typically receive many of their contributions from attorneys who appear in their courts and the clients they represent. Clients who expect to have litigation pending on a regular basis have an obvious incentive to seek influence over judicial candidates. Judges are supposed to provide independent, unbiased, and fair decisions—not be swayed by financial support. . . .

The appearance of fairness and impartiality is so important. Unfortunately, as you know, the past ten years have eroded public confidence in the Court. National public opinion surveys for Justice at Stake from 2001 and 2004 found that over 70% of Americans believe that campaign contributions have at least some influence on judges' decisions. A 2002 poll by the League of Women Voters of Ohio showed that 83 percent of Ohio voters think that campaign contributions influence judicial decisions. An examination of the Ohio Supreme Court by The New York Times in 2006 found that Ohio Supreme Court justices routinely sat on cases after receiving campaign contributions from the parties involved or groups that filed supporting briefs. The Times found that on average, justices voted in favor of contributors 70% of the time. In the 12 years the paper examined, Ohio Supreme Court justices recused themselves only 9 times in 215 cases with the most direct conflicts of interest.

In 2006, our Chief Justice Thomas J. Moyer described the problem with our current system to National Public Radio this way, "Human nature is that we help people if they help us." Justice Paul Pfeiffer described fundraising this way to The New York Times "Everyone interested in contributing has very specific interests. Whether they succeed or not, it's hard to say."

This problem is very well documented and we should all be concerned about the loss of public faith in the integrity of the judicial process. Therefore, I was extremely surprised that Rule 2.11 did not include disqualification standards based on campaign contributions (Lines 29-33) from the American Bar Association's Model Code of Conduct. Although, the ABA has left each state to choose a specific contribution amount that might trigger recusal, since 1999, it has recommended mandatory disqualification of any judge who has accepted large contributions from a party appearing before him/her. . . .

At minimum, a rule should be established that triggers disqualification after receipt of a large aggregate contribution, not just from a single donor, but collectively from all donors associated with a party to litigation or with counsel. An example of aggregate contributions that could trigger disqualification would be contributions from corporate officers, management-level employees and law firm partners. . .

See EXHIBIT "M" – Article attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That in said article Justice Moyer of the Supreme Court of Ohio described the problem with the current system as, "Human nature is that we help people if they help us." Therefore, supporting the filing of this instant FBI Complaint and an investigation into the criminal conspiracy addressed herein. Moreover, whether or not Justice Moyer's and other Conspirator's human nature kicked in and they engaged in the criminal/civil wrongs addressed herein to deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Moreover, the role of conspirators in criminal acts involving the handling and mailing of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY regarding the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter.

8) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

9) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT SIX:
BRIBERY

VI. BRIBERY

Bribery Defined:
The corrupt payment, receipt, or solicitation of a private favor for official action. ● Bribery is a felony in most jurisdictions.

Bribe Defined:
A price, reward, gift, or favor bestowed or promised with a view to pervert the judgment of or influence the action of a person in position of trust.

>>>"The core concept of a bribe is an inducement improperly influencing the performance of a public function meant to be gratuitously exercised." John T. Noonan Jr., Bribes xi (1984).

O.R.C. § 2921.02 Bribery.
(A) No person, with purpose to corrupt a public servant or party official, or improperly to influence him with respect to the discharge of his duty, whether before or after he is elected, appointed, qualified, employed, summoned, or sworn, shall promise, offer, or give any valuable thing or valuable benefit.

(B) No person, either before or after he is elected, appointed, qualified, employed, summoned, or sworn as a public servant or party official, shall knowingly solicit or accept for himself or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit to corrupt or improperly influence him or another public servant or party official with respect to the discharge of his or the other public servant's or party official's duty.

(C) No person, with purpose to corrupt a witness or improperly to influence him with respect to his testimony in an official proceeding, either before or after he is subpoenaed or sworn, shall promise, offer, or give him or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit.

(D) No person, either before or after he is subpoenaed or sworn as a witness, shall knowingly solicit or accept for himself or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit to corrupt or improperly influence him with respect to his testimony in an official proceeding.

(E) Whoever violates this section is guilty of bribery, a felony of the third degree.

(F) A public servant or party official who is convicted of bribery is forever disqualified from holding any public office, employment, or position of trust in this state.

1) Newsome believes that an investigation and the record evidence will support that the Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio have received financial campaign contributions from LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or LIBERTY MUTUAL's lawyers/law firms on behalf of their clients. Said Justices knew and/or should have known that receipt of said financial campaign contributions were provided for purposes of bribery to influence the decision of rulings in favor of LIBERTY MUTUAL, their lawyers/law firms and insureds.

2) Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio knew and or should have known that by in receipt of financial campaign contributions from LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or LIBERTY MUTUAL's lawyers/law firms that said contributions were provided for bribery purposes to influence decisions in LIBERTY MUTUAL and its insureds' favor. Therefore, Justices knew and/or should have known they were engaging in felonious acts.

3) Newsome believes that an investigation will support that Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio knew and/or should have known that the financial campaign contributions from LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or LIBERTY MUTUAL's lawyers/law firms and clients were provided as a price, reward, gift or favor bestowed or promised with a view to pervert the rulings/judgment of said Court or to influence the action of said Justices that place themselves in a position of trust. The core concept for LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or LIBERTY MUTUAL's lawyers/law firms' and clients' providing financial campaign contributions being for purposes of inducement to improperly influence the performance of a public function meant to be gratuitously exercised by the Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

4) Newsome files this instant FBI Complaint and request that the applicable indictment and/or criminal charges be filed against the Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio who have engaged in the criminal acts involving the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in Emergency Writ of Prohibition action. The bringing and indictment of PUBLIC CORRUPTION violations prohibits the Justices involved in the December 2, 2009 ENTRY and the criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully;

Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice) resulting therefrom as a direct and proximate result of the bribery (monies received for purposes of influencing decisions) in forever being disqualified from holding any public office, employment or position of trust in the state of Ohio.

COMPLICITY

VII. COMPLICITY

O.R.C. § 2923.03 Complicity.

(A) No person, acting with the kind of culpability required for the commission of an offense, shall do any of the following:

(1) Solicit or procure another to commit the offense;
(2) Aid or abet another in committing the offense;
(3) Conspire with another to commit the offense in violation of section 2923.01 of the Revised Code;
(4) Cause an innocent or irresponsible person to commit the offense.

(B) It is no defense to a charge under this section that no person with whom the accused was in complicity has been convicted as a principal offender.

(C) No person shall be convicted of complicity under this section unless an offense is actually committed, but a person may be convicted of complicity in an attempt to commit an offense in violation of section 2923.02 of the Revised Code.

(D) If an alleged accomplice of the defendant testifies against the defendant in a case in which the defendant is charged with complicity in the commission of or an attempt to commit an offense, an attempt to commit an offense, or an offense, the court, when it charges the jury, shall state substantially the following:

> "The testimony of an accomplice does not become inadmissible because of his complicity, moral turpitude, or self-interest, but the admitted or claimed complicity of a witness may affect his credibility and make his testimony subject to grave suspicion, and require that it be weighed with great caution.
> It is for you, as jurors, in the light of all the facts presented to you from the witness stand, to evaluate such testimony and to determine its quality and worth or its lack of quality and worth."

(E) It is an affirmative defense to a charge under this section that, prior to the commission of or attempt to commit the offense, the actor terminated his complicity, under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of his criminal purpose.

(F) Whoever violates this section is guilty of complicity in the commission of an offense, and shall be prosecuted and punished as if he were a principal offender. A charge of complicity may be stated in terms of this section, or in terms of the principal offense.

Complicity Defined:
Association or participation in a criminal act; the act or state of being an accomplice. ● Under the Model Penal Code, a person can be an accomplice as a result of either that person's own conduct or the conduct of another (such as an innocent agent) for which that person is legally accountable.

Deceit Defined:
1. The act of intentionally giving a false impression . 2. A false statement of fact made by a person knowingly or recklessly (i.e. not caring whether it is true or false) with the intent that someone else act upon it. FRAUD – 3. A tort arising from a false representation made knowingly or recklessly with the intent that another person should detrimentally rely on it.

Defraud Defined: [16]
To cause injury or loss to (a person) by deceit.

Egregious Defined: [17]
Extremely or remarkably bad; flagrant.

Incite Defined: [18]
To provoke or stir up (someone to commit a criminal act, or the criminal act itself). Abet.

1) Conspirators committed the crime of complicity. Conspirators solicited and/or procured another to commit criminal actions. Conspirators aided and abetted in the commission of criminal acts. Conspirators conspired with co-conspirators and/or another to commit criminal acts in violation of this section. Conspirators caused an innocent or irresponsible person to commit criminal acts. Conspirators either associated themselves or participated in the criminal acts rendered against Newsome on or about December 2, 2009. Under the Model Penal Code Conspirators can be an accomplice as a result of his/her conduct or the conduct of another for which that person is legally accountable. Conspirators intentionally gave a false impression for the purposes of accomplishing the object of the conspiracy pursued. Certain Conspirators knowingly engaged in fraudulent practices for purposes of deception and, as a direct and proximate result of such criminal acts, are attempting to deprive Newsome rights secured under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States. As a direct and proximate result of Conspirators' deceitful and fraudulent actions, Newsome has sustained irreparable injury/harm and have been deprived protected rights. The egregious acts of Conspirators were a flagrant disregard and disrespect to the statutes/laws governing said matters. Conspirators provoked, stirred up and encouraged the commission of the criminal acts leveled against Newsome. 2) Conspirators were able to accomplish the object of conspiracy by withholding, impeding and obstructing the administration of justice.

3) Through the unlawful/illegal and unethical practices in the handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Writ of Prohibition action in the Supreme Court of Ohio, Justices each encouraged, advised, and/or instigated the criminal acts of Co-Conspirators were determined to carry out for purposes of obtaining the object [i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice] of the conspiracy leveled against Newsome.

4) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COERCION

IX. COERCION

O.R.C. § 2905.12 Coercion.

(A) No person, with purpose to coerce another into taking or refraining from action concerning which the other person has a legal freedom of choice, shall do any of the following:

(1) Threaten to commit any offense;

(2) Utter or threaten any calumny against any person;

(3) Expose or threaten to expose any matter tending to subject any person to hatred, contempt, or ridicule, to damage any person's personal or business repute, or to impair any person's credit;

(4) Institute or threaten criminal proceedings against any person;

(5) Take, withhold, or threaten to take or withhold official action, or cause or threaten to cause official action to be taken or withheld.

(B) Divisions (A)(4) and (5) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit a prosecutor or court from doing any of the following in good faith and in the interests of justice:

(1) Offering or agreeing to grant, or granting immunity from prosecution pursuant to section 2945.44 of the Revised Code;

(2) In return for a plea of guilty to one or more offenses charged or to one or more other or lesser offenses, or in return for the testimony of the accused in a case to which the accused is not a party, offering or agreeing to dismiss, or dismissing one or more charges pending against an accused, or offering or agreeing to impose, or imposing a certain sentence or modification of sentence;

(3) Imposing a community control sanction on certain conditions, including without limitation requiring the offender to make restitution or redress to the victim of the offense.

(C) It is an affirmative defense to a charge under division (A)(3), (4), or (5) of this section that the actor's conduct was a reasonable response to the circumstances that occasioned it, and that the actor's purpose was limited to any of the following:

(1) Compelling another to refrain from misconduct or to desist from further misconduct;

(2) Preventing or redressing a wrong or injustice;

(3) Preventing another from taking action for which the actor reasonably believed the other person to be disqualified;

(4) Compelling another to take action that the actor reasonably believed the other person to be under a duty to take.

(D) Whoever violates this section is guilty of coercion, a misdemeanor of the second degree.

(E) As used in this section:

(1) "Threat" includes a direct threat and a threat by innuendo.

(2) "Community control sanction" has the same meaning as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.

1) Conspirators engaged in criminal acts with purpose to coerce Newsome into payment of monies to which they were not entitled, initiated or encouraged the malicious lawsuit filed against Newsome.

2) Conspirators: (a) threatened to commit any offense against Newsome; (b) Uttered or threatened any calumny against Newsome; (c) Exposed or threatened to expose any matter tending to subject Newsome to hatred, contempt, or ridicule, to damage Newsome's personal and business reputation, or to impair Newsome's credit; and (d) took official action and/or caused malicious lawsuit to be brought against Newsome.

3) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

4) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT TEN:
DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER THE LAW

X. DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER COLOR OF LAW

Title 18, U.S.C., Section 242
Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law

This statute makes it a crime for any person acting under color of law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom to willfully deprive or cause to be deprived from any person those rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution and laws of the U.S.

This law further prohibits a person acting under color of law, statute, ordinance, regulation or custom to willfully subject or cause to be subjected any person to different punishments, pains, or penalties, than those prescribed for punishment of citizens on account of such person being an alien or by reason of his/her color or race.

Acts under "color of any law" include acts not only done by federal, state, or local officials within the bounds or limits of their lawful authority, but also acts done without and beyond the bounds of their lawful authority; provided that, in order for unlawful acts of any official to be done under "color of any law," the unlawful acts must be done while such official is purporting or pretending to act in the performance of his/her official duties. This definition includes, in addition to law enforcement officials, individuals such as Mayors, Council persons, Judges, Nursing Home Proprietors, Security Guards, etc., persons who are bound by laws, statutes ordinances, or customs.

Punishment varies from a fine or imprisonment of up to one year, or both, ...

OHIO CONSTITUTION

Preamble:

> We, the people of the State of Ohio, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, to secure its blessings and promote our common welfare, do establish this Constitution.

1) On or about December 2, 2009, Conspirators/Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio acting under "color of law,' statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom did willfully, knowingly, and maliciously engage in criminal acts to deprive or cause to be deprived from Newsome those rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution and laws of the United States.

2) On or about December 2, 2009, Conspirators/Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio acting under color of law, statute, ordinance, regulation or custom to willfully subject or cause to be subjected Newsome to different punishments, pains, deprivation of rights precluded by laws because of her race and because of her engagement in protected activities.

3) On or about December 2, 2009, Conspirators/Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio acting under "color of law" done by state or local officials within the bounds or limits of their lawful authority, did also engage in acts without and beyond the bounds of their lawful authority. Said acts were done while said official was purporting or pretending to act in the performance of his/her official duties.

4) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

5) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT ELEVEN:
CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT OFFENSE OR TO DEFRAUD UNITED STATES

XI. CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT OFFENSE OR TO DEFRAUD UNITED STATES

Title 18 U.S.C. § 371
Conspiracy To Commit Offense Or To Defraud United States

> If two or more persons conspire either to commit any offense against the United States, or to defraud the United States, or any agency > thereof in any manner or for any purpose, and one or more of such persons do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, each shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

> If, however, the offense, the commission of which is the object of the conspiracy, is a misdemeanor only, the punishment for such conspiracy shall not exceed the maximum punishment provided for such misdemeanor.

1) On or about December 2, 2009, Conspirators/Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio conspired either to commit any offense against the United States, or to defraud the United States, or any agency thereof in a manner or for any purpose, and one or more of said conspiracy did knowingly use United States Postage that had been compromised in the carrying out of criminal conspiracy did an act to effect the object of the conspiracy. Therefore each shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

2) On or about December 2, 2009, Conspirators/Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio conspired either to commit an offense against the United States, defraud the United States, or any agency thereof by tampering with the Supreme Court of Ohio mailing and compromising the postmarking for purposes of defrauding the United States as well as did knowingly use United States Postage that had been compromised in the carrying out of criminal conspiracy as to its mailing and handling thereof.

3) On or about December 2, 2009, Conspirators/Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio conspired either to commit an offense against the United States, defraud the United States, or any agency thereof by tampering with the Supreme Court of Ohio mailing and compromising the postmarking for purposes of COVERING UP criminal activities and used United States Postage to perpetrate said criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice).

4) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. COUNT THIRTEEN:
FRAUDS AND SWINDLES

XIII. FRAUD AND SWINDLES

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1341
Frauds and Swindles

Whoever, having devised or intending to devise any scheme or artifice to defraud, or for obtaining money or property by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, or to sell, dispose of, loan, exchange, alter, give away, distribute, supply, or furnish or procure for unlawful use any counterfeit or spurious coin, obligation, security, or other article, or anything represented to be or intimated or held out to be such counterfeit or spurious article, for the purpose of executing such scheme or artifice or attempting so to do, places in any post office or authorized depository for mail matter, any matter or thing whatever to be sent or delivered by the Postal Service, or deposits or causes to be deposited any matter or thing whatever to be sent or delivered by any private or commercial interstate carrier, or takes or receives therefrom, any such matter or thing, or knowingly causes to be delivered by mail or such carrier according to the direction thereon, or at the place at which it is directed to be delivered by the person to whom it is addressed, any such matter or thing, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 20 years, or both. If the violation occurs in relation to, or involving any benefit authorized, transported, transmitted, transferred, disbursed, or paid in connection with, a presidentially declared major disaster or emergency (as those terms are defined in section 102 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5122)), or affects a financial institution, such person shall be fined not more than $1,000,000 or imprisoned not more than 30 years, or both.

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1346
Definition Of "Scheme Or Artifice To Defraud"

For the purposes of this chapter, the term "scheme or artifice to defraud" includes a scheme or artifice to deprive another of the intangible right of honest services.

1) On or about December 2, 2009, Conspirators/Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio having devised or intending to devise any scheme or artifice to defraud, or for obtaining property by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, exchange, alter, give away, distribute, supply, or furnish or procure for unlawful use, obligation, security, or other article as its alleged December 2, 2009 Supreme Court of Ohio ENTRY and mailing did knowingly use United States Postage that had been compromised in the carrying out of criminal conspiracy for the purposes of executing such scheme or artifice and withholding and impeding mailing and precluding documentation from being timely mailed and placed in the United States mailing system/Post Office or authorized depository for mail matter, or withholding and tampering with mailing of December 2, 2009 ENTRY; therefore, precluding the timely mailing of same and timely receipt by Newsome for purposes of depriving her equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and laws of the United States.

2) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

3) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT FOURTEEN:
OBSTRUCTION OF COURT ORDERS

XIV. OBSTRUCTION OF COURT ORDERS

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1509
Obstruction Of Court Orders

Whoever, by threats or force, willfully prevents, obstructs, impedes, or interferes with, or willfully attempts to prevent, obstruct, impede, or interfere with, the due exercise of rights or the performance of duties under any order, judgment, or decree of a court of the United States, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

No injunctive or other civil relief against the conduct made criminal by this section shall be denied on the ground that such conduct is a crime.

1) On or about December 2, 2009, Conspirators/Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio did knowingly, willingly, deliberately and maliciously cause by force the prevention, obstruction, impeding, interference with, as well as, knowingly, willfully, deliberately, and maliciously preventing, obstructing, impeding and interfering with the due exercise of rights or the performance of duties afforded under the laws of the United States and the execution affording rebuttal under the laws to the December 2, 2009, ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in Case No. 2009-1690.

2) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

3) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

XVI. RETALIATING AGAINST A WITNESS AND/OR VICTIM

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1513
Retaliating Against a Witness, Victim. . .

(c) If the retaliation occurred because of attendance at or testimony in a criminal case, the maximum term of imprisonment which may be imposed for the offense under this section shall be the higher of that otherwise provided by law or the maximum term that could have been imposed for any offense charged in such case. . . .

(e) Whoever knowingly, with the intent to retaliate, takes any action harmful to any person, including interference with the lawful employment or livelihood of any person, for providing to a law enforcement officer any truthful information relating to the commission or possible commission of any Federal offense, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 10 years, or both.

(f) Whoever conspires to commit any offense under this section shall be subject to the same penalties as those prescribed for the offense the commission of which was the object of the conspiracy.

(g) A prosecution under this section may be brought in the district in which the official proceeding (whether pending, about to be instituted, or completed) was intended to be affected, or in which the conduct constituting the alleged offense occurred.

1) Newsome believes an investigation into this instant FBI Complaint will support that the Justices' of the Supreme Court of Ohio and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators acts in the handling of December 2, 2009 ENTRY in Emergency Writ of Prohibition action will support the criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice) are a direct and proximate result of retaliation and efforts to deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Rights secured under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States. Said retaliation being the direct and proximate result of Newsome's engagement and filing of the Emergency Writ of Prohibition; moreover, retaliating against Newsome for purposes of rendering LIBERTY MUTUAL, its lawyers/law firms and their clients with favorable outcome in litigation in exchange for the financial contributions made to Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio. In so doing, Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio and other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators engaged in criminal acts for purposes of COVER-UP CORRUPTION and obstruction of justice.

2) Conspirators knowingly, with the intent to retaliate, took actions which were harmful to Newsome, including interference with livelihood of Newsome, because of her bringing of Emergency Writ of Prohibition action and filing of FBI Criminal Complaint against judges and others in the lower court matters out of which the Writ of Prohibition matter was birthed.

3) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

4) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT SEVENTEEN:
DESTRUCTION, ALTERATION, OR FALSIFICATION OF RECORDS

XVII. DESTRUCTION, ALTERCATION, OR FALSIFICATION OF RECORDS

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1519
Destruction, Alteration, or Falsification of Records in Federal Investigations . . .

> Whoever knowingly alters, destroys, mutilates, conceals, covers up, falsifies, or makes a false entry in any record, document, or tangible object with the intent to impede, obstruct, or influence the investigation or proper administration of any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States or any case filed under title 11, or in relation to or contemplation of any such matter or case, shall be fined under this title, imprisoned not more than 20 years, or both.

1) Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint believes that the Supreme Court of Ohio in efforts of covering up its criminal acts in the handling of December 2, 2009 ENTRY in Writ of Prohibition action did knowingly, willingly and maliciously conceal, cover-up, falsify the Entry of December 2, 2009 ruling in the Docket of said Court. Moreover, that said criminal acts were done for the purposes of intent to impede, obstruct or influence the outcome of the September 24, 2009 FBI Complaint and investigation filed against Respondent (Judge Nadine Allen) as well as other Conspirators/Co-Conspirators made known to the Supreme Court of Ohio.

2) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

3) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT EIGHTEEN:
OBSTRUCTION OF MAIL

XVIII. OBSTRUCTION OF MAIL

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1701
Obstruction Of Mails Generally

> Whoever knowingly and willfully obstructs or retards the passage of the mail, or any carrier or conveyance carrying the mail, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

1) Conspirators knowingly and willfully obstructed or retarded the passage of mail. Moreover, knowingly and willfully obstructed and retarded the passage of mail containing the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition action brought by Newsome.

2) Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint and request an investigation into the handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter brought by Newsome in that the evidence supports that mail handlers compromised and impeded the mailing of December 2, 2009 ENTRY. The evidence supports that the Supreme Court of Ohio knowingly, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously only applied U.S. postage in the amount of 35¢ in use of Postage Meter No. 0004262597 – meter REPEATEDLY used in handling of mail to Newsome - and at another time (i.e. in the handling of mailing of December 2, 2009 ENTRY) applied U.S. Postage in the amount of only 8¢ (on the backside) in the use of Postage Meter No. 0004247379. See EXHIBIT "N" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Postage Meter No. 0004262597 appears to be the meter assigned to the Supreme Court of Ohio as evidenced from prior postmarking on mailings to Newsome. See EXHIBIT "O" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. However, from research Postage Meter No. 0004247379 is assigned to a company called PSI Group in Grove City, Ohio.[20] Again, see EXHIBIT "N" for postmarking information. Therefore, leaving Newsome to wonder how did a company like PSI Group obtain the Supreme Court of Ohio mailing and what role said company and/or its employees played in the tampering, withholding, obstruction of justice and other crimes leveled against Newsome. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

3) PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint request an investigation and determination of how the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Writ of Prohibition matter of the Supreme Court of Ohio which is located in Columbus, Ohio and bears Postage Meter No. 0004262597 AND ZIP CODE 43215 – See EXHIBITS "N" and "P" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - leaves said Court's mailing facility to be taken to Grove City, Ohio to a business called PSI Group to obtain a postmarking from Postage Meter No. 0004247379 at ZIP CODE 43123. See EXHIBITS "N" and "Q" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, it is important to find out the role PSI Group, its employees and/or others played in the criminal conspiracy to obstruct the administration of justice. Moreover, role played in the delay of Newsome's timely receipt of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

4) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

[20] Information obtained from research conducted on Postage Meter Number.

5) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through this instant FBI Complaint Newsome seeks to determine whether or not any of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices/Officials/Employees lives in Grove City, Ohio. If so, what role said Justices/Officials/Employees may have played in transfer of mail from the Supreme Court of Ohio in Columbus, Ohio to PSI Group in Grove City, Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

6) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT NINETEEN:
OBSTRUCTION OF CORRESPONDENCE

XIX. OBSTRUCTION OF CORRESPONDENCE

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1702
Obstruction Of Correspondence

> Whoever takes any letter, postal card, or package out of any post office or any authorized depository for mail matter, or from any letter or mail carrier, or which has been in any post office or authorized depository, or in the custody of any letter or mail carrier, before it has been delivered to the person to whom it was directed, with design to obstruct the correspondence, or to pry into the business or secrets of another, or opens, secretes, embezzles, or destroys the same, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

1) Conspirators took December 2, 2009 ENTRY in Writ of Prohibition matter intended for Newsome out of the post office and/or any authorized depository for mail matter that was placed in an authorized depository for purposes to obstruct the delivery of correspondence and/or mail for purposes of prying and interfering with the business of Newsome and tampered and/or compromised said correspondence/mail.

2) The evidence contained herein will support that according to the United States Postal Service that if the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio regarding the Emergency Writ of Prohibition was mailed as alleged by the compromised postmarking placed on envelope, Newsome should have received said mailing on December 4, 2009. However, when Newsome checked her mailbox the weekend of December 5, 2009, said December 2, 2009 ENTRY had not been received. Said ENTRY was not received until on or about December 9, 2009 – i.e. approximately one week from the date of alleged entry. See EXHIBIT "R" – USPS Postage Calculation Information.

From said information the United States Postal Service ("USPS") calculates the speed of travel for mail from the Supreme Court of Ohio *to be approximately one-day.

3) Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint and request an investigation into the handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter brought by Newsome in that the evidence supports that mail handlers compromised and impeded the mailing of December 2, 2009 ENTRY. The evidence supports that the Supreme Court of Ohio knowingly, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously only applied U.S. postage in the amount of 35¢ in use of Postage Meter No. 0004262597 – meter REPEATEDLY used in handling of mail to Newsome - and at another time (i.e. in the handling of mailing of December 2, 2009 ENTRY) applied U.S. Postage in the amount of only 8¢ (on the backside) in the use of Postage Meter No. 0004247379. See EXHIBIT "N" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Postage Meter No. 0004262597 appears to be the meter assigned to the Supreme Court of Ohio as evidenced from prior postmarking on mailings to Newsome. See EXHIBIT "O" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. However, from research Postage Meter No. 0004247379 is assigned to a company called PSI Group in Grove City, Ohio. Again, see EXHIBIT "N" for postmarking information. Therefore, leaving Newsome to wonder how did a company like PSI Group obtain the Supreme Court of Ohio mailing and what role said company and/or its employees played in the tampering, withholding, obstruction of justice and other crimes leveled against Newsome. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

4) PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint request an investigation and determination of how the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Writ of Prohibition matter of the Supreme Court of Ohio which is located in Columbus, Ohio and bears Postage Meter No. 0004262597 AND ZIP CODE 43215 – See EXHIBITS "N" and "P" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - leaves said Court's mailing facility to be taken to Grove City, Ohio to a business called PSI Group to obtain a postmarking from Postage Meter No. 0004247379 at ZIP CODE 43123. See EXHIBITS "N" and "Q" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, it is important to find out the role PSI Group, its employees and/or others played in the criminal conspiracy to obstruct the administration of justice. Moreover, role played in the delay of Newsome's timely receipt of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

5) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through this instant FBI Complaint Newsome seeks to determine whether or not any of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices/Officials/Employees lives in Grove City, Ohio. If so, what role said

Justices/Officials/Employees may have played in transfer of mail from the Supreme Court of Ohio in Columbus, Ohio to PSI Group in Grove City, Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

6) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

7) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

DELAY OF MAIL

XX. DELAY OF MAIL

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1703
Delay Or Destruction Of Mail. . .

> (a) Whoever, being a Postal Service officer or employee, unlawfully secretes, destroys, detains, delays, or opens any letter, postal card, package, bag, or mail entrusted to him or which shall come into his possession, and which was intended to be conveyed by mail, or carried or delivered by any carrier or other employee of the Postal Service, or forwarded through or delivered from any post office or station thereof established by authority of the Postmaster General or the Postal Service, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

1) Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint and request an investigation into the handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter brought by Newsome in that the evidence supports that mail handlers compromised and impeded the mailing of December 2, 2009 ENTRY. The evidence supports that the Supreme Court of Ohio knowingly, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously only applied U.S. postage in the amount of 35¢ in use of Postage Meter No. 0004262597 – meter REPEATEDLY used in handling of mail to Newsome - and at another time (i.e. in the handling of mailing of December 2, 2009 ENTRY) applied U.S. Postage in the amount of only 8¢ (on the backside) in the use of Postage Meter No. 0004247379. See EXHIBIT "N" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Postage Meter No. 0004262597 *appears to be the meter assigned to the Supreme Court of Ohio as evidenced from prior postmarking on mailings to Newsome. 2) Newsome believes that the delay of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in by the Supreme Court of Ohio in her Writ of Prohibition action were a direct and proximate result of Conspirators engagement in criminal conspiracy and/or criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice). Criminal acts knowingly, willingly, intentionally, deliberately and maliciously committed for purposes of obstructing the administration of justice and depriving Newsome rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States.

3) PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint request an investigation and determination of how the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Writ of Prohibition matter of the Supreme Court of Ohio which is located in Columbus, Ohio and bears Postage Meter No. 0004262597 AND ZIP CODE 43215 – See EXHIBITS "N" and "P" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - leaves said Court's mailing facility to be taken to Grove City, Ohio to a business called PSI Group to obtain a postmarking from Postage Meter No. 0004247379 at ZIP CODE 43123. Moreover, role played in the delay of Newsome's timely receipt of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

4) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: It is important to know who owns and/or possess the Postage Meter No. 0004247379 and how the Supreme Court of Ohio was able to obtain additional postage from said meter as well as the purpose for the Supreme Court of Ohio's handling of the mailing of December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter. Moreover, the identity of the person who took the Supreme Court of Ohio's ENTRY to Grove City, Ohio to get it postmarked. Furthermore, how long individual(s) held onto mail before actually releasing it for mailing after compromising the postmarking information on said mailing.

5) Postage Meter No. 0004262597 supports this is the meter that the Supreme Court of Ohio used on ALL other mailings to Newsome – See EXHIBIT "O" attached hereto and incorporated by reference; however, in the handling of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY regarding Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter, said Court took a FAR departure and elected to engage in criminal conspiracy to impede, hinder, delay and obstruct the administration of justice. Evidence further sustaining the criminal conspiracy leveled against Newsome and the role of Conspirators. Criminal acts in which Newsome has been irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

6) The evidence contained herein will support that according to the United States Postal Service that if the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio regarding the Emergency Writ of Prohibition was mailed as alleged by the compromised postmarking placed on envelope, Newsome should have received said mailing on December 4, 2009. However, when Newsome checked her mailbox the weekend of December 5, 2009, said December 2, 2009 ENTRY had not been received. Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT TWENTY-ONE:
THEFT OR RECEIPT OF STOLEN MAIL

XXI. THEFT OR RECEIPT OF STOLEN MAIL

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1708
Theft Or Receipt Of Stolen Mail Matter Generally

Whoever steals, takes, or abstracts, or by fraud or deception obtains, or attempts so to obtain, from or out of any mail, post office, or station thereof, letter box, mail receptacle, or any mail route or other authorized depository for mail matter, or from a letter or mail carrier, any letter, postal card, package, bag, or mail, or abstracts or removes from any such letter, package, bag, or mail, any article or thing contained therein, or secretes, embezzles, or destroys any such letter, postal card, package, bag, or mail, or any article or thing contained therein; or

Whoever steals, takes, or abstracts, or by fraud or deception obtains any letter, postal card, package, bag, or mail, or any article or thing contained therein which has been left for collection upon or adjacent to a collection box or other authorized depository of mail matter; or

Whoever buys, receives, or conceals, or unlawfully has in his possession, any letter, postal card, package, bag, or mail, or any article or thing contained therein, which has been so stolen, taken, embezzled, or abstracted, as herein described, knowing the same to have been stolen, taken, embezzled, or abstracted—

Shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

1) Conspirators did knowingly, willingly, intentionally, deliberately and maliciously steal, take, abstract by fraud and/or deception out of the mail receptacle and/or other depository the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition action allegedly mailed to Newsome. The record evidence will support that the Supreme Court of Ohio compromised and may have falsified information on Postmarking and the abuse of postage meter to apply U.S. Postage from Meter No. 0004262597 and later, in furtherance of conspiracy and criminal wrongs did steal, take, tamper, impede, obstruct, for purposes of applying another Postmarking and the use of postage meter to apply U.S. Postage from Meter No. 0004247379. See EXHIBITS "N" and "O" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, in so doing, Conspirators did knowingly use United States Postage that had been compromised in the carrying out of criminal conspiracy and criminal acts - i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice.

2) The record evidence will support that on ALL mailings (except mailing of December 2, 2009) the Clerk/Deputy Clerk used pre-printed labels that were placed on the Supreme Court of Ohio's mailing labels to provide Newsome with correspondence/documentation. However, when it comes to the mailing of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY regarding Writ of Prohibition matter; said practice is broken and then resumed in post mailings to Newsome. See EXHIBITS "N" and "O" – copy of envelopes attached hereto and incorporated by reference. However, when it comes to the envelope containing the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio, no such label as used on ALL other mailings to Newsome is applied. Moreover, the address information is incomplete –i.e. lacks the city, state and zip code information that Conspirator resorted to handwriting information on envelope. Criminal acts in which Newsome has been irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

3) PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint request an investigation and determination of how the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Writ of Prohibition matter of the Supreme Court of Ohio which is located in Columbus, Ohio and bears Postage Meter No. 0004262597 AND ZIP CODE 43215 – See EXHIBITS "N" and "P" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - leaves said Court's mailing facility to be taken to Grove City, Ohio to a business called PSI Group to obtain a postmarking from Postage Meter No. 0004247379 at ZIP CODE 43123. See EXHIBITS "N" and "Q" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, it is important to find out the role PSI Group, its employees and/or others played in the criminal conspiracy to obstruct the administration of justice. Moreover, role played in the delay of Newsome's timely receipt of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

4) Conspirators did knowingly, willingly, intentionally, deliberately and maliciously steal, take, abstract by fraud and/or deception the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter mailed to Newsome with knowledge that he/she were engaging and/or should have known they were engaging in criminal acts to impede, deter and obstruct the administration of justice. In so doing, deprived Newsome equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and other statutes/laws of the United States.

5) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through this instant FBI Complaint Newsome seeks to determine whether or not any of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices/Officials/Employees lives in Grove City, Ohio. If so, what role said Justices/Officials/Employees may have played in transfer of mail from the Supreme Court of Ohio in Columbus, Ohio to PSI Group in Grove City, Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

6) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

7) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

AVOIDANCE OF POSTAGE BY USING LOWER CLASS

XXII. AVOIDANCE OF POSTAGE BY USING LOWER CLASS MATTER

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1723
Avoidance Of Postage By Using Lower Class Matter

> Matter of the second, third, or fourth class containing any writing or printing in addition to the original matter, other than as authorized by law, shall not be admitted to the mails, nor delivered, except upon payment of postage for matter of the first class, deducting therefrom any amount which may have been prepaid by stamps affixed, unless by direction of a duly authorized officer of the Postal Service such postage shall be remitted.

1) Conspirators did knowingly, willingly, intentionally, deliberately and maliciously apply postage in the amount of 35¢ on envelope containing the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter submitted to Newsome. Conspirators doing so with knowledge that FIRST-Class postage was required; however, knowingly, willingly, intentionally, deliberately and maliciously applied less and/or lower-class postage for purposes of impeding, deterring and obstructing the delivery and timely receipt of said ruling by Newsome.

2) Through this instant FBI Complaint Newsome request an investigation into how the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio was processed and handled and how it was that she came about receiving said mailing in that it did not contain the proper postage and was not properly addressed (i.e. City, State and Zip Code) was missing from envelope and later written in by one participating in the COVER-UP and criminal acts of the Supreme Court of Ohio officials.

3) PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint request an investigation and determination of how the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Writ of Prohibition matter of the Supreme Court of Ohio which is located in Columbus, Ohio and bears Postage Meter No. 0004262597 AND ZIP CODE 43215 – See EXHIBITS "N" and "P" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - leaves said Court's mailing facility to be taken to Grove City, Ohio to a business called PSI Group to obtain a postmarking from Postage Meter No. 0004247379 at ZIP CODE 43123. See EXHIBITS "N" and "Q" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, it is important to find out the role PSI Group, its employees and/or others played in the criminal conspiracy to obstruct the administration of justice. Moreover, role played in the delay of Newsome's timely receipt of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

4) Newsome believes that the record evidence and an investigation will support that the Ohio Supreme Court did knowingly, willingly, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously placed a lower amount of postage on the envelope containing the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Writ of Prohibition matter and in so doing took a far departure from normal handling of mail and deliberately compromised mailing with lower amount of postage for purposes of impeding and depriving Newsome of timely receipt. Moreover, depriving Newsome of equal protection of the laws and due process of laws. Right secured/guaranteed under the Constitution and/or laws of the United States.

5) Conspirators did knowingly, willingly, deliberately, intentionally and maliciously place a matter of FIRST-Class in an envelope and apply postage of a lower-rate and/or class and deposited same for conveyance by mail at a less rate than allowed by law. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

6) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through this instant FBI Complaint Newsome seeks to determine whether or not any of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices/Officials/Employees lives in Grove City, Ohio. If so, what role said Justices/Officials/Employees may have played in transfer of mail from the Supreme Court of Ohio in Columbus, Ohio to PSI Group in Grove City, Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

7) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against

Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

8) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

Whoever knowingly conceals or encloses any matter of a higher class in that of a lower class, and deposits the same for conveyance by mail, at a less rate than would be charged for such higher class matter, shall be fined under this title.

COUNT TWENTY-THREE:
POSTAGE UNPAID ON DEPOSITED MAIL

XXIII. POSTAGE UNPAID ON DEPOSITED MAIL

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1725
Postage Unpaid On Deposited Mail Matter

> Whoever knowingly and willfully deposits any mailable matter such as statements of accounts, circulars, sale bills, or other like matter, on which no postage has been paid, in any letter box established, approved, or accepted by the Postal Service for the receipt or delivery of mail matter on any mail route with intent to avoid payment of lawful postage thereon, shall for each such offense be fined under this title.

1) On or about early December 2009, Conspirators did knowingly, willingly, deliberately and maliciously deposited the December 2, 2009, Supreme Court of Ohio's ENTRY, on which insufficient postage of .35¢ as well as an INCOMPLETE address had been applied in a letter box established, approved, or accepted by the Postal Service for the receipt or delivery of mail with the intent to avoid payment of lawful postage thereon for purposes of fraud, delay, impediment, and interference with the delivery of said ENTRY.

2) Newsome demands through this instant FBI Complaint to determine how the Supreme Court of Ohio's December 2, 2009 ENTRY in Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter that was postmarked dated December 3, 2009 and contained postage of 35¢ leaving a remaining balance of approximately 9¢ wound up in Gove City, Ohio to receive additional postage. See EXHIBIT "N" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

3) PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint request an investigation and determination of how the December 2, 2009 ENTRY in the Writ of Prohibition matter of the Supreme Court of Ohio which is located in Columbus, Ohio and bears Postage Meter No. 0004262597 AND ZIP CODE 43215 – See EXHIBITS "N" and "P" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein - leaves said Court's mailing facility to be taken to Grove City, Ohio to a business called PSI Group to obtain a postmarking from Postage Meter No. 0004247379 at ZIP CODE 43123. See EXHIBITS "N" and "Q" respectively attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Therefore, it is important to find out the role PSI Group, its employees and/or others played in the criminal conspiracy to obstruct the administration of justice. Moreover, role played in the delay of Newsome's timely receipt of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

4) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through this instant FBI Complaint Newsome seeks to determine whether or not any of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices/Officials/Employees lives in Grove City, Ohio. If so, what role said Justices/Officials/Employees may have played in transfer of mail from the Supreme Court of Ohio in Columbus, Ohio to PSI Group in Grove City, Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

5) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

6) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT TWENTY-FOUR:
POSTAGE COLLECTED UNLAWFULLY

XXIV. POSTAGE COLLECTED UNLAWFULLY

Title 18 U.S.C. § 1726
Postage Collected Unlawfully

> Whoever, being a postmaster or other person authorized to receive the postage of mail matter, fraudulently demands or receives any rate of postage or gratuity or reward other than is provided by law for the postage of such mail matter, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

1) On or about December 3, 2009, Conspirator being a person authorized to receive the postage of mail matter, fraudulently demanded, received and applied a rate of postage other than that provided by law for the postage of such mail matter. Application of postage was made for purposes in furtherance of criminal acts – i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice.

2) On or about December 3, 2009, Conspirators did knowingly, willingly, deliberately and maliciously intercept mail of the Supreme Court of Ohio to be submitted to Newsome and used Postage Meter containing United States Postage to apply postage that he/she knew to be below the required First-Class rate as well as engaged in activities he/she knew and/or should have known was applied with criminal intent.

3) IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Through this instant FBI Complaint Newsome seeks to determine whether or not any of the Supreme Court of Ohio Justices/Officials/Employees lives in Grove City, Ohio. If so, what role said Justices/Officials/Employees may have played in transfer of mail from the Supreme Court of Ohio in Columbus, Ohio to PSI Group in Grove City, Ohio. Criminal acts in which Newsome has suffered irreparable injury/harm and has been adversely affected.

4) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

5) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT TWENTY-FIVE:
POWER/FAILURE TO PREVENT

XXV. POWER/FAILURE TO PREVENT

1. Newsome requests through the filing of this instant Complaint and investigations as to whether or not there has been negligence to prevent the crime and/or criminal actions taken against her pursuant to 42 USC § 1986:

> Every person who, having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done, and mentioned in section 1985 of this title, are about to be committed, and having power to prevent or aid in preventing the commission of the same, neglects or refuses so to do, if such wrongful act be committed, shall be liable to the party injured, or his legal representatives, for all damages caused by such wrongful act, which such person by reasonable diligence could have prevented; and such damages may be recovered in an action on the case; and any number of persons guilty of such wrongful neglect or refusal may be joined as defendants in the action; . . .

1) Conspirators had knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done as mentioned in Section 1985 and alleged in this instant FBI Complaint and that of the September 24, 2009 FBI Complaint and others, had the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of the conspiracy carried out on or about December 2, 2009 in the handling of ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter. However, Conspirators neglected or refused so to prevent the commission of conspiracy and fulfillment of conspiracy and criminal acts leveled against Newsome. Therefore, Conspirators found guilty of committing said violations under Section 1986 shall be liable to Newsome.

2) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

3) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

COUNT TWENTY-SIX:
OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE

XXVI. OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE

> Obstruction of Justice - Interference with the orderly administration of law and justice, as by giving false information to or withholding evidence from a police officer or prosecutor, or by harming or intimidating a witness or juror. *Obstruction of justice is a crime in most jurisdictions.

4) Conspirators through the criminal acts leveled against Newsome in the handling of December 2, 2009 ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio in the Emergency Writ of Prohibition matter did knowingly, willfully,, intentionally, deliberately and maliciously and/or should have known their acts were willfully, intentionally, deliberately and maliciously done with purpose of obstructing the administration of justice through the withholding, tampering and compromising the mailing of the December 2, 2009 ENTRY. By engaging in criminal acts (i.e. Conspiracy; Conspiracy Against Rights; Conspiracy to Defraud; Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights; Public Corruption; Bribery; Complicity; Aiding and Abetting; Coercion; Deprivation of Rights Under the Law; Conspiracy to Commit Offense or to Defraud United States; Conspiracy to Impede; Frauds and Swindles; Obstruction of Court Orders; Tampering With Witness/Victim; Retaliating Against Witness/Victim; Destruction, Altercation, or Falsification of Records; Obstruction of Mail; Obstruction of Correspondence; Delay of Mail; Theft or Receipt of Stolen Mail; Avoidance of Postage By Using Lower Class; Postage Unpaid on Deposited Mail; Postage Collected Unlawfully; Power/Failure to Prevent; and Obstruction of Justice), Conspirators committed crimes punishable under the laws of the United States.

5) Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

6) Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

UNITED STATES PRESIDENTIAL EXECUTIVE ORDER(S)

XXVII. REQUEST FOR EXECUTIVE ORDER(S)

1) Newsome through this instant FBI Complaint also submits to the attention of United States President Barack Obama who request that the applicable Executive Orders be drafted, created, executed and issue to deter further criminal conspiracies which an investigation and the record evidence will support have been leveled against Newsome. Newsome further believes that said demand is allowed given the SEVERE nature of the PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT/PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT of Conspirators named herein as well as those named in other Complaints filed with the FBI by Newsome.

2) Newsome through this instant FBI filing provides United States President Barack Obama with instant FBI Complaint in that he is the United States President and also Head over the Department of Justice under which the Federal Bureau of Investigation is a Division/Department therein.

3) While the President Barack Obama has selected Eric Holder as the United States Attorney General, as the United States President, he is the Head of the Executive Department under which the jurisdiction/hierarchy of the United States Department of Justice lies. Moreover, said Department is under the supervision and control of United States President Barack Obama.

4) The laws of the United States provide President Barack Obama with the power to create, draft, execute and issue Executive Orders without the direction of the United States Congress. Newsome believes that the HABITUAL injustices evidenced not only herein but in other filings that have been submitted to President Barack Obama's attention further supports the issuance of the applicable EXECUTIVE ORDERS to assure and protect the rights of Newsome as well as other citizens and the PUBLIC at large.

5) The record evidence will support that the CORRUPTION that has infected the Supreme Court of Ohio is a matter that is long overdue in being exposed, reprimanded and in need of action from the United States President to protect the rights of not only Newsome but other citizens of the United States. The record evidence and an investigation will support that the Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio have engaged in criminal acts addressed herein although such violations have been brought to its attention. To no avail. Therefore, warranting the United States President Barack Obama's intervention through the filing of this instant FBI Complaint – thus bringing this matter within his jurisdiction as the Head of the Executive Branch of the United States Government.

6) In further support of the issuing of the applicable Executive Orders, Newsome provides the following:

EXECUTIVE ORDER Defined: An order issued by or on behalf of the President, usu. intended to direct or instruct the actions of executive agencies or government officials, or to set policies for the executive branch to follow. Black's Law Dictionary 9th Edition.

EXECUTIVE POWER (Constitutional Law) Defined: The power to see that the laws are duly executed and enforced. ▪ Under federal law, this power is vested in the President; in the states, it is vested in the governors. The President's enumerated powers are found in the U.S. Constitution, art. II § 2; governors' executive powers are provided for in state constitutions. The other tow powers of government are the legislative power and the judicial power. Black's Law Dictionary 9th Edition.

"Executive order" is order or regulation issued by President or some administrative authority under his direction. Times Pub. Co. v. U.S. Dept. of Commerce, 104 F.Supp. 1361, reversed and remanded 236 F.3d 1286.

An executive order is privately enforceable only if it is issued pursuant to a statutory mandate or delegation of Congressional authority. Calef ex rel. Calef v. Barnhart, 309 F.Supp.2d 425. (E.D. NY 2004)

President's authority to act must stem either from act of Congress OR from Constitution itself. U.S.C. A. Const. Art. 2 §§ 1, 3. Building and Const. Traders Dept., AFL-CIO v. Allbaugh, 295 F.3d 28, 353 U.S.App. D.C. 28 (C.A D.C. 2002), certiorari denied 123 S.Ct. 992, 537 U.S. 1171, 154 L.Ed.2d 912. Although President cannot make law, his constitutionally authorized power necessarily encompasses general administrative control of those executing laws throughout Executive Branch of government, of which he is head. U.S.C.A. Const. Art. 2 §§ 1, 3. Id. President of United States had constitutional authority to issue Executive Order requiring federal agencies, to the extent permitted by law, to neither favor nor disfavor project labor agreements (PLAs) in federally-funded construction contracts; Orders effect was self-limited to legally permissible action. U.S.C.A. Const. Art. 2 § 1. Id.

Rule to be followed in executive orders is that President's power, if any, to issue order must stem from either act of Congress OR from Constitution itself; executive order without congressional or constitutional authority is unconstitutional. Mille Lacs Band of Chippewa Indians v. State of Minn., 124 F.3d 904, rehearing and suggestion for rehearing denied, certiorari granted 118 S.Ct. 2295, 524 U.S. 915, 141 L.Ed.2d 156, affirmed 119 S.Ct. 1187, 526 U.S. 172, 143 L.Ed.2d 270, certiorari denied County of Aitkin v. Mille Lacs Band of Chippewa Indians, 119 S.Ct. 1333, 526 U.S. 1038, 143 L.Ed.2d 497, certiorari denied Thompson v. Mille Lacs Band of

> Only when executive orders have specific foundation in Congressional action are they judicially enforceable in private civil suits. Zhang v. Slattery, 55 F.3d 732, certiorari denied 116 S.Ct. 1271, 516 U.S. 1176, 134 L.Ed.2d 217. (C.A. 2 1995)

7) Obama's faithful execution of the laws enacted by the Congress, however, ordinarily allows and frequently requires the President to provide guidance and supervision to his subordinates. As we previously have had occasion to observe:

> The ordinary duties of officers prescribed by statute come under the general administrative control of the President by virtue of the general grant to him of the executive power, and he may properly supervise and guide their construction of the statutes under which they act in order to secure the unitary and uniform execution of the law which Article II of the Constitution evidently contemplated in vesting general executive power in the President alone.

Sierra Club v. Costle, 211 U.S. App. D.C. 336, 657 F.2d 298, 406 n.524 (D.C. Cir. 1981) Those officers are duty-bound to give effect to the policies embodied in the President's direction, to the extent allowed by the law.

> An executive order is judicially enforceable only if it has the force and effect of law, Chrysler Corp. v. Brown, 441 U.S. 281, 303-04, 99 S.Ct. 1705, 1718-19, 60 L.Ed. 2d 208 (1979) and In Re Surface Mining Regulation Litigation, 201 U.S. App. D.C. 360, 627 F.2d 1346, 1357 (D.C. Cir. 1980).
> Executive Order lacked the force and effect of law because it was never grounded in a statutory mandate or congressional delegation of authority. Chrysler Corp. v. Brown, 441 U.S. 281, 303-04, 99 S.Ct. 1705, 1718-19, 60 L.Ed. 2d 208 (1979); Youngstown Sheet Tube Co. v. Sawyer, 343 U.S. 579, 96 L.Ed. 1153, 72 S.Ct. 863, 47 Ohio Op. 430, 62 Ohio Law Abs. 417 (1952) and In Re Surface Mining Regulation Litigation, 201 U.S. App. D.C. 360, 627 F.2d 1346, 1357 (D.C. Cir. 1980).

Newsome further request that the requested Executive Order(s) be grounded in laws and statutory mandate.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, Newsome files this instant FBI Complaint and Request for Investigation and Request for United States Presidential Executive Order(s) in good faith in that she seeks vindication and justice for the criminal and civil wrongs rendered her. Moreover, in the interest of the PUBLIC GOOD in that said concerns as to the CORRUPTION in the Supreme Court of Ohio has been publicly made known through the media and from concerned citizens. Newsome reserves the right to amend this instant Complaint in that it has been prepared under duress and for purposes of expedition to see that the proper government authority has been timely, properly and adequately notified of the criminal activities of Conspirators. In July 2008, Newsome filed an Official Complaint with the United States Legislature/Congress. In May 2009, Newsome filed an Official Complaint with United States President Barack Obama; United States Attorney General Eric Holder of the United States Department of Justice; and United States Secretary of Labor Hilda Solis with the United States Department of Labor. Furthermore, there are pending FBI Complaints that Newsome filed on June 26, 2006, in Jackson, Mississippi; October 13, 2008, in Louisville, Kentucky; and September 24, 2009, in Cincinnati, Ohio – FBI Complaints in which President Barack Obama and U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder has obtained copies and or has been provided sufficient information as to where Complaint can be retrieved from. Newsome has also recently submitted (i.e. since December 10, 2009) additional Correspondence to United States President Barack Obama and United States Attorney General Eric Holder and is awaiting response. Under the applicable statutes/laws of the United States, Newsome was legally and lawfully authorized to file her July 14, 2008 Complaint with the United States Legislature/Congress and therefore did so. However, PLEASE BE ADVISE that is a separate matter and should not preclude the FBI's initiating, investigation and handling of this instant Complaint.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Newsome prays for the following relief:

A. Immediate issuance of Injunction, Restraining and Protective Order of and against Conspirators and their legal representatives and/or representative from subjecting Newsome to any further criminal and civil wrongs;

B. Criminal prosecution of Person(s)/Conspirators and the proper indictment rendered for those who may be found guilty;

C. Any and all other relief allowed under the statutes/laws governing said matters.

Respectfully submitted this 28th day of December, 2009.

David Duke

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

David Ernest Duke (born July 1, 1950) is an American white nationalist, former Grand Wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan,[3][4][5][6][7][8] former Republican Louisiana State Representative, and a candidate in presidential primaries in 1992 and in the general election for President in 1988.

Duke describes himself as a racial realist asserting that "all people have a basic human right to preserve their own heritage".[9] He speaks in favor of voluntary racial segregation and white separatism.[10][11][12]

Duke has also unsuccessfully run for the Louisiana State Senate, U.S. Senate, U.S. House of Representatives, Governor of Louisiana, and twice for President of the United States.

Youth and early adulthood

David Duke was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, United States, North America to David H. Duke and Alice Maxine Crick. As the son of an engineer for Shell Oil, Duke frequently moved with his family around the world. They lived a short time in the Netherlands before settling in Louisiana. In the late 1960s, Duke met the leader of the white separatist National Alliance, William Pierce, who would remain a life-long influence. Duke joined the Ku Klux Klan in 1967.[13]

Duke studied at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, and in 1970, he formed a white student group called the White Youth Alliance; it was affiliated with the National Socialist White People's Party. The same year, to protest William Kunstler's appearance at Tulane University in New Orleans, Duke appeared at a demonstration in Nazi uniform. Picketing and holding parties on the anniversary of Adolf Hitler's birth, he became notorious on campus for wearing a Nazi uniform.[14]

Reforming the KKK

Duke went to Laos for ten weeks in 1971 to teach English to Laotian military officers and to serve on cargo flights for Air America.[14]

Duke graduated from Louisiana State University in 1974 and joined the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. He gained attention for trying to modernize the Klan.[15] A follower of Duke, Thomas Robb, changed the title of Grand Wizard to National Director, and replaced the Klan's white robes with business suits.[16]

Family life

While working in the White Youth Alliance, Duke met Chloê Hardin, who became active in the group. They remained companions throughout college and married in 1974. Hardin is the mother of Duke's two daughters, Erika and Kristin. They divorced in 1984, and Hardin moved to West Palm Beach to be near her parents. There she became involved with Duke's Klan friend, Don Black, whom she later married.[17]

Political campaigns

1979 Louisiana State Senate District 10

In 1979, Duke ran as a Democrat for the 10th district seat in the Louisiana State Senate. He finished second in a three candidate race with 9,897 votes for 26.26%.[18]

Duke allegedly conducted a direct-mail appeal in 1987, using the identity and mailing-list of the Georgia Forsyth County Defense League without permission. League officials described it as a fund-raising scam. (It is detailed in The Rise of David Duke by Tyler Bridges.)

1988 Presidential Campaigns

In 1988, Duke ran initially in the Democratic presidential primaries. His campaign failed to make much of an impact, with the one notable exemption of winning the little known New Hampshire Vice-Presidential primary.[19] Duke having failed to gain much traction as a Democrat then successfully sought the Presidential nomination of the Populist Party.[20] He appeared on the ballot for President in eleven states (was a write-in candidate in some other states), some with Trenton Stokes of Arkansas for Vice President, and on other state ballots with Floyd Parker for Vice President. He received just 47,047 votes, for 0.04 percent of the combined, national popular vote.[21]

1989: Successful run in special election for Louisiana House seat

In December 1988, Duke changed his political affiliation from the Democratic Party to the Republican Party.[22]

In 1988, Republican State Representative Charles Cusimano of Metairie resigned his District 89 seat to become a 24th Judicial District Court judge, and a special election was called early in 1989 to select a successor. Duke entered the race to succeed Cusimano and faced several opponents, including fellow Republicans, John Spier Treen, a brother of former Governor David C. Treen, and Roger F. Villere, Jr., who operates Villere's Florist in Metairie. Duke finished first in the primary with 3,995 votes (33.1 percent).[23] As no one received a majority of the vote in the first round, a runoff election was required between Duke and Treen, who polled 2,277 votes (18.9 percent) in the first round of balloting. John Treen's candidacy was endorsed by U.S. President George H. W. Bush, former President Ronald W.

Reagan, and other notable Republicans,[24] as well as the Democrat Victor Bussie (president of the Louisiana AFL-CIO) and Edward J. Steimel (president of the Louisiana Association of Business and Industry and former director of the "good government" think tank, the Public Affairs Research Council). Duke, however, hammered Treen on a statement the latter had made indicating a willingness to entertain higher property taxes, anathema in that suburban district.[25] Duke with 8,459 votes (50.7 percent) defeated Treen, who polled 8,232 votes (49.3 percent).[26] He served in the House from 1990 until 1992.[27]

From his legislative base, Duke thereafter launched unsuccessful campaigns for the U.S. Senate in 1990 and governor in 1991. Villere did not again seek office but thereafter concentrated his political activity within the GOP organization.[28]

Political analyst Stephen Mark Sabludowsky (born 1950) of Metairie notes certain ironies in that 1989 special legislative race:

"Duke won that legislative seat, became a political nightmare for Governor Buddy Roemer and Republican chairman William "Billy" Nungesser. . . . Duke's fortunes soured as he attempted to run for President, later spent time in jail, then peddled his racism and Nazism and 'loony tunes' philosophies in the likes of Russia, Iran, and elsewhere. . . . Meanwhile, the young [thirty-nine] Roger Villere worked his way up the ladder of the Louisiana Republican Party, ultimately earning the position of chairman."[28]

In late 1980s, Duke reportedly had his nose thinned and chin augmented. Following his election to the Louisiana House of Representatives, he shaved his moustache.[29][30][31]

1990 campaign for U.S. Senate

In 1990, in the October 6 primary, Duke ran as a Republican against three Democrats including incumbent Senator J. Bennett Johnston, Jr.[32]

The Republican Party endorsed state Senator Ben Bagert of New Orleans, but national GOP officials anticipated that Bagert could not win and was fragmenting Johnston's support; so funding for Bagert's campaign was halted, and he dropped out two days before the election, though his name remained on the ballot.[33] In the last week of the campaign, Republican Senator John Danforth of Missouri openly endorsed Johnston.

Duke's views prompted some of his critics (including Republicans) to form the Louisiana Coalition Against Racism and Nazism, which directed media attention to Duke's statements of hostility to blacks and Jews.[34]

Duke received 43.51 percent (607,391 votes) of the vote to Johnston's 53.93 percent (752,902 votes),[35] and, according to exit polls, Duke received more than 60 percent of the white vote.

In a 2006 editorial, Gideon Rachman (The Economist, the Financial Times) recalled interviewing Duke's campaign manager (from his 1990 campaign) who said, "The Jews just aren't a big issue in Louisiana. We keep telling David, stick to attacking the blacks. There's no point in going after the Jews, you just piss them off and nobody here cares about them anyway."[36]

1992 Republican Party presidential candidate

In 1992 Duke ran for the nomination. Democrat Party officials tried to block his participation.[37] He received 119,115 (0.94%) votes[38] in the primaries, but no delegates to the national convention.

In 1992 a film was released that investigated Duke's appeal among some white voters. Backlash: Race and the American Dream explored the demagogic issues of Duke's platform, examining his use of black crime, welfare, affirmative action and white supremacy and tied Duke to a legacy of other white backlash politicians, such as Lester G. Maddox and George C. Wallace, Jr., and the use in the 1988 Presidential campaign of Pres. George H.W. Bush of these same racially themed hot buttons.[39]

1991 campaign for Governor of Louisiana

Despite repudiation by the Republican Party[40], Duke ran for Louisiana Governor in 1991. In the open primary, Duke was second to former governor Edwin Edwards in votes; thus, he faced Edwards in a runoff. In the initial round, Duke received 32% of the vote. Incumbent Governor Buddy Roemer, who had switched from the Democratic to Republican parties during his term, came in third with 27% of the vote. Duke effectively killed Roemer's bid for re-election. While Duke had a sizable core constituency of devoted supporters, many voted for him as a "protest vote" to register dissatisfaction with Louisiana's establishment politicians. Duke said he was the spokesman for the "White majority."[41] He took a strong anti-establishment stance reminiscent of George Wallace, in the 1968 presidential campaign.

Between the primary and the runoff, called the "general election" under Louisiana election rules (in which all candidates run on one ballot, regardless of party), white supremacist organizations from around the country contributed to his campaign fund.[42][43] He was also endorsed by James Meredith, black civil rights figure.[44]

Duke's success garnered national media attention. While Duke gained the backing of the quixotic former Alexandria Mayor John K. Snyder, he won few serious endorsements in Louisiana. Celebrities and organizations donated thousands to Edwards' campaign. Referencing Edwards' long-standing problem with accusations of corruption, popular bumper stickers read: "Vote for the Crook. It's Important," and "Vote for the Lizard, not the Wizard." When a reporter asked Edwards what he needed to do to triumph over Duke, Edwards replied with a smile: "Stay alive."

Edwards received 1,057,031 votes (61.2%). Duke's 671,009 votes represented 38.8% of the total. Duke claimed victory, saying: "I won my constituency. I won 55% of the white vote." Exit polls confirmed that he had.[14] In reality, Duke had done little better in percent terms than the first major Republican gubernatorial candidate in modern Louisiana history, Charlton Lyons, had done in 1964.

1996 campaign for US Senate

When Johnston announced his retirement in 1996, Duke ran again for the U.S. Senate. He polled 141,489 votes (11.5%). Former Republican state representative Woody Jenkins of Baton Rouge and Democrat Mary Landrieu of New Orleans, the former state treasurer, went into the general election contest. Duke was fourth in the nine-person, jungle primary race.[45]

Campaign to succeed Bob Livingston

Because of the sudden resignation of powerful Republican incumbent Bob Livingston in 1999, a special election was held in Louisiana's First Congressional District. Duke sought the seat as a Republican and received 19% of the vote. He finished a close third, thus failing to make the runoff. His candidacy was repudiated by the Republicans[46]. Republican Party Chairman Jim Nicholson remarked: "There is no room in the party of Lincoln for a Klansman like David Duke."[46] Republican state representative David Vitter (now a U.S. Senator) went on to defeat Republican ex-Governor David C. Treen. Also in the race was the New Orleans Republican leader Rob Couhig.

1999 Campaign for US House of Representatives

In 1999 Duke ran for Louisiana's First Congressional District. Duke finished third in the May 1, 1999 election with 28,059 votes (19.15%).[47]

2004 campaign manager to Roy Armstrong's Campaign for US House

In 2004, Duke's bodyguard, roommate, and longtime associate Roy Armstrong made a bid for the United States House of Representatives to serve Louisiana's First Congressional District. In the open primary Armstrong finished second in the six candidate field with 6.69% of the vote but Republican Bobby Jindal received 78.40% winning the seat.[48] Duke was the head advisor of the campaign.[49][50]

Controversies and affiliations

Knights of the Ku Klux Klan

In 1974, David Duke founded the Louisiana-based Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a Ku Klux Klan group, shortly after graduating from LSU. He first received broad public attention during this time, as he successfully marketed himself in the mid-1970s as a new brand of Klansman — well-groomed, engaged, and professional. Duke also reformed the organization, promoting nonviolence and legality, and, for the first time in the Klan's history, women were accepted as equal members and Catholics were encouraged to apply for membership.[51]

NAAWP

In 1980, Duke left the Klan and formed the National Association for the Advancement of White People (NAAWP).

On May 20, 2004, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) became outraged when it discovered that David Duke had chosen New Orleans to host his International NAAWP Conference during the NAACP's Big Easy Rally to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Brown v. Board of Education decision.[52]

Ernst Zündel and the Zundelsite

Duke has expressed his support for prominent German-Canadian Holocaust denier Ernst Zündel. Duke makes a number of statements in support of Zündel and his Holocaust denial campaign.[53][54][55][56] After the aging Zündel was deported from Canada to Germany[57] and imprisoned in Germany on charges of inciting the masses to ethnic hatred,[58] Duke called him a "political prisoner."

Interregional Academy of Personnel Management

Publications

Finders-Keepers

Duke wrote a self-help book for women to raise money under the pseudonym Dorothy Vanderbilt and James Konrad, titled Finders-Keepers - Finding and Keeping the Man You Want which contains sexual, diet, fashion, cosmetic and relationship advice, published by Arlington Place Books in 1976. Professor Lawrence N. Powell, who read a rare copy of the book given to him by Patsy Sims, wrote that it includes advice on vaginal exercises, fellatio, and anal sex.[71][72][73] The book is out of print and difficult to find; however, according to Tyler Bridges, The Times-Picayune obtained a copy and traced its proceeds to Duke[74] who compiled the information from women's self-help magazines.[14]

My Awakening

Duke published his autobiography My Awakening: A Path to Racial Understanding in 1998. The book details Duke's social philosophies, especially his reasoning behind racial separation. In the book, Duke says:

> We (Whites) desire to live in our own neighborhoods, go to our own schools, work in our own cities and towns, and ultimately live as one extended family in our own nation. We shall end the racial genocide of integration. We shall work for the eventual establishment of a separate homeland for African Americans, so each race will be free to pursue its own destiny without racial conflicts and ill will.[10]

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) book review refers to it as containing racist, antisemitic, sexist and homophobic views.[75]

To raise the money to re-publish a new, updated edition of My Awakening, Duke instigated a 21-day fundraising drive on November 26, 2007 where he had to raise "$25,344 by a December 17 deadline for the printers." [76] Duke states this drive is necessary because the work "has become the most important book in the entire world in the effort to awaken our people for our heritage and freedom."

Jewish Supremacism

In 2002, Duke traveled to Eastern Europe to promote his book, Jewish Supremacism: My Awakening on the Jewish Question in Russia in 2003. The book purports to "examine and document elements of ethnic supremacism that have existed in the Jewish community from historical to modern times."[77] The book is dedicated to Israel Shahak, a critical author of what Shahak saw as supremacist religious teachings in Jewish culture. Former Boris Yeltsin administration official and prominent far-right politician Boris Mironov wrote an introduction for the Russian edition, called "The Jewish Question Through the Eyes of an American."

The ADL office in Moscow urged the Moscow prosecutor to open an investigation of Mironov. The ADL office initiated a letter from a prominent Duma member to Russia's Prosecutor General Vladimir Ustinov, urging a criminal case be opened against the author and the Russian publisher of Duke's book. The letter by Alexander Fedulov described the book as antisemitic and as violating Russian anti-hate crime laws.[78] In December 2001[?], Prosecutor's office closed the investigation of Boris Mironov and Jewish Supremacism. In a public letter, Yury Biryukov, First Deputy of the Prosecutor General of the Russian Federation, stated that a socially-psychological examination, which was conducted as a part of the investigation, concluded that the book and the actions of Boris Mironov did not break Russian hate-crime laws.[79]

Duke says his views had been "vindicated" with the publication of The Israel Lobby and U.S. Foreign Policy by professors John Mearsheimer and Stephen Walt and said he was "surprised how excellent [the paper] is." Duke dedicated several radio webcasts to the book and the authors comparing it to his work 'Jewish Supremacism' [80][81][82][83], although Walt has stated that, "I have always found Mr. Duke's views reprehensible, and I am sorry he sees this article as consistent with his view of the world".[84]

While Duke says that his books "have become two of the two most influential and important books in the world."[85] the ADL refer to the book as antisemitic [86], Duke denies the book is motivated by antisemitism.[87]

At one time, the book was sold in the main lobby of the building of Russian State Duma (lower house of parliament). The first printing of 5,000 copies sold out in several weeks.

In 2004, the book was published in the United States. Originally published in English and Russian, the book has subsequently been translated internationally into Swedish, Ukrainian, Persian, Hungarian and most recently, Spanish.[85]

In 2007, an updated edition was published [88] which Duke purports to be a "fine quality hardback edition with full color dust jacket and it has a new index and a number of timely additions" [85]

Internet commentary

Stormfront

Main article: Stormfront (website)

In 1995, Don Black and Chloê Hardin, Duke's ex-wife, began a small bulletin board system (BBS) called Stormfront. Today, Stormfront has become a premier online forum for white nationalism, Neo-Nazism, hate speech, racism, and antisemitism.[89][90][91] Duke has an account on Stormfront which he uses to post articles from his own website, www.davidduke.com, as well as polling forum members for opinions and questions, in particular during his internet broadcasts. Duke has worked with Don Black on numerous projects including Operation Red Dog in 1980.[92][93]

On February 5, 2002, Duke said, on his Internet radio show, that Ariel Sharon was "the world's worst terrorist" and that Mossad was involved in the September 11 attacks. The broadcast said that Zionists were behind the attacks in order to reduce sympathy for Muslim nations in the West, and that the number of Israelis killed in the attack was lower than it would be under normal circumstances, citing early assessments by The Jerusalem Post and "the legendary involvement of Israeli nationals in businesses at the World Trade Center". According to Duke, this indicated that Israeli security services had prior knowledge of the attack.[94]

On August 5, 2005, Duke published an article stating support for Cindy Sheehan, saying that:

> "The Iraq war and her son's death did not defend America from hatred or terrorism" and that "In fact, the war is massively increasing hatred and terrorism. For every one terrorist killed in Iraq, we are creating thousands more who hate and want to hurt America and Americans. This is the surest way to lose the war on terror, not win it."[95]

On February 4, 2009, Duke repeatedly called MSNBC pundit Keith Olbermann "untermensch" on his radio show in response to being labeled "Worst Person in the World" on Countdown with Keith Olbermann.[96]

Public appearances

Public address in Syria

On November 24, 2005, Duke visited Damascus, Syria, addressing a rally which was broadcast on Syrian television, and later giving an interview.[97] During the rally, he referred to Israel as a "war-mongering country" and stated that Zionists "occupy most of the American media and now control much of the American government…It is not just the West Bank of Palestine, it is not just the Golan Heights that are occupied by the Zionists, but Washington D.C. and New York and London and many other capitals of the world." He concluded by stating: "Your fight for freedom is the same as our fight for freedom." After speaking at the rally, Duke gave an interview where he said that Israel "makes the Nazi state look very, very moderate." Syrian parliament member Muhammad Habash later stated that Duke's visit gave Syrians a "new and very positive view of the average American."[97][98][99]

Comments in the media

Since 2005, Duke has appeared three times on Current Issues, a Lafayette, Louisiana–based television show hosted and produced by Palestinian-American Hesham Tillawi, which has recently been picked up by Bridges TV. Show host Tillawi gave Duke the opportunity to discourse at length about his beliefs about Jewish supremacism. On a show in October 2005, Duke claimed that Jewish extremists are responsible for undermining the morality of America and are attempting to "wash the world in blood."[100]

After John Mearsheimer and Stephen Walt's paper on the Israel Lobby appeared in March 2006, Duke praised the paper in a number of articles on his website, on his March 18 Live Web Radio Broadcast, and on MSNBC's March 21 Scarborough Country program.[101] According to The New York Sun, Duke said in an email, "It is quite satisfying to see a body in the premier American University essentially come out and validate every major point I have been making since even before the war even started." Duke added that "the task before us is to wrest control of America's foreign policy and critical junctures of media from the Jewish extremist Neocons that seek to lead us into what they expectantly call World War IV."

Conferences

See also: International Conference to Review the Global Vision of the Holocaust

Duke organized a gathering of European Nationalists who signed the New Orleans Protocol on May 29, 2004. The signatories agreed to avoid infighting among far-right racialists.

On June 3, 2005, Duke co-chaired a conference named "Zionism As the Biggest Threat to Modern Civilization" in Ukraine, sponsored by the Interregional Academy of Personnel Management. The conference was attended by several notable Ukrainian public figures and politicians, and writer Israel Shamir.[102]

Duke claims that Swedish police thwarted an attempted assassination against him, in August 2005, while Duke was speaking in Sweden.[103]

On the weekend of June 8-10, 2006, Duke attended as a speaker at the international "White World's Future" conference in Moscow, which was coordinated and hosted by Pavel Tulaev.[104]

On December 11-13, 2006, Duke attended the International Conference to Review the Global Vision of the Holocaust in Tehran, Iran, opened by Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, stating "The Holocaust is the device used as the pillar of Zionist imperialism, Zionist aggression, Zionist terror and Zionist murder."[105]

David Duke attended the conference, along with Gazi Hussein (Syria); Dr Rahmandost (conference chair, Society for Supporting People of Palestine); Jan Bernhoff, a Swedish computer science teacher who maintains that 300,000 Jews died during the Holocaust[106]; Fredrick Töben, director of the Adelaide Institute, Australia.

Criticism and legal difficulties

Money matters

In the early 1980s, Duke was allegedly heavily involved in gambling and stock market investments, according to reports by the Times-Picayune.[71]

Plastic surgery claims

In 1990 syndicated columnist Jack Anderson argued Duke has done "everything to make himself look better to the voters, including plastic surgery".[107][108]

Duke explained in My Awakening that he had had reconstructive surgery on his nose, which had been broken many times.[109]

Critical publications

In Troubled Memory: Anne Levy, the Holocaust and David Duke's Louisiana[110][111] by Professor Lawrence N. Powell, who teaches at Tulane University history department and was a founding member of Lousiana Coalition Against Racism and Nazism, "connects the prewar and wartime experiences of Jewish survivors to the lives they built in the United States" and depicts"story of Anne Skorecki Levy, a Holocaust survivor who transformed the horrors of her childhood into a passionate mission to defeat the political menace of reputed neo-Nazi and Ku Klux Klan leader David Duke." The book won three awards.[112]

Tax fraud conviction

David Duke pleaded guilty to the felony charge of filing a false tax return under 26 U.S.C. § 7206 and mail fraud under 18 U.S.C. § 1341 in December 2002.[113]

Four months later, Duke was sentenced to 15 months in prison, and he served the time in Big Spring, Texas. He was also fined US$10,000, ordered to cooperate with the Internal Revenue Service, and to pay money still owed for his 1998 taxes. Following his release in May 2004, he stated that his decision to take the plea bargain was motivated by the bias that he perceived in the United States federal court system and not his guilt. He said he felt the charges were contrived to derail his political career and discredit him to his followers, and that he took the safe route by pleading guilty and receiving a mitigated sentence, rather than pleading not guilty and potentially receiving the full sentence.

Duke pled guilty to what prosecutors described as a six-year scheme to dupe thousands of his followers by asking for donations. Through postal mail, Duke later appealed to his supporters that he was about to lose his house and his life savings. Prosecutors claimed that Duke raised hundreds of thousands of dollars in this campaign. Prosecutors also claimed he sold his home at a hefty profit, had multiple investment accounts, and spent much of his money gambling at casinos.[114][115][116][117]

The entire file of court documents related to this case can be found at The Smoking Gun[118] website, including details on the December 12, 2002 guilty plea to federal charges that he filed a false tax return and committed mail fraud.[119]

Don Black claims that Duke was targeted in this way by the government to discredit him.[120]

Arrest in the Czech Republic

On April 24, 2009, it was reported that Duke, who had arrived in the Czech Republic at the invitation of Czech Neo-Nazis to deliver three lectures in Prague and Brno to promote his book My Awakening, was arrested on suspicion of "denying or approving of the Nazi genocide and other Nazi crimes" and "promotion of movements seeking suppression of human rights," which are punishable by up to three years in prison in the Czech Republic. At the time of his arrest, Duke was reportedly guarded by members of a far-right group known as "Národní Odpor" which means national resistance.[121][122] The Czech police reportedly released Duke in the early hours of April 25, 2009, and ordered him to leave the country by midnight. Police accused him of promotion of movements suppressing human rights.[123][124][125] He has been released on the condition that he leaves the country by midnight on April 25, 2009.[126][127]

Duke's first lecture had been scheduled at Charles University in Prague but it was canceled after university officials learned that neo-Nazis were planning to attend.[128] Some Czech politicians including Interior Minister Ivan Langer and Human Rights and Minorities Minister Michael Kocáb, had previously expressed opposition to Duke being allowed into the country.[121]

In September 2009 the District Prosecutor's Office for Prague dropped all charges, explaining that there was no evidence that David Duke had committed any crime.[129]

NOTICE OF COMMITTEE HEARING

The Senate Committee on the Judiciary has scheduled a hearing on "Judicial Nominations" for Tuesday, September 26, 2006 at 2:00 p.m. in Room 226 of the Senate Dirksen Office Building.

By order of the Chairman

Statement of

The Honorable Patrick Leahy

United States Senator
Vermont
April 25, 2002

I would like to welcome the nominees to today's hearing. The nominees before us represent a number of states across our nation. Many of the nominees' family members have made the long journey with them, and I extend the welcome of this Committee to the friends and families in attendance. I am especially grateful to Senator Edwards for volunteering to chair this important hearing on behalf of the Committee.

Today, we are holding the confirmation hearing for Judge Julia Smith Gibbons, nominated to the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, Justice Leonard E. Davis, nominated to the District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Judge David C. Godbey, nominated to the District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Andrew S. Hanen, nominated to the District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Samuel H. (Hardy) Mays, Jr., nominated to the District Court for the Western District of Tennessee, and Judge Thomas M. Rose, nominated to the District Court for the Southern District of Ohio.

With today's hearing, in little less than 10 months, the Senate Judiciary Committee will have held 17 hearings involving a total 61 judicial nominations. That is more hearings on judges than the Republican majority held in any year of its control of the Senate. In contrast, one-sixth of President Clinton's judicial nominees – more than 50 – never got a Committee hearing and Committee vote from the Republican majority, which perpetuated longstanding vacancies into this year.

I am pleased to include Judge Gibbons on the hearing today at Senator Fred Thompson's request. Of the six Court of Appeals nominees who have received hearings in 2002 by the Committee, all have been at the request of Republican Senators. By including Judge Gibbons on this hearing, we hope to provide some much needed relief to the Sixth Circuit, which has eight vacancies. Six of those vacancies arose before the Judiciary Committee was permitted to reorganize after the change in majority last summer.

The Sixth Circuit vacancies are a prime and unfortunate legacy of these recent partisan obstructionist practices. Half of the seats on the Sixth Circuit are vacant. Most of those vacancies arose during the Clinton Administration and before the change in majority last summer. None, zero, not one of the Clinton nominees to those vacancies on the Sixth Circuit received a hearing by the Judiciary Committee under Republican leadership.

One of those seats has been vacant since 1995, the first term of President Clinton. Judge Helene White of the Michigan Court of Appeals was nominated in January 1997 and did not receive a hearing on her nomination during the more than 1,500 days before her nomination was withdrawn by President Bush in March of last year. Kathleen McCree Lewis, a distinguished lawyer from a prestigious Michigan law firm, also did not receive a hearing on her 1999 nomination to the Sixth Circuit during the years it was pending before it was withdraw by President Bush in March 2001. Professor Kent Markus, another outstanding nominee to a vacancy on the Sixth Circuit that arose in 1999, never received a hearing on his nomination before his nomination was returned to President Clinton without action in December 2000.

Some on the other side of the aisle held these seats open for years for another President to fill, instead of proceeding fairly on those consensus nominees. Some were unwilling to move forward knowing that retirements and attrition would create four additional seats that would arise naturally for the next President. That is why there are now eight vacancies on the Sixth Circuit, why it is half empty or half full.

Long before some of the recent voices of concern were raised about the vacancies on that court, Democratic Senators in 1997, 1998, 1999, and 2000 implored the Republican majority to give the 6th Circuit nominees hearings. Those requests, not just for the sake of the nominees but for the sake of the public's business before the court, were ignored. Numerous articles and editorials urged the Republican leadership to act on those nominations. Fourteen former presidents of the Michigan State Bar pleaded for hearings on those nominations.

The former Chief Judge of the Sixth Circuit, Judge Gilbert Merritt, wrote to the Judiciary Committee Chairman years ago to ask that the nominees get hearings and that the vacancies be filled. The Chief Judge noted that, with four vacancies – the four vacancies that arose in the Clinton Administration – the Sixth Circuit "is hurting badly and will not be able to keep up with its work load due to the fact that the Senate Judiciary Committee has acted on none of the nominations to our Court." He predicted: "By the time the next President in inaugurated, there will be six vacancies on the Court of Appeals. Almost half of the Court will be vacant and will remain so for most of 2001 due to the exigencies of the nomination process. Although the President has nominated candidates, the Senate has refused to take a vote on any of them." Nonetheless, no Sixth Circuit hearings were held in the last three years of the Clinton Administration, despite these pleas. Not one. Since the shift in majority the situation has been exacerbated further as two additional vacancies have arisen.

When Senator Edwards convenes our hearing this afternoon on the nomination of Judge Gibbons to the 6th Circuit, a hearing we announced last week, it will be the first hearing on a 6th Circuit nomination in almost 5 years. Similarly, the hearing we held on the nomination of Judge Edith Clement to the 5th Circuit last year was the first on a 5th Circuit nominee in 7 years and she was the first new appellate judge confirmed to that Court in 6 years. When we held a hearing on the nomination of Judge Harris Hartz to the 10th Circuit last year, it was the first hearing on a 10th Circuit nominee in 6 years and he was the first new appellate judge confirmed to that Court in 6 years. When we held the hearing on the nomination of Judge Roger Gregory to the 4th Circuit last year, it was the first hearing on a 4th Circuit nominee in 3 years and he was the first appellate judge confirmed in 3 years.

Large numbers of vacancies continue to exist on many Courts of Appeals, in large measure because the recent Republican majority was not willing to hold hearings or vote on more than half – 56 percent – of President Clinton's Courts of Appeals nominees in 1999 and 2000 and was not willing to confirm a single judge to the Courts of Appeals during the entire 1996 session. From the time the Republicans took over majority control of the Senate in 1995 until the reorganization of the Committee last July, circuit vacancies increased from 16 to 33, more than doubling.

Democrats have broken with that recent history of inaction. Nine nominees have been confirmed to the Courts of Appeals in less than 10 months. Judge Gibbons is the 12th nominee to a Circuit Court to receive a hearing in less than 10 months.

I would like to welcome Mr. Hardy Mays of Tennessee to today's hearing. Mr. Mays is a partner at Baker, Donelson, Bearman & Caldwell in Memphis, Tennessee, and he graduated from Yale Law School in 1973. Several lawyers have written to the Senate expressing strong support for Mr. Mays' confirmation due to his intelligence, fairness, and good temperament, including J. Houston Gordon, the former Chairman of the Tennessee Democratic Party.

Mr. Mays has spent most of his legal career in private practice, but he also served for five years legal counsel and then Chief of Staff to Tennessee Governor Don Sundquist, a Republican. Mr. Mays has been involved in more than 50 political campaigns, including some fund raising, on behalf of Republican candidates for President, Senate, Governor and local offices. He is member of the Republican National Lawyers Association. He was a delegate to the Republican National Convention in 2000, and he was on the Executive Committee of the Tennessee Republican Party from 1986 through 1990. Thus, it would be wrong to claim that we will not consider President George W. Bush's nominees with conservative credentials. We have done so repeatedly.

For example, Judge Rose was previously active in Republican politics in Ohio. I would like to welcome Judge Rose of the Greene County Common Pleas Court in Ohio to this hearing. Judge Rose is strongly supported by both of his home-State Senators. A former assistant prosecutor and private practitioner, Judge Rose was appointed to the state bench over a decade ago by then-Governor, now Senator, George Voinovich.

We also have three nominees to the District Courts of Texas who I would like to welcome today.

In 2000, Justice Davis was appointed by then-Governor George W. Bush to the position of Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals in Tyler, Texas. Justice Davis has extensive experience practicing as a litigator before state and federal court. He has been nominated by President Bush to the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. Judge Godbey is a Dallas County District Court Judge who has been nominated to the federal district court in the Northern District of Texas. He is a former litigator who represented corporate entities in civil and commercial litigation in state and federal trial and appellate courts in Texas and around the country. He has also briefed three cases before the United States Supreme Court, including two cases involving the application of the Voting Rights Act in Texas. Mr. Hanen is nominated to the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas. He has significant legal experience working as a civil trial attorney in private practice for over twenty years, and has been a leader in establishing programs to serve the needs of the disadvantaged. Mr. Hanen appears well-supported by his colleagues in the Houston legal community, and has received bipartisan support.

I would note that Mr. Hanen was nominated to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Judge Filemon Vela in May 2000. I also recall just two years ago when Ricardo Morado, who has served as Mayor of San Benito, Texas, and was nominated for a vacancy in the Southern District of Texas, never got a hearing and was never acted upon. President Clinton nominated Ricardo Morado on May 11, 2000 and his nomination was returned to President Clinton without any action on December 15, 2000.

It was not long ago when the Senate was under Republican control, that it took 943 days to confirm Judge Hilda Tagle to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas. She was first nominated in August 1995, but not confirmed until March 1998. When the final vote came, she was confirmed by unanimous consent and without a single negative vote, after having been stalled for almost three years. I recall the nomination of Michael Schattman to a vacancy on the Northern District of Texas. He never got a hearing and was never acted upon, while his nomination languished for over two years.

These are district court nominations that could have helped respond to increased filings in the federal courts in Texas if acted upon by the Senate over the last several years. With today's hearing on these three Texas nominees, the Committee will have considered five nominees from Texas in less than ten months and 11 nominees for positions on the trial or appellate court level in the Fifth Circuit, including the first new judge for the Fifth Circuit in seven years. In fact, it was this Senate's confirmation of Judge Edith Brown Clement last fall that created the vacancy to which Justice Davis is nominated.

In the past few months, the Senate has also confirmed Judge Philip Martinez to fill a vacancy on the District Court for the Western District of Texas and Judge Randy Crane to fill a vacancy on the District Court for the Southern District of Texas. The Senate has confirmed Judge Kurt Engelhardt and Judge Jay Zainey to fill vacancies on the District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana. The Senate has also confirmed Judge Michael Mills to fill a vacancy on the District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi.

Of course many of the vacancies in the Fifth Circuit are longstanding. Judge Clement was confirmed to fill a judicial emergency on the Fifth Circuit. Judge Martinez and Judge Crane likewise filled what had been judicial emergencies. These many vacancies and emergencies are the legacy of the years of inaction.

For example, despite the fact that President Clinton nominated Jorge Rangel, a distinguished Hispanic attorney, to fill a Fifth Circuit vacancy in July 1997, Mr. Rangel never received a hearing and his nomination was returned to the President without Senate action at the end of 1998. On September 16, 1999, President Clinton nominated Enrique Moreno, another outstanding Hispanic attorney, to fill a vacancy on the Fifth Circuit but that nominee never received a hearing either. When President Bush took office last January, he withdrew the nomination of Enrique Moreno to the Fifth Circuit. The Senate has moved quickly to confirm Judge Armijo in New Mexico and Judges Martinez and Crane in Texas, who were among the very few Hispanic judicial nominees sent so far by this Administration to us.

In contrast, the Judiciary Committee is moving fairly and expeditiously on judicial nominations. Looking at the number of confirmations in similar periods shows that we are confirming President Bush's judicial nominees at a faster pace than the nominees of prior presidents, despite absurd assertions to the contrary.

After all of the floor votes on judicial nominees today, the Senate will have confirmed 50 judges in less than ten months of Democratic leadership of the Senate. The record shows that 48 nominees were confirmed over the first 15 months of the Clinton Administration, a pace on average of 3.1 per month. In the first 15 months of the first Bush Administration, 27 judges were confirmed, a pace of 1.8 judges confirmed per month. Likewise, in President Reagan's first 15 months in office, 54 judges were confirmed, a pace of 3.6 per month. In contrast, in nearly 10 months with a Democratic majority, President George W. Bush's judicial nominees have been confirmed at a rate of 5 per month, a faster pace than for any of the past three Presidents, even those some were working with a Senate majority of the same political party. The number of judicial confirmations in less than 10 months – 50 – exceeds the number confirmed during all of 2000, 1999, 1997 and 1996, four out of six full years under Republican leadership.
I commend my colleagues for their efforts to consider the almost five dozen nominees we have had hearings for thus far. Thank you.

Let's Talk It Over

The questions on this page are designed to promote discussion of the lesson by the class and to encourage application of the lesson Scriptures. The answers provided are only discussion starters. Let your class talk it over from there.

1. Paul proclaimed his innocence to the Jewish leaders. When is it wise to make a public response to false accusations, and when should we just let them go?

In the case of Paul, the gospel would have been discredited if he had not spoken up. His circumstances made him look like a criminal, and he had no history with these leaders to expect them to assume otherwise without a proper defense.

If we have been publicly slandered by credible sources, we should probably make a public response. Otherwise our own witness will be compromised. Accusations that come up privately, usually as a result of gossip, generally do not need a public response. And even a public accusation, if it comes from a disreputable source and is not likely to compromise our witness, may not need a response. Jesus warned us that some people will say all manner of evil against us falsely, so we should not be surprised when it happens. But we do need to exercise wisdom when we become aware of it.

State of the Union: President Obama's Speech

President Obama Delivers State of the Union at US Capitol in Washington, D.C.

Jan. 27, 2010

President Obama's State of the Union Address - remarks as prepared for delivery. The State of the Union takes place at the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C. on Jan. 27, 2010 at 9:00 p.m. ET.

Madame Speaker, Vice President Biden, Members of Congress, distinguished guests, and fellow Americans:

Our Constitution declares that from time to time, the President shall give to Congress information about the state of our union. For two hundred and twenty years, our leaders have fulfilled this duty. They have done so during periods of prosperity and tranquility. And they have done so in the midst of war and depression; at moments of great strife and great struggle.

It's tempting to look back on these moments and assume that our progress was inevitable ‼ that America was always destined to succeed. But when the Union was turned back at Bull Run and the Allies first landed at Omaha Beach, victory was very much in doubt. When the market crashed on Black Tuesday and civil rights marchers were beaten on Bloody Sunday, the future was anything but certain. These were times that tested the courage of our convictions, and the strength of our union. And despite all our divisions and disagreements; our hesitations and our fears; America prevailed because we chose to move forward as one nation, and one people.

Again, we are tested. And again, we must answer history's call.

One year ago, I took office amid two wars, an economy rocked by severe recession, a financial system on the verge of collapse, and a government deeply in debt. Experts from across the political spectrum warned that if we did not act, we might face a second depression. So we acted ‼ immediately and aggressively. And one year later, the worst of the storm has passed.

But the devastation remains. One in ten Americans still cannot find work. Many businesses have shuttered. Home values have declined. Small towns and rural communities have been hit especially hard. For those who had already known poverty, life has become that much harder.

This recession has also compounded the burdens that America's families have been dealing with for decades ‼ the burden of working harder and longer for less; of being unable to save enough to retire or help kids with college.

So I know the anxieties that are out there right now. They're not new. These struggles are the reason I ran for President. These struggles are what I've witnessed for years in places like Elkhart, Indiana and Galesburg, Illinois. I hear about them in the letters that I read each night. The toughest to read are those written by children ‼ asking why they have to move from their home, or when their mom or dad will be able to go back to work.

commission. So I will issue an executive order that will allow us to go forward, because I refuse to pass this problem on to another generation of Americans. And when the vote comes tomorrow, the Senate should restore the pay-as-you-go law that was a big reason why we had record surpluses in the 1990s. I know that some in my own party will argue that we cannot address the deficit or freeze government spending when so many are still hurting. I agree, which is why this freeze will not take effect until next year, when the economy is stronger. But understand ‼ if we do not take meaningful steps to rein in our debt, it could damage our markets, increase the cost of borrowing, and jeopardize our recovery ‼ all of which could have an even worse effect on our job growth and family incomes.

From some on the right, I expect we'll hear a different argument ‼ that if we just make fewer investments in our people, extend tax cuts for wealthier Americans, eliminate more regulations, and maintain the status quo on health care, our deficits will go away. The problem is, that's what we did for eight years. That's what helped lead us into this crisis. It's what helped lead to these deficits. And we cannot do it again.

Rather than fight the same tired battles that have dominated Washington for decades, it's time to try something new. Let's invest in our people without leaving them a mountain of debt. Let's meet our responsibility to the citizens who sent us here. Let's try common sense.

To do that, we have to recognize that we face more than a deficit of dollars right now. We face a deficit of trust ‼ deep and corrosive doubts about how Washington works that have been growing for years. To close that credibility gap we must take action on both ends of Pennsylvania Avenue to end the outsized influence of lobbyists; to do our work openly; and to give our people the government they deserve.

That's what I came to Washington to do. That's why ‼ for the first time in history ‼ my Administration posts our White House visitors online. And that's why we've excluded lobbyists from policy-making jobs or seats on federal boards and commissions.

But we can't stop there. It's time to require lobbyists to disclose each contact they make on behalf of a client with my Administration or Congress. And it's time to put strict limits on the contributions that lobbyists give to candidates for federal office. Last week, the Supreme Court reversed a century of law to open the floodgates for special interests ‼ including foreign corporations ‼ to spend without limit in our elections. Well I don't think American elections should be bankrolled by America's most powerful interests, or worse, by foreign entities. They should be decided by the American people, and that's why I'm urging Democrats and Republicans to pass a bill that helps to right this wrong.

I'm also calling on Congress to continue down the path of earmark reform. You have trimmed some of this spending and embraced some meaningful change. But restoring the public trust demands more. For example, some members of Congress post some earmark requests online. Tonight, I'm calling on Congress to publish all earmark requests on a single website before there's a vote so that the American people can see how their money is being spent.

Of course, none of these reforms will even happen if we don't also reform how we work with one another.

Now, I am not nave. I never thought the mere fact of my election would usher in peace, harmony, and some post-partisan era. I knew that both parties have fed divisions that are deeply entrenched. And on some issues, there are simply philosophical differences that will always cause us to part ways. These disagreements, about the role of government in our lives, about our national priorities and our national security, have been taking place for over two hundred years. They are the very essence of our

It lives on in the 8-year old boy in Louisiana, who just sent me his allowance and asked if I would give it to the people of Haiti. And it lives on in all the Americans who've dropped everything to go some place they've never been and pull people they've never known from rubble, prompting chants of "U.S.A.! U.S.A.! U.S.A!" when another life was saved.

The spirit that has sustained this nation for more than two centuries lives on in you, its people.

We have finished a difficult year. We have come through a difficult decade. But a new year has come. A new decade stretches before us. We don't quit. I don't quit. Let's seize this moment ‼ to start anew, to carry the dream forward, and to strengthen our union once more.

Thank you. God Bless You. And God Bless the United States of America.

Why Obama Voted Against Roberts

'He has used his formidable skills on behalf of the strong in opposition to the weak.'

The following is from then-Sen. Barack Obama's floor statement explaining why he would vote against confirming Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts (September 2005):

. . . [T]he decision with respect to Judge Roberts' nomination has not been an easy one for me to make. As some of you know, I have not only argued cases before appellate courts but for 10 years was a member of the University of Chicago Law School faculty and taught courses in constitutional law. Part of the culture of the University of Chicago Law School faculty is to maintain a sense of collegiality between those people who hold different views. What engenders respect is not the particular outcome that a legal scholar arrives at but, rather, the intellectual rigor and honesty with which he or she arrives at a decision.

Given that background, I am sorely tempted to vote for Judge Roberts based on my study of his resume, his conduct during the hearings, and a conversation I had with him yesterday afternoon. There is absolutely no doubt in my mind Judge Roberts is qualified to sit on the highest court in the land. Moreover, he seems to have the comportment and the temperament that makes for a good judge. He is humble, he is personally decent, and he appears to be respectful of different points of view.

It is absolutely clear to me that Judge Roberts truly loves the law. He couldn't have achieved his excellent record as an advocate before the Supreme Court without that passion for the law, and it became apparent to me in our conversation that he does, in fact, deeply respect the basic precepts that go into deciding 95% of the cases that come before the federal court -- adherence to precedence, a certain modesty in reading statutes and constitutional text, a respect for procedural regularity, and an impartiality in presiding over the adversarial system. All of these characteristics make me want to vote for Judge Roberts.

The problem I face -- a problem that has been voiced by some of my other colleagues, both those who are voting for Mr. Roberts and those who are voting against Mr. Roberts -- is that while adherence to legal precedent and rules of statutory or constitutional construction will dispose of 95% of the cases that come before a court, so that both a Scalia and a Ginsburg will arrive at the same place most of the time on those 95% of the cases -- what matters on the Supreme Court is those 5% of cases that are truly difficult.

In those cases, adherence to precedent and rules of construction and interpretation will only get you through the 25th mile of the marathon. That last mile can only be determined on the basis of one's deepest values, one's core concerns, one's broader perspectives on how the world works, and the depth and breadth of one's empathy.

In those 5% of hard cases, the constitutional text will not be directly on point. The language of the statute will not be perfectly clear. Legal process alone will not lead you to a rule of decision. In those circumstances, your decisions about whether affirmative action is an appropriate response to the history of discrimination in this country, or whether a general right of privacy encompasses a more specific right of women to control their reproductive decisions, or whether the Commerce Clause empowers Congress to speak on those issues of broad national concern that may be only tangentially related to what is easily defined as interstate commerce, whether a person who is disabled has the right to be accommodated so they can work alongside those who are nondisabled -- in those difficult cases, the critical ingredient is supplied by what is in the judge's heart.

I talked to Judge Roberts about this. Judge Roberts confessed that, unlike maybe professional politicians, it is not easy for him to talk about his values and his deeper feelings. That is not how he is trained. He did say he doesn't like bullies and has always viewed the law as a way of evening out the playing field between the strong and the weak.

I was impressed with that statement because I view the law in much the same way. The problem I had is that when I examined Judge Roberts' record and history of public service, it is my personal estimation that he has far more often used his formidable skills on behalf of the strong in opposition to the weak. In his work in the White House and the Solicitor General's Office, he seemed to have consistently sided with those who were dismissive of efforts to eradicate the remnants of racial discrimination in our political process. In these same positions, he seemed dismissive of the concerns that it is harder to make it in this world and in this economy when you are a woman rather than a man.

I want to take Judge Roberts at his word that he doesn't like bullies and he sees the law and the court as a means of evening the playing field between the strong and the weak. But given the gravity of the position to which he will undoubtedly ascend and the gravity of the decisions in which he will undoubtedly participate during his tenure on the court, I ultimately have to give more weight to his deeds and the overarching political philosophy that he appears to have shared with those in power than to the assuring words that he provided me in our meeting.

The bottom line is this: I will be voting against John Roberts' nomination. . . .

Chief Justice Roberts Calls Scene at State of Union Speech 'Very Troubling'

U.S. Chief Justice John Roberts said Tuesday the scene at President Barack Obama's first State of the Union address was 'very troubling' and that the annual speech to Congress has 'degenerated into a political pep rally.'

Wednesday, March 10, 2010
By Jay Reeves, Associated Press

Tuscaloosa, Ala. (AP) - U.S. Chief Justice John Roberts said Tuesday the scene at President Barack Obama's first State of the Union address was "very troubling" and that the annual speech to Congress has "degenerated into a political pep rally."

Responding to a University of Alabama law student's question about the Senate's method of confirming justices, Roberts said senators improperly try to make political points by asking questions they know nominees can't answer because of judicial ethics rules.

"I think the process is broken down," he said.

Obama chided the court for its campaign finance decision during the January address, with six of the court's nine justices seated before him in their black robes.

Roberts said he wonders whether justices should attend the address.

"To the extent the State of the Union has degenerated into a political pep rally, I'm not sure why we're there," said Roberts, a Republican nominee who joined the court in 2005.

Roberts said anyone is free to criticize the court and that some have an obligation to do so because of their positions.

"So I have no problems with that," he said. "On the other hand, there is the issue of the setting, the circumstances and the decorum. The image of having the members of one branch of government standing up, literally surrounding the Supreme Court, cheering and hollering while the court -- according the requirements of protocol -- has to sit there expressionless, I think is very troubling."

Breaking from tradition, Obama used the speech to criticize the court's decision that allows corporations and unions to freely spend money to run political ads for or against specific candidates.

"With all due deference to the separation of powers, the Supreme Court reversed a century of law to open the floodgates for special interests -- including foreign corporations -- to spend without limit in our elections," Obama said.

Justice Samuel Alito was the only justice to respond at the time, shaking his head and appearing to mouth the words "not true" as Obama continued.

In response to Roberts' remarks Tuesday, White House press secretary Robert Gibbs focused on the court's decision and not the chief justice's point about the time and place for criticism of the court.

"What is troubling is that this decision opened the floodgates for corporations and special interests to pour money into elections -- drowning out the voices of average Americans," Gibbs said. "The president has long been committed to reducing the undue influence of special interests and their lobbyists over government. That is why he spoke out to condemn the decision and is working with Congress on a legislative response."

Justice Antonin Scalia once said he no longer goes to the annual speech because the justices "sit there like bumps on a log" in an otherwise highly partisan atmosphere.

Roberts opened his appearance in Alabama with a 30-minute lecture on the history of the Supreme Court and became animated as he answered students' questions. He joked about a recent rumor that he was stepping down from the court and said he didn't know he wanted to be a lawyer until he was in law school.

While Associate Justice Clarence Thomas told students at Alabama last fall he saw little value in oral arguments before the court, Roberts disagreed.

"Maybe it's because I participated in it a lot as a lawyer," Roberts said. "I'd hate to think it didn't matter."

It's Obama vs. the Supreme Court, Round 2, over campaign finance ruling

By Robert Barnes and Anne E. Kornblut
Washington Post Staff Writer
Thursday, March 11, 2010; A01

President Obama and the Supreme Court have waded again into unfamiliar and strikingly personal territory.

When Chief Justice John G. Roberts Jr. told law students in Alabama on Tuesday that the timing of Obama's criticism of the court during the State of the Union address was "very troubling," the White House pounced. It shot back with a new denouncement of the court's ruling that allowed a more active campaign role for corporations and unions.

On Wednesday, Senate Democrats followed up with pointed criticism of Roberts, and at a hearing on the decision, a leading Democrat said the American public had "rightfully recoiled" from the ruling.

The heated rhetoric has cast the normally cloistered workings of the court into a very public spotlight. Democrats hope to make the decision in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission part of their strategy to portray the conservative justices as more protective of corporate interests than of average Americans.

A Democratic strategist who works with the White House said the fight is a good one for Obama, helping lay the groundwork for the next Supreme Court opening. "Most Americans have no idea what the Supreme Court does or how it impacts their lives," the strategist said. "This decision makes it crystal clear."

Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Patrick J. Leahy (D-Vt.) opened the hearing on the ruling Wednesday by declaring that "the Citizens United decision turns the idea of government of, by and for the people on its head." The committee's ranking Republican, Jeff Sessions (Ala.), countered that Obama and Democrats are mischaracterizing the ruling for political gain.

"There has been too much alarmist rhetoric that has been flying around since this decision," Sessions said, advising his colleagues not to "misrepresent the nature of the decision or impugn the integrity of the justices."

The court ruled 5 to 4 in January that corporations and unions have a First Amendment right to use their general treasuries and profits to spend freely on political ads for and against specific candidates. The court overturned its own precedents and federal law in the decision, which was hailed by conservatives and a few liberals as a victory for free political speech, and was denounced by Obama, who said in his State of the Union address that it would lead to elections being "bankrolled by America's most powerful interests."

Obama's blunt criticism, while six black-robed justices sat at the front of the House chamber, set off a round of public debate about whether he was both wrong and rude, or whether Justice Samuel A. Alito Jr. violated judicial custom by silently mouthing "not true" while the president was speaking.

Presidential historians said that while other presidents have criticized Supreme Court decisions or called upon Congress to remedy them, Obama's was the most pointed and direct criticism in a State of the Union address since President Franklin D. Roosevelt took on the court for blocking his programs.

An issue of 'decorum'

Round 2 began Tuesday, when Roberts spoke at the University of Alabama law school. He did not mention Citizens United in his speech and declined to answer a question about criticism of the ruling.

But when asked whether the State of the Union address was the "proper venue" in which to "chide" the Supreme Court, Roberts did not hesitate.

"First of all, anybody can criticize the Supreme Court without any qualm," he said, adding that "some people, I think, have an obligation to criticize what we do, given their office, if they think we've done something wrong."

He continued: "On the other hand, there is the issue of the setting, the circumstances and the decorum. The image of having the members of one branch of government standing up, literally surrounding the Supreme Court, cheering and hollering while the court -- according to the requirements of protocol -- has to sit there expressionless, I think is very troubling."

The White House struck back quickly -- not at Roberts's point, but at the decision. "What is troubling is that this decision opened the floodgates for corporations and special interests to pour money into elections -- drowning out the voices of average Americans," White House press secretary Robert Gibbs said in a statement. "The president has long been committed to reducing the undue influence of special interests and their lobbyists over government. That is why he spoke out to condemn the decision."

'People disagree'

White House officials said the debate helps underscore differences between the president and the conservative court and puts into relief what will be at stake when there is another opening on the bench. There is speculation that Justice John Paul Stevens, who turns 90 next month, will retire at the end of this term.

At a time when the administration is struggling to prove that it can work across political lines on a health-care overhaul and other matters, Obama officials insisted they were not seeking a partisan fight with the court. Yet they acknowledged that a debate over campaign finance fed into Obama's central campaign promise of transparency and reform. "This is really about the president's change agenda," a White House official said.

"This is the functioning of democracy at its highest," the official said. "People disagree, they discuss, they debate."

Administration officials did not question whether Roberts's comments were appropriate, noting that he had replied to a question.

But the fracas is the kind the justices usually like to avoid. Justice Clarence Thomas told a Florida law school audience last month that the controversy reinforced his decision to skip the State of the Union address. "One of the consequences is now the court becomes part of the conversation, if you want to call it that," he said. ". . . It's just an example of why I don't go."

Roberts, who has attended the event since joining the court in 2005, indicated at the Alabama event that he may now agree with Thomas.

"To the extent the State of the Union has degenerated into a political pep rally, I'm not sure why we're there," he said.

Justice openly disagrees with Obama in speech

Alito visibly responds negatively when president mentions recent decision

NBC News and news services updated 1/28/2010 1:19:53 PM ET

WASHINGTON — Supreme Court Justice Samuel Alito didn't like hearing President Barack Obama publicly criticize the high court's ruling removing corporate campaign spending limits — and he didn't try to hide it.

Alito made a dismissive face, shook his head repeatedly and appeared to mouth the words "not true" or possibly "simply not true" when Obama assailed the decision Wednesday night in his State of the Union address.

The president had taken the unusual step of publicly scolding the high court, with some of its members in robes seated before him in the House. "With all due deference to the separation of powers," he said, the court last week "reversed a century of law that I believe will open the floodgates for special interests — including foreign corporations — to spend without limit in our elections."

It is unclear which part of Obama's statement about the ruling caused Alito's disagreement. There is disagreement among experts about whether the decision, as Obama claimed, would open unlimited campaign spending in U. S. elections to foreign businesses.

A reliable conservative appointed to the court by Republican President George W. Bush, Alito was in the majority in the 5-4 ruling.

Justices usually do not show any reaction at all to a president's statements during a State of the Union address. Alito has not made any public comment on his reaction Wednesday night.

White House reacts

White House deputy press secretary Bill Burton on Thursday defended the president's statement.

"One of the great things about our democracy is that powerful members of the government at high levels can disagree in public and private," Burton told reporters traveling with Obama to Tampa, Fla. "This is one of those cases. But the president is not less committed to seeing this reform."

msnbc.com

Vice President Joe Biden also sided with Obama, calling the ruling "dead wrong" and saying "we have to correct it."

"The president didn't question the integrity of the court. He questioned the judgment of it," the vice president told ABC's "Good Morning America."

Senate Democratic leaders sitting immediately behind Alito and other members of the high court rose and clapped loudly in their direction, with Sen. Chuck Schumer, D-N.Y., leaning slightly forward with the most enthusiastic applause.

On Thursday, Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Patrick Leahy, D-Vt., echoed the president's criticism of the decision made by the court and slammed Alito for displaying his disagreement.

"There were days when judges stayed out of politics," he told NBC News. "It would be nice to go back to those days."

Republican John Cornyn, also a member of the Judiciary Committee, argued that Alito must have had an "irresistible impulse" to react to the president's open criticism of the decision.

"I don't think the president should have done what he did in trying to call out the Supreme Court for doing its job," Cornyn said. "They are the final word on the meaning of the United States Constitution, even when we don't like the outcome."

The court did upend a 100-year trend that had imposed greater limitations on corporate political activity. Specifically, the court, in a 5-4 decision, said corporations and unions could spend freely from their treasuries to run political ads for or against specific candidates.

In his dissent, Justice John Paul Stevens said the court's majority "would appear to afford the same protection to multinational corporations controlled by foreigners as to individual Americans."

Obama said corporations can "spend without limit in our elections." However, corporations and unions are still prohibited from contributing directly to politicians.

NBC's Pete Williams, Kelly O'Donnell, and Ken Strickland contributed to this report.

TO: UNITED NATION LEADERS/FOREIGN LEADERS
CHRISTIANS/SAINTS

This is an UPDATE to Newsome's previous E-mails that you may have received from Newsome. Newsome is sharing information with you and others in that it of PUBLIC/NATIONAL importance for the human rights, equal rights, and wellbeing of the lives of many people/citizens. Newsome prays that you find this information "educational," "helpful" "encouraging" and "uplifting."

PLEASE NOTE: Newsome apologize for the constant change in the Email addresses; however, she has come under attack and her e-mails are being DISABLED to prevent her from sharing important information as that contained in this e-mail and the attachments. Nevertheless, Newsome perseveres through such oppositions and attempts to further obstruct justice. This is information that the United States MEDIA/PRESS will not share with you although they are aware of what is going on. Nevertheless, apparently foreign leaders/foreign nations are taking such matters seriously!!

No the United States Government thought that taking out Leaders such as Martin Luther King Jr., Malcolm X, Medgar Evers, and many more would silence African-Americans and keep them in CAPTIVITY. However, it is finding out that STRONGER *SHOOTS are springing forth and what these Leaders were murdered for (to keep from public knowledge) is* COMING TO THE LIGHT*!!! The TRUTH for what these Leaders were murdered/killed for to keep from being told- is COMING TO LIGHT!!*

United States President Barack Obama, his Administration and those they rely upon for counsel/advice have ALL made a WILLFUL, CONSCIOUS, DELIBERATE and MALICIOUS decision to take on Newsome and destroy her life WITHOUT just cause. In so doing, they have wedge a battle against Newsome and have REFUSED to address and correct the CORRUPTION, CONSPIRACIES, RACIAL INJUSTICES/PREJUDICES/ DISCRIMINATION brought timely, properly and adequately to their attention. Proverbs 16:18:

[18]Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

It was not like United States President Barack Obama was not FORWARNED. He simply had too much PRIDE and ARROGANCE that he felt invincible. Now as his people are distancing themselves, they are also willing to "THROW HIM UNDER THE BUS" if need be. Therefore, the DOWNFALL/DOOM of the Obama Administration is inevitable and President Barack Obama, his Administration and those they rely upon CANNOT say that Newsome FAILED to NOTIFY of the CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs addressed in this e-mail as well as prior e-mails and Complaints submitted. President Obama's counselors/advisors have tried to avoid having to address the issues contained in this e-mail as well as prior and correspondence submitted to his and his Administration's attention – as such advisors have done on legal matters involving Newsome, they have fallen flat on their faces in DISGRACE rising only to engage in CRIMINAL ACTS to obtain an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage over matters involving her.

You and as well as the PUBLIC/WORLD and Foreign Leaders/Foreign Nations need to know who is responsible for INCREASING the National Debt and whose counsel/advice United States President Barack Obama and his Administration is adhering to. If President Barack Obama and his Administration are willing to STEAL and EMBEZZLE monies owed Newsome as well as CONSPIRE to cover-up criminal/civil wrongs to prevent

Newsome from collecting monies owed her from legal actions, then those countries to whom the United States is in debt may need to PULL/CALL in NOTES/DEBTS owed to them. Otherwise, to keep from paying its debt the United States may attempt to wedge wars to keep from having to pay and attempts to unlawfully/illegal getting its hands on those countries resources (i.e. oil, banks, etc.). - - - If President Obama and his Administration's counsel/advisors CANNOT pay its debts owed to Newsome, then the FOREIGN LEADERS/FOREIGN NATIONS will need to know that the United States may likely will engage in criminal acts (i.e. wars, war crimes, etc.) to keep from paying what it owes them as it has done in the handling of legal matters involving Newsome.

It is important for the PUBLIC/WORLD to see that if the United States Government (i.e. doing the bidding of BAKER DONELSON and others to destroy Newsome's life) cannot win the battles/wars leveled against Newsome (i.e. even after resorting to CRIMINAL acts to obtain an undue advantage), then why would its citizens and Foreign Leaders/Foreign Nations believe that the United States can win the wars in Afghanistan and Iran/Iraq. It is time to bring our troops home – IMMEDIATELY!!

The Saints/Christians, family, friends and loved ones that know Newsome will also let you know that she is not a racist and/or terrorist. That in her family and/or amongst her relatives there is a diversity of races. However, it is a known fact, that Newsome is very happy/proud to be an African-American and has NEVER wanted to be any other race. In fact, a dark-skinned African-American and proud and not ashamed!!! Furthermore, Newsome has no problems talking about RACIAL INJUSTICES, RACISM, PREJUDICES, DISCRIMINATION and other injustices that plague her and her people and/or people of color.

To help you better understand who Newsome is, she is an African-American female with a college degree from Florida A&M University – a TOP and ELITE African-American University in the United States (Tallahassee, Florida) and/or one of the Historical Black Colleges & Universities ("HBCU"). To answer many concerns as to Newsome's CHARACTER and WORK ETHICS she attaches a File Folder entitled, "NEWSOME'S CREDENTIALS" which in it you will find her "Resume" revealing her job experiences as well as "Letters of References/Documentation" which reveals her PROFESSIONALISM and ABILITIES in the performance of her jobs held, and "COMPUTER SKILLS-DeniseNewsome" – results taken from tests which support Newsome's LITERACY and ABILITY to use Software Applications to aid in the performance of the job duties assigned her. As it relates to the Cincinnati, Ohio matter, Newsome also provides you with a copy of the BRIEF Only of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") Complaint and Family & Medical Leave Act Complaint filed against Wood & Lamping so that you and others can see for yourself the ties/relationships Wood & Lamping has to SPECIAL INTEREST Groups (LIBERTY MUTUAL and BAKER, DONELSON, BEARMAN, CALDWELL & BERKOWITZ ["Baker Donelson"]) associated with President Barack Obama and his Administration. You need to know that:

(a) Newsome has been BLACKLISTED and the United States Government, Liberty Mutual and its attorneys/law firms and former employers of Newsome are CONSPIRING together to see that she does not receive employment elsewhere. UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL practices clearly PROHIBITED by the laws of the United States.

(b) Newsome is being stalked from State-to-State/Job-to-Job and her employers contacted and advised of her engagement in protected activities – i.e. the United States Government Agencies (Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"), Wage & Hour Division ("W&H"), Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") and others such as Liberty Mutual and its attorneys/law firms that rely upon information obtained from their clients, etc. to track Newsome – for purposes of getting her employment terminated and/or for getting Newsome fired. UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL practices clearly PROHIBITED by the laws of the United States.

(c) Newsome has filed the REQUIRED Complaints with the appropriate agencies reporting Civil/Criminal violations. However, in so doing, this information is circulated throughout the Government and RETALIATION occurs in furtherance of CONSPIRACY leveled against Newsome because she has challenged and EXPOSED the United States Government in the role it is playing in the DESTRUCTION of the lives of African-Americans and/or people of color. United States President Obama, United States Attorney General Eric Holder, United States Secretary of Labor Hilda Solis and many other Government Officials in the Obama Administration and United States Legislature/Congress (i.e. Senate and House of Representatives) have been timely, properly and adequately advised of the CONSPIRACY and CRIMINAL ACTS leveled against Newsome; however, each are fulfilling their role in the COVER-UP of such criminal/civil wrongs and efforts of destroying the life of Newsome.

To also better understand the Wood & Lamping matter and United States President Barack Obama and his Administration's ROLE in the CONSPIRACY of this matter, you need to know the following:

1) That Newsome on or about December 2008, flew to Washington, D.C. to check on a Complaint filed with the United States Legislature/Congress – i.e. submitted to the attention of: Senator Patrick Leahy, Congressman John Conyers, Senator John McCain (2008 Presidential Candidate), then Senator Barack Obama (2008 Presidential Candidate) and Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz. Prior to her visit Newsome advised of her coming to Washington, D.C. to check on the status of Complaint filed. During her visit to Washington, D.C. Newsome requested a meeting with Senator Leahy and Congressman Conyers; however, both RAN and HID as well as had their Staff provide LIES to Newsome to avoid meeting with her. Then Senator Joseph Biden (now Vice President of the United States) was also advised of Newsome's visit and reasons for coming to Washington, D.C. Newsome met with a man (who provided her with a FALSE name) in office of the Committee on the Judiciary of Congressman Conyers. To memorialize the actions of Senator Leahy, Congressman Conyers, Vice President Joseph Biden, Newsome attaches correspondence surrounding this matter entitled, "12-2008 DOCUMENTS-DC TRIP." Newsome's research later yielding the CONSPIRACY to COVER-UP the CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs addressed in the July 14, 2008 Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Finding (which is attached to this e-mail entitled, "071408-EMERGENCY COMPLAINT & MailingReceipts" along with EVIDENCE supporting receipt/mailing to President Barack Obama and others to whom this Complaint was mailed) being a direct result of the SENATORS and CONGRESSMEN/CONGRESSWOMAN attempting to AID & ABET in the CRIMINAL/CIVIL wrongs reported. Moreover, keep the PUBLIC/WORLD and FOREIGN LEADERS/FOREIGN NATIONS in the dark as to the CONSPIRACY that has been leveled against Newsome as well as the African- Americans and/or people of color in the United States. From the list provided below, you and others will see the connection that United States President Barack Obama and his Administration have to LIBERTY MUTUAL and its counsel (BAKER DONELSON) and their ties to the United States Senate as well as the United States House of Representatives. This information is important because it will explain what happened to the July 14, 2008 Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Finding that was timely, properly and adequately filed as well as the role BAKER DONELSON and others may have played in the OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE and the OBAMA ADMINISTRATION'S COVER-UP and DESTRUCTION OF EVIDENCE for purposes of protecting his KEY/TOP Financial Contributors/Advisors. Newsome's December 2008 trip to Capitol Hill was to determine where her Complaint was (i.e. the Original and four copies being submitted) as well as the attacks on her life as well as those of other African-Americans and/or people of color. Moreover, the conspiracy leveled against the African-American race and their males. Sharing concerns of false imprisonments and practices of OPPRESSION against Newsome and those of African-Americans and/or people of color. In RETALIATION of Newsome's December 2008 Washington, D.C. trip her employment with Wood & Lamping was terminated. LIBERTY MUTUAL/BAKER DONELSON as well as Government Officials using their POWER and INFLUENCE to affect Newsome's employment in furtherance of CONSPIRACY leveled against her and for purposes of destroying her life for being so out spoken and EXPOSING RACISM in the United States Government.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: This Complaint was submitted for filing in July 2008; however, to date, the United States Senate/United States House of Representatives are REFUSING to advise Newsome of the status of this Complaint. Newsome has REPEATEDLY requested that United States President Barack Obama (i.e. Obama receiving a copy via U.S. Mail – Tracking No. 2305 1590 0001 6380 5130) and United States Attorney General Eric Holder also provide her with a status as to where her July 14, 2008 Emergency Complaint and Request for Legislature/Congress Intervention; Also Request for Investigations, Hearings and Finding. Both President Obama and U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder were provided with copies AGAIN of filing with Newsome's May 21, 2009 Complaint at Exhibit "2." Then as early as November 2008, Newsome contacted President Obama VIA FACSIMILE regarding the July 2008 Emergency Complaint and requested the status of his handling of this matter – See attached to this email entitled, "11-2008 OBAMA CORRESPONDENCE." So please understand that President Obama is FULLY AWARE AS TO WHAT IS GOING ON!! Furthermore, see for yourself from the information provided on BAKER DONELSON below. This law firm and others appear to be running the United States White House, United States Senate, United States House of Representatives – the running the UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AGENCIES!!

Come the November 2010 Elections, let us work to get these CAREER POLITICIANS and CAREER CRIMINALS out of the government by voting for their opponents and/or be ANTI-INCUMBENT. Yes, it is time for the people to take back the government and CLEAN out the CORRUPTION that United States President Barack Obama and his Administration is hiding from you, the PUBLIC/WORLD and FOREIGN LEADERS/FOREIGN NATIONS. From the information provided in this e-mail, you and others can see that he LIED to the American people as well as Foreign Leaders/Foreign Nations that he was about bringing CHANGE to Washington; however, it is CLEAR that United States President Barack Obama is now PART of the PROBLEM of the BROKEN GOVERNMENT that United States citizens as well as foreign nations are faced with.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: Approximately one month from her trip to Washington, D.C., members of the Senate and House of Representatives worked with TOP/KEY Financial Contributors/Advisors – LIBERTY MUTUAL and BAKER DONELSON – to President Barack Obama and his Administration as well as United States Senators and United States House of Representatives to see that Newsome's employment with Wood & Lamping was TERMINATED. LIBERTY MUTUAL along with its arsenal of attorneys and others, obtained knowledge that Newsome was having problems with one of Liberty Mutual Insured's (Stor-All Alfred LLC in Cincinnati, Ohio); therefore, resorted to CRIMINAL ACTIONS to obtain an unlawful/illegal advantage over the situation. Shortly after Newsome's termination of employment, Liberty Mutual's insured (Stor-All) had its attorney (David Meranus) file a lawsuit against Newsome. To be successful in its endeavor LIBERTY MUTUAL and its counsel embarked on FURTHERING the CONSPIRACY it and its attorneys had leveled against Newsome for exercising rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution. Engaging CONSPIRACY and REPEATED RETALIATORY practices in efforts of silencing Newsome.

LIBERTY MUTUAL and arsenal of attorneys in efforts of covering up the crimes of their clients and protecting their clients (i.e. Stor-All Alfred LLC and others – clients being sued in Louisiana and Mississippi) interest CONSPIRED with Newsome's employer (Wood & Lamping), United States Senators and United States House of Representatives to terminate her employment to eliminate the CONFLICT OF INTEREST that existed in the attorney's (David Meranus) representation of Stor-All. A CONFLICT OF INTEREST existed because the attorney that Newsome assisted at Wood & Lamping ("W&L) prior to coming to W&L worked for the same law firm (Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin) of the attorney who filed lawsuit on behalf of Stor-All. Actions have also been taken to keep you and the PUBLIC/WORLD and FOREIGN LEADERS/FOREIGN NATIONS of learning of the 2009 Federal Complaints filed:

(a) Family & Medical Leave Act Complaint filed with the Wage & Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor. This Complaint is attached to this e-mail entitled, "011609-FMLA COMPLAINT (W&L)" – U.S. President Barack, Obama, U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder, and U.S. Secretary of Labor Hilda Solis each received a copy of this Complaint with Newsome's May 21, 2009 mailing at "Exhibit 58" – May 21, 2009 USPS Mailing Receipts following complaint attached to support mailing/receipt.

(b) Equal Employment Opportunity Complaint filed with the United States Department of Labor. This Complaint is attached to this e-mail entitled, "070909-EEOC COMPLAINT (W&L)" along with the "070709-USPS MAILING RECEIPTS" which follows to support mailing and receipt.

United States President Barack Obama advised that he would not allow DISCRIMINATION under his Administration and during his WATCH. However, you can see that such statements like many made by President Obama are LIES. . . LIES. . .LIES and more LIES!!! It is a good thing Newsome documented transactions because it is the practice of the Obama Administration and/or the United States Government to make it appear that she is crazy when in fact Newsome is not. Moreover, efforts by the Obama Administration and/or United States Government to drive Newsome over the edge!!!

2) To understand just how much POWER and influence LIBERTY MUTUAL and it law firms such as BAKER DONELSON has and their reliance on BIG MONEY and TIES/RELATIONSHIPS to President Obama and/or Government Organizations/Officials, Newsome was able to pull the following information off of the Internet regarding the positions lawyers at Baker Donelson holds and/or held – this information is attached as "BAKER DONELSON Info:"

- Chief of Staff to the President of the United States
- United States Secretary of State

This information is of PUBLIC record and WAS posted on the INTERNET. However, only AFTER Newsome made known Baker Donelson's role in the RUNNING of United States Government and/or White House, has it attempted to scrub this information from their Website – i.e. compare the information provided above now to the information Baker Donelson is revealing at its website located at:

http://www.martindale.com/Baker-Donelson-Bearman-Caldwell/1608579-law-firm-office.htm

Thank goodness Newsome retained a hard copy of posting on the INTERNET as recent as March 2010. Actions taken by President Barack Obama, his Administration and Baker Donelson for DAMAGE CONTROL purposes; however, TOO LATE!!

Perhaps now FOREIGN LEADERS/FOREIGN NATIONS will also see the SPECIAL INTEREST Baker Donelson and its BIG MONEY clients have in the Wars started in Iran/Iraq and Afghanistan and perhaps the role it may have played in the advice and starting of such wars. Furthermore, Baker Donelson's REPEATED roles in RACIST PRACTICES/RACIAL INJUSTICES leveled against Newsome and/or African-Americans/People of Color. The interest Baker Donelson and others having in the VAST mineral resources (i.e. oil, etc. – TIES TO HALLIBURTON, former Vice President Dick Cheney – See document attached entitled "BAKER DONELSON – DC Ties at Page 13) of Iran/Iraq and the ABUSE of their power/relationships/connections with foreign countries to rely upon their ABILITY TO INFLUENCE and MANIPULATE Foreign Countries/Foreign Leaders to engage in wars (i.e. like Iran/Iraq) based on LIES alleging "Weapons of Mass Destruction" when its eyes were really on the OIL and other vast resources of such countries. Therefore, Baker Donelson and others relied upon their TIES/RELATIONSHIPS/ABILITY to INFLUENCE the United States President and others (United States Senate/House of Representatives*) as well as its INTEREST in the mineral resources of countries like Iran/Iraq to MISLEAD and* engage the United States' Allies to join them in NEEDLESS and SENSELESS wars based on PERSONAL GREED and PERSONAL MALICIOUS AMBITIONS**.

Now just as the United States and its allies are losing wars (i.e. in Iran/Iraq and Afghanistan) because they went in WITHOUT a PLAN - so are such law firms (i.e. as Baker & Donelson) that the United States President Barack Obama and others rely on for counsel, advice and filling of cabinet positions and their handling of matters with Newsome - they are LOSING their battles/wars against Newsome; therefore, resorting to CRIMINAL actions to obtain victories through unlawful/illegal and CORRUPT actions!

It is of PUBLIC/NATIONAL interest that you and others KNOW and SEE the criminal acts of those associated with United States President Barack Obama and how President Obama, his Administration and counselors/advisors resort to CROMINAL behavior when they see their DEMISE is inevitable. Newsome can assure you, that this IS NOT the CHANGE that United States citizens voted for when they cast their votes for Barack Obama as the next President of the United States in November 2008.

IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE for you and others to see how President Barack Obama and his Administration who may rely upon the advice and counsel of Baker Donelson HANDLE matters when they are LOSING wars/battles – i.e. RESORTING to CRIMINAL ACTS, DECEPTIVE PRACTICES, SPECIAL FAVORS/RELATIONSHIPS to BRIBE, BLACKMAIL and EXTORTION, EMBEZZLEMENT, etc. to achieve their desired outcome – the DESTRUCTION of Newsome's life and those of African-Americans and/or people of color.

IT IS IMPORTANT that you, others, and especially FOREIGN LEADERS/FOREIGN COUNTRIES are not DECEIVED by President Barack Obama:

> Matthew 24:24 - - For there shall arise false . . . prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

and his Administration's recent filing of the Lawsuit against the State of Arizona. You see NOT everybody is SLEEPING ON THE JOB and are KEEPING WATCH!! Baker Donelson and/or LIBERTY MUTUAL's counsel having a role in this and also relying upon their ties/relationships TO: (a) United States Attorney General and (b) United States Citizenship & Immigration Services within the United States Department of Homeland Security – these organizations are on the list above and provided in the attached document containing Baker Donelson Info – the filing of the Lawsuit against the State of Arizona is merely President Barack Obama and his Administration taking the advice of counsel in efforts of doing DAMAGE CONTROL because the MIDTERM elections in November 2010 IS FAST APPROACHING—I hope you and others are not DECEIVED!! The Hispanic/Latino communities are CLEARLY aware of the TACTICS and the wool President Obama and his Administration are attempting to pull over their eyes. BAKER DONELSON may be counseling/advising in this matter as well because they have their people in or had them in United States Citizenship & Immigration Services within the United States Department of Homeland Security. See Information provided above. Also, see the information contained in document attached entitled, "BAKER DONELSON – DC Ties."

IMPORTANT BECAUSE President Barack Obama and his Administration is RELYING upon COUNSEL and ADVICE from people that if they CANNOT win the small battles against INDIVIDUAL/SMALL citizens like Newsome (and have lost ALL; therefore, resulting to criminal practices), then how can citizens of the United States be expected to win wars AGAINST countries (i.e. Iran/Iraq and Afghanistan). Wars began through LIES and DECEPTION and for purposes of PERSONAL/FINANCIAL GAIN!!!

3) You as well as the PUBLIC/WORLD and FOREIGN LEADERS/FOREIGN NATIONS need to know that United States President Barack Obama and his Administration may be relying upon the counsel and advice of BAKER DONELSON. Furthermore, may be relying on BAKER DONELSON advice to fill vacancies in his Administration as well as the Courts (i.e United States Supreme Court) – BAKER DONELSON securing/lining its bases so that when complaints and/or lawsuits are filed they have the people in office that they have purchased on behalf of LIBERTY MUTUAL and their other clients.

4) This is very EMBARASSING!! Why? Because if President Barack Obama and his Administration's reliance upon counsel/advice that it may be receiving from Baker Donelson and other attorneys/law firms associated with LIBERTY MUTUAL in their handling of Newsome, you and the PUBLIC/WORLD need to know that they are LOSING against a "One-Man/Woman" army in Lawsuits brought against her and/or initiated through their UNLAWFUL/ILLEGAL actions, so how do they expect/intend to WIN battles/wars against COUNTRIES which are much larger/bigger than Newsome. Well that explains why the United States and their Allies are losing the wars in Afghanistan and/or Iran/Iraq. As with Newsome, the United States prior to doing battle with her as well as other countries DID NOT count up the cost and, therefore, has OPENED itself up for MOCKERY/RIDICULE – Luke 14:28-32:

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, 30Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31*Or* what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

(a) Well this is exactly what former President George W. Bush did in the starting of wars with Afghanistan and Iran/Iraq – taking the United States and other countries into wars WITHOUT a plan. Now look how DISASTEROUS and COSTLY these wars have been. The TERRORISTIC acts of the United States in these wars have cost the INNOCENT lives of many men/women/children. For WHAT PURPOSES? The FILTHY GREED/FILTHY LUCRE and GAIN sought in unlawfully/illegally taking away the livelihood of the citizens of those countries and for purposes of STEALING THEIR MONIES, OIL (i.e. TIES TO HALLIBURTON, former Vice President Dick Cheney – See document attached entitled "BAKER DONELSON – DC Ties at Page 13) and/or other resources. Now as a FOOLISH Leader, President Barack Obama seeks conditions of PEACE when the HAVOC wreaked WAS the own doing of the United States being led by a FOOLISH Leader. The Allies of the United States in these wars are doing correctly in getting their soldiers out because they were DECEIVED and LIED to by the BUSH Administration and his Administration's counselors/advisors that there were "weapons of mass destruction" when in fact THERE WAS NOT – the United States were after these countries OIL, other MINERAL RESOURCES and MONIES as well as did not care about the MURDERING OF INNOCENT LIVES to accomplish their goals!!

5) What CITIZENS/PUBLIC as well as FOREIGN NATIONS/LEADERS need to know is that:

(a) United States President Barack Obama and his Administration (through the Department of Treasury) under the advisement of counsel/advisor (i.e. from list above most likely BAKER DONELSON) have STOLEN Newsome's 2009 Federal Income Tax Refund of over $1,700.

(b) That Newsome is currently entitled to approximately $90,000 - i.e. which include monies STOLEN and EMBEZZLED by government officials, former employers and others that was entrusted to the Court and placed in an ESCROW ACCOUNT (approximately $16,000 – incident explained in the October 2008 FBI Criminal Complaint filed and attached hereto) for safekeeping as well as monies owed in BACK WAGES (approximately $74,000 – incident explained in the EEOC Complaint filed and attached hereto) from Wood & Lamping. However, President Barack Obama and those in his Administration are CONSPIRING to keep this information from PUBLIC/CITIZENS as well as FOREIGN LEADERS/ NATIONS.

(c) One guess for the THEFT of Newsome's 2009 Federal Income Tax Refund (which is over approximately $1,700) as well as the BLOCKAGE by the United States Senate of extending Unemployment Benefits - efforts for FINANCIALLY DEVASTATE Newsome and efforts taken to get their hands on her property for purposes of DESTROYING EVIDENCE and keep you and others from knowing of the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of the Obama Administration. President Barack Obama and his Administration as well as the United States Senate are willing to "STRAIN AT A GNAT" take a whole nation down and/or make a whole nation suffer because of the information Newsome is sharing with you, the PUBLIC/WORLD and FOREIGN LEADERS/FOREIGN NATIONS.

Matthew 23:24-28:

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.
25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.
26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.
27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.
28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

6) The United States is already in HEAVY DEBT to foreign countries. Even with the HUGE DEBTS owed to foreign countries, United States President Barack Obama and his Administration continue to RUN UP and/or INCREASE the national debt of the United States. From the information provided above, you as well as others can see who is involved in the handling of FINANCIAL matters of the United States – i.e. Baker Donelson may have its hands in the pie.

Therefore, IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE that if President Barack Obama and his Administration are willing to STEAL and EMBEZZLE monies owed to Newsome as well as refuse to pay the MILLIONS OF DOLLARS OWED Newsome and are willing to resort to criminal acts to keep from paying liability owed her, then the PUBLIC/WORLD as well as FOREIGN NATIONS/FOREIGN LEADERS need to know that the United States most likely will engage in criminal acts (i.e. engage in SENSELESS wars against small countries to STEAL their resources and acquire control over their government so that they will have control of foreign countries government/banks and mineral resources) to mask/shield the motive for their TERRORISTIC actions taken against smaller countries/nations.

7) In her prior e-mail, Newsome shared information regarding the an upcoming Court date of July 21, 2010 at 2:00 at the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas in Cincinnati Ohio; however, Newsome WILL NOT be attending this hearing because under Ohio Law she is not required to do so and the Judge (John Andrew West) lacks jurisdiction to proceed. Newsome has filed the required documents to sustain her defenses and such pleadings are attached to the file entitled, "071010 MAILING." Because Newsome filed the May 28, 2010 Affidavit of Disqualification, Judge West lacked jurisdiction to execute any of the Orders of June 7, 2010 (Order Lifting Stay Entered April 28, 2009 and Order Denying Defendant's Motion for Default Judgment). See information at the LINKS attached to the Courts Website to track this matter at:

http://www.courtclerk.org/case_summary.asp?sec=history&casenumber=A0901302

As recent as July 10, 2010, Newsome submitted for filing the following pleadings:

(a) Defendant's Notice of Nonattendence; and Defendant's Notice of Motion to Motion to Strike Plaintiff Stor-All Alfred LLC's 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss and/or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Newsome's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached; Request for Rule 11 Sanctions;

(b) Defendant's Motion for Leave to File Out of Time Motion for Findings of Fact Regarding June 7, 2010 Order Lifting Stay Entered April 28, 2009 and Order Denying Defendant's Motion for Default Judgment;

(c) Defendant's Request/Motion for Findings of Fact and Conclusion of Law; Motion to Vacate July 7, 2010 Order Lifting Stay Entered April 28, 2009 and Order Denying Defendant's Motion for Default Judgment – NOTE: This pleading is attached to Motion for Leave as EXHIBIT "A".

(d) Affidavit of Disqualification filed with the Ohio Supreme Court brought against Judge John Andrews West of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas.

and serving copies of these filing to United States President Barack Obama (United States Postal Tracking No. 0309 1830 0000 0661 8023) and United States Attorney General Eric Holder (United States Postal Tracking No. 0309 1140 0001 9264 2721) – Tracking numbers provided for those who wish to track their receipt of this information.

Just as LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or its attorneys/law firms own the majority of the Ohio Supreme Court – See for yourself in the document attached entitled, "OH SupremeCourtJustices Info." From information retrieved, Newsome was able to find that LIBERTY MUTUAL and/or its attorneys/law firms own at least SIX of the SEVEN Justices of the Ohio Supreme Court. Not only that, from information Newsome was able to pull off of the Internet, BAKER DONELSON and/or their clients own Judges/Justices in matters she is engaged in Louisiana, Mississippi - "BAKER DONELSON-RelationshipToJudges." - and now it appears have Justices of the United States Supreme Court based on information provided from the list above and/or provided in the document attached entitled, "BAKER DONELSON Info."

8) What the PUBLIC/WORLD also needs to know is that President Barack Obama may have been HAND PICKED!! Why? Because:

(a) The United States realized that its reputation with foreign countries/leaders was damaged and foreign countries' LACK of TRUST in the United States Government.

(b) President Barack Obama was selected to DECEIVE foreign countries/leaders to believe that the selection of an alleged African-American meant that the United States has changed its ways – when in fact the United States has NOT. The United States is still as TERRORISTIC, RACIALLY PREJUDICE, DISCRIMINATORY, etc. as ever before – if NOT worst since Barack Obama has become the United States President!! Unemployment amongst African-Americans SKYROCKETING!!!

> Furthermore, the attacks on Newsome escalating under United States President Barack Obama's LEADERSHIP, DIRECTION and INSTRUCTIONS!!

(c) IMPORTANT for you and the PUBLIC/WORLD to know that while the United States is supposed to be a country of DEMOCRACY (where the citizens select the President of the United States), it is far from that. It IS NOT the people who elect the next President of the United States; however, it was the CREATION of the "Electoral Colleges" to circumvent and/or deprive the citizens of the United States of their Constitutional Rights and their voices from being heard. Yes, the "ELECTORAL COLLEGES" method was designed because the creators FORESEEING the increase in the African-American communities and/or people of color (i.e. Hispanic/Latinos, Asians, etc.) communities and wanted to make sure that NO African-American and/or person of color ever made it to the White House. However, upon seeing the DAMAGE of the United States' relationships with Foreign Countries/Foreign Leaders did a search and prepared Barack Obama for the job. Those who were in the selection process of President Barack Obama first TESTED THE WATERS at the 2004 Democratic Convention to see how he would be received. Upon getting good reviews, proceeded to work on getting him elected as the next President of the United States and succeeded in doing so. However, President Barack Obama, his Administration and those who worked on getting him elected NEVER thought they would have to address the United States' TERRORISTIC actions leveled against Newsome, other citizens and other foreign countries, let alone the RACIAL INJUSTICES/PREJUDICES/ DISCRIMINATION leveled against Newsome, other African-Americans, people of color and foreign countries/foreign leaders. No those who organized and worked with President Barack Obama thought that they could get him in the White House and AVOID and/or SIDE STEP having to address the TERRORISTIC, RACIAL/PREJUDICIAL/ DISCRIMINATORY practices of the United States Government/ Officials; moreover, would not have to address the ISSUES and MATTERS raised by Newsome.

You see the practice of President Barack Obama, his Administration and those who advise him and his Administration is to make it appear that Newsome is CRAZY, PARANOID, a LUNATIC, DILERIOUS, MENTALLY UNBALANCED, and attempts to drive her to a MENTAL BREAKDOWN and/or to COMMIT CRIMINAL ACTS (i.e. murder, etc.) from the pressures placed on her through their unlawful/illegal practices. However, to President Barack Obama, his Administration and his counselors/advisors' disappointment, Newsome has not allowed them to take her to such points and instead has brought the proper LEGAL matters (i.e. Complaints and/or lawsuits to recover from damages sustained from criminal acts leveled against her).

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: It is of PUBLIC HUMILIATION and DISGRACE for the Public/World as well as Foreign Leaders/Foreign Nations having to learn that United States President Barack Obama and his Administration as well as the United States Senate/United States House of Representatives/United States Government are being RUNNED and CONTROLLED by businesses such as LIBERTY MUTUAL and BAKER DONELSON (because of the BIG MONEY they pay out to POLITICIANS in support of their campaigns) who promote TERRORISTIC ACTIONS*, have a* WELL-ESTABLISHED PATTERN-OF-BEHAVIOR supporting RACISM, RACIAL INJUSTICES and DISCRIMINATION leveled against Newsome, African-Americans and/or people of color. BAKER DONELSON who mask/hide their HATRED for the MIDDLE EAST and PEOPLE OF COLOR!!! Not only that, under whose counsel and advisement that the wars in Iran/Iraq and Afghanistan may have begun and the HIDDEN MOTIVES – i.e. greed, taking possession of lands, oil fields (i.e. TIES TO HALLIBURTON, former Vice President Dick Cheney – See document attached entitled "BAKER DONELSON – DC Ties at Page 13), mineral resources, banks, etc. Such CRIMINAL behavior/actions which are clearly UNACCEPTABLE!!! The United States President, his Administration, the United States Senate/United States House of Representatives may be taking counsel and/or advice from BAKER DONELSON – a law firm and its clients (i.e. like LIBERTY MUTUAL) who has a WELL-ESTABLISHED record of losing ALL BATTLES/LAWSUITS involving Newsome that in efforts of obtaining an undue/unlawful/illegal advantage, resorted to CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR/ACTIONS to accomplish goals sought and deprive Newsome rights secured/guaranteed under the United States Constitution!!

9) Newsome must admit that she found the fact that such people as United States President Barack Obama, those in his Administration and Advisors would seek to take her on and destroy her life; however, as a CHILD of GOD such attacks from people such as Obama, those in HIGH PLACES/POSITIONS, and BIG MONEY was prophesied of before Newsome's birth as to what is to be expected – she IS NOT going to be popular; however, there is no way that she is going to keep SILENT and let the suffering of her people and others continue without being exposed – Ephesians 6:6-20:

[6] Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

[7] With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

[8] Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

[9] And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

[10] Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

[11] Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

[12] For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

[13] Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

[14] Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

[15] And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

[16] Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

[17] And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

[18] Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

[19] And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

[20] For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

10) You as well as the PUBLIC/CITIZENS as well as Foreign Leaders/Foreign Countries need to know that President Barack Obama, his Administration as well as others in whom they seek counsel/advice from have tried to find "SKELETONS in Newsome's CLOSET – i.e. methods used for means of BLACKMAIL, BRIBERY,

EXTORTION, etc. (as that used in getting the Health Care Reform Bill passed);" however, has failed because there are none and those who know Newsome, know she TESTIFIES of God's goodness and all that He has delivered her from:

Revelation 12: 11-12:

> [11]And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.
> [12]Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

I Timothy 1:13-15:

> [13]Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.
> [14]And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
> [15]This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

11) For those who assert their faith in Christianity, it is no secret that those who persecuted and was behind the PERSECUTION and CRUCIFIXATION of Jesus and His followers were lead by the "GOVERNMENT" and other communities that mocked Him – for He came unto his own and was not received; therefore, opening the doors for outsiders (i.e. like Newsome) to become a part of the legacy left: John 1:10-12:

> [10]He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.
> [11]He came unto his own, and his own received him not.
> [12]But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Nothing has changed – the descendents of these persecutors exist today; their seed/descendents are the people behind Newsome's persecution as well as other African-Americans and/or people of color.

> ACTS 26: [13]At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.
> [14]And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.
> [15]And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.
> [16]But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;
> [17]Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,
> [18]To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.
> [19]Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:
> [20]But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

[21] For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

It is no secret as to who their "daddy" is and it is the work of their "daddy" and the WICKEDNESS/EVILNESS in their hearts/DNA that they STALK Newsome and seek to destroy her life as well as the starting of NUMEROUS wars against innocent and defenseless countries for the shedding of blood of men/women/children: John 8:44-47:

[44] Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.
[45] And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.
[46] Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?
[47] He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

12) Thank goodness for the Men and Women of God that He has placed in Newsome's life as well as FRIENDS, FAMILY, LOVED ONES and the SAINTS because attacks by President Barack Obama, his Administration and those in whom he seeks counsel/advice from have sought to DESTROY Newsome physically and mentally – i.e. recent attacks being the THEFT and EMBEZZLEMENT of her 2009 Federal Tax Refund of over approximately $1,700 dollars (monies due Newsome in that the IRS had already taken out the back taxes owed by her; however, the Department of Treasury which is MASTERED and ARMED by the Baker Donelson crew and others relied upon CRIMINAL acts and have stolen/embezzled monies owed Newsome). See from the list above Baker Donelson's position with the Department of Treasury and/or ties to the White House and other Government Organizations. Such criminal actions and behavior being done with United States President Barack Obama's permission and/or approval – i.e. Obama has been timely, properly and adequately apprised/inform of these criminal practices occurring under his watch!!!!

Then of course you and others are aware of the United States Senators BLOCKING of Unemployment Benefits as recent as June 25, 2010 – One guess as to what they are embarking on and the additional injuries they are attempting to inflict on Newsome. Willing to make a WHOLE NATION suffer (i.e. willing to strain at a gnat in hopes of causing Newsome financial ruin) – See Baker Donelson's ties to the United States Department of Treasury listed above as well as document attached entitled, "BAKER DONELSON INFO" which contains information they have had SCRUBBED from the Internet to keep you and others in the dark. Also, see Baker Donelson's ties to the United States Senate/United States House of Representatives. From the list provided above, Yes, the counsel and advice that Baker Donelson may be providing is a MAJOR part in the DEMISE and the inevitable FALL of the United States and it appears may have KEY/MAJOR ties to the DECISIONS that come out of Washington, D.C.

How could one law firm and its clients have been allowed to become so powerful and bring down a country through its TERRORISTIC and RACIAL/PREJUDICIAL/ DISCRIMINATORY practices and HATRED for people of color and the Middle East?

As God did with the Prophet Elijah in providing him with RAVENS to provide him with food by morning and night – I Kings 17:4-7-24:

[4]And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook
Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son.

14 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.

24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

CHRISTIANS/SAINTS, FAMILY, FRIENDS and LOVED ONES who know Newsome and her attacks on her life have seen to it that the DEVIL and his CHILDREN are DEFEATED.

Psalm 27:1-2 - - 1 The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Special people and Children of God who have been placed in Newsome's life to see that her bills are paid and that she is fed (for many are called but only a few can carry the mantle handed off to Newsome because it comes with a great price/sacrifice – i.e. being envied, hated without a cause, unjustly persecuted, etc.)
Matthew 10:38-42:

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.
42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

Mark 9:40-42:

40 For he that is not against us is on our part.
41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.
42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

Matthew 25:41-46

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.
41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:
42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:
43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.
44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?
45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.
46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

13) You and others may recall the DECEPTIVE practices used by United States President Barack Obama, his Administration and those they seek counsel/advice from and may have engaged in, in getting the HEALTH CARE REFORM BILL passed. However, did you know that the counsel/advisors (i.e. for example like BAKER DONELSON) that President Barack Obama and his Administration rely upon for counsel/advice, have a WELL-ESTABLISHED PATTERN-OF-BEHAVIOR to resort to criminal actions (i.e. EXTORTION, BLACKMAIL, BRIBERY, etc.) to achieve their goals – as used against Newsome and legal counsel that she has retained in the past to get her to withdraw her lawsuits; however, they failed in ALL attempts and while Newsome was abandoned, she proceeded pro se in the preservation of her rights. Did you know that those in whom President Barack Obama and his Administration rely upon for counsel/advice RELY upon such tactics to win the BATTLES/WARS leveled against Newsome to obtain their goals – i.e. using methods/tactics prohibited/forbidden BY LAW to obtain the object of their CONSPIRACY?

Since Newsome is talking about the HEALTH CARE REFORM BILL, did you know that the FIRST Person that President Barack Obama wanted for the position as United States Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services was THOMAS DASCHLE – see:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tom_Daschle

(Newsome is attaching a printout of HARD COPY) which is attached and entitled "DASCHLE-Tom Info" and states in part:

> Daschle was an early supporter of Barack Obama's presidential candidacy, and was offered the position of Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services after the 2008 election. He was President Barack Obama's nominee to serve as the Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS) in Obama's Cabinet, but withdrew his name on February 3, 2009, amid a growing controversy over his failure to accurately report and pay income taxes. . . .
>
> Daschle took a position with the lobbying arm of the K Street law firm Alston & Bird. Because he was prohibited by law from lobbying for one year after leaving the Senate, he instead worked as a "special policy adviser" for the firm.. . .
>
> The firm was paid $5.8 million between January and September 2008 to represent companies and associations before Congress and the executive branch, with 60 percent of that money coming from the health industry. . . .
>
> Daschle's salary from Alston & Bird for the year 2008 was reportedly $2 million. . .
>
> On February 21, 2007, the Associated Press reported that Daschle, after ruling out a presidential bid of his own in December 2006, had thrown his support behind Sen. Barack Obama of Illinois for the 2008 presidential election, saying that Obama "personifies the future of Democratic leadership in our country."
>
> Daschle exited the Senate just as Obama entered in 2004 and suggested that Obama take on some of his staffers. These included Daschle's outgoing chief-of-staff Pete Rouse who helped to create a two year plan in the Senate that would fast-track Obama for the presidential nomination. Daschle himself told Obama in 2006 that "windows of opportunity for running for the presidency close quickly. And that he shouldn't assume, if he passes up this window, that there will be another."
>
> During the 2008 presidential campaign, Daschle served as a key advisor to Obama and one of the national co-chairs for Obama's campaign. . .
>
> Two days later, sources indicated Daschle "is interested in universal health care and might relish serving as HHS secretary."In the general election campaign, Daschle continued to consult Obama, campaign for him across swing states, and advise his campaign organization until Obama was ultimately elected the 44th President of the United States on November 4, 2008.

Did you know that Thomas Daschle's wife, Linda Hall Daschle, is one of Baker

Donelson's TOP/KEY LOBBYISTS? Yes. See for yourself information pulled from the Internet (attached entitled, "DASCHLE-Linda Info") which states in part:

> Also Wednesday, three sources close to the transition said Obama has chosen former Sen. Tom Daschle to be Secretary > of Health and Human Services, and the former Senate majority leader has indicated he wants the job.
>
> The sources said that Daschle negotiated that he will also serve as the White House health "czar," or point person, so > that he will report directly to the incoming president.
>
> By wearing two hats, Daschle -- not White House staffers -- will be writing the health care plan that Obama submits to Congress next year.
>
> The sources said the timing of the announcement has not been worked out, but Daschle is likely to join the Obama > transition team as the lead adviser on health issues in the next few weeks.
>
> An Obama transition official would not comment.
>
> Daschle is currently billed as a "special public policy adviser" in the Washington office of the law firm Alston & Bird.
>
> He is not a federally registered lobbyist, but his wife, Linda Daschle, is a registered lobbyist at the firm Baker Donelson*, which* has clients in health-related fields.
>
> Critics question whether Obama's top staff picks so far represent the "change" that he promised during the campaign.
>
> More than half of the people named to Obama's transition or staff posts have ties to President Clinton's administration.

IMPORANT AGAIN so you can see just how POWERFUL and where the BIG MONEY is at that is running the White House and who the PLAYERS may be that are APPOINTING people for the VACANT positions in the Obama Administration. Remember, President Barack Obama was HAND PICKED for this job and the CARRYING OUT and MASKING/SHIELDING of TERRORISTIC ACTS, RACIAL INJUSTICES/PREJUDICES/DISCRIMINATION going on in the United States. His election was to DECEIVE Foreign Leaders/Foreign Countries to believe that "ALL IS WELL" in the United States and the United States Government has changed its ways – WHEN IN FACT, the United States has NOT.

It is important for you as well as the PUBLIC/WORLD and Foreign Nation/Foreign Leaders to know that President Barack Obama may have allowed himself to be HAND PICKED and USED for the passing of the Health Care Reform Bill because those who picked him knew that what PRIOR white United States Presidents could not get passed, they would use the first alleged African-American President to get the Bill passed. Then when challenged, would play the "RACE CARD" argument to throw citizens and foreign leaders/nations off course as to what their REAL MOTIVES are. As you and others may know, that in getting the Health Care Reform Bill passed, President Barack Obama resorted to "BEHIND-THE-DOOR DEALS and ARM TWISTING" tactics to get the votes and Bill passed. Such tactics are those COMMONLY used by United States President Barack Obama's TOP/KEY Financial Supporters/Advisors (LIBERTY MUTUAL and its law firms, BAKER DONELSON and others) to get Judges/Justices to violate the laws in lawsuits brought against Newsome and/or initiated against Liberty Mutual's clients for legal wrongs committed against Newsome. Such TACTICS President Obama advised he would not resort to during the 2008 Presidential Campaign – as you can see from the evidence "LIES and DECEPTIVE PRACTICES."

14) BAKER DONELSON secures its CONTROL and DOMINENCE in the running of the White House, United States Senate/United States House of Representatives, and United States Government/Agencies by being very CERTAIN to have PLANTED/EMPLOYED THROUGHOUT GOVERNMENT AGENCIES in place for whoever is placed in the White House (i.e. it could be Democrats or Republicans). Baker Donelson STRATEGICALLY have placed their people in either Democratic or Republican Administrations so that they can continue to RUN/CONTROL through their counseling and advisory responsibility sought their OWN SPECIAL INTERESTS as well as those of their CLIENTS (i.e as LIBERTY MUTUAL). To better understand how BAKER DONELSON uses its resources and place their people in the White House as well as in very high positions in the United States Government, Newsome attaches information pulled from the Internet entitled, "BAKER DONELSON – DC Ties." Documentation which will further support just how much POWER this law firm and others have in the RUN OF THE WHITE HOUSE, GOVERNMENT, etc. Baker Donelson securing its hold on both political parties (DEMOCRATS and REPUBLICANS) so regardless of which party wins the White House, BAKER DONELSON is still in control. Some of this information (IF NOT SCRUBBED – this is why Newsome retained HARD COPIES of articles just in case attempts would be made to pull information from PUBLIC VIEW) can be found at the following websites for example:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Howard_Baker

HOWARD BAKER:
Baker is currently Senior Counsel to the law firm of Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz.
He is also an Advisory Board member for the Partnership for a Secure America, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to recreating the bipartisan center in American national security and foreign policy. Baker also holds a seat on the board of the International Foundation for Electoral Systems', a non-Profit which provides international election support.
Capping a distinguished public-service career as senator, presidential advisor and ambassador, Howard H. Baker, Jr. returned in February 2005 to Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, PC, the law firm his grandfather founded and where he formerly practiced with his father, the late U.S. Rep. Howard H. Baker. As Senior Counsel to the Firm, Senator Baker focuses his practice on public policy and international matters.
Senator Baker's return followed his service as 26th U.S. Ambassador to Japan, a position to which President George W. Bush appointed him in 2001. The appointment was yet another milestone in a public-service career that began in 1966, when Senator Baker became the first Republican popularly elected to the U.S. Senate from Tennessee. . . .
Three years later, he was keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention and was a 1980 candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. He concluded his Senate career in 1985 after two terms as Majority Leader (1981 to 1985) and two terms as Minority Leader (1977 to 1981). He was President Reagan's Chief of Staff from February 1987 to July 1988.
Professional Experience: U.S. Ambassador to Japan, 2001 to 2005; Chief of Staff, President Ronald Reagan, 1987 to 1988; U.S. Senate (R-TN), 1967 to 1985; U.S. Senate Majority Leader, 1981 to 1985; U.S. Senate Minority Leader, 1977 to 1981; U.S. Navy, 1943 to 1946

15) Keep in mind that leading up to the November 2010 Mid-Term Elections, President Barack Obama, those in his Administration, United States Senators, United States House of Representatives and others may be SLAMMING YOU WITH E-MAILS and BANGING DOWN YOUR CHURCH/HOUSE doors courting your votes – so it is IMPORTANT that you, your friends and love ones have this information and DO NOT allow yourself to be further DECEIVED (if you have been). Will you continue to strengthen the hands of EVILDOERS? – Jeremiah 23:14

This is why President Barack Obama and those who counsel and advise him do not make changes and are getting FAT OFF OF YOUR MONETARY DONATIONS and the wickedness and evil deeds of the United States continues to increase. If so, you need to know how your money is being spent. While Newsome voted for President Barack Obama, she NEVER paid any money into his Campaign nor would she finance or support his criminal activities and cover-up by providing him with monies which enables him to do what he is doing to the children of God.

> IMPORTANT TO NOTE: While President Obama advised that he would not tolerate DISCRIMINATION under his Watch and/or Administration, he has done to the contrary and now AUTHORIZES, DIRECTS, and LEADS in the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs brought to his attention by Newsome. He is FULLY AWARE of the RACIAL INJUSTICE/PREJUDICES/ DISCRIMINATION leveled against Newsome, African-Americans and/or people of color.

You may recall President Barack Obama disowned his pastor, Jeremiah Wright, during the 2008 Presidential Campaign. Like many politicians, they merely make church affiliations as their POLITICAL strategy to win an election; however, it is important to know whether they are walking the walk of the God they claim to serve. As President Barack Obama in DISOWNING his faith and religion when placed under fire – being ASHAMED to step up and speak out boldly as to his Christian/Spiritual beliefs – how many IN-THE-CLOSET CHRISTIANS/SAINTS are doing the same thing and not taking a stand. United States President Barack Obama has REPEATEDLY displayed POOR JUDGMENT as a Leader and now he and his family are DRIFTERS with no roots. Psalms 1:1,4-6:

> [1]Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.. .
> [4]The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
>
> [5]Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
>
> [6]For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

16) You and others need to understand that United States President Barack Obama and United States Attorney

General Eric Holder are WILLFUL pawns in the DECEPTIVE practices going on in the Administration as well as WILLFUL participants in the CONSPIRACY and COVER-UP of criminal/civil wrongs that have been leveled against Newsome as well as other African-Americans and/or people of color committed by the FBI/Government Agencies/Officials and others who seek to destroy the lives of these ethnic groups.

17) The United States Government has REPEATEDLY preyed on the POOR and DEFENSELESS citizens as well as smaller Foreign Countries/Foreign Leaders way too long and remain UNPUNISHED; however, it is REAPING TIME NOW and time for the United States Government to reap from the HAVOC and NEEDLESS DESTRUCTION that it has sown: Galatians 6:7-9:

> [7]Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
> [8]For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.
> [9]And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

18) As you may know United States President Barack Obama is schooled in the law and holds his Degree from Harvard Law School. As you may know that United States Attorney General Eric Holder is schooled in the law and holds his Degree from Columbia Law School. Therefore, there IS NO excuse for President Obama and his Administration's NEGLIGENCE and FAILURE to enforce the laws and INDICT those who have committed the crimes alleged in the FBI Criminal Complaints brought by Newsome.

19) Newsome realizes that unlike many of the citizens here in the United States who will find it difficult to believe that President Barack Obama would be engaging in CONSPIRACIES and COVER-UP of Racial Injustices/Prejudices/Discrimination leveled against Newsome, African-Americans and/or people of color, Foreign Leaders/Foreign Countries ARE NOT going to be as naïve and know that the evidence/documentation and CASE LAWS/LEGAL CONCLUSIONS provided in this e-mail as well as past e-mails solidifies the arguments and criminal acts of those attacking Newsome and relying upon their TIES/RELATIONSHIPS to cover-up their criminal activities targeting her and those of her race and/or people of color.

Foreign Leaders/Foreign Countries have their own legal counsel/lawyers that can check and see the VALIDITY of the information provided in my e-mails and are not willing to STICK THEIR HEAD IN THE SAND!

Why do you think the relationships with the United States and Foreign Leaders/Nations are changing and President Barack Obama and his Administration in efforts of doing DAMAGE CONTROL is relying upon the MEDIA/PRESS to withhold this information from you and others as well as SCRUBBING INFORMATION FROM WEBSITES?

20) Newsome understand that those who do not have the Spirit of God will hate her as well as despise her for being BLESSED and favored to carry the mantle that has been given her. Nevertheless, this has not discouraged Newsome to continue to fight for her people and equality for all regardless of their race. As a Child of God and Woman of God, there is no way that Newsome can see the EVILNESS and WICKEDNESS leveled against her and others and not SOUND THE TRUMPET and SPEAK OUT BOLDLY against such RACIAL INJUSTICES/PREJUDICES/ DISCRIMINATION. Like David, it is obvious an ARMY is not needed TO BRING DOWN GOLIATH because those on the sidelines WATCHING are full of FEAR. God will provide you with the proper ROCK/STONE to take down the GIANT*!!! Yes it has cost Newsome plenty; however, not her SOUL!!!* Matthew 10:22, 23:

> 22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.
> 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

Even following such instructions, President Obama and his Administration's counsel/advisors continue to STALK Newsome from STATE-TO-STATE/CITY-TO-CITY and JOB-TO-JOB/EMPLOYER-TO-EMPLOYER and have CONSPIRED to see that she is BLACKLISTED and unable to obtain employment anywhere.

Just as Jesus was hated for EXPOSING the truth, Newsome most likely will be hated because she is exposing the TRUTH about her enemies – it just happens that the first alleged African-American United States President has made a WILLFUL, CONCIOUS and DELIBRATE choice to CONSPIRE and act upon the counsel and advisement of his attorneys/advisors which appears to be BAKER DONELSON and others tied to LIBERTY MUTUAL and their BIG MONEY. Because Newsome is exposing the CORRUPTION in the United States Government and in President Barack Obama and his Administration, they now seek to destroy her life:

John 8:40:

> [40] But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.
> [41] Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

IT IS OBVIOUS WHO THEIR DADDY IS – John 8:44-47:

> [44] Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.
> [45] And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.
> [46] Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?
> [47] He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

for this is in their DNA; therefore, they seek to KILL and MURDER (taking the lives of many souls) through the starting of SENSELESS wars/battles (i.e. as that in Iran/Iraq and Afghanistan) for ILL and MALICIOUS intent (i.e. possession of oil and/or natural resources - TIES TO HALLIBURTON, former Vice President Dick Cheney – See document attached entitled "BAKER DONELSON – DC Ties at Page 13).

21) ALERT. . . ALERT. . . ALERT: Foreign Leaders/Nations need to be aware that the United States is gearing up for the 2012 Presidential Elections and presently "TESTING THE FIELD" to place a candidate like Sarah Palin in the White House. You need to be on guard and watch the News and do your research.

*Palin has been labeled a "ROGUE" Politician and is a person that will not hesitate if being elected, fueling up "AIR FORCE ONE" and leading the United States into wars herself against those countries she believes are terrorist countries; moreover, is one that would attempt to send African-Americans and/or people of color back into slavery/bondage. From what Newsome sees, her mentality appears to be one that would even HIGHJACK Air Force One and attempt to fly the plane (loaded with her supporters) into war herself. Palin is also a person who appears to promote herself as a CONSERVATIVE; however, actions are neither BIBLICALLY or SPIRITUALLY sound – i.e. as former George W. Bush and look what happened under his Presidential Administration. Merely, a walking TIME BOMB with the United States White House in her sights!!

Thank you for our time, consideration, patience and/or support in such CHALLENGING times as these. Newsome will keep you informed and/or updated when it is convenient and she has the time to do so. However, should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact her.

With Warmest Regards,

RE: COMPLAINT RE: XXX-XX-XX37 (VOGEL D. NEWSOME)
REBUTTAL TO AUGUST 1, 2009, FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE REQUEST FOR RESPONSE BY FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 2009[1]

Dear Mr. Miller and U.S. Attorney General Holder:

Please accept this as my Complaint and Rebuttal to the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue's August 1, 2009, FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE. Mr. Holder was provided with a copy of said FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE on or about August 8, 2009, via U.S. Express Mail Tracking No. EH488249595US – received in his office on or about August 10, 2009 pursuant confirmation obtained. See attached hereto.

PLEASE BE ADVISED: Pursuant to the Kentucky Taxpayers' Bill of Rights ("KTBOR") it states at Kentucky Revised Statutes ("KRS") 131.041 it states:

> The provisions of KRS 131.041 to 131.081 shall be known and may be cited as the "Kentucky Taxpayers' Bill of Rights."

See attached hereto.

PLEASE BE ADVISED: Pursuant to KRS 131.061 KRS 131.041 to 131.081 to apply to all taxes administered by Department of Revenue, it states:

> In addition to all other rights or privileges afforded Kentucky taxpayers, and notwithstanding any provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes to the contrary, the provisions of KRS 131.041 to 131.081 shall apply with regard to all taxes administered by the Department of Revenue.

See attached hereto.

EXHIBIT 26

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: That the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue ("COKDOR") has deprived Newsome rights secured/guaranteed under the Kentucky Taxpayers' Bill of Rights and failed to follow the policies and procedures mandated by statutes/laws governing the above referenced matter. In further support Newsome states pursuant to KRS 131.081 Rules applicable to the administration of all taxes under jurisdiction of Department of Revenue which states in part:

> The following rules, principles, or requirements shall apply in the administration of all taxes subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Revenue.
>
> (1) The department shall develop and implement a Kentucky tax education and information program directed at new taxpayers, . . .
>
> (2) The department shall publish brief statements in simple and nontechnical language which explain procedures, remedies, and the rights and obligations of taxpayers and the department. These statements shall be provided to taxpayers with the initial notice . . . each original notice of tax due; . . . and, if practical and appropriate, in informational publications by the department distributed to the public.. .
>
> (6) If any taxpayer's failure to submit a timely return or payment to the department is due to the taxpayer's reasonable reliance on written advice from the department, the taxpayer shall be relieved of any penalty or interest with respect thereto, provided the taxpayer requested the advice in writing from the department and the specific facts and circumstances of the activity or transaction were fully described in the taxpayer's request, the department did not subsequently rescind or modify the advice in writing, and there were no subsequent changes in applicable laws or regulations or a final decision of a court which rendered the department's earlier written advice no longer valid. . .
>
> (8) The department shall include with each notice of tax due a clear and concise description of the basis and amount of any tax, penalty, and interest assessed against the taxpayer, and copies of the agent's audit workpapers and the agent's written narrative setting forth the grounds upon which the assessment is made. Taxpayers shall be similarly notified regarding the denial or reduction of any refund or credit claim filed by a taxpayer.
> (9) Taxpayers shall have the right to an installment payment agreement for the payment of delinquent taxes, penalties, and interest owed, provided the taxpayer requests the agreement in writing clearly demonstrating his inability to pay in full and that the agreement will facilitate collection by the department of the amounts owed. The department may modify or terminate an installment payment agreement if it determines the taxpayer has not complied with the terms of the agreement; the taxpayers'

> financial condition has sufficiently changed; the taxpayer fails to provide any requested financial condition update information; the taxpayer gave false or misleading information in securing the agreement; or the taxpayer fails to timely report and pay any other tax due the Commonwealth. The department shall give written notice to the taxpayer at least thirty (30) days prior to modifying or terminating an installment payment agreement unless the department has reason to believe that collection of the amounts owed will be jeopardized in whole or in part by delay. . . .
> (12) The department shall bear the cost or, if paid by the taxpayer, reimburse the taxpayer for recording or bank charges as the direct result of any erroneous lien or levy by the department, provided the erroneous lien or levy was caused by department error and, prior to issuance of the erroneous lien or levy, the taxpayer timely responded to all contacts by the department and provided information or documentation sufficient to establish his or her position. When the department releases any erroneous lien or levy, notice of the fact shall be mailed to the taxpayer and, if requested by the taxpayer, a copy of the release, together with an explanation, shall be mailed to the major credit reporting companies located in the county where it was filed. . . .
>
> (14) Taxpayers shall have the right to bring an action for damages against the Commonwealth to the Board of Claims for actual and direct monetary damages sustained by the taxpayer as a result of willful, reckless, and intentional disregard by department employees of the rights of taxpayers as set out in KRS 131.041 to 131.081 or in the tax laws administered by the department. In the awarding of damages pursuant to this subsection, the board shall take into consideration the negligence or omissions, if any, on the part of the taxpayer which contributed to the damages. If any proceeding brought by a taxpayer is ruled frivolous by the board, the department shall be reimbursed by the taxpayer for its costs in defending the action.
>
> (15) Taxpayers shall have the right to privacy with regard to the information provided on their Kentucky tax returns and reports, including any attached information or documents. Except as provided in KRS 131.190, no information pertaining to the returns, reports, or the affairs of a person's business shall be divulged by the department to any person or be intentionally and without authorization inspected by any present or former commissioner or employee of the Department of Revenue, member of a county board of assessment appeals, property valuation administrator or employee, or any other person.

See attached hereto.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: (a) That Newsome, as a new resident to the Commonwealth of Kentucky and new taxpayer of said Commonwealth, was not advised of and/or provided any tax education or information program regarding the Commonwealth's income tax practices as required by the KTBOR which may have enhanced Newsome's understanding of and compliance with Kentucky tax laws. (b) That the Kentucky Department of Revenue failed to provide Newsome with brief statements in simple and nontechnical language which explains procedures, remedies, and the rights and obligations of taxpayer – failing to provide Newsome with an original Notice of Tax Due as well as the required Notification of Tax Assessment required under the KRS; therefore, depriving Newsome rights secured/guaranteed under the KTBOR. (c) Newsome's failure to provide any payments and/or setting up of payment arrangements are a direct and proximate result of the COKDOR's actions and its failure to comply with the KRS when Newsome (in good faith) requested both verbally and in writing to establish payment arrangements due to her financial/economical circumstances. The COKDOR was timely, properly and adequately notified both verbally and in writing of Newsome's UNEMPLOYMENT status and inability to pay the alleged taxes asserted to be owed. Moreover, Newsome's notifying verbally and in writing of contesting/disputing said debt alleged owed as early as November 21, 2008 (see letter correspondence attached hereto). (d) The record of the COKDOR will support that Newsome's requests were followed up in writing (for example) advising in May 12, 2009 correspondence,

> I contacted Ms. Freeman upon receipt of the attached NOTICE OF LIEN prepared on 03/10/2009 advising of my objection. To date, I have not received the information from Ms. Freeman to support and/or sustain the debt the Department of Revenue asserts is owed. Ms. Freeman advised that she is going over my record to determine whether or not there is an error. I advised Ms. Freeman that the Kentucky Department of Revenue and its officials are governed by the statutes/laws governing said matters are required to comply with same. Moreover, said officials are not above the law. . . . I am requesting a CERTIFIED COPY of debt the Commonwealth of Kentucky is alleged is owed. . . Through this request, I am demanding that the Kentucky Department of Revenue also provide me with a CERTIFIED COPY of the worksheet it relied upon to reach such computations rather than simply providing me with the total lump sum amount alleged is owed. It is important to me to see how the Department of Revenue derived such alleged debt owed – authenticity of such alleged debt. I believe this request and/or demand is reasonable due to my concerns of a pattern of abuse of authority/power by officials of ate State of Kentucky.

To date (approximately three [3] months later), Newsome has not received any copies of Ms. Freeman's work papers, written narrative setting forth how she derived at such figures and the COKDOR's failure to provide her with the required Notice of Tax Due and Notification of Tax Assessment. Thus, depriving Newsome rights secured/guaranteed under the KTBOR. Ms. Freeman was advised of said request, however, feels that she is above the law and is no required to provide Newsome with the information demanded. Therefore, Ms. Freeman ignored Newsome's request and refused to provide her CERTIFIED COPIES and the WORKSHEET (containing how she derived at her computations).

Title 42, U.S.C., Section 14141
Pattern and Practice

> This civil statute was a provision within the Crime Control Act of 1994 and makes it unlawful for any governmental authority, or agent thereof, or any person acting on behalf of a governmental authority, to engage in a pattern or practice of conduct by law enforcement officers or by officials or employees of any governmental agency with responsibility for the administration . . . justice. . . that deprives persons of rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States.
> Whenever the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that a violation has occurred, the Attorney General, for or in the name of the United States, may in a civil action obtain appropriate equitable and declaratory relief to eliminate the pattern or practice.

(e) Pursuant to KRS 131.081 (9) Newsome has the right to enter into an installment payment agreement. The record of the COKDOR will support that Newsome has requested both verbally and in writing that she timely, properly and adequately requested to be allowed to pay any alleged debt (once proper amount owed was determined) via installment payments; however, such demands by Newsome have also been rejected by the COKDOR and the COKDOR has failed to contact Newsome (although requested in writing) and discuss and establish installment payment arrangement/agreement. Therefore, depriving Newsome rights secured/guaranteed under the KTBOR.

Title 18, U.S.C., Section 242
Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law

> This statute makes it a crime for any person acting under color of law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom to willfully deprive or cause to be deprived from any person those rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution and laws of the U.S.
> This law further prohibits a person acting under color of law, statute, ordinance, regulation or custom to willfully subject or > cause to be subjected any person to different punishments, pains, or penalties, than those prescribed for punishment of citizens on account of such person being an alien or by reason of his/her color or race.

>
> Acts under "color of any law" include acts not only done by federal, state, or local officials within the bounds or limits of their lawful authority, but also acts done without and beyond the bounds of their lawful authority; provided that, in order for unlawful acts of any official to be done under "color of any law," the unlawful acts must be done while such official is purporting or pretending to act in the performance of his/her official duties. This definition includes, in addition to law enforcement officials, . . .persons who are bound by laws, statutes ordinances, or customs.. . .

(f) Pursuant to KRS 131.081(12), the COKDOR is to be held liable for any costs, expenses, charges, etc. that has been assessed of and against Newsome in that it has failed to comply with the statutes/laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky in regards to such matters. Moreover, the COKDOR has acted in bad faith and/or ill/malicious intent to cause Newsome injury/harm in its filing of erroneous Notice of Lien. Said filing of the Notice of Lien was prematurely filed by the COKDOR without following policies and procedures MANDATED by statutes/laws under which it is governed. The COKDOR filing of Notice of Lien and allowing the reporting of erroneous debt to credit bureaus was done with ill/malicious intent. The record evidence of the COKDOR will support that Newsome, timely, properly and adequately responded to all contacts by the COKDOR and notified and/or provided information or documentation sufficient to establish her position. Nevertheless, the COKDOR through its willful, malicious and wanton acts released erroneous information and/or erroneously filed Notice of Lien on or about March 24, 2009, with the County (JEFFERSON not Kenton County) Clerk with knowledge that it had not complied with the statutes/laws governing said matters and allowed such erroneous information to be reported to credit bureaus with knowledge that information was false and that the COKDOR was engaging in unlawful/illegal acts. AS A DIRECT AND PROXIMATE RESULT, Newsome has sustained injury/harm. (g) Pursuant to KRS 131.081(14), Newsome has the right to bring action of and against the Commonwealth to the Board of Claims for actual and direct monetary damages sustained by her as a direct and proximate result of the COKDOR's willful, reckless, and intentional disregard by the Commissioner (Thomas B. Miller) and its employees of the rights of Newsome secured under the KTBOR and as set forth in KRS 131.041 to 131.081 or in the tax laws governing said matters. Newsome believes the record evidence will support that any and all unlawful/illegal acts leveled against her was a direct and proximate result of the COKDOR's negligence or omissions – of which the record will reflect Newsome timely, properly and notified it of. (h) Pursuant to KRS 131.081(15), Newsome believes that in the handling of this matter, the COKDOR failed to secure the privacy of taxpayers and provided

Newsome with personal tax information regarding another Taxpayer – i.e. JOHNSON DENNIS & T K. Information to which Newsome *was not entitled to receive.

Pursuant to KRS 131.110 Protest of assessment by Department of Revenue -- Review – Appeal, it states in part:

> (1) The Department of Revenue shall mail to the taxpayer a notice of any tax assessed by it. The assessment shall be due and payable if not protested in writing to the department within forty-five (45) days from the date of notice. Claims for refund of paid assessments may be made under KRS 134.580 and denials appealed under KRS 131.340. The protest shall be accompanied by a supporting statement setting forth the grounds upon which the protest is made. Upon written request, the department may extend the time for filing the supporting statement if it appears the delay is necessary and unavoidable. The refusal of the extension may be reviewed in the same manner as a protested assessment.
>
> (2) After a timely protest has been filed, the taxpayer may request a conference with the department. The request shall be granted in writing stating the date and time set for the conference. The taxpayer may appear in person or by representative. Further conferences may be held by mutual agreement. . .

See attached hereto.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: (a) That the COKDOR failed to provide Newsome with Notice of Tax Assessment as required by the statutes/laws governing said matters. The COKDOR is wanting Newsome to pay taxes alleged although she has timely notified (in writing) of dispute and has (in writing) requested documentation as to how the COKDOR derived the alleged taxes claimed to be owed, etc. Newsome believes the record evidence of the COKDOR will support her correspondence complies with KRS 131.110 and she has set forth the grounds upon which her protest is made. (b) That although the record of the COKDOR supports Newsome filed a timely protest; it has failed to handle her protest in compliance with the statutes/laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky governing said matters. Furthermore, the record evidence will support that Newsome out of concerns of criminal acts by the COKDOR notified the proper authority – Thomas B. Miller, Commissioner of the COKDOR, so that the record would reflect that those with decision making authority as well as the head over said department was timely, properly and adequately placed on notice and FULLY AWARE of what was going on in regards to this matter. (c) The record evidence of the COKDOR will support that although Newsome has notified in writing of a timely protest, the COKDOR has not issued a FINAL RULING on any matter still in controversy, nor has it acknowledged Newsome's dispute through the proper policies/procedures of the COKDOR. Pursuant to KRS 131.110 the COKDOR is required to provide a FINAL RULING which states the issues in controversy, the department's position thereon and set forth the procedure for prosecuting an appeal to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals – all of which to date has not been done and/or complied with. Nevertheless, the COKDOR has jumped-the-gun and has repeatedly failed to comply with the KRS and KTBOR.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: That instead of complying with the KTBOR and/or tax laws in the handling of this matter, the COKDOR breached its own policies/procedures and MANDATORY statutes/laws and (a) on or about November 4, 2008, the COKDOR sent Newsome correspondence notifying that "THE ATTACHED SCHEDULE HAS/HAVE NOT BEEN PAID. . .;" to which Newsome timely responded to on November 21, 2008, advising "Please be advised that I dispute the amount owed and am requesting additional time to obtain copies of the Returns in question. While I provided your office with the originals of my Kentucky returns (retaining a copy for my records), on or about October 9, 2008, my residence was subjected to burglary, etc and these documents taken. The appropriate criminal complaint and charges has been filed with the appropriate agency. However, in the meantime, I am requesting that you send me a copy of my tax documents submitted with my 2007 Tax Returns filing to your office." A copy of this correspondence is November 12, 2008, is attached hereto.

> IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That the criminal acts the COKDOR was notified of, occurred on or about October 9, 2008. Newsome filed a Criminal Complaint with Federal Bureau of Investigations on or about October 13, 2008 (which to her knowledge is still pending) – coincidentally, on or about November 4, 2008, the COKDOR began its unlawful/illegal practices in trying to SEIZE Newsome's property. Leaving a reasonable mind to conclude that the timing of the criminal acts of October 9, 2008, the filing of the FBI Criminal Complaint and the COKDOR's actions less than a month of the October 9, 2008 criminal activities are acts of conspiracy by the COKDOR to UNLAWFULLY/ILLEGALLY seize the property of Newsome for purposes of COVERING UP THE CRIMINAL ACTIONS of crooks involved in the crimes committed against her. Moreover, the COKDOR's engagement in a CONSPIRACY with others to destroy evidence.
> IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE: That while as early as November 21, 2008, Newsome advised of DISPUTE and request for documentation, the COKDOR did not provide Newsome with this information until about March 5, 2009 – approximately four (4) months later. Furthermore, the COKDOR began its THREATS of collection and SEIZURE of property about February 10, 2009 – approximately one (1) month from the date of Newsome's termination from employment. Coincidental – Newsome does not believe so. Acts deliberately and maliciously orchestrated by the COKDOR and others to unlawfully/illegally get their hands on evidence and for purpose of obstructing a federal investigation. THUS WARRANTING AN INVESTIGATION BY THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: That Newsome has filed the required Criminal Complaint with the FBI and therefore, any and all property, etc. that the COKDOR is asserting it is entitled to is a part of a federal investigation and is not subject to any FRIVOLOUS Notice of Lien and/or Seizure, etc. (criminal activity) the COKDOR is intending to subject Newsome to. NEITHER HAS THE COKDOR COMPLIED WITH THE KTBOR and/or KRS prior to filing its Notice of Lien and services of FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE. The COKDOR was first timely, properly and adequately notified that Newsome contested/disputed the alleged debt claimed to be owed on or about November 21, 2008, and provided additional information involving statute in her May 12, 2009 correspondence (attached hereto) which provided the following:

CUT & PASTED AS OF 4/30/09 - http://www.fbi.gov/hq/cid/civilrights/color.htm

. . . Preventing abuse of this authority, however, is equally necessary to the health of our nation's democracy. That's why it's a federal crime for anyone acting under "color of law" willfully to deprive or conspire to deprive a person of a right protected by the Constitution or U.S. law. "Color of law" simply means that the person is using authority given to him or her by a local, state, or federal government agency.

The FBI is the lead federal agency for investigating color of law abuses, which include acts carried out by government officials operating both within and beyond the limits of their lawful authority. Off-duty conduct may be covered if the perpetrator asserted his or her official status in some way.

During Fiscal Year 2005, the FBI investigated more than 1,100 color of law cases. Most of these crimes fall into five broad areas:

- . . . fabrication of evidence;
- deprivation of property; and
- failure to keep from harm. . . .

False arrest and fabrication of evidence: The Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution guarantees the right against unreasonable searches or seizures. A law enforcement official using authority provided under the color of law is allowed to stop individuals and, under certain circumstances, to search them and retain their property. It is in the abuse of that discretionary power—such as an unlawful detention or illegal confiscation of property*—that a violation of a person's civil rights may occur.

Fabricating evidence against . . . an individual also violates the color of law statute, taking away the person's rights of due process and unreasonable seizure. In the case of deprivation of property, the color of law statute would be violated by unlawfully obtaining or maintaining a person's property, which oversteps or misapplies the official's authority.

The Fourteenth Amendment secures the right to due process; the Eighth Amendment prohibits the use of cruel and unusual punishment. During an arrest or detention, these rights can be violated by the use of force amounting to punishment (summary judgment). The person accused of a crime must be allowed the opportunity to have a trial and should not be subjected to punishment without having been afforded the opportunity of the legal process.

Failure to keep from harm: The public counts on its law enforcement officials to protect local communities. If it's shown that an official willfully failed to keep an individual from harm, that official could be in violation of the color of law statute.

Filing a Complaint

To file a color of law complaint, contact your local FBI office by telephone, in writing, or in person. . . .

You may also contact the United States Attorney's Office in your district or send a written complaint to:

Assistant Attorney General
Civil Rights Division
Criminal Section
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest
Washington, DC 20530

FBI investigations vary in length. Once our investigation is complete, we forward the findings to the U.S. Attorney's Office within the local jurisdiction and to the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C., which decide whether or not to proceed toward prosecution and handle any prosecutions that follow.

Civil Applications

Title 42, U.S.C., Section 14141 makes it unlawful for state or local law enforcement agencies to allow officers to engage in a pattern or practice of conduct that deprives persons of rights protected by the Constitution or U.S. laws. This law, commonly referred to as the Police Misconduct Statute, gives the Department of Justice authority to seek civil remedies in cases where law enforcement agencies have policies or practices that foster a pattern of misconduct by employees. This action is directed against an agency, not against individual officers. The types of issues which may initiate a pattern and practice investigation include:

- Lack of supervision/monitoring of officers' actions;
- Lack of justification or reporting by officers on incidents involving the use of force;
- Lack of, or improper training of, officers; and
- Citizen complaint processes that treat complainants as adversaries. . . .

On or about February 26, 2009, Newsome began her correspondence with Thomas B. Miller (Commission of COKDOR) when it appeared she was getting nowhere with the Commission's staff (see 02/26/09 correspondence attached herto). Newsome doing so, so that the record would also reflect that the proper authority (i.e. Commissioner and/or top official(s)) were timely, properly and adequately notified and made aware of the criminal intention of the COKDOR against Newsome.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: That any actions taken by the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue to act upon its NULL/VOID Notice of Lien is prohibited by state and federal law. Moreover, would be an interference with a federal investigation into the criminal complaint filed by Newsome; moreover, an interference with civil rights, obstruction of justice and would deprive Newsome equal protection of the laws, due process of laws and other rights secured to her under the Kentucky Constitution, U.S. Constitution, Kentucky Taxpayers' Bill of Rights, Kentucky Revised Statutes and other applicable statutes/laws governing said matters. PLEASE BE ADVISED: Any acts by the COKDOR to initiate and/or carry out the unlawful/illegal acts noted in its August 1, 2009, will be taken as this agency's willful, malicious and wanton acts of Obstruction of Criminal Investigation pursuant to 18 USC § 1510 and any and all other applicable statutes/laws governing said matters. Wherein such acts are punishable by fines under this title, or imprisoned not more than five (5) years, or both.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE: In Newsome's May 12, 2009,[2] facsimile to Thomas B. Miller (Commissioner), he (as well as the COKDOR) was timely, properly and adequately placed on notice of criminal acts the [2] A copy of this letter has been provided to U.S. Attorney Eric Holder and U.S. President Barack Obama. Moreover, a copy was provided with August 8, 2009 correspondence to them notifying and providing of the COKDOR's August 1, 2009, FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE.

Commission would be engaging in if it were to carry out such an UNLAWFUL SEIZURE. Moreover, in said correspondence the COKDOR was timely, properly and adequately notified that Newsome had contacted the U.S. Department of Justice (U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder) and advised him of the criminal acts the COKDOR is determined to engage in.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: That as a matter of statutes/laws the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue was not entitled to and should not have filed a Notice of Lien of and against Newsome and that it FAILED to adhere to the statutes/laws prior to filing said Notice of Lien and has not complied with the Kentucky Taxpayers' Bill of Rights, Kentucky Revised Statues, Kentucky Constitution, U.S. Constitution, Civil Rights Act, Kentucky Tax Laws, etc. regarding this matter. Therefore, there is no legal basis/authority which can sustain/warrant the COKDOR's August 1, 2009 FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: That while the August 1, 2009 FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE states, "If you believe that all or a portion of your tax liability is not past due or is not legally enforceable, you may, within 60 days from the date of this notice, present evidence to support your position. After reviewing your evidence, the Department will notify you of its decision before any offset action is taken." IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE: 60 days from August 1, 2009, WOULD GIVEN NEWSOME A DEADLINE OF ABOUT OCTOBER 1, 2009; however, the COKDOR is threatening SEIZURE action by 08/31/2009 – LESS THAN 60 DAYS – if FULL payment of the amount due does not reach its office by August 31, 2009. Then on Page 2, the COKDOR again advises of the ability to make payment arrangements; however, as its record already supports, such good faith demands for an installment payment agreement have been extended to the COKDOR in writing by Newsome – but to no avail. The COKDOR continues to subject me to such THREATS and unlawful/illegal actions of its recent August 1, 2009 FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE. The COKDOR is doing so with full knowledge Newsome's financial and economic circumstances.

Therefore, PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Newsome hereby DEMANDS the FOLLOWING RELIEF:

I. The United States Department of Justice's investigation into the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue's handling of the above referenced matter to determine whether or not it is engaging in criminal activities – i.e. interference with federal investigation/criminal investigation, obstruction of justice, and any other unlawful/illegal acts known to it;

II. That the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue provide its response to this instant Complaint and Rebuttal to August 1, 2009, FINAL NOTICE BEFORE SEIZURE – providing U.S. Attorney Eric Holder with a copy of said response as well.

III. That a U.S. Department of Justice investigate the handling of this matter to determine whether or not criminal acts and/or civil violations have occurred in the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue's filing of Notice of Lien and allowing such false information to be reported to credit bureaus.

IV. That the U.S. Department of Justice investigate to determine whether the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue engaged in a conspiracy with others and whether its actions in handling of this matter has been done with intent obstruct the administration of justice, interference with civil rights, deprivation of rights – i.e noting: (a) that Newsome was unlawfully/illegally subjected to criminal actions on October 9, 2008 by her landlord and others to which she has filed a Criminal Complaint with the FBI. At the time of the criminal acts, there was a legal and binding INJUNCTION and RESTAINING ORDER prohibiting the criminal activities rendered Newsome (see copy of Injunction and Restraining Order attached); (b) that Newsome was in compliance with the Order of the Kenton County Circuit Court and rent was current and landlord having knowledge that October 2008 rent had been paid prior to committing criminal actions against Newsome (see Fax and copy of Receipt of Payment attached); and (c) that prior to committing the October 9, 2008 criminal acts against Newsome, the landlord, County officials and others had sufficient information and/or resources available to them (based on Court record and posted NOTICE on Newsome's door which read:

> IMPORTANT NOTICE
> The Circuit Court has ORDERED Injunction and Restraining Order against owners, GMM Properties from taking any type of eviction (Removal or Obtaining Premises) action against this tenant.

that the Eviction Notice: Warrant for Possession issued and filed in the Kenton County Sheriff's Office WAS NULL/VOID (see copy of document attached) – in fact the Officer writing the contents of the notice on my door on the back of warrant SUPPORTS knowledge that he and others were about to commit criminal acts.

V. Newsome further seeks any and all additional relief to which she is entitled to correct said injustices and/or legal wrongs known to the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue and U.S. Department of Justice. Moreover, should criminal actions by the Commonwealth of Kentucky Department of Revenue be found, that the applicable persons be prosecuted to the full extent of the laws governing said matters.

Respectfully submitted this 12th day of August, 2009.

KRS 131 520 provides:

"(1) Any person in possession of or obligated with respect to property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made shall, upon demand of the secretary or his delegate, surrender such property or rights or discharge such obligation to the secretary or his delegate, except such part of the property or rights as is, at the time of such demand, subject to an attachment or execution under any judicial process.

"(2) Any person who fails or refuses to surrender any property or rights to property subject to levy shall be liable in his own person and estate to the Commonwealth in a sum equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of taxes for the collection of which such levy has been made, together with costs and interest on such sum at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date of such levy. Any amount other than costs recovered under this paragraph shall be credited against the tax liability for the collection of which such levy was made.

"(3) Any person in possession of or obligated with respect to property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made who, upon demand by the secretary or his delegate, surrenders such property or rights to property or discharges such obligation to the secretary or his delegate shall be discharged from any obligation or liability to the delinquent taxpayer with respect to such property or rights to property arising from such surrender or payment.

KRS 131.510(2)(a) provides:

"The effect of a levy on salary or wages payable to or received by a person shall be continuous from the date such levy is first made until the liability out of which such levy arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

KRS 131.130(11) provides:

"(11) The cabinet may enter into annual memoranda of agreement with any state agency, officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or other state organization to assume the collection duties for any liquidated debts due the state entity and may renew that agreement for up to five (5) years. Under such an agreement, the cabinet shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund, and administration of those liquidated debts as provided under:

(a) KRS Chapters 131, 134, and 135 for the collection, refund, and administration of delinquent taxes; and
(b) Any applicable statutory provisions governing the state agency, officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or other state organization for the collection, refund, and administration of any liquidated debts due the state entity.

Pursuant to KRS 131.130(11) the Department of Revenue has entered into a memoranda of agreement with the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, Division of Child Support. The memoranda of agreement authorizes the Department of Revenue to assist the Cabinet for Health and Family Services in the collection of child support, which includes attaching the delinquent parent's assets maintained in financial institutions. The above statute authorizes the Department of Revenue to utilize the same collection tools to collect child support arrearages as used to collect delinquent taxes. As a result, the financial institutions will receive the Department of Revenue's levy, instead of the Order to Withhold and Deliver or an order from the court, for the child support cases enforced by the Department of Revenue.

131.130 General powers and duties of department -- Prosecution duties.

Without limitation of other duties assigned to it by law, the following powers and duties are vested in the Department of Revenue:

(1) The department may promulgate administrative regulations, and direct proceedings and actions, for the administration and enforcement of all tax laws of this state. To assist taxpayers in understanding and interpreting the tax laws, the department may, through incorporation by reference, include examples as part of any administrative regulation. The examples may include demonstrative, nonexclusive lists of items if the department determines such lists would be helpful to taxpayers in understanding the application of the tax laws.

(2) The department, by representatives it appoints in writing, may take testimony or depositions, and may examine hard copy or electronic records, any person's documents, files, and equipment if those records, documents, or equipment will furnish knowledge concerning any taxpayer's tax liability, when it deems this reasonably necessary to the performance of its functions. The department may enforce this right by application to the Circuit Court in the county wherein the person is domiciled or has his or her principal office, or by application to the Franklin Circuit Court, which courts may compel compliance with the orders of the department.

(3) The department shall prescribe the style, and determine and enforce the use or manner of keeping, of all assessment and tax forms and records employed by state and county officials, and may prescribe forms necessary for the administration of any revenue law by the promulgation of an administrative regulation pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A incorporating the forms by reference.

(4) The department shall advise on all questions respecting the construction of state revenue laws and the application thereof to various classes of taxpayers and property.

(5) Attorneys employed by the Finance and Administration Cabinet and approved by the Attorney General as provided in KRS 15.020 may prosecute all violations of the criminal and penal laws relating to revenue and taxation. If a Finance and Administration Cabinet attorney undertakes any of the actions prescribed in this subsection, that attorney shall be authorized to exercise all powers and perform all duties in respect to the criminal actions or proceedings which the prosecuting attorney would otherwise perform or exercise, including the authority to sign, file, and present any complaints, affidavits, information, presentments, accusations, indictments, subpoenas, and processes of any kind, and to appear before all grand juries, courts, or tribunals.

(6) In the event of the incapacity of attorneys employed by the Finance and Administration Cabinet or at the request of the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet, the Attorney General or his or her designee shall prosecute all violations of the criminal and penal laws relating to revenue and taxation. If the Attorney General undertakes any of the actions prescribed in this subsection, he or she shall be authorized to exercise all powers and perform all duties in respect to the criminal actions or proceedings which the prosecuting attorney would otherwise perform or exercise, including but not limited to the authority to sign, file, and present any and all complaints, affidavits, information, presentments, accusations, indictments, subpoenas, and processes of any kind, and to appear before all grand juries, courts, or tribunals.

EXHIBIT 28

(7) The department may require the Commonwealth's attorneys and county attorneys to prosecute actions and proceedings and perform other services incident to the enforcement of laws assigned to the department for administration.

(8) The department may research the fields of taxation, finance, and local government administration, and publish its findings, as the commissioner may deem wise.

(9) The department may make administrative regulations necessary to establish a system of taxpayer identifying numbers for the purpose of securing proper identification of taxpayers subject to any tax laws or other revenue measure of this state, and may require the taxpayer to place on any return, report, statement, or other document required to be filed, any number assigned pursuant to such administrative regulations.

(10) The department may, when it is in the best interest of the Commonwealth and helpful to the efficient and effective enforcement, administration, or collection of sales and use tax, motor fuels tax, or the petroleum environmental assurance fee, enter into agreements with out-of-state retailers or other persons for the collection and remittance of sales and use tax, the motor fuels tax, or the petroleum environmental assurance fee.

(11) The department may enter into annual memoranda of agreement with any state agency, officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or other state organization to assume the collection duties for any debts due the state entity and may renew that agreement for up to five (5) years. Under such an agreement, the department shall have all the powers, rights, duties, and authority with respect to the collection, refund, and administration of those liquidated debts as provided under:

(a) KRS Chapters 131, 134, and 135 for the collection, refund, and administration of delinquent taxes; and

(b) Any applicable statutory provisions governing the state agency, officer, board, commission, corporation, institution, cabinet, department, or other state organization for the collection, refund, and administration of any liquidated debts due the state entity.

(12) The department may refuse to accept a personal check in payment of taxes due or collected from any person who has ever tendered a check to the state which, when presented for payment, was not honored. Any check so refused shall be considered as never having been tendered.

State v. Carver, 283 N.E.2d 662 (Ohio.App.4.Dist. 1971) - Each party to a conspiracy is criminally responsible for all acts done in furtherance of the conspiratorial design.
Bertear v. State, 8 Ohio Law Abs. 252 (Ohio.App.8.Dist. 193) - Where conspiracy was established, each conspirator was liable for the acts performed by the others in furtherance thereof.
English v. Matowitz, 72 N.E.2d 898 (Ohio,1947) - One need not be present at place of the crime in order to be charged as an aider and abettor or conspirator, but constructive presence is sufficient.
State v. Rogers, 27 N.E.2d 791 (Ohio.App.7.Dist. 1938) - One who enters into a conspiracy to commit an unlawful act is guilty of any unlawful act of his coconspirators in furtherance of the conspiracy, and it is not necessary that the conspiracy be one to commit the identical offense charged in the indictment, or even a similar one, but it is enough that the offense charged was one which might have been contemplated as resulting from the conspiracy.
Maple Hts. v. Ephraim, 2008 -Ohio- 4576 (Ohio.App.8.Dist. 2008) - Much like the rule of aiding and abetting, the overt acts of one person in a criminal conspiracy are attributable to all persons in the conspiracy.

I. CONSPIRACY[3]

> Conspiracy - An agreement by two or more persons to commit an unlawful act, coupled with an intent to achieve the agreement's objective, and (in most states) action or conduct that furthers the agreement; a combination for an unlawful purpose. 18 USC § 371. . .

[3] Definition taken from Blacks Law Dictionary – 8th Edition.

> "When two or more persons combine for the purpose of inflicting upon another person an injury which is unlawful in itself, or which is rendered unlawful by the mode in which it is inflicted, and in either case the other person suffers damage, they commit the tort of conspiracy." P.H. Winfield, A Textbook of the Law of Tort §128, at 434 (5th ed. 1950)

Chain Conspiracy - A single conspiracy in which each person is responsible for a distinct act within the overall plan. . . .*All participants are interested in the overall scheme and liable for all other participants' acts in furtherance of that scheme. (Conspiracy §24(3) C.J.S. Conspiracy §§117-118).

Conspire - To engage in conspiracy; to join in a conspiracy.

Conspirator - A person who takes part in a conspiracy.

O.R.C. § 2923.01 CONSPIRACY.

(A) No person, with purpose to commit or to promote or facilitate the commission of aggravated . . . burglary, burglary, engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity, . . . shall do either of the following:

> (1) With another person or persons, plan or aid in planning the commission of any of the specified offenses;
> (2) Agree with another person or persons that one or more of them will engage in conduct that facilitates the commission of any of the specified offenses.

(B) No person shall be convicted of conspiracy unless a substantial overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy is alleged and proved to have been done by the accused or a person with whom the accused conspired, subsequent to the accused's entrance into the conspiracy. For purposes of this section, an overt act is substantial when it is of a character that manifests a purpose on the part of the actor that the object of the conspiracy should be completed.

(C) When the offender knows or has reasonable cause to believe that a person with whom the offender conspires also has conspired or is conspiring with another to commit the same offense, the offender is guilty of conspiring with that other person, even though the other person's identity may be unknown to the offender.

(D) It is no defense to a charge under this section that, in retrospect, commission of the offense that was the object of the conspiracy was impossible under the circumstances.

(E) A conspiracy terminates when the offense or offenses that are its objects are committed or when it is abandoned by all conspirators. In the absence of abandonment, it is no defense to a charge under this section that no offense that was the object of the conspiracy was committed.

(F) A person who conspires to commit more than one offense is guilty of only one conspiracy, when the offenses are the object of the same agreement or continuous conspiratorial relationship.

(G) When a person is convicted of committing or attempting to commit a specific offense or of complicity in the commission of or attempt to commit the specific offense, the person shall not be convicted of conspiracy involving the same offense.

(H)(1) No person shall be convicted of conspiracy upon the testimony of a person with whom the defendant conspired, unsupported by other evidence.

(2) If a person with whom the defendant allegedly has conspired testifies against the defendant in a case in which the defendant is charged with conspiracy and if the testimony is supported by other evidence, the court, when it charges the jury, shall state substantially the following:

> "The testimony of an accomplice that is supported by other evidence does not become inadmissible because of the accomplice's complicity, moral turpitude, or self-interest, but the admitted or claimed complicity of a witness may affect the witness' credibility and make the witness' testimony subject to grave suspicion, and require that it be weighed with great caution.
> It is for you, as jurors, in the light of all the facts presented to you from the witness stand, to evaluate such testimony and to determine its quality and worth or its lack of quality and worth."

(3) "Conspiracy," as used in division (H)(1) of this section, does not include any conspiracy that results in an attempt to commit an offense or in the commission of an offense.

(I) The following are affirmative defenses to a charge of conspiracy:

(1) After conspiring to commit an offense, the actor thwarted the success of the conspiracy under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of the actor's criminal purpose.

(2) After conspiring to commit an offense, the actor abandoned the conspiracy prior to the commission of or attempt to commit any offense that was the object of the conspiracy, either by advising all other conspirators of the actor's abandonment, or by informing any law enforcement authority of the existence of the conspiracy and of the actor's participation in the conspiracy.

(J) Whoever violates this section is guilty of conspiracy, which is one of the following:

(1) A felony of the first degree, when one of the objects of the conspiracy is aggravated murder, murder, or an offense for which the maximum penalty is imprisonment for life;

(2) A felony of the next lesser degree than the most serious offense that is the object of the conspiracy, when the most serious offense that is the object of the conspiracy is a felony of the first, second, third, or fourth degree;

(3) A felony punishable by a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than eighteen months, or both, when the offense that is the object of the conspiracy is a violation of any provision of Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code, other than section 3734.18 of the Revised Code, that relates to hazardous wastes;

(4) A misdemeanor of the first degree, when the most serious offense that is the object of the conspiracy is a felony of the fifth degree.

(K) This section does not define a separate conspiracy offense or penalty where conspiracy is defined as an offense by one or more sections of the Revised Code, other than this section. In such a case, however:

(1) With respect to the offense specified as the object of the conspiracy in the other section or sections, division (A) of this section defines the voluntary act or acts and culpable mental state necessary to constitute the conspiracy;

(2) Divisions (B) to (I) of this section are incorporated by reference in the conspiracy offense defined by the other section or sections of the Revised Code.

(L)(1) In addition to the penalties that otherwise are imposed for conspiracy, a person who is found guilty of conspiracy to engage in a pattern of corrupt activity is subject to divisions (B)(2) and (3) of section 2923.32, division (A) of section 2981.04, and division (D) of section 2981.06 of the Revised Code.

(a) TITLE 18 U.S.C § 241. CONSPIRACY AGAINST RIGHTS:

If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same; or

If two or more persons go in . . . on the premises of another*, *with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege so secured—

They shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.

TITLE 18, U.S.C., SECTION 241 - CONSPIRACY AGAINST RIGHTS

This statute makes it unlawful for two or more persons to conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person of any state, territory or district in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him/her by the Constitution or the laws of the United States, (or because of his/her having exercised the same).

It further makes it unlawful for two or more persons to go in disguise on the highway or on the premises of another with the intent to prevent or hinder his/her free exercise or enjoyment of any rights so secured.

Punishment varies from a fine or imprisonment of up to ten years, or both; and if death results, or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years, or for life, or may be sentenced to death.

(b) CONSPIRACY DEFINED/PREREQUISITES: [4]

A "conspiracy" requires (1) an object to be accomplished, (2) a plan or scheme embodying means to accomplish that object, and (3) an agreement or understanding between two or more of the defendants, whereby they become definitely committed to cooperate for the accomplishment of the object by the means embodied in the agreement, or by an effectual means. – U.S. v. Gibbs, 182 F.3d 408, 1999 Fed.App. 0140P, certiorari denied 120 S.Ct. 592, 528 U.S. 1051, 145 L.Ed.2d 492, appeal after new sentencing hearing U.S. v. Hough, 276 F.3d 884, 2002 Fed.App. 0018P, rehearing and suggestion for rehearing denied, and rehearing and suggestion for rehearing denied, certiorari denied 122 S.Ct. 1986, 535 U.S. 1089, 152L.Ed.2d 1042, certiorari denied Woods v. U.S., 123 S.Ct. 199, 537 U.S. 898, 154 L.Ed.2d 169.

Essential elements of a "conspiracy" are: that the conspiracy described in indictment was willfully formed and was existing at or about the time alleged, that the accused willfully became a member of conspiracy, that one of the conspirators thereafter knowingly committed at least one overt act charged in indictment at or about the time and place alleged, and that such overt act was knowingly done in furtherance of some object or purpose of the conspiracy charged. U.S. v. Kraig, 99 F.3d 1361, 1996 Fed.App. 0355P - (C.A. 6 Ohio 1996).

(c) CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD:[5]

Words "conspiracy to defraud" import moral obliquity and, according to their natural meaning, signify an attempt to deceive by fraud, and such conduct may not be presumed nor established by surmise or conjecture but must be proved by direct evidence or by justifiable inferences from established facts and circumstances. Pumphrey v. Quillen, 141 N.E.2d 675, 102 Ohio App. 173, 2 O.O.2d 152, affirmed 135 N.E.2d 328, 165 Ohio St. 343, 59 O.O. 460.

(d) INTENTIONAL INTERFERENCE WITH EMPLOYMENT –MALICIOUS CONSPIRACY TO CAUSE DISCHARGE FROM EMPLOYMENT:[6]

Malicious Acts:[7] The terms "malice" and "malicious" are defined not only as relating to the intentional commission of a wrongful act, but also as involving wickedness, depravity and evil intent.

Willful, Wanton, and Reckless Acts:[8] Tort liability may be based on willful, wanton, or reckless acts. A willful act is one done intentionally, or on purpose, and not accidentally. Willfulness implies intentional wrongdoing. . . Willfulness is sufficiently established where there is a knowledge that the act will probably result in an injury to another, and an utter disregard of the consequences.. . A finding of willful misconduct will be sustained where it is clear from the facts that the defendant, whatever his state of mind, has proceeded in disregard of a high degree of danger, whether known to him or apparent to a reasonable person in his position.. . .Wanton act is a wrongful act done on purpose or in malicious disregard of the rights of others. A tort having some of the characteristics of both negligence and willfulness occurs when a person with no intent to cause harm intentionally performs an act so unreasonable and dangerous that he knows, or should know, it is highly probable that harm will result from it.

To establish prima facie case of retaliation under "opposition" clause . . ., protecting employees who oppose unlawful employment practices against retaliation, plaintiff must establish: statutorily protected expression; adverse employment action; and causal link between protected expression and adverse action. Aldridge v. Tougaloo College, 847 F.Supp. 480.

To establish a violation of § 2000e-3(a), it must be shown that the employer had actual or imputed knowledge that the plaintiff participated in a protected activity; and, further that based on such knowledge the discharge was in fact retaliatory – that is, motivated by the employee's participation in protected activity with the intent to retaliate against the employee for such participation, and not by unrelated legitimate business reasons. However, while retaliation must be the principal reason for the discharge it need not be the sole reason; and an employment action based in part on an unlawful consideration is not rendered lawful by the coexistence of a nondiscriminatory reason. If any element of retaliation or reprisal played any part in the discharge, no matter how remote or slight or tangential, it is in violation of the law. The trier of fact determines the reasons for the employee's discharge based on a reasonable based on reasonable inferences drawn from the totality of facts, the conglomerate of activities, and the entire web of circumstances presented by the evidence. In examining the evidence, the trier of fact may consider such factors as the timing of the discharge; departures from customary dismissal notice or procedures afforded other employees; harassment, surveillance, or other disparate treatment or special conditions of employment in comparison to similarly situated employees or to prior treatment of the plaintiff immediately following the protected activity and leading up to the discharge; threats or retaliation against other employees for engaging in similar conduct; absence of a reasonable alternative reason for the discharge. . .[9]

(1) (a) TACIT AGREEMENT -

Occurs when two or more persons pursue by their acts the same object by the same means. One person performing one part and the other another part, so that upon completion they have obtained the object pursued. Regardless whether each person knew of the details or what part each was to perform, the end results being they obtained the object pursued. Agreement is implied or inferred from actions or statements.

(b) TACIT DEFINED: [10]

Implied but not actually expressed; implied by silence or silent acquiescence .

(c) TACIT CONTRACT DEFINED: [11]

A contract in which conduct takes the place of written or spoken words in the offer of acceptance (or both).

1. As a matter of law, Conspirators accomplished the object of their conspiracy when committed the crimes set forth in this Complaint and unlawfully/illegally seized, destroyed, etc. for purposes of covering up their unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's storage unit and property located at 1109 Alfred Street – Unit 173, Cincinnati, Ohio 45214 without legal/lawful authority. Therefore, Newsome is requesting through this instant Complaint that an investigation into the claims and allegations set forth herein and that those found to have acted in such unlawful/illegal manner be prosecuted and indicted for said legal wrongs.

2. Newsome learned of the criminal actions of Conspirators upon contacting the Clerk of Court's Office in the Hamilton County Municipal Court on September 10, 2009.

3. Through this instant Complaint, Newsome is requesting an investigation into the claims/crimes and allegations set forth herein to determine whether any and/or all of the above referenced Conspirators engaged in a conspiracy toward Newsome and committed crimes [i.e. Conspiracy, Public Corruption, Complicity, Corruption, Aiding and Abetting, Extortion, Blackmail, Bribery, Coercion, Retaliation, Pattern of Conduct, Intimidation, Deprivation of Rights, Power/Failure to Prevent, Stalking/Menacing by Stalking, Burglary, Trespass, Breaking and Entering, Theft, Larceny, Invasion, Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action, Obstruction of Justice, Color of Law, Conspiracy Against Rights, Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights] which were the object of said conspiracy. If so, that the proper prosecution and indictments be rendered and the applicable punishment permissible and/or required by statutes/laws be had and against all/any of the Conspirators found to be guilty of said crime and/or unlawful/illegal action.

4. Newsome believes that an investigation into allegations and claims against the above referenced Conspirators will support that two or more of said Conspirators agreed to commit unlawful/illegal acts coupled with the intent to achieve the agreements' objectives: (a) to conspire against Newsome in exercise of protected rights; (b) subject Newsome to stalking; (c) subject Newsome to harassment, threats, hostile treatments, intimidation, discrimination, malicious prosecution, corruption, hatred, hostility, etc.; (d) interfere with Civil Rights of Newsome through the obstruction of justice; (e) power/failure to prevent, theft, burglary, larceny, (f) aiding and abetting; (g) conspiracy against rights; (h) conspiracy to interfere with civil rights; (i) color of law; (j) extortion; (k) blackmail; (l) bribery; (m)unlawful entries/forcible entries; (n) burglary; (o) larceny; (p) invasion/invasion of privacy; (q) theft; (r) breaking and entering, (s) trespass, etc.; and (t) any such unlawful/illegal acts found during the handling of this investigation.

5. Conspirators conspired for the purpose of inflicting upon Newsome intentional and deliberate injury/harm which they knew was unlawful/illegal and inflicted in a manner known to said Conspirators to be unlawful/illegal and prohibited by statutes/laws. Such actions which resulted in criminal wrong doing of and against Newsome by Conspirators as a direct and proximate result of the conspiracy leveled against her.

6. Conspirators were responsible for a distinct act within the overall plan of the conspiracy in which they were willing participants. Said Conspirators having an interest in the overall scheme and the outcome of said scheme/conspiracy and is therefore, liable for their action and/or those of other's in the carrying out of their role in the illegal/unlawful actions against Newsome in furtherance of the conspiracy alleged.

7. The completion of the most recent conspiracy involving the above referenced Conspirators was executed on or about September 9, 2009.

8. Conspirators, under color of their office or authority, knowingly deprived or conspired to deprive Newsome of constitutional and statutory rights.

9. Conspirators, under color of their office or authority, knowingly interfered with Newsome's civil rights.

10. The plan or scheme embodied by Stor-All was done for the purpose of accomplishing the object[12] of conspiracy by: (a) Filing a malicious forcible entry and detainer action to cover-up the criminal actions of Stor-All committed in their unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's storage unit and property. (b) Furthering the Pattern-of-Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct in the conspiracy leveled against Newsome. (c) Prejudicing factfinder, judges and others, etc. against Newsome by advising of knowledge of her engagement in protected activities unrelated to the Stor-All matter. (d) Projecting Newsome as a "serial/vexatious" litigator, paranoid, psychotic, hostile, potential murderer, boy-who-cried-wolf, etc. (e) Getting factfinders, judges and others to engage in conspiracy and/or in furtherance of pattern-of-practice/pattern-of-conduct underlying the conspiracy against Newsome. (f) Obtaining NULL/VOID and/or UNENFORCIBLE judgments/rulings from the courts to aid and abet Stor-All in the commission of criminal acts leveled against Newsome for the completion and/or obtaining of object of conspiracy leveled against her. Do so with knowledge that any such judgments/rulings could not be enforced and/or acted upon. Obtaining of such judgments/rulings was done to further conspiracy initiated by Stor-All and to join with other conspirators to carry out acts in conspiracies that they have initiated against Newsome that is unrelated to Stor-All matter; however, became joined upon Stor-All's knowledge of Newsome's engagement other protected activities.

11. There was an agreement/understanding between persons – Conspirators – wherein they became definitely committed to cooperate, play their part for the accomplishment of object[13] by the agreement/understanding embodied in said agreement/understanding.

12. The conspiracy engaged in by Conspirators was willfully formed and existed at or about the time the alleged crimes were committed. All Conspirators willfully became a member of the conspiracy and that one or more of said Conspirators committed at least one overt act alleged in the criminal complaint and that such overt act was knowingly done in furtherance of the object[14] or purpose of the conspiracy alleged.

13. Conspirators did knowingly and willingly deceive by fraud through the obtaining of a NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment in furtherance of Pattern-of-Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct underlying conspiracy leveled against Newsome to get others to aid and abet in the object[15] of the conspiracy.

14. The act of Conspirators was malicious, willful and wanton and acts were done to the intentional and knowingly commission of a wrongful act/crime [i.e. Conspiracy, Public Corruption, Complicity, Corruption, Aiding and Abetting, Extortion, Blackmail, Bribery, Coercion, Retaliation, Pattern of Conduct, Intimidation, Deprivation of Rights, Power/Failure to Prevent, Stalking/Menacing by Stalking, Burglary, Trespass, Breaking and Entering, Theft, Larceny, Invasion, Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action, Obstruction of Justice, Color of Law, Conspiracy Against Rights, Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights] said Conspirators doing so with wickedness, depravity, and evil intent. Said Conspirators' acts were willful and intentional for the purpose of causing Newsome injury/harm, to cover-up the criminal acts of Stor-All and in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Newsome to deprive her of protected rights secured under the Constitution (Ohio and U.S.), Civil Rights Act, Landlord & Tenant Act and other statutes/laws governing said matters. Said Conspirators knew and/or should have known of the crimes committed against Newsome would cause her injury/harm; nevertheless, Conspirators having an utter disregard of the consequences. There is evidence, facts, and legal conclusions in the record of Stor-All and Courts to sustain that said Conspirators were timely, properly and adequately placed on notice by Newsome that they were engaging in criminal activity. Nevertheless, Conspirators proceeded in disregard of a high degree of danger either known or apparent to him/her or to a reasonable person in his/her position.

15. Conspirators conspired to commit criminal acts made known in the criminal complaint with knowledge or should have known of their engagement in wrongful acts done on purpose and in malicious disregard to Newsome's rights.

16. Conspirators acted with negligence and willfulness with deliberate intent to harm/injure Newsome – acts said Conspirators knew were unlawful/illegal, unreasonable and dangerous and having knowledge that Newsome would be injured/harmed.

17. Record evidence of Conspirators and that of courts will sustain said Conspirators' knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities and their eagerness to share said knowledge with each other in furtherance of Pattern-of-Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct underlying conspiracy against Newsome. Record evidence and that of courts will support Conspirators having knowledge of Newsome's engagement in statutorily protected rights [i.e. Title VII, Fair Housing Act, Landlord & Tenant Act, etc.], and with said knowledge subjected Newsome to an adverse action [i.e. contacting employers, factfinders, judges and others to notify of Newsome's engagement in protected activities – either present or past]. The record evidence of Conspirators will support there is a causal link between protected activities Newsome is engaged in and the adverse criminal actions Conspirators have leveled against her. In the present matter, Stor-All's counsel, David Meranus, on February 6, 2009, made it known to Newsome said knowledge of her engagement in protected activities. (See EXHIBIT "1" – 02/06/09 Letter to David Meranus, attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein). Therefore, a reasonable mind may conclude that the same eagerness Meranus had in sharing said knowledge and the manner in which it was conveyed to Newsome, is that in which Stor-All and Co-Conspirators have spread information regarding her engagement in protected activities.

18. Conspirators conspired to injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate Newsome in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege of the United States and the State of Ohio secured to her under the Constitution (Ohio and U.S.), Civil Rights Act, Landlord & Tenant Act, and any/all statutes/laws governing said matters because of Newsome having exercised said rights.

19. Conspirators went to the storage unit of Newsome with intent to prevent or hinder her free exercise or enjoyment of rights or privileges so secured to her under the applicable statutes/laws governing said matters.

20. There is record evidence to sustain Conspirators engaged in furtherance of Pattern-of Practice/Pattern-of-Conduct underlying the conspiracy leveled against Newsome that has existed for approximately 24 years and is still ongoing. That the egregious acts of Conspirators in the carrying out of object [i.e. Conspiracy, Public Corruption, Complicity, Corruption, Aiding and Abetting, Extortion, Blackmail, Bribery, Coercion, Retaliation, Pattern of Conduct, Intimidation, Deprivation of Rights, Power/Failure to Prevent, Stalking/Menacing by Stalking, Burglary, Trespass, Breaking and Entering, Theft, Larceny, Invasion, Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action, Obstruction of Justice, Color of Law, Conspiracy Against Rights, Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights] of conspiracy was willful, malicious and wanton warranting the maximum punishment – i.e. fine(s) and imprisonment for maximum time required under the laws. The maximum punishment may be warranted to deter the furtherance and temptation of others to engage and/or join such conspiracies as that leveled against Newsome.

21. There is record evidence to support that Newsome has (in good faith) filed the required actions which preclude such criminal wrongs with the appropriate agencies; however, her acts were met by retaliation by Conspirators. Such matters which are presently under investigation in that Newsome have filed the Complaints with the proper authorities as with this instant matter.

22. 23. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

24. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

II. PUBLIC CORRUPTION

CUT & PASTED FROM: http://www.fbi.gov/hq/cid/pubcorrupt/pubcorrupt.htm
Public corruption is one of the FBI's top investigative priorities—behind only terrorism, espionage, and cyber crimes. Why? Because of its impact on our democracy and national security. Public corruption can affect everything from how well our borders are secured and our neighborhoods protected…to verdicts handed down in courts…

CUT & PASTED FROM: http://www.fbi.gov/page2/june05/obrien062005.htm
CRACKING DOWN ON PUBLIC CORRUPTION

Why We Take It So Seriously...and Why It Matters To You

It's #4 in our top 10 list of investigative priorities—following counterterrorism, espionage, and cyber. Why do we rank it so highly? What are we doing to stop it? For the answers to these questions and more, we talked with Supervisory Special Agent Dan O'Brien, chief of our Public Corruption and Government Fraud program at FBI Headquarters.

Q: Why's the FBI so concerned about public corruption?
Dan: Two main reasons. First, it strikes at the core of what our country's about. Our democracy depends on a healthy, efficient, and ethical government—whether it's in the courtroom or the halls of Congress. . . .

CUT & PASTED FROM:
http://www.fbi.gov/page2/march04/greylord031504.htm

That's really the whole point. Abuse of the public trust cannot and must not be tolerated. Corrupt practices in government strike at the heart of social order and justice. And that's why the *FBI has the ticket on investigations of public corruption as a top priority. . . .

What kind of crimes? Bribery, kickbacks, and fraud. Vote buying, voter intimidation, impersonation. Political coercion. Racketeering and obstruction of justice. Trafficking of illegal drugs.

How serious of a problem is it? Last year the FBI investigated 850 cases; brought in 655 indictments/informations; and got 525 who were either convicted or chose to plead.

Last words: Straight from Teddy Roosevelt: "Unless a man is honest we have no right to keep him in public life, it matters not how brilliant his capacity, it hardly matters how great his power of doing good service on certain lines may be... No man who is corrupt, no man who condones corruption in others, can possibly do his duty by the community."

1. Because of the corruption and dishonesty, etc. of Conspirators – regardless of their titles or profession (i.e. judges, lawyers, etc.) – there is no need to keep them in public life to allow them to commit such terrorist and criminal acts and/or threats to other citizens. Said Conspirators belong behind bars for the safety of the public and/or other citizens.

2. No judge, lawyer, etc. who condones such corrupt and criminal practices/acts; moreover, engage in such corrupt and criminal acts, can possibly do his duty by the community.

3. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

4. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

III. COMPLICITY

O.R.C. § 2923.03 Complicity.

(A) No person, acting with the kind of culpability required for the commission of an offense, shall do any of the following:

(1) Solicit or procure another to commit the offense;
(2) Aid or abet another in committing the offense;

(3) Conspire with another to commit the offense in violation of section 2923.01 of the Revised Code;
(4) Cause an innocent or irresponsible person to commit the offense.

(B) It is no defense to a charge under this section that no person with whom the accused was in complicity has been convicted as a principal offender.

(C) No person shall be convicted of complicity under this section unless an offense is actually committed, but a person may be convicted of complicity in an attempt to commit an offense in violation of section 2923.02 of the Revised Code.

(D) If an alleged accomplice of the defendant testifies against the defendant in a case in which the defendant is charged with complicity in the commission of or an attempt to commit an offense, an attempt to commit an offense, or an offense, the court, when it charges the jury, shall state substantially the following:

> "The testimony of an accomplice does not become inadmissible because of his complicity, moral turpitude, or self-interest, but the admitted or claimed complicity of a witness may affect his credibility and make his testimony subject to grave suspicion, and require that it be weighed with great caution.
> It is for you, as jurors, in the light of all the facts presented to you from the witness stand, to evaluate such testimony and to determine its quality and worth or its lack of quality and worth."

(E) It is an affirmative defense to a charge under this section that, prior to the commission of or attempt to commit the offense, the actor terminated his complicity, under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of his criminal purpose.

(F) Whoever violates this section is guilty of complicity in the commission of an offense, and shall be prosecuted and punished as if he were a principal offender. A charge of complicity may be stated in terms of this section, or in terms of the principal offense.

Complicity Defined:
Association or participation in a criminal act; the act or state of being an accomplice. ● Under the Model Penal Code, a person can be an accomplice as a result of either that person's own conduct or the conduct of another (such as an innocent agent) for which that person is legally accountable.

Deceit Defined:
1. The act of intentionally giving a false impression . 2. A false statement of fact made by a person knowingly or recklessly (i.e. not caring whether it is true or false) with the intent that someone else act upon it. FRAUD – 3. A tort arising from a false representation made knowingly or recklessly with the intent that another person should detrimentally rely on it.

Defraud Defined: [17]
To cause injury or loss to (a person) by deceit.

Egregious Defined: [18]
Extremely or remarkably bad; flagrant.

Incite Defined: [19]
To provoke or stir up (someone to commit a criminal act, or the criminal act itself). Abet.

1. Conspirators committed the crime of complicity. Conspirators solicited and/or procured another to commit criminal actions. Conspirators aided and abetted in the commission of criminal acts. Conspirators either associated themselves or participated in the criminal acts rendered against Newsome on or about September 9, 2009 and/or September 10, 2009. Under the Model Penal Code Conspirators can be an accomplice as a result of his/her conduct or the conduct of another for which that person is legally accountable. Conspirators intentionally gave a false impression for the purposes of accomplishing the object of the conspiracy pursued. Certain Conspirators knowingly made false statement and/or obtained fraudulent documentation – i.e. Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment and on or about April 29, 2009 Judge West's executed Entry Granting Bifurcation and Remand for the purpose of intentionally and deceiving through the issuance of a false and unlawful/illegal document to get Co-Conspirators to act upon it. IV. CORRUPTION

O.R.C. § 2923.31 Corrupt activity definitions.

As used in sections 2923.31 to 2923.36 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Beneficial interest" means any of the following:

(1) The interest of a person as a beneficiary under a trust in which the trustee holds title to personal or real property;

(2) The interest of a person as a beneficiary under any other trust arrangement under which any other person holds title to personal or real property for the benefit of such person;
(3) The interest of a person under any other form of express fiduciary arrangement under which any other person holds title to personal or real property for the benefit of such person.. . .

(E) "Pattern of corrupt activity" means two or more incidents of corrupt activity, whether or not there has been a prior conviction, that are related to the affairs of the same enterprise, are not isolated, and are not so closely related to each other and connected in time and place that they constitute a single event.

At least one of the incidents forming the pattern shall occur on or after January 1, 1986. Unless any incident was an aggravated murder or murder, the last of the incidents forming the pattern shall occur within six years after the commission of any prior incident forming the pattern, excluding any period of imprisonment served by any person engaging in the corrupt activity.

For the purposes of the criminal penalties that may be imposed pursuant to section 2923.32 of the Revised Code, at least one of the incidents forming the pattern shall constitute a felony under the laws of this state in existence at the time it was committed or, if committed in violation of the laws of the United States or of any other state, shall constitute a felony under the law of the United States or the other state and would be a criminal offense under the law of this state if committed in this state.. . .
(G) "Person" means any person, as defined in section 1.59 of the Revised Code, and any governmental officer, employee, or entity.

(H) "Personal property" means any personal property, any interest in personal property, or any right, including, but not limited to, bank accounts, debts, corporate stocks, patents, or copyrights. Personal property and any beneficial interest in personal property are deemed to be located where the trustee of the property, the personal property, or the instrument evidencing the right is located.

(I) "Corrupt activity" means engaging in, attempting to engage in, conspiring to engage in, or soliciting, coercing, or intimidating another person to engage in any of the following:. . .

(2) Conduct constituting any of the following:

(a) A violation of section 1315.55, 1322.02, 2903.01, 2903.02, 2903.03, 2903.04, 2903.11, 2903.12, 2905.01, 2905.02, 2905.11, 2905.22, 2907.321, 2907.322, 2907.323, 2909.02, 2909.03, 2909.22, 2909.23, 2909.24, 2909.26, 2909.27, 2909.28, 2909.29, 2911.01, 2911.02, 2911.11, 2911.12, 2911.13, 2911.31, 2913.05, 2913.06, 2921.02, 2921.03, 2921.04, 2921.11, 2921.12, 2921.32, 2921.41, 2921.42, 2921.43, 2923.12, or 2923.17; division (F)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of section 1315.53; division (A)(1) or (2) of section 1707.042; division (B), (C)(4), (D), (E), or (F) of section 1707.44; division

(A)(1) or (2) of section 2923.20; division (J)(1) of section 4712.02; section 4719.02, 4719.05, or 4719.06; division (C), (D), or (E) of section 4719.07; section 4719.08; or division (A) of section 4719.09 of the Revised Code.. . .

(J) "Real property" means any real property or any interest in real property, including, but not limited to, any lease of, or mortgage upon, real property. Real property and any beneficial interest in it is deemed to be located where the real property is located. . . .

O.R.C. § 2923.32 Engaging in pattern of corrupt activity.

(A)(1) No person employed by, or associated with, any enterprise shall conduct or participate in, directly or indirectly, the affairs of the enterprise through a pattern of corrupt activity or the collection of an unlawful debt.

(2) No person, through a pattern of corrupt activity or the collection of an unlawful debt, shall acquire or maintain, directly or indirectly, any interest in, or control of, any enterprise or real property.

(3) No person, who knowingly has received any proceeds derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of corrupt activity or the collection of any unlawful debt, shall use or invest, directly or indirectly, any part of those proceeds, or any proceeds derived from the use or investment of any of those proceeds, in the acquisition of any title to, or any right, interest, or equity in, real property or in the establishment or operation of any enterprise.

A purchase of securities on the open market with intent to make an investment, without intent to control or participate in the control of the issuer, and without intent to assist another to do so is not a violation of this division, if the securities of the issuer held after the purchase by the purchaser, the members of the purchaser's immediate family, and the purchaser's or the immediate family members' accomplices in any pattern of corrupt activity or the collection of an unlawful debt do not aggregate one per cent of the outstanding securities of any one class of the issuer and do not confer, in law or in fact, the power to elect one or more directors of the issuer.

(B)(1) Whoever violates this section is guilty of engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity. Except as otherwise provided in this division, engaging in corrupt activity is a felony of the second degree. Except as otherwise provided in this division, if at least one of the incidents of corrupt activity is a felony of the first, second, or third degree, aggravated murder, or murder, if at least one of the incidents was a felony under the law of this state that was committed prior to July 1, 1996, and that would constitute a felony of the first, second, or third degree, aggravated murder, or murder if committed on or after July 1, 1996, or if at least one of the incidents of corrupt activity is a felony under the law of the United States or of another state that, if committed in this state on or after July 1, 1996, would constitute a felony of the first, second, or third degree, aggravated murder, or murder under the law of this state, engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity is a felony of the first degree. If the offender also is convicted of or > pleads guilty to a specification as described in section 2941.1422 of the Revised Code that was included in the indictment, count in the indictment, or information charging the offense, engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity is a felony of the first degree, and the court shall sentence the offender to a mandatory prison term as provided in division (D)(7) of section 2929.14 of the Revised Code and shall order the offender to make restitution as provided in division (B)(8) of section 2929.18 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person may be convicted of violating the provisions of this section as well as of a conspiracy to violate one or more of those provisions under section 2923.01 of the Revised Code.

Conspirators engaged in conspiring to extort, coerce and intimidate Newsome to force her to forego protected rights. Record evidence will support that Conspirators knew and/or should have known that Newsome would not waive her rights and neither did Conspirators have permission to enter her storage unit and take her property. Through such coercion Stor-All for the purposes of extortion, blackmail, intimidation, etc. filed a malicious Forcible Entry and Detention action against Newsome on or about January 20, 2009. Stor-All's Forcible Entry and Detainer action was met with Newsome's Answer to Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer; Notification Accompanying Counter-Claim; Counter-Claim and Demand for Jury Trial as required by law.[20] Stor-All doing so with efforts to get Newsome to forego protected rights – such efforts which failed.[21] Stor-All was very aggressive, hostile, intimidating and threatening, etc. in trying to get Newsome to forego protected rights and attempting to set her up into going onto its property to retrieve her property wherein it knew and/or should have known that for Newsome to do so would preclude her from obtaining relief through the appropriate legal processes. When Newsome refused to waive protected rights, Conspirators set out to commit the crimes set forth herein and/or known to the FBI and/or its FBI Agents.

4. Conspirators in this instant Complaint have engaged in a PATTERN OF CORRUPT ACTIVITY. Conspirators in this instant Complaint by engaging in PATTERN OF CORRUPT ACTIVITY has committed a felony under this section.

5. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

6. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

V. AIDING AND ABETTING

> AID AND ABET DEFINED: [22]
> To assist or facilitate the commission of a crime, or to promote its accomplishment. – Aiding and abetting is a crime in most jurisdictions.
> >>>To "aid" is to assist to help another. To "abet" means, literally, to bait or excite. . . In its legal sense, it means to encourage, advise, or instigate the commission of a crime." 1 Charles E. Torcia, Wharton's Criminal Law § 29, at 181 (15th ed. 1993).

As a direct and proximate result of Judge West's and Judge Allen's role in the conspiracy, they aided and abetted the commission of a series of crimes to be carried out by other Conspirators. Judge West and Judge Allen aided and abetted with knowledge they were engaging in criminal activity – moreover, the record evidence will support that courts were timely, properly and adequately notified through filing of Newsome of criminal acts. Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

VI. EXTORTION and BLACKMAIL

EXTORTION DEFINED:[23]

(1) The offense committed by a public official who illegally obtains property under the color of office; esp., an official's collection of an unlawful fee.

(2) The act or practice of obtaining something or compelling some action by illegal means, as by force or coercion.

Extort Defined: [24]

[23] Blacks Law Dictionary – 8th Edition.
[24] Blacks Law Dictionary – 8th Edition.

(1) To compel or coerce (a confession, etc.) by means that overcome one's power to resist.

(2) To gain by wrongful methods; to obtain in an unlawful manner; to exact wrongfully by threat or intimidation.

O.R.C. § 2905.11 Extortion.

(A) No person, with purpose to obtain any valuable thing or valuable benefit or to induce another to do an unlawful act, shall do any of the following:

(1) Threaten to commit any felony;
(2) Threaten to commit any offense of violence;
(3) Violate section 2903.21 or 2903.22 of the Revised Code;
(4) Utter or threaten any calumny against any person;
(5) Expose or threaten to expose any matter tending to subject any person to hatred, contempt, or ridicule, or to damage any person's personal or business repute, or to impair any person's credit.

(B) Whoever violates this section is guilty of extortion, a felony of the third degree.

(C) As used in this section, "threat" includes a direct threat and a threat by innuendo.

Blackmailing:

Jones v. State, 14 Ohio C.C. 363 (Ohio.Cir.,1897) - The crime of blackmailing . . . may be committed by accusing one of a crime punishable by law, or of any immoral conduct, etc., with intent to extort or gain from him any chattel, money, etc., or by knowingly sending or delivering any letter or writing, or any printed or written communication, accusing or threatening to accuse any person of a crime punishable by law, etc., or to do an injury to the person or property of any person with intent to extort or gain, etc.

State v. Brunswick, 44 N.E.2d 116 (Ohio.App.8.Dist. 1941) - Under statute defining blackmail and providing in substance that "Whoever, with menaces, orally * * * threatening to * * * do any injury to the person or property of another * * * with intent to compel him to do an act against his will, may be fined," the words "with menaces" and "threatening" are equivalent to the single word "threats", and the word "orally" applies not only to threats by one who demands of another a chattel, money or valuable security but also to threats by one "to do any injury to the person or property of another * * * with intent to compel him to do an act against his will." Gen.Code, § 13384.

1. In the fulfillment of Judge Allen's role in the conspiracy, Co-Conspirators on or about September 9, 2009 executed Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment for the purposes of obtaining fees from such criminal acts. The Writ of Execution executed by Judge Allen states in part, "YOU ARE THEREFORE HEREBY COMMANDED to cause the defendant(s) to be removed from said premises and said plaintiff(s) to have restitution of the same; also, that you levy of the goods and chattels of said defendant(s), and make costs aforesaid, and all accruing costs." See EXHIBIT "2" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein. Writ of Execution is supported by Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment. See EXHIBIT "3" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

2. Judge Allen knew and/or should have known that she was acting without jurisdiction over the subject matter and any ruling by her would be NULL/VOID. Moreover, Stor-All knew and/or should have known that Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment of Judge Allen was NULL/VOID. There is sufficient evidence in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302) as well as Hamilton County Municipal Court (Case No. 09CV01690) to sustain said knowledge that that Judge Allen, Stor-All and Co-Conspirators were aware that Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment were UNENFORCIBLE.

3. Stor-All in furtherance of conspiracy leveled against Newsome engaged in acts and practices to obtain Newsome's storage unit and property through their malicious Forcible Entry and Detainer Complaint by illegal means and purposes of: force and coercion, extortion, and blackmail, etc.

4. Conspirators gained by wrongful methods and obtaining in an unlawful manner the storage unit and property of Newsome for purposes of threat and intimidation.

5. Judge Allen with purpose of aiding and abetting Stor-All and other Co-Conspirators in obtaining Newsome's storage unit and property: (a) Threatened to commit any felony; (b) Threatened to commit any offense of violence; (c) Violate sections applicable under the Revised Code; (d) Utterance or threaten any calumny against Newsome; (e) Exposed or threatened to expose any matter tending to subject Newsome to hatred, contempt, or ridicule, or to damage Newsome's personal reputation and business reputation, and to impair Newsome's credit. 6. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

VII. BRIBERY

Bribery Defined:
The corrupt payment, receipt, or solicitation of a private favor for official action.
● Bribery is a felony in most jurisdictions.

Bribe Defined:
A price, reward, gift, or favor bestowed or promised with a view to pervert the judgment of or influence the action of a person in position of trust.

>>>"The core concept of a bribe is an inducement improperly influencing the performance of a public function meant to be gratuitously exercised." John T. Noonan Jr., Bribes xi (1984).

O.R.C. § 2921.02 Bribery.
(A) No person, with purpose to corrupt a public servant or party official, or improperly to influence him with respect to the discharge of his duty, whether before or after he is elected, appointed, qualified, employed, summoned, or sworn, shall promise, offer, or give any valuable thing or valuable benefit.

(B) No person, either before or after he is elected, appointed, qualified, employed, summoned, or sworn as a public servant or party official, shall knowingly solicit or accept for himself or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit to corrupt or improperly influence him or another public servant or party official with respect to the discharge of his or the other public servant's or party official's duty.

(C) No person, with purpose to corrupt a witness or improperly to influence him with respect to his testimony in an official proceeding, either before or after he is subpoenaed or sworn, shall promise, offer, or give him or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit.

> (D) No person, either before or after he is subpoenaed or sworn as a witness, shall knowingly solicit or accept for himself or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit to corrupt or improperly influence him with respect to his testimony in an official proceeding.
>
> (E) Whoever violates this section is guilty of bribery, a felony of the third degree.
> (F) A public servant or party official who is convicted of bribery is forever disqualified from holding any public office, employment, or position of trust in this state.

1. Judge Allen's execution of Writ of Execution demands corrupt payment and/or receipt of corrupt payment – payment of monies through unlawful/illegal practices – as a favor to Stor-All and other Co-Conspirators. Said bribery is a felony under Ohio law.

2. Judge Allen executed Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment (with knowledge jurisdiction was lacking) for the purposes of obtaining a price, reward and favor for Stor-All and other Co-Conspirators. Said acts by Judge Allen was done with the view to pervert the judgment and with knowledge that her rulings where NULL/VOID and UNENFORCIBLE. Said bribery was done to influence the outcome of lawsuit pending in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302). Judge Allen being a person in the position of trust; however, has through said bribery breached the integrity of the Hamilton County Municipal Court and breached the Code of Judicial Conduct. The appearance of impropriety is evident. In receipt of the commission of said bribery, Judge Allen induced improperly the influenced and performance of a public function which was not legally authorized and prohibited by Ohio statutes/laws.

3. Conspirators with purpose to corrupt Judge Allen and Judge West respectively through the means of bribery and improperly to influence Judge Allen and Judge West with respect to the discharge of their judicial functions, paid monies for fees and services judges demanded that were not legally and/or lawfully authorized – i.e. obtained through criminal acts and/or in furtherance of the conspiracy leveled against Newsome.

4. Conspirators knowingly solicited, influenced and accepted for themselves or others Newsome's storage unit and personal property therein (i.e. valuable things) through corrupt practices and improper motives by influencing Judge Allen to unlawfully/illegally execute Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment - in the discharge of her judicial duties under which she was fully aware she was not lawfully authorized to perform. In exchange for such criminal acts, Judge Allen further sought to receive and/or benefit through financial gain and/or profit - YOU ARE THEREFORE HEREBY COMMANDED to cause the defendant(s) to be removed from said premises and said plaintiff(s) to have restitution of the same; also, that you levy of the goods and chattels of said defendant(s), and make costs aforesaid, and all accruing costs." See EXHIBIT "2" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

5. Conspirators with purpose to corrupt witnesses (i.e. Co-Conspirators) and improperly influence them with respect to their testimony in an official proceeding, after obtaining the NULL/VOID and/or illegal/unlawful Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment gave Co-Conspirators valuable personal property belonging to Newsome that was obtained in the commission of criminal activity through the components of the object [i.e. Conspiracy, Public Corruption, Complicity, Corruption, Aiding and Abetting, Extortion, Blackmail, Bribery, Coercion, Retaliation, Pattern of Conduct, Intimidation, Deprivation of Rights, Power/Failure to Prevent, Stalking/Menacing by Stalking, Burglary, Trespass, Breaking and Entering, Theft, Larceny, Invasion,

Such efforts are memorialized in Stor-All's pleadings in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302) submitted for filing: September 10, 2009 Motion to Lift the Court Ordered Stay and September 18, 2009 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss and/or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Newsome's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached] – to support charges in FBI Criminal Complaint.

6. Conspirators (Lori A. Whiteside and Leslie Smart respectively) provided sworn and notarized Affidavits before and/or after the commission of criminal acts in furtherance of object [i.e. Conspiracy, Public Corruption, Complicity, Corruption, Aiding and Abetting, Extortion, Blackmail, Bribery, Coercion, Retaliation, Pattern of Conduct, Intimidation, Deprivation of Rights, Power/Failure to Prevent, Stalking/Menacing by Stalking, Burglary, Trespass, Breaking and Entering, Theft, Larceny, Invasion, Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action, Obstruction of Justice, Color of Law, Conspiracy Against Rights, Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights] of conspiracy leveled against Newsome for the purposes of unlawfully/illegally obtaining Newsome's storage unit and personal property therein. Said Conspirators were promised Newsome's storage unit and personal property in exchange for their Affidavits provided before and/or after the commission of the criminal actions underlying the object of the conspiracy leveled against Newsome.

7. Based upon the criminal acts of BRIBERY committed by Conspirators, if they are found guilty of said criminal acts that each carried out in the furtherance of conspiracy to bring about the criminal actions leveled against Newsome and the completion of the conspiracy leveled against her, that Conspirators be CONVICTED of bribery and FOREVER DISQUALIFIED from holding public office, employment, or position of trust in the State of Ohio.

8. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

9. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

VIII. COERCION

O.R.C. § 2905.12 Coercion.

(A) No person, with purpose to coerce another into taking or refraining from action concerning which the other person has a legal freedom of choice, shall do any of the following:

(1) Threaten to commit any offense;

(2) Utter or threaten any calumny against any person;

(3) Expose or threaten to expose any matter tending to subject any person to hatred, contempt, or ridicule, to damage any person's personal or business repute, or to impair any person's credit;

(4) Institute or threaten criminal proceedings against any person;

(5) Take, withhold, or threaten to take or withhold official action, or cause or threaten to cause official action to be taken or withheld.

(B) Divisions (A)(4) and (5) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit a prosecutor or court from doing any of the following in good faith and in the interests of justice:

(1) Offering or agreeing to grant, or granting immunity from prosecution pursuant to section 2945.44 of the Revised Code;

(2) In return for a plea of guilty to one or more offenses charged or to one or more other or lesser offenses, or in return for the testimony of the accused in a case to which the accused is not a party, offering or agreeing to dismiss, or dismissing one or more charges pending against an accused, or offering or agreeing to impose, or imposing a certain sentence or modification of sentence;

(3) Imposing a community control sanction on certain conditions, including without limitation requiring the offender to make restitution or redress to the victim of the offense.

(C) It is an affirmative defense to a charge under division (A)(3), (4), or (5) of this section that the actor's conduct was a reasonable response to the circumstances that occasioned it, and that the actor's purpose was limited to any of the following:

(1) Compelling another to refrain from misconduct or to desist from further misconduct;

(2) Preventing or redressing a wrong or injustice;

(3) Preventing another from taking action for which the actor reasonably believed the other person to be disqualified;

(4) Compelling another to take action that the actor reasonably believed the other person to be under a duty to take.

(D) Whoever violates this section is guilty of coercion, a misdemeanor of the second degree.

(E) As used in this section:

(1) "Threat" includes a direct threat and a threat by innuendo.

(2) "Community control sanction" has the same meaning as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.

1. Conspirators engaged in criminal acts with purpose to coerce Newsome into payment of monies to which they were not entitled, initiated or encouraged the malicious lawsuit filed against Newsome.

2. Conspirators: (a) threatened to commit any offense against Newsome; (b) Uttered or threatened any calumny against Newsome; (c) Exposed or threatened to expose any matter tending to subject Newsome to hatred, contempt, or ridicule, to damage Newsome's personal and business reputation, or to impair Newsome's credit; and (d) took official action and/or caused malicious lawsuit to be brought against Newsome.

3. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

4. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

IX. RETALIATION

TITLE 18 § 1513(b), (e) – (g). RETALIATING AGAINST A WITNESS, VICTIM, OR AN INFORMANT: . . .

(b) Whoever knowingly engages in any conduct and thereby causes bodily injury to another person or damages the tangible property of another person, or threatens to do so, with intent to retaliate against any person for—

> (1) the attendance of a witness or party at an official proceeding, or any testimony given or any record, document, or other object produced by a witness in an official proceeding; or . . .

(e) Whoever knowingly, with the intent to retaliate, takes any action harmful to any person, including interference with the lawful employment or livelihood of any person, for providing to a law enforcement officer any truthful information relating to the commission or possible commission of any Federal offense, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 10 years, or both.

(f) Whoever conspires to commit any offense under this section shall be subject to the same penalties as those prescribed for the offense the commission of which was the object of the conspiracy.

(g) A prosecution under this section may be brought in the district in which the official proceeding (whether pending, about to be instituted, or completed) was intended to be affected, or in which the conduct constituting the alleged offense occurred.

O.R.C. § 2921.05 Retaliation.

(A) No person, purposely and by force or by unlawful threat of harm to any person or property, shall retaliate against a public servant, a party official, or an attorney or witness who was involved in a civil or criminal action or proceeding because the public servant, party official, attorney, or witness discharged the duties of the public servant, party official, attorney, or witness.

(B) No person, purposely and by force or by unlawful threat of harm to any person or property, shall retaliate against the victim of a crime because the victim filed or prosecuted criminal charges.

(C) Whoever violates this section is guilty of retaliation, a felony of the third degree.

1. Conspirators knowingly engaged in conduct causing damages to tangible property of Newsome and threatened injury/harm with intent to retaliate against Newsome because of their knowledge her being party in an official proceeding or giving of testimony, records or documents or other objects produced in an official proceeding.

2. Conspirators knowingly, with the intent to retaliate, took action harmful to Newsome, including interference with her employment and livelihood because of their knowledge of Newsome providing to law enforcement officials and/or federal officials relating to the commission of their duties in handling charges brought by her, are to be fined under this Title or imprisoned not more than 10 years. Because of the scope of the "PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE"/"PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT" underlying the conspiracy against Newsome*, she seeks the application of both (fine and imprisonment) – said acts of these conspirators have been in furtherance of an ongoing conspiracy which has now been going on for approximately 24 years.*

3. Conspirators retaliated against Newsome because of their knowledge that she has and/or is presently engaging in protected activities.

4. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

5. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

X. PATTERN OF CONDUCT

CUT & PASTED FROM:
http://www.fbi.gov/hq/cid/civilrights/statutes.htm

Title 42, U.S.C., Section 14141
Pattern and Practice

This civil statute was a provision within the Crime Control Act of 1994 and makes it unlawful for any governmental authority, or agent thereof, or any person acting on behalf of a governmental authority, to engage in a pattern or practice of conduct by law enforcement officers or by officials or employees of any governmental agency with responsibility for the administration of juvenile justice or the incarceration of juveniles that deprives persons of rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

Whenever the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that a violation has occurred, the Attorney General, for or in the name of the United States, may in a civil action obtain appropriate equitable and declaratory relief to eliminate the pattern or practice.

Types of misconduct covered include, among other things:

1. Excessive Force
2. Discriminatory Harassment

3. False Arrest
4. Coercive Sexual Conduct
5. Unlawful Stops, Searches, or Arrests

O.R.C. §2323.52 CIVIL ACTION TO DECLARE PERSON VEXATIOUS LITIGATOR.

(2) "Vexatious conduct" means conduct of a party in a civil action that satisfies any of the following:

(a) The conduct obviously serves merely to harass or maliciously injure another party to the civil action.

(b) The conduct is not warranted under existing law and cannot be supported by a good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law.

(c) The conduct is imposed solely for delay.

(3) "Vexatious litigator" means any person who has habitually, persistently, and without reasonable grounds engaged in vexatious conduct in a civil action or actions, whether in the court of claims or in a court of appeals, court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court, whether the person or another person instituted the civil action or actions, and whether the vexatious conduct was against the same party or against different parties in the civil action or actions. "Vexatious litigator" does not include a person who is authorized to practice law in the courts of this state under the Ohio Supreme Court Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio unless that person is representing or has represented self pro se in the civil action or actions.

XI. INTIMIDATION

O.R.C. § 2921.03 Intimidation.

(A) No person, knowingly and by force, by unlawful threat of harm to any person or property, or by filing, recording, or otherwise using a materially false or fraudulent writing with malicious purpose, in bad faith, or in a wanton or reckless manner, shall attempt to influence, intimidate, or hinder a public servant , party official, or witness in the discharge of the person's duty.

(B) Whoever violates this section is guilty of intimidation, a felony of the third degree.

(C) A person who violates this section is liable in a civil action to any person harmed by the violation for injury, death, or loss to person or property incurred as a result of the commission of the offense and for reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and other expenses incurred as a result of prosecuting the civil action commenced under this division. A civil action under this division is not the exclusive remedy of a person who incurs injury, death, or loss to person or property as a result of a violation of this section.

1. Conspirators knowingly and by force through written correspondence unlawfully threaten to bring harm Newsome and/or her property and carried out said threats which were initiated by malicious lawsuit (Forcible Entry and Detainer Complaint) filed against her on January 20, 2009. Forcible Entry and Detainer Complaint and its subsequent pleadings is materially false, fraudulent and was brought with malicious intent, in bad faith and in a wanton and reckless disregard to Newsome's rights and presented for purposes of hindering and obstructing the administration of justice.

2. Conspirators have violated this section and therefore guilty of intimidation which is a felony.

3. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

4. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

§ 1.14 Search warrants and general warrants (1851)

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and possessions, against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, particularly describing the place to be searched and the person and things to be seized.

CUT & PASTED FROM:
http://www.legislature.state.oh.us/constitution.cfm?Part=1&Section=01
§ 1.01 Inalienable Rights (1851)

All men are, by nature, free and independent, and have certain inalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and seeking and obtaining happiness and safety.

1. Judge Allen by executing Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment caused Newsome to be deprived of rights secured to her under the Constitution (Ohio and U.S), Civil Rights Act, Landlord & Tenant Act, and other statutes/laws governing said matters.

2. Newsome, as a victim of criminal offenses, was deprived fairness, dignity and respect in the handling of lawsuit filed in the Hamilton County Municipal Court (Case No. 09CV01690) and transferred to the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302) and has been deprived due process of laws – rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution (Ohio and U.S.).

3. Conspirators carrying out criminal acts on or about September 9 and/or 10, 2009, Newsome was not notified of September 9, 2009 of Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment being executed – said information was deliberately withheld from Newsome for purposes of depriving her protected rights secured to her under the Constitution (Ohio and U.S.). Newsome had to obtain a copy of said ruling from the Clerk's Office of the Hamilton County Municipal Court.

4. Conspirators caused to be done on or about September 9 or 10, 2009, unreasonable seizure by the use of a NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment known to them to be UNENFORCIBLE.

5. Conspirators through their actions deprived Newsome inalienable rights, life, liberty, property, etc. without due process and deprived Newsome equal protection of the laws. Therefore, infringing upon Newsome's rights secured/guaranteed under the Constitution (Ohio and U.S.), Civil Rights Act and other statutes/laws governing said matters.

6. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

7. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

XIII. POWER/FAILURE TO PREVENT:

1. Newsome requests through the filing of this instant Complaint and investigations as to whether or not there has been negligence to prevent the crime and/or criminal actions taken against her pursuant to 42 USC § 1986:

> Every person who, having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done, and mentioned in section 1985 of this title, are about to be committed, and having power to prevent or aid in preventing the commission of the same, neglects or refuses so to do, if such wrongful > act be committed, shall be liable to the party injured, or his legal representatives, for all damages caused by such wrongful act, which such person by reasonable diligence could have prevented; and such damages may be recovered in an action on the case; and any number of persons guilty of such wrongful neglect or refusal may be joined as defendants in the action; . . .

Conspirators had knowledge of any of the criminal [i.e. Conspiracy, Public Corruption, Complicity, Corruption, Aiding and Abetting, Extortion, Blackmail, Bribery, Coercion, Retaliation, Pattern of Conduct, Intimidation, Deprivation of Rights, Power/Failure to Prevent, Stalking/Menacing by Stalking, Burglary, Trespass, Breaking and Entering, Theft, Larceny, Invasion, Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action, Obstruction of Justice, Color of Law, Conspiracy Against Rights, Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights] actions committed and/or to be committed by each other, and having the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the commission of such crimes, neglected or refused to do so. Therefore, Newsome is requesting that said Conspirators be prosecuted and indicted from any and/or all criminal wrongs rendered Newsome.

> O.R.C. § 2921.22 Failure to report a crime or knowledge of a death or burn injury.
> (A) (1) Except as provided in division (A)(2) of this section, no person, knowing that a felony has been or is being committed, shall knowingly fail to report such information to law enforcement authorities.

2. Conspirators had knowledge and/or should have had knowledge that there was a conspiracy to interfere with civil rights of Newsome and/or was about to be done and having the power to prevent and/or aid in preventing the commission of the criminal acts leveled against Newsome, neglected, refused and/or failed so to do. As a direct and proximate result of said negligence, refusal and failure, Conspirators obtained the components of the object [i.e. Conspiracy, Public Corruption, Complicity, Corruption, Aiding and Abetting, Extortion, Blackmail, Bribery, Coercion, Retaliation, Pattern of Conduct, Intimidation, Deprivation of Rights, Power/Failure to Prevent, Stalking/Menacing by Stalking, Burglary, Trespass, Breaking and Entering, Theft, Larceny, Invasion, Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action, Obstruction of Justice, Color of Law, Conspiracy Against Rights, Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights] needed to bring about the completion of the object/goal [i.e. COVER-UP and destroying evidence through criminal acts of Stor-All in the unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's storage unit and property without legal/lawful authority. Said cover-up and destroying of evidence could not be accomplished without: (a) Stor-All obtaining an unlawful/illegal Entry by Judge West on or about April 29, 2009, Granting Bifurcation and Remand. Once Judge West completed his role in the conspiracy – with knowledge that Municipal Court lacked jurisdiction – Stor-All pounced on such criminal acts of Judge West and filed in the Hamilton County Municipal Court (Case No. 09CV01690) its Motion for Partial Summary Judgment With Affidavit of Leslie Smart Attached; and (b) Judge Allen on September 9, 2009, executed NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment. Once Judge Allen completed her role in the conspiracy, Stor-All and other Co-Conspirators moved swiftly to act Allen's rulings. As a direct and proximate result of Judge West's and Judge Allen's role in the conspiracy, they aided and abetted the commission of a series of crimes to be carried out by other Conspirators. Judge West and Judge Allen aided and abetted with knowledge they were engaging in criminal activity – moreover, the record evidence will support that courts were timely, properly and adequately notified through filing of Newsome of criminal acts. To no avail. Judge Allen and Judge West willingly and knowingly authorized the carrying out of criminal acts against Newsome. Having the power to prevent, elected instead to engage in the crimes of their Co-Conspirators.] which was accomplished. - - - Now Stor-All is attempting to use the NULL/VOID of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment as a defense to obtain a lifting of a court-ordered stay and dismissal of Newsome's counterclaim. Such efforts are memorialized in Stor-All's pleadings in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302) submitted for filing: September 10, 2009 Motion to Lift the Court Ordered Stay and September 18, 2009 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss and/or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Newsome's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached] – to support charges in FBI Criminal Complaint.

3. Conspirators by reasonable diligence could have prevented the criminal actions leveled against Newsome.

4. Conspirators had knowledge and/or knew that a felony in the commission of criminal actions leveled against Newsome was about to be and/or was being committed; however, failed to report such information to law enforcement authorities.

5. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

6. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

XIV. STALKING/MENACING BY STALKING:

O.R.C. §2903.211 Menacing by stalking.

(A)(1) No person by engaging in a pattern of conduct shall knowingly cause another person to believe that the offender will cause physical harm to the other person or cause mental distress to the other person. . . .

(B) Whoever violates this section is guilty of menacing by stalking.. . .

(2) Menacing by stalking is a felony of the fourth degree if any of the following applies:. . .

(e) The offender has a history of violence toward the victim or any other person or a history of other violent acts toward the victim or any other person.. . .
(h) In committing the offense under division (A)(1), (2), or (3) of this section, the offender caused serious physical harm to the premises at which the victim resides, to the real property on which that premises is located, or to any personal property located on that premises, or, as a result of an offense committed under division (A)(2) of this section or an offense committed under division (A)(3) of this section based on a violation of division (A)(2) of this section, a third person induced by the offender's posted message caused serious physical harm to that premises, that real property, or any personal property on that premises.. . .

(i) Prior to committing the offense, the offender had been determined to represent a substantial risk of physical harm to others as manifested by evidence of then-recent homicidal or other violent behavior, evidence of then-recent threats that placed another in reasonable fear of violent behavior and serious physical harm, or other evidence of then-present dangerousness. . .

(D) As used in this section:

(1) "Pattern of conduct" means two or more actions or incidents closely related in time, whether or not there has been a prior conviction based on any of those actions or incidents. Actions or incidents that prevent, obstruct, or delay the performance by a public official, firefighter, rescuer, emergency medical services person, or emergency facility person of any authorized act within the public official's, firefighter's, rescuer's, emergency medical services person's, or emergency facility person's official capacity, or the posting of messages or receipt of information or data through the use of an electronic method of remotely transferring information, including, but not limited to, a computer, computer network, computer program, computer system, or telecommunications device, may constitute a "pattern of conduct."

O.R.C. §2903.22 Menacing.

(A) No person shall knowingly cause another to believe that the offender will cause physical harm to the person or property of the other person, the other person's unborn, or a member of the other person's immediate family.

(B) Whoever violates this section is guilty of menacing. Except as otherwise provided in this division, menacing is a misdemeanor of the fourth degree. If the victim of the offense is an officer or employee of a public children services agency or a private child placing agency and the offense relates to the officer's or employee's performance or anticipated performance of official responsibilities or duties, menacing is a misdemeanor of the first degree or, if the offender previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense of violence, the victim of that prior offense was an officer or employee of a public children services agency or private child placing agency, and that prior offense related to the officer's or employee's performance or anticipated performance of official responsibilities or duties, a felony of the fourth degree.

O.R.C. § 2903.21 Aggravated menacing.

> (A) No person shall knowingly cause another to believe that the offender will cause serious physical harm to the person or property of the other person, the other person's unborn, or a member of the other person's immediate family.
> (B) Whoever violates this section is guilty of aggravated menacing. Except as otherwise provided in this division, aggravated menacing is a misdemeanor of the first degree. If the victim of the offense is an officer or employee of a public children services agency or a private child placing agency and the offense relates to the officer's or employee's performance or anticipated performance of official responsibilities or duties, aggravated menacing is a felony of the fifth degree or, if the offender previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense of violence, the victim of that prior offense was an officer or employee of a public children services agency or private child placing agency, and that prior offense related to the officer's or employee's performance or anticipated performance of official responsibilities or duties, a felony of the fourth degree.

1. Conspirators engaged in a pattern of conduct knowingly caused Newsome to believe that Conspirators would cause her physical harm, mental distress, etc. in the carrying out of both civil and criminal wrongs leveled against Newsome.

2. Conspirators violating this section are guilty of menacing by stalking.

3. Conspirators through their "PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE"/"PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT" underlying the conspiracy against Newsome committed the crime of menacing by stalking and therefore, to be charged with said felony.

4. There is record evidence to support pattern of conduct and history of Conspirators engaging in criminal/civil wrongs against Newsome. Conspirators in the carrying out of criminal actions on or about September 9 and 10, 2009, did so in furtherance of conspiracy to interfere with rights of Newsome, obstructing justice, deprivation of rights, etc.

5. In committing the offense under this section, Conspirators caused to be done serious physical harm to real property in the storage unit of Newsome.

6. Conspirators prior to the committing of criminal acts of September 9 and 10, 2009, were determined to represent and/or cause substantial risk/harm to Newsome and/or her real property.

7. There is record evidence to sustain that Conspirators committed actions or incidents closely related in time in furtherance of conspiracy initiated by Stor-All and in furtherance of conspiracies initiated by Co-Conspirators in other matters against Newsome made known to Stor-All underlying the conspiracy leveled against her. Conspirators doing so based upon their knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activity. See EXHIBIT "1" Meranus Letter 2/6/09.

8. On or about February 6, 2009, Meranus advised Newsome of his knowledge of her engagement in protected activities. On said date, Newsome advised Meranus:

This will confirm that during the signing of the attached Magistrate's Decision, you brought to my attention your knowledge of legal actions brought by me in New Orleans, Louisiana. Information I believe a reasonable mind will conclude has no bearing on the above referenced lawsuit. I gather your bringing of this information was done to blackmail and/or extort monies from me – thinking I was going to drop my Counter-Claim against your client. I gathered from the way you presented the information to me, you that I was going to back down. To your disappointment, I advised you that I had a feeling that there were illegal motives behind the filing of this lawsuit on behalf of your client (Stor-All Alfred, LLC). It also appears your arrogance got the best of you. At least I now have additional information as to the reason and ill motives behind you and/or your client contacting Wood & Lamping and the reasons underlying my termination (along with the Conflict of Interest – Thomas J. Breed's relationship with Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin – my working directly with Breed at Wood & Lamping and the conflict that would arise if Wood & Lamping were to represent me in this matter. So to appease you and your client, my employment with Wood & Lamping was terminated and I was denied rights under the Family & Medical Leave Act, etc.) SHAME, SHAME, SHAME!!!!!!

I advised you that I was just up in Washington, D.C. in December 2008 addressing concerns of such unlawful/criminal acts committed by you and/or your client. This stalking, harassing, etc. me from state-to-state, job-to-job (CONTACTING MY EMPLOYER), is clearly prohibited by laws/statutes and clearly in violation of my Constitutional Rights (Ohio and United States), Civil Rights, Landlord & Tenant Act, etc. Thanks for confirming my beliefs as to Wood & Lamping's motives. This is well deserved information.

While you seemed to be comfortable in advising me that it is the insurance company that is going to pay the liability, what you failed to understand is that the divulgence of your knowledge of matters regarding me in New Orleans, Louisiana opens the doors for additional claims of and against you, your law firm (Schwartz Manes Ruby & Slovin), Stor-All Alfred, LLC, Wood & Lamping and who knows who else. I THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU. . . . . for such good news. I shared during my trip to Washington, D.C. continued concerns of conspiracies to destroy my life, liberties and pursuit of happiness, etc. and such willful, malicious and wanton acts as that committed by you and others to continue to cause me irreparable harm/injury.

My termination from employment with Wood & Lamping, LLP, your acknowledgment in Court today in efforts of extorting and/or blackmailing me, (along with other reasons known to you) etc. is clearly UNACCEPTABLE!!!! Your acts which not only violate the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, but that of the Ohio Code of Professional Conduct and/or other statutes/laws governing such matters. You are aware that I have filed the appropriate Motion for Sanctions and through this motion am I not only seeking sanctions but, if possible, your disbarment. When you use your profession to interfere with the life of another for unlawful/illegal gain; moreover, for racial and/or prejudicial reasons, I do not believe as an "officer of the court" that you uphold neither the integrity nor the respect of the Court and/or judicial process. The criminal/civil wrongs you, your client and others have committed against me have cause irreparable injury/harm and such acts which cannot go unaddressed.

Again, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU. . . . You know this is news/information that needs to be shared. This was the nail I needed to expose and shine the light on such criminal/civil wrong. Did you and others in cohort with you not understand the message sent on November 4, 2008 (Presidential Election) – CHANGE, NOT MORE OF THE SAME!!!!

See EXHIBIT "2" attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

9. There is record evidence to support that Conspirators were timely, properly and adequately placed on notice that Newsome believed they intended to cause her physical harm, mental distress as well as physical harm to her property. In the interest of justice and for her well being Newsome made it known that she would not put herself in harms way; therefore, Newsome would not and did not attend any hearings set in the Hamilton County Municipal Court out of belief that Conspirators intended to subject her to further injury/harm.

10. Based upon Meranus' confirmation of him and his client's stalking of Newsome, a reasonable mind may conclude that she had just cause to believe that Conspirators would cause her serious physical harm as well as harm to her property. Moreover, at the hearing on March 11, 2009, in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302), Meranus attempted to induce Newsome to come onto the property of Stor-All; however, Newsome out of belief of being set up for further injury/harm advised Meranus that she would be abiding by the statutes/laws governing said matters. Moreover, Meranus and Co-Conspirators knew and/or should have known for Newsome to retrieve her property would be a waiver of any defenses she had; moreover, may have been a set-up to get Newsome on the property for purposes of subjecting to further crimes – i.e. murder, etc. – wherein they would create and/or falsify reasons for taking her life. Especially with knowledge that Meranus and Co-Conspirators were aware of conspiracies leveled against Newsome in unrelated matters and in furtherance of said knowledge, conspired to further such PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE/PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT underlying conspiracy against Newsome.

65 Ohio Jur.3d § 164 – Notice to vacate; bringing possessory action:

A notice by the landlord that the tenancy is being terminated, combined with a demand by him or her for possession of the premises, and voluntary compliance therewith by the tenant without protest, is not an eviction for which damages may be recovered. (Greenberg v. Murphy, 16 Ohio C.D. 359, 1904 WL 1147 (Ohio Cir. Ct. 1904)). [Practice Guide: If the tenant is rightfully in possession and entitled to remain, the tenant SHOULD AWAIT legal proceedings that are threatened, and make defense thereto, RATHER THAN COMPLY with the demand*, and then bring an action for alleged damages that perhaps never would have resulted. (Greenberg)]

Where a tenant, upon request or notice to vacate, VOLUNTARILY abandons the premises without protest, no action for damages against the landlord, based on fraud or misrepresentations as to the reasons for such request can be maintained under rights recognized by the common law, or any statute of Ohio. (*Ferguson v. > In an eviction action for nonpayment of rent brought by a landlord pursuant to RC Ch 1923, a tenant MAY RESPOND by asserting any legal defense he has to that action, pursuant to RC 1923.061(A), and/or by filing a COUNTERCLAIM for damages caused by the landlord's breach of the rental agreement and/or the landlord's breach of his duties under RC 5321.04. Smith v. Wright (Ohio App. 1979) 65 Ohio App.2d 101, 416 N.E.2d 655, 19 O.O.3d 59.

11. As a direct and proximate result of Conspirators knowledge of Newsome's engagement in protected activities, they have engaged in criminal actions of menacing by stalking. Moreover, have initiated and/or engaged in the stalking of Newsome from job-to-job, employer-to-employer, and state-to-state. Upon determining where she lives or work, Conspirators then put into action the carrying out of additional crimes against her with ill and malicious intent.

12. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

13. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

XV. BURGLARY AND BREAKING & ENTERING:

> Burglary - (2) The modern statutory offense of breaking and entering any building - not just a dwelling, and not only at night - with the intent to commit a felony.
>
> Burglar - One who commits burglary.
>
> Burglarized - To commit burglary.
>
> Breaking - (Criminal Law): In the law of burglary, the act of entering a building without permission.
> > "[T]o constitute a breaking at common law, there had to be the creation of a breach or opening; a mere trespass at law was insufficient. If the occupant of the dwelling had created the opening, it was felt that he had not entitled himself to the protection of the law, as he had not properly secured his dwelling . . . In the modern

> American criminal codes, only seldom is there a requirement of breaking. This is not to suggest, however, that elimination of this requirement has left the 'entry' element unadorned, so that any type of entry will suffice. Rather, at least some of what was encompassed within the common law 'breaking' element is reflected by other terms describing what kind of entry is necessary. The most common statutory term is 'unlawfully,' but some jurisdictions use other language, such as 'unauthorized,' by 'trespass,' 'without authority,' 'without consent,' or 'without privilege.' Wayne R. LaFave & Austin W. Scott Jr., Criminal Law §8.13 at 793-94 (2d ed. 1986).

1. As a matter of law, Conspirators acted as burglars in the burglarizing of Newsome's storage unit located at 1109 Alfred Street – Unit 173, Cincinnati, Ohio 45214. Therefore, Newsome is requesting through this instant Complaint that an investigation into the claims and allegations set forth herein and that those found to have acted in such unlawful/illegal manner be prosecuted and indicted for said legal wrongs.

2. Newsome learned of the criminal actions of Conspirators upon contacting the Clerk of Court's Office in the Hamilton County Municipal Court on September 10, 2009.

3. Conspirators committed a criminal offense and/or modern statutory offense of burglary wherein they used, participated and/or unlawfully authorized excessive force and breaking force in entering Newsome's storage unit with deliberate, willful and malicious intent to commit a felony. Said Conspirators knowingly and deliberately with malicious intent entered the storage unit of Newsome without her permission. Prior to such unlawful/excessive use of force by Conspirators, they were timely, adequately and properly put on notice that they were engaging in criminal activity through written documentation – i.e. filings in the Hinds County Municipal Court (Case No. 09CV01690) and Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302) and that their acts were criminal in nature; moreover, Forcible Entry and Detainer Complaint was frivolously and maliciously brought. Conspirators were already in unlawful/illegal possession of Newsome's storage unit and property because they took the laws into their own hands and her storage unit and property without legal authority. Newsome's storage unit was properly secured and locked upon her leasing of unit on July 27, 2007, to prevent the unlawful/illegal entry by Conspirators engaging in the unlawful/illegal eviction/removal. Newsome taking the necessary steps to secure her privacy, protect her property, life, liberties and pursuit of happiness. To no avail.

On or about September 9, 2009, despite Newsome's efforts to protect her storage unit and property/possession, she was subjected to burglary, theft, larceny, unauthorized entry, illegal/unlawful Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment authorized by Judge Allen who lacked jurisdiction to execute legal process, unlawful/illegal seizure of her property/possession and storage unit; and trespassing, etc., - all being done without prior notice to Newsome and without Newsome's consent and without privilege afforded under the statutes/laws governing said matters.

4. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through an investigation to be guilty of the crime of burglary, conspiracy to commit burglary, and/or their participation in such burglary set forth herein against Newsome's storage unit/property. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said burglary was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglects or refuses to do so.

5. On September 9, 2009, Judge Allen executed Writ of Execution and Judge Allen and Meranus executed Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment. Said Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment, as a matter of law, is NULL/VOID. Judge Allen executed said Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment to aid and abet Conspirators in the crime of burglary of and against Newsome. By the execution of said documents, on or about said date Conspirators completed the object [burglary and other crimes] of conspiracy. Conspirators breaking and entering into the storage unit of Newsome and provided components of the object [i.e. Conspiracy, Public Corruption, Complicity, Corruption, Aiding and Abetting, Extortion, Blackmail, Bribery, Coercion, Retaliation, Pattern of Conduct, Intimidation, Deprivation of Rights, Power/Failure to Prevent, Stalking/Menacing by Stalking, Burglary, Trespass, Breaking and Entering, Theft, Larceny, Invasion, Unlawful Entry/Forcible Action, Obstruction of Justice, Color of Law, Conspiracy Against Rights, Conspiracy to Interfere With Civil Rights] needed to bring about the completion of the object/goal [i.e. COVER-UP and destroying evidence through criminal acts of Stor-All in the unlawful/illegal seizure of Newsome's storage unit and property without legal/lawful authority. Said cover-up and destroying of evidence could not be accomplished without: (a) Stor-All obtaining an unlawful/illegal Entry by Judge West on or about April 29, 2009, Granting Bifurcation and Remand. Once Judge West completed his role in the conspiracy – with knowledge that Municipal Court lacked jurisdiction – Stor-All pounced on such criminal acts of Judge West and filed in the Hamilton County Municipal Court (Case No. 09CV01690) its Motion for Partial Summary Judgment With Affidavit of Leslie Smart Attached; and (b) Judge Allen on September 9, 2009, executed NULL/VOID Writ of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment. Once Judge Allen completed her role in the conspiracy, Stor-All and other Co-Conspirators moved swiftly to act Allen's rulings. As a direct and proximate result of Judge West's and Judge Allen's role in the conspiracy, they aided and abetted the commission of a series of crimes to be carried out by other Conspirators. Judge West and Judge Allen aided and abetted with knowledge they were engaging in criminal activity – moreover, the record evidence will support that courts were timely, properly and adequately notified through filing of Newsome of criminal acts. To no avail. Judge Allen and Judge West willingly and knowingly authorized the carrying out of criminal acts against Newsome. Having the power to prevent, elected instead to engage in the crimes of their Co-Conspirators.] which was accomplished. - - - Now Stor-All is attempting to use the NULL/VOID of Execution and Entry Granting Writ of Immediate Possession and Partial Summary Judgment as a defense to obtain a lifting of a court-ordered stay and dismissal of Newsome's counterclaim. Such efforts are memorialized in Stor-All's pleadings in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas (Case No. A0901302) submitted for filing: September 10, 2009 Motion to Lift the Court Ordered Stay and September 18, 2009 12(B)(6) Motion to Dismiss and/or Motion for Summary Judgment on Defendant Newsome's Counterclaim With Affidavits of Leslie Smart and Lori Whiteside Attached] – to support charges in FBI Criminal Complaint. Conspirators were not legally and/or lawfully authorized to enter Newsome's storage unit and neither did Newsome give said Conspirators permission to enter her storage unit.

6. Newsome through the filing of this instant Complaint seeks an investigation and the prosecution and indictment of Conspirators found through said investigation to be guilty of violations under this section and/or their participation in such acts set forth herein against Newsome. Moreover, all Conspirators that knew and/or had knowledge that said crime was about to be committed and/or being committed and did nothing to prevent - having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done was about to be committed, and having the power to prevent or aid in the preventing of such criminal acts; however, neglected or refused to do so.

7. Newsome demands that the applicable charges be filed of and against Conspirator(s) found through the investigation of this Complaint to have committed said crime(s); moreover, that said Conspirators be indicted and if applicable that the maximum penalty [i.e. fine and imprisonment] be sought if the evidence supports a PATTERN-OF-PRACTICE and/or PATTERN-OF-CONDUCT by Conspirator(s) who committed said crime(s). Newsome further seeks any and all applicable relief known to the FBI, its Agents/Investigators, etc. to deter such criminal acts and to protect the public and/or citizens.

XVI. THEFT:

Theft - (1) The felonious taking and removing of another's personal property with the intent of depriving the true owner of it; larceny [Cases: Larceny §1. C.J.S. Larceny ~§1(1,2), 9.] (2) Broadly, any act or instance of stealing, including larceny, burglary, embezzlement, and false pretenses.

Under such a statute it is not necessary for the indictment charging theft to specify whether the offense is larceny, embezzlement or false pretenses." Rollin M. Perkins & Ronald N. Boyce, Criminal Law 389-90 (3d ed. 1982).

Theft by Deception - The use of trickery to obtain another's property, esp. by (1) creating or reinforcing a false impression . . . (2) preventing one from obtaining information that would affect one's judgment about a transaction, or (3) failing to disclose, in a property transfer, a known lien or other legal impediment.

Theft by Extortion - Larceny in which the perpetrator obtains property by threatening to (1) inflict bodily harm on anyone or commit any other criminal offense. . . (4) take or withhold action as an official, or cause an official to take or withhold action, (5) bring about . . .collective unofficial action, if the property is not demanded or received for the benefit of the group in whose interest the actor purports to act, (6) testify or provide information or withhold testimony or information with respect to another's legal claim or defense, or (7) inflict any other harm that would not benefit the actor.

Theft of Services - The act of obtaining services from another by deception, threat, coercion, stealth, mechanical tampering, or using a false token or device.

O.R.C. §2913.01 Theft and fraud general definitions.. . .

(A) "Deception" means knowingly deceiving another or causing another to be deceived by any false or misleading representation, by withholding information, by preventing another from acquiring information, or by any other conduct, act, or omission that creates, confirms, or perpetuates a false impression in another, including a false impression as to law, value, state of mind, or other objective or subjective fact.

(B) "Defraud" means to knowingly obtain, by deception, some benefit for oneself or another, or to knowingly cause, by deception, some detriment to another.

(C) "Deprive" means to do any of the following:

(1) Withhold property of another permanently, or for a period that appropriates a substantial portion of its value or use, or with purpose to restore it only upon payment of a reward or other consideration;
